2. The debtor may in lieu of tools and implements or of chattels ordinarily used in his occupation referred to in subdivision 6 of section 2 of said Act elect to receive the proceeds of the sale thereof up to $100, in which case the officers executing the writ shall pay the net proceeds of such sale if the same shall not exceed $100, or if the same shall exceed $100, shall pay that sum to the debtor in satisfaction of the debtor's right to exemption under said subdivision 6, and the sum to which a debtor shall be entitled hereunder shall be exempt from attachment or seizure at the instance of a creditor.

3. Section 9 of the said Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:

Notwithstanding anything contained in the next preceding four sections, the various goods and chattels which are now liable to seizure in execution for debt shall, as respects debts which have already been or shall be contracted prior to the first day of October, 1887, remain liable to seizure and sale in execution provided that the writ of execution under which they are seized has endorsed upon it a certificate signed by the Judge of the Court out of which the writ issues certifying that it is for the recovery of a debt contracted before the date hereinbefore mentioned.

4. This Act shall take effect on, from and after the first day of October, 1887.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 12.

There was a lively discussion at the Property Committee meeting yesterday afternoon as to whether or not the Local Land League should be allowed the use of St. Andrew's Hall on Tuesday next for the purpose of the O'Brien lecture.

Ald. Graham moved the following resolution:

That in the interest of the public welfare, and considering it undesirable that one of the public halls of the city should be used for the purpose of delivering a party harangue, it is expedient to cancel the letting of the St. Andrew's Hall to Mr. J. A. Mulligan for May 17, and that the Treasurer be instructed to return the fees.

In amendment Ald. Baxter moved:

That the City Treasurer be instructed to demand a cash deposit of $100 and a bond for the sum of $500, conditioned to make good to the city any damage that may be done to St. Andrew's Hall on the evening of May 17.

In speaking to his resolution, Ald. Graham said he had not much sympathy for the Old Country landlordism, but as far as he could ascertain Lord Lansdowne was a good landlord. They respected the Queen's representative, and they could not stand by and see him openly insulted. Ald. Baxter feared there would be a breach of the peace, hence his motion. Ald. Gillespie said free speech was a sacred right, but at the same time no one deprecated more than he did Mr. O'Brien's visit. Chairman Irwin took the stand that the hall should be denied the league. He thought it a monstrous thing that when these disturbers could not get a private hall they should be given the use of a hall which was the property of the citizens at large, so many of whom objected to the plans and purposes of the persons who were going to use it for O'Brien's purposes. Ald. Carlyle (St. Andrew's) and ex-Ald. Hall, speaking for the citizens living in the neighborhood of St. Andrew's Hall, protested against Mr. O'Brien lecturing there, on the ground that if a riot occurred the property in the vicinity would be liable to damages.

Mr. Mulligan, President of the Local Land League, was present, and declared that he had obtained the use of the hall after it was known by the officials in the Treasurer's office for what purpose it was to be put. He contended that if the use of the hall was refused to him he could obtain damages in a court of law. The city, Mr. Milligan said, was bound to afford them protection.

Ald. Boustead then moved the following resolution:

That, having heard the statement made by Ald. Carlyle and ex-Ald. Hall, that the residents of St. Andrew's Ward are afraid that if Mr. O'Brien is allowed to use the hall there will be a riot, and the city's property will be destroyed; therefore, be it resolved that the use of the hall be not granted, and that the amount paid be refunded.

Ald. Graham and Ald. Baxter withdrew their motions, and Ald. Boustead's was carried.

The Mayor and the Agitator.

Mayor Howland yesterday received this telegram:

MONTREAL, May 12, 1887.—Mayor Howland, Toronto: I perceive you have convened a meeting of citizens of Toronto to demand official prohibition of my meetings. If you will in fair play procure me a hearing I shall esteem it a privilege to attend your meeting and explain the motives and object of my visit.

WILLIAM O'BRIEN.

His Worship at once sent the following answer:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, TORONTO, May 12.—To William O'Brien, Montreal: I cannot encourage you to come to Saturday's meeting. You are misinformed as to the facts, as you probably have been as to the sentiment of our people here. The meeting has not been called to demand official prohibition of your meetings, but to express the opinions of our citizens as to the propriety of your coming here at all. We understand your object in coming is to attack the representative of Her Majesty at present our guest, on personal grounds, as to the truth of which, as matters of fact, we neither can nor should be called on to be judges. Our sense of fair play here will not justify the attack on the public platform of a gentleman, who by reason of the high office which he holds is not privileged to meet and answer his accuser in like manner. If you persist in coming I shall have to afford you the protection which the law allows, but I would advise you to accept the decision of Saturday's meeting, which I believe will represent the true sentiments of all classes in this city.

W. H. HOWLAND.

The Meeting in the Park.

The mass meeting in the Park to-morrow afternoon will be addressed by Bishop Sweatman, Bishop Sullivan, Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. Wild, Rev. Canon Dumoulin, Rev. G. W. Milligan, Prof. Goldwin Smith and other gentlemen.

Overworked.

"My husband strained himself with overwork, causing a large swelling in the groin. He suffered great agony, which doctors failed to relieve; he could not eat nor sleep. B. B. B. quickly cured him. He says he never had such quick relief in his life." Extract from a letter from Mrs. George Bosk, Cookville, Ont. 2w17d

WAKE UP! WAKE UP!

All You High-Price and Would-be Clothiers.

GOUGH

The Wonderful Cheap Man, Rings Out his Alarm.

This week he is going to hurl a tirade of prices at you that will besiege his place of business with anxious buyers, and break you all up. Our three flats are packed with NEW GOODS, and we can show MORE CLOTHING THAN THE WHOLE KIT OF YOU COMBINED, including the tail end of a few Dry Goods Stores that carry a few shoddy Suits. Energy will tell, and the people appreciate it. Our business is not on paper; it is a reality, and the result of long, and patient study and hard work.

READ

YOU BABY CLOTHIERS,

What the CLOTHIER of the Age is is going to do for the next

THIRTY DAYS,

and when you read, REFLECT, and when you reflect, COME and BUY FROM HIM, for you cannot Buy from any Wholesale House in Canada at the annexed prices:—

LOT 1.—Mens Blue Serge Suits for $3.50, not mark you, old faded out brown shoddy serge, such as you can buy elsewhere for $3.75, but a pure Indigo dye, warranted fast color, and to cost you $8.00 from any other dealer.

LOT 2.—Mens All Wool Waterloo Tweed Suits for $4.00. This is a beautiful black and brown check, trimmed with a silk serge lining, and the lowest wholesale price of it is guaranteed to be $6.50. We show a dozen different patters in this line to select from.

LOT 3.—Mens West of England and Scotch Tweed Suits at $5.50, $6, $7 & $8. Are made and trimmed equal to custom work, and if made to order would cost you from $15 to $22. With this line of goods we throw you in 10 yards of Embroidery and one pair of Corsets. Such goods are too trifling for the Wonderful Cheap Man to sell, and are assigned to his Gift Department.

LOT 4.—Mens Fine French Worsted Suits for $10 and $12, not backed good, but pure worsted, worth $25 made to order. We have thousands of these goods to select from.

LOT 5.—Boys Suits From 98 cents per suit up. We really cannot afford anything out of our Gift Department with this suit, but to make it interesting, and not disappoint the boy, we will throw in a Cap.

In our Hat and Cap Department we sell a Fine Soft Felt Hat for 20c. worth 80c. and a Fine Stiff Felt Hat, newest style, for 75c. worth $1.50.

In Our Furnishing Goods and Boot Department, suffice to say we stand unique, and are almost giving them away, if you doubt it, call and see if we don't give you something handsome without effecting your pocket. Workingmen try a pair of our 50c. Cottonade Pants, they are worth $1.

We want the Whole Country to Come and See what we are doing

THEREFORE, I WILL PAY RAILROAD FARE WITHIN A RADIUS OF 100 MILES OF PETERBOROUCH TO EVERY PERSON COMING TO PETERBOROUCH AND PURCHASING $10 WORTH OF GOODS OR UPWARDS FROM ME.

Remember, I have removed from the old store in the Arcade Buildings, under the Opera House, and I am now located in the store formerly known as the Bon Marche. You cannot mistake my place. SPORTING OF SPORT.

Whisperings from Woodbine—Meeting of the Hunt—Notes.

The coming meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club promises to be the largest and most successful race meeting yet held in Canada.

The track is fast getting into shape and the Deacon is hard at work with the track machine.

The whitewash brush is being freely used and the course will soon present a beautiful appearance.

The bookmaking will not be confined to one firm this year, there will be two betting stands and probably more, which will give the public a better chance to invest their money and make longer odds.

The trainers are at work with their chargers. Some of them were on the track yesterday morning as early as 6 o'clock.

Fred Henry and imported Lady Dayrell, in Charley Phair's stable, were sent a mile at daybreak yesterday, the watch stopping at 1.57½. Surprise, in the same stable, went a quarter in 36 seconds.

Charley Gates' pair, Williams and Harry Cooper, went a mile in 1.14, the steeplechaser finishing in front.

Jonathan Scott sent Jim Ferris and Fanny Carter a mile in 1.49½.

Blanton, of the Wellington Stable, D. W. C. and Augusta from the Halton Stable, galloped a mile in 1.58, the son of Bonnie Scotland being first to the wire.

Lelex, in Owens' Stable, has shown the best mile as yet of any of the horses at the track.

Felix and Bonnie Duke in Owens' Stable worked half a mile in 58 seconds. The balance of the spring did slow work.

Wild Rose, in the Halton Stable, is a little under the weather at present, and is confined to slow work.

RACING ON THE PIMLICO COURSE.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 12.—The weather was fine for the third day's racing at Pimlico and the track was in fair condition. Before the start Jennie B. was restless and in kicking broke one of the legs of Mooro, the colored jockey on Wicklow, and that horse was withdrawn and Mooro was sent to the hospital. The winners of the day were Britannic, Lizzie Baker, Buffalo, Tells Doe and Pat Sheedy.

FIRST RACE—Purse $500, ¾ mile—Britannic, 108, won; Jennie B., 103, second; Patrocles, 108, third. Time 1.16¾.

SECOND RACE—THE CHESAPEAKE STAKES—For fillies 3 years old; half forfeit. Club to add $600, of which $100 to the second. 1¼ miles.

THE JESUIT BILL.

It Passes the Council Committee and is Certain to Become Law.

QUEBEC, May 12.—The Jesuit Bill passed the Council Committee this morning without amendment. Father Turgeon had telegrams from the Superior of the order dated May 5 and May 9 instructing him to proceed with the demands of the order and adding the approval of the Pope.

Vicar-General Hamel again appeared for the cardinal and read a telegram from the Pope, dated April last, stating that he could not interfere with lay representation, but authorizing Cardinal Taschereau to obtain a delay. It was argued that the latter part was only a suggestion of Cardinal Simeoni.

The preamble passed on division and the main motion unanimously. The measure is now certain to become law.

Edward Hen's Millions.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Mrs. Wagner, to whom Edward Hen, the tobacco merchant, left $2,000,000, has settled amicably with Hen's next of kin, who were about to contest the will. Mrs. Wagner, who was Hen's cashier, says she offered to compromise to avoid making public facts which the relatives would not relish.

An Irishman's Bull.

We are surrounded by difficulties and dangers, said Pat, from the cradle to the grave, and the only wonder is that we ever live long enough after having the one to reach the other. The greatest danger lies in allowing the seeds of disease to be sown in our system. If you feel dull and drowsy, have frequent headaches, bad taste in mouth coated tongue, poor appetite, you are suffering from a torpid liver. Take Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" if you would destroy those seeds and avoid reaping a harvest of suffering and death. 6dw18

A Good Life Preserver.

T. Milburn & Co., March 16th, 1886.

I was completely relieved from that dreadful disease dyspepsia, with only four bottles of that life preserver—B. B. B., and cheerfully recommend it to any one subject to such disease. P. Downey, Morrisburgh, Ont. 5w17d

World-wide is the reputation of West's Cough Syrup, the truly marvelous remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, asthma and consumption. All druggists.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends. In curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw6

A Bootless Victory.

Mr. Bascomb kicked a young man off the front stoop with his slippers on last night, and by the way he limps to-day you may be sure he has come to the conclusion that it was a bootless victory.

Honest and True.

This is the eminently the case with Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure. It is an honest remedy, for it contains the most powerful, the purest, and most certain pain subduing remedies known to medical science. It is honest, for it does all it claims to do. It is honest because it is the best in the world. It only costs 10 or 25 cents to try it, and you can buy a bottle at any drug store. Nerviline cures toothache, neuralgia, pain in the back and side. All pains are promptly relieved by Polson's Nerviline. 6dw19

A Common Occurrence.

Many bad joints, by which people are crippled for life, are made by neglected or badly treated rheumatism. Ida Plank, of Strathroy, Ont., was afflicted with rheumatism in her fingers so that she could not bend them. Yellow Oil cured her, and is a prompt cure for all painful complaints. 2w17d

Stanley de Africanus.

A yearling calf harnessed to a good-sized hand sled, and trained so that it will obey every command of its driver, is one of the attractions at Sioux City, Ia.

Sure to Satisfy.

There are many remedies for coughs and colds, but there are few that prove so satisfactory as Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which is a pleasant and reliable cure for all throat and lung troubles, including bronchitis, asthma, croup, whooping cough and the pulmonary complaints of young or old. 2w17d

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Medical Discovery rapidly heals under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Mig.-Joint Disease, White Swellings, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a treatise on Scrofulous Affections. If "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE," Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. PIERCE thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.

PRICE $1.00, OR 6 BOTTLES FOR $5.00.

The Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

Dramatic.

Wilson Day's Dramatic Company opens a week's engagement at the Opera House here on May 20th.

Explanation.

J. J. Sheehy's card to the public appears in this edition of the EXAMINER on the first page.

Turnbull's is the right house for Boys Clothing. His styles are new, and prices the lowest. Examine and be convinced.

The Gun Club.

The Gun Club will have a shoot this evening on Riverside Park. The weekly meets will in future be held on Friday evenings.

Sale of Racks

The sale of racks of the Peterborough Canoe Club takes place at the boat house this evening at 8 o'clock.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

Queen's Birthday Races.

The races in the Driving Park on the 24th May promise to be highly exciting and interesting. The track is in first class order, and there will be a good field of starters in every race. Mr. Alex. Elliott is secretary of the Association.

For reliable Kid Gloves, try the Alexandre make; to be had, in all the leading shades, at Turnbull's.

King Solomon's Mines

May have contained its dazzling treasures, but even they had nothing so suited to every da life as China Hall. Coloured tea sets at $2.50, and glass sets (6 pieces) at 30 cents.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 65c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Short Nights.

As the days become longer, we can afford to use more artificial light, and reading or sewing by lamp light may become a new pleasure by buying China Hall's famous Coal Oils. Same prices as inferior oils.

Arrived at Turnbull's by express, several quite new and stylish shapes in Bonnets and Hats, such as the Graceful, Tandan, Toboggan, Sylvia, Northwood, Essex, and others too numerous to mention.

Reviving the Read.

We understand, says the Cobourg Sentinel-Star, that Mr. Pierce has ordered the resumption of business on the C. P. & M. R. for next week. Now that the boat is running up the river to Peterborough, those wish to enjoy a day or two's recreation, could not find a nicer trip. We think the managers of the two lines should put their heads together and work something out of it.

Temperance Work.

The Church of England Temperance Society is holding a Conference in Toronto. At yesterday's proceedings Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, of Peterborough, read a paper, which, says the Globe, was a most valuable contribution to Temperance literature. It was full of valuable statistics, often startling in their importance, and of facts which surprised many of his hearers, accustomed as they were to matters of this kind.

Grand Lodge Officers.

The Grand Lodge of True Blues of Canada met in Merritton on Tuesday last, when the following officers were elected:—

W. G. M.—Robert Bantin[illegible], Lindsay.
D. G. M.—T. J. Boyle, Merritton.
G. Chap.—Rev. E. W. Sibbald, Belleville.
G. Sec'y.—J. W. Marshall, Kingston.
G. Treas.—T. W. Watson, London.
G. R. & C.—J. R. Mussel, Leaside.
G. Lecturer—P. C. Burrows, Cataract Falls.
2nd G. Lecturer—T. F. Hastings, St. Catharines.
1st Inside G. Lecturer—J. J. Smith, Peterborough.
2nd Inside Guard—R. Donnelly, St. Catharines.
G. Outside Guard—W. Mills, Toronto.

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. James Aikel, of Merritton.

Sent to Kingston.

Acting-Chief Adams this morning sent the Newton family—mother and two daughters about 15 years of age—to Kingston, which it is to be hoped they will remember. The town has been hardened and compelled to do quite much enough; let the Kingston City by his blast at supporting and educating them.

Peterborough's Importance.

A Dominion inspector asserts that the Peterborough post-office receives and makes up more mail than any town post-office in Canada. The important commercial position of the town results from its being the hub of a widely radiating railway system, which makes it the most easily accessible town in the Dominion, and one with the most complete railway facilities. Railway traffic reaches 224 leaves the town by no less than seven distinct routes of railway, no two of which are parallel, but all of which correspond to different points of the compass. Indeed, a map of the railways of Peterborough shows something like this °. Other things being equal, or nearly equal, the vast superiority of Peterborough's railway facilities and its growing commercial importance should decide in its favor any manufacturing enterprise seeking a permanent location.

Masonic Excursion to Toronto.

A meeting of the joint excursion committee of the various Masonic bodies in town, appointed to arrange for a grand excursion to Toronto, on Thursday, June 9th, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of the Midland District, was held on Thursday evening. Mr. W. Brundette was appointed chairman and Mr. W. Menzies secretary. Strong and influential sub-committees were appointed, and the fare from Peterborough fixed at $1.75 for the round trip. The Chairman and Secretary were also appointed to prepare and forward circulars to the various lodges along the line, soliciting their co-operation. Under such auspices the excursion will doubtless be the best of the season. The proceeds, we believe, will go to assist in liquidating the outlay connected with the elaborate furnishing of the new Masonic Temple now being erected on Water street.

See Turnbull's Carpets at 10c., 12½c., 15c., 17c., 20c. and 25c. a yard. Good patterns and grand value.

Central District Play.

A meeting of the representatives of the clubs competing for the Central District championship of Ontario, under the auspices of the Canadian Lacrosse Association, was held at Orillia yesterday. Mr. J. Phelan represented the Peterborough "Riversides." The following schedule of games was adopted:—

May 24—Young Torontos at Meaford.
June 10—Independents (Toronto) at Orillia.
June 16—Riversides (Peterborough) at Markham.
June 18—Young Torontos and Toronto Independents.
July 1—Young Torontos at Orillia.
July 1—Independents (Toronto) at Peterborough.
July 1—Markham at Meaford.
July 19—Independents (Toronto) at Markham.
July 19—Peterborough at Meaford.
July 27—Meaford at Orillia.
Aug. 1—Orillia at Peterborough.
Aug. 6—Markham at Toronto.
Aug. 15—Young Torontos at Peterborough.
Sept. 13—Meaford and Independents at Toronto.
Sept. 27—Orillia at Markham.

Matrimonial Congratulations.

A week or so ago Miss Ballantyne, a member of St. Andrews church choir, was married to Mr. Hiram Evans. Last evening her choir friends called upon her in a body to present to her their verbal congratulations, and after a few preliminaries Mr. Gallelly, in a nice little speech, presented the bride with a handsome silver cake basket which had been smuggled in among them, folded up like a hat, as a tangible token of their esteem, and regret at loosing her companionship. Mrs. Evans was completely surprised, but nevertheless made a suitable acknowledgment, which was given emphasis by the entertainment afterwards provided for the visitors. After enjoying a pleasant evening together, the party broke up at an early hour, Mrs. Evans much affected by the manifestations of regard on the part of her former choir companions, and the visitors departing for their homes, confirmed in their feelings of affection for their late associate. Cupid seems to have entered into a conspiracy with the young bachelors of our town to despoil St. Andrews' church choir of its lady members, as Miss Ballantyne's marriage makes the third departure therefrom in about a year.

Personal.

Mr. John Hackett was in Chambly, Que., yesterday, attending the funeral of his aunt.

Mr. James Rowland, late with the defunct Woodward Dramatic Co., in in town to-day.

Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, of Peterborough, is attending as a delegate the annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum, which opened in Woodstock on Wednesday.

Dr. A. E. Yelland left this morning for London, Eng., for the purpose of extending and perfecting his professional knowledge among the medical colleges and hospitals of the world's metropolis.

Hon. Mr. Millar on Wednesday presented to the Senate a petition from several inhabitants of the town of Peterborough for an act to amend the Canada Temperance Act.

Messrs. W. D. Scott and A. E. Yelland have passed their final examination before the Medical Council at Toronto, and Messrs. A. T. Emmerson and T. J. Moher their primary examinations.

Mr. W. H. Schofield has passed his second years's examination at Victoria University, Cobourg, taking first class honors in French, German and English.

Mr. John Sullivan, of the "Peterborough House", and James Sullivan, of Ashburnham, sailed per S. S. Polynesian (Allan Line), today, for a visit with friends in Ireland. They also intend seeing London, Paris, Berlin, Baden-Baden, Rome and the principal cities of Western Europe.

The numerous friends in Peterborough of Mr. D. J. King, of Lindsay, formerly an efficient member of the EXAMINER reportorial staff, will be pleased to learn that instead of the truculent occupation of "taking lives" he has Pacific intentions. He has received the appointment of manager of the Inland Sentinel, Kamloops, British Columbia. He will depart for his new home in a few days. The EXAMINER congratulates Mr. King on his appointment, and gives him every wish for that success, for which his creditable experience on this paper warrants the hope. His position as representative of the Sun Life Insurance Company Lindsay, will be filled by Mr. Wm. Thompson, Peterborough.

Mr. John Barnard, of Lindsay, has taken up his residence in Peterborough for a few months.

High Court of Justice.

Sitting of the [illegible] Court of Peterborough.

Found[illegible] Thursday.

The cases DUMBLE vs. THE PETERBOROUGH RIDING MUTUAL INSURANCE CO., has been referred to His Honor Judge Weller for disposition.

QUEEN vs WARNER.—When the first of these cases was called yesterday, the counsel for the prisoner moved to quash the indictment which charged the perjury arising out of the Lipsett liquor case, on the ground of uncertainty and want of precision, and on other grounds. His learning quashed this indictment. The objection being taken to the second indictment, which charged perjury arising out of the Lipsett assault case, the Crown Attorney withdrew the indictment and the prisoner was discharged on his own bail. Mr. R. E. Wood for the Crown; Mr. W. A. Stratton for the defendant Warner.

COX vs. CAVANAGH.—An action by Mr. Geo. A. Cox to eject Mr. Timothy Cavanagh from his hotel property. Notice to quit, served by Mr. Fenwick, required Mr. Cavanagh to go out of possession on May 1st, 1886. The defendant proved that February 1st was the end of his year, and, being so, the notice to quit was wrong. Certain questions were left to the Jury, who found in favor of the defendant's contention as to the commencement of his year, but on certain legal questions judgment was reserved. Mr. Dumble for plaintiff; Messrs Watson and Muir for defendant.

In BERALY vs WOOD, an action for alleged non-compliance with the Revised Statues of Ontario, cap. 3, chap. 9, providing for the delivering to every [illegible] and public school of the township [illegible] copy of the township voters' list by the township clerk, the plaintiff was non-suited. Plaintiff was formerly secretary of North Monaghan school board, and the defendant is clerk of the township.

This was an action which seems to have been prompted more by vindictiveness than a desire to further the ends of justice, or promote the interests of the country. The law requires township clerks to mail by registered letter, a copy of the voters list when completed, to every school teacher to be posted in the school house. The law also requires the Secretary of the school section to supply the township clerk with the names and addresses of the several teachers. The matter acted on by the plaintiff was of so petty a nature that it is no cause of surprise that the plaintiff was promptly non-suited. Mr. Peck and Mr. Poussette for plaintiff; Mr. Edwards and Mr. Watson (Toronto) for defendant.

STAR vs. LANGER.—An action for ejectment, adjourned till the fall assizes. Hatton & Wood for plaintiff; Mr. Poussette for defendant.

Magnificent Prizes.

The prizes offered for competition at the regatta at Idyl Wild on the 24th, three large pieces of silver comprising a cup, pitcher, etc., are on exhibition in the show window of Messrs. Fortye & Phelan.

Willow and Wicket.

The first "scratch" cricket match of the season will be played on the Ashburnham grounds to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock—Married vs. Single. The scores made in this match will count in the contest for the bat presented by Dr. Burnham.

A Note for No. 6.

The men of No. 6 Company, Peterborough Rangers, are particularly requested to turn out for drill next Tuesday evening. The officer in command is desirous of bringing the company to the highest state of proficiency, which can only be attained by regular drill.

Racing on the Streets.

This forenoon two juvenile John Gilpins came racing down Aylmer street, near Charlotte, with their horses at break-neck speed. They turned down Charlotte street, and one of them ran directly into Mr. Gibbs' hack, which was just at the corner wheeling towards the station. The lad was thrown to the ground and bruised, while his horse sustained rather severe injuries, the hack also being somewhat damaged. This lesson to the youths against racing on the public streets should be sufficient for them, and they may consider themselves fortunate that they have not been fined for breach of the town by-law.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC
FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Lech's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

O'BRIEN'S MISSION.

RUMORS AND RUMORS OF HIS COMING AND GOING.

TORONTO, May 14.

The O'Brien visit was the topic of conversation on the streets yesterday. Everywhere one went it was nothing but, "Well, what's O'Brien going to do?" or "Will there be a row, d'ye think?"

As usual rumors were plentiful. It was said that O'Brien would arrive here last night for certain and attempt to speak at the Park meeting this afternoon; that, if so, there would be a row; that, if so, there wouldn't be a row; that 150 policemen on foot and 17 on horseback would attend the Park meeting, and that the Leaguers would endeavor to have issued a mandamus to compel the city to grant the use of St. Andrew's Hall for Tuesday night.

A late and a most exclusive rumor was that the Leaguers had bills printed yesterday afternoon announcing that O'Brien would speak on the lot at King and Dufferin streets this afternoon while the other meeting was going on in the Park, and that these would be distributed this morning. But the very latest rumor went around between 10 and 11 last night. It was to the effect that Mr. O'Brien had arrived at North Toronto station at 9.10 and had been driven to the house of Mr. Mulligan.

The truth is about like this: Mr. O'Brien is determined to lecture here as evinced by this telegram of yesterday:

MONTREAL, May 13, 1887.

To J. A. Mulligan, President Toronto Branch Irish National League: It is of the utmost importance that a public meeting should be held in Toronto, no matter how small the hall. The Corporation breach of contract only strengthens our position. Quebec solid.
WILLIAM O'BRIEN.

He lectured in Quebec on Thursday night and left for the west yesterday morning, his telegram being dated from Montreal yesterday. Mr. O'Brien cancelled his engagement for Ottawa last night, and although those who ought to know profess ignorance of his movements he will in all probability reach Toronto this morning. Whether he will attempt to speak in the Park this afternoon remains to be seen. The Leaguers, it is said, will escort him there and demand a hearing.

The indications are that the Park this afternoon will hold the biggest crowd it has ever seen. The weather will be fine, the afternoon a half-holiday and mostly everybody will be there.

And just think of it! If a riot occurs in the Park there are 30,000,000 bricks on the ground waiting to be fired.

Chief Grasett will have a good number of policemen in the park, but up to last night it had not been decided to have a troop of mounted police there.

Should O'Brien appear in the Park there will be a row dead certain, so many of those who oppose his coming said yesterday.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Toronto Branch of the Irish National League was held last night in President Mulligan's office, but there was nothing done that it was desired to make public. The Branch meets in St. Vincent's Hall, Shuter and Victoria streets, at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

A VERDICT OF WILFUL MURDER.

The Coroner's Jury Condemns Fannie Smith for Infanticide.

A number of witnesses were examined by Coroner Johnson when the inquest upon the body of the child found in a trunk at the Albion Hotel was resumed yesterday afternoon at the City Morgue. The evidence of several domestics went to show that whilst the prisoner, Fannie Smith, was at the hotel her condition caused general unfavorable comment. Dr. Spencer testified that he had made an examination of the prisoner, and gave it as his opinion that she had been recently confined. Detective Alf. Cuddy swore that the prisoner had told him her name was Wilson and denied having been employed at the Albion.

The jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against the girl, and implicated her sister Carrie in the crime.

During the deliberations of the jury one of the members suggested raising a contribution for the prisoner. Coroner Johnson handed $2, the amount contributed to the prisoner, who mildly said: "Thank you."

Then one of the jurors asked the Coroner if he was to receive payment for his services as a juror, whereupon Coroner Johnson referred the questioner to the County Crown Attorney.

Carrie Smith, the prisoner's sister, who is charged as an accessory to the crime, is said to have gone to Buffalo or some other point.

The Coroner committed Fannie Smith for trial.

BUSY MEN DISCUSSING

COMMERCIAL UNION BEFORE THE BOARD OF TRADE.

One hundred leading members of the Board of Trade, including President William Ince, gathered in the rotunda of the Board's rooms last night and conducted one of the most important discussions that has taken place in Toronto for many months. The meeting was called to talk about "The Present and Prospective Commercial Relations of Canada with the United States." It had generally gone abroad that Mr. H. W. Darling, the Board's ex-president, and Goldwin Smith were to be the lions of the debate. They led off and had the first chance to convert the meeting to their views—straight out-and-out discipline of commercial union. The meeting as a whole was unmistakably opposed to the pet scheme of the big importer and eminent man of learning. Mr. D. R. Wilkie of the Imperial, at one stage of the meeting, told Mr. Darling that he should be the last man in the world to favor commercial union.

It was 9.30 when President Ince called the meeting to order, and in doing so (after announcing the subject of debate) said he hoped it would be discussed in a friendly way—he hoped the gentlemen would discuss the subject as merchants, and that politics would be kept out of the argument.

Among those present were:

Sidney Jeffrey,	F. Hall,
Wm. Carlisle,	C. Reid,
G. A. Cheesman,	Jos. Bell,
H. Reed,	C. Wilson,
W. D. Matthews, jr.,	J. McDougall,
H. W. Darling,	John Young,
Prof. Goldwin Smith,	W. H. Gerry,
J. H. Henderson,	John Cassils,
J. Knox Hamilton,	J. Cockshutt,
Alex. Boyd,	J. F. Eby,
J. D. Laidlaw,	A. A. Warren,
A. J. Telfer,	J. Edmundson, Oshawa,
W. Wilson,	R. Hunt,
F. Wyld,	J. M. Simpson,
D. Blain,	J. B. Miller,
W. B. Hamilton,	R. Jennings,
J. B. Harris,	R. Simpson,
D. Rose,	J. B. McGann,
R. W. Elliot,	H. Robinson,
R. Bong,	J. C. Copp,
R. Cumberland,	W. C. Mathews,
James Hedley,	J. Heintzman,
J. W. Lane,	H. Rooner,
W. J. McMaster,	P. Ryan,
R. Donald,	W. H. Knowles,
W. W. Ellis,	W. Williamson,
C. Josslyn,	J. Baltie,
John Mildrew,	Phillip Jamieson,
J. B. Keith,	M. McLaughlin,
W. Galbraith,	H. N. Baird,
J. Brown,	G. Berram,
W. Milborn,

Mr. Darling and Mr. Smith then offered this resolution:

That in conformity with the sentiment of the Canadian people, expressed at intervals with great unanimity for many years, this Board regards as advantageous to the mutual prosperity of the United States and Canada the removal of every possible restriction upon international trade, and affirms that the proposal for commercial union between the two countries is worthy the fullest investigation and most earnest consideration of the Canadian community.

Mr. Blain then moved an amendment and found a seconder in Mr. Joseph Simpson:

That this Board, while desiring friendly relations and friendly and just dealings with all nations, and especially with our neighbors and kindred people to the south of us, entertain the opinion that an agreement establishing free ports and unrestricted trade between the United States and Canada, and the adoption by both countries of a uniform high protective tariff against all other nations and countries, would not conduce to the welfare of the Canadian people. This Board therefore ventures to hope that some other mode, honorable and equitable to both countries, of adjusting any disputes now existing so as finally to dispose of them, may be found in the near future.

Mr. Wilkie thought that Mr. Darling should be the last man to support the movement, as commercial union would crush out the Canadian dry goods importers. Merchants in the Niagara, Windsor and Ottawa districts would naturally buy in the United States. As to the Northwest trade with them it would be out of the question, although Ontario expects to recoup herself for large investments by having her trade there continue. He thought that he could say something of the monetary institutions, and felt that they would suffer also from commercial union. Not being satisfied with any of the previous amendments, he moved, seconded by Mr. Thomas Davies the following amendment:

That in the opinion of this Board of Trade commercial union with the United States would be injurious if not disastrous to Canada, but that an imperial zollverein between Great Britain and her colonies and dependencies with a discriminating tariff in favor of its members is the true, natural and most desirable future for the Dominion.

Some lively talk may be looked for at the next meeting.

AFTER POWDERLY'S SCALP.

Socialists Striving to Secure the Deposition of the Master Workman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—The resolution passed by local Assembly No. 8133, Knights of Labor, of Portland, Oregon, to take "such steps as shall result in the summary deposition" of General Master Workman Powderly, reached this city yesterday. In this city the sentiments expressed in it and the preambles do not seem to meet with favor. The document is ascribed to members of the order who believe in socialism and who are friendly to the Anarchists.

Two Suicides in Central Park.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Two men committed suicide in Central Park this morning, one by poison and the other by hanging.

THE MEXICAN EARTHQUAKE.

The Loss of Life in the Affected District Said to be Appalling.

NOGALES, Ariz., May 13.—The special officer whom Governor Torres sent to the scene of disaster from Ures on Sunday returned this morning. He says while the first reports were exaggerated, the loss of life is appalling. The towns of Arispe and Opuro were completely destroyed, and from thirty-five to forty people were buried in the ruins and nineteen were severely injured. The towns of Granadas and Guasavas were greatly damaged. Several persons were injured and loss of life is also reported. The forests in the surrounding mountains and the crops of the valleys were consumed, and although the water has risen and the earth has opened at various points, no volcanos are visible. The district of Arispe in Northeastern Sonora suffered badly. The valley of Frontenas was inundated by water, and nearly all the houses of Frontenas were destroyed. Only one person, however, was killed—a young girl who was buried in the ruins of a falling house.

Honoring Jefferson Davis.

MERIDIAN, Miss., May 13.—At 11 o'clock yesterday morning a public reception was given to Jefferson Davis at the residence of Col. J. R. McIntosh. For two hours a perfect stream of people passed through the parlors and shook hands with Mr. Davis and his daughter. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon a banquet and reception were given in the Court House Grounds. Mr. Davis made a short address, in which he thanked the people for their reception. At this point the members of the Press Association, in a body, ascended the platform and presented their respects to him. Three hundred persons, comprising the most distinguished men in the state, attended the banquet which followed. Mr. Davis made a touching speech.

Poisoned by Impure Milk.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The Health authorities were notified to-day that nineteen persons had been poisoned in Harlem by impure milk which came from Brewster's Station, N.Y. Only one of the parties, a woman, is seriously affected.

The Hasian-Gaudaur Race.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 13.—It has been decided to row the Hasian-Gaudaur race on May 20 at Pullman, Ill.

Rowing at Harvard.

BOSTON, May 12.—In the Harvard rowing races to-day between the classes of '87, '88, '89 and '90, '87 won in 10.57. The course was two miles.

A JUBILEE AMNESTY.

HOW A CONSERVATIVE WOULD REPAY IRISH FRIENDS.

LONDON, May 13.—Mr. Edward Samuel Morris, progressive Conservative member for the Limehouse Division of Tower Hamlets, asked the Government in the House of Commons to-day whether in the event of the passage of the Coercion Bill, they would consider the question of recommending to the Queen, as one of the features of her jubilee celebration, the granting of general amnesty to all prisoners in Ireland under detention for agrarian crimes, but not guilty of personal violence. Mr. Smith, answering for the Government, said they were not in a position to make any such engagement.

Mr. Healy's Amendment.

LONDON, May 13.—Mr. Healy, in order to meet the case of Ulster, moved an amendment to the Crimes Bill, that an inquiry should be directed into a case of crime, whether in a proclaimed district or not, upon a sworn information by the injured party.

Mr. Holmes, Attorney-General for Ireland, repudiated the amendment as unnecessary.

Mr. Healy challenged Mr. Holmes to mention a single instance of any Orangeman having been hanged for the murder of a Catholic.

Mr. Holmes said he was glad that an opportunity was afforded him to explain his reason for saying that the blood of Gillen would be on the head of Earl Spencer. Earl Spencer knew that rival Nationalist and Orange meetings were announced to be held in Dromore on the same day, and he thought they ought to be prohibited. Therefore he (Holmes) maintained that the expression was justifiable.

Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt reproached Mr. Holmes with reiterating an expression intended to inflame party passion.

Mr. Balfour said the last speaker need not fear that the expression of Mr. Holmes would have an injurious effect upon the gentlemen below the gangway, and he tauntingly asked whether the Opposition would support an amendment extending to unproclaimed districts the operation of the clause which they were now opposing word by word.

Mr. Gladstone said he marvelled at Mr. Balfour's wishing a peaceful close of discussion after doing everything he could to exasperate passion. He (Gladstone) had heard Mr. Holmes' speech with the greatest regret. It appeared to him that Mr. Holmes said one thing in Parliament and another thing in Ireland.

The chairman, interrupting: "Order, order. The discussion is traveling wide of the subject. I think the matter should drop."

Mr. Gladstone resumed his seat after expressing regret that Mr. Balfour had chosen to prolong the discussion.

The amendment was withdrawn.

UPPER CANADA'S ATHLETES.

Names of Those Who Took First Place at the Annual Games of the College.

The Young Athletes of Upper Canada College were in their glory yesterday afternoon on the occasion of their annual games. The fact that they were to compete before the Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne and Governor and Mrs. Robinson made them even more ambitious than usual and they acquitted themselves well. A large number of ladies were present.

The following is the list of prize winners:

Throwing cricket ball—J. B. Pardee, 90 yds., 1 ft., 7 ins.

High jump—1, T. S. Dockray, 5 ft.; 2, W. Smith, 4 ft. 10 ins.

Hop, step and jump—1, F. C. Spence, 37 ft.; 2, J. Rolls, 36 ft. 6 in.

Standing long jump (16 and under)—1, C. W. Wilson, 8 ft. 10 in.; 2, F. Vernon, 8 ft. 4 in.

Standing long jump (open)—1, E. W. Smith; 2, T. D. Dockray.

Putting the shot—1, Bannerman, 30 ft.; 2, G. L. Phillips, 26 ft. 9½ ins.

Three-legged race (open)—C. M. Wallbridge and F. G. Wallbridge.

100 yards dash (11 and under)—1, F. Anderson; 2, H. Pardee.

220 yards race (open)—1, A. Montgomery; 2, E. W. Smith.

220 yards race (15 and under)—1, J. G. Wallbridge; 2, W. N. Ferguson.

Bicycle race, half-mile (open)—1, J. Macdonald; 2, E. Smart.

Steeplechase—1, J. Nicholson; 2, W. R. Moore.

Obstacle race—1, F. Wallbridge; 2, H. Perrin.

Quarter-mile race (ex-pupils)—1, H. E. Sewell; 2, H. C. Darrow.

Quarter-mile race (championship of college)—1, silver cup presented by Mrs. Robinson, F. Nicholson; 2, diamond pin presented by the Governor-General, A. Montgomery; 3, E. Smith.

The tug-of-war was between the matriculation class and the 6th form, the former winning by two straight pulls. The winners are Redgerow, Carroll, McGivern and Checker. The 6th form representatives were Battle, Bunting, Lees and Cameron.

Consolation race (15 and under), 100 yards—1, R. Macdonald; 2, F. Ireland.

General consolation race, 100 yards—W. L. Law.

The games were not concluded until nearly 6 o'clock. The prizes were distributed to the winners in the College Hall by Mrs. Robinson.

Messrs. Jackson and Gordon acted as judges, while J. G. Ferguson and A. T. Watt were the starters. The committee showed every attention to their visitors, and did their share towards the general success.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 13.

About 1000 prattling, chattering children occupied the ground floor and part of the gallery in the Pavilion Music Hall last night and kept up a bussing, before speaking was commenced, as only they could. The occasion was a mass meeting of the Bands of Hope of the city and it also was a termination of the Church of England Temperance Society conference which was held here this week. The Rev. Canon O'Meara of Port Hope was chairman. He and Messrs. G. W. Morley and Robert Graham delivered addresses of great interest to the children. The Bands of Hope there were from these churches: St. James', St. James the Less, St. Peter, St. Philip, St. Stephen, St. Barnabas, St. Matthias, and the Church of the Ascension. The bands' banners were on the platform and the little fellows from the Boys' Home who are part of St. James' Band of Hope were in the gallery with their fife and drum band which played several pieces before the proceedings began.

A week ago yesterday Rev. Alex. Williams of St. John's Church joined in wedlock Thomas Blackmore, aged 23, and Elizabeth Wesley, 22. Blackmore is a tuck-pointer living in Foxley-street. His bride is said to belong to Streetsville. When Blackmore came home from work Thursday evening he was dumb-founded to find that his bride of a week had flown. She left a letter and a photograph of the pair which had been taken after their marriage. Imagine the young man's consternation when he read in the letter: "Dear Tom—I have gone forever; you will never see me again." I have gone to live with my own husband."

When Blackmore reported the matter at Police Headquarters he was told to have his wife arrested for bigamy. The young man sadly answered: "I don't know where she has gone."

A wandering Italian and a tough-looking bear, trained to do a "dance act," were the cause of a serious runaway on Huron-street at 7.30 o'clock Thursday evening. The victims were W. J. Macdonald and his sister, Miss Florence, who were returning home from a visit to their uncle, Mr. Matthew Grey. The horse became frightened upon the approach of the bear and his master, and made off at a furious pace along Huron-street. At the corner of Washington-avenue the occupants of the buggy were thrown out, Mr. Macdonald was severely injured, receiving concussion for several hours, whilst Miss Macdonald was cut on the head and face. They were unable to be removed yesterday to their home in the country.

Constable Sproule has done good work in tracing the robberies that occurred last Saturday night in Rutherford's and Blake's stores. Early in the week he arrested five boys who are charged with the offence. On the charge laid yesterday afternoon he took into custody a young man named Grant McWatters, living at 14 Alexander-street west, on the charge of having received the stolen property. In the latter's trunk were found all Rutherford's goods and all of Blake's except a watch.

The Budget.

Speech by Sir Richard Cartwright in Reply to the Finance Minister.

We had not space yesterday for Sir Richard's reply to Sir Charles Tupper's budget. We give below a condensation of his incisive criticism.

Sir RICHARD CARTWRIGHT, on rising to reply, was received with cheers. He could hardly agree with Sir Charles that $225,000,000 of debt was as light a thing as he would make the House believe, or that our annual deficits were such insignificant trifles. He well remembered how the hon. gentleman when in Opposition, in days gone by, used to regard a deficit, not of $5,300,000 but of only $1,400,000. He recollected too that the Minister of Finance, and the First Minister too, declared that of one thing more than another the people of Canada might rest assured, and that was that the Canadian Pacific railway would not cost the country one cent. When the present Finance Minister, who then had charge of the Railway Department, first brought down his project for granting unheard of subsidies and exemptions to that undertaking, his leading argument in favour of aiding the company liberally at the outset was that they would not come back again for help. The first bargain with the company, made in 1881, was to be a final settlement, and in each succeeding year, as additional old or some modification of the original bargain was proposed, the House was solemnly assured that this was the final settlement. The hon. gentleman had in the past predicted that we were sure to realize from the land sales in the North-West before 1891 at least $58,000,000. It was interesting to see how these predictions had been borne out by facts. According to the public accounts, if up to date we deducted the expense of management from the amounts received from the sale of lands, we were $1,200,000 worse than nothing. To overtake the Government estimate of $66,000,000 receipts by 1891, we would require a revenue from land sales of nearly a million and a half dollars per month till that time, which was of course quite out of the question. Hon. gentleman opposite when advocating the National Policy, had predicted that it would increase the volume of our trade with Great Britian and diminish that with the United States. A comparison of our trade with these two countries during the past thirteen years, would show that this effect had not been produced. In 1873 our imports from Great Britain amounted to $68,500,000, and in 1886 they were $40,000,000, or about $28,000,000 less. From the United States we nominally imported in 1873 $47,250,000, of which about $7,000,000 represented goods in transitu, leaving a net importation of about $40,000,000. In 1886 our imports from the United States amounted to $44,856,000, so that while our imports from Great Britain had decreased by $28,000,000, our imports from the United States had increased by $4,800,000. During the same period our exports to Great Britain had increased and those to the United States had fallen off. With regard to estimates of the expenditure made by the Minister, he doubted very much whether they would prove to be correct, as the record of his predecessors in office was that their original estimates were very largely exceeded by the actual expenditure. The Finance Minister had spoken of reductions he proposed to make in certain items, but he might point out that there was a sum of $200,000 in the estimates for Franchise Act expenses, which was of no earthly use under heaven, except to do public mischief, and which might be saved with the greatest possible advantage. (Hear, hear.) He would like to ask the Finance Minister whether the supplementary estimates would not be brought down for half a million more, or probably the Government might do as they did last year, and cover the expenditures not provided for in the budget by Governor-General's warrants. (Hear, hear). The Honourable Minister had supplied a set of most interesting diagrams to the House, but among them he did not notice a diagram of the increasing debt. There was no diagram of the increase of taxes. He missed a diagram of the increase of expenditure. He missed most of all a diagram of the increase in prices of farmers' produce—(hear, hear)—which was one of the most prominent results of the blessed and beneficial National Policy. (Opposition cheers). He missed also that most interesting of diagrams showing the rapidity with which settlement had increased in Manitoba and the North-West Territories during the past few years; first, as compared with the adjoining territory of Dakota; next, as compared with the statements of the Finance Minister himself; and thirdly, as compared with the statements of our own immigration agents. With these five additional cases, the book would be tolerably complete. (Laughter and cheers).

The Finance Minister proposed to follow the the obnoxious system of charging certain expenses to capital account. There was a sum of $200,000 for rebellion expenses. Why did not the Minister follow the correct principle of charging them to the ordinary account, although it might increase the deficit?

Another suggestion he had to make to Sir Charles Tupper for reducing the expenditure was to strike out the atrocious vote for immigration purposes. He knew of no greater abuse than the tax imposed on the people of this country for the purpose of bringing out immigrants to compete with them. Sir Charles Tupper had congratulated the Minister of Railways on the present position of the Intercolonial railway. Those two hon. gentlemen between them had, however, added ten millions to capital account on account of the Intercolonial since Mr. Mackenzie was in power. It seemed as if the more the road increased the greater the deficit in working it became. The Minister had made a great point about the increase in the deposits in the Government Savings Banks. The hon. gentleman, however, forgot to speak of the enormous fall in the rate of interest, and at the present time he was paying to depositors in the Government banks at least 33 per cent. more than the current value of money in the open market. He (Sir Richard Cartwright) did not object to a reasonable encouragement to the poorer depositors, but by the returns which came down a few years ago it was proven that a considerable number of the depositors had large accounts exceeding two thousand dollars. He strongly objected to the gross abuse of having large sums of money put into the hands of the Government at rates largely exceeding the current value of the day. The hon. gentleman had boasted of the energy which the Government had displayed in constructing the Canadian Pacific Railway, but he could not admit it was any proof of the wisdom of their policy that by their own misconduct they first provoked the Metis to rebellion and now turned round and said they constructed a railroad to be ready in time the rebellion broke out. (Cheers and laughter.)

The debate was adjourned, Sir Richard having the floor.

THE DUTIES AND OMISSIONS OF THE CHURCHES.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

People are just beginning to wake up in earnest in relation to the duties of the Churches towards the masses. They are, apparently, just beginning to discover that fine, richly endowed churches and well paid ministers, do not increase religion in men's souls, or further the cause of Christ upon the earth. They are, apparently, just beginning to find out that men's souls want something else than to sit and listen to a dry dissertation upon some few lines of the Bible, or some other subject, dressed up and discussed in such a grandiloquent way as to make them almost incomprehensible to the listeners. And, if they have not yet found out, they will find out the example which Christ set them, when upon the earth, must be followed in all its sincerity and simplicity. And that the simpler their services the more will they be appreciated and the more successful they will be. That they must do as Christ did, go to the people, take them by the hand be of the people, and make the people feel that they are not forgotten, and that their spiritual wants are not neglected. But this is just where the great difficulty begins. It seems almost impossible for the clergy to come down from their high positions, where they imagine no common layman should go, and consort with and become the equal of the common people. Such a thing was never heard of. The clergy believe they are exceptional in their profession and social standing, and that to be allowed to expound the holy scriptures and to try to save souls, is a distinction which brings with it exclusive rights and privileges and makes them better and more respectable than other men. And so they create a broad gulf between themselves and others, and this gulf is constantly growing wider, and now we see comparatively empty churches and a growing indifference to the influences of the Sabbath, and thus these holy men clasp their hands and look upwards with well affected horror, and wonder how the churches are to reach the masses. I will tell them how to do so. Let them follow the example set them by their Lord and Master, go out into the highways and byways, into the hedges and ditches, and do as that great growing, overshadowing power, the Salvation Army are doing. Let them go and do this in humility and faith. Let them take the people by the hand and ask them to come to church. And when they get them there, if they ever do get them there, which I doubt, let them be made to feel, not their inferiority and poverty, but feel that they are in God's house and that in God's house they are all equal before the Lord. And let what they call their sermons be plain and simple and to the heart, and let them put off their affectation of overwisdom and superiority and talk to their hearers as Christ talked to the people. And let there be no more of slighting and neglect, no more passing the people by as the low and too common for their high mightiness to notice, but instead, make them see and feel that they are treated with a little respect and a little equality. And let them go frequently to the abodes of the poor and sit down and converse with them as if they were in earnest, and not show that they are afraid of soiling their fine broadcloth and their projecting linen cuffs. If they do these things in good faith and in pure simple earnestness they will to some extent discover the secret how to reach the masses. But I doubt that they will ever do it. They have been too long trained in the opposite direction to put off their haughtiness and seclusion, too long trained to imagine that high sounding titles and affected superiority are of more value and more acceptable to the people than the plain, simple truths of the Bible, and the lessons of kindness and toleration given by Christ to the world. No one ever heard of Christ passing people by without notice, or without a kind word because they were poor. Nor slight them and pass them by in contempt because they were not of high social position. No one ever heard of his and his apostles addressing the people and talking to them of the beauties of humility and then go out and pass these same people by as if they were of so much dirt, and were unworthy of civil treatment or even recognition. No one ever heard of Christ and his apostles preaching to the people of the necessity of charity and forgiveness and then ignoring their teaching by their own want of charity and friendship, and by their own spiteful conduct merely because they imagined they had not been looked up to and treated with sufficient deference and respect. And had their teachings and examples been followed during these latter times then, perhaps, would not now be asked the question, how best to reach the masses. Let those teachings and examples be followed now, and done in all sincerity and truth, and let actions speak louder than words, and I will venture to say that this great question can be and will be answered in a manner satisfactory to all concerned. And there will no longer be felt and acknowledged the necessity of professed ministers of the gospel, of a professedly educational ministry, some of them loving long tails to their names to indicate their educational superiority, inviting to their help plain, simple men, men without education, but men whose hearts are filled with the love of God, to preach to the people and to fill the churches. A practice which has to be repeated every little while, so often as these mad converts and others like them are frozen out of the churches by the pride and arrogance which beset them there. As an instance of the pride and haughtiness of some parsons, I may mention an advertisement that was, not very long ago, made in England, in which the minister told the people that when they came to his house they were to come to the kitchen and were to conduct themselves quietly and decorously. It is most likely that his was one of the churches in which, out of the whole parish, there attended the church some five or six persons. That was one of the ways taken to reach the masses. And it was no very uncommon thing, some fifty or more years ago, to hear it said that what were called hunting parsons went into the pulpit on a Sunday and preached in his hunting dress, which was barely covered by their gowns. Then look at what is called the "high churches" everywhere, and see the millinery and silly parade that is practised there. Pride and affectation, and nothing less. And if a working man or his wife and children presume to go inside of one of these high-toned churches, they are frowned upon for their insolence, and either get no seat at all or are pushed back to some seat near the door, so as not to come within the sound and nobility of more respectable worshippers. And I am sorry to say that these things happen too often in other than "high churches." I heard not long ago of a certain high-toned lady, who suddenly became possessed of wealth, saying that if certain pressures were allowed to come to the church which she patronized, she would leave it. And I know of more than one person who left their place of worship simply because they were made to feel their inferiority and were pushed into the background. They went to the meetings of the Salvation Army, where they were made welcome and where they and many more, besides, are now, and where many more will go unless some great improvement takes place in these so-called churches. But we are now, I hope, near the end of these unjust systems, which have existed ever since the days of Adam, and which pervade and rule every country in the world; and which have done more to keep the people low down in ignorance and barbarism than everything else besides. And as education spreads, and its effects are felt more widely, the masses will become permeated with its influences, and in the end, and that not very long either, they will sweep away all the rubbish of pride and exclusiveness, and they will then take their proper places among men, and they will be looked up to and trusted freely. Indeed the day is not far distant when these despised masses, as they are called, will be the ruling power in the world. And might and riches will have to give way to justice and right. And drunkness will be seen no more. And the lowly and the poor will stand side by side with their oppressors. For the wrongs which they have endured, and the oppressions which they have had to bear will give place to better things. And men will take the money which they now use in strong drink, and apply it to the acquisition of mental and physical improvement, and they will then be able to walk erect with the feeling of consciousness that they are men indeed, and then their rights will be acknowledged and respected. The above remarks may seem to some people a little harsh, but they are true nevertheless. There is a way to avoid the necessity of them, but this will not be done by using the pulpit for abusing persons who dare to criticise their conduct, in the time and place when they know there can be no discussion. I suppose they will say that they will choose their own time and place for instructing their people. Ministers of the Gospel must remember that they are only men, and fallible men too, and that the best way to silence criticism is not to disown it. In the olden times it used to be the law that if criminals could only reach the sanctuary they were free. And ministers seem to think that they can abuse a person in the pulpit, no matter how uncalled for, and yet do it with impunity. But they must remember that America is a free country, and that there can be no inquisitions here.

SPOTS OF SPORT.

CINCINNATI, May 13.—Every club in the American Baseball Association was represented at a special meeting held here to-day to amend the batting rules. The rule giving a base hit to a batter who secured his base on balls was abolished. Hereafter such a base will be counted as "not on the list." The "strike-out" rule was also amended making three strikes instead of four necessary to retire a batter. No change was made in the pitcher's position. These changes were referred to the Committee on Rules, who must confer with a similar committee of the league and obtain their concurrence before the rules can go into effect. The matter of strengthening the various clubs had consideration in executive session.

Tapped to Paris.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—James N. Taggart, the paying teller of the Union Trust Company, who led a double life while robbing the institution of a big sum of money, and who fled when his crookedness was discovered, has been traced to Paris. It has been ascertained that Taggart eloped with Margarie Harris, a 15-year-old girl.

An Irishman's Ball.

We are surrounded by difficulties and dangers, said Pat, from the cradle to the grave, and the only wonder is that we ever live long enough after having the one to reach the other. The greatest danger lies in allowing the seeds of disease to be sown in our system. If you feel dull and drowsy, have frequent headaches, bad taste in mouth coated tongue, poor appetite, you are suffering from a torpid liver. Take Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" if you would destroy those seeds and avoid reaping a harvest of suffering and death. 6dw18

A Good Life Preserver.

T. Milburn & Co., March 10th, 1886.

I was completely relieved from that dreadful disease dyspepsia, with only four bottles of that life preserver—B. B. B., and cheerfully recommend it to any one subject to such disease. F. Dentney, Morrisburgh, Ont. 2w17d

World-wide is the reputation of West's Cough Syrup, the truly marvelous remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, asthma and consumption. All druggists.

Strong Language.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, plains and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Honest and True.

This is the eminently the case with Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure. It is an honest remedy, for it contains the most powerful, the purest, and most certain pain subduing remedies known to medical science. It is honest, for it does all it claims to do. It is honest because it is the best in the world. It only costs 10 or 25 cents to try it, and you can buy a bottle at any drug store. Nerviline cures toothache, neuralgia, pain in the back and side. All pains are promptly relieved by Polson's Nerviline. 6dw19

A Common Occurrence.

Many bad joints, by which people are crippled for life, are made by neglected or badly treated rheumatism. Ida Plank, of Strathroy, Ont., was afflicted with rheumatism in her fingers so that she could not bend them. Yellow Oil cured her, and is a prompt cure for all painful complaints. 2w17d of suffering relieved in as many days. Corns cause in the aggregate as much suffering as any single disease. It is the magic solvent power of Putnam's Corn Extractor that makes it speedily successful in removing corns. Take no substitute, however highly recommended. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the best. Sure, safe, and painless. 6dw19.

Sure to Satisfy.

There are many remedies for coughs and colds, but there are few that prove so satisfactory as Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which is a pleasant and reliable cure for all throat and lung troubles, including bronchitis, asthma, croup, whooping cough and the pulmonary complaints of young or old. 2w17d

FOR IMPROVING and preserving the health of your Horses and Cattle, use "Maud S" Condition Powders. fsdw

Worms often destroy children, but Freeman's Worm Powders destroys Worms, and expel them from the system. dwd

The increasing demand for West's Cough Syrup is evidence of its great virtue in all throat and lung diseases. Three sizes. All druggists. dwd

West's Cough Syrup instantly relieves and speedily cures bronchitis, sore throat, and all throat diseases. Try it and be convinced. All druggists. dwd

A Crying Evil.—Children are often fretful and ill when worms are the cause. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup safely expels all worms. dwd

National Pills are the favorite purgative and anti-bilious medicine; they are mild and thorough. dwd

West's Cough Syrup, the most reliable remedy for all throat and lung diseases. For safety keep it always in the house. All druggists. dwd

Chilblains, frosted feet, and all frost bites cured by a few applications of West's World's Wonder or Family Liniment, the magic cure. Try it. 25 and 50c. All druggists. dwd

To remove Dandruff—Cleanse the scalp with Prof. Low's Magic Sulphur Soap. A delightful soap for the toilet. dwd

MOTHERS TAKE NOTICE.—West's Cough Syrup contains no opiates, opium or any minerals, and can be given to the youngest and most delicate child with perfect safety. It is an infallible cure for croup and whooping cough. A bottle should always be kept convenient, as it is always a certain cure for coughs, colds, consumption in its early stages, bronchitis, asthma, and all throat and lung troubles. 25c., 50c. and $1 per bottle. All druggists. dwd

ST JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY

WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

PAIN-CONQUEROR.

The Most Efficacious in the World.

Superintendent O'Neill, of the Dominion Police, Ottawa: I kept that wonderful medicine, St. Jacobs Oil, both at my home and office, and esteem it, without any exception, the most efficacious remedy in the world.

Rheumatism Cured.

Toronto, Ontario, March 8, 1887.

As a household remedy I find St. Jacobs Oil invaluable, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a panacea for rheumatism, neuralgia and kindred complaints. I always keep a bottle on hand.

JAS. BRANDON, Ex-Alderman.

A Government Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Bowell, Minister of Customs, Canada, says: A member of my family used St. Jacobs Oil, and found it efficacious. I think it good.

Greatest Ever Introduced.

Mr. John Taylor, Taylor, Bros. & Co., 30 Market St., Toronto, Ont. St. Jacobs Oil is an excellent remedy; one of the greatest things ever introduced into Canada.

What Thousands Say.

Mr. J. A. Simmers, German Consul, Toronto, Canada: I, say, with thousands of others, that St. Jacobs Oil cannot be surpassed.

Lame Leg—Cured.

Muigrave, Ontario, February 7, 1887.

I have used St. Jacobs Oil for years, and have always found it an excellent remedy. My son had a lame leg for about one year. I applied St. Jacobs Oil and in about one week he could walk again. I recommend it wherever I can.

CARL ABRAHAM.

ST. JACOBS OIL is an absolute cure for all bodily pains for which an external remedy may be applied. It never fails. It acts like magic, and a trial of it has convinced the most incredulous. It is sold by Chemists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the Dominion of Canada. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Canadian Branch, 64 York Street Toronto, Canada.

House-cleaning.

As house-cleaning is completed, it would be a good idea to furnish the bed-rooms with new crockery, etc. Call at China Hall and buy what Chamber Sets you need before the price is raised in consequence of the advance in duty on these goods.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

See Turnbull's Carpets at 10c., 12½c., 15c., 17c., 20c. and 25c. a yard. Good patterns and grand value.

Its Little Eccentricities.

The town clock occasionally gets "off its base," striking wrong numbers and at odd times, or stopping altogether. These little eccentricities of the clock, though, are by no means communicated to the store directly underneath, which takes its name therefrom, and is called the "Town Clock Grocery." W. J. Morrow, the enterprising proprietor, keeps a first-class stock always at the lowest prices.—Call and be convinced.

A Heavy Hammer.

The new steam hammer for the Central Iron and Bridge Works, made by Bertram & Co., Dundas, Ont., is at the G. T. R. station. It is a mammoth piece of iron, weighing [illegible] pounds. It will be removed from the car by means of the G. T. R. "[illegible]" car, which will be sent down from Lindsay.

Arrived at Turnbull's by express, several quite new and stylish shapes in Bonnets and Hats, such as the Graceful, Tandad, "Toboggan, Sylvia, Northwood, Essex, and others too numerous to mention.

Market Items.

The market was lively this morning. Rhubarb was offered for sale in large quantities, asparagus and lettuce, also offering, at 5c. per bunch; parsnips sold by measure, and tomato plants at 10c. per box. Potatoes largely predominated, selling at from 75c. to 85c. per bag. Butter, 16c. lb; eggs, 10c. doz; veal, 4 and 5c.; no beef or pork offering.

Keep Your Eyes Open.

On Saturday and Monday, May 21st and 23rd, Mr. P. H. Morris, the celebrated optician, will be at Mr. John McKee's drug store for the purpose of fitting the B. Laurance pebble and other eye-glasses. Do not trust so important a matter as your eyesight to your own judgment, but avail yourselves of Mr. Morris' skill and experience on the occasion of his coming visit.

Becoming the Town.

The Lindsay Post says that "Engineer Wallace, engine 612, Belleville, and Conductor Millage of Peterborough are under orders to move to Lindsay and will arrive shortly." Lindsay is to be congratulated upon the large, and to that town, important prospective increase of population, but there are persons who will draw inferences from the fact that it requires peremptory orders, equivalent in force to an act of parliament, to reconcile outsiders to the sacrifice implied in accepting that thriving town as a place of abode.

The Uxbridge Delegation.

On the G.T.R. train last evening were Messrs. John McGuire (President), and A. T. Button of the Uxbridge Organ Co., who are visiting Peterborough with a view to locating their establishment here, if a suitable site and sufficient inducements can be obtained. Mayor Stevenson and Messrs. Geo. A. Cox, T. Cahill and R. S. Davidson, were appointed a committee to receive the visitors, at a meeting of the Finance Committee, Thursday evening. This afternoon the Uxbridge delegation are being shown the various building sites in the town, and the Committee are authorized to use every reasonable means to induce the location of the organ factory here. The Uxbridge Organ Company employ about 100 men, and its removal to Peterborough would be of immense benefit to the town.

Something to See.

The firm of Elliott & Tierney, grocers, blossomed out this morning with the nobby delivery wagon of the town, a gorgeously painted light driving vehicle made by Porter Bros. But the driver outshone the wagon itself by far, his livery being something unique and attractive, comprising blue pea-jacket, bespangled with glittering silver buttons, and a cap similar to those of railway conductors, of blue silk, with a silver band bearing in raised brass letters the inscription "Elliott & Tierney, Grocers." The outfit everywhere attracted public attention and universal admiration. Messrs. Elliott & Tierney have made quite a "hit."

Church Chimes.

Rev. Mr. Wallace, pastor of the Charlotte street church, will be in Lindsay to-morrow preaching educational sermons. His pulpit will be filled in the morning by Rev. I. Tovell, and in the evening by Rev. C. W. Watch, of Omemee.

The Application for Streets.

The following letter appears in Friday evening's edition of the Review:

PETERBOROUGH, May 2nd, 1887.

To the Mayor and Town Council of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN,—The deputation for the owners of the Peterborough Lock Works and of Mr. W. H. Law's Brick Works has brought out that both of them cannot much longer continue to occupy the premises at present occupied by them without seriously interfering with their operations and materially lessening the number of persons to whom, under more favorable circumstances, they would give employment.

As the premises at present occupied by these two firms are best suited to the operations of the last mentioned, I have been looking for a better location for his brick works, and to that end have made an examination of what is known as the Romaine Brick Works, at present owned by me, and he informs me that they would suit both his present and prospective requirements, provided the land now held in connection therewith can be increased by the addition thereto of that portion of Water street lying between Sherbrooke and Dalhousie streets, and that portion of Dalhousie street lying between the river and a line drawn across the said street at the most easterly corner of lots number one north and south of Dalhousie street and east of George street.

As the closing up of the portion of the streets named will not affect the access to any property owned by others than myself and the Ontario and Quebec Railway Company (with the track of which Company it is desirable to connect the Bridge Works) nor private or public [illegible] so far as I can [illegible] I am [illegible] willing. While on the other hand, in the event of Mr. Law establishing his Bridge Works there, the Council will pass a by-law conveying those portions of Water and Dalhousie streets to me, I will in consideration thereof give the town all the ground now lying between the brick works building and Water or Sherbrooke and Dalhousie streets, above the level of the ground floor of the brick works building, the same to be removed within a reasonable time.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN CARNEGIE.

P. S.—I attach a sketch for the purpose of showing the position which the portions of streets asked for occupy towards this and other property.

J. C.

In considering this proposition the people will drop sentiment, and regard it as a purely business question. The policy of the town is sufficiently pronounced as to closing public streets for any purposes. Several years ago Mr. Romaine applied for the streets now asked for, and the same reasons which influenced the Council to utterly decline to entertain his proposition are doubly valid at the present time. Property in the neighborhood has increased largely in value. The other day Mr. Stevenson gave $1,000 for a lot about 60x80 a short distance north of the streets in question, which, it is said, contain over three acres, and are certainly worth over $3,000. Without a cent of direct compensation, these streets are asked to be closed to the public and converted into personal property. While it is desirable to encourage manufacturing in every legitimate way, there are several reasons why the encouragement should not take the form sought for in the above letter. The Town Council has, on more than one occasion, refused to close up streets and convey them for private purposes, even when such streets were not available for public traffic. The petition of property holders now in circulation, will contain a strong protest against the proposal which the Council will be unable to ignore. Popular opinion was so strongly in opposition to the Dickson exemption By-law that it was withdrawn. If a scheme like this, of far more importance and involving far greater interests and possibilities than the brick works scheme, and which simply asked for exemption from taxation, was denied consideration, what excuse can be made for extending to the brick works privileges equivalent to a handsome bonus? Besides there is no guarantee offered or even hinted at, that the Bridge Works will continue to employ the present or even a smaller number of hands—no guarantee that the same industry will continue to be carried on, or what number of skilled mechanics will be employed—no guarantee that the building and machinery will not be converted into something else that will compete with other established industries, and thus repeat the objection that was chiefly instrumental in defeating the Dickson exemption by-law, that is, that it is unfair to give advantages by way of exemption or bonus to new industries of a nature to compete with existing establishments which have risen by their own energy, and without municipal aid. Again the closing of these streets will make Water street a blind street to the great disadvantage of residents east of the market square. The future must also be looked to. When the Trent Valley Canal is completed it will be necessary to have wharves in the neighborhood in question, and it cannot for one moment be admitted, in view of this fact, that the streets should be closed. The southern part of Water street has been a pleasant ramble, and should be devoted to its original intention, and made a passable thoroughfare, for the road was laid out to admit of easy access to the river front. The points suggested seem to warrant, at least, the exercise of a good deal of caution before committing the town to the giving away of the public streets to private corporations or persons, especially in the face of the suggestion, if Dalhousie street is ceded to private parties, that the C. P. R. will utilize the siding it will lay down on this street, and thus reach the river and connect with a proposed system of piling along the river bank to reach Deane's (now Stevenson's) flouring mills. If the C. P. R. wants right of way to this point, it is fully able to buy it outright, instead of closing streets and entailing all the disadvantages enumerated above. While we would be pleased to see manufacturing industries flourish and expand, and to see the long dormant brick works wake to the hum of industry, it is prudent to consider whether it is worth while to sacrifice $3,000 worth of public domesne to convert private property into a saleable site for the use of the Central Iron Bridge Works, or any other establishment. We have no objections, and we are sure, the public will have none either, to giving the free use of this choice margin, all a reasonable extent, but it is not to be expected that the town will surrender absolutely and for all time, advantages, which, looking to the future growth of the town, may be of immense advantage, and whose want in the future may seriously handicap the progress of improvement. These streets should not be given away, but their use might be given for a time, without surrendering the town's right to control of them, should occasion to exercise such control arise.

J. J. SHEEHY.
I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.
It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

NEWS FROM OTTAWA

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE CAPITAL CITY.

OTTAWA, May 13.—Sir Leonard Tilley is here, the guest of Sir John Macdonald. It is given out that his visit has no political significance.

The Ottawa cigar dealers held a meeting yesterday at which it was decided to increase the price of foreign made cigars to the public by one-third, the increase to come into effect on Monday morning.

The Northwest members have interviewed the Government with regard to local government for the territories. The Government favor some inexpensive scheme of local government, but no feasible scheme has yet been presented and there will be no legislation this session. Mr. Davin's bill will be pressed only to bring the matter before the House.

The Indians who recently fired on the Mounted Police and a party of freighters near Medicine Hat were captured on Friday by a detachment of police and taken prisoners to MacLeod. Thus ends another Indian war.

The general committee of the Imperial Federation League in Canada met here yesterday. Among those present were: A. W. McNeill, M.P., Vice-President, in the chair; E. A. Baker, M.P.; James Reid, M.P.; Walter Shanly, M.P.; J. Masson, M.P.; R. Tyrwhitt, M.P.; K. F. Burns, M.P.; W. E. O'Brien, M.P.; F. M. Daly, M.P.; G. R. R. Cockburn, M.P.; H. A. Ward, M.P.; Hon. J. B. Plumb, J. A. Gemmill, F. Babbington, J. H. Lang, H. H. Lyman and Secretary W. McGown. A draft of a pamphlet proposed to be issued by the league was discussed at some length, and was finally referred to a sub-committee for revision, and to be reported to an adjourned meeting to be called by the chairman. An animated discussion took place as to the advisability of the league adopting a resolution favoring Imperial reciprocity, or a policy of trade relations within the Empire on more favorable terms than with foreign countries. This question was also left over for further consideration, and for information regarding the work accomplished by the Colonial Conference upon the arrival of Sir Alex. Campbell and Mr. Sandford Fleming, the Canadian delegates.

It is understood that the change contemplated by the Civil Service Act to be introduced by Mr. McNeill, the member for North Bruce, is the doing away with the educational promotional examination, in so far as those of the service who were in it at the time the present act came into force are concerned. The prevailing opinion is that the above examination was unjust, in fact tyrannical. That men who have spent a quarter of a century faithfully discharging their official duties should be called upon, when advanced in life, to go back to their school-boy days, and take up books unopened by them for years, and enter into an educational competition with youngsters from colleges and universities, is manifestly unfair and ridiculous. That there should be an entrance examination no one will question, but once in the service their capacity for their duties should be the test, and who is better able to judge of this than those under whom they serve.

The friends of Mr. C. H. Mackintosh are urging Sir John Macdonald to appoint him Lieutenant-Governor of the Northwest in place of Mr. Dewdney on the ground that a more acceptable representative could not be chosen. The Northwest contingent also approve of the appointment.

Found Floating in the Lake.

CHICAGO, May 14.—This morning some fishermen found the body of Isaac Moore floating in the lake. Mr. Moore, who was a member of the firm of Moore Bros., furniture dealers, disappeared from his home May 6. A diligent search was instituted, but was without result. Mr. Moore had been in poor health for some time and his brain was thought to be affected. The body when found showed no marks of violence.

Swiss Knights of Labor.

LONDON, May 14.—A monster meeting of workingmen took place the other day at Aarow, in Switzerland. Over 20,000 were represented, and an association exactly similar to the American Knights of Labor was constituted. An Executive Council of twenty-three and an organizing secretary were elected, and an annual salary of $1000 was voted for the latter. The offices of the association have been established at Berne. The association has the same aims, views and objects as that in the United States.

Guards at Beecher's Tomb.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The family of the late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher recently received information of a plot to steal the body of the great preacher from the vault in Greenwood Cemetery, and two policemen have since been detailed by the authorities to guard the place. The body will soon be interred in the family plot.

CABLE NOTES.

The press of St. Petersburg advocate a poll tax on German workmen as a reprisal for Germany's increase of the corn duty.

The Crown Prince Frederick William has finished his course of treatment at Ems and has returned to Potsdam. His throat ailment is cured.

The Berlin Post publishes a letter signed by the Duke von Ratibor and Count Roedl, announcing that they have abandoned their proposed letter of thanks to the Pope for restoring religious peace, because the proposal has been made the object of odious attacks tending to disturb that peace.

BOUND FOR TORONTO.

MR. O'BRIEN LEAVES MONTREAL AT 8 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT.

All doubts as to whether Mr. O'Brien would reach here on Saturday were set at rest early in the afternoon when a bulletin announced that he was in Montreal and that he would not be here until to-day. The Toronto branch of the Irish National League were in hopes of getting him to come yesterday morning and thus spend Sunday in the city. At a late hour on Saturday night President Mulligan received this despatch from Mr. O'Brien, which contains an interesting letter from Archbishop Croke:

MONTREAL, May 14, 1887.

To J. A. Mulligan, President Toronto Branch, Irish National League: Sorry your telegram arrived too late to enable me to go by 8 o'clock train. In any case I had arranged to address a meeting of the league here to-morrow. Will go to Toronto Sunday night if you desire. I send the following letter from Archbishop Croke. It explains itself. It was marked "private," but yesterday I enabled His Grace asking his permission to make it public. The reply I received, "With a heart and a half If it can do any good," was characteristic of this great and patriotic prelate:

[Private.

THE PALACE, THURLES,
SATURDAY NIGHT, April 30.

MY DEAR WILLIAM: I cannot tell you how disappointed I feel at not seeing you before you left for Canada, but I suppose it must be so. I can imagine easily how many things you will have to attend to and put in order before starting on your trip. Being under the impression that the American mail was to arrive here at 10 o'clock I had made up my mind to go to the railway station house at that hour to give you a true greeting on your way and a bishop's blessing on your undertaking. But I have just learned that the train goes here about 9.40 and as I always say the first mass at the Cathedral on Sundays, which mass is at 9 o'clock, it will now be impossible for me to see you and shake your hand and wish you God-speed. But I'll pray for you that the God of our fathers may watch over you on the deep, crown your patriotic mission with success and bring you back to us soon in health and triumph. Father Arthur Ryan will have a word with you and hand you this from, my dear William,

Your very faithful friend,
T. W. CROKE.

You can make good use of this.
W. O'BRIEN.

Mr. O'Brien left Montreal at 8 o'clock last night and will arrive here at 8 this morning.

At noon to-day the League will present Mr. O'Brien with an address at the Rossin House, where he will stay during his visit. To-morrow evening he will be entertained at a banquet at the Rossin. The price of the tickets has been fixed at $2. An innovation in the way of banquets will be the presence of ladies.

The fund in aid of the evicted tenants now amounts to $239. Of this $153 was subscribed at yesterday's meeting. Mr. James Conmee M.P.P. for West Algoma, was present and handed in a $100 note.

MR. O'BRIEN IN THE EAST.

The Agitator's Latest Movements in Montreal and Quebec.

MONTREAL, May 14.—William O'Brien arrived in this city to-day at 8 o'clock by the steamer Montreal, which left Quebec yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. As both himself and the evicted tenant, Kilbride, were greatly fatigued, they asked to be allowed to remain on board and enjoy a few hours' rest, which they were allowed to do.

There is a mistake in connection with the statement already published that Mayor Howland's despatch to Mr. O'Brien was not paid for. It was paid for to this city, but the telegraph authorities informed Mr. O'Brien that they would not forward it to Quebec, where he was, unless it was prepaid by him. The statement that Mr. O'Brien was escorted to a hall in this city, where he lectured, by men armed with revolvers, is pure fiction. No such thing occurred. The most significant fact that has as yet transpired is the offer of Quebec men to send a stalwart body guard of armed men to escort Mr. O'Brien to Toronto. Mr. O'Brien refused the offer.

The Agitators Sunday Meeting.

MONTREAL, May 15.—A meeting of the Montreal branch of the Irish National League was held this afternoon when addresses were delivered by Wm. O'Brien, Denis Kilbride, the evicted, and several local speakers.

Mr. O'Brien, in the course of his speech, said that his presence in Toronto would scarcely fail to apply a match to inflammatory material, but they were not going to be intimidated by any threats in doing what they had a perfect legal right to do. He said he would go alone, unarmed, with a free and easy conscience and with a full reliance upon the fair play and liberty-loving disposition of the Canadian people, and with deep conviction of the cause he advocated. He also expressed the belief that when his tour was finished the Canadian people would send Lord Lansdowne home with the stamp of Canadian reprobation upon his brow.

Ernest Desrosier, a Frenchman, made a speech in which he said if England would treat Canadians through Lord Lansdowne as England has treated Ireland through Lord Lansdowne it would be a very severe strain upon Canadians.

Denis Barry, President of St. Patrick's Society, attacked the Catholics who did not turn up at Mr. O'Brien's meetings.

The party afterwards visited several Catholic institutions in the city.

A Reception Preparing in New York.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The Central Labor Union to-day appointed a committe of two from each section to co-operate with other organizations to prepare for a reception to Wm. O'Brien on his return from Canada.

A Mysterious Stranger.

QUEBEC, May 14.—When William O'Brien left here last evening an exciting scene occurred. From the moment the party set out from the Grand Central Depot, New York, until this moment, a suspicious individual had been in sight all the time. He took the same boat, the same train, stayed at the same hotel, and when the visit to the country was decided upon hired a coupe all alone and got as near as possible to the carriage where the O'Brien party was. As the vessel steamed out from Richelieu pier, this city, the mysterious and ubiquitous man was again discovered, and the crowds ashore created a tumult by threatening to throw him off the boat. Mr. O'Brien knew nothing of this. The angry crowd was calmed by J. B. Lane and H. C. Cloran, officers of the Montreal National League, and the steamer passed out of the harbor in peace.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 13.

A C.P.R. brakeman named Patrick McGlynn, aged 28, and living at 118 Northcote-avenue, met with a fatal accident in the yard at the foot of Batharst-street at midnight on Saturday. He was on top of the last car of a freight train which was backing down on a track where an engine was standing. As stated by himself after the accident he was blinded by the glare of the engine's headlights and walked off the end of the car. The wheels passed over both his legs, mangling them terribly. He was removed to the General Hospital, where he died three hours later.

A largely attended meeting of Grand Trunk employes was held yesterday afternoon in Temperance Hall to discuss the wage question. The view was held that it was desirable to ensure the assistance of all classes of employes and join societies already in existence or start another general order of railway employes. A committee was appointed to report upon the grievances of each department and submit their report at a future meeting.

A GREAT FIRE AT QUEBEC.

Property Valued at $125,000 Completely Destroyed.

QUEBEC, May 14.—An immense conflagration occurred here this morning, involving a loss of upwards of $125,000. About 3.30 a.m. the watchman on duty noticed smoke issuing from O. Rochette's tannery, a large building running the length of the whole block from King to Queen-streets, fronting St. Dominique-street. By 5 o'clock the firemen had gained control and managed to save a large number of wood and lumber yards. The fire is believed to have originated from bark dust, which gathers about machinery, igniting from friction of the shafts. People residing in the district were panic stricken and several moved their furniture some blocks away. At 11 o'clock the whole square is a mass of smouldering ruins. A large quantity of coal encumbers the premises is on fire, but no danger is apprehended from this. The firemen have still a number of streams playing on the burning portion, and will probably be kept at it all day.

LOYAL TO LORD LANSDOWNE

One of the Greatest Meetings Ever Held in Toronto.

Fifteen thousand people swayed, surged and were wedged in around the "band" stand in Queen's Park Saturday afternoon. The meeting was called, as the first resolution put it, to "reprobate the action of Mr. Wm. O'Brien in visiting the city for the purpose of exciting hostile feelings against His Excellency the Governor-General," etc.

After a number of rousing addresses had been delivered it was resolved to enable the following despatch to Lord Salisbury:

TORONTO, May 14, 1887.

To the Marquis of Salisbury, Prime Minister of England, London:

Great mass meeting in the Queen's Park, Toronto, reprobates O'Brien's attempt to excite disaffection in Lord Lansdowne. Also looks with confidence to the British Parliament for a wise and just settlement of the Irish question. W. H. HOWLAND, Mayor.

THE DUTY ON IRON.

Montreal Manufacturers Not Pleased at the Change.

NEW YORK, May 14.—A Montreal special to the Times says: The enormous increase in the duties on iron came like a thunderclap on the manufacturers here, and is likely to bring the Government into some little trouble. A number of the leading manufacturers were seen by your correspondent, and nearly all said they would have to close up certain lines of business and cancel a number of contracts. They estimated their probable losses at from $15,000 to $50,000 per annum. The rolling mills will have to close up altogether unless something is done, as the duty on the raw material amounts to 55 per cent. and that on the finished product to only 30 per cent. Only one firm has so far attempted to make pig iron in this country, and it is for their especial benefit the extra duty has been imposed. The extra duty will probably have to be taken off at once.

A Deputation to Visit Ottawa.

MONTREAL, May 14.—A meeting of tin and steel importers was held this afternoon for the purpose of considering changes in the tariff. It was unanimous in condemning the sudden change in the iron duties and passed a resolution that as large and influential a deputation as possible proceed to Ottawa for the purpose of urging upon the Government the necessity of admitting all goods purchased in England or elsewhere, on or before May 19 at the old rate of duty, provided the shipments of goods were made on or before June 30.

PRINCE DHULEEP SING.

He and Mr. Patrick Casey Agitating at Moscow.

LONDON, May 14.—Prince Dhuleep Sing, ex-King of Punjaub and ex-proprietor of the Koh-i-noor diamond, is still at Moscow with Mr. Patrick Casey and has frequent interviews with M. Katkoff, leader of the Pan-Slavists and the moving spirit of the war party. Dhuleep Sing is burning for revenge against the English, who have refused to comply with his pecuniary demands, and oblivious of the fact that his eldest son is a cadet at the British Royal Military College of Sandhurst, he is now discussing with the Russians how to provide an anti-British rising among his former subjects in India. He only knows two words of French, namely, "Anglais cochons" (English swine). Neither he nor his companion are provided with passports, and the fact that they should have been allowed to enter the empire without these very necessary documents, proves that the Czar's Government is cognizant of their mission.

An Overdue Steamer.

VICTORIA, B.C., May 14.—Great anxiety is felt for the missionary steamer, Good Friday, which sailed from Port Simpson on the northern coast for this city and was due on Monday last. She has on board Rev. Mr. Crosby and party of Port Simpson to attend a conference. Despatches have been sent everywhere possible to get any news of her, but she has not yet been heard of.

Valaney Fuller Banqueted.

NEW YORK, May 14.—An interesting incident in the New York Dairy Fair, which has been running for a week here, was an entertainment tendered last night to Mr. Valaney E Fuller, President of the Farmers' Central Institute of Canada. The speech made by Mr. Wiman on the commercial union topic was cordially received.

The Crop Reports.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The Farmers' Review says: "Reports for the past week show that while some localities were favored with reasonable rains others, and the greater number, are needing rain, and that in consequence adequate crops will suffer seriously. Reports on the condition of winter wheat continue fairly favorable.

MONDAY, MAY 16, 1887.

TIME TO BEGIN.

It is high time for Peterborough to enter in earnest upon the necessary preparations for becomingly holding the celebrations incident to the Jubilee year of the reign of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, that is, if anything more pretensious than the ordinary pop-gun style of celebration is to be carried out. It is certainly an occasion which calls for unusual demonstration on the part of loyal citizens of the empire. If any part of the realms of her empire has reason to observe the occasion, it is Canada. The first year of Her Majesty's reign was signalized by the extension to us of the measure of political liberty, which gives us the freest and most satisfactory form of government in the world. And the position and importance of Peterborough in every respect, suggest that this town should celebrate the occasion in a corresponding manner. There will be a strife for pre-eminence in this matter, and this town owes it to herself to see that she is not among the least conspicuous for loyalty and enterprise. Now is the time to begin preparations. Unless some prominent citizens take the initiative in the matter, the time will slip by till within a few days of the 21st of June; then the town will be seized with a spasm of enthusiasm, and what will be done will be done rapidly and carelessly, and the result will not, by any means, be creditable. It is not our province to dictate, or even suggest, what form the set observance of the day should take, but we feel it a duty to point out that whatever is to be done must be done quickly, so that our contribution to the Jubilee celebration may be one of which we shall have no reason to be ashamed. Those persons whose loyalty is not of an obtrusive character, may be roused to action by recollecting that, from the sordid point of pecuniary advantage, it is desirable that the occasion under comment should be elaborately celebrated. Any occasion which attracts visitors to Petreborough is a source of direct and indirect advantage to the town. No visitor can or will pass a holiday in the town without leaving more or less money in it and no person who may come here from a distance and witness what Peterborough can accomplish in the way of a grand celebration of a grand event, will go away unimpressed with the resources, enterprise and go-aheaditiveness of the town.

Mr. JAMIESON, M.P., has given notice in the House of Commons that he will introduce a resolution to prohibit "the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors, except for sacramental, medical, scientific and mechanical purposes." Mr. Cargill, M.P., has given notice of a resolution for the repeal of the Scott Act. We may expect some lively discussions when these matters come up, especially under the ferment of feeling Mr. McCarthy's Scott Act amendments will produce.

THE Globe, in referring to the appointment of Hon. J. J. C. Abbott to the leadership of the Senate, the gentleman who was the recipient of the notorious "Send-me-another-$10,000" telegram, remarks: "What a grand revenge for Sir John Macdonald. The central figure of the Pacific Scandal, he leads the House of Commons. He places in command of the other Chamber his chief coworker in that saturnalia of corruption. Until Mr. Abbott is ready to enter upon his new duties they will be discharged by Hon. G. W. Allan."

THE Montreal Witness calls attention to the fact that Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, the new president of the Senate, "is, like all of Sir John's appointments to the Senate, a pronounced anti-prohibitionist.

An Old Campaigner.

At Hamilton police court the other day a man named James Henry Livingstone was sent to goal for vagrancy, making his 28th commitment.

Perfect and Popular.

Some Facts Respecting the Empress Sewing Machine.

Since the first sewing machine was made, about fifty years ago, a revolution has been effected in its style and many important changes introduced, till this domestic implement, now indispensable in every household, has become well nigh perfect. Among the many candidates for public favor, none have sprung into popularity more rapidly, and been so readily recognized as the embodiment of perfection in its particular line as the "Empress"—a machine manufactured in Bridgeport, Conn., with its head office in Canada, at 49 King street west, Toronto.

A News reporter yesterday dropped into this elegant office and requested Mr. C. C. Pomeroy, the general manager of the company in Canada, to give him a few pointers about the "Empress," which is creating such a furore as to become practically "the queen" of sewing machines—if such an expression is allowable. On entering, the reporter could not help noticing the tasteful and artistic decoration of the office, in which fine carpets, handsome furniture and beautiful paper combine to make as comfortable and lovely a place of business as is to be seen in the city. The exterior of the building, being entirely white, attracts quite as much attention as the interior. The reporter then inquired of Mr. Pomeroy:

"What are the special features you claim for your machine above other makes?"

"Briefly they are these: 1st, extreme simplicity; 2nd, readiness to sew; 3rd, lightness in running, and 4th, silence in operation. All these are valuable improvements, as you will at once see."

The reporter hinted that if the machine was capable of sustaining these claims it was well named. The attentive manager then exhibited one of the beautiful pieces of mechanism known as the "Empress," and demonstrated how solid the foundation is upon which these claims rest. Even to a young unmarried man, who could not be expected to know much about sewing machines, it was quite strikingly apparent that this machine had few parts to get out of order, that it can be handled with great facility, and is almost noiseless in operation. His admiration for it was only increased when Mr. Pomeroy pointed out that the Empress has no heart motion, cog-wheels or grooved cams. It has no complex machinery requiring concealment from the public view, or making necessary a cover to prevent the throwing of oil. It was an error, too, to suppose a large armed machine is necessarily strong.

"Will it do heavy work?"

"Certainly; with the same ease as light work."

The Empress in the hands of an expert operator produces surprising results in the way of ornamental work, embroidery, etc. The reporter was shown some elegant work in both white and colored materials. These were done by a young lady in the office, and showed great tastes in the selection of colors and skill in workmanship. A spray of roses and leaves appeared to be a work of art.

The Manager, in conversation, also said that the Empress was fast winning its way into popular esteem and gave perfect satisfaction wherever used. It is made at present in Bridgeport, Conn., but as the Company comprises the most prominent citizens of Toronto, its manufacture will be commenced here as soon as the demand warrants. The Company already has three branch offices and about fifty agencies, with four traveling salesmen. The Empress is selling rapidly wherever introduced, and will no doubt soon lead in Canadian business.

The Peterborough office is at Miss Sanderson's fancy goods store. 1dw

Looking for His Son.

On the return home of the Norwood contingent of the Midland Battalion from "the war," a member, Mr. Jessie Cummings, says the Norwood Register, had a young boy with him whom he claimed to have found wandering around the scene of the battle of Fish Creek, after the fight. The young wanderer's parents, it was supposed, had been killed, and he accordingly became regimental property, and Jessie's in particular, and was treated with every kindness. When we speak of him as Jessie's property in particular, we do so because Jessie, being of a generous turn of mind, "adopted" him, to use his own words, and the two were fast friends. On the close of the campaign the young lad accompanied the regiment to Ontario, and on its disbandment at Port Hope, returned with the Norwood detachment to this place, where he was the object of as much curiosity as Poundmaker or Riel would have been. He knew nothing of his parents and spoke the Halfbreed patois better than he did English. After staying around for a few months he suddenly decamped, leaving his "guardian" in profound ignorance as to his intentions. Nothing has since been heard of him until last week, when Mr. Nevin, ex-mayor of Selkirk, Man., called on Mr. James Cummings, father of Jessie, who had in the meantime removed to the State of Michigan, and made enquiries about the wanderer who, he said, was his son, and on the outbreak of the war had run away from home. For a long time he was unable to get any trace of him and was almost giving him up for dead, when he accidentally got a clue and had followed it this far only to be again disappointed as he had hundreds of times before. Mr. Cummings referred him to his son who might, since removing to Michigan, have learned of his whereabouts. The grief-stricken father departed on his journey with a lighter heart and profuse thanks for the information and also for the kindness shown the wanderer by the Norwood "soldier boys." Mr. Nevin is a large property owner in Selkirk and has been mayor of the town for years. We sincerely hope he may be successful in his search for his wandering son. He says the rebellion produced numbers of such cases as his own, and as a general rule the missing ones were never found, having either been killed by the enemies' bullets or died from exposure and hunger.

—The Junior team of the Norwood High School Foot-ball Club defeated the Hastings Juniors at the latter place on Saturday by 2 goals to 0.

—A farmer once called his cow "Zephyr;" she seemed such an amiable hephyr. When the farmer drew near, she kicked off his ear, and now the old farmer's much dephyr.

—The ball match between the Cobourg and Port Hope clubs, arranged for the 24th inst., is declared off. The Primroses of Toronto will be down and wipe the cobwebs from the Port Hope team.

—The Ontario legislature has removed the English sparrow from the list of insectivorous birds that must not be killed. Everybody has now a legal right to murder this class of birds, as it has been decided that the more of them that are slain the better it will be for the country.

—The reporters of the two Cobourg papers are engaged in bitter warfare through the columns of their respective journals. The World man is a point or two ahead of his adversary with the following:—"A cross between a hedge-hog and a sand-hill crane,—something in the shape of a mandril,—was seen on our streets to-day. The likeness was so exact that several persons took it for the local editor of the Sentinel Star. It was an insult to the poor thing."

Begun the Other Way.

"It's all very well," said the grave digger, "to advise a young man to begin at the bottom and work up, but in my business it ain't practicable."

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

---

The Difference.

A dog is property when it has been stolen; but it is not property when the tax assessor comes around.

Give Ely's Cream Balm a trial. This justly celebrated remedy for the cure of catarrh hay fever, cold in the head, &c., can be obtained of any reputable druggist and may be relied upon as a safe and pleasant remedy for the above complaints and will give immediate relief. It is not a liquid, snuff or powder, has no offensive odor and can be used at any time with good results, as thousands can testify, among them some of the attaches of this office.—Spirit of the Times, May 29, 1886. eodw20

The Government's Claim.

A commission has been appointed to enquire into the Government's claim against Colonel Amyot, of the Ninth Battalion.

Liable to Happen.

Sudden attacks of colds, sore throat, stiff swollen glands, rheumatism, neuralgia, and similar troubles, are very liable during the winter and early spring. As a prompt remedy there can nothing excel Yellow Oil. "I never feel safe to be without it," says Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, Ont. 2w20d

A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of

Mens, Boys & Children's Hats

ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

FELT HATS, NEWEST STYLES, 20c. EACH

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to ackowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheel-horses,
Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

The American Bicyclist Defeated.

LONDON, May 15.—The first of a series of five international bicycle races took place yesterday between Howell of Wolverhampton and Woodside of Philadelphia. The distance was twenty miles. There were 8000 spectators present. Woodside at the beginning rushed to the front and led at the end of the first mile, which he covered in 2 minutes 48 seconds. At the end of the fifteenth mile Woodside was still in the lead, but towards the close of the race Howell gained on him and finally won by fifteen yards. The time for the twenty miles was 1 hour 40 seconds. The distances in the other races will be respectively one, five, ten and twenty-five miles.

St. George's Plate.

LONDON, May 14.—This was the second and last day of the Windsor meeting. The race for the St. George's Plate was won by Mr. E. Jones' colt Admiral Benbow. Summary follows:

The St. George's Plate of 300 sovs. for 3-year olds, the second to receive 30 sovs. out of plate entrance: 3 cs., 5 furlongs. —44 subs.

Mr. E. Jones' br c. Admiral Benbow by Victor II.— 1

Racing at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, May 14.—The attendance at Churchill Downs was good to-day. The favorites won only two out of the five races. The betting was lively. The Kentucky Oaks and the fourth race, a one and one-eighth mile dash for 3-year olds and upwards, were the features. In the former Wary sold favorite with Grisette next thought of. Flurimore, Wary's companion, won in 2.40¾, surprising the talent. Wary ran second, Grisette pulled up at the eighth pole out of the race. Summaries:

First race, ¾ mile, 3-year-olds—handicap, 100, won by one and a half lengths, Balance, 105, second; Lizzie Virgil, 97, third. Time, 1.18¾.

Second race, Kentucky Oaks, 3-year-old fillies, 1¼ miles—Flurimore, 118, won by two lengths; Wary, 112, second; Ben Nash, 118, third. Time, 2.40¾.

Third race, handicap, all ages, ¾ miles—Montana Regent, 98, won by a length; Irish Pat, 108, second, half a length in front of Polonia, 102, third. Time, 2.18¾.

Fourth race, 3-year-olds and upwards, 1¼ miles—Foxhall, 114, and Jim Nave, 91, ran a dead heat. Time, 1.53¾. In the run off Foxhall won easily. Time, 1.57¾.

Fifth race, Long Welter weights, 1 mile—Yellowstone, 103, first; Wanderer, 108, second; Warrington, 107, third. Time, 1.43¾.

The entries for the Detroit Dog Show have reached 350.

The Mayor of Rochester has instructed the Chief of Police to prevent Sullivan and his stagmen giving an exhibition there.

The Civil Service Reformers

say their object is simply to retain good men in office when you find them. This theory may be safely applied to the treatment of the human system by means of medicine. Those who have once tried Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" for scrofulous swellings, sores, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, spitting of blood and consumption, will apply to it the real principle of Civil Service Reform and "hold fast to that which is good." 6dw20

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Siddel, of Orono, Ont., was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism neuralgia, inflamation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 2d20d

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Hoyden's Gelman Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 30,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and we can name where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Price of Greatness.

The Chicago Baseball Club sold a pitcher yesterday for the handsome sum of $2,500. Crookery must be advancing.

Worth ten Dollars a Bottle.

Any person who has used Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy in the world for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute, lame back at one application; headache in a few moments and all pains just as rapidly. Small test bottles only cost 10 cents. Why not try it to-day? Large bottles 25 cents, sold by all druggists and country dealers. Use Polson's nerve pain cure—Nerviline. 6dw20

An Open Letter.

Messrs T. Milburn & Co., Nov. 25th. 1886
I wish I had used B. B. B., sooner, which would have saved me years of suffering with erysipelas, from which I could get no relief until I tried B. B. B., which soon cleared away the itching, burning rash that had so long distressed me. Mrs. Edward Romkey, Eastern Passage, Halifax, N. S. 2w20d

Self-denial.

There will never exist anything permanently noble and excellent in a character which is a stranger to the exercise of resolute self-denial.

People who reside or sojourn in regions of country where fever and ague and bilious remittent fever are prevalent, should be particularly careful to regulate digestion, the liver and the bowels, before the approach of the season for the periodic malady. The timely use of Northrop & Layman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a valuable safeguard against the malarial scourge. It is acknowledged to be the the best blood purifier in the market.

The Rebellion.

In the North-west has been suppressed and our citizens can now devote reasonable attention to their corns. The only sure, safe and painless remedy is Putman's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails; never makes sore spots worse than the original discomfort See that you get "Putman's," and take none other. 6dw20

Off Work.

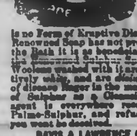
Palmo-Sulphur Soap.



Is Marvellously Efficient in clearing the Skin of Impurities, and keeping it in a perfect state of health. It beautifies the complexion, while as a Healing agent for Sores or Wounds it ranks all praise. There is no Form of Eruptive Disease for which this Renowned Soap has not proved efficacious. In the Bath it is as beneficial as the waters of the Mineral Springs. Infants whose skin is tender, Invalids troubled with Eczema, and Ladies whose complexions are disfigured by Pimples, will find it unequalled. Wolfoss washed with Ryan rose and sugar-tar, will be found superlatively white, and are disinfected when scores of disease linger in the material. The value of Sulphur as a Cleansing and Purifying agent is everywhere recognized. Ask for Palmo-Sulphur, and refuse all others, and you will be deceived.

LOCAL NEWS.

Literature Class.

Mr. Earle's class, which is now studying Macbeth, will meet as usual in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-night.

Miss Mittie Fraine.

The Ontario press speaks very highly of Miss Fraine as an elocutionist. There should be a large audience to hear her on Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. hall.

Turnbull's is the right house for Boys Clothing. His styles are new, and prices the lowest. Examine and be convinced.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,000 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Arrived at Turnbull's by express, several quite new and stylish shapes in Bonnets and Hats, such as the Graceful, Tandan, Tobeggan, Sylvia, Northwood, Essex, and others too numerous to mention.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

For reliable Kid Gloves, try the Alexandre make; to be had, in all the leading shades, at Turnbull's.

House-cleaning.

As house-cleaning is completed, it would be a good idea to furnish the bed-rooms with new crockery, etc. Call at China Hall and buy what Chamber Sets you need before the price is raised in consequence of the advance in duty on these goods.

A Great Event.

The great event of the Queen's Jubilee will be the Jubilee number of the Montreal Star, a superbly illustrated paper, of twenty-eight pages and two artistic plate supplements. Those who have seen the advance copies say it is magnificent. Something that everybody will want and few can get. It is to be sent by mail for 25 cents. Graham & Co., Montreal, are the publishers.

Mr. Telford's Poems.

The citizens of both town and county have subscribed so promptly, and in such large numbers, for Mr. William Telford's book of poems, that the guarantee number to cover cost of publication was exceeded over three weeks ago. Final orders have been given the EXAMINER office to proceed with the work, and the printers have already made a good start on the type-setting for same.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50 % on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

The Grand Lodge Session.

Mr. E. E. Henderson, chairman of the reception and hotel billet committee, in connection with the Oddfellows demonstration and grand lodge meeting to be held here in August, has received communications from prominent members of the Order, asking him to make all necessary arrangements for their accommodation during their visit to Peterborough. Mr. Henderson together with the other members of that committee purposes calling on all the hotels immediately and ascertaining the extent of their accomodation, rates per day, etc.

The Application for Water Street.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I observe that Mr. Carnegie has made application to the town for that part of Water street lying east of his brick factory. Mr. Carnegie has always shown public spirit and deserves well of the town, but when he asks for a piece of land which can be ceded of great value to the town, he is asking too much.

A few years ago the town refused $1,000 for the part of Stewart street lying between Mr. Bradburn's and Mr. Dumble's residences, and with much reluctance and in the face of much opposition the town permitted our most important manufacturer, Wm. Hamilton, to close a strip of Murray street, that he might continue his buildings on it.

The portion of Water street which Mr. Carnegie wants is capable of being made into a nice little park on the edge of the river. The town can first use the gravel for street building. Then cover with street cleanings and finally make into a very desirable breathing spot—the only place where the people in the heart of the town could sit on the river bank on summer evenings. Or if the navigation of the river ever became more important, the water privilege should be public property, for commercial purposes.

The fact is that all that water front should always be kept open. And while we all desire to assist our manufacturers, it would be a great mistake to close that street or convey it away. As this is a fair discussion of a public matter and not in any way personal, I do not hesitate to sign my name.

D. W. DUMBLE.

Again Ready for Business.

Messrs. Porter Bros. carriage builders, to-day take possession of their buildings, reconstructed and improved since the recent fire. These are now more complete than ever, and every thing is in ship shape. The public will find Porter Bros.' carriage works more complete than ever—and ready at the shortest notice to fill any order from a family carriage to a wheel-barrow, in the best style of the art. Repairs of all kinds made promptly and satisfactorily. Porter Bros. richly deserve the encouragement of the public. By their enterprise, energy, push and square dealing they have built up a great business; they give employment to large numbers of hands and are just such citizens as a go-ahead town wants. Large as the present premises are, the firm has pushed the business beyond their capacity, and their buildings will have to be at once enlarged or other premises procured. Pushing, progressive, persistent, pre-eminent are the words that fully characterize the firm of Porter Bros., carriage builders. They have been tested by experience, tried by price, and in neither case found wanting.

See Turnbull's Carpets at 10c., 12½c., 15c., 17c., 20c. and 25c. a yard. Good patterns and grand value.

What the Company Wants.

Saturday afternoon the delegation from the Uxbridge Organ Company were shown about the town, with which they were more than pleased, stating that "they never thought Peterborough was such a fine place as it is." They expressed satisfaction with the town property lying near Rink street as a site. Their wish is to secure a free site, with buildings, and exemption from taxation for a number of years, another condition being that a certain amount of stock (probably $20,000) is subscribed in town. In lieu of all this they are willing to accept a substantial cash subsidy. Of course, neither the visitors nor the committee were in a position to make any definite proposals, but the inducements mentioned above are briefly what they ask. Their proposals will be considered at the next Council meeting. If the Uxbridge Organ Company remove to Peterborough, they intend purchasing new plant and machinery, so as to put the establishment in first-class condition, which will entail a large outlay of money and a consequent increase in the subscribed capital.

An Uncle's Forgetfulness.

Saturday evening about 9.30 a gentleman walking along Aylmer street came across a little boy about 9 years old, crying bitterly. On being questioned he said his name was Joe Leary, and that his mother, with whom he came to town in the morning, had left him behind. It would appear from his story that the little fellow had been left by his mother, who returned home early in the day, in charge of an uncle, who was not to leave till the evening. The lad states that his uncle had told him to stop it a certain place and wait for him there, but, not returning, the little fellow wandered off and became lost when found by the good Samaritan, as related above, who took the youngster home with him, and next morning sent him on a freight train to Indian River to his father, John Leary, who lives a mile and a half from that station. The little fellow left happy.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Duty to the Dead.

A resident of Peterborough while rambling through the northern suburbs yesterday counted no less than six dead dogs lying on the roadside in various places. The undertakers are evidently following out the scriptural injunction: "Let the dead bury the dead"; but when a dead dog refuses to rise up and give its defunct relative a respectable interment, it is the manifest duty of the citizens who owned the unfortunate canines to perform that operation. The sanitory inspector thinks so anyhow, and he knows the law on the subject.

Another Failure.

Sunday morning Mr. C. H. Clementi found the catch wrenched off the kitchen window of his house on Water street, and marks in the sash where a pry had been inserted and an effort made to raise the window. Fortunately the attempt failed. Too much care cannot be exercised by our citizens in securely fastening their premises at night. It is to be hoped that the police will be on the alert and endeavor to "spot" some of these light-fingered gentry, who are practicing their profession about town altogether too frequently for comfort.

Fined for Fighting.

P. C. Pidgeon captured T. McGinty and P. McDonough while fighting, Saturday night. Each was fined $5.50, this morning. P. C. McGinty also accused Jas. Moore with being drunk and disorderly, and a $5.50 fine was imposed on him also.

Personal.

Mr. John Bertram is recovering from his recent illness.

The public will be pleased to learn that the condition of Mr. Thos. Blezard, M.P.P., shows an improvement over last week.

LOCAL SPORTING EVENTS.

Cricket, Baseball and Bicycling—Turf Topics.

Willow and Wicket.

The first game of the season was played on Saturday afternoon, and a very pleasant game was the result. The full team of married men did not turn up (although more than eleven had promised) but those who did play were, with the assistance of a few who joined as bonedicts "for this occasion only," quite enough for the poor bachelors. The married won the toss and went in, Ray and Dr. Burnham batting first. The Doctor showed those he has not yet forgotten how to handle the bat, as he stayed a considerable time for his 7. Ray, Salisbury and Giroux hit hard for their scores, but none of the others did much. W. Hamilton was the most successful bowler for the single men, securing 5 wickets.

The bachelors then went to bat and three wickets fell for as many runs. Hamilton and Newbold batted in fine form for their runs, and both give promise of strengthening the eleven this year. The rest of the team were easily disposed of.

Considering that this was the first practice game of the season, the club is to be congratulated on the good turn-out of members. Score:—

The Turf.

The Queen's birthday races, under the auspices of the Peterborough Driving Park Association, on the Driving Park, are attracting much attention, and promise to be exciting indeed. All the local horses will compete, and some from a distance. Races will be called at one o'clock, sharp. Admission to the park, 25c. For particulars see posters, or correspond with the Secretary, Mr. Alex. Elliott.

The Diamond.

Great interest is manifested in the coming baseball matches on the 24th of May, on the P.A.A.A. Grounds. Though the Lindsay-Peterborough match is perhaps the event of the day, much talk is expended over the game which will take place in the forenoon, between the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co's. club and the Lock Works team, which it is expected will be fully as exciting. Everybody is preparing for a big sporting day on the 24th.

All endeavors to infuse anything like enthusiasm into Port Hope ball-tossers has signally failed, and in consequence the Times is in an agony of spirit.

A plucky game of baseball was played on Saturday afternoon, between the "Victorias" and "Iron Clads," two junior clubs that seem to have been thirsting for each other's scalps ever since the first green blade of grass popped up. The result of the match was a victory for the boys of the "Victorias", who waxed their opponents by a score of 22 to 2. The "Victorias" were captained by Master Lionel King and the "Iron Clads" by Master George Brousseau.

The Wheel.

Two local bicyclists made the run to Young's Point yesterday—the first trip to the Point on record. They report the roads in fair condition.

Ament bicycling, Dr. Geo. E. Blackham, speaking before the Academy of Science, Rochester, said:—"Bicycles afford incomparably the best and most agreeable form of exercise yet devised—better than gymnasia, health lifts, etc., in that they take the 'cycler out of doors into the pure, fresh air and sunshine; better than walking, rowing, horseback riding, in that they exercise more muscles more evenly and quietly. The idea that the muscles of the leg only are developed by 'cycling is a common and exceedingly erroneous one. In point of fact, nearly every muscle in the body is brought into gentle play. The lungs draw in deeper inspirations of pure air; the heart beats fuller, quicker and more freely, and sends the blood more rapidly to be aerated and thence onward to the remotest capillaries, renewing and recreating every nerve and muscle-cell; the tired brain is relieved of its weary load of surplus blood, and the nappy 'cycler returns from his run of five, ten or twenty miles refreshed and rested, with an appetite and digestion like a wood-chopper, and a capability of sweet and restful sleep that goes only with a clear conscience and a healthy body. The Pharmacopeia contains no tonic, blood purifier and hypnotic at all comparable for agreeableness and efficiency to the combination of steel and rubber in a good bicycle. I know whereof I speak, because I rode my wheel out of the valley of the shadow of cerebral exhaustion and insomnia into excellent health."

Squibs.

Every-day fishing parties are leaving town for the "happy fishing grounds," returning heavily laden with fish-stories. Harry, Jim and a couple of others spent Friday afternoon in that way, returning in the evening with one poor little perch which had yielded to the temptation to "bite" and lost its life for its folly. It was about four inches long—just an inch of fish each for an afternoon's sport. They "head-and-tailed" for the head and tail.

Mr. Matt Vanderwater, of Sidney, while fishing in the Trent River, caught a sturgeon weighing 170 pounds, and measuring six feet seven inches in length.

Woodchuck fighting engages the attention of Orono sports. The woodchucks are pitted against rat-terriers. A number of such fights have taken place lately, the woodchuck in every instance fighting gamely to the finish, but having finally to succumb to the superior powers of the dog.

LOGIC OF MR. GEORGE.

HE LECTURES LAST EVENING ON "LAND AND LABOR."

TORONTO, May 17.

The audience which greeted Mr. Henry George, who lectured on "Land and Labor" at the Pavilion last evening, was not large, at least not so large as one might expect from the fame and world-wide notoriety of the lecturer, i.e., as an apostle of land reform and kindred questions. The lack in numbers was more than made up by the intense earnestness of the audience and the long continued applause which, from time to time, greeted the lecturer, whenever he made a happy and convincing point in the question at issue.

Mr. E. F. Clarke, M.P.P., occupied the chair, and introduced Mr. George amidst vigorous applause. Mr. George began his lecture by dilating on the importance of the subject of labor. The question of labor at the present time is that the laborer does not get his fair share of the benefits and profits of his toil. This is the source of all the movements in connection with capital and labor and will continue until the problem is solved. This is why organized labor has become necessary. He referred to the custom houses between Canada and the United States, and asked why they are placed there? The answer is to prevent foreigners from doing our work. And yet, strange to say, no man loves work.

On the same ground the laboring classes are opposed to machinery as the enemy of labor. This all shows, apart from observation, that the masses are not all employed. Why should not every person be employed? Two false reasons are given by political economists. The first is that given by Malthus, that population out-runs living. This is tantamount to throwing the blame of the misery and poverty of the world on the Creator of the world. The second reason given is that too many things are produced, or there is over-production.

The lecturer ridiculed this argument unmercifully and kept the audience in a vein of laughter and applause while he exposed, by apt and witty illustrations, its fallacy. "Did you ever hear," he asked, "of a farmer who said that there was too much grass when his cow was starving? [Applause.] Too much production, when women are compelled to engage in unwomanly toil and boys working in factories when they should be at school, while millions are clad in rags, live in squalor and hunger. The cause of the misery of the world is not over production but unjust distribution. The solution of the labor question will be accomplished when every man can get work."

Mr. George then discussed the different kinds of labor, pointing out that productive labor is the source of all wealth. If so, the toiler should have wealth and luxury and the man who does not work should be in squalor and poverty. The reverse is the case, and this is so inconsistent as to demand an explanation—which is that labor is robbed.

This is strange, but it is still stranger that all men cannot get employment to provide for themselves the necessaries of life. It is not because the Creator did not supply us with abundance of raw material. In New York two families are living in one flat. Here is room enough for employment by building more houses to relieve the crowed state of the city. Here is work. Besides there are vacant lots enough. Why don't they build? This brought the lecturer to the principal and most important part of his argument. The answer to the question is that the land is monopolized by a few. In the coal regions of Pennsylvania the miners are poor and cannot get work because the mines are monopolized. The same with all kinds of lands. Open these and there would not be an unemployed man in America. The earth is large enough for all, but what was intended for all is held by a few.

He then discussed the effect which the system of a few holding the land has in Scotland and Ireland, arguing that while there is an abundance of trout in the streams, fish in the sea and a wide area of fertile land, the people are starving and dying of disease produced by improper nourishment. The land belongs to the people, and if it does not they should leave this world for another. What right has a man to hold land by a title which goes back as far as the reign of James II. The dead have no right to this earth now. But as the present system of land tenure is, the dead have more to say as to the ownership of land than the living. The ownership of land is different from other things. No one can defend on equity that the land belongs to a few. The just title to property is that what a man makes is his, so long as his use of it does not injure any people else.

We must devise some method of giving to each individual what is his by right. This does not mean equality. Divide the land and make each man a landlord. Abolish the curse on industry and put them on the land. If this is done, landlords will either sell the land or give it away. This would give a chance to every man to build a home of his own, and thus the glut in the labor market would disappear. It is the people that give value to land and not the owner.

NO MISTAKE FOR SURE

WILLIAM O'BRIEN LEAVES MONTREAL FOR TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 17.

Mr. Wm. O'Brien, editor of United Ireland, and the newly-elected M.P. for the Northeast division of Cork, did not arrive in the city yesterday morning, as was expected. President Mulligan of the Toronto Branch of the Irish National League, Treasurer Baldwin Teefy and about a score of the members, besides other sympathizers in the cause, and a half dozen of reporters, were gathered at Union Station at 8 o'clock, waiting the arrival of Mr. O'Brien, they knew not whether by the G.T.R. or the C.P.R. trains, which are due to arrive at 8 and 8.27 respectively. He did not come by the G.T.R., and before the other train rolled in this despatch, dated at Montreal the night before, had been received:

Not having received telegram, we will leave for Toronto to-morrow evening. Three splendid meetings here to-day.

The cause of his not coming was that, while Mr. O'Brien said in his despatch of Saturday night to President Mulligan that he would leave for Toronto on Sunday night if so desired, the League did not inform him that such was the desire, but took it for granted that he was coming. However, The World received a despatch yesterday afternoon, saying that Mr. O'Brien would leave Montreal at 11.40 last night by the Grand Trunk Railway. He should therefore arrive here at 11 o'clock this morning. He will be met at the Union Station by officers and members of the League, and thence proceed to the Rossin House where, between 12 and 1 o'clock, he will be presented with an address.

Mr. O'Brien is announced to deliver his public speech in the Queen's Park at 6.30 this afternoon. It was 5 o'clock last evening before the committee, after searching for a suitable place, decided that the meeting would be held in the Park, where Mr. O'Brien will address the gathering from the very stand from which he was denounced on Saturday. The police authorities have promised every protection, and Chief Grasett will have there a force of men, mounted and on foot, which will be equal to any emergency.

The complimentary banquet to Mr. O'Brien will be held at the Rossin House at 9 o'clock to-night. The demand for tickets has been beyond what was anticipated. So great is it that the sale will be closed at 8 o'clock this morning and it is requested that those holding tickets for sale shall make a return early to-day.

Mr. O'Brien is announced to speak in Ottawa to-morrow night, whither he will proceed in the morning. He purposes speaking in Kingston on Saturday night, and this will likely be his last speech of his Canadian tour.

Asking for Police Protection.

President Mulligan went to Police Headquarters yesterday and told Chief Grasett that Mr. O'Brien would probably speak in Queen's Park this afternoon. It is understood the entire police force will be called out to maintain order.

An Important Proceeding.

OTTAWA, May 16.—Every member of the House who voted against the Curran resolutions received to-day, from the Clerk of the City of Dublin, copies of a resolution passed by the Dublin City Council, which after denouncing Lord Lansdowne in round terms, closes with the following words:

"That we hereby call upon the Canadian people to vindicate the cause of the oppressed tenants by marking their sense of the conduct of the Governor-General of their Dominion by giving an enthusiastic welcome to the tenants' advocate, Wm. O'Brien, and making his visit to Canada a triumphant success."

STRATHROY'S REEVE AND WARDEN OF A COUNTY A DEFAULTER.

LONDON, Ont., May 16.—L. Cleverdon, Reeve of Strathroy and Warden of the County of Middlesex, is reported to have skipped, leaving very heavy liabilities and a quantity of forged paper behind. On Wednesday last he left the town apparently on a business trip, which he does three or four times a week, and nothing was thought of it at the time. On Saturday, however, when he did not return, inquiries were made for him at his house, when Mrs. Cleverdon, so it is alleged, stated that he had gone to Brazil, and would not be back. This news rapidly spread through the town yesterday, and created the greatest excitement. The developments which followed showed that merchants, bankers, brokers, insurance agents, and in fact everybody had been taken in. One bank, it is alleged, is in for $18,000 advanced to Cleverdon on forged bills of lading. As is well known, Cleverdon was one of the largest cheese exporters in Canada. He shipped mostly to a Liverpool firm and they gave the bank instructions to cash all sight drafts made by Cleverdon on them on the presentation of the bills of lading, without waiting to first find out if the Liverpool firm would accept them. Cleverdon had been working on this principle for a long time, and therefore when he produced bills of lading for $18,000 worth of cheese it excited no suspicion. It is now said that these bills were forged and that not one pound of cheese was ever shipped. At the mercantile agencies Cleverdon has not been rated at all.

It was reported a couple of weeks ago that Cleverdon had made a haul of $20,000 in bucket shop transactions, which report, however, it turns out, was incorrect. Cleverdon is at the present time Reeve of Strathroy, Warden of the County of Middlesex, one of the Directors of the Western Fair and Superintendent of the Methodist Sabbath School. He is one of the best known men in western Ontario, having lived in Strathroy many years and held various municipal positions.

THE CANADA SOUTHERN.

The C.P.R. Will Use It as a Link From St. Thomas to Toledo.

NEW YORK, May 16.—An official of the Canada Southern Railway states that negotiations between the Canada Southern and Canadian Pacific Railway are nearly completed. The Canadian Pacific will use the Canada Southern as a link from St. Thomas to Toledo, where a connection will be made with the Wabash railway, which has already agreed to an arrangement with the Canadian Pacific. The connection will restore the southwestern business to the Canada Southern, which it relinquished when it joined with the Michigan Central.

Suspension of coal mining in the anthracite region has been ordered for May 21. The object of the shut down is to relieve the surplus at tidewater points.

About thirty houses and their contents in the Chinese quarters at Tacoma, Col., were burned Sunday evening. The fire originated in a dance house through the upsetting of a lighted lamp. Loss $50,000.

IRON MEN COMPLAIN.

THE GRIEVANCES OF THE MONTREAL DEPUTATION.

OTTAWA, May 16.—Parliamentary proceedings were dwarfed into insignificance to-day before the invasion of incensed, wrathful, disgrun led and belligerent iron men from Montreal. They came down on the town with intent to devour. They went away to-night with the meekness of shorn lambs and the wind not tempered, either. The whole trouble with the Montreal men was that though they had interviewed the Government with regard to changes in the tariff respecting iron and steel, and though they expected changes they did not dream that the tariff would be revolutionized and consequently neglected to stand from under, and the men of iron, the Tubal Cains of the City of Floods in the spring time, have said the new tariff must be altered, but the laws of Sir Charles Tupper are as the laws of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not on general principles, and the men of Montreal have gone home to bite files. The western men are more wise. They sniffed the tariff changes from afar off. They builded their iron ark of refuge and they are satisfied with what is to come. The Montreal men began to arrive yesterday, the morning trains landing scores of them. They herded at the Russell House and resolved to do or die. After lunch they marched in single file up to the headquarters of the Finance Minister and drove the secretary half crazy in trying to provide accommodation for them. Among those who got into the room were W. McMaster, J. A. Pillow, R. Hussey, Jas. Peck, W. S. Drydon, W. Abbott, John Hudson, A. T. Patterson of the Londonderry Iron Works, Cantley of the Nova Scotia Steel Works, Beddoe of the Hamilton Rolling Mills, Dunlitle of the Ontario Rolling Works, Hamiltons.

Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell received the deputation. Besides the Ministers Messrs. Curran, Counsel, Wilson (Argenteuil) and Adam Brown and Sir Donald Smith, M.P.'s, were present. Mr. Curran introduced the deputation. He said the duty on pig iron was not objected to even if it was raised to the point of prohibition; but with regard to other qualities of iron and steel not at present produced, nor likely for some considerable time to be produced in Canada in quantities sufficient for the trade, objection was taken. There were mills in Montreal, whose representatives were present, employing thousands of hands, that would be closed down if the proposed policy of the Government was carried out.

The next most important deputation to-day was another Montreal throng, among whom were Thos. Workman, Jas. Crathern, A. Macpherson, J. Hutton, B. J. Coghlin, C. F. Saunderson, J. R. Wilson, H. Russell, G. E. Drummond, A. C. Leslie, W. H. Meredith, J. B. Learmonth, Geo. Keeves, W. M. Knowles, C. J. Chisholm and E. Huser. They were present with a big grievance.

Col. Hutton was the first speaker, and stated that while the iron importers were prepared for slight changes in the tariff they were not prepared for the complete revolution which had been announced. They found themselves with large contracts on hand based on the old duties which, if some relief was not given them, would prove ruinous. They did not ask a change in the tariff, but as regarding existing contracts they might have some consideration extended them. One instance was given where a firm were under contract to deliver 3000 tons of cast-iron pipes. The increase in the duty was from 30 to 90 per cent. That firm would be ruined if relief was not given.

Sir Charles Tupper said relief would have to be given in some way as far as present contracts were concerned. He would bring the matter before the Government and would support it himself.

Messrs. Brown and McKay, the Hamilton members, had an interview to-day with the Minister of Customs regarding the question of the tariff relative to the manufacture of small tools, in which certain Hamilton manufacturers were interested. The changes they proposed in the duties were promised every consideration.

Mr. Green of Toronto, representing the felt hat interest, waited upon the Minister of Finance, accompanied by Messrs. Brown, McKay, Cockburn and Small. The contention of the manufacturers of fur, felt hats and straw goods for a readjustment of the tariff was brought strongly before the Minister, who promised to bring the matter before his colleagues.

Mr. Wesley Campbell of Hamilton had an interview with the Minister of Customs to-day regarding fire bricks for stoves and grates, claiming that such should be dutiable. He was accompanied by Messrs. Brown and McKay. It is likely Mr. Campbell's views will prevail.

Mr. J. S. McMahon of Hamilton, who is interested as an importer of glass table ware, had an interview with the Minister of Customs in relation to the proper classifying of the goods for duty papers. Messrs. Brown and McKay accompanied Mr. McMahon. It was arranged that a further interview was to be granted to-morrow to permit others in the trade to be present.

Messrs. R. Reford and D. W. Ross of the Montreal rice mills had an interview with the Ministers of Finance and Customs in reference to the rice duties. They were accompanied by Messrs. Shakespeare, Baker, Mara, Gordon and Brown. It was explained that the company had large mills in Montreal and British Columbia and the statement made that unless the duty on rough rice was taken off or an increase of duty put on cleaned rice the business would be materially injured. The Minister of Finance promised to take the matter into consideration.

A N.Y. SUN EDITORIAL.

Annexation Must Precede Commercial Union.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Sun, in its leading editorial this morning, says: "It is reported that the leading men of the Dominion Government at Ottawa are seriously considering the project of commercial union with the United States. Just what the details of that project may be we do not know nor care to enquire, but we tell the Canadian statesmen that nothing short of a political union, under the constitution of the United States, will give them what they want, viz., perfect free trade between Canada and all the States of the great republic. It is equally certain that the course of petty annoyances which seems to have been inaugurated, whether originating in England or Canada, can have but one conclusion, namely an absolute back down on the part of its authors or the conquest on ours."

The Fool Who Rocks the Boat.

LACROSSE, Wis., May 16.—Four young people attending a German picnic were out in a row boat yesterday afternoon opposite the city. The men, half drunk, sought to frighten Miss Katie Litzkie, the only lady in the boat, by rocking it. The boat capsized and Miss Litzkie and John Beyer were drowned. The other two were saved.

Given Up for Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—The American ship Charles H. Marshall, which cleared London Dec. 5 for Philadelphia or New York, and passed the Isle of Wight on Dec. 15, has been given up as lost, with her crew of twenty-three men. She was commanded by Capt. Hutchinson, a resident of Syracuse, N.Y., who leaves several children and a widow.

The Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1887.

A QUEBEC despatch says the Mercier Government have received nearly $4,000 already of conscience money from parties in different sections of the Province, since they have begun their investigation of the colonization frauds.

A BILL introduced into the Quebec Assembly by Mr. Laliberte, proposes to enact that no election petition shall be received or maintained unless the petitioner prays in his petition that the member returned by the returning officer as elected be deprived of his political rights and that the defeated candidate be declared elected.

RETURNS recently compiled show that Lord Lansdowne's Irish estates comprise a large proportion of the county of Kerry, Ireland—95,000 acres—besides 13,000 acres in the county of Meath and the now much-talked-of Luggacurran estate in Queen's county.

THE Toronto News (Independent), says:—"Another Ontario railway, the Ontario and Sault Ste. Marie Line, is to be removed from the jurisdiction of the Province and placed under that of the Dominion. If it were a Quebec road there would, of course, be a large sum of money voted to the Province as compensation. But in dealing with this Province, nothing of the kind is necessary. The Ontario majority never kicks."

Now that Irish evictions in all their phases form the staple of the cablegrams, the following figures, showing agrarian evictions in Ireland during the past quarter, will not be without interest:

	Families.	Persons.
Ulster	145	619
Leinster	143	599
Connaught	198	953
Munster*	1,531	2,880
Totals	1,008	5,012

*In Kerry alone 306 families, or 1,766 persons, were evicted

GREAT BRITAIN seems to be compelled to add to the territories of the empire. When she declines to take overt steps in this direction, the territory seems disposed to add itself. British people, attracted by the gold discoveries, have been flocking into the Transvaal at such a rate that that territory is becoming British by mere colonization. This is an extension of British influence. The Mail, in its wild race crusade, found fault with the colonization spirit of the French-Canadians, who, it bewailed, were pushing themselves ahead and colonizing the waste places of the Dominion. If they show more enterprise than English-speaking Canadians, every good citizen should wish them God speed—for the settlement of the country is what we want.

Save the Streets.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

I have carefully read your well reasoned editorial in reference to the proposal of Mr. Carnegie to give him that part of Water street lying between Dalhousie and Sherbrooke streets, and a certain portion of the latter street, in order to increase his property near the river and formerly owned by Mr. Romaine. This is a request which cannot be complied with. The interests of the town demand that its streets be maintained intact. If Mr. Carnegie's request were complied with a similar request on the part of some one else should be dealt with in the same generous manner. And then, let me ask, where is this giving away of the streets to stop? The councillors are the trustees of the town, and they hold the streets in trust for the use of the people of the town. And, whatever power they may have in the premises, they certainly have no right to sell or give away property thus intrusted to them without the deliberate sanction of the whole people of the town. The property in question is a most valuable one and it gives free access to the river for a long distance—over four hundred feet—and is a most desirable locality, a privilege which will be of more benefit in future years. By and by, when that portion of the town lying near those streets becomes filled up with houses and people, the use of those streets will be more extensively felt and appreciated. No one need blame Mr. Carnegie for wishing to get the ownership of these streets, and thus improve his own fortunes, but the public must see to it that its rights are preserved intact, and that no violation of those rights be permitted. Forty or more years ago the then District Council very unadvisedly and wrongfully conveyed away to the late Judge Hall portions of certain streets lying in the neighbourhood of his mill property. The town then was small and comparatively insignificant, and those District Councillors thought these portions of streets would never be wanted. They were false prophets, as we of the present day know how much better for the interests of the town it would have been had these streets never been interfered with. This state of things is widely different now. Peterborough has grown to be a large town, and its further growth and wants cannot be estimated. All its streets will be needed for present and future use, and not one foot of any of its streets should be interfered with except to further the comfort and convenience of its people. This property asked for by Mr. Carnegie cannot be worth less than three or four thousand dollars as a mere matter of speculation. But to the future wants of the public it is simply invaluable. The whole people of the town should be alive to this matter, and they should stamp out any willingness on the part of any Councillor to part with any of the streets of the town, and they should forever ignore any Councillors who evinced the least readiness to do so. And especially, they should preserve the streets lying, as the streets in question do, along the river front.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

Peterborough, May 17th, 1887.

A BRILLIANT DISPLAY.

The People's Palace in London Opened by Her Majesty the Queen.

LONDON, May 14.—London was all ablaze with excitement this afternoon, the occasion being the visit of the Queen for the purpose of opening the People's Palace at Mile End. The route selected for the royal progress extended from Paddington Station in the western portion of London to Mile End at the extreme eastern limit, a distance of about eight miles. The buildings along the entire way were gaily decorated with banners, wreaths, colored trophies and flags, the Irish colors and the Stars and Stripes being conspicuous in many places. White Chapel-road presented in perspective from almost any point a long vista of triumphal arches. The carriages were escorted by a troop of cavalry. The line of the procession was guarded by 10,000 volunteers and 5000 regular troops, comprising artillery, infantry and cavalry, all selected largely with a view to the brilliancy and contrast of their different uniforms as additions to the pageant.

The Lord Mayor and the municipal officers of the City of London went in carriages from the Mansion House to the city's boundary line at Holborn. They alighted and awaited the Queen, who was in an open carriage. At the Queen's approach the Lord Mayor received the pearl sword from the sword-bearer. His Worship lowered the point and congratulated Her Majesty on coming to the most loyal city and presented the sword to the Queen. She took it and returned it. The Lord Mayor and retinue then placed themselves immediately in advance of the Queen's carriage, and escorted her across the city to the eastern boundary at Aldgate. There they bade her farewell for a brief time, and repaired to the Mansion House to await Her Majesty's return. The Queen proceeded to the People's Palace and ascended the dais, where the Prince of Wales, the Marquis of Lorne, the Duke of Cambridge and the Archbishop of Canterbury were assembled, the choir singing the National Anthem. The Queen then received the gold key, Miss. Albani sang "Home, Sweet Home" and the Prince of Wales declared the People's Palace open. The announcement was greeted with a great flourish of trumpets, followed by a grand chorus rendering "Old Hundred." Subsequently the Queen laid the first stone of the foundation for the technical schools attached to the People's Palace. The Archbishop of Canterbury prayed for and blessed the people and pronounced the benediction. Upon the conclusion of the ceremonies the royal procession started on its return. By command of the Queen the longest route back was taken, the procession moving off into Burdett-road, going thence along Commercial-road to Aldgate. This deviation was ordered to please the citizens, who requested it. Arriving again at the city limits the royal carriage was met by the Lord Mayor and civic officials and escorted back to the Mansion House, which the Queen entered in state for the first time in her life. The Lord Mayor wore crimson and ermine robes, only assumed when the sovereign visits him. He conducted the Queen to the tea room. The weather was fine all day.

The Queen subsequently returned to Windsor.

HAMILTON AFFAIRS.

Fatally Kicked by a Horse—Threatened Strike of the Bakers.

HAMILTON, May 16.—James Hill, a nephew of P. Moron, was run over and seriously injured yesterday, but to-day has recovered consciousness and is reported out of danger. The father of the young man who caused the injury, has offered to pay all medical expenses.

An accident happened to Andrew Ringer, a little son of Ed. W. Ringer, yesterday. He was kicked by a horse while trying to get a ball from under its feet. It is doubtful whether he will recover, as his skull is badly crushed. Dr. Woolverton, Malloch and Mullen are attending him.

There is trouble among the bakers, and the Executive Board of the K. of L. are trying hard to avoid a strike, which is seemingly inevitable, if the difficulty be not settled by to-morrow.

Mr. C. L. Ward of Oak Hall has been presented by his fellow employes with a beautiful gold chain, locket and Oddfellow's pin, previous to his departure for Rochester.

James Whittaker, a lad 10 years old, came very near drowning while trying to fasten his boat at the wharf this morning. Robert Renton rescued him by jumping into the water just as he was sinking for the last time.

The Ministerial Association held their regular meeting to-day, Rev. Jos. Odery in the chair. After the reading and adoption of the different reports the list for pulpit exchanges was arranged, and the association adjourned for the summer.

A Propeller Ashore.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 16.—Smoke from forest fires is making navigation perilous on Lake Superior. Yesterday the propeller Jay Gould, bound from Chicago to Duluth with a cargo of merchandise, lost her bearings on account of smoke and ran ashore off White Fish Point. The propeller Peerless heard her signals of distress and, after three hours' work, succeeded in releasing her. The extent of her injuries, if any, is not known.

A Shaver of Counterfeit Money.

PORT ELGIN, May 16.—James Sawyer of the Dominion Police Force, Ottawa, and E. Briggs, County Constable, arrested Henry Kennedy, hotelkeeper of Burgoyne, for passing counterfeit coin on May 2, 1887, to four Indians at Chippewa Hill. He has been committed for trial.

The Nanaimo Disaster.

NANAIMO, B.C., May 16.—The bodies of seventeen more victims have been brought up out of the mine, and six white men and eleven Chinamen are yet to be found. The bodies were all badly burned. Work in the south shaft will be resumed to-day.

Vicar-General Quinn's Remains.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The steamer Arizona, which arrived this morning had on board the remains of Vicar-General Quinn, who died while on a visit abroad.

SPORTS OF SPORT.

BUFFALO, May 16.—The home team won its second game with Toronto to-day. Brilliant fielding and effective batting were features of the contest. Buffalo scored 4 runs in the first and second innings, and Toronto tied the score in the 7th. In the 9th the visitors added another single, but Buffalo succeeded in going them one better before a batter was retired. Alberts made a remarkable catch, having to jump for the ball. Romsen's outfield play for the Buffalos was liberally applauded. Score:

Montana Regent Wins the Louisville Cup.

LOUISVILLE, May 16.—The Louisville cup, 2½ miles, was the event of the day at the Jockey Club meeting and proved a pretty race. Montana Regent, winner of the cup for the last two years, was again a competitor. This time he had to face the famous Montana Regent, who sold favorite. The other starter, Solid Silver, was also a Baldwin entry. The latter had the pace and held the lead until he wearied, when Lucky B. failed to take it up, allowing Regent to win by three-quarters of a length. Murphy, who rode Lucky B., claimed a foul but it was not allowed. Baldwin is said to be very angry at the result and to-night challenged Morris to run Regent against Lucky B. or Volante for the Cup, distance 2½ miles, for any amount between $5000 and $50,000. Summaries:

First Race—Brewing Company purse, $300, mile heats—First heat, Billy Gilmore, 117, won; Brookfull, 118, second; O'Tellus, 94, third. Time 1:48¼. Second heat, Billy Gilmore first, Brookfull second. Time 1:44¾.

Second Race—Louisville Cup, a sweepstake for all ages, 2½ miles:

J. D. Mortimer's ch. c. Montana Regent, 4 yrs., by Regent—Christina, 118.....1
E. J. Baldwin's b. h. Lucky B., aged, by Enterprise—Maggie Emerson, 126.....2
E. J. Baldwin's ch. g. Solid Silver, 4 yrs., by Grimstead—Josie C., 118.....3

Time 4:39.

Third Race—Purse $400, mile and a furlong—Jim Nave, 98, won; Aristocrat, 108, second; Brilliant, 101, third. Time, 1:59.

Fourth Race—Purse $400, 1¼ miles—Rigis, 116, won; Libretto, 108, second; St. Valentine, 91, third. Time, 2:11¾.

Fifth Race—For 2-year-olds, 5 furlongs—Crawford, 103, won; Outstep, 95, second; Barrister, 103, third. Time, 1:04.

Sixth Race—For all ages, ¾ mile—Rio Grande, 105, won; Belle Hardy, 98, second; Revolve, 107, third. Time, 1:16.

A MANITOBA HOTEL BURNED.

An Inmate of the Place Loses His Life in the Flames.

BOISSAIN, Man., May 16.—The Ryan House caught fire early yesterday morning and the flames spread so rapidly under a strong wind that the guests barely escaped in their night clothes. Duncan McBain, a grain dealer, was burned to death. An unsuccessful attempt was made to awaken him. He had just received a large sum of money from his firm the day previous to the fire. Foul play is suspected. The guests lost all their personal effects.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and ocean, and thousands of scenes of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw6

Worth ten Dollars a Bottle.

Any person who has used Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy in the world for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute, lame back at one application; headache in a few moments and all pains just as rapidly. Small test bottles only cost 10 cents. Why not try it to-day? Large bottles 25 cents, sold by all druggists and country dealers. Use Polson's nerve pain cure—Nerviline. 6dw20

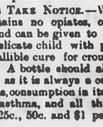
ST JACOBS OIL



THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

CURES RHEUMATISM,

The Terrible Torture—Rheumatism.

Chief of Police Stewart, Hamilton, Ontario, says: "I consider St. Jacobs Oil as an invaluable article, and shall not hesitate to recommend it to my friends,—or enemies, for that matter—when I find them seeking anything for the alleviation of the terrible torture of rheumatism.

Wonderful for Rheumatism.

Mr. John Kelly, grocer, Kingston, Canada, says: I have found St. Jacobs Oil a wonderful and efficacious remedy for rheumatism.

Good, Safe, Sure for Rheumatism.

Hon. John Holmes, Superintendent of the House of Industry, Kingston, says: I know St. Jacobs Oil to be meritorious, because it cured me of the rheumatism and it did so in such a way as to leave no doubt that its claims are just. I think it is a good, safe and sure remedy, and such as is needed in our climate, where rheumatism is, of all diseases, the most prevalent and most difficult to combat.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. J. D. Murray, Govt. Agricultural Department, Ottawa, Canada, says: I recommend St. Jacobs Oil to sufferers with rheumatism. It cured me.

Cured of Rheumatism—Well as Ever.

Mr. Robert Wilson of the City Surveyor's office, and Street Commissioner of the Eastern Division for the Board of Public Works, Toronto, Ont., says: The rheumatism has been a source of great bother to me, and I have done a great deal of doctoring for it without much good. A friend recommended St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy. I tried it, and the result is that I am now cured, and as well as ever."

Every household shelf should have it; every testimonial strictly true; every day increased demands; every patient is amazed when cured; every ache or pain succumbs; every dealer knows its merits; every chemist finds it perfect. St. Jacobs Oil. Sold by druggists everywhere. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Canadian Branch, 84 York street, Toronto.

LOCAL NEWS.

Forest Fires.

The smoky atmosphere which has been so noticeable in town of late is due to extensive forest fires which are raging in the townships back of Bancroft.

Turnbull's is the right house for Boys Clothing. His styles are new, and prices the lowest. Examine and be convinced.

15 per cent. interest can be obtained at T. Hurley's real estate agency. Call and see some of his investments, which will pay five times more interest than banks will allow.

Battery Drill.

The members of the Battery are requested to turn out for drill this evening at the drill shed. The battery will fire a royal salute at noon on the Queen's birthday.

A Night Bell.

A telephone has been placed in Mr. Geo. Schofield's sleeping apartments over his drug store on George street. Any night calls made over the wires will be promptly attended to.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Arrived at Turnbull's by express, several quite new and stylish shapes in Bonnets and Hats, such as the Graceful, Tandan, Toboggan, Sylvia, Northwood, Bacon, and others too numerous to mention.

Miss Mittie Fraine.

Don't miss hearing Miss Fraine, one of the best elocutionists in Canada. She will read in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Friday evening next. Miss Stephens and Mr. A. D. Browne will render vocal music. Tickets, 25 cents.

Jubilee Celebration.

Notices have been issued of a meeting to be held in the committee rooms of the Council Chamber this Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The object of the meeting is for the purpose of deciding as to the "best and most fitting manner of celebrating the Queen's Jubilee in town the 21st of June."

Service of Praise.

The service of praise which was rendered with such success in St. Paul's Church on Monday, May 9th, will be repeated in George street Methodist Church on Thursday, evening, May 26th, under the direction of Mr. Parker. Admission free, silver collection. It is to be hoped that all who did not hear this really fine entertainment will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

For reliable Kid Gloves, try the Alexandre make; to be had, in all the leading shades, at Turnbull's.

House-cleaning.

As house-cleaning is completed, it would be a good idea to furnish the bed-rooms with new crockery, etc. Call at China Hall and buy what Chamber Sets you need before the price is raised in consequence of the advance in duty on these goods.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Turnbull sells Gretonne, Prints, and Sateen Lessons by the pound. For bargains go to Turnbull's.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

See Turnbull's Carpets at 20c., 12½c., 15c., 17c., 20c. and 25c. a yard. Good patterns and grand value.

Live Stock Shipment.

Mr. Wm. Deacon shipped another carload of hogs and sheep to Montreal via G. T. R. to-day.

No. 4 Company.

The members of No. 4 Company are requested to muster in full force at the drill shed this evening at 7.30. A special occasion.

Confirmation Services.

His Lordship, the bishop of Toronto, will administer the rite of Confirmation in St. John's and St. Luke's Church, on Sunday, July 10.

Doing Their Share.

At the regular meeting of Otonabee Lodge of Oddfellows Monday evening, Bros. Wm. Clurton, P.G., J. L. Hughes and E. E. Henderson were appointed a committee to co-operate with the several committees appointed by the various societies in town to consider the matter of properly celebrating the Queen's Jubilee. It is to be hoped these committees will actively co-operate and arrange for a fitting celebration of the Jubilee year of Her Majesty's reign.

Regatta Prizes.

Messrs. E. C. Strickland, Lakefield, J. G. Edwards, Lindsay, and Jas. McKendrick, Toronto, have been appointed a regatta committee of the Northern Division, A.C.A., and they desire to intimate that they would appreciate co-operation on the part of the ladies, similar to that so liberally given in former years. They hope that the ladies interested in canoeing, will find leisure to contribute flags and pennants suitable for prizes on the occasion of the regatta of the annual meeting of the Association. The committee would esteem it a favor if those willing to contribute flags, etc., would be good enough to have them in readiness or assured by the 25th of July.

Signs of Summer.

The itinerant umbrella-mender and Italian harp and fiddle fiends have struck the town, the former plying his trade while sitting on the edge of the sidewalk surrounded by a gaping, jostling crowd of youngsters, spinning yarns to them or being made the willing butt of their practical jokes and cutting witticisms; the latter sawing and thumbing the most dolorous strains imaginable from their instruments for a paltry reward of a few coppers. The first-mentioned individual, of a naturally thirsty temperament, is on the look-out for the inventor of the Scott Act, who, if he be a wise man, will give the swarthy umbrella-mender a wide berth.

Notice of Visit.

Professor J. D. Kay, from the establishment of B. Laurance & Co., Montreal, will be at Mr. John McKee's drug store on 21st and 23rd of May for consultation. He is specially qualified to adjust spectacles for every requirement of the eye, and secure to you such advantages as are only to be found in the largest cities. No matter what the difficulties he will, where relief can be afforded to, fit you to perfection, giving you the most certain aids to sight—B. Laurance's Spectacles—which have an acknowledged reputation for superiority everywhere. The Brazilian & Scotch Pebbles of his own manufacture, are delightfully easy and pleasant to wear. There is no glimmering—wavering—dizziness, or other distressing sensations produced by their use. They comfort, strengthen and preserve the sight, and last so long that they will not cost you one cent per week to wear. Avoid using common spectacles which are ruinous to the sight and require changing so often that they actually cost more in the end than best. Every Spectacle and Eye-glass is stamped with the initials "B.L." They are imitated but never equalled. Note the date of the visit—For two days only, Saturday the 21st and Monday the 23rd of May, at Mr. John McKee, druggist, Peterborough.

Police Court.

TUESDAY, May 17.

Mrs. Eliza Green, of the township of North Monaghan, complained to Police Magistrate Dumble Saturday that she was afraid her husband, John Green, would do her serious bodily harm, as he had complacently informed her a short time previous that when he got home he would give her a sound thrashing. John was arrested, but as his fearful spouse did not appear in court against him this morning, he was remanded till next Monday.

Personal.

His Lordship, Bishop Dowling leaves for Montreal this evening with Bishop Walsh, of London, to attend the golden jubilee of Father Dowd, of Montreal.

Messrs. Hebdon, Stead and Dunnett, the "Hamilton Helpers," are holding Gospel temperance meetings in Cobourg this week.

Mr. John Sutherland, town clerk of Cobourg, was in town yesterday getting information regarding our system of electric lighting.

Rev. M. L. Pearson, of Lindsay, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Chambers, the well known vocalist, arrived in town from Montreal last night.

Prompt Payment of Insurance Claims.

There is nothing which adds so much to the popularity of a life insurance company as the prompt payment of its legitimate death claims. The day has passed when life insurance companies can afford to take advantage of technicalities in resisting the payment of losses, and we are glad to notice in the report of the Superintendent of Insurance that with the exception of one or two companies all report "no claims resisted." The advantages afforded by life insurance as collateral security is fully illustrated by the letter of W. D. Matthews & Co., grain merchants of Toronto, in acknowledgement of the prompt payment of a claim for the large sum of five thousand dollars by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. Up to the present time we are informed by Mr. Wells, the Canadian General Manager, that already about one hundred thousand dollars have been paid by the Mutual Reserve for losses in Canada alone, although they have only been doing business here for a short time. It is no wonder that it again leads all other companies in new business. Geo. A. Morrison says the Reserve fund is over $1,000,000; rates 50 per cent less than stock companies. d115w20

Examiner Bindery.

Merchants and business men, now is the time to call at the EXAMINER bindery and leave your orders for journals, day books, ledgers, ledger books, cheque books, and all blank books used in business. ADDITION TO THE RED MILLS.

A New Enterprise at Nassau.

Mr. J. M. Irwin's New Chemical Shingle and Planing Mill—Description of the New Business, etc., etc.

For some time past Mr. J. M. Irwin proprietor of the Saw Mills, Nassau, commonly known as the "Red Mills," has felt the need of appliances for supplying a market demand in connection with his business, for dressed and matched lumber shingled and bill timber and, accordingly, he has constructed a mill fulfilling these conditions in an admirable manner.

Last November on the 11th work was begun on the new buildings which are situated on a spur of land jutting out into the river basin, north of the east end of the bridge on the opposite side of the river from the "Red Mills." The main building is 40x100 feet in area, and consists of two stories and an attic story. The building is of wood, painted red and, like all the buildings of the structure, covered with corrugated iron roofing. Forty feet back from the southern point, projects the one story brick engine and boiler house 32x33 feet. This contains two boilers of a capacity to supply steam to a 75 horse power engine and also to the donkey engine which drives the carriages in the dimension timber mill. In the engine room is also placed one of Dawson's rotary pumps, made by J. Whyte & Co., connecting with suitable lengths of hose for fire extinguishing purposes.

THE SHINGLE DEPARTMENT.

North of this room is a small annex 16x22 provided with machinery for jacking up shingle logs, drag saw for cutting into lengths and a circular for cutting into bolts. Alongside this saw is the foot of an endless chain elevator which carries the blocks to the shingle room in the attic above. Following them thither we find that the elevator leaves the bolt adjacent to a saw which trims the bolt to the proper length. Two shingle machines saw the bolts into shingles and three jointers straighten the edge of the shingle, whose operators throw the shingles into three sorting bins, containing three qualities of shingles, X, XX, XXX. Lads put them into bunches. They are then labelled with stencil plates packed on a tramway truck, and being ready for market, are conveyed to an opening in the southern end of this story and placed on an endless chain conveyor which lands them on the cars on the track which flanks the building on this as well as on the other sides of the mills. The output of this floor is over 50,000 shingles per day.

ON THE FIRST FLOOR

of the main building is found, in the northern part, the principal driving machinery belting and shafting. The line shafting contains pulleys which communicate motion to all the machinery driven by belting, and counter shafting. On this floor is also situated the donkey engine, one of Cunningham & Twin Engines, made by the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, and it works like a charm, giving the best of satisfaction. As hereafter mentioned it controls the carriages of the dimension timber saw mill.

The southern part of this floor is occupied with the machinery of the planing mill, consisting of a planing and matching machine, a matching machine, a splitting saw for cutting to required widths before matching, a re-sawing machine and a cross-cut swinging saw.

THE SECOND FLOOR

is devoted to the sawing of timber to specified dimensions. The jack-ladder connecting with the pond is strongly built, and faced on its upper surface with four lines of railway metals; the jacking machinery is worked by steam power, a device also holding the chain by power. The saw used is 5½ feet in diameter, and there are two carriages of the latest patterns, and devices. This carriage is controlled by the donkey engine and is extremely sensitive to control, being stopped and started with a touch. When it is required to saw long timber another carriage is added. This rests on a staging 34 feet long, projected from the north part of the mill. The timber, when sawed, runs onto a system of rollers and is conveyed outside to a large platform, from which it is loaded on the cars on the eastern siding. The slabs resulting from sawing the timber are thrown on the right onto rollers and conveyed to a swinging cross-cut saw, which converts them into wood length, the lumber resulting is put through an edging machine, then passed to the butley saws, gauged to cut boards from 10 to 18 feet in length. The timber then passes out at the western side of the mill, is placed on lorries and conveyed to the piling ground.

DISPOSITION OF THE REFUSE.

A complete system of chutes, pipes, etc., are in use for conveying all the refuse made in the various operations to a fuel tower at the north side of the boiler room. The planing and matching machines, in the planing department, are connected by pipes to a central line of suction pipe, operated on by a blower. Thus all the shavings, etc., are sucked up and conveyed to the fuel hopper by pipes. All the refuse is thus mechanically disposed of, the mill throughout is kept clean, and the danger from fire greatly diminished.

SHIPPING FACILITIES.

The facilities for transporting the product of the mill by rail, cannot be surpassed. A continuation of the siding to the lumber yards from the Lakefield branch of the Midland, passes on the east side of the mill, chiefly to permit of cars being loaded with shingles and timber. On the western side runs two sidings, which serve for the lorries to convey dry lumber from the piling grounds to the planing mill, whence, after dressing, it can be piled on the cars on the track on the opposite side of the mill.

The building was begun on November 11th. The engine was first started January 15th, the planing mill and shingle mill about the first of February, and the big saw was started to-day (May 17th).

The William Hamilton company supplied a large part of the shafting and palleys, one of the boilers, the carriages, jacking apparatus, the donkey engine, saws, etc., etc.

Mr. Irwin personally took a great interest in the work, and the fact that Mr. Nathaniel Shaw, the veteran millwright, whose right hand has lost none of its cunning, nor his head any of its levelness, superintended the work in every particular is a guarantee that every detail, as well as the grand whole is just about as near right as it can be, and that the new mills are an important addition to the facilities of our extensive lumbering industries.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Lech's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

BIG RACKET---NO RIOT

WILLIAM O'BRIEN'S ARRIVAL IN THE QUEEN CITY.

TORONTO, May 18.

Mr William O'Brien's entry into the city yesterday was not attended with anything approaching a serious row, nor were his subsequent movements throughout the day fraught with anything more alarming than a vein of excitement, not common, however, in this "order-loving town," as His Worship Mayor Howland is wont to call it. But taken altogether it was just serious enough not to be welcome a second time under similar circumstances. Sections of the city's populace were just in that frame of mind that required but a little more robust provocation to set them going, which, if they had, might not have ended short of riot, and perhaps bloodshed.

Mr. O'Brien cannot feel flattered with his reception in Toronto, although his friends in the National League here did all in their power to make him at home in a city the vast majority of which would sooner he had remained away. These friends expended both time, money and patriotism for Mr. O'Brien's weal, but all to little purpose, that is as far as achieving any object is concerned. It is said that after Mr. O'Brien reached Canada it was the dream of his sojourn in our midst that he should address a rousing mass meeting in the bustling and flourishing city of Toronto. He did address a mass meeting, but under such distressing circumstances that it is likely he feels more mortified than otherwise. In the evening, however, he got a chance to have his say, but he talked to 300 people who had paid $2 apiece to get into a banqueting hall, and that circumstance evolved much of the seriousness out of the question under discussion.

Arrival of the Agitator and Farmer Kilbride

It was just 10.55 yesterday morning when No. 6 on the Grand Trunk steamed into Union Station from Montreal. A crowd variously estimated between 500 and 1000 was gathered in and around the depot. About twenty officers, half a dozen of whom were mounted, were on hand to preserve order. They did not have much preserving to do, however, for the only manner in which the throng showed its disapproval or approbation was by groans or cheers. President J. A. Mulligan of the Local League was the first one to shake hands with Mr. O'Brien when he stepped from the Pullman. Editor Pat Boyle, P. D. Cahill, J. Tracy, P. Curran and Rev. Fathers Hand and Harvey were also on hand to assist Mr. Mulligan in the first reception of the Dublin editor. After Mr. O'Brien came Farmer Denis Kilbride, the evicted tenant, and after him half a dozen American reporters, principally from New York, tripped down the car steps. Among the latter was "Charley" Ryan, the special of the Dublin Freeman's Journal.

A start was at once made for the Rosin House, via York-street. Mr. O'Brien was escorted to a carriage by Mr. Mulligan. Immediately the vehicle was surrounded by ten officers, who kept in close attendance along the street to the hotel, where Mr. O'Brien alighted. At the door another burst of groans and cheers greeted him. Then he walked up to the counter and wrote in the register in a firm hand: "William O'Brien, Ireland." Farmer Kilbride had already registered. Mr. O'Brien went upstairs for a few moments and then made his appearance in the King-street lobby. Here he held a twenty-minute levee, and all who were desirous of being presented to the agitator were introduced by Mr. Mulligan. About 300 people, including half a dozen ladies, shook hands with him.

Presenting An Address.

Mr. O'Brien was next asked to step up about half way to the top of the ground stairway, when Mr. D. P. Cahill, Secretary of the local branch of the league, without further ceremony, read this address:

To William O'Brien, M.P., Editor United Ireland:
On behalf of the Irish Nationalists of this city, we welcoming you to Toronto, the prominent position which you have held, both as a journalist and as a politician in the ranks of the Irish Nationalists, and the activity and earnestness with which you have always aided the great Irish leader, has placed your name among those most revered by all Irishmen throughout the world.

The strong and earnest manner in which you have advocated the rights of the evicted tenants of Ireland, and brought to light the cruelty and oppression of their arrogant landlords, deserves the pride and sympathy of all liberal-minded men.

In the Irish National party and the members of it such as yourself, sir, the peasants and working classes not only of Ireland, but of the world, have the best advocates of their rights and liberties.

The success of the great Liberal party of England and of our own National party is progress to humanity.

The Irish Nationalist of Toronto extend to you their best wishes for the success of your undertaking, feeling certain that the motives which impel you to appeal to the freedom-loving people of Canada are motives deserving to our warmest sympathy and support. The many eminent services which you have rendered to the Irish people are a sufficient testimony to the justice of your mission.

We have not yet forgotten the gallant fight you made in defence of the liberties of our countrymen, when Forster ruled at Dublin Castle. Your exposure of the character and conduct of the real rulers of Ireland was another of the many great actions, for which we owe you a debt of thanks.

Your present mission will be inseparably connected with that master stroke of policy which you have devoted all your energies and great abilities to carry to a successful issue. The wonderful results of that policy are apparent in the peace and order prevailing throughout Ireland, and it is no exaggeration to say that it has preserved the homes and happiness, nay to mention the lives of thousands of our fellow-countrymen in Ireland. The plan of campaign is the safety to the Irish tenantry, and your advocacy of that plan has endeared you to the hearts of your race all over the world. Once more we express to you our earnest wishes for your welfare and pray God to grant that success to your endeavors on behalf of a defenceless people, which is merited by the justice and reasonableness of your mission.

J. A. Mulligan, President.
Daniel P. Cahill, Secretary J. N. League.
P. Curran, P. Boyle, D. A. Carey, T. Tracey, C. Beckley, J. J. Manahon, T. J. Mulvey, of different societies.

For this address Mr. O'Brien humbly thanked his well-wishers. He also thanked the people of Canada as a whole, whom, he said, were noted for fair play. His heart went out in gratitude towards them for their generosity. He promised more at a later stage in the day, when the tyrannical lord whom "we have come to the city to arraign," would be taken in hand.

The Two Visitors.

Mr. O'Brien is 5 feet 10 inches high and straight of carriage. He has a thin nose, sharp features, light-colored hair and beard and wears spectacles. He is not particularly impressing to look at. He was dressed in a steel grey-colored Prince Albert frock coat with satin facings, and the only other part of his apparel that was visible was a pair of Irish tweed pants, the color of which was much the same as his hair. In shaking hands his grasp is very warm and friendly, his language courteous and his countenance pleasant.

Denis Kilbride is described as a tenant farmer, and if he is a specimen of that class of individuals he compares not at all unfavorably with the same class of individuals here, in fact his appearance, his language, his dress, would go to show that he was more of the gentleman than the peasant. "From his looks," said an old-timer who lived here when the "regulars" were in Toronto, "I would take him for a sporting officer." His florid countenance is set off with a set of thick, rather closely cropped set of red whiskers. He has a clear blue eye, and when his hat is off his head is quite handsome. Mr. Kilbride is in middle life.

AT THE PARK.

A Scene of Grand Disorder, Noise, Shouts and Cheering.

It was 4.15 p.m. before Mr. O'Brien got through receiving callers in Room 177. Then Mr. Mulligan suggested that a start be made for the Park. The start was made forthwith. Mr. O'Brien, followed by twenty admirers, tripped down stairs to the York-street entrance, where he entered a covered carriage in company with Mr. Mulligan and Secretary Cahill. Just before the carriage started off a crowd on the steps, some of whom were passengers with Mr. O'Brien on the Umbria, shouted three cheers for Lord Lansdowne. Of course this was met with a counter salute from the enemy. Then the carriage rolled off via York and Queen-streets and the Avenue to Queen's Park, which was reached at 4.25. Mr. O'Brien found a crowd awaiting his arrival that numbered fully 12,000. This dense throng was kept in order by 120 policemen, about a dozen of whom were mounted. The mounts did excellent service in maintaining peace whenever a noisy spot developed itself on the surface of the crowd. Chief Grasett, Deputy Stuart and Staff Inspector Archibald did the bossing of the men, who were divided into two squads. After the battle it was found that beyond half a dozen bloody noses the damage to person and limb was slight, and only one arrest was made. But such jamming, crushing and shouting. Saturday's meeting was nothing to it.

Mr. O'Brien and his friends made straight for the stand from the west side. They had no difficulty getting through the crowd. The first thing Mr. O'Brien said when he looked over the railings of the stand was: "This is a first-rate meeting." He was at once surrounded by as many sympathizers as could gain admission to the platform and warmly shaken by the hand.

President Mulligan lost no time in getting to business. He started to introduce Mr. O'Brien. The crowd hooted and cheered. Mr. Mulligan persisted, he stood his ground for ten minutes. All this time Mr. O'Brien was standing in a removed part of the platform quietly talking with new-made acquaintances. He seemed to pay little attention to the very hot reception Mr. Mulligan was getting.

The dense mass of humanity that came within eye shot of the stand could very readily be divided up into three distinct sections. Crowded close round the platform were the friends and supporters of Mr. O'Brien, who shouted lustily in his favor whenever an opportunity presented itself. To the west of this group, which numbered perhaps 500, was another detachment of about the same size, who found constant employment in shouting, yelling, singing and elevating their canes. This element was made up for the most part of students and volunteers. The great bulk of the attendance lay to the outside of these two groups, and it was composed, as far as one could observe from the speaker's stand, of disinterested persons, peaceable citizens of whom a good many wore plug hats and an air of respectability. They were spectators merely, on the alert to take in any little skirmish that might arise and well prepared to take to their heels if prudence might deem it advisable. At one particular juncture when a handful of mounted police were charging the disturbing element a general unanimity of action pervaded this outside group which scattered itself with surprising rapidity.

The Town at Night.

The streets around the Rosin House last night, up till after 11 o'clock, were a regular pandemonium. No acts of violence were reported, but it is seldom that such a noisy gang is turned loose. They yelled and shouted. The police had to let nature take its course, and when the noisy ones took on sore throats from shouting they went home. A fife-and-drum band helped to increase the agony. It was midnight before the streets were quieted down. Taken altogether there was very little flame for so much smoke.

THE LIVERPOOL EXHIBITION.

Sir Charles Tupper Notified of the Formal Opening.

OTTAWA, May 17.—Sir Charles Tupper has received a cable despatch announcing the opening of the Royal Jubilee Exhibition at Liverpool, at which Canada participates in the Colonial and Indian section. The exhibition was opened by H.R.H. the Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne.

Her Royal Highness and Lord Lorne, who were received by the Canadian Government agent at Liverpool, Mr. John Dyke, expressed pleasure at the artistically arranged display of agricultural products, and the photographic and other views. The Princess and the Marquis spent some time in examining the specimens on view. Her Royal Highness noticed with interest some sketches which she had drawn and expressed the hope that they might assist in advancing the welfare of the Dominion.

At the luncheon which followed Mr. Bader Powel, M.P. for one of the Liverpool divisions, said he noticed in passing through the well arranged Canadian Court a picture of the Parliament Houses at Ottawa which reminded him that there was some fitness in his being entrusted with proposing the toast of the Colonial and Indian section. In consideration of the fact that he had been in Canada last year and that he had previously visited some of the other colonies and, therefore, could speak with some knowledge of the work done in the administration of the colonies. He referred to the appointment of Lord Lorne in Canada and the period passed by H.R.H. and the Marquis in the Dominion. He further observed that not only had Lord Lorne's administration been marked by success in Canada, but that it had evoked loyalty in every Canadian breast. He spoke from personal experience in testifying to the genuine regret entertained throughout the Dominion at the departure of Her Royal Highness and Lord Lorne. Mr. Baden Powell concluded his remarks by referring to the growth of the Colonial Empire as one of the greatest features of Her Majesty's reign.

In replying Lord Lorne referred to the vast commerce of England which had developed with her colonies and said that it was a matter of satisfaction that the colonies meant to take common cause with the mother country. Lord Lorne, continuing, spoke of the extension of the Queen's title, basing his remarks upon what had appeared in the press on the subject and stating at the same time that he spoke as an individual only, but that he should like to see her Majesty styled Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen of Canada and South Africa, of the colonies and dependencies and the Empire of India. His Lordship said that in specially mentioning the great self-governing portions of the Empire it would only be assigning them positions legitimately their due.

Owing to the refusal of the Missouri Legislature to appropriate funds and give support to the militia, the First Regiment of St. Louis will disband on May 23.

The Knights of Labor and the Manufacturers' Association at Haverhill, Mass., have disagreed, and in consequence 3000 persons are out of employment.

THE FRENCH PREMIER HANDS IN HIS RESIGNATION.

PARIS, May 17.—The debate on the report of the Budget Committee, which demands a reduction in the estimates submitted by the Government, was begun in the Chamber of Deputies to-day.

Mr. Dauphin, Minister of Finance, declared that in their proposals the Government had effected all the retrenchments that were possible, and had re-established the financial equilibrium through the income and alcoholic taxes. The country knew that the Government were acting more in consonance with parliamentary tradition than was the course suggested in the report of the Budget Committee. [Applause from the Left and part of the Centre].

Premier Goblet said the present financial situation was the result of the accumulated errors of past governments. He was ready to work with the committee with a view of providing efficacious remedies. The Government desired to balance the budget, even by fresh taxation, if necessary. He reproached the committee with demanding reforms which it knew to be impracticable from a budget point of view. [Cries of dissent.] He found nothing that justified the committee's hostility, either in the Government's internal policy or in its foreign policy, neither of which was lacking in wisdom and firmness.

The Chamber, by a vote of 275 to 239 rejected the proposals of the Government, and proceeded to discuss the order of the day.

Mr. Goblet then announced that the Cabinet would resign. As soon as this announcement had been made the members of the Cabinet left the House.

Afterward a resolution was proposed by the Budget Committee affirming the necessity of adopting new plans for retrenchment. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 312 to 143, and the Chamber then adjourned until Monday next.

The Resignations Accepted.

PARIS, May 17.—The resignation of the Cabinet has been accepted.

THE CHURCH AND THE K. OF L.

French-Canadian Members of the Order Approach the Tribunal of Penance.

MONTREAL, May 17.—A leading member of the Knights of Labor says that all Roman Catholic knights had complied with the injunction of the cardinal, approaching the tribunal of penance and accusing themselves to have formed part of the order. It will be remembered that they had been granted forty days from Easter, that is until the Feast of the Ascension, which occurs on Thursday, to do this. All the priests who heard their confessions took down their names and address for future use. They were not informed that they would have to leave the order. A meeting of every section will be held in a few days, when an effort will be made to prevent the Knights from leaving the order, as some might feel inclined to. In connection with those who have been what he calls "too scrupulous," and who have severed their connection with the order, it has been decided not to exact arrears if they will consent to return to the order. Recalcitrants will be sued.

MANITOBA PRAIRIE FIRES.

Great Damage Caused by Wind and Fire at Various Points.

WINNIPEG, May 17. — Despatches received from various points throughout Manitoba report serious losses during the past week to settlers by prairie fires and heavy wind storms. Near Brandon Hills Messrs. Black, Cregan and Crompton were burned out. At Barnsley, Katepare, Gladstone and McGregor several settlers lost their stables and buildings. At Plum Creek Crosthwaite's agricultural warehouse was blown down and the roof of the Crescent Hotel was blown off.

Harcourt's Amendment Defeated.

LONDON, May 17.—In the House of Commons to-night Sir Vernon Harcourt moved his amendment to the Coercion Bill exempting from secret inquiry all proceedings relating to public meetings or agrarian movements, including combinations to obtain reductions of rent.

The amendment was rejected by a vote of 342 to 180.

HAMILTON AFFAIRS.

The Troubles of the Journeymen Bakers—A Number of Cabmen Fined.

HAMILTON, May 17.—The differences of the bakers with their employes has not reached a settlement yet. The trouble is about night work, and in a majority of cases the desire of the men has been complied with, but there are a few employers who have not given in, and with them there is trouble.

Bay View Park will be opened to the public on Friday next.

William McCollum, who threatened to kill the Baker family some days ago, has been put under $300 bonds to keep the peace.

The public school children will be given a half holiday to-morrow in order to attend the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new school on Hunter-street.

At the Police Court to-day half a dozen hackmen were fined $4 and costs or twenty days in jail for absenting themselves from their cabs at the railway station.

A large audience heard Henry George's lecture on "The Crime of Poverty" at the Opera House to-night.

ITALY AND THE VATICAN.

An Italian Deputy Publishes a Few Hints to the Pope.

FLORENCE, May 17.—Signor Fazzari, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, writes to La Nazione that he believes an entente between Italy and the Vatican could easily be attained if the Pope would direct the ecclesiastical authorities of the Vatican to support, at the next election for the Chamber of Deputies, candidates favoring such a reconciliation. The writer says King Humbert is powerless to act unless public opinion points the way. It is necessary, therefore, that the Pope, continuing his policy of conciliation, should so act as to make possible the election of a large majority who favor reconciliation. The moment has come for decisive action. Let the Pope take the initiative and Italy will be grateful to him. The letter is much discussed in Parliamentary circles.

A Freight Agent Discharged.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Wm. H. McIlhaney, general freight agent of the New York Central Railroad Company, was yesterday discharged from his position by Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Depew. His successor is Wm. James, an old employe of the company and for some time acting as McIlhaney's assistant. McIlhaney was accused over a year ago of embezzling $25,000.

A Plea for Manitoba and the North West.

Audi alteram partem.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

The "disallowance" question of Manitoba and the North West Territories has for a long time, seriously engaged the attention of the people, not only of the country mentioned, but of all other parts of Canada as well. It is a most important question, and it must must be dealt with and disposed of on its own merits alone. I have read a pamphlet on this subject, recently issued by one who signs himself a "Canadian Manufacturer", but which is indirectly written in the interest of the C. P. R. It has been issued in the interest of "disallowance", and with the plain purpose of upholding it for all time to come. Its object plainly is to create a feeling of opposition on the part of all the "eastern provinces" to the wants and the demands of the settlers of Manitoba and the North West, and to bind Manitoba and the North West to the east irrespective of all justice and all right. And, if these called arguments were to prevail, the effect would be to completely lock up that Province and place the key in the hands of the C. P. R. and of the people of the eastern provinces. And the effect would also be to completely tie the hands of the people of the North West behind their backs and compel them to walk only in the track proposed for them, and prepared, not by themselves, but by others having different interests and feelings from their own. The only points in this pamphlet worthy of notice are, that the old provinces of Canada bought the North West and that they built the C. P. Railroad to and through it. And upon these facts it seeks to show that because Canada did this she treated the whole North West territory, with its hundreds of millions acres of rich lands; her pockets borough to do with as she likes. That by this purchase she, in effect, made the North West her own private property, that she holds the key to the gate which leads to that country, and that she intends to make use of that country and its people for her own aggrandizement. And that the people of that great country shall trade with no one but her own citizens and shall have no access to other countries and no outlet except through eastern Canada. This is a demand altogether opposed to natural justice, and is founded altogether upon selfishness. Whether it is a policy which will succeed remains to be seen. It is a dangerous policy and it may one day, and sooner, perhaps, than anticipated, lead to convulsions and consequences too serious to be lightly ignored. The people of Canada, and elsewhere, deny the rights of the Indians to exclusively hold and use lands which God created for the good of all. They say, and say justly, that there must be free access for every body to all parts of the earth, and freedom to settle upon and settle up its lands. This is a proposition which no one will deny. But it cannot be restricted to the interests of a section of the people, and it means that all are to be allowed to occupy it and to occupy and to use it as their judgment and their wants direct. Therefore to say that people may go into the North West and take up land and settle there, necessarily implies that they are, when they do go, to be free to manage the country as the inhabitants of other countries manage their own affairs, and to be at liberty to do what will best serve their own interests and be to their own future advantage. The pamphlet in question, which is evidently inspired by the Government, denies this right to the people of the North West and does not hesitate to tell them plainly that they have no rights and that they must for all time to come work within a narrow circle of exclusiveness, and work for the benefit of the C. P. R. and of the people of Eastern Canada alone. But will this selfish policy succeed? Will the settlers of Manitoba and the North-west be much longer content to be made slaves of in this way, and to be forced to toil on and spend their lives for the benefit of others? Will they suffer their country to be much longer shut up as it is now, and themselves denied the right to open up their country and thus to facilitate and cheapen the means of carrying their products, not only to and through all parts of their own territory, but to the seaboard as well. The Government of Canada must not forget the fact that the country in question lies a long way from all the older provinces, that it stretches a distance of more than a thousand miles along the boundary of the great country, inhabited by an energetic and prosperous people, and a people, too, who are at liberty to build all the railroads they may desire, and who are actually building such roads everywhere and in every direction, and that there is no one to say them nay, that these people are of the same blood as our own, and their country is filling up and prospering beyond all precedent. While on our side of the line there is, comparatively speaking, no settlement and no prosperity. Manitoba and the North-west Territories have now been opened up for occupation for nearly ten years, and notwithstanding all its natural advantages and its rich lands, there is not to-day one hundred and fifty thousand people to be found throughout its entire length and breadth, a people who are thinly scattered over distances of thousands of miles, with no means of inter-communication except by means of ox teams and horses. And yet they are told that these grievances must be endured, and endured solely for the benefit of that huge corporation, the C. P. R., and to make still richer the men who own and control that railway. Let the Government and people of Eastern Canada beware, and let them remember that oppression and injustice may be endured for a time, but that it cannot last forever; that the time will come, and perhaps sooner than they expect, when an oppressed people will rise in their might and break the chains that bind them. Let them look back upon the history of the old thirteen colonies of the United States a hundred years ago, when England sought to deprive the people of those colonies of their rights. And let our Government and people take warning and learn to do right before it is too late. The Government invite settlers into Manitoba and the North-west. They tell them of the bountifulness of that great country, of its rich lands, and how they can become rich if they will go and settle there. But they do not tell them of the drawbacks and difficulties which they have placed in their way when they get them there. They don't tell them that the C. P. R. holds all that country in its iron hand; that it has a monopoly of that great country and that they must bow the knee to that monopoly and work for its use and benefit; and that they shall not build other roads, no matter how much they may be required. If the Government did tell intending settlers these things, how many people would go there? This great country ought this day to contain a population of over half a million of people, and in ten years further time that population should be increased to a million. But, instead of settlers going into it, the people who are there are going out of it, and where were once towns with large populations and growing and prosperous, there are now deserted houses, and only a few of their former inhabitants left. And yet the people are denied the right to help themselves, and are told that they must remain poor and strive in order that the C. P. R. may become rich. And hundreds of millions of acres of good land are kept in a state of nature rather than allow those who would otherwise settle upon them, to do what is necessary for their own interests, and to open up the country by means of railways for the use and benefit of the people. But the time has now come when the Government is brought to face the difficulties and the dangers which lie before them. The time is come when justice must be done. The people of the Great North West have resolved to be slaves no longer. They say they are free men, and that they will remain free. They say that the country is theirs by right of possession, and that no one, not even the C. P. R., shall oppress them any longer. They say they were induced to go into that country through the inducements held out to them by the Government, and that being there they are there to stay, and to demand and have those rights and privileges which they ought to enjoy. And it is becoming plainer every day that their demands must be complied with, or that the consequences of refusal shall be upon the heads of those who treat them so badly. The mutterings of the coming troubles are heard in the distance. Soon they will be upon us, and who can tell the end?

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

Liable to Happen.

Sudden attacks of colds, sore throat, croup swollen glands, rheumatism, neuralgia, and similar troubles, are very liable during the winter and early spring. As a prompt remedy there can nothing excel Yellow Oil. "I never feel safe to be without it," says Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, Ont. 2w20d

Give Ely's Cream Balm a trial. This justly celebrated remedy for the cure of catarrh hay fever, cold in the head, &c., can be obtained of any reputable druggist and may be relied upon as a safe and pleasant remedy for the above complaints and will give immediate relief. It is not a liquid, snuff or powder, has no offensive odor and can be used at any time with good results, as thousands can testify, among them some of the attaches of this office.—Spirit of the Times, May 29, 1886. eodw39

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 18.

The Railway Commission met yesterday in the Board of Trade rooms, to hear witnesses in connection with the Farmers' Institutes.

Mr. V. E. Fuller said the rates charged for bulls were excessive. He found it cheaper to crate young animals and send them by express companies. He could not ship by railway, as the rates were too high. The same complaint held as to cows and horses. The public were vitally interested in the question, and should know that the arbitrary and high rates charged interfered with the transport of males and dissemination of good blood. He gave examples of cases of rates he complained of, and mentioned a complaint of delay in getting cars for shipping stock through the United States.

Mr. A. H. Pettit, Grimsby, gave evidence as to the conveyance of fruit. The charges were neither even nor equitable. His complaint related principally to perishable goods, the dealers in which felt that the railway companies were handing over the traffic to the express companies. The fruit traffic was large enough to warrant the railways to put a car or two for fruit on the ordinary fast trains.

Mr. Loger Wolverton, Grimsby, gave similar evidence, and was supported by Mr. Roland W. Gregor, farmer and fruit grower, St. Catharines. Col. Donald Campbell, Hutton, also gave evidence, his chief complaint being against the discrimination in rates, examples of which he instanced.

The commission will resume to-day at 11.

A serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon at the Don River improvements, by which two laborers, Robert Atkinson of 28 Eastern-avenue and James Duncan of 206 Queen-street west, were injured. In raising a huge piece of timber to the top of the pile driver a portion of the structure gave way, and in its descent the men were struck by the timber. Atkinson's leg was broken below the knee, and it is feared he is also internally injured. Duncan's injuries are painful, but not of such a serious nature. Both men were removed to the General Hospital.

MISTAKEN FOR A BURGLAR.

A Father Takes the Life of His 16-Year-Old Boy.

WASHINGTON, Ind., May 14.—The saddest tragedy that ever happened in Davies County occurred last night. It was the accidental shooting, by William Sanford, sr., of his son Hamlet, aged 16 years. They were spending the night in a house on Mr. Sanford's farm near the city, and the boy in a somnambulistic spell got up and went out into the yard. The father, woke up, and believing burglars, who had frequently troubled him before, were in the yard, went to open the door, when he saw, but did not recognize, his boy. Asking three times who was there, and getting no answer save "Come on, Dick," addressed by the boy to his dog, understood by the father as a call to an accomplice, he fired, killing the boy instantly. The corpse was brought to the father's house in this city, where it is being viewed by many of the people.

SPOTS OF SPORT.

Toronto's Defeat at Rochester.

ROCHESTER, May 17.—Over 1300 people saw the first game of the season between the Torontos and Rochesters this afternoon. The home team practically won the game in the first innings. Cline came first to the bat and made the first home run of the season on the Culver Park grounds. Hits by Visner and Lewes, a three-bagger by Kennedy and two more singles by Knowles and Connors did the work, and four men crossed the home plate. The Torontos could not find Bakley at all and only made seven actual hits. Score:

Fast Time at Prospect Park.

GRAVESEND, L. I., May 17.—This was the second day of the Brooklyn Jockey Club spring meeting. Betting was prohibited on the course. The club have, therefore, decided to postpone the balance of the races until next Thursday, when the time which the Governor has to sign the Pool Bill expires. Summary:

First race, purse $300, 6 furlongs—Britannia, 104, won; Ishi Ban, 117, second; Bankrupt, 120, third; time 1.16¼.

Second race, a sweepstakes for 3-year-olds and upwards, 1¼ mile—Barnum, 107, won; Favor, 110, second; Biscuit, 110, third; time 1.54½.

Favorites' Day at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 17.—The favorites had everything their own way to-day, winning four of the five races. Summaries follow:

First Race—Purse $300, ¾ mile, heats—Gleaner, 112, won; Mary Mac, 90, second; Eva K., 103, third; time 1.17¾. Second heat—Gleaner won, Eva K. second, Kirklin, 103, third; time 1.17½.

Second Race—Runnymede Stakes, for 2-year olds, ¾ miles:

E. J. Baldwin's ch. f. Los Angeles by Glenelg, 115 1
E. J. Baldwin's b.f. Winona, by Grinstead, 112 2
J. W. Crawford's b.c. Amos, by Eolus, 115 3
Dead heat for second place.
Time 1.17½.

Third Race—Purse $400, one mile and a furlong—Rio Grande, 105, won; Uncle Dan, 104, second; Alamo, 105, third. Time 1.59½.

Fourth Race—Galt House Handicap, 1¼ miles—Lamplight, 90, won; Monocrat, 103, second; Nellie C., 90, third. Time 2.06½.

Fifth race, ¾ mile—Pocomoke won; Jennie McFarland second; Avery, third. Time 1.14½.

Racing in England.

LONDON, May 17.—The York spring meeting opened to-day. The race for the Zetland Stakes, for 2-year-olds, was won by Lord Durham's colt Bronklyn, C. Perkins' filly Belle Marbone second, Mrs. T. Chalmers' filly Sister Agnes third. The great northern handicap was won by R. Crest's horse Runy, W. Steven's mare Nightcap second, Major Stapylton's filly Scotilla third.

System of Betting in France.

The French Jockey Club have established the totalisateur as the official betting method on race tracks under the control of the club in France. The system is the same as the "mutuals," and, as the case has been found in this country, the odds average better than the starting prices in the books. In the Prix Daru, run on May 1, Le Sancy won at 7 to 4 on, while the totalisateur paid nearly even money. For the Prix de Viro-flay (a handicap) Allboron won at the odds of 19 to 1 against.

The Civil Service Reformers

say their object is simply to retain good men in office when you find them. This theory may be safely applied to the treatment of the human system by means of medicine. Those who have once tried Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" for scrofulous swellings sores, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, spitting of blood and consumption, will apply to it the real principle of Civil Service Reform and "hold fast to that which is good." 6dw20

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Siddel, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism, neuralgia, inflamation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 24t20d

Appreciating Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and we one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Worth ten Dollars a Bottle.

Any person who has used Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy in the world for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute, lame back at one application; headache in a few moments and all pains just as rapidly. Small test bottles only cost 10 cents. Why not try it to-day? Large bottles 25 cents, sold by all druggists and country dealers. Use Polson's nerve pain cure—Nerviline. 6dw20

Society Sermon.

Rev. E. W. Sibbald, of Belleville, will preach the annual sermon to Lansdowne Lodge, Sons of England, No. 25, in St. John's Church next Sunday morning. The lodge will march to the church in a body.

Resumed Work.

The employees of the Cobourg, Peterborough & Marmora Railway resumed work yesterday morning, says the Port Hope Times. Everything looks bright for a good season's business. A man and a boy comprise the "staff."

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

Work for the Court.

Nearly 60 appeals against this year's assessment have been received at the town clerk's office. The Court of Revision will have plenty of work on its hands. The time for entering appeals expired last night; no notice will be taken of appeals put in hereafter.

Golden grains of truth. Turnbull is selling Ladies' Taffeta and pure Silk Gloves that are cut to fit the hand; every pair numbered. You will not regret having walked an extra block after you have tried a pair.

A Chance to Make Money.

The attention of the farmers who wish to make money by saving it in the purchase of cheap, and at the same time excellent agricultural implements, should not neglect to read the advertisement of Mr. F. E. Bowie, agricultural implement dealer, Hunter street Peterborough.

House-cleaning.

As house-cleaning is completed, it would be a good idea to furnish the bed-rooms with new crockery, etc. Call at China Hall and buy what Chamber Sets you need before the price is raised in consequence of the advance in duty on these goods.

Turnbull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 85c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Died in Kansas.

Mr. Wm. Gifford, of Ennismore, received a telegram on Monday announcing the death of his daughter, Mrs. Michael Curtin, at Norton, Kansas. The deceased lady left Ontario for Minnesota some years ago, and from there moved to Kansas, where she lived until stricken down by the fever which caused her death. She leaves a husband, a nephew of Mr. Wm. Curtin, of Ennismore, and five children to mourn her loss.

Ascension Thursday.

To-morrow will be observed as a general holiday by the adherents of the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches throughout the civilized world. It is called Ascension Thursday, because on that day Christ ascended into Heaven. Banks and public buildings will be closed and services will be held both morning and evening in the Catholic and Anglican churches of the town. In the Anglican churches there will be celebration of the holy communion at 8.30 and 11 a. m., evening services at 7.30. In St. Peter's Cathedral a mass will be celebrated and the usual services held.

No one need despair of finding Millinery to suit them while Turnbull is in the trade. He keeps a well-selected stock of choice goods, and as new lines appear in the market, has new Shapes and Trimmings arriving almost daily.

"Grip's" Premium Plate.

Grip, Canada's comic paper, has just issued a very fine lithographed group of Reform politicians in Canada. This is a companion group to the Conservative leaders issued from the same office last year, and is the same size, 18 x 26 inches. When framed the pair make a handsome ornament for any library, dining-room or reading-room. The portraits are well executed, and the plates are a credit to Canadian enterprise. They are sold separately for 25 cents each, or a copy of either plate is sent free to any one paying $2 for one year in advance to Grip, or sending $1.10 will receive Grip for six months and their choice of either Reform or Conservative groups. Address, Grip, Toronto, Ont.

Peterborough Rangers.

There was a good turn-out of the six companies of the 57th Battalion for drill Tuesday evening, and drilling was begun again in right earnest. No. 6 Company was commanded by Lieut. Brennan, (or Capt. Brennan, as he is now called, and virtually is so), who, though not yet officially gazetted, has received the unanimous endorsation of the company. The appointment is exceedingly popular among the men of the whole Battalion, who recognize in Lieut. Brennan a thorough soldier, one who has seen active service in the 1885 rebellion, a gentleman and a Captain who will bring his company to a state of perfection. The Battery men also engaged in drill Tuesday evening. The next drill will be held in two weeks, on the 31st inst.; next Tuesday being the Queen's Birthday, no practice drill will be held. On Sunday, June 4, the Battalion will have church parade.

Notice of Visit.

Professor J. D. Kay, from the establishment of B. Laurance & Co., Montreal, will be at Mr. John McKee's drug store on 21st and 23rd of May for consultation. He is specially qualified to adjust spectacles for every requirement of the eye, and secure to you such advantages as are only to be found in the largest cities. No matter what the difficulties he will, where relief can be afforded to, fit you to perfection, giving you the most certain aids to sight—B. Laurance's Spectacles—which have an acknowledged reputation for superiority everywhere. The Brazilian or Scotch Pebbles of his own manufacture, are delightfully easy and pleasant to wear. There is no glimmering—wavering—dizziness, or other distressing sensations produced by their use. They comfort, strengthen and preserve the sight, and last so long that they will not cost you one cent per week to wear. Avoid using common spectacles which are ruinous to the sight and require changing so often that they actually cost more in the end than best. Every Spectacle and Eye-glass is stamped with the initials "B.L." They are imitated but never equalled. Note the date of the visit—For two days only, Saturday the 21st and Monday the 23rd of May, at Mr. John McKee, druggist, Peterborough.

Large Insurance Claim Paid—Endowment of the Mutual Reserve.

Office of W. D. MATTHEWS & Co.,
Grain and Produce Merchants,
TORONTO, 11th May, 1887.

J. D. Wells, Esq., General Manager Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association:

DEAR SIR,—We beg to acknowledge receipt of cheque for Five Thousand Dollars in full of claim under a policy of insurance issued to us by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association for that amount, as creditors of the late Edwin C. Fisher.

We have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the prompt and satisfactory manner in which this claim has been adjusted, and at the same time to express our confidence in your association. Having an intimate acquaintance with your President and chief officers, we know them to be gentlemen of the highest integrity, and in whose hands we believe the interests of the members of the Mutual Reserve are perfectly safe.

Wishing your association continued success.

Yours truly,

Personal.

Mr. F. H. Lithgow, who was for a number of years connected, as an employe, with Dr. Taylor's Drug store, returned to Peterborough Tuesday evening, after an absence of over ten years. He left this town in 1876 and since that time has travelled extensively in the United States. His "log" reads something like this: He went first to California, thence to Rio Janiero, Brazil, thence to Texas. From this place he went to Jacksonville, Florida, and from there returned again to California. He has "done" the Pacific slope thoroughly. He next turned up in Kansas city, and after a short stay returned to San Francisco, coming thence by way of Panama to New York. From New York he went to the head of St. John's River, Sanford, Florida. He next trip was to his orange grove, "Lithgow", Florida. Returning to New York, after a short stay he came home to Peterborough, looking as young as ever. It is hoped that he will decide to remain with us.

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Shaw, a duly qualified and experienced homœopathist, has decided to take up his residence amongst us. He is a physician of some years' standing and comes highly recommended by the leading homœopathic physicians of Toronto, Ottawa and Hamilton. He may be consulted in the meantime at the Grand Central hotel.

Mr. Alex. Bertram, of Toronto, was in town last evening, visiting Mr. John Bertram, who is, we are pleased to be able to state, steadily improving.

The Queen's Jubilee.

Arranging for a Proper Celebration—Committees Appointed and Preliminary Steps Taken.

In answer to the call for a meeting in the Council chamber Tuesday evening "for the purpose of deciding as to the best and most fitting manner of celebrating the Queen's Jubilee in Peterborough, on June 21st next," representatives were there from the following Societies and organizations:—Sons of England, A. O. U. W., Masons, Oddfellows, Foresters, Orange Order and Black Chapter, Fire Brigade and Band, St. Luke's and St. John's Sunday schools. Rev. Mr. Bradshaw was elected chairman and C. H. Allison, Secretary. Brief addresses were delivered by several of the gentlemen present, but the discussion was of a conversational character. Various schemes for celebrating the Queen's Jubilee were proposed, and finally the following draft programme of events was decided upon:—At 10 a. m., military parade, headed by the band, terminating with a feu-de-joie, at 2 p. m., a procession of the Sunday School children of the town, the Fire Brigade and citizens, headed by the band, to some large ground to be selected by a committee, where a concert will be held, the children singing jubilee songs, assisted by the band, the afternoon's proceedings to close with athletic sports; in the evening a grand illuminated canoe parade on Little Lake and a brilliant display of fireworks. Mr. F. W. Millar, bandmaster, and Capt. Rutherford, of the Fire Brigade, were present, and promised every assistance it was in the power of these two organizations to furnish. With such an energetic chairman and such enthusiastic and largely representative committees, combined with the appropriateness of giving a patriotic exhibition of our loyalty, the celebration cannot but be a success, if the citizens will only show a proper spirit in seconding the efforts of the committees in carrying their plans to a prosperous issue. It was decided to apply to the Councils of Ashburnham and Peterborough for their co-operation and assistance in this matter, and Messrs. Brundrette, Galletly and Hall were appointed a committee for the purpose. Another motion passed provided for the free distribution of Jubilee badges among the children who take part in the procession and concert. Following is a list of the committees appointed to complete arrangements for the different features of the celebration:

MILITARY COMMITTEE.—Messrs. A. McNeil, Bradshaw and Long.

MUSIC.—Messrs. Millar, Galletly and Fraser.

PROCESSION.—Messrs. Brundrette, Rutherford and Hall.

CANOE.—Messrs. Yokome, Kidd and Allison.

GAMES.—Messrs. Rutherford, Kidd and Richardson.

PRINTING.—Messrs. Menzies, McDonald and Fanning.

REFRESHMENTS.—Messrs. Richardson, Weir and Brundrette.

GROUNDS.—Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, Messrs. Brundrette and McDonald.

DECORATION AND ILLUMINATION.—Messrs. Long, Jones and Hall.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.—Composed of the chairmen (or first-named) of each of the above committees; Mr. Brundrette, chairman.

Each of the committes was empowered to add to its members. Another meeting of the general committee, which is composed of all the above sub-committees, will be held at an early date.

A Runaway Freight Car

Collides With and "Stripes" the Engine of the Toronto Express.

The Toronto evening express, per Midland Division, G. T. R., due here last night at 8.50, was two hours late, owing to one of the most peculiar accidents ever happening on this division. A way freight had run into the siding at Stouffville, and in so doing had run against some cars loaded with lumber standing on the same siding. The shock started the last car, which was evidently uncoupled, and, the grade being down, she threatened to run off the track, there being no stop-block at the end of the switch. Brakeman Graham, to prevent this, opened the switch and shunted the car on to the main line, thinking that he could brake her down without trouble. But when he applied the brake he found they had no effect—the brake-shoes had spread till they were outside the flanges, and, of course, had no grip. The grade is very steep from Stouffville to Markham, and the car was gaining in speed every moment. Finding the brakes would not work, Graham tried to stop her by throwing pieces of the lumber, with which the car was loaded, upon the track. This wouldn't work either and on the car went flying. About ten minutes previously the express had left Markham. When the runaway was sighted brakes were put on and the express brought to a stand-still about a mile from Stouffville. In a moment the shock came. The flying freight car struck the engine full in the face, and was knocked from its trucks. The platform and lumber shot ahead, completely "stripping" the engine of smoke stack and cab and disabling the engine. Nobody was injured. The trucks of the freight car were ditched, another engine secured, and the express got in all right, only she was two hours late.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, May 18th.

Mary Johnston, an old woman who is without friends and unable to support herself, applied for protection and was committed to gaol for six months.

Wm. Wallace, an employee of the City Hotel, sought to recover from Mr. Wm. Clancy, the proprietor, the sum of $16 which he claimed was due him for wages. The defendant contended that only $11 was due Wallace, which had been offered him but refused. The court after hearing the evidence held that only $11 was due the plaintiff.

Police Magistrate Dumble yesterday held a session at the Court House and tried three Scott Act cases from the county—Darling vs. Howson, Dickson and Shaw, of Keene. The first two were fined $50 and costs each; the case against Dr. Shaw was dismissed.

Military.

A rumor is current among the men of the 57th Batt. that the regiment will go to Ottawa on June 21st and assist in the Capital's celebration of the Queen's Jubilee. No definite action has, however, been taken, or no official announcement made, and the scheme will likely fail. The Ottawa authorities have intimated that they would like to have the Battalion there, but who is to pay its expenses? The government has refused to make any grant for the purpose, and unless the city itself becomes responsible, which it is scarcely likely to do, the Battalion will stay at home and assist in our own celebration.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and quite three very cheap.

Deserted in Their Old Days.

A case of the most heartless desertion has just come to light. Devout early christians, who wended their way to church last Sunday morning, witnessed one of the most pitiful sights it has ever been the lot of miserable man to contemplate. But, with the customary heartlessness and cruel irreverence of human beings in general, those early Christians, like the Pharisees of old, instead of pitying and gathering to their bosoms in tender sympathy the aged couple, who had been left so destitute and unprotected, laughed to scorn their tacit appeals for commiseration and comfort, and passed by as distant as possible, that their garments might not be soiled by even so much as touching the decrepit, despised and deserted pair, who had clung to each other from early youth, through the wear and tear of an active life, till in their old age, ruthlessly cast off and disowned by those whom they had faithfully served and upon whose life-long gratitude and care they had a strong lien, they were pushed away and left lying huddled side by side in a George street doorway to be mocked by the giddy crowd of youth and elders, who were seemingly devoid of every spark of respect for old age, and finally violently ejected by sacreligious hands from their retreat into the middle of the street, to be the sport of dogs and unruly children, and the last vestige of resemblance trodden from their mutilated carcasses by the iron hoofs of horses. Such in brief was the cruel fate of an old pair of boots, size as near 17½ as the biggest shoemakers' last in town will measure, dilapidated, tattered, torn, lacerated, wrecked—in fact, testotally "cow-kicked," to use a homely expression, which were seen in the doorway of a prominent boot and shoe dealer's store Sunday morning. It happened evidently this wise. A gigantic laborer Saturday night purchased a new pair of boots, which he put on at the store, leaving his cast-off foot-gear to be called for later on. Not coming around by the time the shop-keeper wanted to close up, the latter placed the old castaways outside the door, in the belief that when the man called for his parcel he would see them at the door and carry them off, but in this he apparently failed, for the next morning hundreds of people enjoyed a hearty laugh at the unpolished incongruity and ridiculous contrastiveness of the whole affair. The "small boy" soon spied the remnants and their career was ended in ignominy in the middle of the road.

TRADE IN

Our Millinery Department

IS NOW AT ITS HEIGHT, AND did we judge alone by the crowds that daily claim attention of our salesmen advertising this class of goods would be unnecessary—almost a waste of money. But then, you know, there's two sides to every subject. Here's the other side to this one, and at the same time our reason for advertising when there's no apparent necessity for doing so.

In making up our stock in this department we provided for great numbers—for many more than have as yet taken advantage of its completeness, to furnish themselves with millinery suitable for the season.

It will therefore require "crowds long continued" to clear out tables of the enormous stock of Millinery with which they are loaded over-loaded.

A continuous demand then being necessary, we know of no better way to insure it than to keep you informed as to just what we have and how we are prepared to sell it. We shall, therefore, from now to the close of the season, devote some portion of our card to Millinery News.

We have already said that our stock was large. We have also intimated that our assortment was COMPLETE. Now for our goods.

We have just received a six dozen lot of Ladies' and Children's Hats which are the newest in shape, and bought at half their value.

MR. O'BRIEN ATTACKED.

Disgraceful Scenes in the City Streets.

HOODLUMS ON THEIR MUSCLE.

The Dublin Editor and His Friends Stoned.

REFUGE IN A DARK LANE.

Various Versions of the Affair—The Agitator Thinks the Gang Intended to Murder Him—He Tells His Own Story to The World—What a Police Sergeant Had to Relate—Great Excitement Around the Rossin House.

TORONTO, May 19.

It was generally understood in the newspaper guild yesterday afternoon that Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Kilbride would leave for Ottawa last evening. Mr. O'Brien did not go, but instead he had a lively experience with a Toronto mob. He had been out driving during the afternoon, as is fully recorded elsewhere, and towards dinner time returned to the Rossin House. He, Mr. Kilbride, J. A. Mulligan, R. B. Teefy and D. P. Cahill dined together. At 7.30 the party started out from the York-street entrance of the hotel to take a walk, Messrs. Mulligan and Cahill on each side of Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Teefy escorting Mr. Kilbride at some distance behind.

When they reached the street a large gathering of sympathizers gave cheers for Mr. O'Brien and started to follow him. Mr. O'Brien acknowledged the greeting, and after he had moved a few yards he requested his friends not to follow as he was only going out for a quiet walk. They complied with the request.

But a large gathering of the other side was there, evidently determined on mischief, or as they called it, "fun." Mr. O'Brien and his escort walked along the south side of King-street, followed by a hooting mob, for the most part composed of young hoodlums, which crushed and crowded them until they were almost shoved off the pavement into the road. At King and Bay-streets the mob, not satisfied with hoots and groans, gave expression by the throwing of stones and rotten eggs. Mr. O'Brien and his friends, with a view to avoiding their assailants, turned down Bay-street. But they were followed and the egg-throwing was continued. League Secretary Cahill was hit in the cheek with an egg, which broke and splashed over Mr. Mulligan's coat.

As the party reached Wellington-street the riot grew intense and stones and missiles of all sorts flew fast. They turned westward on the north side of Wellington-street, and then the real trouble began.

Mr. O'Brien and every man with him, including several reporters, were struck with stones. But the only ones who were injured were Mr. M. Wall, the Associated Press agent of New York, and Secretary Cahill. Mr. Wall was hit with a stone which cut through his hat, inflicting a severe scalp wound on the right side of the head. It bled profusely and for a few minutes Mr. Wall was so stunned that he knew not where he was. Mr. Cahill was hit in the back of the head with a stone just as he had stooped to dodge another which went whizzing by. His head was cut, his hat damaged and he lost his eye-glasses. Mr. O'Brien was hit three times with stones but he suffered no injury. Mr. Mulligan, too, felt the touch of a stone but he escaped unhurt.

Mr. James Clancy of the New York Herald, and Mr. J. A. Kellogg of the New York Sun, who were at the scene of the trouble, took charge of Mr. Wall and led him up Bay-street to Hooper's drug store, where his injuries were attended to. Mr. Cahill had his head bandaged later on. Mr. Wall then went to the Rossin House and wrote out his despatches.

In front of the locksmith shop of Mr. Thomas Lalor, jr., at No. 72 Wellington-street, the crowd made a rush at Mr. O'Brien with hoots and yells, stones and eggs. A friend opened the door of Lalor's shop and said: "Come in here, Mr. O'Brien." East Cork's M. P. got inside hurriedly and Messrs. Mulligan and Cahill still stuck to him. He walked through the shop and went out at the back door. Mr. Kilbride had got separated from his friends. The stones that were thrown smashed every pane of glass in the doors and windows of Lalor's shop. The crowd rushed in after Mr. O'Brien and followed him to the end of the shop, Mr. Lalor had about thirty bicycles in his place waiting repairs, and these were stood about so that anyone going in quietly would have to pick his way. But the mob was in a hurry and they rushed straight ahead. The bicycles were knocked right and left and eight of them were nearly ruined.

Mr. Lalor, of course, is responsible for the machines in his place. He estimates his loss at about $600 and he will expect redress from the city. The only one in the shop at the time was Thomas Buckley, an employe.

After getting out by the back door Mr. O'Brien's party sought refuge in a place in the lane at the rear, behind Stansland's restaurant and in front of the old Royal Opera House. The officers of the League would not say just where shelter was had, but it was learned that it was in the tallow shop of Mr. Patrick Walsh. They remained there for over half an hour or so and then entered the Rossin House by a rear door from the lane. Mr. O'Brien went up to his room, his friends accompanying him.

"THEY MEANT TO MURDER ME."

Mr. O'Brien's Story—Instigated by Lord Lansdowne.

After the disturbance the prevailing question was: "Where is O'Brien?" No one knew, or at least the few who did knew kept the secret of his whereabouts to themselves. It was after 10 o'clock before Mr. O'Brien returned to the Rossin House. In the meantime the hotel had been thronged with friends and sympathisers anxious to hear the fate of their hero. So great was the number of people who wished to gain admittance to the hotel that Proprietor Irish was obliged to close the doors on all except guests and those who had business there.

After Mr. O'Brien had rested in his room for awhile several friends sent up cards and were kindly received by that gentleman. Mr. Kilbride and a few local Nationalists were with him. Mr. O'Brien's voice was hoarse, but he was in excellent spirits and talked freely. He bore no outward sign of injury. Mr. O'Brien gave the following version of the disturbance:

"Mr. Mulligan, Mr. Cahill and myself left the hotel about 7.30, with the intention of taking a stroll through the streets and then going to a friend's house. There was a large number of people of a mixed character assembled in front of the hotel, some friends and some foes. Our foiks cheered for me, and cheers were given for the other side. We started eastward along King-street followed by a great crowd. I saw there was a likelihood of a disturbance and several times I turned round and said to my friends, 'Keep back, boys.' Our men had entirely disappeared by the time we reached Bay-street, down which thoroughfare we turned, as it was evident those opposed to us were bent on mischief. A few police officers came up at this point and got in between us and the crowd. Going down Bay-street I told the crowd that their conduct was hardly right, and appealed to them for fair play. They did keep back for a moment or so, but before we reached Wellington-street the mob had again become riotous and cried 'To hell with the Pope,' and 'To hell with O'Brien.' At the corner of Bay and Wellington streets the crowd became really violent, and I heard several shouts of 'To the Bay with them,' 'To the Bay with them.' They pressed in on the right and left, and a most determined attack was made on us with sticks and stones. Mr. Cahill's hat was knocked off, and I only escaped myself by ducking my head. We went westward along Wellington-street, and a few steps from the corner another desperate attack was made. Two policemen came up at this stage, but they were soon lost in the crowd and I did not see another policeman during the riot. I suppose the few policemen present were not able to cope with the crowd, and I have no special complaint to make, but one thing is certain that we had not adequate police protection."

"Do you think?" interrupted his friends, "that the crowd had any serious designs against you, Mr. O'Brien?"

"Oh, faith," replied the agitator, "it was a deliberate and ferocious attempt to murder me. The stones then came right, left and centre. Mr. Cahill was struck twice on the head and lost his eyeglasses, and Mr. Hall, the Associated Press correspondent, was stunned by a big stone. I was hit three times with stones: on the left shoulder, breast and right arm, but none of the wounds were serious. By ducking my head I escaped several hits and also saved my tall hat, which I shall preserve fondly as a memento of the occasion, that is if it is not destroyed at Kingston."

Mr. O'Brien then went on to tell of how he and the local Nationalists found a place of shelter. "We tried one door," said he, "and found it locked, and then we got into Lalor's machine shop and passed out by the rear into a lane, where we remained for three-quarters of an hour or more, while the crowd stoned the front of the shop. When things had quieted down we returned to the Rossin House by the back way."

"What impression," asked his friends in conclusion, "have you formed from the affair? Do you think Toronto a bad place?"

"I will not carry away," replied Mr. O'Brien, "a bad impression of Toronto, although there was no doubt of the intention of the mob to murder me, but the people who attacked me are ignorant and everything like that, and you cannot blame them. The only thing I feel the least bitter about is that a crowd of that nature should attack a man who had no means of defence. If any of our fellows had been there the result would have been different, as you know both sides have a show in a free fight. But, as I have just said, the men who attacked me are not to blame; it is the section of the community who intrigued the riot, and the man who by his presence here countenanced the proceedings against me."

Mr. O'Brien said he would leave for Ottawa, "Please God," this morning.

EXCITEMENT AROUND THE ROSSIN.

A Shouting, Yelling Mob Make the Streets Ring with Wild Disorder.

From 8 o'clock until midnight an immense crowd surrounded the Rossin House. It was just about half-and-half, one-half cheering for Mr. O'Brien and Ireland and others cheering for the Queen and Lansdowne and singing the National Anthem. When the word went around that Mr. O'Brien had been assaulted the excitement grew intense and many people became red-hot, some expressing deep regret at such an occurrence and others saying that it served him right.

But until 11 o'clock no one knew where Mr. O'Brien and his friends were, and Hest Irish and the clerks at the Rossin House were kept busy answering enquiries that he was not there. Rumors were many and extravagant. One had it that Mr. O'Brien had been knocked insensible and another that a New York reporter had been shot dead. The rumors below this in importance were too many and too paltry for mention. In the hotels and other public places the sole question for a couple of hours was "Where is O'Brien?"

At 10 o'clock a crowd of West End young Irishmen, headed by a fife-and-drum band, marched along King-street and gave three cheers for O'Brien opposite the Rossin. Of course these were followed by groans and hisses. In fact every vocal demonstration since Mr. O'Brien came to town has consisted of cheers and groans, and groans and cheers. The young Irishmen marched down King-street past Yonge and then turned back. On each side of the street they were accompanied by a noisy crowd shouting disapproval.

The young Irishmen turned down York-street, and when half-way between King and Wellington they were stopped by the police, under Inspector Stephen, who commanded them to disperse. They broke up, but formed again and were again broken up. They then moved up to the corner of King and York-streets, and for two hours the police were kept busy in chasing the crowd away, from one spot only to see it gather in another. A large number of Queen's Own men, who had just left the Drill Shed, cheered for Lansdowne and hooted O'Brien for all they were worth. By 12 o'clock the greater part of the crowd had gone home and things got quieted down.

A Police Officer's Account.

Patrol Sergeant Adair says he was at the door of the Rossin House when Mr. O'Brien, a reporter and two other gentlemen came out. He advised them to go back to the hotel, but they insisted on proceeding, the reporter replying that they were going for a walk. In the vicinity of the Rossin House Mr. O'Brien was well surrounded by Young Emeralds, but the patrol sergeant, knowing there would be trouble, hastily called three policemen and followed. He kept order pretty well until on nearing Bay-street the loyalist crowd grew in numbers. Mr. O'Brien turned down Bay-street and in the darkness of that thoroughfare the stones began to fly. They were thrown entirely by young hoodlums, and the policemen believed that if the crowd had been worked up they would have killed the agitator before he got away.

In regard to the charge that sufficient police protection had not been afforded Mr. O'Brien, Sergeant Adair said, "If a man is foolhardy enough to go out in the face of such a crowd it's not our place to follow him around and keep them off."

Mr. O'Brien's Movements.

Mr. O'Brien will, so he expects, leave Union Station at 8.30 this morning for Ottawa, via Canadian Pacific Railway, where he is announced to speak to-night. To-morrow night he will address a meeting in Kingston. On Saturday he will return west and go to Niagara Falls, where he will spend Sunday. On Monday he will go to Hamilton, where he will speak that night. He is billed at St. Catharines for Tuesday, and up to last night this was his last fixed engagement in Canada. But he is anxious to speak again in Montreal and Toronto. Yesterday afternoon, when all fear of any trouble in Toronto was thought needless he said that if there was a row in Kingston or Ottawa he would like to speak again here and in Montreal.

THE CRIMES BILL.

THE PARNELLITES BRISTLING WITH AMENDMENTS.

LONDON, May 18.—The first clause of the Crimes Bill was adopted last night by a vote of 171 to 78. Notice was given of amendments to the second clause.

The House this afternoon began the consideration of clause 2 of the bill. This clause proposes to extend summary jurisdiction to conspiracy, boycotting, resistance to eviction and the offences designated in the White Boy acts.

Maurice Healy (Parnellite) moved an amendment limiting the operation of the clause to offences committed after the passage of the act.

This was rejected by a vote of 182 to 102.

Timothy Healy (Parnellite) moved that before any persons could be prosecuted under the provisions of the clause the fiat of the Attorney-General upon a sworn information must first be obtained.

Mr. Holmes, Attorney-General for Ireland, declared that the adoption of such an amendment would render that clause incapable of being worked.

The amendment was lost, the vote being 220 to 145.

George Shaw Lefevre (Liberal) moved the omission of the sub-section making punishable by summary jurisdiction the act of conspiring to induce any one not to fulfil legal obligations, or not to use or occupy land, or not to deal with or work for any one, or to induce any one to interfere with the administration of the law. This, Mr. Shaw Lefevre contended, was the section which was meant to be used in the interest of the Irish landlords in the collection of rents by criminal law before inferior tribunals. No previous Coercion Act contained anything analogous to this sub-section. It exposed tenants to summary conviction, not by juries, but by resident magistrates interested in preventing combinations against rack rents. It deprived tenants of the ordinary protection accorded English laborers and workmen against unfairness on the part of employers. [Cheers.]

Mr. Holmes contended that the section applied only to criminal combinations.

The debate was proceeding, when W. H. Smith, Government leader, moved closure. This motion was carried by a vote of 220 to 143.

Mr. Shaw-Lefevre's motion was rejected, the vote being 223 to 143. The House then adjourned.

Gladstone's Trip to Wales.

LONDON, May 18.—The Town Council of Swansea, Wales, where Mr. Gladstone has arranged to spend part of his Whitsuntide holiday, as the guest of Sir Henry Hussey Vivian, will offer the ex-Premier the freedom of the burgh.

Parnell Feeble and Emaciated.

LONDON, May 18.—Mr. Parnell was in the lobby of the House of Commons this afternoon. He wore a large muffler and looked feeble and emaciated.

Home Rule Meetings Proclaimed.

DUBLIN, May 18.—Meetings of the Irish Protestant Home Rule Association and the East Tyrone Unionists' Association called for to-morrow at Dungannon, have been proclaimed.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 18.

The Executive Committee of the Toronto Prison Aid Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Rossin House to arrange for the reception of the National Prison Association of the United States which holds its annual meeting in this city next September. Mayor Howland, Warden Massie of the Central Prison and others were present.

The association has hitherto been an American one, but as similar associations in Canada have expressed a willingness to co-operate, it is likely to become international. Its membership consists of wardens and others having charge of prisons, and also those who are interested in prison reform. Mr. R. B. Hayes, ex-President of the United States, George W. Cable, the southern author, and other prominent Americans will attend the convention. The sessions will be held in the Normal School Theatre. A number of important questions will come up for consideration, among them being the indeterminate sentence—sending a man to jail until he is reformed and a guarantee can be given society that he is no longer a source of danger. The best method of dealing with children will also be considered.

The convention met in Atlanta last year, being invited there by those who were averse to the extreme measures of punishment resorted to in that city, gangs of prisoners being shackled and turned out to clean the public streets. The convention succeeded in having this done away with. Warden Massie, on behalf of the Toronto Association, invited the convention to come and expressed Toronto hospitality and the offer was accepted.

On Monday evening three young men, Charles Fuller, boarding at 238 Sherbourne-street, George Kelsey, of 61 Jarvis-street, and John Griffiths, of 158 Parliament-street, rowed over to Hanlan's Point. They pulled up through Blockhouse Bay and went in swimming off Heber's wharf. Fuller swam out a distance alone, and in a few minutes he was missed. No trace of him could be found, and it was decided by his friends that he had been drowned. They rowed out and made every possible search, but he could not be found. Esplanade Constable Williams was notified, and spent three hours on Tuesday afternoon searching for the body but without success. Another search was made yesterday, but the body was not found. Fuller was about 18 years of age, and was only a few months out from Ireland.

Yesterday Mayor Howland sent a reply to the resolution of the Dublin City Council to the effect that the people of Canada should make Mr. O'Brien's visit a triumphant success. The World published the resolution in its Ottawa correspondence on Monday. His Worship's reply reads:

I have the honor to forward to you, by direction of His Worship the Mayor, in reply to your circular, a copy of resolutions unanimously adopted at a mass-meeting of the citizens, held on May 14th, in open air in Queen's Park. As this meeting was held under the authority of our statute respecting public meetings, and was presided over by the Mayor of the city, you may regard the resolutions sent you as the answer of this city to the matters referred to in your circular. JOHN BLEVINS, City Clerk.

JOHN PONTERGIL, a Burlington farmer, quoted instances where his cattle had been badly treated on the G.T.R., and thought that the rates were exorbitant; John Dryden, Township of Whitby, complained of unjust rates; Francis Green, an Innerkip stock-breeder, was dissatisfied with freight rates and the system of rating; Thomas Andrews, miller and grain buyer and Reeve of Thornbury, and Thomas McMurchy, also of Thornbury, complained of discriminating rates on the N. and N.W. Railway in favor of Meaford; and J. R. Wilkinson, an Owen Sound cattle and horse exporter, gave an instance of an exorbitant charge on live stock to Toronto as compared with Montreal.

The commission will sit again to-day.

When the C.P.R. express from the east reached the city at 2.30 last night it was found that eighteen M.P.'s were on board. The House adjourned last evening until May 23. Thirty members living east and west of Toronto left Ottawa on the noon train yesterday, and by the time this city was reached the number had been reduced to 18. Several of these members living west of Toronto remained over night in the city.

Michael Carroll of 10 Humbolt-avenue is the man who struck James H. Alkenhead in the Park during the O'Brien meeting Tuesday. Alkenhead said in the Police Court yesterday that he was merely "cheering Lansdowne and hissing the agitator," and that he did not strike Carroll first, as charged. The case was enlarged until to-morrow.

At the convention of the Order of Railway Conductors, just concluded at New Orleans, these officers were elected: Grand Chief Conductor, C. S. Wheaton of New York; Grand Secretary and Treasurer, W. P. Daniels, Iowa. The next meeting will be held in Toronto on the second Tuesday of May, 1888.

The upholsterers' difficulty is in a fair way of settlement. The conference held by the masters and the Executive Committee of the Knights of Labor Assembly, Knights of Labor, has resulted in placing the matter on a satisfactory basis. The men will receive 25 cents an hour, the principle mastered.

The Governor-General was presented with a patriotic address yesterday afternoon at Government House from the Irish Protestant Benevolent, and a joint one from the St. Andrew's, Caledonian and Gaelic societies.

The Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1887.

THE Yankees affect to despise Canada, but they find out by experience that the competition of Canadians is something to be treated with respect. Especially is this noticeable in railway matters. The Inter-state Law which recently went into operation in the United States, prevents the railroads from giving through traffic a discriminating advantage over local traffic, and now these railroads find that Canadian lines seize the occasion and are running away with the business. While this is a matter of advantage to Canadian commercial men, who profit by these events, it must rouse the farmers to a consideration of their position. They have to bear the brunt of the unjust and discriminating rates which Canadian railways are in a position to impose, for there can be no doubt that the advantageous through rates are given at the expense of the farmer, who pays for these advantages by an increased rate for short hauls. When there is no choice of routes—and this is the condition which generally obtains in this respect—the farmers must submit with as good a grace as possible. And unless Canadian farmers unite to demand their rights, no redress will be obtained. The present Government manifests a studied indifference to the wants of the farmers. Every tinker at the tariff has been against their interests, and the last more so than any other.

ENTHUSIASTIC protectionists have much to lay to the charge of free trade, and, among other things, is the charge that free trade has been mainly instrumental in crushing out the manufacturing industries of Ireland. Mr. Peter White, an extensive Irish woollen manufacturer, gives information tending to produce a different impression. He recently arrived in America, and, in a conversation with the ubiquitous newspaper reporter, said: "Part of my mission to this country is "to find out what articles America buys "from other countries, with a view of ob"taining a share of the trade for Ireland. I "would not, as a business man, come here "were I not in a position to compete in the "open market with all comers. The history "of the Irish woollen trade is very interest"ing. As far back as 1600 we were renown"ed for the quality of our serges and tweeds. "In the year 1698 both houses of the Eng"lish Parliament presented petitions to Wil"liam, who was then King, asking him to "discourage the manufacture of the woollen "goods in Ireland, and he did it. Parlia"ment passed an Act prohibiting the export "of wool or woollen goods from Ireland, un"der pain of forfeiture of goods and ships "and a penalty of £500." It is thus seen that it was not free trade, but a liberal dose of selfish trade restriction, that injured Irish manufacturing industries.

The New York Sun, under its new attack of Canada-phobia, asserts that the United States does not want friendly relations with Canada and will have either annexation or non-intercourse. Canada must make up its mind to non-intercourse—for it will be earn Sun-down before annexation is brought about, or, probably, still later in the world's evening.

—The Oshawa Railway and Navigation Company, whose bill for incorporation was presented in the House on Friday, propose building from Oshawa harbour to Oshawa town, thence by way of Myrtle to Lindsay or Bortestown and Bobcaygeon to a junction with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company; also proposed branches to Whitby and Bowmanville.

AFFAIRS AT OTTAWA.

THE OTTAWA HOUSE WILL NOT SIT FOR A WEEK.

OTTAWA, May. 18.—We had only a short session to-day and did nothing but finish with the tariff resolutions in committee and concur in them in the whole House, the bill founded thereon being introduced and read a first time.

Before taking up the tariff the following bills were introduced: Respecting the Anglo-Canadian Bank, Mr. Taylor; Ottawa and Gatineau Valley Railway, Mr. Wright; Waterloo and Magog Railway, Mr. Colby; Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, Mr. Labelle; Pontiac and Pacific Junction Railway, Mr. Bryson; Cobourg, Gladstone and Marmora Railway, Mr. Guillet; Canadian Powder Company, Mr. Hesson; Handford Branch Railway Company, Mr. Hall; to incorporate the Standard Printing and Publishing Company, Mr. Small. The last bill is to provide for the printing and publishing of a newspaper in Toronto, and the provisional directors of the company are: David Creighton, M.P.P., W. R. Brock, Frank Turner, Robt. Hay and C. D. Warren.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tariff resolution.

On Item 20, oil-cloths, the ad valorem duty was changed back to 20 per cent., the change to 15 per cent. having been made in mistake for item 21, the change on that item being accordingly made.

Item 22: The specific duty is placed upon each roll of eight yards.

Item 23: Changed to 25 per cent.

Item 24: Changed to read manufactured paper, including ruled, bordered papeterie, box paper, envelopes and blank books, 35 per cent.

Item 40 was changed to read all fabrics composed wholly or in part of wool worsted. The hair of the Alpaca goat or other like animals, not otherwise provided for, 22½ per cent. ad valorem; on all such goods costing 10 cents per yard and under, 22½ per cent.; costing over 10 cents and under 14 cents, 25 per cent.; costing 14 cents and over 27½ per cent.

Item 166 was struck out and the following submitted: "Screws, commonly called wood screws, 2 inches and over in length, 6 cents per pound; over 1 inch and less than 2 inches, 8 cents per pound; less than 1 inch, 11 cents per pound; other screws of iron, brass and other metal, 35 per cent. ad valorem. Iron or steel rivets, bolts with or without threads or nuts or bolt blanks, less than ¾ inch diameter, 1½ cents per pound and 30 per cent. ad valorem."

The following new items were added:

Rice 1½ cents per pound.

All clothing made of cotton or other material not otherwise provided for, including corsets and similar articles made up by seamstresses or tailors, also tarpaulin, plain or coated with oil paint, tar or other composition, and cotton bags made up by the use of the needle, not otherwise provided for, 35 per cent. ad valorem.

Drain pipes and sewer pipes, glazed, 35 per cent. ad valorem.

All square pianofortes, whether round cornered or not, not over seven octaves, $25 each; all other square pianofortes, $30 each; upright pianofortes, $30 each; concert, semi concert or parlor grand pianofortes, $30 each, and in addition 20 per cent. ad valorem.

Parts of pianofortes, 30 per cent. ad valorem.

Clothes wringers, a specific duty of $1 each and 30 per cent. ad valorem.

Added to the free list: Redwood planks and boards sawn but not further manufactured (to develop the cigar box industry).

It was announced that the Government would ask for power to deal with cases where contracts had been taken under the old duties, as otherwise great hardships would arise.

A little tiff about passes on the Intercolonial Railway closed a short session and the members rushed for their lodging houses, packed their grips and the trains took them away by scores. There is scarcely a member left in the city. The boys are off for a week's holiday.

At the Agriculture and Colonization Committee to day Prof. Saunders gave evidence in regard to the experimental farms. At the Ottawa farm there was about 100 acres in crop, thirteen to twenty acres being sown with Russian wheat. There was also wheat procured from the Indian Reserves and several acres sown with the same. The land was manured, but as it was late in the spring before operations could be commenced, the ground was consequently not in so good a condition as it should be and the same results could not be expected this season. No Ontario wheat was used. The great idea in regard to wheat was to get a grade which would suit the Northwest, where it was troubled with frosts. No fertilisers were used. Samples of wheat were this year distributed gratuitously but he could not say if the practice would be continued. Mr. Carling, Minister of Agriculture, was present at the committee.

The Committee on Banking and Commerce met to-day. An act to incorporate the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company was considered. The capital stock of the company is $2,000,000, divided into 20,000 shares, of $100 each, and with power to increase the amount to $5,000,000. No policies of insurance shall be issued under the authority of the act until capital stock to the amount of $250,000 is subscribed and the sum of at least $100,000 in paid thereon. Mr. Carlyle was present promoting the bill.

Hon. John Carling has leased the furnished residence of Mr. Dennis, at the corner of Cooper and Metcalfe streets. Mrs. Carling and family have arrived from London, Ont.

The Czar's Journey.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 18.—The Czar and Czarina arrived at the city of Novo Tscherkask, the capital of the Don Cossacks country, this morning. They entered the town in state and subsequently attended divine service in the cathedral, the Metropolitan of Nieff presiding over the ceremonies.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 30% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices

A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of Mens, Boys & Children's Hats ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINIATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to ackowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheel-horses,
Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

DRIVES.

Mr. A. Macdonald's drive, the first of the season, passed through here last week. Another, owned by Messrs. Fewlds, of Hastings, is running through here.

TELEPHONE.

The Bell Telephone Company completed their line of wire between here and Lakefield on Thursday last. It was placed at the disposal of every one gratis up to Monday, and it is needless to say advantage was taken of the opportunity. The people of Young's Point owe much to Mr. C. Young for his enterprise in this matter, and if we had a few more public spirited citizens like him, this would be a more thriving place.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Should we be favored with "Queen's weather" on the 24th, the 68th anniversary of Her Majesty's birth will be celebrated here in regal style. The anniversary pic-nic in connection with the Methodist Church will be held on that day, and addresses delivered by Revs. Jas. Toxeland, J. Moran and A. L. Adam. At 2 p.m. a baseball match will be commenced between the local club and the Lakefield nine, who are coming up to show our boys how to play baseball. In the evening a ball will be held at Mr. J. E. Kearney's hotel.

SCHOOL INSPECTION.

Mr. James C. Brown, P. S. I., visited our school last Friday and was much pleased with the advancement the pupils had made since his last visit, and the manner in which the school is conducted.

THE BOOM.

The boom which was put in between here and Lakefield last summer, in order to divide the channel for the steamers and logs, is broken in several places near here so as to be almost useless. The superintendent in charge should have it repaired.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. Scollard's many friends will be pleased to learn that he has received a certificate for captain on inland waters. Captain Scollard is master of the "Fairy" this season.

LOCAL LISKLETS.

The water is falling rapidly.

Farmers have almost finished seeding.

The steamer "Fairy" is busily engaged towing.

The pestilent mosquitoes and blackflies have commenced operations. They have been on the war-path in this locality for some time.

Omemee.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Seeding is about completed by the farmers in this section, and never was a more favourable time experienced by the farmers.

There is quite a demand for houses here, every available house being occupied.

Peterborough merchants have commenced to advertise in the Herald, our local paper. No doubt it will prove advantageous.

There is to be a grand celebration here on the 24th May under the management of the Omemee Hook and Ladder Company, when cash prizes will be offered—for all the popular sports on land and water.

Our Village Brass Band is making rapid progress under H. W. Sherwood, and will enliven the 24th May proceedings.

Omemee cricket club expect to meet the P. C. C. in the near future for a friendly game.

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

SPOTS OF SPORT.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 18.—About 1000 people saw the home team defeat Toronto this afternoon at Culver Park for the second time. Both teams play in the main a good game, making it far more interesting to watch than the game of yesterday. The home team was very fortunate in bunching its hits, while the visitors were scattered through nine innings. A magnificent stop by Cline in the second inning was one of the features of the game. A Canadian Filly Third at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, May 18.—The attendance at the Louisville Jockey Club grounds to-day was fair, but the program was a disappointment. The Merchants' stake, which promised to be the greatest event of the meeting, dwindled down to a virtual walk-over for Baldwin's Volante; Montana Regent, the phenomenal Egmont and Wary were entered, but their owners being afraid of the Californian scratched them, and only Volante, Miss Lord and Elgin started. Volante proved an easy winner. The Canadian filly Belle Taw finished third in the Louisville Hotel purse. The summaries follow:

First race—Purse $400, for maiden 2-year-olds, ¾ of a mile—Autocrat, 95, won; White, 95, second; Sprogret, 98, third. Time, 1:18.

Second race—The Louisville Hotel Purse, $ furlongs—Violet, 103, won; Billy Lincoln, 112, second; Belle Taw, 103, third. Time, 1:18.

Third race—1 furlongs—Loftin, 107, won; Handy Andy, 93, second; Doctor, 103, third. Time, 1:52.

Fourth race—Merchants' Stakes for all ages, 1 mile and 1 furlong:

Sullivan Will Fight Kilrain.

NEW YORK, May 18.—John L. Sullivan has agreed to fight Jake Kilrain for $2500, Queensberry rules, the fight to be limited to from four to six rounds. The fight must take place in some park or public building, and the winner is to take two-thirds of the gate receipts.

The Civil Service Reformers

say their object is simply to retain good men in office when you find them. This theory may be safely applied to the treatment of the human system by means of medicine. Those who have once tried Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" for scrofulous swellings sores, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, spitting of blood and consumption, will apply to it the real principle of Civil Service Reform and "hold fast to that which is good." 6dw20

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Siddel, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism neuralgia, inflamation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 2w20d

Sudden Disappearance.

"My face was covered with sores, arising from bad blood. By the use of three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured." R. E. Sinclair, of Port Dorwell, Ont. 5w20d

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and cataracts, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can design no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtems. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Worth ten Dollars a Bottle.

Any person who has used Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy in the world for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute, lame back at one application; headache in a few moments and all pains just as rapidly. Small test bottles only cost 10 cents. Why not try it to-day? Large bottles 25 cents, sold by all druggists and country dealers. Use Polson's nerve pain cure—Nerviline. 6dw20

An Open Letter.

A Reminder.

Keep in mind the Queen's Birthday races in the Driving Park. Fast horses, good purses, fine sport.

A Fine Horse.

Mr. Alex. Donnelly, Peterborough, has purchased "Clarion Chief" from Mr. R. Croft, of Cobourg, for a large sum of money. "Clarion Chief" is a remarkably fine stallion.

House-cleaning.

As house-cleaning is completed, it would be a good idea to furnish the bed-rooms with new crockery, etc. Call at China Hall and buy what Chamber Sets you need before the price is raised in consequence of the advance in duty on these goods.

Are you a bargain-seeker? Call at Turnbull's and see his beautiful Cretonnes at 10c. a yard.

Phonography.

Phonography may be learned from a well qualified teacher, at the Mechanics' Institute, at a reasonable rate. Lesson hours accomodated to suit the student. Apply to Miss E. Harper, Mechanics' Institute, for terms and other particulars.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Gentlemen who have not tried Duck & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

A Trial Solicited.

The Town Clock Grocery store can supply you with the choicest groceries of every kind at lowest figures. Call upon W. A. Morrow, at the Town Clock Grocery, and be convinced.

"Old Soldiers."

The P. A. A. A. on Friday evening, will give an amateur dramatic performance in the Opera House, the play to be presented, entitled "Old Soldiers." Several amateurs of recognized dramatic merit will take the leading roles, and a first-class entertainment is promised. Admission, 25c and 35.

Miss Mittie Fraine.

Miss Fraine will read on Friday night in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, the following and other selections: Will Carleton's "First Settler's Story," "Flying Jim's last leap," "Creed of the Falls," "The Bishop and the Cow," Carleton's "The Prayer." Miss Stephens and A. D. Browne will give several songs. This entertainment will be well worth 25 cents.

Turnbull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

Y. W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the "Y" was held Tuesday afternoon in the W. C. T. U. Hall. Miss Edwards, President, occupied the chair. A flower committee was appointed, whose duty it is to carry flowers to the sick in Hospital and Homes. Those willing to help in this delightful work will kindly send their contributions (flowers) to the W. C. T. U. Hall next Wednesday.

Service of Praise.

The service of praise which was rendered with such success in St. Paul's Church on Monday, May 9th, will be repeated in George street Methodist Church on Thursday, evening, May 26th, under the direction of Mr. Parker. Admission free, silver collection. It is to be hoped that all who did not hear this really fine entertainment will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Blank Books.

Parties desiring blank books of any description made to order should leave their orders at the EXAMINER book-bindery. All work is neatly and promptly executed at lowest rates. The following extract from a letter received Wednesday ought to convince everyone of the truth of the above assertions:—"Enclosed please find post office order for $6, amount of my account. The insurance book suits me immensely and very cheap. They asked me $14 for the same book here, and 200 pages less."

To-Night's Concert.

The Harmony Male Quartette Concert this evening, in the Opera House, at which Mrs. Chambers will sing, no one should miss. "The voices of the gentlemen are rich, sweet and well trained." Tickets and reserved seats at A. L. Davis & Co.

Kidd sells them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

The Irish Agitator.

The Irish agitator, Wm. O'Brien, who was stoned and mobbed in Toronto last night, a graphic account of which appears in this issue, passed through Peterborough on the 11.30 C. P. R. train to-day en route for Ottawa, where he speaks to-night. He was greeted at the station by about half a dozen of his Peterborough admirers.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and sells them very cheap.

Celebrating the Day.

The athletic sports on the P. A. A. A. grounds in Ashburnham on the Queen's Birthday are attracting much attention, and the day's events promise to be exceedingly interesting. What with two baseball matches, bicycle and foot races, jumping, etc., a pleasant time can be spent by all interested in sports. The baseball matches will be particularly drawing cards.

Repeal Requested.

At the last meeting of Ashburnham village council the following resolution was unanimously carried:—"Moved by Councillor Anderson, seconded by Councillor Craig, That this council, considering that the Canada Temperance Act of 1878 is not of any benefit morally, financially, or otherwise, desires that the said Act should be repealed, and that the Reeve and Clerk execute a memorial asking for such repeal and affix the Corporate Seal thereto and forward the same to the proper authorities."

No one need despair of finding Millinery to suit them while Turnbull is in the trade. He keeps a well-selected stock of choice goods, and as new lines appear in the market, has new Shapes and Trimmings arriving almost daily.

Duke on the Demonstration.

A meeting of the Oddfellows' Demonstration Committee was held last night and important business transacted. The committee has secured excellent railway rates from the G. T. R., C. P. R., C. O. R., Midland R. R., K. & P. R., and Northern R. R. The rates are unusually favorable, and as this is an important factor in drawing people from a distance, one more point is scored in behalf of the demonstration. Answers have been received from a number of subordinate lodges and military encampments promising their attendance, the latest being that of Ottawa, which will be present in full force and regalia.

Still on the Throne.

The home rule question, the fisheries squabble, the tariff changes, the O'Brien excitement, and even the Queen's jubilee, are passing questions of the hour, which will excite momentary interest and then pass into the region of the forgotten. But her majesty the Queen still remains upon the throne, and his throne still holds firmly seated, gough, the king of clothiers, who, as far as the clothing trade is concerned, is "monarch of all he surveys". For the good of his liege subjects he has his shelves loaded with a magnificent stock of summer goods, whose marvelously low prices combined with superior quality, give his opponents fits of the shaking palsy. A splendid all wool suit at $3.75, is only a sample of the wonderful bargains which may be obtained, not only in clothing but also in summer hats, at Gough's store, sign of the quadruple dudes, George street, Peterborough.

Wrong Impressions Corrected.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Reports in local papers of the meeting held Tuesday night for the purpose of arranging a celebration of the Queen's Jubilee, are rather misleading in some particulars. In the first place, the proposal to have a military procession in the forenoon was merely a suggestion, and a committee was appointed to wait upon the officers and get their views of the matter. The reports speak of the matter as almost a certainty. Then the statement that the members of the societies would appear in regalia is altogether wrong. They will go as representatives of the Societies, it is true, but in citizens' clothes, and not distinguished by any regalia from each other, all wearing simply a Jubilee badge. Then as regards the statement that free refreshments will be served—that also was only a suggestion, and was left in the hands of a committee to consider. In fact, the whole programme is open to change, not a single feature being yet a fixed certainty. The probability is, however, that it will be carried out as originally proposed, or nearly so.

Yours truly,
COMMITTEE MAN.

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. John McKee.

It is with deep regret, and sympathy with sorrowing friends and relatives, that the death is recorded of Mrs. John McKee, of Cavan, which sad event took place on Thursday May 19th, as the termination of a some what protracted illness. The deceased lady was Sarah, the second daughter of Mr. James Chalmers of Young's Point. About twelve years ago, in company with her husband, she removed to Kansas, U. S., but the climate proving unfavourable to her health, the family returned to Canada some three years since and took up residence in Cavan, on the farm adjoining Mrs. McKee's sister, Mrs. W. M. Fair, upon which the family resided till the time of her death. Mrs. McKee was thirty-eight years of age, and leaves behind a sorrowing husband and two children. The funeral will take place from the family residence, Cavan, to Gardenser's Burying Ground, on Saturday at 2 o'clock, p.m. As a girl the deceased was conspicuous among a wide circle of friends, for a charming amiability of disposition which endeared her in an especial manner, to all who knew her, and which distinguished her in its fuller development, in the relations of wife, mother and neighbor. Those bereft by her death mourn, but not as those without hope, for her unaffected piety gives ground for a certain hope, that, to her death was but the avenue from earth to Heaven

Swept Away by Fire.

A Bundle of Wooden Buildings in the Centre of a Block Burned.

The firemen were out for hose practice on Water street last night about 8 o'clock, and two hours later were called out to a political application of the hoses they had received therefrom. About 10 o'clock a blaze was noticed in the western extremity of the sheds of the Snowdon House, on Simcoe street, and an alarm was rung. In a very few minutes the sheds were completely enveloped in flames, which spread with remarkable speed, and before the firemen got to work it looked as though a terrible holocaust was unavoidable. Fortunately, though, there was scarcely any wind, and so the danger was averted. Adjacent to the Snowdon House sheds on the east end was a stable owned by Dr. Crevier, in which his own horse and Messrs. Elliott & Tierney's were kept. This was also destroyed, as well as the shed alongside of it, owned by the Daley brothers, and used as a pig pen, though empty at the time, from which the flames extended to the brick stables of the City Hotel, which, however, resisted the fiery element, the cupola and window sashes only being burned. So intense was the heat of the burning sheds, that the frame store-house of Wm. English's canoe factory, a few rods south was soon ignited, and in a moment was a mass of flames, the fire spreading from it to the wood-sheds in rear of the houses alongside the factory, which were also soon destroyed. However, the firemen soon had five streams playing from hydrants, and in an hour the fire was almost totally subdued. The new hose service received its first practical test on this occasion, and it proved very serviceable indeed in laying the hose.

The sheds of Condon's Temperance House were slightly burned, and a considerable portion torn down to prevent the fire from spreading.

The occupants of the houses along Charlotte street removed their goods and chattels in a hurry, but fortunately their houses were unhurt. The stock in Wm. English's canoe factory and a portion of the contents of his store-house were also removed.

Had a high wind been blowing at the time nothing could have prevented a disastrous conflagration. The waterworks, though, did excellent service, which, backed up as it was by the brave efforts of the Fire Brigade, won the day. The service rendered on this occasion by our excellent system of waterworks was of the utmost importance. Without their help there is hardly any doubt that the conflagration would have extended to the Burnham block, and perhaps further, and the resulting loss of property would have been immense. Situated as the fire was in a cluster of wooden buildings in the centre of the block, it spread so rapidly that the steamer, with two weak streams, would have been powerless to deal with a fire which five powerful streams from the hydrants had difficulty to cope with. Some complaint was made of the tardiness in connecting the hose with the Charlotte street hydrant, but the delay was unavoidable. The hose was attached and the water playing from two branches from the Simcoe street hydrant within three minutes of the alarm. The hose was next attached to the hydrant in front of Garvey's, and to that on Charlotte street in due course.

There were a number of horses in the stables burned, and some pigs in the Snowden House sheds, but they were got out safely.

Last night's fire emphasizes the contention of the undesirability of having wooden buildings crowded together in the heart of the town. Had the buildings burned been of brick or stone, the fire would not have been half so extensive.

THE LOSSES

are not very serious. The following insurances in companies of Mr. Cox's agencies are:—$500 in the Fire Insurance Association on the Snowden House sheds; $123 on the stables of Condon's Temperance House (owned by Mr. C. W. Sawers) in the Royal; $20 loss on horse-feed belonging to Elliott & Tierney, in the Lancashire; $760 in the North British and Mercantile on Mr. James English's house—damage about $50; $15 damage to the contents of the canoe factory, insured in the Citizens, has been settled. Mr. W. H. Hill had insured the following:—Dr. Crevier, on stables, in Mercantile, $200; losses to Dolan and Garvey's stables, insured in the Imperial, covered by insurance.

Another Big Fire.

"Misfortunes come not singly," it is said, and the applicability of this proverb to fires was demonstrated again to-day. A little after 11 o'clock the fire alarm rang out, and in a short time the hose wagon and "Silsby" engine were rattling along towards Ashburnham. The fire was at Mr. E. B. Wilson's woolen mills, just this side of the Hunter street iron bridge. It seems that a few minutes previous one of the employees noticed the blaze, which originated in the picker, and ran upstairs to give the alarm to the employees in the upper flats, who were mostly girls. On descending again the whole place was in flames, and the premises were vacated in a hurry, all getting out safely, Mr. Thos. Wilson, however, being obliged to jump from an upper window into the street. The fire spread as only it can in a woolen mill, a very few minutes sufficing to envelope the entire structure in seething masses of flames, and by the time the fire brigade got to work the building was doomed. So great was the heat that the firemen could not approach the maelstrom of roaring, crackling flames, and all their endeavors were aimed at preserving the small wheel-house across the way from the fiery elements, in which, after a hard struggle, they succeeded. Mr. Dawson's house, separated from the mill by a yard, was in imminent danger also, and was saved only by the most strenuous efforts. The high wind blowing carried the sparks over to the immense piles of wood stretched along the river's edge between the wheel-house and Brodie's mill, which took fire in several places, the blaze being extinguished by the hose of Brodie's mill. The planking of the iron bridge also caught and burned considerably, while the telegraph and telephone poles were totally consumed and the circuit broken. By 12:30 o'clock the ruin was completed.

There was an insurance on the building, owned by the Dickson Company, in the Mercantile, of $2,500; on the machinery and contents, owned by Mr. E. B. Wilson, $3,200 in the Glasgow & London. Mr. W. H. Hill is agent for both companies.

The fire, while it lasted, was an intensely hot one. The firemen deserve every credit for their hard work and persevering effort in the way of saving the surrounding property. One stream was run from the Water street hydrant, while the Silsby supplied two more.

The wheel-house was badly burned, but not enough to stop the machinery.

The planking of the iron bridge was burned right across. On the side nearest the mill new joists will have to be put in. Men are at work repairing the damage. The roadway is useless, and only one of the walks available.

In his serious loss Mr. Wilson has the sympathy of the entire community. The loss is particularly felt by him, coming, as it does, at the beginning of the "harvest-time" of his business. He had laid in a stock of $7,000 in view of extensive operations, while his insurance covers only $3,200 of stock and machinery, to the latter of which he had recently made important additions. It is only a few years since Mr. Wilson suffered the loss, by fire, of his woolen factory on McDonnel street, west.

Personal.

Mr. T. W. Hawley, of the firm of Hawley Brothers, tea merchants, Hunter street, left yesterday for Trenton, where he purposes opening a tea store. Hawley Bros. opened out a tea store in Peterborough about two years ago and have since done a good business. They are young men of good business habits, reliable and enterprising, and we have no doubt that Mr. Hawley in Trenton will be as successful as the firm has been here.

Promptitude Extraordinary.

E. E. Henderson, General Agent "Phœnix" of England Fire Insurance Company, Peterborough:

DEAR SIR,—I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your cheque this a. m. in settlement in full of my claim in the "Phœnix" OF ENGLAND Fire Insurance Company, represented by you, for damage to stock from the fire last night in rear of my canoe factory on Charlotte street. Such prompt adjustment is deserving of public mention.

Yours truly,
WM. ENGLISH.

TRADE IN

Our Millinery Department

IS NOW AT ITS HEIGHT, AND did we judge alone by the crowds that daily claim attention of our salesmen advertising this class of goods would be unnecessary—almost a waste of money. But then, you know, there's two sides to every subject. Here's the other side to this one, and at the same time our reason for advertising when there's no apparent necessity for doing so.

In making up our stock in this department we provided for great numbers—for many more than have as yet taken advantage of its completeness, to furnish themselves with millinery suitable for the season.

It will therefore require "crowds long continued" to clear out tables of the enormous stock of Millinery with which they are loaded—over-loaded.

A continuous demand then being necessary, we know of no better way to insure it than to keep you informed as to just what we have and how we are prepared to sell it. We shall, therefore, from now to the close of the season, devote some portion of our card to Millinery News.

We have already said that our stock was large. We have also intimated that our assortment was COMPLETE. Now for our goods.

We have just received a six dozen lot of Ladies' and Children's Hats which are the newest in shape, and bought at half their value.

O'BRIEN LEAVES TOWN

A QUIET DEPARTURE YESTERDAY FOR THE CAPITAL CITY.

TORONTO, May 20.

O'Brien and Kilbride have left us, and the city, after the disgraceful scenes of Wednesday night, is beginning to settle down. All day yesterday the trouble was the chief topic. The newspapers were quickly bought up and eagerly read. Some people denounced O'Brien, while others blamed his assailants or the police.

It was 7 o'clock yesterday morning when O'Brien and Kilbride were roused from sleep, which they were in great need of after the rampus of the night before. They breakfasted together at the Rossin and at 8.15 they entered a carriage with Messrs. Mulligan and Cahill, and drove to Union Station, where quite a gathering, largely composed of friends, was awaiting them. As Mr. O'Brien stepped aboard a parlor car of the Canadian Pacific Railway train which was to bear him to Ottawa, there were demands for a speech. He spoke briefly and thanked his friends for what he said was a right noble reception. Notwithstanding the trouble that had occurred he would carry away kindly feelings of Toronto, and he was willing to leave to the fair judgment of the people the giving of a verdict as to the cowardly attempt to murder him. He closed with a fervent "God bless you all," and entered the car.

Mr. Wall, the Associated Press Agent, who was hurt on Wednesday night, was on the train, looking worn and weary but not suffering much from the scalp wound he had received. He was very indignant, however, about the treatment of the mob. Secretary Cahill, whose head also had been cut, had it fixed up, and he wore a new pair of eyeglasses.

Note in the West End.

It was expected that after O'Brien left the city the rowdy element would settle down and everything would resume its normal condition, but such expectations were far from being fulfilled. Last night the West End was in the hands of one of the worst mobs that ever disgraced a civilized country, and for three hours they were allowed to do as they liked, without a show of resistance from the police.

Early in the evening a lot of young leaguers gathered together and, headed with an Emerald fife and drum band, marched through the streets. They were followed by a crowd of boys and youths who called themselves loyalists and sang the National Anthem and Rule Britannia, and gave cheers for Lansdowne. Both parties grew in strength as they marched along King-street west and a collision seemed inevitable. At John-street five policemen watched the two mobs go by, but made no attempt to disperse them, nor did they take the trouble to follow. The Emeralds turned up Bathurst-street and on reaching Adelaide-street they stopped and sent a shower of stones at their followers. Several were hit, but none were seriously hurt so far as could be ascertained. The loyalist party then fell back, not being as strong in numbers as their opponents, and the Emeralds marched up to Queen-street and went west to Niagara-street. By this time a number of Young Britons down town, hearing of the trouble, came hurrying out to the scene, until the loyalists numbered nearly a thousand. Rallying their forces at the corner of Esther and Queen-streets they marched west again in search of the "enemy," accompanied by six policemen. The loyalists marched to Niagara-street, then back to Tecumseth-street, along Farley-avenue, Bathurst-street and Queen, their avowed object being to exterminate the Emeralds. As the latter wisely got out of the way the disappointed loyalists returned along Queen-street and disbanded near Yonge-street shortly before midnight.

Both sides were spoiling for a fight, but nothing serious occurred, although their demonstration was of a most disgraceful character. It is to be hoped the police will suppress any further business o this nature.

ALL QUIET AT OTTAWA.

The O'Brien Meeting Passes Off Without Any Disturbance Whatever.

OTTAWA, May 19.—Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride arrived by the Canadian Pacific Railway at 5.30 p.m. A deputation from the Reception Committee had proceeded to Perth to meet them. At the Union Station here a crowd of 800 or 1000 persons gathered, many of whom rushed into the car to greet Mr. O'Brien. Lusty cheers were given for him upon his appearance on the platform by a small proportion of those present. The rest seemed to have no interest but curiosity in the matter and there was no disorder of any kind.

Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Kilbride, with Mr. Michael Starrs, President of the Local League, and J. L. Dowlin, President of St. Patrick's Literary Association, were driven in a four-in-hand to the Russell, in the corridor of which a large crowd had gathered. The party entered by a private door, however, and the crowd were disappointed. Some one called for three cheers for the Queen, which were given by a few, who then sang "God Save the Queen." A few others then cheered Mr. O'Brien. Some warm words were exchanged over this incident, but no blows were struck. The Reception Committee lunched with Mr. O'Brien at the Russell before the lecture.

Mr. O'Brien at the Rink.

In the Rink, where about 1000 persons had assembled, Mr. O'Brien received a hearty reception. The students of the College of Ottawa were present in a body, leading in the cheers and singing "God Save Ireland." Mr. J. L. Dowling, who presided, read a telegram from Archbishop O'Brien of Halifax expressing sympathy with O'Brien and condemnation of "the blackguardism of Toronto, for which the educated rowdyism under Mayor Howland was chiefly responsible." An address from the local League was then read. During its reading loud cheering was heard on Ottawa-square opposite the rink. It appears that a counter demonstration was going on there, and presently the strains of "God Save the Queen" were heard, followed by hearty Loyalist cheers. This was kept up for a considerable time, and was accompanied occasionally by the tooting of horns.

Mr. O'Brien in his speech, which was otherwise substantially that delivered elsewhere, referred to the disorders at Toronto last night. He said he believed there was not a respectable Canadian who did not share the sentiments of Archbishop O'Brien. He declared that the ignorant Orangemen were the rioters and that the intention was to make it a killing matter. The audience rose to their feet and cheered as Mr. O'Brien concluded, and the college boys again led in singing "God Save Ireland."

Mr. Kilbride was next introduced and spoke at length. He referred to the troubles in Toronto last night as the opposition of Lord Lansdowne's paid or primed "rowdies." He closed by asking if the Canadian people would tolerate to be governed by one of the greatest tyrants that had ever oppressed Ireland.

Senator O'Donohoe of Toronto was the next speaker. He said that Toronto, from the earliest history to the present, had been disgraced by the acts of the Orangemen, but he believed the acts of last night would not have been committed had it not been for the presence of Lord Lansdowne in the city. He concluded by moving a resolution of sympathy with and vote of thanks to Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride.

Prof. Frawley seconded the resolution, which was carried unanimously.

Rev. Father Whelan, parish priest of St. Patrick's, in moving a vote of thanks to the chairman, said that for Lord Lansdowne as a landlord the best thing we could do was to pray for him, that he might be taken away from the way of temptation; that he might be removed from the occasion of sin. To pray, in short, for the success of the plan of campaign.

Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride spoke in reply, and the meeting terminated in an orderly manner.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 20.

About 150 members of the Board of Trade crowded the rotunda of their building last night and continued the discussion on commercial union, adjourned from the meeting of May 12. Ever since the last gathering the members of the board have developed the deepest interest in the subject. Those that did not come to the meeting last night prepared to speak, came prepared to listen.

When the meeting of May 12 adjourned four motions had been sent up to the chairman. They were recorded as a resolution and three amendments. When the meeting was called to order last evening it was not just exactly clear where the proceedings should begin. Mr. John Macdonald arose and said that in all deliberative bodies, under similar circumstances, it was competent to move a "substitute" to the whole. He therefore moved, and found a seconder in Mr. William Thomson:

That the true policy of enlightened nations in their commercial intercourse is the maintenance of a friendly and generous spirit, solving all causes of disquietude by discouraging the enactment of irritating conditions and seeking in a spirit of frankness and fairness, where such conditions exist, to have them removed.

That this board is of opinion that neither in its trade or other relations should any cause of strife exist between Canada and the great nation with which ... is politically and commercially, it is so closely connected.

That it believes that a commercial treaty equitable and advantageous alike to both parties can be framed in such a spirit of fairness as will afford the best guarantee for its prosperity.

That this board is in favor of the employment of all feasible means to serve an end so much to be desired, but that in the consideration of such a subject it disapproves of any proposal to discriminate against Great Britain whose protection we enjoy and under whose watchful and fostering care we have grown to be the people we are, and occupy the proud and enviable position which we do to-day among the nations of the earth.

Mr. Macdonald, in speaking to his "substitute," made an address that caught the meeting from the start. After speaking of the first commercial union into which we had entered, he referred to the overcrowding of every branch of business and the professions. There was competition in everything. It should be remembered that the race was to the swift, to the strong, to the energetic and to the diligent. "It is the hand of the diligent that maketh rich," saith the Word. He did not believe the Toronto Board of Trade would affirm the principle contained in Mr. Darling's resolution.

It was all up, however, with Mr. Darling and his motion. The meeting was determined to vote, and vote they did. Mr. Brock's motion for the previous question was carried. This choked off further debate. Mr. Macdonald's "substitute" was speedily put by Chairman Wilkie, and carried almost unanimously, amid wild cheering, Mr. Darling still protesting amid the din of the noisy meeting.

It just took about three minutes to empty the room.

The Railway Commission met again yesterday and sat for about one and a half hours. They heard what these gentlemen had to say about railway matters: Wm. Pearson, farmer, of Singhampton, Simcoe County; ex-Ald. David Walker and James H. Sproule, grain and commission merchant, of Toronto. Mr. Pearson thought that rates were exorbitantly high and that a permanent commission would be a benefit. Mr. Walker feared that since the Inter-State bill went into force there was collusion between the American railways and the Canadian Pacific Railway because a freight rate from San Francisco to Toronto had jumped from $1 to $4.70. Mr. Sproule thought that it was best to leave the matter of the adjustment of rates in the hands of the railways.

THE CRISIS IN FRANCE.

De Freycinet Will Announce His Decision on Saturday.

PARIS, May 19.—President Grevy had a conference with M. De Freycinet today and asked him to form a Cabinet. M. De Freycinet said he would postpone his decision until he had consulted the gentlemen whom he desired to have his colleagues in the Ministry. He promised M. Grevy that he would intimate the result by Saturday at the latest.

CABLE NOTES.

The Afghan Frontier Commission will reopen operations shortly.

An escaped convict in Austrian Silesia killed and robbed six persons recently and is still at large.

Eight thousand persons are on strike in the central district of Belgium. The metal workers threaten to join the strike inaugurated by the miners.

The Spanish Government has discovered that the Mexican Conservatives have invited Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, to come over and head their party.

It is reported that Prince Leitpold, the regent of Bavaria, will receive Emperor Francis Joseph's assertion to assume the Bavarian throne, and that Emperor William's has already been obtained.

On the advice of General Gene, commander of the Italian forces at Massowah, Italy has abandoned the proposed Abyssinian expedition.

Victor Emsley, husband of Madame Jane Hadwig, the actress, and M. Lecour, a journalist, who had written an article insulting to Madame Hadwig's reputation, fought a duel in Paris. Lecour was wounded.

Katkoff's anti-German articles in the Moscow Gazette have, it is understood, displeased the Czar and weakened the editor's position in Russian affairs.

IRISH EMIGRATION.

PARNELLITES WANT TO KNOW THE REASON FOR THE INCREASE.

LONDON, May 19.—In the House of Commons this evening, Col. King-Harman, replying to Wm. A. Macdonald (Parnellite), in reference to the remarkable increase in emigration from Ireland, said it should be attributed partly to the growing want of employment in Ireland, partly to the fear entertained by the masses that the new Crimes Act would enable the authorities to punish persons for past violations of the law and partly to the fact that members of the Irish people were forced to leave the country because of their disinclination to join secret societies. [Parnellite cries of "Oh," "Oh."]

Mr. Macdonald: "Isn't the increase of emigration from Ireland partly due to the introduction by the Government of the Crimes Bill and the desire of the Irish people to escape its tyranny?" [Cries of "Hear, hear."]

Speaker Peel called for order, saying, "This is a matter of opinion and not a proper subject for question."

Mr. Labouchere moved to adjourn the debate for the purpose of enabling him to criticise the annexation of Zululand.

Sir Henry Holland, Secretary for the Colonies, protested against the discussion of the matter. Full opportunity would be given to discuss it when the Zulu estimates were brought up for debate.

Several Radicals supported Mr. Labouchere's motion, when Mr. Smith, the Government leader, moved the closure.

Mr. Smith's motion carried by 278 to 138.

Mr. Labouchere's motion was rejected by 280 to 142.

Seceded From the Eighty Club.

LONDON, May 19.—Lord Hartington and seventy other Liberal-Unionists have seceded from the Eighty Club in consequence of the club's approval of Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy.

FATHER O'DOWD'S JUBILEE.

A Great Crowd, Including the Minister of Justice, Honors the Priest.

MONTREAL, May 19.—Thousands crowded St. Patrick's Church to-day to take part in the religious portion of Father O'Dowd's jubilee as a priest. Archbishop Fabre officiated at high mass, assisted by deacons and sub-deacons. Among the Catholic clergy present were Archbishop Lynch of Toronto, Bishops Walsh and Dowling of London and Peterboro, Vicar-Generals Rooney and Marechal, the Rev. Messrs. Dowd, Toupin, Sullivan, O'Rourke, Duggan, Berman, Carter, Conway, J. Callaghan, Moran, Quinlivan and many other reverend gentlemen from Montreal and other parts of Canada and the United States. The sermon was preached by Bishop Walsh of London, Ont. The clergy of the Seminary entertained the venerable priests and guests to lunch.

In the afternoon the church was again packed, when Father Dowd was presented with fourteen congratulatory addresses, including one from the City Council and one from St. Patrick's congregation. Hon. J. S. D. Thompson, Minister of Justice represented the Federal Government and delivered a short address. In his reply Father Dowd expressed pleasure at the presence of the Minister of Justice and paid a high compliment to the Dominion Government.

THE LANSDOWNE RECEPTION.

Ottawa Preparing for a Grand Turn-out on Thursday Next.

OTTAWA, May 19.—The Citizens' Reception Committee regarding the Governor-General met to-night and completed their arrangements. The Governor-General will return on Thursday afternoon. He will be met at the station by the Mayor, City Council and Citizens' Committee, six bands, a mounted escort of 200 citizens in plain clothes and the citizens generally. No uniforms, regalia or banners will be allowed. The procession will be formed at the station and will proceed to Cartier-square, where a platform is being erected to accommodate 2000 children of the public schools. An address of welcome will be presented there to the Governor-General, and the children will sing "God Save the Queen," "This Canada of Ours" and other choruses. The Governor-General will then be escorted to Rideau Hall. The streets will be decorated with flags and arches. A liberal fund for expenses has already been subscribed.

ERASTUS WIMAN'S FARD.

Hon. Benjamin Butterworth Again Addresses the Canadian Club.

NEW YORK, May 19.—At the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association to-night the Hon. Benjamin Butterworth addressed the Canadian Club and a considerable audience, composed of members of the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade and Transportation, and the Produce, Stock and Cotton Exchanges. The chair was occupied by Erastus Wiman, who was supported by Captain Ambrose Snow of the Board of Trade, C. D. Smith of the Chamber of Commerce and the presidents of the various exchanges. The address occupied an hour and a half, and was listened to throughout with great attention and constantly applauded. Mr. Butterworth, who speaks with great force, carried the audience completely with him, especially in the main points of his address. The lecture was a most complete success, and greatly interested those who heard it.

THE LOCK-OUT AT CHICAGO.

The Leaders of the Workingmen Talk of Arresting the Bosses.

CHICAGO, May 19.—It is asserted this morning that the lock-out of the bosses has assumed a new phase, which may end in a very interesting legal controversy. The leaders of the workmen directly or indirectly affected have decided to test the legality of the combination of the bosses to prevent the sale of material, and determined efforts are being made to obtain the best legal talent to prosecute their case. The plan mapped out has been to lay the matter before State's Attorney Grinnell. The supposition is that the State's Attorney cannot, even if they have done anything illegal, obtain indictments against the bosses, there being no grand jury in session now. The labor people talk of procuring warrants from a police justice and arresting some of the more prominent bosses.

A FRIEND OF IRELAND.

Mr. Blaine Intends to Make the Most of His Trip to England.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The World's Augusta, Me., special says that Mr. Blaine, while on the other side of the Atlantic, will put himself on record as a friend of Ireland. He will visit Gladstone soon after his arrival and will undoubtedly be asked to speak at Home Rule meetings, banquets, etc. These invitations he will accept. After getting Gladstone's appreciation Mr. Blaine, accompanied by Mr. Parnell, will make a tour of Ireland, addressing public meetings and receive—if the program is carried out—ovations at every hand. There would be no impropriety in Mr. Gladstone calling upon the most prominent citizen in the United States to aid in ... which is of such importance ...

GIVING AWAY OUR STREETS.

To-night a meeting of the Council is called and, of course, the application for adding the contiguous streets on the north, south and east of the brick works to that property, will come up for consideration. It is to be hoped that the Council will exercise proper deliberation in dealing with so important a matter. While it is their duty to promote, in every legitimate way, the advancement of private interests their first duty is to their constituents. In a matter like the one in question, where so large interests are involved, it is well to hesten gently. As we remarked, when previously dealing with this question, we are perfectly willing—may more than that—anxious, that the town should deal liberally with manufacturing industries, wanting additions to their facilities; but this must be done without the sacrifice of the interests of the general public. While there are the gravest objections to conveying the streets in question in so simple to any person or corporation, there are none whatever, of any moment, to allowing them use of them, so long as they are not urgently wanted for public purposes, on the most liberal terms—at a nominal rental for a number of years. But we shall always object to the expropriation of the streets of the town, and especially simple, which will, ere long, be urgently needed for use of the town. It is to be hoped that the Council, while taking courteous cognizance of the application in question, will also rigidly guard the public interests.

FIFTY per cent. has been added to an article of large consumption, namely, rice, by the new tariff tinker. This is a delicate compliment to a native industry, and is doubtless intended to foster the roasted rice industry of Rice Lake. Protection to native industries is a great card.

THE Conservative journals, who have wasted kegs of ink to prove that the consumer did not pay the duty on coal now, since the tax has been removed, turn around and claim great credit for the government in relieving the consumer of a burdensome impost. As showing that the consumer does pay the duty, it may be mentioned that already the coal dealers of London, Ont. since the repeal of the tax on coal, have reduced the price of coal by fifty cents per ton, precisely the amount of the previous tax. There is no change in the market to warrant this reduction, therefore the duty being removed, the dealers relieve the consumers of the tax they were formerly paying in the shape of an increase in price, exactly corresponding to the amount of duty imposed.

THE enormous increase in the duty on iron will both make and break many persons. The dealer, who is long in iron, can make his own profit, especially if it is bar, round, flat or square iron, the duty on which has been increased from about $8 to $18 dollars per ton, by the late tariff changes. Those dealers, therefore, who are "long" in iron, as it is said many supporters and pets of the government are, will make a little fortune out of Sir Charles Tupper's artificial advance in the price of iron. On the other hand, dealers who have made extensive contracts for furnishing iron of the kinds mentioned, extending over some time, will be subjected to great loss. The American tariff, more mildly protectionist than our own, has not, it is asserted, been changed to any extent since 1871, but the Canadian tariff is shattered at every session, with interim orders-in-council, and the change is almost invariably in favor of the monopolist or the wealthy consumer, and against the poor man.

"We wonder why there are so many tramps in the south," says a southern exchange. It is doubtless because work is so healthful in the north.

PARNELLITE TERRORS

AS SET FORTH IN THE MEMOIR OF THE IRISH COLLEGE AT ROME.

LONDON, May 20.—The Chronicle's correspondent at Rome received the proof sheets of the memoir prepared by the Irish College. The document begins by pointing out that in the Parnell or the Fenian movement interests far higher and holier than the material advantages sought for are at stake. Genuine Irish grievances are no longer heard of, the cry for total separation having replaced all others. What was treason in the revolt of 1866, condemned by Pius IX., is now regarded as a mere matter of practical politics. "But," says the memoir, "acts against morality and religion, or peace of society cannot, like the chameleon, or Mr. Gladstone, change their hue, and the acts of Mr. Parnell and his followers are still under Papal condemnation." It is not necessary, therefore, for the Pope to condemn them, although, to quote the memoir, "this their leader, being a free-thinker, and outside the pale of their church, is exempt from." But that will not exempt his followers who profess to be Catholics.

After condemning Parnell for his association with apostles of violence, the memoir defines that to decapitate his self-assumed task of breaking the last link that unites to England he made traitors of the masses of the Irish people. The means by which he sought to dissolve the union are denounced in the most unmeasured terms, while the "tools" he employed to spread "terrorism" throughout Ireland are held up to public execration. The memoir then continues: "The acts of the Fenian party are the surest witnesses we can have, first, of what their rule is, and second, what it will be if they get supreme power. They now claim the support of the Catholics of Rome and other foreign countries, who of late have been led to look favorably upon the Parnellite movement. Such can have had no notion of the horrible terrorism of which Parnellite rule, wherever it prevailed, has been the cause. It is that terrorism which has from the first been the source of Parnell's power."

In support of this view it gives a long catalogue of agrarian crimes committed between January, 1886, and March, 1887, derived from the last report of the Inspector-General of the Irish Constabulary, and declares that the perpetrators of these atrocities and outrages must be brought to punishment if the loyal section of the population is not to be exterminated.

It insists that every one who has any sympathy for the sufferings of mankind should hail with joy the passing of the Crimes Act, and adds: "But incredible as it may seem, there is a party opposed to it in Parliament on whom the appalling sufferings of the deforested class, who are being mercilessly hacked down and butchered as if they were wild beasts, get for nothing; a party led by the very man who only ten years ago planned a coercion bill that Nero and Dreco would hardly have dared to pass." The bill is opposed by them on the plea that it is a coercion bill, and not what the House of Orthodoxy calls it, a crimes bill. That is their plea for the conspiracy now entered into by Gladstone and Parnell to impede its passage and institute anarchy a law. They hope by this process to prolong the reign of terrorism which now obtains in Ireland, because they see that in its destruction the reign of Parnellism and crime will come to an end; nothing it holds can justify the opposition to the immediate passing of the bill, and it matters not that Mr. Gladstone's inability to its measure will utterly ruin his character as a statesman.

After expressing the sorrow of the Irish College at the Phœnix Park murders and the subsequent "glorification" of that execrable deed, the memoir concludes as follows: "The party with whom Mr. Gladstone has now identified himself for the furtherance of a revolutionary movement, which has for its avowed object the dismemberment of the United Kingdom, have done everything possible of late to persuade Catholics, by their speeches in and out of Parliament, that the Vicar of Christ was in favor of it. Could the English Government be brought to believe this outrageous calumny what would they think of the Pope? What would the Emperors of Austria, Germany and China think of him? What would the world at large think of it? What would non-Catholics, who believe in revelation, think of the Catholic Church if its head on earth could view, accept with profound sorrow, a movement which is filling Ireland with anarchy and devastation? Woe to a movement which, unless its days are shortened, will leave a land that once flowed with milk and honey a desert without religion."

The Correspondent's Credit.

LONDON, May 19.—The Rome correspondent of the Chronicle asserts that all previous statements published respecting the character of the memoir of the Irish College on the Home Rule question were incorrect, and says that his report, published in this morning's issue of the Chronicle, was taken from the authentic proofs of the memoir furnished to him in advance.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 30% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

On the market days have been selling 10 to 11lb.; butter 14 to 16c., plentiful; potatoes declined Saturday 80 to 90c; to-day good potatoes sold at 90c. There is nothing to report in other commodities, no change in prices.

Keene.

(From our own Correspondent.)

A pair of cuckoos have visited Keene, and as we write at this moment, one is giving forth its peculiar note from the top of the apple tree, opposite the window.

When the snow first went the fall wheat had a fine appearance, but many fields now show the bad effect of the winter frosts and ice. The crop, as a whole, is considerably injured.

Some evil disposed persons, last Friday night, took Mr. Malcolm Campbell's yard gate off and threw it in the river, laying his garden open. They also threw off the coping stones of quite a piece of his stone fence, putting them into the garden. Mr. Campbell is a quiet, honest, respectable old gentleman of over 80 years, and those who could be guilty of an act so contemptible and cowardly, upon a man of his years especially, must be low indeed, and wanting in every true manly quality.

Jas. Arthur McCann, son of Mr. Jas. McCann, who died a week ago last Saturday, did not learn of his father's death till last Sunday, being on a drive far back of Minden. The Gilmore-Hawkins Match.

MONTREAL, May 19.—The long-talked-of fight to a finish between Harry Gilmore and Billy Hawkins of Winnipeg was to take place this afternoon somewhere in the vicinity of Montreal, but as present it is not known whether it takes off or not, as the police have got wind of the affair and are watching the movements of those interested.

It is said that about seventy sports were aboard the Lachine train which left at noon to-day. High Constable Bissonnette, Detective Lapointe and other officers were also passengers, the former expressing his intention of preventing the fight and of arresting the participants if any attempt were made to break the law within the jurisdiction of the city police.

It is stated that the friends of the pugilists chartered a steamer, which was in waiting for the party at Lachine on the arrival of the train. It was determined that should Bissonnette and his men attempt to board the steamer they would be forcibly resisted.

High Constable Bissonnette threatened to have both Gilmore and Hawkins, together with others, arrested if the fight took place at Lachine, where a large number of sports had gathered, and consequently they returned to-night without the fight taking place. It is reported, however, that it might take place on the quiet somewhere to-night, but no definite information could be obtained.

The Hopeful Stakes at Doncaster.

LONDON, May 19.—This was the opening day of the Doncaster spring meeting. The race for the Hopeful Stakes was won by Mr. Vyner's colt Gaulby, the summary follows:

The Hopeful Stakes of 5 sovs. each, 3 ft. to the fund, with 200 sovs. added, for 2 year-olds; colts to carry 126 lbs., fillies and geldings 121 lbs.; the second to receive 20 sovs. out of the stakes; Hopeful course (five furlongs). 31 subs.

Glen Grove Running Meeting.

The program for the running meeting to be held at Glen Grove Park on May 24 is as follows:

First race, Introductory Scramble, $12; $8 to second; 5 furlongs.

Second race, Glen Grove Stake, $200, of which $40 to second. Handicap 1½ miles, for Dominion-bred horses.

Third race, Metropolitan Stake $200, handicap, mile heats.

Fourth race, Hurdle Race, $300, handicap, 1½ miles, over six hurdles.

The Civil Service Reformers

say their object is simply to retain good men in office when you find them. This theory may be safely applied to the treatment of the human system by means of medicine. Those who have once tried Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" for scrofulous swellings sores, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, spitting of blood and consumption will apply to it the reformatory rule of Civil Service Reform and "hold fast to that which is good." 52d20

Ready to Ride.

Mrs. John Siddel, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for years with consumption of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism neuralgia, inflammation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 2d20d

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to make unsolicited certificates to inform their fellowmen suffering Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 50,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eod-w

Worth ten Dollars a Bottle.

Any person who has used Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy in the world for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute, lame back at one application; headache in a few moments and all pains just as rapidly. Small test bottles only cost 10 cents. Why not try it to-day? Large bottles 25 cents, sold by all druggists and country dealers. Use Polson's nerve pain cure—Nerviline. 6dw20

Going to Waste.

The amount of "literary aspiration" now going to waste in Boston society would stock a circulating library.

An Open Letter.

MESSRS T. MILBURN & Co., Nov. 25th, 1886

I wish I had used B. B. B., sooner, which would have saved me years of suffering with erysipelas, from which I could get no relief until I tried B. B. B., which soon cleared away the itching, burning rash that had so long distressed me. Mrs. Edward Remsay, Eastern Passage, Halifax, N. S. 2w20d

DEAR SIR,—I am prompted to be able to write to you that I am now free from Catarrh. It is a most incredible that in so short a time I could have been cured of Catarrh, which has affected my health for years. A little over two months ago I took treatment from you, and to-day the Catarrh is entirely gone. Your treatment is simply a marvel. I will heartily recommend any of my friends personally, and would suggest to all that troubled the advisability of consulting you immediately. Accept my best thanks.

Yours truly,
J. P. DUDE,
C. P. R. Agent, Peterborough, Ont.

Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Town Council will be held this evening.

Weekly Practice.

The Gun Club meets for practice in Riverside Park at 7 o'clock this evening.

A Reminder.

Keep in mind the Queen's Birthday races in the Driving Park. Fast horses, good purses, fine sport.

HUNT'S BRICK TROWELS and the Cincinnati plastering tabwels are noted for their excellent quality. Plastering and Kalsomining Brushes up to 10/0, for sale by GEORGE STETHEM. dw

Bargains in Boots.

During the improvements in their premises Messrs. Stenson Bros. are giving immense bargains in Boots and Shoes. Daily renewals of stock keep it up to the highest mark. Call and be astonished at the bargains they offer.

An Amateur Performance.

"Old Soldiers" has been under rehearsal for several weeks. The cast is a strong one, and the production of the play will be excellent. "Old Soldiers" will be presented at the Opera House on Friday evening, 27th inst., under the auspices of the P. A. A. A.

House-cleaning.

As house-cleaning is completed, it would be a good idea to furnish the bed-rooms with new crockery, etc. Call at China Hall and buy what Chamber Sets you need before the price is raised in consequence of the advance in duty on these goods.

Golden grains of truth. Turnbull is selling Ladies' Taffeta and pure Silk Gloves that are cut to fit the hand; every pair numbered. You will not regret having walked an extra block after you have tried a pair.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

A Trial Solicited.

The Town Clock Grocery store can supply you with the choicest groceries of every kind at lowest figures. Call upon W. A. Morrow, at the Town Clock Grocery, and be convinced.

It Struck Him Hard.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Alex. Stewart, an employee of Belleghem's factory, was running a circular saw, when it struck a loose piece of board, which was driven with great force into his right side, laying him out for the moment. He soon recovered, and it is expected will be at work again in a day or two.

Turnbull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

Put it Out.

A member of the Board of Underwriters calls the attention of the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, to the fact that the fire smouldering in the rubbish of the "burned district" in the rear of the Snowden House and Grand Central Hotels, forms conditions of danger which should not be ignored.

An Accident Averted.

On Tuesday morning last, one of the section men discovered that the timbers of a pile bridge on the Grand Junction Railway, about seven miles west of Campbellford, says the Herald, had sunk some inches and lowered the rail with it. The regular train from Peterborough had passed over the bridge only a short time before, and evidently the place had become defective about that time. Had it not been noticed till a couple of hours later, the freight following the passenger train might have met with an accident equal to that which occurred last week.

Lost.

Small, dark, Scotch Terrier Bitch, about seven months old, with silver plated collar. Reward on returning to W. J. Sherwood. Anyone retaining her will prosecuted.

Acknowledgement.

The members of the Peterborough Fire Brigade acknowledge with thanks a cheque for $10, presented by Mr. J. J. Daly of the Grand Central Hotel, for services rendered during the recent fire.

School Holiday.

Monday next will be a holiday in all the schools in town. The High School Inspector having granted a holiday to the Collegiate Institute pupils, the town Inspector has extended the same privilege to the public school pupils. There will therefore be two holidays next week, Monday and Tuesday.—God save the Queen.

Bidding Adieu.

The members of the Harmony Male Quartette, who sang at the concert in the Opera House last night, left for Montreal on the 10.56 C. P. R. train. They were accompanied to the station by a number of their Peterborough friends, at whose request they whiled away the time of waiting by singing several beautiful melodies. Though in Peterborough only a day, the musical quartette made many warm friends by their gentlemanly conduct and genial dispositions.

Excursion to Stoney Lake.

The Oddfellows' Demonstration Committee are arranging for a grand excursion to Stoney Lake on August 11th, the day succeeding the demonstration, and the secretary, Mr. A. McNeil, has written for rates over the Lakefield branch of the Midland R. R. The summer meet of the Northern Division of the A. C. A. will at that time be in full progress, and the opportunity afforded by the excursion will doubtless be eagerly availed of by such of the visitors who remain over for a day or two. It is expected rates will be secured at 75c. for round trip.

A Case Settled.

At Osgoode Hall, on Tuesday, the following decision was given in a case which was tried at the Spring Chancery Sittings, here, and adjourned to Toronto for argument:—

ROBINSON V. LEARY.—Judgment delivered on trial of the action declaring that the deed in question though absolute in form is only a mortgage. Reference to the Master at Peterborough to inquire and state what is due and unpaid upon the plaintiff's security, and take the account, etc., plaintiff will pay the costs of the defendant in so far as these are in excess of the costs of an ordinary action for redemption. Further directions and subsequent costs reserved. W. Cassels, Q.C., and Peck (Peterborough) for the plaintiff. W. Nesbitt and Edmison (Peterborough) for defendants.

Are you a bargain-seeker? Call at Turnbull's and see his beautiful Cretonnes at 12c. a yard.

Notice of Visit.

Professor J. D. Kay, from the establishment of B. Laurance & Co., Montreal, will be at Mr. John McKee's drug store on 21st and 23rd of May for consultation. He is specially qualified to adjust spectacles for every requirement of the eye, and secure to you such advantages as are only to be found in the largest cities. No matter what the difficulties be will, where relief can be afforded to, fit you to perfection, giving you the most certain aids to sight—B. Laurance's Spectacles—which have an acknowledged reputation for superiority everywhere. The Brazilian or Scotch Pebbles of his own manufacture, are delightfully easy and pleasant to wear. There is no glimmering—wavering—dizziness, or other distressing sensations produced by their use. They comfort, strengthen and preserve the sight, and last so long that they will not cost you one cent per week to wear. Avoid using common spectacles which are ruinous to the sight and require changing so often that they actually cost you more in the end than best. Every spectacle and Eye-glass is stamped with the initials "B.L." They are imitated but never equalled. Note the date of the visit—For two days only, Saturday the 21st and Monday the 23rd of May, at Mr. John McKee's, druggist, Peterborough.

No one need despair of finding Millinery to suit them while Turnbull is in the trade. He keeps a well-selected stock of choice goods, and as new lines appear in the market, has new Shapes and Trimmings arriving almost daily.

A Needless Annoyance.

Yesterday's fire was productive of much unnecessary annoyance to the firemen. Asoon as the hose waggon left the fire hall it was filled up with as many men and boys, who had gathered about, as it could hold, to the exclusion of the firemen who properly belonged there. These trespassers rode swiftly to the fire behind a running horse, and then stood about watching the progress of the conflagration, while the firemen who should be upon the scene as quickly as possible, were compelled to run away behind or get there as best they could, and quite tired enough on arriving without having to fight the flames for an hour or two more. Every person will see the force of this argument, and it is to be hoped all will bear the intimation in mind on the occasion of the next fire, or they need not be surprised or grieved if they are dealt with as summarily as the demand for prompt action necessitates, and in a manner not strictly within the rules of etiquette. Let the warning be sufficient.

Talent Recognized.

The following is clipped from the Irish-Canadian. The Mrs. MacGillis below referred to taught in the Separate School, Peterborough, last year, and left to take the position she now holds in Toronto. While in Peterborough she made many warm friends, who will be pleased to hear that her talents have been so fittingly recognized in her new home. Mrs. MacGillis is a sister of the wife of Mr. Mark Keilty, of Toronto, brother of Father Keilty, of Ennismore: "The many friends of Mrs. MacGillis, a teacher in St. Helen's school, Brockton, Toronto, will be pleased to learn that at the recent distribution at the Normal School, Toronto, by their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne, of the honors granted by the Commissioners of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, London, England, in connection with the Toronto Art School exhibit from Ontario, she was the recipient of a bronze medal and a diploma, in recognition of the excellence of her work, which formed part of the exhibit, and consisted of [illegible] in drawing, painting and modelling. A cast of the Madonna and Child in relief received special notice. In addition to this Mrs. MacGillis has executed a bust of the late lamented Bishop Jamot, which those who were familiar with His Lordship pronounce to be not only an excellent likeness of the deceased prelate, but a finished work of art as well. The recipient of these honors is a sister of Mrs. Mark Keilty, Jarvis street. She is to be congratulated upon the excellence to which she has attained; and her success is proof that Canada possesses native talent of a high order."

A Charming Concert.

Mrs. Chambers and the Montreal Harmony Quartette sing in Opera House.

The concert given in Smiths's Opera House on Thursday evening by Mrs. Chambers, Peterborough's favorite vocalist, and the Harmony Male Quartette, of Montreal, while it was unique as a musical entertainment, was a most delightful and pleasing one. There was a fair audience present, composed of the most cultured of our citizens. The first number on the programme was, "I Heard the Bells," by the Quartette, and the admirably perfect manner in which it was rendered gave the greatest delight, elicited the most rapturous applause, and an encore which brought out the humorous ditty, "Simple Simon." Mr. Venables, the first tenor of the Quartette, appeared to great advantage in "I Am Waiting." He has a most charming tenor voice, sweet and pure, and marked by great evenness through the whole of its extensive compass. Mrs. Chambers' first appearance in Schira's "Segnai" was the signal for enthusiastic applause, and the excellent manner in which she acquitted herself in no way disappointed expectations. The trio, "I Naviganti" by Randegger, was sung in excellent style by Mrs. Chambers and Messrs. Venables and Millar. Mr. Creighton, a capital tenor, gave in almost perfect manner "The Last Mile Stone." In reply to a hearty encore he bowed his acknowledgements. "Rest, Dearest, Rest," by the Quartette, was another morceau of musical luxury, and a recall elicited a humorous selection, "The Bill of Fare," capitally given. Mr. Duquette's bass solo, "Deep in the Mine" was superb. His voice is indeed a mine, rich in deep tones, pure and ringing as a bell. He responded to a most vigorous recall. The second part opened with Goldring's setting to Tennyson's pathetic "Three Fishers," which received a magnificent and sympathetic rendering by the Quartette. Mrs. Chambers followed with Tosti's "Good Bye," given in her happiest manner. Those who have heard her before in this selection, could not but note the marked improvement in her always charming singing, and it was no matter of surprise that she was imperiously recalled. She charmingly sang in reply a humorous selection, "At the Concert." The next number was a quintette, "The Image of the Rose" by Mrs. Chambers and the Quartette, the former taking the solo in fine style and the latter giving an inarticulate vocal accompaniment with delightful effect. The "Last Rose of Summer," by the Quartette was an exquisite rendering of this sweetest of old songs. Equally pleasing and effective was Mrs. Chambers' and Mr. Millar's duet, "Maying." The latter followed with baritone solo, "Anchored," so well sung that a recall was tendered him. "On the Sea" by the Quartette finished the programme, through, "God Save the Queen," by Mrs. Chambers and the Quartette, was perhaps as exquisite a bit of melody and harmony as any in the body of the programme, a fact further shown by the audience remaining standing in rapt attention till the last cadence died away, instead of hurrying on wraps and rushing out in the midst of the music.

The concert throughout was a most successful affair, one of the best, perhaps, ever given in the town. The Male Quartette giving their songs in the style of the old English glees, without instrumental accompaniment, was a novelty and a delightful one. While the Quartette is composed of superior voices, the perfect harmony of their performance, the skilful subordination of individual voices into a beautifully blended whole, make their singing really superb, and the splendid impression the Quartette produced at their first visit to Peterborough, opened the way to a most hearty welcome should they ever again favour the town with their presence.

Mrs. Chambers' numerous admirers noted with pleasure the remarkable improvement in her voice since her residence in Montreal. Its powerful tones, subdued by culture to exquisite sweetness, and under capital control, eminently fit her for taking a prominent place in concert singing.

It would be doing less than justice to omit reference to the excellent manner in which Miss Cluxton played the accompaniments. She showed a proper appreciation of the functions of a good accompanist—to sustain and heighten the effect of the vocalization, with delicate tact and well-judged vigilance, instead of, as is often done, drowning the singing with a flood of flashy metallic instrumentation.

Mr. Wm. Cluxton, who has for about half a century been a prominent figure in musical circles, is naturally gratified at the numerous congratulations he receives upon the success of this concert, the most satisfactory of any he has ever aided in promoting.

Separate School Scholars

Present and Address to Bishop Dowling.

A few days ago His Lordship Bishop Dowling visited the Murray street Separate School, when the following address was presented to him in the library:—

To the Right Reverend Thomas Joseph Dowling, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP,—We the teachers and pupils of St. Peter's school are gratified to have the privilege of congratulating your Lordship on the distinguished dignity the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIII, has been pleased to confer upon you in making you Bishop of the Diocese of Peterborough. We have prayed that God will give you wisdom, grace and strength to fulfil the onerous duties of your exalted office.

At the inception of our Diocese, Christian joy filled every heart, but sorrow and tribulation followed too soon in its wake. Your predecessor, the late lamented Bishop Jamot, endeared himself to teachers and pupils by the deep and kindly interest he took continuously in their welfare. Our admiration for him as a man, and respect as a bishop, was real, and his loss was felt as that of a very dear friend. We have learned, my Lord, with great satisfaction that you possess in an eminent degree the attributes and mental endowments that fittingly adorn an episcopal throne, and are delighted that a mind so practical and cultured shall be the guide of the laity in this diocese, intellectually and morally.

Your Lordship will be gratified to learn that instruction in morality and the Christian doctrine have a first place in the school's curriculum, yet our school is abreast of the times in imparting a practical education to its pupils that will enable them to transact with efficiency the varied duties of a business life. Many pupils who have received their elementary education in this school are pursuing a higher course of studies in the Collegiate Institute and elsewhere, with much credit to themselves and the school they graduated from. While the vast majority of the pupils are obedient and evince much emulation in their studies, a few are found from various causes to be negligent of opportunities so paramount for their future success in life. In conjunction with the children of the church in your episcopate, we offer you our homage, respect and love, and ask for ourselves collectively and individually, your blessing.

We pray that the God of love, mercy and wisdom, shall crown your efforts made for His sake and preserve you to guide, for lengthened years, the sacred destiny of your Diocese.

Signed, on behalf of the school, by

Teachers:

JNO. D. MCELROYLE, MISS C. T. LEONARD
MISS ANNIE LYNCH, MISS K. CONNELL.

Pupils:

ALBERT E. RUDLEY, THOS. BRODLEY,
EDWARD DESAUTEL, THOS. CARVETH,
ALFRED CARVETH, THOS. DWYER,
EDWARD BOLTON, ADOLPHUS LEVILLIER.

His Lordship made a suitable acknowledgement, expressing satisfaction with the progress of education in Peterborough. Education was a matter which would always have his every care and attention, as he considered it of the utmost importance. He thanked the teachers and pupils for the address, and hoped the school would ever continue of such great benefit to the rising generations as it was to-day.

Police Court.

FRIDAY, May, 20th.

Messrs M. Halpin, P. Croft, W. Ross and W. Giroux were each fined $50 for breaches of the Scott Act.

P. C. Pidgeon last night arrested B. Johnston and Geo. Gage for being drunk and disorderly. Each fined $2. Paid.

A Suggestion.

Would it not be a good idea to start the Central Park memorial fountain running? Pedestrians are as hot and thirsty these days as they are likely to be this season.

Considering the Proposals.

At the Council meeting to-night the proposals of the Uxbridge Organ Co., for the removal of their factory to Peterborough, will be discussed. A Toronto firm has also made application for favorable terms for the establishment here of a manufactory of brass wares, which matter will also be dealt with.

—It was expected Omemee Cricket Club would play the Peterborough club on the Ashburnham grounds to-morrow, but they cannot come.

DIED.

TRADE IN

Our Millinery Department

IS NOW AT ITS HEIGHT, AND did we judge them by the crowds that daily claim attention of our salesmen advertising this class of goods would be unnecessary—almost a waste of money. But then, you know, there's two sides to every subject. Here's the other side to this one, and at the same time our reason for advertising when there's no apparent necessity for doing so.

In making up our stock in this department we provided for great numbers—for many more than have as yet taken advantage of its completeness, to furnish themselves with millinery suitable for the season.

It will therefore require "crowds long continued" to clear out tables of the enormous stock of Millinery with which they are loaded—over-loaded.

A continuous demand then being necessary, we know of no better way to insure it than to keep you informed as to just what we have and how we are prepared to sell it. We shall, therefore, from now to the close of the season, devote some portion of our card to Millinery News.

We have already said that our stock was large. We have also intimated that our assortment was COMPLETE. Now for our goods.

We have just received a six dozen lot of Ladies' and Children's Hats which are the newest in shape, and bought at half their value.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC
FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Lash's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

SATURDAY, MAY 21, 1887.

RUMPUS AT KINGSTON

A LIMESTONE CITY MOB COBBLESTONES O'BRIEN.

KINGSTON, May 20.—The reception of Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride on their arrival here this evening was cordial. There was some opposition, but only cheers for Lansdowne and the rendering of the National Anthem. A big reception was accorded to the visitors at the Earnett House, crowds of ladies mingling with the men to get introductions. This was the first time that the frail sex had attended the visitors on their arrival.

There were about 500 at the roller rink, though a surging crowd outside cheered and shouted in a vigorous way.

Mr. O'Brien received a bouquet from the Catholic children and an address from the Irish National League. The Catholic children wished success to the Plan of Campaign and that the hardest rock he would ever meet would be the shamrock of his own country.

Mr. O'Brien spoke for an hour. He is suffering from a severe rib injury, which was caused by a Toronto brickbat. He feels satisfied that while no public utterances will be made, yet the people of Canada will reprobate the conduct of Lord Lansdowne, and make his stay here very unhappy. He lauded the intelligence of the Kingstonians, for he had feared brickbats and stones by the reports in the public prints. He vigorously attacked Lord Lansdowne's methods at Luggacurran. He was loudly cheered, his mention of Gladstone as an Irish leader calling forth a great shout.

Mr. Kilbride followed, and said that he had expected the arguments that would meet him in Kingston would be cobblestones, but this had not occurred and proved that Kingstonians had more common sense than the hoodlums of another place.

In the audience were many ladies and a large sprinkling of prominent Protestants.

The Cobblestone Brigade Outside.

While the lecture was in progress a great crowd gathered outside and the air was filled with groanings for O'Brien and cheers for Lansdowne. "Here he is," was the cry from the crowd as O'Brien came out surrounded by friends. In an instant the crowd surged towards him and stones flew. But O'Brien's friends were too quick for the crowd and rushed their charge around a corner and sheltered him in some spot which his pursuers could not discover, though they sought diligently for it. Being unable to find the object of their enmity the crowd rushed to the Earnett House with the intention of waylaying O'Brien as he returned to his hotel, but though they waited a long time the victim did not come. The police were unable to control the crowd, and were easily thrust aside. Sergeant Nesbitt was struck in the head with a stone, as were also R. J. Gardner, a merchant, and Police Officer Craig. No serious injury was done them, however. The disturbance was very brief, and as soon as O'Brien disappeared it might be said to be over. The crowd made no attempt to molest any one, save the agitator, who cleverly eluded the attack.

The Agitator Feund.

Mr. O'Brien had found refuge in a friendly house, to which he had been taken when the mob made its onslaught. There the correspondent found him about 11.30. When he left the hall his hat was changed and he was rushed into a gateway and thence to the place of safety. He was unhurt, but was considerably agitated and very pale. He said that the attack was a deliberate attempt to murder him, but that he had had a miraculous escape. He was struck in the head by a stone, but it was not a hard blow.

After the row the Mayor offered Mr. O'Brien military protection, but the offer was declined.

He and his friends will leave in the morning for Niagara Falls via Cape Vincent, as the party do not wish to visit Toronto again.

Quietness in the City.

TORONTO, May 21.

The city has completely quieted down after the O'Brien excitement. The West End streets last night were as lonely as a charnel house. Chief of Police Grasett yesterday sent to Mayor Howland a long "official" statement of the troubles on Wednesday night. In it the Chief says only a few stones were thrown, and that the facts were exaggerated in the papers. The Chief also asserts that Mr. O'Brien was offered ample police protection, and that he ventured out into the street Wednesday night after being warned by Patrol Sergeant Adair that such a course would be dangerous.

City Solicitor McWilliams will report against Mr. Lalor's claims against the city because of his shop being wrecked by the mob. Mr. McWilliams says the city is in no way liable.

Messrs. McCauley and W. J. McGean, President and Treasurer of the band of the Emerald Benevolent Association, state that the item in yesterday's World to the effect that their band had turned out on Thursday night and accompanied a lot of leaguers was incorrect, as their band did not turn out on that evening. It is said to have been a "scrap" band.

Mr. O'Brien's Visit.

Mr. D. A. O'Sullivan in the Catholic Record

If Mr. O'Brien had come on any other mission, there is not the slightest doubt but he would have been welcomed as he deserved; but his present coming was ill-advised, and the object was—to put the matter fairly—the object and purpose was unworthy of the talented man Mr. O'Brien certainly is and unworthy of the cause he represents. There is no other word to express it. Landlordism in Ireland is bad, and Lansdowne may be a bad landlord; but for a sensible man to come among the men of Galway to tell us Canadians that we should drive Lansdowne out of his position because of that, is about the silliest thing that any one in his senses could conceive of. It will be in order for some one to say that Mr. O'Brien is in the secret pay of Lord Lansdowne. He has done him immense service, at all events.

Sullivan Must Meet Kilrain.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Richard K. Fox to-day sent a letter to the Clipper calling upon John L. Sullivan to meet Jake Kilrain for $2000 a side, the championship of America and the diamond belt or surrender his title of champion to Kilrain.

THE CANON OF WESTMINSTER TALKS ON TEMPERANCE.

TORONTO, May 21.

The representative of a family of great moral reformers, whose name is a household word in almost every English home, and particularly associated with that movement on this continent, which culminated in the breaking of the shackles of the slaves of the Southern States, lectured on Temperance in the Pavilion last night. Canon Basil Wilberforce of Westminster Abbey is the son of the late Right Rev. Samuel Wilberforce, successively Bishop of Oxford and Winchester, and brother of the present Bishop of Newcastle, Right Rev. Ernest Roland Wilberforce, D.D. Canon Wilberforce is known in England as an uncompromising champion of total abstinence and fearlessly expresses the opinion that the only way to put an end to the misery and crime prevalent in our time, as the result of the liquor traffic, is the prohibition by the State of its manufacture and sale. He is not only known as a moral reformer in the broad meaning of the word, but he is distinguished for his catholicity and breadth of views, being strongly opposed to the sectarian barriers which separate the members of the Christian Church.

His association with Dissenters in the great cause to which his life is devoted brought him into collision in 1886 with the High Church party, and ended in his being brought to task by his Bishop for preaching in a Non-Conformist Church. The masterly manner in which he defended his position, and the eloquent appeals he then made for Christian unity won for him the sympathy of the public, and from that time he has been allowed to work out that idea of Christianity which he believes is in the true interest of the Episcopal Church.

He began by pointing out the appropriateness of beginning a meeting such as that of temperance by acknowledging God. No reform was possible apart from His assistance, and even history told us that Samuel Champlain took possession of this country by invoking the blessing of the Almighty on its future prosperity. Christians have a duty to perform in seeing that the great cause of temperance rests on a good foundation. True the atmosphere may be foul, but it is our duty to purify it and seek its purification from the source of all uncleanness. He illustrated this part by one of his rich similes. A man is laying the foundation of a structure underneath the ground where the atmosphere is so impure that air from above has to be pumped down to keep him alive. So it is with the moral reformer, he has to look above him for his supply of strength to enable him to live. He expressed himself as pleased to have the privilege of speaking in the Queen City of the Dominion and in a country where the Anglo-Saxon is destined to absorb all foreign elements. He was anxious that they should begin their national existence from a good and pure foundation, so that this sentiment would help the Mother Country in the great battle in which she is engaged by trying to throw off the curse of intemperance and the misery, hunger and vice incident to it. He felt sure, notwithstanding the number of emigrants from all nations flocking to this country, that the Saxon race would be the predominant element. Therefore the Anglo-Saxon race has a great responsibility, in not only keeping itself pure, but in purifying and cleansing the polluted elements that are seeking to be mixed with it.

He illustrated this by a simile. From the Lake of Geneva there flows a river whose water is pure and sparkling like crystal, but when it proceeds some distance it meets a mountain torrent, whose water darkens and pollutes that which was at its source pure. The traveler feels a momentary sorrow that such a lovely stream should be thus despoiled of its purity, but when he journeys onward he finds the river returning to its former color, being changed by the strong power of the pure stream issuing from the lake. So it is with the Saxon race, it may be troubled with impure elements, but if pure itself the whole will be moulded to its likeness.

There is nothing that tends to destroy the Saxon race more than the liquor traffic. It enters into every part of our social and political structure, retarding and corrupting everything with which it comes in contact. People, and even clergymen, are afraid to speak out against the great blur on our civilization. They have not the courage of Latimer who, when it was whispered in his ear, "Take heed what thou say est, for the king is here," replied "I will take heed what I say, because the King of Kings is here." The awfulness of the curse resting upon England calls upon him to warn Canadians against the liquor traffic. It costs the people of England more than the interest of the national debt. In discussing a high license system he said that no greater curse could fall upon a nation, than the receipt of revenues from the sale of liquor. He then described the evil of the liquor traffic in England, and wound up by saying that so long as God blessed him with brains and a tongue he would not cease to work against it. Then followed a description of the good achieved by local prohibition in England. This is the only way to stamp it out. A glass of liquor will do no man good. There is only one man that can't do without a glass, and that is a glazier.

After discussing experiments tried as to the effect of alcohol, the rev. gentleman closed by an earnest and eloquent appeal to the audience to come forward and sign the pledge.

Quite a number went forward and were honored by the Canon with a blue ribbon.

SIR GEO. STEPHEN'S THREAT.

If Winnipeg Isn't Careful the C.P.R. Will Make a Way-Station of It.

MONTREAL, May 20.—Sir George Stephen, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, today sent the following telegram to Premier Norquay of Manitoba: "I am informed that negotiations are in progress, if not already completed, between your Government and others and the Northern Pacific Railway Company with the view of giving that company an independent connection with Winnipeg. I cannot but regard this as an act of undeserved hostility towards the Canadian Pacific Railway which is the end will do nothing but harm to Manitoba and the Northwest, and further, I consider it a breach of faith towards the holders of the $134,000,000 of private capital invested in Canadian Pacific Railway securities. If the mischievous agitation in favor of diverting the business of the Northwest into American channels is continued, and the Canadian Pacific Railway is to be treated as a public enemy by the people of Winnipeg, the company will at once take steps to establish their principal western shops at Fort William, which, from an operating point of view, has many advantages, leaving nothing at Winnipeg but the ordinary division shop. Pray do not be mistaken, this is not an idle threat. It is a fixed purpose taken after full consideration.

(Signed) "GEO. STEPHEN."

To a reporter Sir George said: "We do not really care very much what the Manitoba people do now. They have caused so much damage already that they can't make things much worse. We may build the main line, as originally contemplated by Mr. Mackenzie, that is from Selkirk to Portage La Prairie, leaving Winnipeg twenty-two miles to the south and reached by a branch. This course has been thrust upon us by a lot of irresponsible speculators who are intent upon making money at the expense of the country generally."

Premier Norquay's Reply.

Sir George Stephen, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, received the following reply from Premier Norquay to-night:

WINNIPEG, May 21.—I cannot understand how your company can construe the contemplated action of the Provincial Government to build a railway to the southern boundary as a breach of faith to the holders of Canadian Pacific Railway securities. The Government is acting on behalf of the Province, unaffrightened by Winnipeg's attitude towards the Canadian Pacific Railway or the Canadian Pacific Railway's contemplated removal of the workshops.

(Signed) J. NORQUAY.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 21.

It must have been the sultry weather that prevented the usual large attendance at last night's meeting of the Trades and Labor Council. President George Harris was in the chair. It was a dry meeting, with little of general interest.

The Legislative Committee's report commenced with thanking Lieut. Col. F. C. Denison, M.P., Wm. Paterson, M.P., and W. Mulock, M.P., for having forwarded blue books. It expressed regret at the action of the Dominion Government in having included in the estimates for the year the sum of $200,000 for immigration purposes, and feared that this sum would be spent on assisted passages. Speaking of the valuable services of the Council's representative in England, Mr. J. H. Sobelon, the committee presented a copy of a letter from an English printer to Mr. Sobelon, asking if there is any use of English printers coming to Canada, and a long circular issued yesterday by the Typographical Union No. 91 to cover conditions in Great Britain, and dealing with the condition of the printing trade in Canada generally and Toronto and vicinity particularly. The circular contains this paragraph:

At no period within the past ten years has printing in this city been "dead-stock," or in a condition which all the work could not be done by the resident compositors. Furthermore, at no period within the above time has our city been without from fifteen to fifty idle printers, and frequently, especially of late, the number of compositors out of work has reached nearly one hundred. These are actual facts, as the records of our society will show.

Further on the circular says: "It is almost impossible to get a permanent position at job or book work." It says that the wages here are not attractive and that "it is almost inconceivable that any man should be so devoid of principle as to encourage the emigration of skilled workmen to a country so overcrowded as Canada and where the opportunities for employment are so limited."

The committee recommended that Mr. Sobelon be sent a sum of money, already in hand and contributed by several bodies, to defray expenses which he has had to meet, in what the committee considers is highly valuable work.

The report, with the exception of the money clauses, was adopted. At a later stage a resolution to the effect that the money be sent was declared out of order, but the delegates of these bodies which subscribed the money met after the council adjourned, and it is understood that they decided upon its being sent.

Messrs. John Armstrong and R. O. McKeown were appointed on the Municipal Committee in place of Messrs. Beales and Glocklin, resigned.

A delegate objected to the employment of 13-year old lads on block-paving jobs, and another suggested that the Education Committee be asked to consider it so that it might be brought to the notice of the truant officer. John Armstrong thought that it was a matter for the Municipal and Education committees, to which it was referred.

G.T.R. Constable Cox did some good work at York Station last night. Eight or ten tramps were around there about 9 o'clock and acted in a suspicious manner. Constable Cox let them have their fling for awhile and then made a dash on them. He captured no less than five. One drew a revolver, but the officer batoned him before he could use the weapon. Cox brought the party to the city on a train, but one of them got away at Union Station. He landed the others safely at Police Headquarters. They gave their names as Joseph Hughes, George Rogwles, Stephen Nolan, and Charles Borger. It was Hughes who drew the revolver.

Four boys named Frank Phillips, Fred. Potter, William McLeod and Robert Gillies were yesterday before Judge McDougall for stealing a boat belonging to James Gill of Parkdale, where all but Gillies live. McLeod was let go, Gillies admitted to bail, Potter got two years in the Reformatory and Phillips five.

Potter broke down and begged hard to be allowed to see his father, who is at the hospital very ill of consumption. The judge ordered an officer to take him there before he is removed to the Reformatory.

A delegation from Ottawa, consisting of Ald. Lewis and Rogers, City Engineer Sarteau and Assessment Commissioner Pratt have been in the city for a day or two enquiring into the working of the local improvement system here. They were especially interested in the matter of the initiative principle, frontages, rebates, etc. They had several satisfactory conferences with Assessment Commissioner Maughan and left yesterday morning for Hamilton, expecting to return to Ottawa last night.

William Williams, aged 22, a stonemason, was arrested by Detective Slemin while walking in Yonge-street last night. Williams deserted his wife and family in Guelph and came to this city. A warrant was issued in the Royal City for his arrest.

The Royal Railway Commission closed up its books in Toronto yesterday and went to London, where the commission will hear evidence to-day.

THE INGERSOLL ELOPEMENT.

The Chicago Man Returns, Marries the Lady and Bears Her Away.

WINDSOR, Ont., May 20.—Henry Sharon, the dashing young man from Chicago, who eloped with Florence Smith, of Ingersoll, Ont., on Monday, and was interrupted in Windsor and robbed of his girl by Papa Smith, crossed to Detroit and put up at the Russell House last evening. This time he was accompanied by the young lady, who is now Mrs. Sharon. On Wednesday Sharon returned to Ingersoll, where he argued to such good advantage with the old gentleman that the latter finally struck his colors and gave consent to the marriage. Sharon claims to be a Chicago real estate dealer. He says the trouble all sprang from jealousy on the part of the new Mrs. Sharon's older sister, who somehow imagined Mrs. Sharon was getting the bride mixed. The wife is said to be but 17 years old, quite pretty and accomplished. The happy couple leave for Chicago to-day.

THE ARIAN COLLEGE MEMOIR.

The Associated Press Denies the Statements of the London Chronicle.

ROME, May 20.—The correspondent of the Associated Press has made inquiries regarding the memoir on the Irish question, alleged to have been prepared by the Irish College. As a result of his investigation he has authority to state that no memoir whatever on the condition of Ireland has been issued from the Irish College, nor has any body of members of the college denounced the Parnellites. The statement to that effect is an absolute falsehood.

The Failures for the Week.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The business failures during the last seven days number for the United States 162, for Canada 23, a total of 185, as compared with 187 last week, 183 the week previous, and 167 for the corresponding week last year. The failures in the South are very light, and the other sections of the country are below the average, perhaps, except in the Pacific States and Canada, where casualties are on the increase.

Storms in Great Britain.

LONDON, May 20.—Fierce gales have prevailed and great damage has been done in various parts of England. In Kent the wind blew a perfect hurricane. Snow and hail storms have been experienced in the lake districts of Scotland. In London the trees in the park were injured, and many were blown down. Many wrecks are reported on the coast.

Forged Letters of Credit.

LONDON, May 20.—The Times says: We are informed that extensive frauds have been committed on the agents of an American bank by means of forged letters of credit which were presented simultaneously by a gang of skilful thieves in six or eight leading cities of the continent. The forgers have not been caught. It is expected they will come to London.

Parnellism and Crime.

LONDON, May 20.—A second instalment of the present series of articles on "Parnellism and Crime" appears in the Times to-day. It deals with the League conventions in Chicago and Philadelphia and the Clan Na-Gael Society's share therein, and refers to a message which it says Mr. Parnell sent to the Philadelphia convention advising that a platform be framed which would "enable us to continue to receive help from America."

A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of

Mens, Boys & Children's Hats

ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

FELT HATS, NEWEST STYLES, 20c. EACH

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINIATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to acknowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheel-horses,
Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

CITY FATHERS IN COUNCIL

A Special Midnight Session.

The Town Council Disposes of a Mass of Business- A Grant made for the Queen's Jubilee—Mr. Carnegie's Request Referred Back—The Scott Act Discussed.

The Mayor and Messrs. Kendry, Hartley, Menzies, Douglass, Moore, Yelland, Stenson, McNeil, McNaughton, Davidson and Cahill, attended the special meeting of the Town Council, Monday night.

MORE DEPUTATION.

Mayor Stevenson called the attention of the council to an important matter. While in Ottawa he had used every effort to secure an appropriation for the continuation of the Trent Valley Canal between Lakefield and Peterborough, but so far had not succeeded. However, several of the municipalities in the district were sending deputations to Ottawa to urge upon the Government the advisability of making a grant for the purpose. He wished the Council to consider the matter and take steps according to their best judgment. Whatever action Peterborough took in the matter would be co-operated in by the other municipalities.

The MAYOR also stated that he had no doubt that a grant would be made towards the dredging of Little Lake, the town having agreed to prohibit the running of sawdust into the river.

The G. T. R. Company, he said, had secured legislation authorizing the borrowing of sufficient money to pay its debts to the several municipalities it owed, the town of Peterborough being their creditor for some $56,200.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A large number of communications and requests for street improvements were received and referred to proper committees.

Among these was a communication from Mr. W. Beaudrette, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Jubilee Celebration Committee, asking the Council to make a grant in aid of the celebration fund. On motion of Mr. McNeil, seconded by Mr. Kendry, a grant of $100 was made to the Fire Brigade, which is co-operating with the committee.

A communication, signed by Messrs. Wm. English, Peter Hamilton, A. Comstock, Richard P. Cook, C. B. Rostley, C. H. Huffman, Wm. H. White, Leon Dion, D. W. Dumble, Matthew Wright, N. T. Laplante and Geo. Dunsford, was read, advising the Council to not give away any portion of Water or Dalhousie streets to Mr. Carnegie. They would oppose, by every means in their power, any legislation to that effect, as they felt that the closing of said streets would materially affect the value of the property surrounding, and close to the public a very important water front on the river, which may be very valuable if the Trent Valley Canal should ever be an accomplished fact.—Received.

A large number of accounts were received and referred to the Finance Committee, except those of Messrs. Metcalf and Croft, which were paid.

FINANCE REPORT.

Mr. DAVIDSON presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending payment of the accounts referred to them; they reported—That the petitions of Wm. and Thos. Beavis cannot be entertained; that the clerk be instructed to write Mr. D. W. Dumble and Mr. E. Pearse, requesting them to pay over to the town whatever fines and penalties imposed for violations of the Scott Act are in their hands, which were recovered by the town; that the petition of Mr. John Carnegie be granted and a by-law be prepared to that effect; that the account of McAndrew & Noble be referred to the Mayor to adjust.

Mr. Davidson moved the adoption of the report with the amendment, of striking out the clause relating to the grant of the street to Mr. John Carnegie. In view of the largely signed petition which had been presented to the contrary, it would be unadvisable to include it in the report. He afterwards withdrew the motion, and moved that the report be referred back to the Finance Committee to ascertain the views of both parties, and settle the matter.

GIVING AWAY THE STREETS.

Mr. J. CARNEGIE, who was present, was given a hearing. He denied the statement that he asked the town to give him the street. In addition for the street he offered a large quantity of gravel. But if his proposals were not accepted, he was willing to leave the matter to a fair arbitration. Mr. Carnegie also intimated that if Mr. Law was unable to get the works he might be obliged to leave the town altogether.

Mr. KENDRY rather favored the grant, though he didn't say so in plain words. He spoke of fostering our manufactories and feared if Mr. Law didn't get the place he would have to leave town.

Mr. MCNAUGHTON opposed the grant in toto. He combatted Mr. Carnegie's arguments right and left, and thought if he wanted it very badly he would buy it. Mr. McNaughton thought there was something behind this thing that everybody didn't know.

The report was adopted as amended, and another motion that the petition of Mr. Carnegie be referred back to the Finance Committee, was also carried.

A BY-LAW.

Mr. MCNEIL introduced a by-law to grant $100 to the Mechanics' Institute for 1886. The by-law was passed.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT MATTER.

MAYOR STENSON introduced another matter which had been brought to his notice in Ottawa. Mr. Pearce, of Cobourg, when he purchased the C., P. and M. R., also purchased the Mud Lake road, and application had been made to Parliament to remove the old iron from the latter road. They had bought the road for a mere song, and were making a big speculation of it. If the road was ever to be revived the rails should be left where they are. In answer to enquiries as to whether the town had any control over the road, the Mayor said he thought they had, in that the Provincial Government had made a grant of $4,000 to the railway. Mr. Cox and Mr. Carnegie confirmed this opinion by stating that the condition of grants made by the Ontario Government would give the town the right to be heard in the matter. Some discussion followed, tending to the merging of this matter with that of the Trent Valley Canal, in having a deputation appointed to take both matters in hand, and present the views of the Council of Peterborough to the government. The discussion culminated in the following motion: it was also suggested that deputations be sent from each of the municipalities along the line of the canal for the same purpose.

MR. MCNEIL moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the Mayor, Clerk and members of this Council be a deputation to Ottawa to urge upon the government to have a suitable appropriation placed in the supplementary estimates, to place under construction that section of the Trent Valley Canal between Lakefield and Peterborough; also that Messrs. John Carnegie, Geo. A. Cox and Geo. Hilliard be invited to accompany the delegation.—Carried.

MOTIONS.

MR. DAVIDSON moved, seconded by Mr. McNeil, that a culvert be placed across Water street from the C.P.R. lot to the river-corner.—Carried

MR. HARTLEY moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that the street Inspector be instructed to have a sidewalk laid down on the west side of Bethune street, from Edinburgh street as far north as Breen's dwelling.—Referred to the Street and Bridge Committee.

MR. CAHILL introduced a motion to have the acoustic arrangements of the Council Chamber improved.—Carried.

MR. KENDRY moved that the committee on police supervision have the power to grant the contracts for police clothing as tendered for.—Carried.

MR. MCNAUGHTON called the attention of the Council to the dangerous condition of the sidewalk on Patterson street. The council would be liable for any damages.

MR. CAHILL moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that the accounts of the Times Printing Co., and Mr. E. E. Bewis for scrapers be paid when certified to.—Carried.

MR. DAVIDSON moved, seconded by Mr. McNaughton, that a sidewalk be built on the south side of Dalhousie street, from Aylmer to Bethune street.—Street and Bridge Committee.

SCOTT ACT ENFORCEMENT.

Mr. YELLAND moved, seconded by Mr. Stenson, that Mr. H. Rossiter's account of $323 for the enforcement of the Scott Act be paid.

After brief discussion the motion was lost on the following division:—

YEAS.—Messrs. Stenson, Yelland, Menzies, Kendry, and Hartley—5.

NAYS.—Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, McNaughton, McNeil, Moore and Douglass—6.

Mr. STENSON moved, seconded by Mr. Yelland, that $750 be paid to Mr. E. E. Edwards for services rendered in Scott Act work.

Mr. Davidson moved, in amendment, seconded by Mr. McNeil, that the Treasurer be instructed to pay the salaries of the police magistrate, police court clerk, constables, and our proportion of the demand by the commissioners which we may have to pay, for enforcing the Scott Act, out of the fines inflicted and collected under the Canada Temperance Act of 1878, from May 1st, 1886, to May 1st, 1887, and the balance be handed over to to the Scott Act association.

Mr. GEO. HILLIARD was accorded a hearing. He urged the passing of the motion before the Council. Since the introduction of the Scott Act nearly $4,000 had been collected in fines, largely due to the efforts of the men who had undertaken and performed every effort to have the law enforced. Mr. Hilliard spoke for a few minutes on the Scott Act, which, he contended, was not a failure, and it was only an act of justice to make the Scott Act Association the grant and save them the disbursement of the amount from their own pockets.

Mr. GEO. A. COX also briefly addressed the Council, urging the grant solicited, which was in all fairness due the Association.

Mr. MCNAUGHTON next occupied the floor and made a vigorous onslaught on the Scott Act and its supporters.

Mr. DOUGLASS also gave his experience with the Scott Act, which was decidedly adverse. He could not see why the town should pay for the services of men employed by another body.

Mr. HARTLEY made an eloquent speech in defence of the Act. If the Scott Act was a failure, why was it? Was not the law against murder and stealing broken every day? And were they not failures, too? Why was the Scott Act a failure? It was because some men at this Council board, who should do their best to enforce the Act, did not make the slightest endeavor to carry it out.

Mr. CAHILL objected to the payment of the salaries of the Scott Act Association's officers. They claimed to have brought $4,000 into the Treasury; but they have been the means of keeping $4,000 or $5,000 out of the treasury. He accused the Scott Act Association of inconsistency in wishing the law enforced in one case, and in another case they wanted the Council to break the law in order to make the grant to an irresponsible and an incorporated body.

Mr. YELLAND combatted Mr. Cahill's statements. When the Scott Act Association undertook to enforce the Act, the law was that they should control half the fines. Leave the law as it was and it would not be necessary to break it. The council had a right to grant the money, and they all knew it. Mr. Davidson's motion was neither just nor honest. He knew well enough that after all the other salaries were paid, there would be none left.

Mr. Menzies moved, seconded by Mr. McNaughton, that the matter of giving the money to the Scott Act Association be referred back to the Finance Committee for further consideration, and to get the town solicitor's opinion as to the legality of the grant, and report at the next meeting of the council.

Mr. MOORE could not see his way clear to voting for Mr. Stenson's motion. The Act, he argued, was a complete failure, and if the Association had come to the council and received their sanction, and consulted them before this, before they employed these officers, he would be more ready to support the grant. But he was strongly in doubt as to the legality of the grant.

Mr. KENDRY made some explanations regarding the working of the Scott Act, and Mr. Stenson addressed the Council on behalf of the grant. Finally Mr. Menzies' motion to refer the matter back to the committee was carried.

TO CLEAN THE CELLAR.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Cahill, that the clerk be instructed to have the cellar cleaned under the town offices.—Carried.

WOOLLEN MILL TAXES.

Mr. GEO. HILLIARD again addressed the Council. He wanted the same privileges extended to the woollen mill on his premises as were enjoyed by the Brodie woollen mill. He wanted exemption from taxation for a number of years on the machinery in his mill; otherwise he could not make the business pay. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee

THE UXBRIDGE ORGAN CO.

Mr. COX next addressed the Council relative to the Uxbridge Organ Co. He was not heartily in favour of the rather heavy demands of the Company, but if he might be allowed to make a suggestion, he would advocate the erection of large buildings on the town property, to be erected free and exempted from taxes to any companies which would employ a certain number of men, the buildings to remain in possession of the town.

The MAYOR detailed the demands of the Company as given in the EXAMINER a few days ago, which he did not regard very favorably. He co-incided in Mr. Cox's suggestion regarding the town buildings.

MR. CAHILL, in order to bring the matter to a termination, moved, seconded by Mr. Douglass, that this corporation is willing to give any organ or piano company, or any other large manufacturing company locating here, buildings free from rent and taxes, for a period of ten years, provided such industry will not interfere with establishments now in existence here.—Carried.

In connection with this the Williams Piano Company, of Toronto, was mentioned, they having evinced a desire to locate in some good town.

TOO MUCH TAXES

MR. CARNEGIE was heard relative to the assessment of the Auburn Woolen Mills, which he considers too high.—Referred to the Finance Committee.

MR. MCNEIL moved, seconded by Mr. Stenson, that the Clerk notify all parties having stoves belonging to the town to return them at once.—Carried.

The Council adjourned at 12.30 a.m. until one week from next Monday night.

OUT IN THE STORMY NIGHT.

SERMON BY LATHAM.

(Written for The Examiner.)

It was in mid winter. The wind blew cold and with terrible fury. The night was dark and dreary. The snow was fast coming down and lay in huge heaps upon the ground. The night was dark, and pity for the poor wayfarer who was out in the storm. Inside the house the fires burnt brightly, throwing out warmth and making the rooms comfortable, and the curtains were drawn close and the inmates gathered around the cheerful fire, thankful for their comforts and wondering who could live out in such a night as that. It is easy for the well-to-do to moralize and enjoy themselves. They little know what is passing around them, and oftentimes little care. As a general thing their thoughts are not with the poor and needy. And when by chance a call is made upon their generosity their heart strings are drawn tighter and they look down upon the poor sufferers without pity and care nothing for their wants. Sometimes they shut the door and drive away the poor [illegible] mercy. And then they ask God to take care of and prosper them, their sanctimonious [illegible] going up to the throne of grace along with the cries and the tears of the poor creatures whom they refused to help. There are a great many rich people in this world, and a great many [illegible] and heartless ones too, as well. [illegible] as a rule, are proud and indifferent to the wants of others. They feel that they have plenty of the world's goods and so they content themselves with the reflection that they do not have to ask favours, and that others should do likewise. They don't know what poverty is. They always have bread and they know nothing of the terrible feelings of a hungry man. They seldom see the face of the poor, desolate woman and seldom hear the moans and cries of the starving child. When they traverse the streets of a great city they often look upon the wan faces of the famished child, struggling along in its poverty had rags enacted through cruelty and hunger, with no kind act or word to illumine its dark life, or to bring one ray of comfort to its weary soul. Out in the dark night, out in the storm, with bare feet and tattered clothes, cold and lonely and weary, with no place to go to worthy the name of a home, sometimes passing the long weary nights on door-steps, all exposed to the pitiless storm. A cry, wrung from untold misery, goes up for help, for human help, but no help is near. And it may be that the light of morning falls upon the pale face and powerless limbs of the poor little way-farer, who, perchance, had seen better days, and who, through misfortune, has been brought to misery and despair. No matter; it is soon out of the way, thrust into some dark hole by careless hands who stop not to think that one of God's little lambs is lying there. Out in the stormy night. Just think of it. Think what it means. Of the falling snow, of the winds that blew fierce and cold, of some poor creature, without house house or home, exposed to the chilly blast, struggling on, not knowing where to go or which way to turn, but still trying to go on the hard and weary way.

While strolling one night through a city's gay throng,
I met a poor boy, he was singing a song.
Although he was singing he wanted for bread.
And though he was singing he wished himself dead.

I spoke to this poor boy out in the snow.
He had no home to shelter him, no place to go.
No mother to guide him in the grave she is low.
Cast on the wide world, poor, poor little Joe.

Cold blew the blast, down came the snow.
He had no place to disclose his, no place to go.
No mother to guide him, in the grave she is low.
Cast on the cold street is poor little Joe.

A carriage passed by with a lady inside,
I looked on poor Joe's face and saw that he cried.
He followed the carriage, she not even smiled,
But fondly caressing her own darling child.

I looked on this waif, I thought it was odd,
Is this poor ragged urchin forgotten by God?
And I saw by the lamp light that shone on the snow
The pale, deadly features of poor little Joe.

Cold blew the blast, etc.

The light had gone out, the clock had struck one,
Along came a policeman, whose duty was done.
I could tell by the sound of his dull, heavy tread,
You'd think he was sinking the graves of the dead.

Oh, who is this? the policeman he said,
It was poor little Joe, on the cold ground he lay dead,
With his eyes turned to Heaven, covered with snow.
Died in the cold street, did poor little Joe.

Cold blew the blast, etc.

Poor little Joe's sufferings and death are the fate of thousands of others besides. Brought into a hard world, born to neglect and poverty and misery, they live a short time in destitution and trouble, and then die and are gone to their eternal home. For no fault of their own they were neglected and despised here below, but in it is to be hoped their life above will be a life of happiness and plenty. The Lord in his day felt pity for the poor and homeless. He heard their cries and gave them comfort and hope. And when their troubles are over here He stands ready to reach forth His hand and bring them to His Heavenly home, where they will weep no more, and where all will be joy and peace for ever and ever. And he feels the same pity to-day. The poor homeless waif, with her babe in her [illegible] scarcely covered from the cold whistling through the pitiless storm, all forsaken and forlorn, with no one to help, is cheered by the thought that she and her child are God's children and that the Lord hears her cries and will, when her trials are over here, bring her to everlasting peace and joy. Out in the stormy night, she wanders on through the cold and drifting snow, pressing her child closer to her bosom, looking for help but finds none. The warm fire light shines through many a window, telling of the pleasures and comforts within, and the night only increases her feelings of misery and woe. The inmates never think of the helpless wanderer. They hear not the cries of the little babe. All is happiness and peace within, and contented misery and cold and want wander without. Poor little Joe, dying Joe, there is no place for you; and no one to care. And if [illegible] Christians, lying in their beds, a bundle forth, how few will ever think of her sufferings, and how few feel pity for the dead mother and child. It is only two more unfortunates who have gone to their eternal home. There will be rest for the weary there. God, who sent the fall of snow and sleet, has seen the sufferings of the woman and her child, and now the loving Saviour calls to them to come to Him and live forever in the home provided for His people from before. And the poor and weary and friendless are not forgotten. Their cries and tears and misery are heard and noted by Him who has said that not a sparrow falls to the ground unnoticed by Him. With few exceptions, it has no mercy or pity. Its great moving principle is self-gratification and revenge. So strong is this principle that parents, with small provocation, have been known to turn upon the street their own offspring; to turn them out into the dark, stormy night, utterly regardless of the sufferings and misery which must follow after. Sometimes it is a son and sometimes it is a daughter. Driven out into the cold and pitiless storm, wandering they know not whither, the parents at home all unconscious of their desolate and ruin. The door of the old home is closed to them forever. It will probably never be open again. But when the dark, stormy night settles down upon the land, and the mother and father sit near the fire or gather warm [illegible] around them, they will think of their [illegible] whom they have driven away, and will feel sorry for their cruel act, and will wonder where she is and whether she is dragging her weary limbs through the fast falling snow. Since the daughter left home they have had time to think over their own unnatural conduct, and now, when it is too late, they would recall the cruel sentence which sent her forth and would gladly take her home again. It is an easy thing to do a great wrong, but it is hard to undo it. And when all is over and a poor helpless creature is cast out upon the world, doomed to a life of misery and woe, it is difficult to help and to save. The only resource then is in the grave.

Beyond these chilling winds and gloomy skies,
Beyond death's solemn portal,
There is a land where beauty never dies,
And love becomes immortal.

A land whose light is never dimmed by shade,
Whose fields are ever vernal,
Where nothing beautiful can ever fade,
But blooms for aye, eternal.

Oh, land unknown, oh, land of love divine,
Father all wise, eternal,
Guide, guide these wandering feet of mine,
Into those pastures vernal.

Golden grains of truth. Turabull is selling Ladies' Taffeta and pure Silk Gloves that are cut to fit the hand; every pair numbered. You will not regret having walked an extra block after you have tried a pair.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

A Trial Solicited.

The Town Clock Grocery store can supply you with the choicest groceries of every kind at lowest figures. Call upon W. J. Morrow, at the Town Clock Grocery, and be convinced.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

An Accomplished Accountant.

Mr. A. V. R. Young, C.A., member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Ontario, announces in another column that he is prepared to act as auditor, trustee of insolvent estates, and general accountant. Address: Drawer "D," office with Mr. A. P. Poussette, Q.C., Water street. Mr. Young has shown himself possessed of good business qualifications, which entitle him to the public confidence and patronage, which he will doubtless receive.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 95c., men's long boots, $1.45,

A Mysterious Disappearance.

William H. Horten, an employee of McCabe's flour mill, Port Hope, left his home Tuesday morning to go to work. He had been ill the day before, and Tuesday morning complained of a headache and dizziness. After breakfast he left the house, and was not seen again till Wednesday evening, when he was found wandering about, a few miles from town. There can be little doubt that his illness, from which he thought he had recovered, is not yet cured, and that the unfortunate man is now in a state of temporary and harmless dementia.

A Forward Movement.

After establishing his excellent training schools in several centres in Canada, Mr. Bennett Sawyer has so managed to place the Peterborough Business College under such control as to place it on the free list. There is now no obstacle in the way of any young person obtaining free the best instruction in any practical subject. As the time and numbers are limited, we would advise early application for admission. The institution is free from party control, though under strict supervision. Mr. Sawyer says that his ambition is now gratified that Peterborough possesses the only free intellectual light-house between Toronto and Ottawa.

The Mecca of Melting Mankind.

Mr. Harry Long's confectionery store on George street has just undergone a renovation and improvement that leaves it the nobbiest of its kind in town. The ceiling has been spread with the costliest and prettiest paper in town, the shelves and doors painted in appropriate colors, while the refreshment parlors at the rear have also been touched up, papered, painted, and draw curtains placed on them. An arched and curtained doorway separates the the two departments. Harry always does things in A 1 style, and his latest effort is no exception. His ice-cream and soda-water are "all the rage" and his establishment is the Mecca of melting humanity, just now, while his stock of confectionery and cakes is unsurpassed.

Turabull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

Regatta Prizes.

Messrs. R. C. Strickland, Lakefield, J. G. Edwards, Lindsay, and Wm. J. McKendrick, Toronto, have been appointed a regatta committee of the Northern Division, A.C.A., and they desire to intimate that they would appreciate co-operation on the part of the ladies, similar to that so liberally given in former years. They hope that the ladies interested in canoeing, will find leisure to contribute flags and pennants suitable for prizes on the occasion of the regatta of the annual meeting of the Association. The committee would esteem it a favor if those willing to contribute flags, etc., would be good enough to have them in readiness or assured by the 25th of July.

Winding His Widening Way.

The Port Hope Times, thus refers to one of Peterborough's most prominent and rushing business men: "Mr. D. Bellegham, the great furniture king, of Peterborough, is doing a rattling trade in the townships north. Scarcely a day passes but one or more of his delivery vans, loaded with furniture, are seen going along the main roads and side-lines of Cavan, Manvers, the north of Hope, South Monaghan and Emily. His trade has greatly increased since the brilliant idea occurred to him of delivering his goods free in all parts of the adjacent country within a radius of 100 miles of his factory at Peterborough, and while the sleepy wise-acres shook their heads and said they "did'nt think it would pay!" he put the teams on and finds it does pay! He is of the go ahead, enterprising kind, and makes business while others are thinking of how it can be done. His customers speak in the highest terms both of his furniture and prices,—it is substantial, of the best design and finish, and cheap. Parties going to house-keeing should call and see Mr. Bellegham, or communicate with him by letter."

Notice of Visit.

Professor J. D. Kay, from the establishment of B. Laurance & Co., Montreal, will be at Mr. John McKee's drug store on 21st and 23rd of May for consultation. He is specially qualified to adjust spectacles for every requirement of the eye, and secure to you such advantages as are only to be found in the largest cities. No matter what the difficulties he will, where relief can be afforded to, fit you to perfection, giving you the most certain aids to sight—B. Laurance's Spectacles—which have an acknowledged reputation for superiority everywhere. The Brazilian or Scotch Pebbles of his own manufacture, are delightfully easy and pleasant to wear. There is no glimmering—wavering—dizziness, or other distressing sensations produced by their use. They comfort, strengthen and preserve the sight, and last so long that they will not cost you one cent per week to wear. Avoid using common spectacles which are ruinous to the sight and require changing so often that they actually cost you more in the end than best. Every spectacle and Eye-glass is stamped with the initials "B.L." They are imitated but never equalled. Note the date of the visit—For two days only, Saturday the 21st and Monday the 23rd of May, at Mr. John McKee's, druggist, Peterborough.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. E. Phelan desires to recognize publicly the valuable efforts made by the Fire Brigade in saving his property from complete destruction during the fire of Wednesday night. He feels sure that if the boys had not been prompt on time and had not worked like heroes the destruction of proper ty would have been much greater.

Another Furious Fire.

Whyte & Co's Foundry Destroyed by Fire—Heavy Losses.

Last night's conflagration gave Peterborough her usual quota of three fires in hot succession, with an incipient blaze to boot. About half-past three this morning the roof of Messrs. John Whyte & Co's foundry on Macdonnel street west, alongside the Missing Link line, was noticed to be in flames. A few of the neighbors quickly congregated and the alarm was given. The ward fire hall was, however, quite useless, the rope being broken, until a small boy "shinned" up the pole with a big stone in his pocket, with which he pounded the bell and made as much noise as he could. A Mr. Scott, a stranger in Peterborough, started for the central fire hall on a horse, but being unacquainted with our fire system, instead of ringing the town bell, he went to the residence of Terry Smith, the driver of the fire engine, who sleeps at the fire hall. Before matters were put right and the fire bell set ringing, much valuable time was lost, and by the time the firemen and "Silsby" reached the scene of the conflagration, the foundry was doomed. Mr. Whyte, however, desires to thank the citizens who gave such valuable assistance in removing the stock before the firemen arrived, and also to thank the fire brigade for their strenuous efforts in preventing the spread of the fire when they at length arrived on the spot. A considerable portion of the contents of the foundry was saved, and the firemen, by their hard work, prevented the ignition of surrounding buildings.

About twenty minutes before the fire was first perceived, a train had passed over the Missing Link, and as the blaze began on the side of the roof next the track, there can be scarcely a doubt that a spark from the locomotive caused the fire.

Mr. Whyte estimates his loss at about $8,000, while Mr. Geo. Bolton and Messrs. McAndrew & Noble, furnace makers, lost several hundred dollars worth of patterns. Mr. Chas. Dawson, manufacturer of Dawson's Patent Rotary and Steam Pumps, whose workshop is located at the foundry, also sustained considerable loss. The moulds for several iron pillars and doorsteps for Dunsford's block on Water street, were ready for casting at the foundry this afternoon, but were of course destroyed.

Messrs. Whyte & Co. have been particularly unfortunate in the matter of fires. Several times have they been burned out; the last time, about five years ago, within a few days of the burning of Wilson's woolen mill, and with a strange fatality the same thing has occurred again this week.

It is to be hoped the authorities will have electric alarm bells placed in each ward to prevent a recurrence of Friday night's errors and delays.

NIPPED IN THE BUD.

Friday night about 10 o'clock a fire was discovered blazing lustily in the sheds in rear of the cottage on Reid street, owned by Mr E. Burnham. The vigorous efforts of a few young men in the neighborhood soon put out the fire. If the fire, which in some way resulted from the ash bin, had broken out an hour or two later when everybody would have been asleep, serious damage would have been inevitable. Loss about $10, no insurance. The alarm was rung, and the brigade were on their way to the fire when informed that their services were not required.

Society Sermon.

The members of Lansdowne Lodge, Sons of England, will attend divine service in St. John's Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. E. W. Sibbald, of Belleville, will occupy the pulpit.

George Street Church.

Rev. Mr. Tovell will preach in the George street Methodist Church next Sunday morning; in the evening Rev. Mr. Wallace will occupy the pulpit.

The Police Force.

At last night's Council meeting, Mr. W. C. Ramsay, of Belleville, applied for the position of chief of the police force, and Mr. Geo. Pidgeon asked to be appointed a constable on the force. The applications were referred to the Committee on Appointments.

The Band in the Park.

The public will be delighted to learn that the Band will inaugurate the open air concert season, by playing a fine programme in the Court House Park on Monday evening.

Peterborough Business College.

Mr. Wm. Moore, says the Bobcaygeon Independent, has returned from a course at the Peterborough Business College, and speaks very highly of it. He passed the financial course, taking a certificate of merit, and wrote a prize essay.

A Long Felt Want Supplied.

I wish to call the attention of the public to our mouse and dust-proof organs. I am the only authorised agent for the county of Peterborough for the only mouse and dust-proof organs made in the Dominion of Canada. This improvement has been a long felt want, and intending purchasers will save money and get a first-class instrument at rock bottom prices, as I will not be undersold. D. SMART. 1d&w

"Proclaim" the Nuisance.

With the Queen's Birthday at hand, and everything dry as tinder, it is necessary to take prompt steps to suppress the fire-cracker nuisance. If this is not done, the disastrous fires which have taken place in town within the past week may be repeated. The matter should be attended to at once and the Mayor is called upon, in the interest of the town to issue a proclamation forbidding the discharge of fire-crackers within the town limits. The boys are not begrudged a little fun but the town doesn't want the boyish indulgence of a moment to result in a fire involving the loss of thousands of dollars.

Personal.

Mr. J. Robertson, formerly of Bowmanville, has severed his connection with Mr. Jas. Alexander's Dry Goods store, and has taken the general agency, for Peterborough, of the Mutual Reserve, of New York. The demands of the duties of the Inspectorship of the Company for Eastern Ontario, make it necessary that Mr. Geo. A. Morrison should have a reliable and efficient general agent in town, and such a one he has secured in the person of Mr. Robertson.

Local Legal.

The following cases of local interest have been disposed of at Osgoode Hall:—

COCHRANE V. HAMILTON PROV. AND LOAN CO.—Crerar (Hamilton), for the defendants, moved for an order nisi to set aside the findings of the jury in an action of damages for sale of the plaintiff's farm at an under value, tried at Peterborough, before O'Connor, J., and a jury. Granted.

PETERBOROUGH REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT CO. V. DAVIDSON.—Hayes (Peterborough), for the plaintiffs, moved for the opinion of the court upon questions of title arising on a reference in an action for specific performance. Moore (Peterborough) for the defendant. Reserved.

No one need despair of finding Millinery to suit them while Turabull is in the trade. He keeps a well-selected stock of choice goods, and as new lines appear in the market, has new Shapes and Trimmings arriving almost daily.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Sudden Disappearance.

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

Liable to Happen.

Sudden attacks of colds, sore throat, croup swollen glands, rheumatism, neuralgia, and similar troubles, are very liable during the winter and early spring. As a prompt remedy there can nothing excel Yellow Oil. "I never feel safe to be without it," says Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, Ont. 2w20d

TRADE IN

Our Millinery Department

IS NOW AT ITS HEIGHT, AND did we judge alone by the crowds that daily claim attention of our salesmen advertising this class of goods would be unnecessary—almost a waste of money. But then, you know, there's two sides to every subject. Here's the other side to this one, and at the same time our reason for advertising when there's no apparent necessity for doing so.

In making up our stock in this department we provided for great numbers—for many more than have as yet taken advantage of its completeness, to furnish themselves with millinery suitable for the season.

It will therefore require "crowds long continued" to clear out tables of the enormous stock of Millinery with which they are loaded—over-loaded.

A continuous demand from being necessary, we know of no better way to insure it than to keep you informed as to just what we have and how we are prepared to sell it. We shall, therefore, from now to the close of the season, devote some portion of our card to Millinery News.

We have already said that our stock was large. We have also intimated that our assortment was COMPLETE. Now for our goods.

We have just received a six dozen lot of Ladies' and Children's Hats which are the newest in shape, and bought at half their value.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC
FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Bolen & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d2w

O'BRIEN IS INJURED.

THE STONE-BRUISE HE GOT IN TORONTO TROUBLES HIM.

WATERTOWN, N.Y., May 21.—When Editor O'Brien with Mr. Kilbride and the "war correspondents" from New York and Chicago, as they are called, reached the wharf at Kingston and boarded the Maud to sail up Lake Ontario for Cape Vincent a crowd, this time a friendly one, however, had gathered. The crowd was composed of Nationalists and the officers of the local branch of the National League, all of whom had stayed up all night watching their homes and dreading a repetition of the terrible attack of last evening. They all firmly grasped Mr. O'Brien by the hand and as the boat steamed away they sent up a rousing cheer. Mr. O'Brien bowed his acknowledgments, although hardly able to stand from fatigue and the injury which he had suffered. There accompanied him as far as Cape Vincent William Duffy, D. D. O'Gorman, W. P. Kilcauley, Father McGrath and Morris Hogan and Peter Devlin, the heroes, and justly the heroes, of the hour, for on this occasion they unquestionably saved the life of the editor of United Ireland. Most of these men had of the others who organized the meeting and bore the brunt of the work are hard-working and industrious mechanics, the well-to-do Catholics, though sympathizers with the movement, being afraid to figure prominently in it.

The Mysterious Fellower.

The suspicious looking individual who wears dark green goggles and who has followed Mr. O'Brien and party everywhere they went so far, pretending to be a representative of Reuter's News Agency, has at last been recognized and turns out to be what he was all along suspected of being, namely, an English detective from Scotland Yard. At the Burnett House in Kingston he registered as H. Robinson, and the reporter who dogged him to the Canadian Pacific Telegraph office on Clarence-street whither he bent his steps after the mob had attempted to murder Mr. O'Brien, noticed him writing out a telegram to Scotland Yard, which he signed "Charley." He afterwards appeared in the parlor of the Burnett House in company with a crowd of sympathizers who had called to congratulate Mr. O'Brien, and the latter now being assured of his identity asked of the man with a scornful curl of his lips: "Is not this a private room?" The hint was sufficient and the detective stepped quietly out of the room and disappeared.

On United States Soil.

At Cape Vincent the following telegram was handed to Mr. O'Brien by an officer of the Kingston League from Right Rev. Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Kingston, from Prescott:

"I thought the O'Brien meeting was fixed for to-night and had a letter prepared to be read at the meeting by you, condemnatory of the insults and brute violence offered Mr. O'Brien in Toronto. If Mr. O'Brien be in Kingston tell him this and express my profound regret and indignation at his ill-treatment in Kingston."

This was the first time United States territory was touched during the fortnight, and as Mr. O'Brien stepped upon the pier he and his party cried, as they raised their hats, "Hurrah for the stars and stripes," while the crowd in waiting responded with cheers.

The Agitator Worn Out.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., May 21.—The O'Brien party arrived here this evening and was greeted with cheers by a large crowd of people. O'Brien was conducted to the Vanderbilt Hotel, where a dinner was served. Later he left for Niagara Falls, where he will stay to-night and to-morrow, going to Hamilton on Monday.

After the dinner at Watertown, at the request of Bishop Lynch, Mr. O'Brien was conducted to the hotel parlor, where an address was presented to him. He replied, thanking his auditors for the sympathy which they, in common with the rest of the American people, had always shown to Ireland, and referring to the severe injuries which he had received in the mobbings he had undergone in Canada. He was evidently completely worn out and could hardly speak. When the party got on the sleeping car, bound for Niagara Falls, Mr. O'Brien fainted away on his bed from pure exhaustion. Dr. Gregory Doyle of Watertown, who examined Mr. O'Brien says he is suffering from severe internal injuries caused by the attack of the infuriated Orangemen at Kingston. His body is bruised and battered in several places and there is a touch of inflammation of the lungs appearing. A serious attack of pleurisy will be the final outcome, the doctor says, if the honorable member for Northeast Cork does not rest for a few days at Niagara Falls.

The meeting arranged for Hamilton, O'Brien thinks, in deference to the doctor's opinion, has been postponed for some days, though as yet decision is not final.

The New York Demonstration.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A meeting of the committee representing the United Labor party, Districts 64 and 69 of the Knights of Labor and the Central Labor Union met last night to consider the best means of receiving Mr. O'Brien, the editor of United Ireland, on his return to this city. It was suggested that a parade and mass meeting, the latter to be held in Union Square, would be the best demonstration, and the committee were instructed to consult their different organizations and report back at the next meeting of the Reception Committee. The St. Patrick's Society of Brooklyn telegraphed last night to Mr. O'Brien asking him whether he would accept a public reception in that city.

The Date Fixed.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The date for the public reception to Wm. O'Brien has been authoritatively fixed for Thursday, June 2, at the Academy of Music in this city.

O'Brien Off at Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 22.—The O'Brien party arrived about noon. Mr. O'Brien, under medical advice, kept his bed all day. The doctors said Mr. O'Brien was suffering from symptoms of pleurisy and feared that he was likely to be confined to his bed for some time. The stone thrown at him in Toronto struck him on the left side, injuring the short ribs and cartilage. It causes great pain. At a late hour this evening Mr. O'Brien was no better and was rather feverish. But he announces that he is determined upon proceeding to Hamilton to-morrow, where he will make an address in the afternoon.

During the afternoon Mr. Kilbride, accompanied by the newspaper correspondents, visited the falls. While visiting the cataract and seminary of Our Lady of Angels, on the American side, Mr. Kilbride made a speech to the students, in the course of which he said that it was not the rabble of Toronto that had stoned them, but the educated students, backed up by the educated merchants who were in the crowd, and who really desired O'Brien's blood.

FIRE AT CHATHAM.

A Number of Stores Burned and Several Badly Damaged.

CHATHAM, Ont., May 22.—Fire started to-night at 10 o'clock in the harness store of Andrew Northwood and completely gutted his store. The Raymond Sewing Machine store, Fitzsimmon's barber shop, and a vacant store recently occupied by W. and T. Richardson, tailors; the stores of S. W. Purser, fruit dealer; Louis Vosgunten, jeweler; Dr. Radley, druggist, and Henry Osben, variety store, were considerably damaged by smoke and water. The loss will be heavy, the insurance being light, but unknown at present. The origin of the fire is also unknown.

COLLIDED IN A FOG.

Two Steamers Come Together and Four Passengers Are Killed.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The British steamers Celtic and Britannic were in collision on May 19 250 miles east of Sandy Hook. Both vessels reached Sandy Hook bar at 1 a.m. to-day and were compelled to remain there, owing to a dense fog. The disabled steamers were accompanied to Sandy Hook by the steamers British Queen and Maronge to render assistance if necessary. Four of the Britannic steerage passengers were killed. All is well aboard the Celtic. The collision occurred in a fog.

Smallpox Among Chinese Emigrants.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The steamer Gaelic, from China and Japan, arrived this morning with smallpox on board. Before the vessel came to anchor she was boarded by a quarantine officer, who, on investigation, found two cases of smallpox among the Chinese passengers on board. She was at once placed in quarantine. There are 1200 Chinese passengers.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 23.

William Coomba, aged 13, was taken to Bowmanville at 3 o'clock last evening, on a charge of disobeying a Scott Act summons. Coombs had been employed by George Fisher in the Farmers' Exchange Hotel as bartender. A few weeks ago Coombs was fined $50 for a violation of the Scott Act; in court he swore he ran the bar and that Fisher had nothing to do with it. Fisher had already been fined. Then Coombs was summoned a second time; the penalty for the second offence is $100, for the third jail without fine. The youth did not obey the second summons, but instead came to Toronto and sought seclusion at No. 46 St. David-street, where his mother resides.

Chief of Police Coleman of Bowmanville, who, by the way, has filled that office for nearly forty years, came to town Saturday evening armed with a warrant for Coombs' arrest. Mr. Love, J.P., backed the warrant, and Detective Alf Cuddy yesterday executed it. While the young man was being taken from the house, his mother hurled some pretty strong epithets at the Scott Act and its originators. The young man was well provided with money when arrested.

The reporters of the New York papers who are accompanying Mr. O'Brien in his unpleasant starring engagement through the Dominion have sent some very brutal and amusing stories to their journals. One of the amusing ones is that a Scotland Yard detective, specially detailed by the British Government, had shadowed Mr. O'Brien from the very moment that he sailed from England. The New York World gave a "graphic description" of the personal appearance of the "detective"—height, age, complexion, dress, movements, etc.

It might surprise some of these false scribes of Gotham to learn that the individual whom they so sensationally located as a Scotland Yarder is none other than Reuter's press agent—the man who is furnishing the great English dailies with their cable reports of Mr. O'Brien's movements in Canada. Of course he never loses sight of the agitator.

Whilst crossing the railway track at the foot of George-street Saturday morning, the buggy in which Mr. J. C. Graham, the ice-dealer, was seated, was struck by a shunting engine. He was thrown upon the cowcatcher and then rolled off to the side of the track. Mr. Graham's right leg was broken just above the ankle, and after the fracture was reduced he was taken to his home. The horse and buggy were carried fully fifteen yards by the engine, which Mr. Graham claims was running at a faster rate than allowed by law, and that the man in charge of the engine did not ring the bell.

When General Manager VanHorne was here on Saturday he met Mr. William Bell (of organ fame) and Col. Macdonald, both of Guelph, and discussed with them the branch line of the Canadian Pacific to the Royal City. The branch will start from Campbellville, six miles west of Milton, and run twelve miles to Guelph. There is every prospect of the road being put through this summer.

Mr. VanHorne and Mr. Olds, General Traffic Manager, had conferences with Mayor Howland and other leading citizens Saturday. Yesterday they left for British Columbia.

The annual convention of the Universalist Church of Ontario, will be held in the Oliuda Church, Essex County, commencing Friday, June 17 and continuing the two following days. Eminent clergymen will be present, and all are cordially welcomed to Olinda. Persons desirous of acquainting themselves with the doctrines of the church may obtain reading matter, free of charge, by sending name and address to J. C. Barrows, postmaster, Nicketown, Ont., or to Rev. W. S. Goodell, Smithville, Ont.

The County Commissioners have leased their tollgates for those figures: Yonge-street, No. 1, $7800; No. 2, $650; No. 6, $368; Nos. 2 and 6 have been struck off. Kingston-road, No. 1, $570; No. 2, $735; No. 4, $440; No. 2 is struck off. Dundas-street, No. 1, $2330; No. 2, $2000; No. 4, $250; No. 2 struck off.

The Governor-General and party attended divine service at St. Peter's Church yesterday morning, where His Lordship the Bishop of Algoma preached. In the afternoon His Excellency attended the Metropolitan Sunday School, and in the evening he was at St. George's Church.

The four tramps whom G. T. R. Constable Cox captured at Little York Station Friday night were before Mr. Wingfield Saturday on a charge of trespass. They were sent to jail for five days each.

A Macedonian Cry From Nanaimo, B.C.

Mayor Howland received this telegram Saturday from Mayor Gibson of Nanaimo, B.C.

Funds urgently needed to alleviate the distress caused by fearful colliery disaster. Will you generously interest yourself in our behalf? Thirty-[illegible] widows and 105 children are wholly destitute, [illegible] families whose support has failed owing to the loss of single men.

Vice-President Van Horne of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who is in the city, stated to His Worship that Mayor Gibson's statement of the case was not exaggerated, and that the persons affected by the disaster are deserving of the assistance of the charitable citizens of Toronto. Mayor Howland will be glad to receive and forward contributions and hopes the appeal will meet with a hearty response.

FLARE UP IN FRANCE.

PRESIDENT GREVY CONSIDERS THE CRISIS A SERIOUS ONE.

LONDON, May 21.—The present French Cabinet crisis is, in the opinion of President Grevy, the most serious of any which have occurred since 1870. M. de Freycinet, who is the most intimate friend of the President, declined to undertake the formation of a Cabinet because he found that popular opinion, and the majority of the Chamber of Deputies, would force him to retain in his administration Gen. Boulanger, whom M. Grevy detests. M. Floquet, the President of the Chamber of Deputies, although popular in France, is unavailable. Were he to form an administration the Russian alliance would be lost forever, for the Czar never forgets that it was M. Floquet who, as a young lawyer, publicly insulted his murdered father, when the latter visited the Paris courts of justice in 1867. M. Clemenceau prefers his present position, with its immense occult power, to the dangers of office. Cabinets in France are short-lived, and there are at the present moment no less than 200 ex-Ministers who have held Cabinet office since the establishment of the Republic in 1870. As long as Clemenceau declines office he is a power in the State, but as an ex-Minister he would be nowhere. The new Cabinet will be formed by M. Rouvier, the President of the Budget Committee, who brought about the fall of the Goblet Cabinet.

If Boulanger is kept out of the new Administration it will be but short-lived, for the whole people are in favor of his continuation in office, and Clemenceau is his cousin and bosom friend. If Boulanger is retained Germany will, in accordance with her announcements in the semi-official Berlin press, do her best to hurry on the war, knowing it to be inevitable. It is difficult, moreover, to see how the new Cabinet will be able to practice what they preach in the matter of economy. It will be impossible to carry on the administration of the government unless either fresh loans are contracted or fresh taxes established, and it is just because Rouvier and his colleagues on the Budget Committee were opposed to this that they brought about the fall of the Goblet Ministry.

Feeling at Berlin.

BERLIN, May 21.—Pending the issue of the Cabinet crisis at Paris official opinion here maintains a circumspect silence. The North German Gazette refrains from giving more than meager despatches concerning the developments in France. A frank expression of official hopes would have the effect of strengthening Gen. Boulanger's party and weakening the Opportunists, who are working to oust him. The Government receives full advices respecting every phase of the Ministerial negotiations at the Elysee. The latest despatches indicate that General Boulanger's position is unshaken and that a Rouvier-De Freycenet Ministry is likely to be formed which will adopt the Boulanger gospel of revanche and plans to attack Germany. Whatever may be the character of the next French Ministry the crisis has strengthened the war party in Germany and the war spirit of the people. The ever-recurring changes of the French Government recall Prince Bismarck's argument during the September debate that the internal instability of France was a chronic danger to Germany, as any day might bring a change of Ministry which would precipitate a war.

Material for the New Cabinet.

PARIS, May 22.—President Grevy has advised M. Rouvier to seek in the Budget Committee for material for the new Ministry. M. Rouvier has promised a reply to-morrow.

The Queen in Bad Health.

LONDON, May 21.—The Queen, who has left for Balmoral, is in a very delicate state of health, and very serious fears are entertained as to whether she will live through the year. She has become exceedingly enfeebled and resembles her uncle, King George IV., in her aversion to any kind of exercise, and in her intense dislike to appear in public. She has lost much of the nerve for which she formerly was remarkable, and is altogether displaying painful symptoms of breaking up.

Father Keller Released.

DUBLIN, May 21.—The Court of Appeal has rendered a decision in the case of Father Keller, the priest of Youghal imprisoned in Kilmainham Jail for refusing to testify regarding his connection with the plan of campaign. The Court of Appeal holds that the warrant for Father Keller's arrest was illegal and reverses the decision of the Court of Queen's Bench.

Russian Conspirators Executed.

ST PETERSBURG, May 21.—It is officially announced that Andrejushkin, Ossipanoff, Generaloff, Shewyroff and Uljankoff were executed yesterday for the part they took in the recent attempt on the life of the Czar.

ICE BOUND CAPE BRETON,

Immense Ice Floes Greatly Impeding Navigation.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 21.—The presence of such enormous quantities of ice on the Cape Breton coast at this season of the year is unprecedented. Navigation usually opens the first week in May and was open for a few days this year, during which several vessels made North Sydney, loaded and sailed up the St. Lawrence. Then immense bodies of ice suddenly shut them in again and have almost completely blocked the coast ever since. The result has been to cut off three weeks of the shipping season and will decrease this year's export of coal from 50,000 to 100,000 tons, involving heavy losses on collieries, and one fleet of 100 ice-bound steamers and sailing vessels. Some of the steamers which left Cape Breton ports ten days ago for Montreal have not since been heard of. One, the Circouna, has been battling with the ice since May 9, and put back to North Sydney with her bows smashed. Six steamers arrived at Sydney yesterday, including the Acuba, which was five days making the run from Louisburg, a distance of fifty miles.

A Swindler Who Didn't Die.

DETROIT, May 22.—A man named S. J. Dusseith, who was lately said to have been drowned off a ferry boat at Detroit, and whose beneficiaries sued the A.O.U.W. and the Ontario Mutual Life for insurance money, has been found alive and in a good state of preservation not far from this city.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

To-morrow will be the sixty-eighth anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria. How deeply this festival has been ingrained into the national life of Canada is shown by its universal and spontaneous observance. Every year it has become a day of more particular note. An explaination of the popularity of this day is not far to seek. The Queen has made herself popular, in the highest and noblest acceptation of that much abused term. Whatever is noble in official life, whatever is noble, thoughtful, gentle and charitable in social life, whatever is noble, and sweet, and pure, and loving, and gentle, and irreproachable in domestic life, finds a living exposition in the daily walk of the Queen for the past fifty years. For half a century "the fierce light that beats upon a throne" has revealed no blot upon her character. Her name has never been sullied with the breath of scandal, no act of cruelty, injustice, neglect or omission of duty has ever been laid to her charge. She has been a perfect model, as a monarch, a wife, as a mother, as a friend. She has had her joys; a nation has rejoiced with her; in her deep sorrows the tears of an empire have mingled with her own, and it is no wonder that the anniversary of her birth has become a fixed institution. It needs no statutory enactment to bring about its observance, no proclamation to remind the people of its approach. The 24th of May is an era in our national history from which events are dated. There are millions of children born on that day who have been given the name of the Queen and for years after she has passed away the day will be observed, if not openly and publicly, at least in heart by millions of the present generation. This year however, the observance of the Queen's Birth-day will be overshadowed by the festivities incident to the celebration of her jubilee year. but, though no set occasion of celebration may be undertaken, yet the nation will spontaneously revere and observe the day in a thousand ways, because to the thoughtful there is world of significance in the occasion. What magnificent progress in every direction has taken place during the fifty years of her reign! What marvellous development of marvellous resources! What expansion of the empire! What progress in science! Why, fifty years ago, June 20th, 1837, the first patent for an electric telegraph was issued. Now the flash of thought passes to every land in the Queen's vast Dominions, the electric pulse throbs under every sea, whitened by the sails and blazoned with the meteor flag of Britain. The—but this train of thought would lead to the consideration of an inexhaustable subject, and one can only regard with supreme satisfaction a reign unique in all progressive and noble aspects, and join with the prayer which will rise to-morrow with peculiar fervancy from millions of hearts—GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Loyal Sons of England.

Annual Lodge Sermon in St. John's Church.—Reception to Rev. Mr. Sibbald.

Saturday evening Rev. E. W. Sibbald, of Belleville, Grand Worthy Chaplain of the Sons of England, was met at the station by a deputation of Landsdowne Lodge No. 25, Peterborough. After supper at the Oriental, an adjournment was made to the lodge room over Long's confectionery store, when short addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Sibbald and others, and a very pleasant evening spent.

At a quarter to eleven Sunday morning the members of the Order to the number of one hundred attended divine service in a body at St. John's church, where a sermon specially adapted to the occasion was delivered by Rev. Mr. Sibbald from the text, Galatians v. 13:—

For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only, use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

The word liberty, said the reverend gentleman, needed no recommendation. It has a place in our hearts the same as air and light and law. There was no necessity of impressing upon his hearers the great privilege mankind enjoys in liberty. It is the watchword of British people and British institutions. It is the very essence of our elevation as a people. It appeals to our hearts as something all should aim after. Is there absolute liberty? Is there liberty pertaining to our physical life? None! We know that we are surrounded on every hand with limitations with regard to our physical life which we must observe or die. The law of physical life is—do, obey and live; do not, obey not, and die. If we exercise our minds in certain grooves or in certain ways it will be to our great injury, to the destruction of our life, physical as well as mental. So that even mentally we have laws which bind and limit us to act in certain ways which are most rigorous and must be observed. Neither are we as liberty in regard to the material world. We know that there are walls stronger than prison walls that surround us on every hand; mighty towers that guard egress to every part forbidden. We cannot attempt to pierce their depth. Then, I ask you,

WHERE IS OUR LIBERTY?

Is this the liberty which is spoken of by the apostle: "Brethren, ye have been called unto liberty?" What is liberty? It cannot be the disappearance of all restrictions. That is self-evident from out own consciences. It cannot be giving license to our desires. What, then, is true liberty? It is a constant restriction, a constant restraint—but it is the restaint of that which is injurious to us and that which would determine our lives in the lower grooves of existence, instead of exalting our lives. It means the suppression of the lower part of our lives to the exaltation of the higher and spiritual propensities. In other words, let the man suppress that which is least good in him, and he will become truly at liberty. Let him give free vent to his passions, to the development of the animal part of his being, and it will result most disastrously. If we give full liberty to our desires, there is nothing but slavery. But if we suppress these and seek the development of our higher life, then we are developing the divinity which is in man. By the restrictive laws which God has given us, the honest truth which he has impressed upon us in his church, man may be truly free, man may have liberty; but only by observing these laws, these small restrictions, will man have liberty.

But there is a possibility of giving to a people the highest form of liberty, and yet they could not enjoy it. In Europe, where liberties have been granted, nations have fallen back into despotism and barbarism and because the individual life had not been educated to a high appreciation of the true privileges that were conferred upon them. You may offer to a people all the liberty possible, but unless they are thoroughly educated in the law of moral life and God's truth, so that they may be able to there will be no advantages accrue from any liberties, any boons which may be conferred upon them.

This watchword of liberty is the very word which we cherish particularly as our own—as belonging to the people called the Anglo-Saxons. We know that that word has been born in that people, that all the civilized globe to-day is under the greatest obligations to the nation which, in her efforts towards true liberty, has advanced, not only herself, but the whole world. England has given forth the law of mankind. We claim that the great preponderance of these laws are just and good.

How, then, can we retain these liberties? In the first place, there is a necessity of a true and proper education of the people. Not simply a secular education is here required—but a knowledge of God's truth and a restriction and suppression of the lower parts of men's lives. This can only be attained by the earnest endeavors of the people to educate the people—to educate the people in the moral law of God. Then what shall we say of the church that seeks to keep in darkness the human mind, that does not educate her people, that withholds the light of nations. "I warn you," said Rev. Mr. Sibbald, "you especially who are my brothers in the vows and pledges of our noble order. I warn you to see that the truth of God ever be placed in the hand of our children from infancy. If you determine to maintain the high station of the nation which you represent, it must be by ever standing firm to the determination to keep the Bible as the great educator of our nation."

And we are to "serve each other in love." This is the GREAT PRINCIPLE OF PROGRESS.

If we desire to have true liberty it must be by the exercise of this grand principle which embodies in itself the elements of self-denial and self-sacrifice. And to the extent that any society of men conduce to the cultivation of self-denial and brotherly love, to that extent they are carrying out the destiny of the law of God in the welfare of humanity. Therefore any society, whatever it may be, is justified if it has in it as its controlling power this element of brotherly love, if it teaches men to assist each other in need and in poverty, if it seeks to make them give him his own coat and give it to his naked brother, if it seeks to go forth to the bed of the dying and to the orphaned offspring and seeks to train and uplift them, then such a society is blest of God. It is a part of the glorious institution of God. It is a part of the church in which we to-day rejoice, and to which we owe our rights, the light we have, the privileges we enjoy, and the advantages we have over other civilized parts.

It is imputed to us that there is a lack of sympathy between one part of our nation and another. But was this followed out in history? When during the last famine in Ireland, Britain sent fifty million dollars to alleviate the enffering, and sent from her own purse ten thousand dollars—though they were not of our own nation yet they were Britons, and as long as they are bound together under the name which constitutes that great nation, we know them as brothers. But when we desire to benefit men, there must be a certain desire on their own part to restrict those lower parts of their nature and obey the laws. If we desire higher principles in future, will it be by refusing to obey the laws we have at present? No. That is not the order of progress. With love, and with a spirit of kindliness, and fairness, and justice, characteristic of Englishmen, let us go forth and seek to obtain higher privileges. If we desire to be great as a nation we must have the spirit of self-sacrifice, we must be prepared to lay down our personal and individual interests at the foot of the throne, to advance the interests of the whole. Let us ever be ready to lay down our most priceless treasurers to acquire the privileges offered to us in the Word of God. We have examples in the brightest lives of the present time, and above all stands our good and glorious Queen, upon the highest throne on earth, the very embodiment of purity, of gentleness, of excellence in every part of life not only as a Queen reigning in love and impartiality; not only when she hears of a catastrophe in a coal mine sending her regards for those bereaved, not only as one who has the

WELFARE OF HER PEOPLE

as the highest desire of her life; but as a woman, as a mother, as one noble in love, in a court that is not only far above all others in its purity and high character, yet in a court that must have many temptations. We little know the temptations of such a high and exalted place, yet we know there are many; but she stands far above them, pure, gentle, a mother, a hind-hearted woman. And above all, he pointed the congregation to her character as an humble, penitent Christian, loving better to go out incognito and read God's word at the bedside of the sick and pray with the dying than even to reign upon England's throne; preferring to step out of her carriage at the cemetery to allow her poor servant, bereaved, have assistance home, and the Queen of England walk. Oh, my friends, while occupying the highest place on earth, she is an example, a pattern, to every mother, every daughter, every sister; and if we ourselves would manifest the same spirit, our nation would be great, our mothers would bring up children that would make great the name of all the earth; the life of our noble Queen would bring to pass in her subjects, such a life as would advance the kingdom of God, and hasten the glorious Sabbatic year—the millenium.

I wish you every blessing, I join you in your prayers for our good Queen and people, and our Order.

The church was filled will an attentive audience, that was delighted with Rev. Mr. Sibbald's excellent sermon. After the closing service, the members of the lodge returned to the rooms, where a cordial vote of thanks was passed the reverend gentleman, to which he replied briefly and suitably.

A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of

Mens, Boys & Children's Hats

ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

FELT HATS, NEWEST STYLES, 20c. EACH

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINIATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to ackowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheel-horses,
Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

The International Baseball Race.

The result of last week's play has not decreased Newark's lead. The visiting clubs have all been defeated by Hackett's great team, and unless unlooked for reverses should overtake the team on their western trip it may be taken as an assured fact that the championship will go to the club. Rochester, Buffalo and Toronto are well up for second place, with Jersey City, which has of late played winning ball, close behind, Binghamton next, Utica and Oswego bringing up the tail end. Toronto Footballers Beat the Buffalos.

BUFFALO, May 21.—The Association football match between the Toronto Football Club and the Buffalos attracted a large and fashionable audience at the Olympic Baseball Grounds this afternoon. The Toronto boys determined not to meet the same reverse as the Toronto Baseball Club did in their opening games here, if at all possible. The game commenced at 4.30. Buffalo having won the toss decided to play up field, defending the goal immediately in front of the grand stand. During the first half time honors were pretty evenly divided, both teams scoring two goals. After ends were changed the Torontos, who had been playing rather recklessly, settled down to work, and by superior play added two more goals to their score, winning the match by 4 goals to 2.

Results Tell.

The proof of the pudding is the eating, and the proof of the extraordinary power over pain of Polson's NERVILINE is in using it. Polson's Nerviline never fails to perform wonders in every case of pain. It cannot fail, for it is composed of powerful pain subduing remedies. It goes right to the bottom, and pain is vanished at once. Nerviline cures all kind of pain, internal or external. Go to any drug store and get a 10 or 25 cent bottle, and be delighted at its promptitude in doing its work. 6w21

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Biddel, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism, neuralgia, inflammation, coughing, and all external and internal pains. 2d20d

Lost to Him.

Sporting men want the earth. If a champion wrestler in a match turns his back on it he is lost.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

The Last Year, 1886.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by John McKee, Druggist. eodw21

She Was Saved

From days of agony and discomfort, not by great interpositions, but by the use of the only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Tender, painful corns are removed by its use in a few days, without the slightest discomfort. Many substitutes in the market make it necessary that only "Putnam's" should be asked for and taken. Sure, safe, harmless. 6dw21

An Open Letter.

MESSRS T. Milburn & Co., Nov. 25th, 1886 I wish I had used B. B. B., sooner, which would have saved me years of suffering with erysipelas, from which I could get no relief until I tried B. B. B., which soon cleared away the itching, burning rash that had so long distressed me. Mrs. Edward Remkey, Eastern Passage, Halifax, N. S. 2w20d

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

McGregor's Speedy Cure.

When we say McGregor's Speedy Cure is the only perfect cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion and Impure Blood, we are telling plain facts, of which hundreds upon hundreds can testify who have been restored to perfect health by its use. We would therefore advise you strongly if you are a subject of any of the above troubles to give McGregor's Speedy Cure a trial and be convinced. It is sold in 50c. and $1.00 bottles at John McKee's Drug Store. eodw21

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and sells them very cheap.

Driving Park Attraction.

To-morrow's races at the Driving Park, promise to be an unusually gratifying success. The entries are well filled, several good horses from a distance arriving this morning, while more are expected to day. Every race will be well contested, and the track being in superb condition, rare sport is expected. The Battalion band will be at the Driving Park in the afternoon. Races begin at one o'clock; admission fee, 25 cents.

The Theological Thermometer.

The present hot weather suggests the propriety of briefly suggesting to ministers the advisability of curtailing the services and sermons in their churches as far as possible within an hour. Of course ministers have full power in the matter, but during the hot weather the mercury is between short services and full congregations, or long services and small congregations.

“GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.”

They Paddled Their Own Canoe.

Saturday evening—in the gloaming—two young men—prominent members of a local canoe club—an equal number of young ladies—only one canoe—on the Otonabee—the treacherous water—the doubly treacherous canoe—didn't go (W)right way about it—upset—great Scott—splash and souse—Oh-h-h!—they get wet—helped out by some men close by. Finis—four wet, weary, jaded young people take a cab home. Moral—don't take young ladies for a canoe ride until you can manage the pesky thing.

Turnbull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

Sign the Petition.

Before beginning his sermon, in the Charlotte street Methodist church, Sunday morning, Rev. Mr. Wallace mentioned that petitions were being circulated throughout town in favor of the passage of Mr. Jamieson's bill, now before Parliament. As it was a righteous and consistent measure, and one calculated to strengthen the Scott Act, and make it more effective, he hoped all those desiring to see the Act a success, would avail themselves of the earliest opportunity of attaching their names to the document. Prohibition, he believed was not far off, and in the meantime they wanted everything done that could be to make the Scott Act more workable. It might be remarked that during the minister's reference to the subject a prominent member of the congregation retired from the church.

What Might Have Been.

Friday night a town councillor, who had been attending the midnight session of that renowned civic body, on entering his house about one o'clock found the back doors open. His wife, on being questioned, said she had carefully fastened them before retiring. On making a tour of inspection it was found that bold burglars, more or less, had pried up the kitchen window and effected an entrance to the house, leaving a small block under the sash to be ready for instant exit in case of emergency. Then the doors were all opened ready for operations, and had the gentleman been a little later a burglary would have been committed. He evidently dropped in on them before they had done anything, a search over the premises failing to discover any further traces of the would-be thieves. Moral: keep your doors and windows securely fastened at night, loose the watch-dog, load the blunderbuss, and sleep with one eye open.

Notice of Visit.

Professor J. D. Kay, from the establishment of B. Laurance & Co., Montreal, will be at Mr. John McKee's drug store on 21st and 23rd of May for consultation. He is specially qualified to adjust spectacles for every requirement of the eye, and secure to you such advantages as are only to be found in the largest cities. No matter what the difficulties he will, where relief can be afforded to, fit you to perfection, giving you the most certain aide to sight—B. Laurance's Spectacles—which have an acknowledged reputation for superiority everywhere. The Brazilian or Scotch Pebbles of his own manufacture, are delightfully easy and pleasant to wear. There is no glimmering—wavering—dizziness, or other distressing sensations produced by their use. They comfort, strengthen and preserve the sight, and last so long that they will not cost you one cent per week to wear. Avoid using common spectacles which are ruinous to the sight and require changing so often that they actually cost you more in the end than best. Every spectacle and Eye-glass is stamped with the initials “B.L.” They are imitated but never equalled. Note the date of the visit—For two days only, Saturday the 21st and Monday the 23rd of May, at Mr. John McKee's, druggist, Peterborough.

Trent Valley Canal.

The following letter is from a man at Barrie, but it is of at least equal interest to us in this town. It was addressed to the Mayor of Barrie. Up to the present time no action has been taken in the matter:—“Having met a number of the gentlemen from Peterborough who have taken an interest in the promotion of the Trent Valley Canal Scheme, they think the town of Barrie which will benefit as much, if not more, than any other town on the line of route, should take the initiative in starting the formation of a delegation to wait upon the Government, at this session of Parliament, to ask an appropriation for what is termed the Lake Simcoe Section, that is from Balsam Lake via. the Talbot River, into Lake Simcoe, a distance of about 20 miles. I might remark that the canal is improved from Lakefield, (9) miles from Peterborough, to Balsam Lake and is being used for local traffic. The Peterborough people will at once co-operate in any action your council may take for laying before Government the importance of completing the Lake Simcoe Section, as they look upon it, that once it is into Lake Simcoe they will push the outlet both ways to completion. I need not draw your attention to the benefits that would accrue to this town by having a continuous water route to Montreal, from the fact that grain could be shipped at least 5c. per bushel, less than it now is, and that would mean draining the grain from the whole surrounding country to Barrie for shipment, it being the head of navigation for this district.” Peterborough town council has taken action in the matter; let the others follow suit.

SIXTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY.

The Local Events of the Day.

How the Queen's Birthday will be Celebrated in Peterborough.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

“Where and how shall I spend the 24th?” is the question every man, woman and child has been asking of themselves for the past few days or weeks. For the benefit of those who have not yet decided upon the manner in which they will celebrate the Queen's birthday, the following list of attractions have been prepared for their consideration:—

At 9 a.m., on the Ashburnham grounds, a baseball match will be played between teams representing the Lock Works and the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company. This will be one of the most exciting events of the day. A considerable quantity of money is up on the result. A small admission fee to the grounds will be charged.

At 1.30 p.m. another baseball match, Lindsay vs. Peterborough, will be begun. Immediately following the baseball match an interesting programme, comprising bicycle, hurdle and foot races, will be begun, for which valuable prizes are offered. The directors and managers of the P. A. A. A. are doing their best to make the afternoon's sports successful.

At the Driving Park, races will be called at one o'clock sharp. There are three events—three-minute trot, open trot, and half-mile running race—for which over $200 in prizes are offered. All entries must be made to the secretary by to-night. For particulars see posters or officers of the Association. Mr. Alex. Elliott is the secretary.

At Idyl Wild a regatta will be held. Handsome prizes are offered for sailing, paddling and rowing. The steamer Golden Eye runs an excursion to Idyl Wild to-morrow.

The Salvation Army will hold a big drunkards' demonstration—something not yet seen in Peterborough. Thirty officers and about 200 soldiers will be present, led by Adjutant Bolton. There will be processions, drills and services all day, culminating in an open-air demonstration in the evening, followed by “hurricanes of melody and earthquakes of power” at the opera house.

Early in the day a special train from Toronto will convey to town an excursion, under the auspices of the Orange Orders of that City. Three uniformed lodges with bands will accompany the excursion. The excursion comes by way of Port Hope, and it is expected to be a mammoth affair.

Besides these public events, there will be numerous little pic-nics of a private nature, some bound for Bridgenorth, Lakefield, or other adjacent watering-places; others will seek shady nooks and pleasant spots along the banks of the Otonabee and spend the day in luxurious indolence—fishing, eating, sleeping and fighting mosquitoes.

Receiving the Excursionists.

How the Orangemen will Welcome Their Toronto Brethren.

A monster excursion from Toronto will arrive at the Midland station to-morrow at 1.30 o'clock. On the arrival, the excursionists will be met by the Orange Societies in uniform, a procession will be formed and, preceded by the band and also interspersed with bands, will take up the following line of march: From G. T. R. station to Charlotte street; along Charlotte to George; north on George to McDonnel; east on McDonnel to Water; south on Water to Hunter; west on Hunter to Rubidge; south on Rubidge to Simcoe; east on Simcoe to Water; north on Water to Murray; west on Murray to Central Park where the procession will break up. Information has been received that 1400 tickets have been sold for this excursion.

Peterborough Juniors vs. Lakefield Juniors.

This match was played on the P. A. A. A. grounds on Saturday, Peterborough winning by 36 runs. For the winners, Hamilton batted well for the long score of 52, going in first and carrying his bat. Kincaid hit hard for his 23, the two Bouchers also showing good cricket. The bowling of A. Bell for Lakefield was exceedingly good, and very few of the runs were got off him. For Lakefield, Muchall and A. Bell made a long stand, both showing very nice form for boys so young. Bell was very unfortunate in being given out l.b.w. from the eighth ball of an over when he seemed well set. Blomfield also played well for his score. The bowling of Hamilton and Hay was good as was the fielding, Dumble shining particularly in the latter department. It is only fair to the Lakefield boys to say that their Peterborough opponents had much the advantage of them in age and size (some of the Lakefield boys not being much taller than their bats); and they are to be congratulated upon the plucky way in which they played an uphill game.

To Prohibitionists.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR:—This is no time for friends of temperance and prohibition to lay down the sword. Rather it is the most critical point in the history of our temperance legislation. Better never to have adopted the Scott Act than now to desert it, just on the eve of its being improved by the Jamieson Amendment. We know the Scott Act has not been worked perfectly; we know this. But we know too that it is but a midway step towards future and better legislation. Now to be weak and feeble or indifferent is to be criminal. While the enemies are at work manipulating councils and measuring governments, shall we be idling in the king's vineyard?

All who conscientiously supported the submission of the Scott Act, must surely rally now to the clarion call of duty and right.

Many say it is wrong to prohibit. The ten Commandments are all prohibitory, save one. Most of our legislation is prohibitory. We cannot do otherwise if we wish to save the people. By the license system the iniquity and the guilt rest on the christian people; by the Scott Act and Prohibitory Laws the crime rests on the hearts of those who engage in the traffic.

As the waves of the ocean, or the tide at the sea shore, advance and recede, so we do not hope our cause to do otherwise. Only let the faith be strong and the heart brave, and ultimate victory is ours. And it will surely be the grandest conquest known in history. Arouse!

Yours faithfully,
BANNELL SAWYER.

Personal.

Miss Willoughby, daughter of Rev. N. R. Willoughby, is visiting Mrs. H. S. Griffin.

Sergt. Max Hamilton, in a cricket match Saturday afternoon between “C” Infantry school and the Toronto Colts, played a splendid game, his score of 80 topping the list and winning the victory for his side.

Sir Samuel Leonard Tilley, C.B. K.C.M.G., Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, passed through town Saturday night en route to Toronto. He got off the train here and marched about the platform, inspiring the exhiliarating breeze which was wafted from Spalding's Bay, and taking a birds'-eye view of our town. His Grace Archbishop Lynch was on the same train.

Mr. John Lokkhart, leaves town to-day to take up his residence in Sunderland, Ont., which place thus gains a most estimable citizen, whose loss will be severely felt—in Peterborough—in the church, social and musical circles in which he moved, enjoying general respect. His many Peterborough friends wish him success and happiness in his new sphere.

Mr. John F. Perchard, for many years in the flour-milling business in Peterborough and elsewhere, has become associated in the general insurance business with Mr. E. E. Henderson. Mr. Perchard will represent the several companies with which Mr. Henderson is associated both in Peterborough and surrounding places. He belongs to the solid and reliable, steady, industrious class which makes the solid citizens of our country. With such a team the interests of the several offices represented will be efficiently promoted.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC
FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.
I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the [illegible] papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.
It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

"A SPECULATOR'S SCHEME."

The Attempt to Give American Railways Control of the C.P.R.

MONTREAL, May 21.—Sir George Stephen was asked to-day what he thought of Premier Norquay's answer. "Why, it is no answer at all," replied the baronet. "A lot of speculators are at the bottom of the whole affair. What they propose doing is to build a road from Winnipeg to connect with the Northern Pacific. The real object of the move is not to furnish additional accommodation to the country, because that is not required, but to give the American railways the control of the Canadian Pacific. Once the Northern Pacific reaches Winnipeg the Canadian Pacific Railway is cut in two. The vital question for the Government and for the people of Canada to decide is therefore whether Canada's transcontinental road is to be maintained in its entirety."

"Does the Government at Ottawa realize this, and does it purpose taking steps to protect you?"

"It is far more a question for them than it is for us. If any interference with the C.P.R., such as is contemplated, is allowed, the expense and labor which the country has been put to to obtain an independent road from ocean to ocean is lost. Had Canada been satisfied to get to the Pacific through American territory it would not have been necessary to build the C.P.R., but the great object of so much outlay was to be independent of the American roads. But, as I already stated, the object of this move is to hand over the control of the C.P.R. to the American roads."

MISS KELLOGG'S MISHAP.

While Gathering Sea Weed She Falls Into the Surf.

HALIFAX, May 21.—Clara Louise Kellogg, the prima donna, met with an accident yesterday while [illegible] about the city with Strakosch, her manager. At Point Pleasant, where the Atlantic Ocean rolls in with great force, Miss Kellogg alighted from her carriage and went down to the water's edge to gather sea plants. She was standing on a rock when her foot slipped and she fell into the water. She was struck by an immense wave and carried out some distance. Strakosch rushed to her rescue and succeeded in getting the singer ashore. Miss Kellogg is suffering from the shock, and will be unable to sing at the special matinee announced for to-day.

A Horrible Death.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Edward Friends of Buffalo, assistant engineer of the steamer Lycoming, was killed in a horrible manner to-day. The steamer was discharging her cargo at the Rock Island Railroad dock, and the chief engineer started the engines working in order to force the water out of the cylinders. Friends slipped and fell into the crank pit and the ponderous machinery crushed him into a shapeless mass. His body will be sent home for burial.

New Police Magistrates.

The Ontario Government has appointed the following gentlemen police magistrates for the counties mentioned: James Grace of Brantford for Brant, Duncan Kippen of Perth for Lanark, J. C. Judd of Brockville for Leeds and Grenville, W. H. Spencer of Monck Township for Muskoka, Victoria and Simcoe.

NITRO-GLYCERINE EXPLOSION.

Nine Houses Wrecked and a Loss of $40,000 the Consequence.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 19.—The Evening Journal's Duluth special gives additional particulars of the explosion of four tons of nitro-glycerine eight miles from that city yesterday. Nine residences and as many other buildings were totally or partially wrecked and the trees in the vicinity were torn into shreds. The shock and concussion were plainly felt in Duluth and many panes of glass were broken in Oneota, five miles distant. The loss is estimated at $40,000. The nitro-glycerine was valued at $6000, and the loss in unmixed materials was also heavy. No one knows what caused the explosion.

Powderly to Wend Out the Anarchists.

CHICAGO, May 19.—General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, stopped in Chicago on his return from Denver. He remained only two hours, which he spent in company with G. W. Foreman Griffiths. Mr. Powderly said his reception in Denver was most cordial, and when he spoke the Catholic archbishop and nearly all the Protestant clergy were on the platform. Mr. Griffith says Mr. Powderly is determined to weed the anarchists out of the ranks, and he (Griffiths) had offered several suggestions touching that point, but what they were he declined to state.

Express Robbery in Texas.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 19.—Passenger train No. 508 on the International and Great Northern Road was stopped last night at McNeil Station, a few miles north of here, by fifteen or twenty robbers, who robbed the express car of an unknown amount. Some fifty shots were fired, and one man was slightly wounded in the hand. Fifty mounted and armed men have gone to McNeil.

Walnut Logs for Glasgow.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21.—A Picayune special from Alexandria says: Rafts containing 400 walnut logs came down Red River yesterday from Indian Territory. They will be towed from the mouth of Red River for shipment to Glasgow. The Inter-State Commerce law rendered it necessary to float the logs instead of shipping them by rail, as has been customary.

The Failures for the Week.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The business failures during the last seven days number for the United States 183, for Canada 23, a total of 188, as compared with 167 last week, 188 the week previous, and 167 for the corresponding week last year. The failures in the South are very light, and the other sections of the country are below the average, perhaps, except in the Pacific States and Canada, where casualties are on the increase.

Storms in Great Britain.

LONDON, May 21.—Fierce gales have prevailed and great damage has been done in various parts of England. In Kent the wind blew a perfect hurricane. Snow and hail storms have been experienced in the lake districts of Scotland. In London the trees in the park were injured, and many were blown down. Many wrecks are reported on the coast.

Forged Letters of Credit.

LONDON, May 21.—The Times says: We are informed that extensive frauds have been committed on the agents of an American bank by means of forged letters of credit which were presented simultaneously by a gang of skilful thieves in six or eight leading cities of the continent. The forgers have not been caught. It is expected they will come to London.

A French Tichborne Case.

From the St. James Gazette.

There is a French Tichborne case on the tapis. A property, estimated at £300,000 sterling, is claimed by the son of a man who has been missing for thirty-five years. This claimant has lately come of age, and he alleges that he has been kept out of his inheritance through the machinations of the Obovreuse family. Some time ago, when M. Camescasse was Prefect of Police, the same claimant was arrested for having created a disturbance before the door of the town house of the Duc d'

TROUBLES OF THE TRADES.

The Difference Between the Master Carpenters and their Employees.

TORONTO, May 21.

The following statement of the troubles between the Master Carpenters' Association and their employees was handed into The World Office last evening by Mr. Wm. Simpson, Secretary of the Master Carpenters' Association:

"With a view that the public might be aware of the facts of the case in the overtures between the carpenters' society and that of the employes, I am requested to give you a brief summary of the correspondence. In June of last year an agreement was entered into between the societies by which an advance of 5c per day was paid on the existing rate, the minimum rate to be 25c per hour, 9 daily qualified carpenters, in addition to [illegible] we conceded the nine hours per day [illegible] Saturday afternoon.

"In January of this year we were served with a notice and draft agreement which called for a further increase of 5c. per hour, and the demand 'that it shall be imperative on the part of all employers of labor in connection with carpenters, joiners and wood-working machinists, that none but trades unionists be employed.' To this we replied, saying 'that taking into consideration the change to nine hours and the advance of wages in July last, it is not desirable to make any change this season.'

"The next step then opened a correspondence with a committee of the employers, and were invited to send a deputation to the employers' meeting, which they did, and stated as a principal grievance that some men were working on Saturday afternoons, and further that some of the men were working under wages.

"The attention of the deputation was called to the correspondence the society had with prominent employers of carpenters' labor in several of the large cities of the United States and Canada, from which it appeared that the rate of wages paid in Toronto was equal to the highest of all cities referred to.

"The next proposition from the men was, 'That we are willing to settle the wage question and all other grievances by means of arbitration,' to which request we have answered as follows:

"TORONTO, May 20, 1887.

"Mr. Wm. Harp, Secretary Carpenters' Society.

DEAR SIR: Your communication of May 5 was duly laid before the regular meeting of this society held last evening. The meeting expressed itself to the effect that they did not know of any existing grievances, and that as far as the wage question was concerned, they understood the matter was agreed to except an objection on the part of your society to the expression 'duly qualified men' to which we intend to adhere. As to the grievance, so-called, on which your deputation told so much stress, viz: 'That some men continue to work on Saturday afternoons,' we decline to be dictated to in this matter. If either as a matter of choice on the part of the men, or in compliance with the request of the employers, with a view to accommodate a customer at times, work is done, such matter must be left as a matter of arrangement between the employer and employes.

"Your intimation that you are willing to settle the wage question and all other grievances by means of arbitration does not strike us as the best way to remove existing, if any, and the creating of other grievances. We therefore decline the proposition. As you know, all employers in the building line have in their dealings with architects to perform their contracts to their entire satisfaction without appeal of any kind, the right to arbitrate is not recognized, while in the cases of the men they can quit work at any time when not satisfied. The application of arbitration to the price of beef or barley or any other commodity which each person has to sell and another to buy, is just as reasonable as the one you suggest, unless the employers had also the benefit of the same arbitration to fix the price of wages we should be paid for either the prepared materials we have to furnish or the completed structures for which your services are required. WM. SIMPSON, Secretary M. C. A."

The carpenters are to hold a meeting this evening, when their grievances will be discussed and Mr. Simpson's letter to Mr. Harp considered.

WHERE NIHILISTS ARE FEW.

The Czar and Czarina Take Salt from the Don Cossacks.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 21.—Yesterday was another fete day among the Don Cossacks at Novo Tcherkask. The Czarina entered the town in state. She rode alone in an open carriage, drawn by four white horses. The Czar and his suite followed on horseback. The Czarina rode through the main avenue of Novo Tcherkask, the thoroughfare being decorated with mottoes, banners and flags and spanned by triumphal arches. Masses of people lined the route and all greeted the Imperial family with enthusiasm. The Imperial party went to the palace where they received bread and salt on a silver dish from delegates representing the nobility, the artisans and the factory and railway employes. The colliery owners presented the Czarina with a vessel fashioned out of anthracite coal and mounted with silver, the whole weighing two pounds. The Kalmuck clergy after this offered the Czarina a dish depicting a Buddhist sacrifice and also a chalice. In the evening the town was illuminated and the streets and gardens were thronged with people cheering for the Imperial family.

A Spring Song.

In the spring the small girl's fancy
Is apt to lose its grip
On the many things it shouldn't, don't you know?
Then with fourteen yards of clothes line she hies her forth to skip,
On the walk, with all the children in the row.

In the spring policemen weary who would not, by sport disturb,
May amble meekly through the gutter on their way,
Or balance, if they're skittish, along the narrow curb
Lest the fatal rope should reach them in its play.

In the spring, perchance, while strangers will Ignore the door
Of the domicile wherein that damsel dwelt;
Then we'll know she treats the rooster by the hundred dumps or more,
And our hearts with grief will not exactly melt.

—R. L. Sylvester, in Judge.

JAPAN AND AMERICA.

Contrasts in Customs Noted by a Japanese Student in This Country.

While I hear in most cases two noises in your homes—the piano sound or the clatterings of a sewing machine, mostly in the forenoon—you will hear invariably in many of our families in Japan two noises, especially late in the afternoon—the cradle songs repeated by the kind mother lying beside her baby, who joins her songs with inarticulate exclamations broken by cries, and the loud and musical readings of the master or husband, who is resting at his ease after having finished his daily duty in his office—I mean our official class.

While you call a thing which is made up of three pieces of bread and meat, including mustard—a "sandwich," we call a third part of anything "sambuichi." While our sen to iccho (three and one) make four your sandwich is resolved into three pieces.

While our common people used to shave their hair and make a bald head when they had repented of some sins which they had committed, and in this disguise they would go around the streets and subsist on alms, some of your criminals may escape to Canada or the northwest and grow long locks and disguise as the red man.

While drinking wine on funeral occasions is a custom with most of our people, the smell of the alcoholic stimulus does not seem to attend upon such occasions here.

Holding a tobacco pipe in the mouth while walking, as is seen in your streets, is only seen at home, on picnic occasions, or in foot travelers.

While playing billiards and cards seem to be your principal gambling media, we used to have cock-fighting as a chief agent of accomplishing our gambling desires.

The dancing-schools are made almost exclusively for girls, except those men who intend to acquire the dancing art for their profession. I have seen in some of your dancing-schools little boys of 10 or 13 years practicing proudly some waltz with the teacher, a sight which would not fail to surprise my eyes.

While our house is so built to have the top part of the building heavier than its lower portion, thus making it able to receive equally shocks from the frequent earthquakes which haunt the country so often, your houses have their heaviest part near the foundation.

We do not wear gloves in parties, concerts, balls, or at weddings, considering it impolite to do so, but you seem to regard it to be in accord with ceremony to wear the article on those occasions. Not only that, but you carry gloves both in winter and summer when you go out—most of your genteel class of people. In our case, if young men wear gloves when they go out, even on very cold days in our northern climes, some of which are as cold as some of your Canadian winters, they are called "feminine." Even ladies do not take gloves with them when they go out, except in very cold days. They never carry them in summer, although they are very careful otherwise to keep their face and hands as white as possible. But there is a class among our poor women who go from house to house on New Year's day or other holidays, playing on the guitar. They wrap their hands, which are constantly exposed to the sun, with white cloth resembling somewhat your white kid gloves, used in ballrooms. Among our male society who always wear gloves there are men who sit on the public highway as the repairer of shoes, and also our firemen, who wear thick cotton gloves when they go to fires. These three persons are nearly the only persons at home who would not go out without gloves. Gloves are to them, therefore, as necessary an article as a simple ring is to your married persons. I never used to wear any kind of gloves, either in my summer travels or in the midst of our coldest winter, which is so cold in some places as to make most people wear very thick mittens.

While you seem to like to ride on horseback, keeping your body straight or bent a little backward, our old way of riding is to stoop a little forward. While you ride side by side when there are two riders, we ride in a line.

Our stockings are divided at the end into two portions, the one for the large toe and the other for the rest of the toes, somewhat in the shape of your mittens.

While your officers carry their sword turning the sharp edge of the blade downward, our old way of carrying a sword is to turn the sharper edge upward.

While you have long arms compared with your body, we have short arms and comparatively long body.

Our old maps represent mountains in profile, while you represent them on your maps as though looking down them.

We hang on the upper beam of a front room near the entrance of our house a large mask of the smiling face of a happy woman—fat, slanting-eyed, open-mouthed, red-cheeked—instead of a horseshoe as you do, with the motive of inviting luck into the building. For preventing the advent of devils into the house we attach the head of the sardines together with a little branch of a prickly tree to the entrance posts, gate posts, kitchen doors, or strips of paper of a few inches' length inscribed with the term "Guarding Card," which was written by a priest in the temple whence the card is issued.

While according to your custom one has to pay the expenses incurred in playing billiards or to sacrifice something on his part when he has lost his game, we have to drink a cup of wine when we are beaten in games—especially games which are played with hands, so that those who are fond of drinking will not be disappointed, but rather be glad when they have lost the contest.

Some fields near our habitations at home are so nicely kept, so "neat" from weeds, as to disappoint a naturalist in botanizing, while some vacant lots or grounds adjoining your dwelling houses are so barren of weeds as to disappoint your gentlemen-horse in rolling upon them.—Detroit Free Press.

MONEY THROWN AWAY.

While Tory protectionist organs are endeavouring to create a boom in the iron trade they had better devote a little of their energy to another branch of the iron business not so directly commercial. In the month of June, 1882, Sir Charles Tupper, on behalf of the Government, gave a cast iron pledge to the effect that the Trent Valley Canal scheme, being a necessity and a feasible plan, would be vigorously prosecuted by the Government. This was a terrible anticipatory stretcher. This promise has been deliberately broken. In all the five years that have elapsed, with all the unexampled prosperity showered upon the country by the N.P., with all the taxes laid upon the people with such generous inconsiderateness, with the magnificient surpluses over which the politicians were wont to boast—with everything in favour, during five years not five miles, not three miles, not two miles of the canal have been completed. The estimates have been brought down this session, but not a single dollar appears for any new portion of work, nothing but a miserable re-vote of a few paltry thousands for, finishing a little patch which has been under contract two or three years. And yet the Government have not suffered for lack of being reminded of their duty. Deputation after deputation has gone to Ottawa, crawled to the feet of the ministers and in words of adulatory apology, begged the Government to do this section of the country justice. And all the effort has been a flat failure. No head, except in lying and delusive promises, was paid to the protests and representations of the delegates sent from this district to urge on a great work. And now another deputation is to be sent on another begging expedition. And much good it will do. The Government will give promises, but they will be given only to put off the importunate deputations till the next time. We can't trust any more promises of the Government, we must have a trifling percentage, at least, of performance to credit in order to gain trust in the Government. The people do not want to send delegations, they want to send opposition members of Parliament from their several constituencies, who will declare by their votes on the floor of the House that the policy of sending members of Parliament to Ottawa to support the Government, and then having to send expensive delegations at the people's expense to do the rousing up of the Government, which these members should, if they "are worth their salt," do themselves, is an idiotic and extravagant one. A dozen corporations, this one among others, are to send deputations at the people's cost to Ottawa; these will be expensive trips, members of the councils will have a jolly holiday trip, and with no more beneficial effect than going as a delegation to the man in the moon. There are badly needed local improvements, costing only small sums, yet these are put off because the money must not be spent lavishly, yet the Council votes unanimously to put the town to the expense of a holiday excursion on an errand, which will be fruitless, as dozens of similar ones have been in the past. But the city fathers will have "lots of fun," and get lots of promises if they don't succeed in getting a few hundreds appropriated for the building of another section of the Trent Canal. Judging by past results, the money spent on these deputations might just as well be thrown into Spalding's Bay—and better, too, for if it were thrown there in the shape of mud, it would go further towards filling up that pestilent pond than all the appropriations the delegation will secure, will go towards building a hundred yards of canal. The money spent on deputations is thrown away, that is, judging from the past out come of like expenditures.

A Great Remedy.

There is great hope for the bow-legged man. An eminent surgeon says that crooked legs may often be made straight by being broken.

LOCAL NEWS.

Bargains in Boots.

During the improvements in their premises Messrs. Stenson Bros. are giving immense bargains in Boots and Shoes. Daily renewals of stock keep it up to the highest mark. Call and be astonished at the bargains they offer.

Golden grains of truth. Turnbull is selling Ladies' Taffeta and pure Silk Gloves that are cut to fit the hand; every pair numbered. You will not regret having walked an extra block after you have tried a pair.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

A Trial Solicited.

The Town Clock Grocery store can supply you with the choicest groceries of every kind at lowest figures. Call upon W. J. Morrow, at the Town Clock Grocery, and be convinced.

HENT'S BRICK TROWELS and the Cincinnati plastering trowels are noted for their excellent quality. Plastering and Kalsomining Brushes up to 10/0, for sale by GEORGE STETHEM. dw

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and sells them very cheap.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Service of Praise.

The service of praise which was rendered with such success in St. Paul's Church on Monday, May 9th, will be repeated in George street Methodist Church on Thursday, evening, May 26th, under the direction of Mr. Parker. Admission free, silver collection. It is to be hoped that all who did not hear this really fine entertainment will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Turnbull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

What a Whopper!

The following from the Lindsay Post is a rare sample of newspaper braggadocio:—

"Why not invite the Uxbridge Organ Co. to visit Lindsay? They are talking of going to Peterboro' and have visited that place. Lindsay is a much more convenient and attractive place than Peterboro', the centre of a far wider district, inhabited by more refined, intelligent, progressive and above all music-loving people; and when these points are fully impressed upon the Uxbridge company they will undoubtly come here without even a beano. Still, the poet says, 'Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast,' and on this account the organs may be a greater necessity amongst our neighbors."

A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of

Mens, Boys & Children's Hats

ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

FELT HATS, NEWEST STYLES, 20c. EACH

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINIATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to ackowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheal-horses,
Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodwe

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Siddal, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism, neuralgia, inflamation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 2d20d

Since last October I have suffered from acute inflammation in my nose and head. For a week at a time I could not see. I have used no end of remedies, also employed a doctor, who said it was impure blood—but I got no help. I used Ely's Cream Balm on the recommendation of a friend. I was faithless but in a few days was cured. My nose now, and also my eyes are well. It is wonderful how quick it helped me.—MRS. GEORGE S. JUDSON, Hartford, Conn. w21

No one need despair of finding Millinery to suit them while Turnbull is in the trade. He keeps a well-selected stock of choice goods, and as new lines appear in the market, has new Shapes and Trimmings arriving almost daily.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC

At the time of selling our stock of Dry Goods to Sheehy & Co., we had fully determined to give up that particular branch of our business, but as previously announced, did not do so, for various reasons. However, it is now our intention to dispose of the Dry Goods Trade, and have consequently made up our mind to

CLEAR OUT THE WHOLE STOCK AT COST PRICE AND UNDER

This is one of the Best Dry Goods Stocks in the Country, having been imported from the best markets direct to ourselves. Remember, this will be a GENUINE CLEARING OUT SALE. While we will still retain our Clothing Trade, yet we will during this sale, offer ALL our Ready-made Clothing, for Men and Boys, (with all kinds of furnishings) at COST PRICE. REMEMBER, THE WHOLE DRY GOODS STOCK MUST BE SOLD OUT.

SPORTS OF SPORT.

TORONTO, May 24.

Three thousand people made the journey to Woodbine on Saturday, in just as glorious looking weather as ever shone over this fair city, to be present at the opening of the Ontario Jockey Club's May meeting. The results were as follows:

THE TRIAL STAKES.

Dash—For all ages, $50, to second horse, entrance $10. Mile and a half. Mr. Cockburn's Fenella, 3 yrs, by Leamington—dam by Lexington, 107 lbs. (Garrison) 1

Time, 1.52.

Betting—10 to 4 on Brisk, 2 to 1 each against Linda, Lady Dilvoil and Oliver, 5 to 1 Wildair, 6 to 1 You Should.

The Race.—After seven false starts the field got well with You Should in front, followed by Brisk and Oliver. As they ran down the back stretch Jessie sent his mount to the front, and at the half mile pole was leading by a length, Brisk second and Lilith third. Rounding the turn Douglas on Brisk made his run and soon overhauled the leader, who dropped back to Brisk. Turning into the stretch Brisk had secured his lead and coming home won in a canter by two lengths from Lilith, who beat You Should a head for the place.

THE QUEEN'S PLATE.

The second race was the big event of the day, the summary:—Mile heats.

The Queen's Plate, 50 Guineas—For horses owned, trained and raised in the Province of Ontario; $400 to a second horse, $100 to third; entrance $20 each, $10 forfeit, $10 additional to start; second horse to save stake. Ontario Jockey Club's ch. m. Mamie May, 4 yrs, by Leamington—Lady Primrose (Garrison) 3
Time, 2.15, 2.16½, 2.16.

Betting—2 to 1 against Bonnie Duke, 3 to 1 each Fred Henry, Wild Beast and Bright Star, 5 to 1 each Mamie May, Lady Ogden and Lady Primrose, 10 to 1 each Jessie Allen, 20 to 1 each Lily Belmont and Bonnie.

The Race.—This was the race of the day. No less than fourteen started out, and as they paraded by the stand on their way to the post they presented a beautiful sight. The start was a good one, Fred Henry, Mamie May and Bonnie Duke being the first to show in front in the order named, the others well bunched, with Campbell's pair bringing up the rear. In the first quarter, however, Fred Henry opened a gap, and passing the stand led by two lengths, with Mamie May second. Rounding the turn Fred Henry increased his lead, and at the quarter pole was leading by three lengths with the good Maggie May second. Bonnie Duke, Harry Bower and Wild Rose close up. Going to the half Aunt Alice and Fred H. closed up on the leaders and as they began the last turn all closed a little, the order into the stretch being Fred Henry, Maggie May, Fred H. and Bonnie Duke. In the run home Fred Henry, Bonnie Duke, Fred H and Maggie May drew away from the others; half way down the stretch Maggie May dropped back beaten. Her stable companion, Aunt Alice, then came with a rush and joined the leaders, a hard struggle took place, which and going home Fred rode a winner by a head. Fred Henry after two lengths in front of Aunt Alice, third. When all were returned to the scales he was received with cheers and he richly deserved them, for it was his riding that won the race, which was the best contested Plate ever run for in Canada.

ST JACOBS OIL
THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY
WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM.

Sir Roger Tichborne's Acute Rheumatism—Cured.

115 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.
February 22, 1887.

For the last four months I have suffered from rheumatism, and every time I sat down and got up I suffered the most acute agony. In fact I was not able to move my legs without pain, and when going down stairs the pain was dreadful to bear. I was recommended to send for a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and try it. I did so, and to my great surprise and delight I found it an almost instant cure as regards the pain. I have only used one bottle up to the present, but I now can sit down, get up, and walk about without the slightest pain.

Rheumatism 13 Years—Cured.

Mr. James Maloney, Sr., Orillia, Ontario, says: I have been a sufferer with rheumatism for the past thirteen years, and have tried during that time, many of the remedies advertised for it, but all without effect. I was induced to use St. Jacobs Oil. With its use the pain vanished and has not since returned.

Nothing Equals It for Rheumatism.

Capt. Chas. W. Crowley, President of the Canadian Sailors' Union, Princess street, Kingston, says: St. Jacobs Oil is indeed a most remarkable discovery; I think there is nothing equal to it for the cure of rheumatism and like diseases.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 25, 1887.

PETERBORO'S CELEBRATION of Our Gracious Queen's Sixty Eighth Birthday.

A Big Day for the Town.—Baseball, Races and Athletic Sports.—Rain Almost Spoils the Fun.—"Down the River."

At 6 a.m., the big Battery guns boomed out a royal salute from the Central Park, and the Queen's birthday was inaugurated.

Rain had fallen through the night, leaving the ground very wet and heavy, and a cloudy, threatening sky did not tend to brighten expectations of a fine day. However, as the rain kept off, and occasional glimpses of blue sky were caught between the rolling clouds, everyone prepared for a day's fun which was not interrupted until about 4 when the threatened shower fell and continued steadily to descend for two hours, after which it cleared up and "all went merry as a marriage bell" once more.

Flags, banners and bunting displayed generally added a gayety to the streets which was enhanced by the moving crowds of people below, attired in gay holiday costumes. The first event of the day was the

Baseball Match

on the P. A. A. A. grounds, between nines representing the Lock Works and the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company. The grounds were in good condition, and in addition to the covered stand, which has heretofore seated the audiences, another large stand had been erected near the gate for the accommodation of the spectators. There was a fair attendance at the forenoon's game, which was closely contested, the "Hams" winning by a score of 10 to 5. For the first five innings the game was very close, but in the seventh the Lock Works' team became "rattled" and piled up the errors, of which their opponents took good advantage, sending in six men over the home-plate. Barring this innings the game was on the whole steadily played, though the lion's share of the honors must fall to the batteries of each team—Honan and Landy for the Lock Works, and Galley and Callahan for the Hams—who played well. Their support in the field, though, was poor, particularly in the Lock Works' nine, whose defeat may be safely attributed to the careless fielding and reckless playing of some of the basemen and out-field. There were, however, some good exhibitions made, which were applauded by the spectators, Tabor, centre field for the Lock Works, making some fine long catches, while Cahill on the second base played coolly and with precaution. The fielding of the Hams was better all round but not what it might have been. The batteries for each team did nearly the whole work. Mr. Billings acted impartially as umpire. Only seven innings were played, game being called at noon. Score :—

Lindsay vs. Peterborough.

Baseball interest was, however, centred in the afternoon match between Lindsay and Peterborough. The visitors arrived on the noon train, and play was begun at 2:45. Attired in their neat suits of modest gray, the Lindsay men made a charming offset to the blue-and-white uniforms of Peterborough's stalwart ball-tossers. The weather was cool, but pleasant, rather dark, with rain threatening, which kept off for some time. Both stands were well filled with spectators, a large percentage being ladies, while around the fences reclining on the grass were a hundred or two more.

Peterborough went to bat and from the first pounded Little's balls all over the field. Landy got to first on a hit, and Brennan followed with a fly square into Lindsay's second baseman's hands, which he muffed, but caught Landy on the way from first. Brennan only got to second base though, other Peterborough strikers being caught out on the fly. Lindsay then faced Fitzgerald's puzzling delivery, which they seemed utterly unable to understand. The first man was sent to first on balls, but he too ogle got to second base on Hall being struck by a ball on the right ankle and put out.

In Lindsay's innings the Lindseys became unnerved by "rattling" by the home team's heavy batting, and played wildly, enabling four men home in quick succession. They soon recovered, and put out their opponents in equally quick order, a fine catch by Mason closing the innings for Peterborough with four runs. In this innings also the Lindsay men stopped singles to reach the ball, but by smart playing got in one run.

The third innings witnessed another massacre of Little's balls by the Peterborough men who hit heavy and often, but smart fielding on the part of the Lindseys retired them for only one run. The Lindseys were again easily retired for a big 0, without a single man reaching first base, two being pitched out by Fitzgerald, and the third stopped on a short fly.

Peterborough's slugging in the fourth innings, assisted by Lindsay's muffs and errors, piled up the runs. However, some good catches were made, the innings closed with six more runs to the credit of the home team. Lindsay then went to bat and two men were put out in short order, when Peterborough took a turn at loose fielding, with the result that four men were sent in to increase Lindsay's score. In this innings the Lindsay men hit pretty freely, evidently just beginning to "catch on" to Fitzgerald's pitching.

Peterborough's next innings opened with a big hit by Moore, who reached third base on it, but slipping on the cushion he hurt his leg badly. Lindsay played well in this innings, and retired their opponents for a single run. This they tied by making several good hits off Fitzgerald.

Just as the innings closed rain began falling, and as the baseball rules allow a game of five innings, Peterborough was awarded the game by a score of 12 to 6. Wm. L. Flanagan, of Kingston, umpire. Score :—

Athletic Sports.

In a few minutes after the close of the match, the 100 yards race was called. A drizzling rain was falling, but that did not prevent the races. Mr. J. L. Kirby acted as Starter and Mr. Wm. Hamilton and Dr. Hillday as Judges. The following races took place :—

100 YARDS.—1st, Gus. Moore ; 2nd, Archie Moore ; 3rd, F. H. Brennan ; 4th, E. C. Miller.

ONE MILE BICYCLE RACE.—1st, H. Haultain ; 2nd, V. Halliday (very close).

220 YARDS.—1st, Archie Moore ; 2nd, J. Fitzgerald.

TWO MILE BICYCLE.—1st, Alex. Gibson, 2nd, Halliday ; 3rd, Haultain (very close).

120 YARDS HURDLE.—1st, Archie Moore ; 2nd, J. Fitzgerald.

440 YARDS.—1st, Archie Moore ; 2nd, C. Wilkerde ; 3rd, E. C. Miller.

The sports were concluded about 5:30. The prizes were all handsome ones, well worth the winning, and those who witnessed the afternoon's games were well pleased, though the rain caused a disappointment. The directors are to be congratulated on the success of the day's sports. They did everything in their power to make the proceedings pleasant.

The Driving Park Races.

The races at the Driving Park attracted a good attendance of visitors and the races themselves a good field of entries. The turf at the beginning was in a capital condition. The Fire Brigade Band enlivened the occasion with well played selections. The following gentlemen satisfactorily filled the positions of judges : Messrs. J. J. Daly, Lindsay, (starter), Ira Hall, Oshawa, and D. Ferguson, Port Hope, (timer).

The first event called was

THE OPEN TROT.

"Fanny B," "Factory Girl," "Gray Ned," and "Black Diamond" came to the score.

In the first heat, during the first half mile the fight for first place was a game and close one between Fanny B and Black Diamond, but Grey Ned turned the race into a procession led by himself to the wire which he passed under, the winner in 2.45, with Black Diamond, Fanny B and Factory Girl following in the order named.

In the second heat Grey Ned led from start to finish which was made in 2.40, the field following in this order, Black Diamond, Factory Girl, and Fanny B.

The third heat was comparatively uneventful, Grey Ned keeping his prestige, winning this heat and the race, Fanny B second, Black Diamond third and Factory Girl fourth.

THE RUNNING RACE

was competed for by "Albert L," "Idylwild," "Minnie P" and Gray Ned, who in spite of his color, proved the winning dark horse.

The first heat was an exciting race between Gray Ned and Idylwild, the latter leading till a few strides of the home stretch when Gray Ned, responding to a call for more speed forged ahead and came first under the string in 53, Idylwild next, followed by Albert L. and Minnie P.

In the second heat the horses got off pretty well together, though Idylwild, a little slow on the start, pulled up to the others and joined the beautiful bunch that went sailing down the back stretch. Near the last turn the other horses left the fight between Gray Ned and Idylwild, who came down the home stretch neck and neck but with the former gaining till he touched the wire, the winner in 53.

Minnie D. dropped out the third heat and the trio went in with Idylwild leading the first quarter ; Gray Ned collared her, sailing along side and side till the last turn when he took the pace in earnest, winning the heat and the race in a clean gamey manner, creditable alike, both to animal and mount. About the middle of the home stretch "Albert L" bolted and dashed through the fence on the pole side sending his rider to grass, but without serious injury to either.

THE GARTERS' CONTEST.

This exciting event brought up Hillier's "Brown Dick," Ryan's "Little Jim" and Well's "Fred R. A good send off was got, though starting the horses was like starting a freight train. Fred. R. was content with a back seat, but the two others made a team till the home turn, when Little Jim took a fancy to lead the funeral procession, arriving a neck ahead at the cemetery gates. Protests came in upon the judges, betting men asserting that the brown horse had been "pulled". All bets were declared off, drivers were changed and a 200 yard dash settled the matter in favour of Brown Dick though the purse was equally divided

The rain spoiled the latter part of a very jolly time, race meeting.

The Directors of the Park by their excellent management of race events secure the appreciation of all lovers of horse flesh and sport. With the half mile track in Ontario there is no reason, except a financial nature, why some of the best steppers should not be got for the coming midsummer meet.

Cricket.

PETERBOROUGH VS. CAMPBELLFORD.

A Peterborough team journeyed to Campbellford yesterday to play a match with the local club of that place and succeeded in winning by 55 runs. The Campbellford club has a new ground this season, and this was the first match played on it. A good crease has been nodded, which with care will make excellent wickets. The out field is now rather rough ; but in a season or two Campbellford will be able to boast of one of the best grounds in the district.

Play commenced with Peterborough at the bat. The first three wickets all fell by catches at point. Stratton and Rogers infused some life into the game, 50 runs being totalled before Rogers was taken at long-leg for a steady 12. Smith followed, but first-ton was immediately bowled for a well-played 32. Newbald and Smith partnered well, the latter playing steadily while Newbald did the hitting, his 12 including two fine on-hits for 3 each. Hamilton made 5 (including a leg hit for three), and Long 7 (including and off for 3), and the innings would up at 94, Smith being caught off his own hand after a very steady innings for twelve. Mitchell bowled well for Campbellford, getting six wickets.

Campbellford then went in and began well, the first three wickets realising somewhere in the neighborhood of 30 runs, Nancarrow playing very steadily for his runs. This rate, however, was not kept up, as the total score reached only 39. It seemed to be Stratton's day, as he secured 7 wickets for 19 runs and Smith 1 for 14. The fielding of both sides was very good, with a few exceptions, chiefly caused by the roughness of the out field. Score :—

Lacrosse Match.

The Riversides went to Hastings yesterday and played the "Ironolads" of that village, and left the victory in the hands of the home team by a score of one goal to none. The Riversides labored under several disadvantages—they played against men much heavier than themselves, on rough ground, up-hill, and against a strong breeze preceding the rain which, after one hour and ten minutes' hard play, during which the Ironolads scored a goal, began to fall, and so ended the game. Riversides' goal was located among a lot of stumps and boulders, but notwithstanding all the disadvantages, the Peterborough lads played a plucky game, fully as well as their adversaries. The play throughout was very friendly, and marked with general good feeling. Mr. C. B. Coughlin acted as referee. The following are the names and positions of the Riverside team :

At Idyl Wyld.

The threatening weather in the forenoon deterred many who would have otherwise done so, from attending the excursion to Idyl Wyld on the steamer Golden Eye. About 150 boarded the steamer, and after a pleasant sail down the river reached Idyl Wyld in good season. The regatta was unavoidably postponed on account of the rough state of the water, and the races announced will be held on Jubilee Day. Drawing for the sewing machine will take place on Wednesday, June 8th.

The Salvation Army.

Tuesday was a field day for the Peterborough division of the Salvation Army. Every train during the morning brought detachments from outposts, while those nearer headquarters drove in in crowds. Thirty officers and over 250 soldiers were present, nearly all of whom were in the processions, which were mammoth affairs, led by Lindsay brass band. In the afternoon a big gathering was held in the Opera House, led by Adjutant Bolton ; in the evening the "Drunkard's Demonstration" was held. The Opera House was well filled with people. The famous Jim Landy and the quintette from Fenelon Falls, Capt. Blackburn in his sailor suit, Capt. Ireland, the scarlet runner from Ottawa, and other officers of renown were there. Jim Lundy sang songs in the Scotch dialect, accompanied by a lady banjoist and violin. The meeting was a great success, eight persons going forward to the penitent bench during the prayer meeting. Some of the worst drunkards in the division, who had been saved from death through the Army, gave their testimonies.

To-day on the 11.35 C. P. R. train, Commissioner Coombs arrived from Toronto, and a Council-of-war is being held by the officers this afternoon. The Commissioner was carried at the head of a procession from the station on the shoulders of four men, the band leading. At the Council-of-war it is expected a location for the new barracks will be chosen, and a decision arrived at as to whether a divisional headquarters building will be erected for the training of Cadets and other purposes.

This evening in the barracks a big meeting will be held, led by Commissioner Coombs, with the Quintette assisting.

The Orange Excursion.

At ten o'clock in the forenoon people began to congregate at the G. T. R. station, and by noon an immense crowd had assembled to witness the arrival of the Orange excursion trains from Toronto, which brought a large influx of visitors to town from Toronto, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Port Hope and other places on the line. After a tedious wait through noon hour, the first train arrived about one o'clock, the second train half an hour later, both heavily laden. It is estimated that fully 1500 people were on hand. While waiting for the latter arrival, the fife and drum bands of the first detachment played several stirring pieces. Upon the arrival of train number two, order of procession was formed, the Fire Brigade, preceded by Mr. C. W. Hall, as Marshal, leading, followed by the Peterborough Orangemen ; then the several lodges bearing the County and the District Masters of Peterborough, Lindsay, private lodges, Mr. J. L. Hughes, of Toronto, County Master and Junior Grand Master of Ontario, and other Toronto gentlemen ; next came the visiting lodges of Trenton [illegible] Orangemen, about half-a-dozen in number, in uniform. They made a pretty sight in red and blue jackets, white and orange ornaments, some carrying axes, others swords, and each body preceded by its own fife and drum band. As they marched along, the bands took their turns at playing, so that there was a continual round of music from first to last of the procession. On reaching George Street, the Campbellford lodges, the procession filled between the open ranks of Keenan lodge of Cobourg and McWilliams's lodge of Tree Blues, with uncovered heads, who then took their place in rear of the procession as it passed along. At street corners and other points of vantage the visiting uniformed lodges performed their evolutions, forming stars, and other difficult feats in drill, which made a pretty appearance. After completing the route of march, the procession disbanded, and the excursionists spread over the town and set about enjoying themselves. The rain, though, made things rather uncomfortable. At seven o'clock in the evening embarkation was made for Toronto again. The excursionists expressed themselves highly pleased with Peterborough, though seen under disadvantages.

It is a matter of regret that the presence of the Toronto visitors should have developed so disgraceful an amount of rowdyism and disorder. On their arrival the appearance of the visitors hardly suggested the anticipation of the blackguardism that marked, especially the latter part of the day, but a general and apparently unlimited consumption of whiskey brought, in many cases it is said, by the consumers in flasks, provoked scenes to which the town has hitherto been a stranger. Free fighting, ribald shouts and riotous ructions broke out with alarming frequency. At one time during the afternoon a turbulent crowd held possession of Hunter street at Dolan's corner, and for a time blocked the entrance to the Oriental Hotel, and at another time a riotous crowd surged and fought and swore on George street in front of the Cox Buildings. The police force was ridiculously inadequate in numbers to the task of keeping order, and the authorities should seriously consider whether it is not advisable, in case a similar crowd should invade the town to make large special additions to the force. A disgraceful row, which but for the starting of the train, might have ended in a riot, took place in the evening at the station. The bonds of brotherhood did not prevent the visitors from hitting whenever a head appeared, regardless of whether the recipient of the blow wore the hitter's colors or not. The unprovoked and brutal assault on Mr. Harry Drake, an (inoffensive spectator and a law-abiding citizen, partially an invalid,) by several roughs, was an abject piece of blackguardly cowardice. It is an unfortunate fact that the Toronto roughs did not add credit to the manner of keeping Her Majesty's birthday, and ground is afforded for the doubt whether it is wise that the celebration of a day which all classes and creeds delight to observe, should be given a distinctly partisan aspect to the danger o provoking feelings of party hostility which under ordinary circumstances would not have been aroused. There were, however, among the visitors a large number of respectable citizens, to whom it was a delight to extend the hospitality of the town, and who had no sympathy whatever with those who so disgracefully misconducted themselves.

Personal.

Mr. Wm. Dixon returned Monday night from a business trip to Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. D. J. King left for Kamloops, B. C. to-day.

Rev. Messrs. Wallace and Tovell are in Millbrook attending the District Methodist Meeting.

Mr. Henry W. Darling President of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and Ex-President of Toronto Board of Trade, and Mr. B. E. Walker, General Manager of the same bank, are in town to-day.

Mr. Herbert Dawson left this morning for Port Arthur, Ont., where he has secured a position in a large dry goods store. Herb. will be greatly missed by the young people about town.

A Drunk Captured.

Acting-Chief Adams arrested F. Desautelle yesterday for being drunk. Fined $2 this morning.

The First Practice Shoot.

The first monthly practice shoot of the Peterborough Rifle Association will be held to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the butts. On Thursday of next week the first monthly match will take place.

A Serious Fracture.

In a football match at Campbellford yesterday, between Norwood and Campbellford High School clubs, Charlie Brennan, of Norwood, brother of Dr. Brennan, of Peterborough, had his arm broken in two places.

The Band Concert.

The Court House Park was thronged with people Monday night. They were delighted with the music furnished, and expressed the hope that the band would, as in other years, give the weekly concerts through the summer season which are so much enjoyed by our citizens.

A Few Days Longer.

Prof. J. D. Kay, from B. Laurence's establishment, Montreal, will remain in Peterborough till Friday morning, 27th. Any one desiring to have spectacles fitted by a skilled optician should make an effort to call on him at J. McKee's drug store, as early as possible.

Entertaining His Class.

Monday evening Rev. Mr. Wallace entertained the members of his Bible class to an "ice-cream social" at his residence. A very pleasant evening was spent in singing and conversation and the other usual concomitants of a Christian social gathering.

A Big Orchestra.

An orchestra of 10 or 12 pieces will furnish the music for "Old Soldiers," which will be presented by the Amateur Dramatic Company in the opera house on Friday evening, under the auspices of the P. A. A. A. The play has been under constant rehearsal for a couple of months, and will be well put on.

THE WEATHER.

Moderate to fresh winds, shifting to west and north-west ; fair and a little cooler, preceded by a few showers in the morning.

Don't worry if you are out of employment. Write to Mr. Kowdy, 41 Wellington Street East, Toronto. Send stamp for reply. dw6nos.

A Proposed Re-union.

It is proposed to hold a re-union of the members at present in town of the old "Protection" (hand engine) Fire Company, which at one time held the safety of the town at the muzzles of its nozzles. The proposal, which embraces the idea of a pic-nic or something of that kind, has not yet taken definite shape, but the matter is being talked up, and if the veterans of the old 'Protection' take as lively a hand in the project as they did in a fire in the olden days, the proposed re-union will be a grand success.

Notes of the Day.

The Peterboroughs are quite proud of their victory over their old-time opponents, the Lindsays.

There wasn't a bit of ice-cream or soda water in town last night at half-past seven.

A few rockets and fire-crackers were set off in town last night. The Mayor's proclamation kept things pretty quiet during the day.

A Runaway.

At 1.35 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Robt. Smart's horse was standing in front of Miss Sandersog's store. In the wagon there was a new sewing machine. The horse, a spirited one, became frightened, and struggled to free itself from the post-ring so violently that the bridle flew off its head. An attempt was made to stop it, which failed, and the horse started up George street at a terrific rate. It ran a long way before it was stopped. The machine was thrown out and badly broken, but no further damage was done.

Yesterday's Picnics.

There were numerous private excursions and pic-nics down the river and elsewhere, Bridgenorth being a favorite rendezvous, no less than three large parties going there from town. The rain knocked off a good deal of the pleasure usually to be found at such places, and drove many of them home early in the evening.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1887.

AT THE CAPITAL.

AFTER ITS BRIEF HOLIDAY THE HOUSE RESUMES.

OTTAWA, May 25.—A couple of dozen hefty-brained statesmen struggled into the House this afternoon and went through the form of holding a session of the Canadian Parliament. To-night the members were increased to nearly 100, and for the first day after a holiday they did not do bad. The evening train from the west brought in two carloads of Western Ontario members, including Hon. Frank Smith, Hon. Senator Allan, Hon. Senator McKeadsey, Hon. John O'Donohue, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Peter Mitchell, Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, Messrs. Cockburn, Denison, Paterson (Brant), Cargill, Landerkin, Boyle, Clark, Wallace, Marshall, Casey, McKay, Porter, Edgar, McCulla and others.

The principle subject of discussion here just now is the Lieutenant-Governorship of Quebec, rendered vacant by the retirement of Mr. Masson. Speculation has been rife for two days on the subject, a good deal of the time widely astray. For instance, there has been much talk about the appointment of an English Protestant to the place. This is practically out of the question. The only two men it would likely be offered to are Alonzo Wright and Ex-Senator John Hamilton, who retired to make way for Mr. Abbott. Of these two Mr. Wright refused the offer once before and Mr. Hamilton would not take it now. There is a general feeling reported from the province that Sir Hector Langevin is the man for Galway, or rather Spencerwood, both from his eminent ability and long public services, and there is not a shadow of doubt that if the Minister of Public Works feels that way inclined the honor is his. It is scarcely likely, however, that Sir Hector will resign his portfolio. Sir Adolphe Caron told his friends to-day that he would not take the position. My own opinion is that ultimately he will. At least the chances are that way, in which event Judge Angers will probably retire from the bench and enter the cabinet to fill the vacancy. Judge Angers was for many years in the Quebec Legislature and Government. He is of admirably great ability, a strong character, belongs to the Castor wing of the party and possesses the confidence of the church. But there is no knowing what may turn up. The vacancy will not likely be filled until after Parliament adjourns. Ex-Premier and leader of the Opposition Taillon is in town to-night in communication with the leaders, and there is no knowing what a day may bring forth.

During the recess Sir Chas. Tupper visited Washington, arriving back last night. It has not yet been officially stated what his visit to the American capital had to do with the settlement of the fisheries question.

Finally arrived this day, consigned to the Dominion Government, one returning officer, J. R. Dunn to-wit, he of Queen's County, N.B. What to do with him is now the question. The Speaker announced Mr. Dunn's attendance and that he was ready to submit himself to the wishes of the House and there the matter ended. It seemed that nobody knew exactly what to do, but a motion may be expected to-morrow.

In the House to-day Hon. Mr. Thompson introduced a bill to amend the Supreme and Exchequer Courts Act and to make better provision for the trial of claims against the Crown. A new court called the Court of Claims is established, the judge of which will receive $6000 a year and the registrar $3000. The Board of Arbitrators is abolished, but the present arbitrators are to be continued as official referees.

Mr. Scarth introduced bills respecting the Manitoba and Northwestern Railway and the Saskatchewan and Western Railway.

Petitions were presented from all parts of the House praying for amendments to the law of criminal libel, providing that a paper must be proceeded against in the province in which it is published. Among the petitioners were E. F. Clarke, John Cameron and E. E. Sheppard of Toronto.

The only question by a member of any public moment was Mr. Prefontaine's enquiry as to whether the amnesty covered the case of Gabriel Dumont.

Hon. Mr. Thompson replied that the amnesty included all persons who had taken part in the rebellion who had not committed homicide except upon the field of battle. Gabriel Dumont would, therefore, be able to say whether or not the amnesty applied to his case.

On motion of Mr. Shakespeare the case of F. B. McNamee, in connection with the Esquimalt graving dock, was referred to a special committee.

The matter of winter communication between Prince Edward Island and the mainland came in for a good deal of discussion on a motion for papers. The people across the straits are not satisfied with the vessel services. They had the steamer Northern Light and grumbled. Then they were given the Newfoundland whaler Alert in addition and still there were murmurings deep and hoarse. If they were given a whole fleet of ocean steamers and a free lunch on each they would not be satisfied. What they want is a tunnel and a tunnel will cost about as much as the assessable value of the Island.

Mr. Blake read a letter from Sir John to Senator Howlan, issued on Jan. 29 last, in which it was stated that the Government continues its interest in the tunnel project and had under consideration the project of making further examination into the matter. Mr. Blake said this was a bid for votes and Sir John laughed and told the leader of the Opposition he ought to be happy if he could write a letter like that. To tell the truth the document is so ingeniously worded that the Islanders might hope for everything while it promised nothing.

These bills were passed through the Committee of the Whole—respecting the St. Gabriel Lever and Railway Company, the Goderich and Canadian Pacific Junction Railway Company, the Kiscardine and Teeswater Railway Company, the Ontario and Quebec Railway Company and the Manufacturers' Insurance Company.

The following bills were read a second time: The Southwestern Railway Company, the Temiscouata Railway Company, the Oshawa Railway and Navigation Company, the Londonderry Iron Company, to wind up the Picton Bank, the Quebec and James' Bay Railway Company.

Mr. Edgar's bill to amend the Election Act was taken up.

Mr. Thompson explained that the Government were bringing in a bill to cover the matters taken up by Mr. Edgar as well as other matters, and the member for West Ontario dropped his measure.

Thereupon the House adjourned, it being then not quite 10 o'clock.

A return brought down to-day shows that 1,113,626 bushels of grain were carried over the Intercolonial Railway from River du Loup to Halifax between July 1, 1886, and March 31, 1887, on which the freight was $91,353.

Another return contained the petitions for the appointment of a junior county judge for Elgin. They are two in number, one signed by fifteen members of the bar in favor of W. H. Doherty, and the other signed by twenty prominent electors in favor of T. W. Crothers.

A delegation was in the city to-day from Montreal and had an interview with the Minister of Militia in regard to granting further assistance to the Dominion Rifle Association for sending a team to Wimbledon.

A. M. Burgess, Deputy Minister of the Interior, leaves on next Saturday on an official tour through Manitoba and the Northwest. Mr. Burgess will probably visit Banff for the purpose of inspecting the improvements now being carried out in the National Park.

The tide of immigration continues. According to the returns received by the Department of Agriculture the total arrivals in the Dominion from January, 1887 till April 30 last were 39,856 as compared with only 23,728 in the corresponding period of last year. Of the total of this year's figures 17,699 settled in the Dominion. The majority of these settling across the border are from the continent, while on the other hand the settlers locating in the Northwest this spring have been mainly from Great Britain. The Canadian arrivals, however, include a number of Scandinavians as a result of the favorable representations made by relatives who settled in Manitoba and the Northwest last year. The officials of the department are of opinion that the tide of Scandinavian emigration which has been flowing so long to the Western States will be directed to the North-west should this year's arrivals send home favorable reports.

About 200 Canadian veterans of the American Rebellion have applied for permission to enroll themselves as part of the Grand Army of the Republic. If permission is not given, they will form an association. Weather Prophet Wiggins has bobbed up to the surface with prophetic chaos once more. He says the seismic disturbances in Mexico will continue till September and that in October there will be an earthquake in Eastern Canada, the New England States and Europe.

Notice is given of five new Government measures. They are: An act to amend the Dominion Lands Act, Mr. White; to amend the Weights and Measures Act as respects the contents of packages of salt, Mr. Costigan; to amend the Electoral Franchise Act, Mr. Thompson; to amend the Dominion Franchise Act and to amend the act respecting the Department of Agriculture, Sir John Macdonald.

A DISASTER IN PARIS.

The Opera Comique Burned and Many Persons Killed.

PARIS, May 25.—The Opera Comique took fire this evening and the whole building is now wrapped in flames. Fourteen persons who jumped from the widows are dead and forty-three were injured. It is probable that many were crushed to death in the galleries, but at present this is uncertain.

The Origin of the Fire.

PARIS, May 25.—The fire broke out during the first act of the opera "Mignonne." One of the wings caught fire from a gas jet and the entire stage was immediately enveloped in flames. The fire soon spread to the whole house. Madame Ergvillier and Messrs. Taquin and Boquard were on the stage when the fire broke out and all the actors ran out in their stage costumes. The audience got out easily, but the gas was turned off before all had left the building and it is feared some were left in the upper tiers.

The roof soon fell in sending up showers of sparks around. With the exception of Madame Sellier, who perished in the flames, all the actors escaped, though several of the supernumeraries were injured severely.

Particulars of the Tragedy.

PARIS, May 25.—Five bodies terribly burnt were conveyed to the National Library. Among them was the body of a woman clasping a little boy in her arms. The firemen showed the greatest courage.

Messrs. Goblet, Thibaudeen and Gragnon were on the spot soon after the fire started, and they remained throughout with the fire officials. The military club rendered great assistance in the work of rescuing the people. Nineteen persons are now known to be dead, many of them supers. An artificial fire apparatus, which had been placed in position in readiness for the burning of the palace in the second act, rolled down from its place near the roof and exploded below.

Women half-clad and carrying their costumes fled from the stage screaming, and the supers and members of the chorus were terrified. Some of the latter fled with nothing on but tights. The flames spread with such rapidity that in fifteen minutes the stage was a vast furnace. Several actors escaped by climbing to the roof on the side of the Rue Marivaula, where they were rescued. The audience was delayed a few minutes by dense smoke and insufficient light. The director of the Soleil with his wife and two children escaped without injury. The killed include four firemen. There was not a frantic rush in the theatre, but it is believed that the staircase became blocked. M. Tasquer implored the audience to remain seated until the exits were opened, which they did. If they had made a rush for the doors the loss of life would have been terrible.

The police were unable to restrain the crowd who besieged the building enquiring for friends inside, until a military cordon was called. One man, who wanted to rescue his brother and sister, raved and tore his hair and menaced with a stick the people who stopped him from rushing into the blazing building. The scene outside was one of the wildest excitement. Falling embers struck horses in the surrounding streets, causing them to plunge and rear. Flames shot out of every window, forcing the crowd into the narrow streets, where the crush was terrific.

A figurante says there were 120 persons on the stage when the fire broke out. She heard the glass falling like a hail storm, but told the other girls not to mind it. But while she was speaking a column of flame burst through the wings with a roar and all rushed pell mell from the stage.

Many policemen were injured. It is still unknown how many persons were unable to escape from the doomed building. Only a fortnight ago M. Stenackors called attention in the Chamber of Deputies to the dangerous condition of the Opera Comique, which was the oldest theatre in Paris. The Figaro also called attention to the same thing after the recent twelve-hour benefit performance.

The iron curtain was lowered in front of the stage and thus prevented the fire from spreading immediately to the auditorium and allowed the audience time to escape. The men who carried away the money chest report the auditorium quite empty. Many persons who were unable to trust themselves to walk the narrow ledge of cornice around the building jumped off in their terror. One woman coolly walked all around the cornice, while the flames were bursting above, until she reached a fire escape. The victims were almost all singers.

The streets in the vicinity of the burned theatre were crowded until an early hour this morning. Mr. Sewall, Solicitor of the British Embassy, said the audience showed great calmness when the alarm was given. When the gas was extinguished he groped his way to the balcony and saw people in the streets laying straw mattresses to receive the persons jumping from the windows. He was ultimately rescued by firemen.

The Killed and Injured Number Sixty.

LONDON, May 26.—The Havas News Agency of Paris places the number of persons killed and injured by the fire in the Opera Comique last night at sixty. The theatre was completely destroyed.

The Stanley Stakes.

LONDON, May 25.—The Stanley Stakes for 2-year-olds was also run at Epsom to-day, and won by Mr. Ernest's colt Van Diemand's Land. Summary:

The Stanley Stakes of 10 sovs each, 5 ft., with 100 added, for 2-year-olds. Colts, 126 lbs.; fillies, 123 lbs.; the owner of the second horse to receive 50 sovs, out of the stakes; the Epsom course; 5 furlongs (about).

PARNELL'S HEALTH.

THE HOME RULE LEADER A BROKEN DOWN MAN.

LONDON, May 25.—Parnell will probably take the advice of his physicians and go to the seaside for the Whitsun recess.

Mr. Parnell's illness, of the reality of which there is no doubt, is not the less seriously regarded by his followers of the Parliamentary party, because they are permitted to know nothing of its nature or cause. The Irish leader is a most uncompromising man. Personally confidential friends among his colleagues he has few, and even to these many of his movements are a complete mystery. Any which they are entitled not to penetrate, he dislikes to have his condition discussed, and will answer no questions save by a positive assurance that he was rather ready at one time, but is now all right. One of the physicians of the Parnellite party tried in vain the other day even to learn who Mr. Parnell's doctor was. Last year, just when he was laid up with a gastric attack, he consulted several doctors, in each case taking elaborate precautions to prevent their knowing who he was. It is this secretiveness that accounts for the various conflicting stories as to his health that are current. It is said though that since the Times published the alleged the simile of his letter on the Phœnix Park outrage he has exhibited more evident signs of mental and bodily distress, and, according to a late colleague, his followers say that attack has shattered and perhaps permanently broken the health of their chief, just as the Irish attacks two years ago aged and shattered Trevelyan. This is visible to the eye, but as for the statements pretending to give the nature of his ailment, probably not even his own family know what now is the matter.

A Lesson for the Liberals.

LONDON, May 25.—Prof. Leon Levi, the well-known political economist, has written a letter in which the instances the successful results of the union of the Italian states, the Swiss cantons and the German kingdoms as an instructive lesson to Liberals against the policy of the separation of Ireland. "The Liberals," he says, "do wrong to follow Mr. Gladstone in his ill-conceived measures. The relations between the integral parts of the Kingdom are matters above party politics, and ought to be dealt with very cautiously, at first by resolutions of both Houses of Parliament. However far local government be extended, it must not touch the powers of the central Ministry and the all-disposing Imperial Parliament."

EGYPT'S SALVATION.

ENGLAND WILL GOVERN THE COUNTRY FOR THREE YEARS.

LONDON, May 25.—The Anglo-Turkish Convention relative to Egypt provides for the maintenance of all existing firmans and the neutralization of the Suez Canal, and guarantees, internationally, the inviolability of Egypt. It also provides that the British shall withdraw from Egypt in three years, unless the country is threatened with danger either internal or external. England shall, after the withdrawal of her troops, supervise the whole Egyptian army for a further two years, with the right to re-occupy, with or without the aid of Turkish troops, if order is disturbed or an invasion is feared. Certain branches of the Egyptian administration will be speedily settled without fresh discussion.

All the powers except Russia co-operate with England to expedite a settlement and England made every possible concession to arrive at an understanding with Turkey. The contingency of eventual military movement by way of the Suez Canal will form a subject for future discussion. The convention is received with favor in all quarters at Constantinople.

The Novoe Vremya of St. Petersburg says the convention places Egypt under the perpetual tutelage of England. France and Russia, the paper says, are expected to proclaim that the Porte has no right to dispose of the future destinies of Egypt, inasmuch as Turkey has no proprietary right in Egypt, but merely the right usufruct.

THE O'BRIEN GOES EAST.

He Will Travel Through American Territory to Montreal.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 26.—Mr. O'Brien left the Falls for Montreal by the New York Central to Albany, thence to Montreal via Rouse's Point, at 4 this afternoon. He was accompanied to the depot by a deputation of friends. He complained of pain in the back and side. The people cheered him as the train pulled out of the station.

Change of Programme.

MONTREAL, May 25.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Irish National League held to-night, it was announced that as Mr. O'Brien would not arrive until 10.40 p.m. to-morrow night, the demonstration is to be put off until Friday evening. When he arrives to-morrow night, he will be informally received by the presidents of the various Irish societies.

Preparations at Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 25.—The Executive Committee of the Irish National League have completed arrangements for Mr. O'Brien's arrival. He will arrive at Bonaventure Depot at 8 o'clock, and from there will be escorted by torchlight procession. He will then address an open air meeting in Chabollies-square, after which some of his friends will tender him a banquet.

Not so Held as He Was.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., May 25.—Mr. O'Brien stopped here for one or two hours on his way to Montreal and evaded the crowd that was at the depot to meet him. He was driven quietly out in the country and back to the depot and resumed his journey to Albany. He will rest at Albany to-night and set out for Montreal to-morrow morning.

An Engagement Cancelled.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—Wm. O'Brien has cancelled his engagement to lecture here on June 2.

THE QUEEN DEEPLY TOUCHED.

The Congratulations Extended to Her Gracefully Acknowledged.

LONDON, May 25.—The Queen announces that she is deeply touched by the congratulations extended to her on the anniversary of her birthday by her subjects in India and the colonies and her British subjects residing abroad.

THE CANON ADMITS THE CORN.

A Clear Confession of a Palpable Act of Plagiarism.

LONDON, May 25.—Canon Fleming, who was accused of plagiarism by the Pall Mall Gazette, writes to that paper that the use of a part of a sermon delivered by Dr. Talmage of Brooklyn, in the volume of sermons published by the Canon, was an act of inadvertence on his part. He attributes the error to his habit, when reading, of making extracts for illustrations in the pulpit and on the platform. He apologizes to Dr. Talmage for the mistake.

The Pall Mall Gazette declares that no apology can cover Canon Fleming's action.

DIED UNDER CHLOROFORM.

A Vain Attempt to Revive a Hamilton Carpenter.

HAMILTON, May 25.—To-day Edward Routh, a carpenter living at 29 Elgin-street, had chloroform administered him by Drs. Leslie and Wallace, so as to undergo a painful operation. Routh never recovered consciousness again, although the doctors made every attempt to revive him, and artificial respiration was kept up for over half an hour.

STILL WITHOUT A CABINET.

President Grevy Again Calls Upon De Freycinet.

PARIS, May 25.—M. Floquet has refused to form a ministry, and it is now proposed to form a Duclerc Government, with Gen. Saussier as Minister of War.

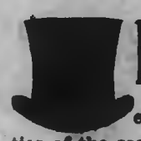
A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of



Mens, Boys & Children's Hats

ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

FELT HATS, NEWEST STYLES, 20c. EACH

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautiful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINIATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to acknowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheel-horses,

Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1887.

SIR GEORGE STEPHEN'S threat to sidetrack the city of Winnipeg in case Manitoba continues to endeavor to shake off the trammels of C. P. R. monopoly and to develop the country by building internal railway lines, does not seem to have greatly alarmed the people of Winnipeg, if one may judge by the utterances of the press of that city. The Morning Call says:—"There is no use in blustering over a matter of this kind. Actions speak louder than words. Mass meetings and that sort of thing will now do no good. The action to be pursued has been decided on, and will be adhered to. The Local Government feels that it has the people of the Province, to a man, at its back and is not to be 'bluffed.' As for Sir George Stephen's threat that the C. P. R. workshops will be removed from Winnipeg, it is only necessary to point out that they are here by agreement, under seal of the company with the city, signed by Sir George himself, and cannot be taken away." The Sun publishes a copy of the agreement and says:—"We have clearly indicated a number of reasons why, in our opinion, the Canadian Pacific cannot and dare not make good its threats. But even should it do so, Winnipeg, we fancy, will survive. The trade that is destined for Winnipeg, and that embraces nearly all that is intended for Manitoba or the N. W. T., will still centre in this city, and the loss of the through traffic passing our doors will not be an overwhelming one." The Free Press also says:—"Manitobe is not hostile to the C. P. R. Her hostility is towards monopoly. However much she may appreciate the C. P. R.—and she does appreciate it most fully—she will not submit to monopoly. She will do anything in reason, but she will not forego settlement, incur stagnation in business, and suffer reverses if not ruin—not to speak of the continued refusal of her rights—for the sake of nourishing a monopoly privilege which is justified neither by law nor by any kind of known justice; which, in fact, is an unwarranted injustice of a most monstrous kind."

AFTER several months attempt to stir up prejudice and hostile feeling against the French Canadians, the Mail is forced in the way of business to publish the record of its own failure to indoctrinate our Canadian fellow citizens with its own prejudices. In its usual despatches from Quebec our contemporary says that the Chronicle and L'Electeur favour the appointmen of an English-speaking and Protestant successor to Lieut-Governor Masson. L'Electeur thinks the English are justified once in 20 years in asking for the appointment of one their own, and says the names of Sir Wm. Meredith, ex-Chief Justice of the superior Court, and Hon. Geo. Irvine are mentioned in the connection. Doubtless, observes the correspondent, L'Electeur believes that if either of these two gentlemen was appointed Mr. Mercier would have less to fear than from a French Conservative Governor. Hon. John Hamilton and Mr. Alonzo Wright are both spoken of here, but it is doubtful if either of them would accept the office. Mr. Chapleau is said to have already declined it, and the general impression here is that Sir A. P. Caron will be urged to accept it. There is no doubt that Mr. Chapleau is anxious to have him out of the Cabinet, but there would be a certain risk now in throwing open the County of Quebec for a new electoral struggle. In the event of Sir A. Caron's withdrawal from the Government his successor will probably be Mr. Kirkpatrick.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 30% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45,

HAMILTON'S DISASTER

A SAD TERMINATION TO A DAY'S PLEASURE.

HAMILTON, May 25.—About 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon John Thompson, boat builder, living at 325 Hughson-street north, left for a sail to the Beach in his skiff, while his wife and sister-in-law and three small children went in the steamer Maseppa. They all arrived at the Beach safely and spent a pleasant afternoon. Towards dark they started for home together in the skiff. That was the last seen of them alive. About 8 o'clock a violent gale from the west came up and blew for about an hour. Mr. Thompson's boat was a lap-streak skiff, which is considered a dangerous craft at any time, but in a storm doubly so. It is supposed that in the gale the boat was swamped. Mrs. Thompson's body was found floating in the bay this morning, and the body of Miss Vincent, Mr. Thompson's sister-in-law, was found this afternoon. Search is being made for the others.

Mr. Thompson had a family of six, three of whom, Jessie, aged 7, Edith, aged 5, and a baby boy, went with them on the trip to the Beach and were lost. Three sons remained at home with their grand parents. They felt no alarm this morning at the absence of their father and mother, thinking that the storm had detained them at the Beach, and were not aware of the dreadful occurrence until their mother's body was found in the water.

A DOCTOR'S FATAL DRIVE.

A Melancholy Occurrence in the Township of Dalton.

ORILLIA, May 25.—A sad accident occurred to-day in the township of Dalton, about twenty-seven miles from here, which resulted in the death of Johnston A. Ardagh, M.D., of this town. The deceased, in company with Mr. George Thomson of Longford Mills, drove out to the Black River for the purpose of inspecting the progress of the Longford Lumber Company's drive. Mr. Thomson left deceased to drive about a mile down the road while he went along the bank of the river, and upon coming out upon the road where he instructed deceased to wait for him, he found that the team had passed the bush road. He followed them along and found at intervals the buggy cushion and whip and a little further the horses cropping grass at the roadside, but no sign of the deceased. He then drove rapidly back and about 200 yards from the place where he left the deceased he found him on the road face downwards with a bruise upon his temple and quite dead. It is supposed that the doctor was seized with a fit, to which he was quite subject, and fell, the blow proving fatal. The deceased was a graduate of McGill College and was one of the best known practitioners in Simcoe. He was a general favorite.

SUICIDE AT DETROIT.

A Young Man Jumps From the Fourth Story Window of a Hotel.

DETROIT, May 25.—Charles M. Haslett, who arrived at Detroit about a week ago and for the last few days was stopping at the Brunswick Hotel, at 1 o'clock this morning jumped from the window of his room in the fourth story and struck upon the stone pavement beneath. He was frightfully crushed and died almost immediately. The coroner was summoned and began an investigation and took charge of his effects, which consist principally of a gold watch and some $30 in money. From a letter found in Haslett's satchel it appears that he was a druggist and had come to Detroit to negotiate for the purchase of a drug store. A letter was also found, evidently from a lady friend in Three Rivers, dated May 2 and signed "Hattie." In it she urges him to beware of his failing, hopes for the best, but fears the worst, saying, "But if you do as I think you will do, then God help you." The dead man was about 35 years of age, with dark brown hair and short side whiskers, and presented the appearance of a thorough business man. He had been drinking heavily for the past few days.

THE ORANGE YOUNG BRITONS.

They Conclude Their Session by a Sermon and Election of Officers.

TORONTO, May 25.—The Grand Lodge of the Loyal Orange Young Britons of North America finished its session early this morning. The business transacted during yesterday was of a secret nature.

At 8 o'clock in the evening, and to the music of the Independent and Lubec's fife and drum bands, the members marched from the Orange Hall along Queen, Yonge and King streets to Trinity Church, where the annual sermon was preached by the rector, Rev. Alex. Sanson, who is one of the order's chaplains. Mr. Sanson delivered an instructive discourse, taking for his text I. Thessalonians v:

21. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

After the service the members returned to Orange Hall where, after some business, including the passing of a congratulatory resolution in honor of Her Majesty's jubilee, the election of officers took place, resulting as follows:

Grand Master—George E. Morrison, Toronto (re-elected). Deputy Grand Master—Wm. Crawford, Kingston. Junior Deputy Grand Master—J. H. Brum, Hamilton.

Grand Secretary—Crawford Ross, Ottawa, (re-elected). Deputy Grand Secretary—James T. Mitchell, St. Catharines.

Grand Treasurer—Joseph Malmers, Ottawa (re-elected). Deputy Grand Treasurer—J. H. Moore, Bobcaygeon.

Grand Director of Ceremonies—John Miller, Thorold.

Grand Lecturer—Isaiah Little, Ottawa. Deputy Grand Lecturers—John Taylor, Hamilton, F. T. Smith, St. Catharines.

Honorary Grand Chaplains—Rev. A. Sanson, Toronto; Rev. Wm. Walsh, Ottawa; Rev. John Gallagher, South Frontenac; Rev. C. O. Johnson, Hamilton.

District Deputy Grand Masters—Huron, Thos. B. Pollock; Durham, J. R. Shea; Russell, O. B. Campbell; Carleton, Hugh Nesbitt; Welland, Frank Pugh; Lincoln, Robt. Ross; Dundas, A. W. An Appreciative Address.

At the last meeting of the Quarterly Official Board, of Charlotte St. Methodist Church, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved—That whereas, our esteemed pastor, Rev. F. H. Wallace, B.D., has accepted an invitation from the Quarterly Board of George Street Methodist Church, in this town, to assume the Superintendency of the Circuit, at the close of the present Conference year, and thus involving a change in our pastoral relation, this Board hereby embraces the present opportunity of expressing their appreciation of his uniform urbanity, as a gentleman and a Christian minister, as well as of the high pulpit ability which he has shown while attending, as successfully, to the sacred duties of his office, while Superintendent of this Circuit.

While we regret the severance of our present happy pastoral relation, we rejoice to learn that we are still to be favored, as equal with his pulpit ministrations and with his social intercourse, etc., as a minister of the town; and we earnestly pray that the blessing of the Great Head of the Church, in growing richness, may continue to rest upon him, wherever his lot may be cast.

This Board also takes this opportunity of presenting to Mrs. Wallace and family their best wishes for their temporal and spiritual prosperity.

A Few Days Longer.

Prof. J. D. Kay, from B. Laurence's establishment, Montreal, will remain in Peterborough till Friday morning, 27th. Any one desiring to have spectacles fitted by a skilled optician should make an effort to call on him at J. McKee's drug store, as early as possible.

SPORTING TOPICS.

Merry Hampton Wins the English Derby—The Favorite Second.

LONDON, May 25.—Immense crowds of people left the city this morning for Epsom Downs to witness the great race for the Derby stakes. Four-in-hands were seen in great numbers. Ten of these turn-outs left the Metropole alone while scores of others departed from various points. The Prince of Wales, Lord Rosebery, the Crown Prince of Denmark and many other persons of distinction were present. The course was slightly heavy. The Baron, the favorite in the betting, was exercised this morning and appeared in grand form, but the stables were backing Aintree and Merry Hampton. The weather in the forenoon was threatening. Mr. J. S. Harrison's colt, Merry Hampton, won by four lengths, the favorite being second.

The Summary.

The 108th renewal of the Derby Stakes of 50 sovereigns, h. ft.; colts, 126 lbs.; fillies, 121 lbs.; then 3-year-olds, the owner of the second horse to receive 100 sovs. and the third 100 sovs. out of the stakes. About one mile and a half—168 subs:

Mr. J. S. Harrison's b.c. Merry Hampton, by Hampton—Doll Tearsheet, 126.....(J. Watts).. 1
Mr. Peck's b.c. The Baron, by Xenophon—Irene, 126.....(F. Barrett).. 2
Mr. J. Watson's b.c. Martley, by Doncaster—Lady Audley, 126.....(F. Barrett).. 3
Mr. J. Hammond's b.c. Aintree, by Bothwell—Egeria, 126.....(Webb).. 0
Mr. Manton's ch. c. Hirldsperd, by Isonomy—Sosie, 126.....(Weaver).. 0
Lord [illegible]'s br. c. Benefactress, by Hampton—[illegible], 126.....(King).. 0
Lord Rosebery's b.c. Grandison, by Hampton—Belle of Italy, 126.....(G. Barrett).. 0
Mr. C. Perkin's b.f. Foresight, by Isonomy—Dresden China, 121.....(Brackenbro).. 0
Duke of Westminster's br.c. Saville, by Hampton—Lilian, 126.....(Robinson).. 0
Mr. J. C. Lefevre's b.c. Consolide, by Isonomy—Constance, 126.....(Goater).. 0
Mr. W. R. Marshall's b.c. by Doncaster—Shannon, 126.....(Osborne).. 0

Winner trained by M. Cherry.

The betting—5 to 4 against The Baron, 7 to 1 Hirldsperd, 10 to 1 Martley, 11 to 1 each Merry Hampton and Aintree, 25 to 1 Shamblehead, 33 to 1 each Grandison and Foresight, 100 to 1 Saville, 200 to 1 each Consolide and the Shannon colt.

The Race—A capital start was made. Porcelain and the Shannon colt first showed in advance, with Aintree and Hirldsperd following with the Baron and Merry Hampton coming next. Porcelain soon dropped back and the Shannon colt kept the lead; Martley was last. At the mile post Hirldsperd drew up and ran level with the Shannon colt and he was joined directly after by Blandford, Shamblehead and The Baron. The pace was too hot for the Shannon colt and he gave way. Aintree was now at the tail of the string, and Shamblehead and Hirldsperd were three lengths ahead of The Baron and Merry Hampton. On entering the straight Shamblehead rode The Baron vigorously, and Shamblehead and Hirldsperd very soon fell back beaten. Merry Hampton then took the lead, with Martley and Aintree heading the others. The Baron ran with the utmost gameness, but failed to reach Merry Hampton, who won by four lengths, with Martley two lengths behind The Baron. Aintree finished fourth and Hirldsperd fifth, the Shannon colt last.

Results Tell.

The proof of the pudding is the eating, and the proof of the extraordinary power over pain of Polson's NERVILINE is in using it. Polson's Nerviline never fails to perform wonders in every case of pain. It cannot fail, for it is composed of powerful pain subduing remedies. It goes right to the bottom, and pain is vanished at once. Nerviline cures all kind of pain, internal or external. Go to any drug store and get a 10 or 25 cent bottle, and be delighted at its promptitude in doing its work. 6w21

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Siddel, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism neuralgia, inflamation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 2d20d

Sudden Disappearance.

"My face was covered with sores, arising from bad blood. By the use of three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured." E. E. Sheldrick, of Port Burwell, Ont. 2w20d

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC

At the time of selling our stock of Dry Goods to Sheehy & Co., we had fully determined to give up that particular branch of our business, but as previously announced, did not do so, for various reasons. However, it is now our intention to dispose of the Dry Goods Trade, and have consequently made up our mind to

CLEAR OUT THE WHOLE STOCK AT COST PRICE AND UNDER

This is one of the Best Dry Goods Stocks in the Country, having been imported from the best markets direct to ourselves. Remember, this will be a GENUINE CLEARING OUT SALE. While we will still retain our Clothing Trade, yet we will during this sale, offer ALL our Ready-made Clothing, for Men and Boys, (with all kinds of furnishings) at COST PRICE. REMEMBER, THE WHOLE DRY GOODS STOCK MUST BE SOLD OUT.

THOS. DOLAN & Co.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of theans of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. sodw4

Liable to Happen.

Sudden attacks of colds, sore throat, croup swollen glands, rheumatism, neuralgia, and similar troubles, are very liable during the winter and early spring. As a prompt remedy there can nothing excel Yellow Oil. "I never feel safe to be without it," says Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, Ont. 2w20d

She Was Saved

From days of agony and discomfort, not by great interpositions, but by the use of the only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Tender, painful corns are removed by its use in a few days, without the slightest discomfort. Many substitutes in the market make it necessary that only "Putnam's" should be asked for and taken. Sure, safe, harmless. 6dw21

McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate.

Have you an old Sore, Cut, Burn, Bruise, Corn, Bunion, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Blotches Rough Hands or Face? If so there is but one cure, namely, McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. If you but try it, it is will convince you. It costs but 25c. at John McKee's Drug Store sodw21

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

Palmo-Sulphur Soap.

Is Marvelously Efficient in clearing the Skin of Impurities, and transforming it in a perfect state of health. It beautifies the complexion, while as a Healing agent for Sores or Wounds it passes all praise. There is no Form of Eruptive Disease for which this Renowned Soap has not proved efficacious. In the Bath it is as beneficial as the waters of the Renowned Sulphur Springs. Linens and Woolens washed with it are rendered superlatively white, and are disinfected when germs of disease linger in the material. The value of Sulphur as a Cleansing and Purifying agent is everywhere recognized. Ask for Palmo-Sulphur, and refuse all others, and you will not be deceived.

Y. M. C. A. Members.

All members of the Young Men's Christian Association interested in athletics are asked to meet in the rooms on Friday evening at 8.30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Lacrosse Club. Grounds have been secured.

A Trial Solicited.

The Town Clock Grocery store can supply you with the choicest groceries of every kind at lowest figures. Call upon W. J. Morrow, at the Town Clock Grocery, and be convinced.

Bargains in Boots.

During the improvements in their premises Messrs. Stenson Bros. are giving immense bargains in Boots and Shoes. Daily renewals of stock keep it up to the highest mark. Call and be astonished at the bargains they offer.

A Good Man.

Referring to Mr. W. Ramsay, of Belleville, who recently applied for the Chiefship of the Peterborough Police Force, the Intelligencer says:—"Mr. Ramsay has seen service in the North-West, is practical, shrewd and will fill the office with credit to the town, if appointed."

Service of Praise.

The service of praise which was rendered with such success in St. Paul's Church on Monday, May 9th, will be repeated in George street Methodist Church on Thursday, evening, May 26th, under the direction of Mr. Parker. Admission free, silver collection. It is to be hoped that all who did not hear this really fine entertainment will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Don't worry if you are out of employment. Write to Mr. Kowdy, 41 Wellington Street East, Toronto. Send stamps for reply. dw6mos.

League Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Peterborough branch of the Imperial Federation League, will be held in the Foresters' Hall, George street, opposite the Golden Lion, at 8 o'clock this (Thursday) evening. The constitution will be submitted for consideration. There will also be an essay by Mr. J. H. Burnham, music, &c. Intending members will be welcome.

Methodist Conference.

The annual conferences of the Methodist Church of Canada, will soon be in session. On the 25th inst., the Montreal Conference commenced at Kingston. On June 1st, the London Conference opens at Sarnia, the Guelph Conference at Galt, Niagara Conference at St. Catherines, and the Bay of Quinte Conference at Peterborough. The Toronto Conference does not meet till June 8th, at Sherbourne street, Toronto.

Lawn Tennis.

Boating and bicycling shoes, very choice lines, just received at Foot & McWhinnie's.

Shoe-dressing.

The celebrated Oil Dressing for boots and shoes is now for sale at Foot & McWhinnie's, sole dealers for Peterborough.

Promised to be a Better Boy.

Mr. J. J. Turner had a young lad in his employment, named Howland, arrested yesterday for the theft of a small sum of money. A promise of better conduct in the future, secured his release by the Police Magistrate.

Escaped with Slight Injuries.

Last night Mr. R. E. Wood, C.C.A., was driving through the town in his buggy, when the hind wheel flew off, the axle broke and Mr. Wood was thrown out. He escaped, however, with a few rather severe contusions.

Universalist Church Conference.

The annual convention of the Universalist Church, of Ontario, will be held in the Olinda, Essex county, church, commencing June 17th and continuing the two following days. Persons desirous of acquainting themselves with the doctrines of the church may obtain reading matter, gratis, by sending name and address to J. C. Barrows, Postmaster, Nilestown, Ont., or to Rev. W. S. Goodall, Smithville, Ont.

The Proper Remedy.

Says the Port Hope Times:—"The Lindsay Warder has not quite recovered from the whacking the Port Hope's gave the base ball club of that village last summer. Our boys can do it again, and allow Lindsay to scoop in all the neighboring towns and three or four from Toronto. Lindsay is splendid at —kicking." There seems to be an immense amount of conceit in the above paragraph, which can only be reduced by the Port Hope ballists having the dust knocked off them by the Peterborough stalwarts, who this year are in splendid form and fully able to vanquish any team from that lakeside town.

Old Soldiers.

Everybody who delights in a first class dramatic entertainment should secure their tickets for "Old Soldiers," a play of H. J. Byron's of sterling merit which will be put in Bradburn's Opera House Friday night, May 27th, in sterling style by the best amateurs of the district. The play is presented under the auspices of the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association and a powerful cast, which had the play under careful rehearsal, will do the fullest justice to its many merits. Tickets 25 and 35 cents. Seats reserved at Sailsbury's book store.

The "Comets" Appear.

Baseball has taken a boom in town. There are already several good clubs, and last night a number of enthusiasts held a meeting for the purpose of organizing another club. There was a good attendance and the following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT—J. P. Hurley.
VICE-PRESIDENT—T. Connal.
SECRETARY-TREASURER—A. B. Hoolihan.
CAPTAIN—Herb Dixon.
COMMITTEE—All the officers and Messrs. W. Armstrong, H. L. Burnham, M. Hackett, J. Doherty and C. McDonald.

The new club will be known as the "Comets," and practice will be begun immediately.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and sells them very cheap.

It Lacked One Thing.

There was only one thing lacking, but it spoiled the whole effect. Everybody was pleased with the Orangemen's parade Tuesday, with the bright scarlet-and-blue uniforms, tipped with golden fringe, nodding plumes, flashing swords and axes, and the fife-and-drum bands. Especially nice was it when they went through their fancy drill movements. But one thing was lacking, and that was the usual display made on such occasions by Belleghem, the furniture king of Peterborough. Had his waggon of beautiful furniture, carefully selected, of finest material and lowest price, been there, the procession would have been complete. Belleghem's warerooms, on Hunter street, are open to the public. Go and inspect his goods, and you can't help buying.

The Most Wonderful Bargains.

By reference to the advertisement of Mr. M. Sullivan, it will be seen he contemplates a new departure in which the public will be immensely interested. Tomorrow he closes his shop in order to enable his staff to carry out the task of marking down the whole of his immense stock to cost. But on Saturday the doors will be thrown open and the public will be presented with bargains in all classes of dry goods, the like of which was never known in the town of Peterborough. This course is taken for this reason. Mr. Sullivan intends making renovations and improvements in his premises of a nature that cannot be carried out while the shelves are full of goods. Consequently the goods must be sold, and in order to clear out a magnificent stock of $15,000 worth of first class goods he whole will be offered at slaughtering prices. All who want immense bargains should hasten to Sullivan's celebrated "No. 3" Cluxton Block, George Street.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

Flags for the Visiting Cantons.

The Oddfellows' Reception Committee held a meeting last night. Mr. Thomas Workman, who had been authorized to visit Toronto and other places for the purpose of securing banners for competition in drill between the various Cantons which are expected to visit Peterborough on August 10th, reports that he has had some conversation with several men of position in the order, and they recommended that that the committee give a handsome silk flag of patriarch militant pattern, to each Canton visiting Peterborough, as a memento of the occasion. The idea was at once adopted, and arrangements were made for purchasing the required number at a cost of $25 each. The flag is composed of three silk stripes—purple above, scarlet below, and a white centrepiece. In the purple patch will be worked the letter "P" (for Patriarch) and in the scarlet "M" (for Militant), while on the white will be inscribed some appropriate Jubilee motto. The circulars inviting the Cantons and staff officers will be issued at once, giving an outline of the programme of events, and the inducements offered to uniformed camps to pay a visit to Peterborough in August next.

He who goes to extremes in man's fashions very quickly passes for a fool.

A Rough Sportsman.

Police Magistrate Dumble made a good suggestion this morning. It was that persons in town owning cows place their animals out to pasture for a while in the morning or evening, to crop the long grass which grows close to the sidewalks on back streets where there is no boulevards, and which makes a feeble struggle to force its way through an encumbering crust of mud and dust that clings to it and bears it to the earth, the whole presenting a dirty, sickly, bedraggled appearance that is decidedly unpleasant to the view. Don't leave your cow to graze alone, though; she will be sure to wander away and get you into trouble. Always place some one in charge to watch and guide her. If this idea were generally followed out, the back streets would soon be greatly improved in appearance.

Golden grains of truth. Turnbull is selling Ladies' Taffeta and pure Silk Gloves that are cut to fit the hand; every pair numbered. You will not regret having walked an extra block after you have tried a pair.

Alarming Hospitality.

There are some very mean persons about town. A few days ago the firemen were supplied with silver signal whistles, one of which was attached by a strap to each branch pipe for use at a fire in signalling to the man at the hydrant to turn on the water when connections have been made, without having to run to him. These whistles were in their place the other day, openly exposed in the fire hall to the public, but have since been everyone stolen. Everything has been put in excellent trim about the premises, and to add a city-like appearance to our fire hall and apparatus, and for the amusement and instruction of citizens or visitors to the town, the place has been thrown open for public inspection; but if such depredations continue, if there are any persons mean enough to so basely abuse the confidence placed in them, the fire hall had better be closed again. Mr. McNeil, chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, who has done so much towards having the efficiency of the fire brigade perfected, will gladly give $10 for the discovery of the miscreants.

Blood and Fire Laddies.

Commissioner Coombs led the Salvation Army meeting at the barracks last night. The building was crowded. He was assisted by Adjutant Bolton, Captain Williamson, and the Quintette from Penelon Falls, with the renowned Jim Lundy of the same place. The Commissioner conveyed the kind remembrances of Capt. Pople, now in Montreal, and of "Bertha," a girl in the Rescue Home, Toronto, to the soldiers and congregation. The services were of the usual character, the Commissioner's address being greatly appreciated. He spoke of the opposition against the Salvation Army, referring to an attack made on them by a minister of the Gospel through the columns of a newspaper. Commissioner Coombs was rather hard on the ministers, stating that the Salvation Army did more work in a day than the preachers in a week—or something to that effect. He recounted the trials of the Army officers in Montreal. Capt. Pople, he said, while walking along the street the other day, had a brick thrown at his head by a big six-footer, while Adjutant Van Allen and the cadet met with serious injuries. He stated that on June 16th a great Salvation wedding would take place in Toronto, the contracting parties being two Army officers (one a staff officer.) He concluded with a powerful appeal for financial aid and more workers in the vineyard, the meeting closing in the usual manner.

A Rowdy Excursion.

(From the Port Hope Times, May 25th.)

The excursion from Toronto to Peterborough yesterday morning was under the control of a portion of the worst rowdy element the city contains. There were three trains of ten coaches and all three were crowded with gaily bedecked girls and beery-faced hoodlums. Undoubtedly there must have been many on board who cannot be classed with these, but they formed the minority. From the starting of the trains the rows began. Whiskey was plentiful on board, and for the peaceably inclined the journey must have been anything but pleasant. Near Oshawa there was rather a serious row. Some one yelled "To h—l with O'Brien." He was promptly struck in the face by some one near, and the fight that ensued was of considerable dimensions. Windows and seats were smashed, blood flowed from broken heads and all was turmoil. One man, we are told, had to be taken from the train at Bowmanville to have his injuries attended to, and another fighter was taken off at Newcastle. The trains were late in arriving at Port Hope but shortly after eleven o'clock the first pulled up at the Midland shops, the engine being just at Mr. Blackham's grocery store. The train had no sooner stopped than the hoodlums swarmed off the train to explore surroundings. They saw "Blackham's Hotel" painted on the end of the building and made a rush for the doors. They rushed in yelling "I'll take beer!" "I'll take whiskey!" and when they found that there was no beer or whiskey in the place they began to help themselves to anything that was to hand. They took pop, pickles, a cheese, biscuits, rhubarb and even cans of coffee and soap, besides anything else they could reach handily. Mrs. Blackham, who has been ill for more than three months, heard the unusual noise and came down stairs. She cleared the dining-room and rescued the register from the young ruffians, before her strength failed, and she had to be carried up stairs again. The scene was like pandemonium let loose—yells, oaths, bottles waving over heads, and glass-smashing. The rowdies were finally obliged to board their train, and left Mr. Blackham a pretty heavy loser. At Peterborough, it is said, there were the most disgraceful scenes. The gangs of rowdies took possession of the town, thrashing everybody they could lay their hands on, and then turned their muscle to better account by thrashing each other. Peterborough was gleefully exultant in having the excursion, but now there will be a Chinese wall erected around the village if such another threatens an invasion.

Since the above was put in type we learn that the committee in charge of the excursion on their return from Peterborough expressed its deepest regret at the conduct of the rowdies who attached themselves to it. The committee left instructions to have a bill of the damage done Mr. Blackham sent to them at Toronto and they would pay the amount. This was as fair as the managers could do, and it would seem that the rag-tag element became too strong for the management.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, May, 26th.

P. Kane was fined $2 for cutting sod from the side of a public street in the lower end of the town, and Wm. Payton ditto for depositing filth in the "goose pond" on upper Water street. Acting-Chief Adams laid both complaints. People are warned against disposing of rubbish by depositing it in public places.

Four citizens were charged with first offences against the Scott Act, and a fine of $50 and costs was imposed upon each.

Peterborough's Prime Cheese.

The first fortnightly market of the Peterborough and Victoria County Cheese Board was held in the old Music Hall Wednesday afternoon. The following cheese in boxes, all colored, was offered:—

Keene	72	Warminster	60
Westwood	58	Lakefield	75
Norwood	62	Mickenan Abbey	65
Glenthorne	58	Twycross	65
Pine Grove	58	South Dummer	54
North Smith	55	Warsaw	58
Cherry Grove	56	Shearer	59
Bobcaygeon	59

The buyers present were:—Messrs. Dingwall, Morrisburg; Cook and Warrington, Belleville; J. D. Flavelle, Lindsay; Clarton and Wrighton, Peterborough.

Mr. Flavelle offered 9c. for the board; Mr. Warrington offered 9¼c. for selections. Mr. Wrighton bid 9¼c. for the lot, followed by Mr. Warrington with 9¾c. for selections. Mr. Flavelle's offer of 9¾c. for the board was quickly followed by a bid of 9¾c. for selections by Mr. Warrington; and on Mr. Flavelle increasing his bid to 9¾c. for the board, Mr. Warrington offered 9¾c. for selections. This was accepted for seven factories, and Mr. Warrington's offer of 9c. for the balance was refused. The market lasted only a short time.

Supposed Drowning Accident.

This afternoon a little boy came rushing along Water street, near the "Goose Pond," shouting to everyone he met that a little girl had been drowned. He said he saw the girl, who was fishing from a log, roll off and disappear beneath the water. He immediately gave the alarm, and a crowd of men quickly gathered and began searching for the body, but their efforts being fruitless they soon desisted. No child is missing from the neighborhood, and it is thought the boy was mistaken in supposing he saw the accident. The matter is still in uncertainty.

Sudden Death.

Mr. Wm. Gilbert, nephew of Mr. Sheriff Hall, died suddenly this morning at St. Paul, Minn., of apoplexy. Mr. Gilbert had many friends in Peterborough who will regret exceedingly to hear of his demise. Only a short time ago he was in town renewing old associations, and in pursuance of his custom of promoting morality among young men, on one occasion addressed a Y. M. C. A. meeting.

Bridgenorth.

The annual pic-nic of the Bridgenorth Methodist church, was held at Chemong Park on May 24th. There was a large attendance of people who enjoyed themselves in the usual manner till it came on to rain in the afternoon. The music contributed on the occasion was excellent and gratifying, the day being noted for the first appearance of the Brass Band of the 4th Line of Smith, in public. Under the direction of Prof. Doucet, its instructor, this band has made rapid progress since its organization, last November, and the several sacred selections, played in excellent style, reflect credit on both pupils and teacher and contributed largely to the enjoyment of the pic-nic. The rain caused an adjournment to the church, when the customary closing services brought a delightful day to a close.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines at Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1887.

Agriculturists in Council.

The President and one of the Directors Resign.—Their Successors Appointed.—Amendments to the Prize List.

The directors of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society met in the Council Chamber on the afternoon of Wednesday, 25th inst. There were present:—Messrs. Wm. Rutherford, Robt. Vance, John McClelland, Wm. Collins, Joseph Tully, G. W. Fitzgerald, W. M. Fair, and John Garbutt. Mr. Rutherford, 1st Vice-President, occupied the chair.

The following letter was read by the Secretary:—

To the Directors of the West Riding of Peterborough Agricultural Society:—

GENTLEMEN.—I regret exceedingly that for reasons personal to myself, I am left no alternative but to resign the position of President of your Society, to which I was in my absence unanimously elected at your last annual meeting. I have arrived at this decision with no little hesitation, but the reasons referred to leave no choice.

Wishing the Society most heartily the greatest prosperity, and thanking you for the many kindnesses received at your hands, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
JOHN CARNEGIE.

The following communication was also read:—

D. D. Gallelly, Esq., Secretary W. R. of Peterborough Agricultural Society:—

I beg to tender my resignation as a Director of the Society. I am sorry to take this action, but the time at my disposal prevents me devoting that attention to the interests of the Society, which one faithfully discharging such duties, would be called upon to perform. Yours faithfully,
ANDREW MCNEIL.

It was with great reluctance that the Directors could make up their minds to accept of the resignation of their President, but as the tone of the resignation was so decisive, and from former conversations held between the President and some of the Directors anent his resigning, it was subsequently moved by Mr. Fitzgerald, seconded by Mr. Fair, that the resignations of Mr. Carnegie and Mr. McNeil be accepted.—Carried.

Mr. Wm. Rutherford was, on motion of Mr. Collins, seconded by Mr. Fair, unanimously appointed President of the Society.

Mr. Vance in a neat speech passed a meritorious eulogium on the next appointee, Mr. John McClelland, for the great interest and honest work he had given in the past towards furthering the prosperity of the Society, and Mr. Vance very gracefully, though 2nd Vice-President, proposed Mr. McClelland as 1st Vice-President, which was seconded by Mr. Garbutt and carried unanimously.

Messrs. Hugh Davidson and Joseph Forster were, on motion, appointed Directors of the Society.

Messrs. McClelland, Stevenson, Fair, Tully, Garbutt, Collins and Fitzgerald were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions and endeavour to raise a guarantee fund.

Some amendments were made to the prize list, a herd of sheep (consisting of 1 ram, 2 aged ewes, 2 shearling ewes, and 2 ewe lambs) being added to each class of sheep, and a herd of pigs (1 boar and 2 sows) to each class of pigs, for which a diploma will be awarded.

The meeting then adjourned till June 15th.

Another Railway Proposal.

There is a rumor current in town, says the Cobourg Star, to the effect that the C.P.R. propose purchasing the Cobourg, Peterborough and Marmora railway from the present company, and building a new line through Baltimore, Centreton, Warkworth, Hastings and connecting with their road at Norwood, providing the townships will grant the right of way. If the purchase is made the company will abandon the direct connection with Peterborough, as they consider a line to that town would be of but little benefit to them, the town now having two or three outlets to the front. The line through those villages would be a success beyond doubt, and we hope the rumor may be substantiated. There is no doubt in our mind but what the townships would grant the required right of way, and if the C.P.R. people mean business, let them apply for the privilege and the townships will readily grant it. The back country want the outlet and the Canada Pacific Railway company want our harbor, which is the best on the lake by a large majority. Now that the matter is under discussion see that the pot is kept boiling.

LANSDOWNE AT HOME

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION TO HIS EXCELLENCY AT OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, May 26.—Nice weather, gay decorations, evergreen arches, brass bands, mounted guards, enthusiasm, cheers and 2500 children singing in chorus combined to make the Governor-General's reception to-day a credit to the Ottawa district and an honor to the Capital of the Dominion. The arrangements were perfect in every detail, no mishap of any kind occurred and the element of opposition, if such existed, could not have been discovered with the giant Lick telescope. The streets presented a splendid appearance, every building along the line of march being decorated to a greater or less extent, while many were fairly masked with bunting and evergreens. There were several fine arches, one at the corner of Sparks and Elgin-streets being a massive evergreen affair, surmounted by a moose head and crown and bearing the legend: "God Save the Queen!" "Welcome to Lansdowne."

From early morning visitors commenced pouring into the city from the surrounding districts, and in the afternoon business was entirely suspended. The last touches were put to the decorations, mounted marshals dashed through the streets and highways, and by 5 o'clock everything was in readiness.

A Hearty Welcome Home.

The Toronto train was but a few minutes late. When it drew up at the platform Royalty's representative received a right royal reception. Cheer after cheer greeted Lord and Lady Lansdowne and scores of friends crowded about to shake them by the hand and escort them to carriages. No. 6 Company of the Forty-third Battalion detached the horses from the Vice-Regal carriage, attached ropes thereto, and, headed by Percy Sherwood proudly mounted, drew the vehicle from the station to Cartier-square, and from the square to Rideau Hall, and then came marching back singing the regiment's war song.

The bicycle club headed the procession, 200 mounted citizens formed the body guard, 100 carriages conveyed distinguished personages, five bands gave the time to the thousands of citizens who marched on foot, and many, many thousands more lined the sidewalks and cheered again and again, until the echoes came back from the Laurentian Mountains and seemed mighty enough to roll right away across the Atlantic and tell the people of the Mother Country in thunder tones what the opinion of the Capital of Canada is as between Lord Lansdowne and Wm. O'Brien.

In Cartier-square.

At Cartier-square the scene was one never to be forgotten. A great circular platform had been erected, with rising tiers of seats, on which were seated 2500 school children. There were also three or four hundred prominent personages, members of the Reception Committee, Judges of the Supreme Court, Judge Henry, by the way, was on horseback leading the mounted body guards, members of the Senate, members of the House of Commons, aldermen of the city, members of the county municipal bodies, etc. The members of the Cabinet present were Sir John Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Adolphe Caron, Hon. Mr. Bowell, Hon. Mr. White and Hon. Mr. Foster. Sir Hector Langevin viewed the procession from the window of his residence. Mayor Stewart, magnificent in his scarlet robes of office, read the address of welcome and Father Dawson read a poem composed purposely for the occasion.

Lord Lansdowne's Reply.

When Lord Lansdowne rose to reply the cheering lasted five minutes. He said:

Mr. Mayor, ladies and gentlemen, or shall I take the courage and say, my excellent friends and neighbors of the City of Ottawa: You have very properly given, in the address which you, sir, have been good enough to read to me, the first place to the fervent expression of your loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty the Queen, and of your reverence for the constitutional system of the Empire. If there is any part of the Dominion in which these sentiments ought to prevail it is in the city of which you are the chief officer, a city which, as the Capital of the Dominion, is its political centre; the centre in which the general feeling of the community ought to be represented. I rejoice, therefore, to find the city of Ottawa loyal to the core and placing on record its loyalty to the Sovereign who, during this, the fiftieth year of her memorable reign, fills so large a place in the thoughts of all her subjects. And, sir, while we are speaking of Ottawa, it is very satisfactory to me to find that you are able to offer such strong testimony to the rapid advance which has been made of late by the city. That advance has been perceptible to me even during the brief period of time which I have spent amongst your citizens, a period which, as you have pointed out, has witnessed a very large extension of the limits of the city. I shall watch the continued progress of the city with the deepest interest and with the full confidence that under your able administration that progress will be rapid and uninterrupted.

Of myself you have spoken in terms which, I feel, reflect [illegible] good will which exists between us rather than my own deserts. I am afraid, however, that even upon this assumption I cannot entirely account for the extraordinary [illegible] we have encountered at the hands of your people. We have often returned to your city after tours of various duration in the country and we have always done so quietly, and I might almost say, without attracting observation and with no other greeting than a friendly salutation from any passing acquaintance whom we happened to meet upon our way to Government House. I do not think I shall be far wrong in saying that we know each other so well that we are able to dispense as a rule with everything in the shape of formalities and public demonstrations of regard.

Well, sir, how are we to explain the change which has taken place. Upon this occasion we have had such a reception as, I will venture to say, has never been accorded to any Governor-General before. Triumphal arches are raised in our honor, your streets are decorated all along our course, your citizens assemble in thousands to greet us. I am afraid I cannot account for all this upon the theory that the purpose for which we have absented ourselves from the city for a few weeks has been such as to merit such exuberant marks of approbation at your hands. I have not suppressed a rebellion nor have I annexed a new province to the Dominion. We have simply been spending, in the most agreeable manner possible, a period of three weeks in the capital of your province, where we experienced at the hands of its loyal and enterprising people a most gratifying and enthusiastic welcome. Wherever and when ever we showed ourselves, in the schools and colleges, the factories and workshops, in all places where people were assembled for purposes serious or grave, it was our good fortune to encounter outbursts of loyalty to the Queen such as that which has taken place in Ottawa this evening, accompanied, I am glad to say, with similar tokens of good will and kindness towards ourselves.

Now, sir, how are we to account for this exceptional and unusual display of your confidence and good will. I have made enquiries and endeavored to arrive at some explanation of the facts and I am given to understand that the explanation is this. That since we saw you last an invasion of Canada has taken place and that the invasion has not been successful. I learn that the invasion was in some respects a remarkable one. The invading force was not numerically strong. It made up, however, in intrepidity for its weakness in numbers. It appears, however, to have taken at the outset of its operations a step which is, I believe, not unusual with skilful strategists. It seized possession of the telegraph wires through which information of the most startling character was liberally poured into the country. I understand further that the object of the invaders was to overrun the country and above all things to put to flight a certain high official of the state, of whom, as have I misunderstand what has taken place upon this occasion, the people of Ottawa are not particularly anxious to get rid just at present.

Well, sir, there appears to have been one weak point in the arrangement. We all [illegible] that one of the most important departments in the military service in that which is known as the intelligence department, to which information bearing upon any operations which may be in contemplation is confided. In this case the invaders were completely misled in their intelligence department. They had been assured that the moment they showed themselves there would be a general rising of the natives. Well, sir, the general rising took place, but unfortunately for these calculations it was on the side of the defenders and not on that of the attacking party.

Now the end of all this has been that the invasion is over, that Canada is still a [illegible] of the British Empire, that the Governor-General is still Her Majesty's representative here. Nay, more, I think we might also say that but for the events which I have described we would not have received the magnificent reception accorded to us by the people of Toronto, which you have followed up this evening by the remarkable demonstration which has taken place. These events will remain their record, not only in Canada, but on the other side of the Atlantic, where the constituted authorities in [illegible] I think I am justified in saying that the moral which will be drawn will be a twofold one: first, that the Canadian people do not look with an approving eye upon such interference with their own affairs, and secondly, that as long as a public man does his duty in this country he is likely to be supported by your people.

I have only one word more to add. I trust that if these events have occasioned any difference of opinion or any bitterness of feeling, that bitterness will not be allowed to embarrass. There is, however, one thing which we shall certainly not forget and that is the immense kindness you have shown to us. It will remain indelibly impressed upon our [illegible] only during the remainder of my official connection with this country, but [illegible] as we live. In our eyes Ottawa is not only the Capital of the Dominion, but the place in which we have found a Canadian home, the place in which the quietest and most enjoyable portions of our life in this country have been passed. We shall, to use your own words, always look back with pleasure to the days we have spent by the banks of the Ottawa as days made happy and delightful to us by the confidence and good-will which your people have expressed so unmistakably by their conduct this evening. [Loud cheers.]

TWO HUNDRED LIVES LOST IN THE OPERA COMIQUE FIRE.

PARIS, May 26.—The remains of three men and two women were found in the stage box, where the victims had taken refuge from the flames. It is ascertained that many bodies lie buried in the debris in the upper galleries, where escape was exceedingly difficult.

Late this afternoon the bodies of eighteen ladies, all in full dress, were found lying together at the bottom of the staircase leading from the second story. These ladies all had escorts to the theatre, but no remains of men were found anywhere near where the women were burned to death.

The walls of the theatre began falling this evening and the search for bodies had to be abandoned for the day. The library attached to the theatre was entirely destroyed with all its contents, including many valuable scores. Six thousand costumes were burned in the wardrobe.

Inquiries for Missing Relatives.

PARIS, May 26.—To-day 156 missing persons have been inquired for by relatives. They are supposed to have perished in the flames. The bottom of the theatre is flooded with water to the depth of five feet. Sixty bodies have been found floating in the water by the firemen.

The Opera Comique was insured for one million francs.

The Chamber of Deputies has voted a credit of 300,000 francs for the relief of sufferers by the Opera Comique fire.

Fifty Bodies Already Recovered.

PARIS, May 26.—The work of searching for the bodies of victims of last night's fire was resumed to-night and a number more were exhumed. The official statement says fifty bodies have already been recovered. Mr. Revallon, a deputy, speaking in the Chambers of Deputies this afternoon, estimated that at least 200 persons lost their lives in the fire.

THE O'BRIEN'S PROGRESS.

ALBANY, N.Y., May 26.—Editor O'Brien and party arrived here at 2.20 this morning. This forenoon the party visited both branches of the Legislature, Mr. O'Brien making a few remarks in the Assembly Chamber.

Governor Hill Wants the Irish Vote.

ALBANY, N.Y., May 26.—After his visit to the Assembly Chamber this afternoon Editor O'Brien was conducted to the Governor's room, where he was presented to the Hon. David B. Hill, with whom he conversed for a few minutes. The Governor expressed warm sympathy with Mr. O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien left by the 1.15 p.m. train on the Delaware and Hudson Railway for Montreal. The party had to go aboard without their tickets and were nearly missing the train, as the ticket agent refused to take either English Bank notes or English sovereigns. "Well," said Mr. O'Brien, "that is about the most inhospitable treatment I have experienced so far. There is not very much about England that I like, but I certainly thought that British gold was current anywhere. However, I begin to see every day, more and more, the thorough independence of the American people, and every day, more and more, to admire it."

MONTREAL, May 26.—Wm. O'Brien and Denis Kilbride arrived at Bonaventure Depot to-night at 10.40. On alighting from the train Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride and the New York correspondents were welcomed back by President Cloran of the National League and President Barry of St. Patrick's Society and deputations from Ottawa and Quebec. Fully 300 persons were at the depot and gave the party a [illegible] tic reception. The crowd took the horses from the carriage in which the agitator rode and drew it to St. Lawrence Hall.

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1887.

APPEARANCES indicate that the Dominion Government's jug-handled policy of disallowance may be carried too far. The people of Manitoba are fighting for very existence, and they won't die without a game struggle. An enthusiastic and largely attended public meeting was held in Winnipeg on Wednesday evening to discuss the disallowance question. The meeting was firm in its determination of backing up the local government in its declared intention of building a railway to the boundary, and in condemning the autocratic and czar-like threat of Sir George Stephen, the head and front of the monopoly which is squeezing the vitals out of Manitoba and the Northwest. In one sense the Manitobans deserve little pity. They listened to the bogus promises of the government and returned an all but solid delegation to support the government, whose past record has shewn it unworthy of trust, even with the most direct and explicit promises made. That the government should disregard so solemn a promise, at the bidding of a private corporation shews what a dangerous ascendancy the C.P.R. has in the councils of the country. The people must surrender their rights to the dictation of Sir George Stephens, forsooth! But now the people of Manitoba threaten to kick and there promises to be lively trouble. Either the people must be content to remain in backwoo is isolation or disallowance must be disallowed.

WE are to have a Tory organ at last. When that notorious election sheet, the Standard, evidently edited by Ananias in the interest of a Government which now counts amongst its supporters, according to official authority, "the greatest liar that ever lived,"—when that vitriolic embodiment of vituperation collapsed suddenly at the close of the elections, it was thought that the political market for lies had been glutted, and that its resurrection was not to be expected. But the Standard looms up once more. A bill has been introduced into Parliament to incorporate the Standard printing and publishing company, of Toronto. Mr. David Creighton, he of North Gray, who has been thirsting for years for a chance to muddle the finances of the Province of Ontario, is to be the leading spirit of the enterprise, and to help sink as rapidly as possible the capital stock of $250,000, authorized by the bill. It seems that it is impossible for the present Government to secure a respectable journal that can stand the terrific moral strain of championing its cause. The Mail made a heroic effort, but, at length, the dose became too bitter, and it spued the Government out of its mouth. The Mail company sunk, it is said, barrels of money, but it retained self-respect enough to take the sharp curve which prevented the sacrifice of the whole pot. It still retains, however, a sneaking kindness for the Government, which may suffice to make it a perilous commercial enterprise for the Standard to enter the field as a competitor, or in any other capacity than an election-time scavenger.

BY the application of the cloture, the present Imperial Government, may force through repressive and coercive legislation, without discussion, but the time will come when the cloture cannot be applied—to the electorate, and the indications are that the verdict of the last British elections will be reversed. Every vacancy that has occurred in the House of Commons representation, either by death or resignation, has been filled by the people returning a Liberal member.

AT THE CAPITAL.

Deputations—The Railway Committee—The Queen's County Case.

OTTAWA, May 26.—Messrs. Hickson, Wainwright and Bell of the Grand Trunk are here to look after legislation affecting their road. They say they are not trying to get into Winnipeg and that the story was got up by the Canadian Pacific Railway people.

Hon. Thomas White will visit the Northwest and British Columbia as soon after Parliament closes as possible.

The Railway Committee to-day took up the bill to construct a line from Woodstock to the Niagara River, but ultimately left it over until the representatives of other railways on the Peninsula could be present. The Athabaska and Peace River Railway charter was amended and the Chinook Belt and Peace River Railway withdrawn.

Mr. Adolphe Caron to-day authorised the holding of the Brigade Camp at Ottawa this year. The men will go under canvas on June 21.

Ex-Premier Ross of Quebec is in the city, probably in connection with the Quebec Lieutenant-Governorship.

Mr. Angus McKay of Wolsley, N.W.T., and Mr. Bolson of Whitwood, N.W.T., are here to study scientific farming at the Central Experimental Farm. They are qualifying for the position of managers of the proposed experimental farms in the Northwest and Manitoba respectively.

Mr. Baird of Queen's, N.B., is back again in his seat calm and cheerful. It is whispered that he went down home to resign his seat and face his opponent at the polls, and that the Conservative Association of Queens wouldn't listen to it on the ground that the Reform candidate should resort to the courts.

Ald. Baxter is here and Ald. Boustead is here. When the balance of the Toronto delegation will arrive, if they ever do arrive, is not at this writing given to the undersigned to know.

The Disallowance Act.

OTTAWA, May 27.—The House of Commons debated Mr. Watson's disallowance motion until 4 o'clock this morning. A vote was taken and the motion was defeated.

THE MEMBER FOR DIGBY DEAD.

Mr. John Campbell, M. P. Succumbs to Heart Disease.

OTTAWA, May 26.—John Campbell, M.P., Digby, N.S., died here at 5 o'clock this morning. Deceased has not had very good health since the beginning of the session, but no serious results were entertained. On Friday last he left for Niagara, hoping that the change would do him good. Returning, he took the 3 o'clock C.P.R. train from Toronto last night. He appeared to be unwell, and was assisted to an upper berth on the sleeper by the porter, where he remained until about 3 o'clock this morning, when he complained of being very ill, and was assisted to a lower berth by some friends. The unfortunate gentleman continued to grow worse, but was able to go to the car door assisted by some friends when the train arrived in Ottawa at 4.40 a.m. At 7 o'clock he became unconscious and Drs. Wright and Henderson were at once sent for and arrived about five minutes before Mr. Campbell breathed his last, at 8 o'clock. The medical men, after examination, pronounced his death the result of heart disease. The deceased gentleman's brother, Mr. Colin Campbell, of the Militia Department, was immediately telephoned for and upon his arrival took charge of the remains, which were sent east to Weymouth, N.S., to-night for interment. The Maritime Province members accompanied the remains to the station and placed a floral wreath on the coffin. At the opening of the House Sir John referred to the sad event and paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the deceased gentleman.

REGARDING TUG BOATS.

Canadian Vessels Allowed Full Privileges in American Waters.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Recent correspondence with the Canadian Government has resulted in an understanding that the Canadian regulations in regard to the towing of vessels in Canadian waters and at Canadian ports by American tugs shall be amended so as to extend to American tugs when on Canadian waters "the same rights and privileges as are granted to Canadian tugs in American waters."

Complaint is made by the British Minister that the privileges covered by section 4370, revised statutes, have not been extended to Canadian tugs when visiting American harbors in the upper lakes. The Treasury Department has issued a circular to customs officers, calling their attention to the law on the subject and instructing them to allow Canadian tugs visiting American harbors full privileges under the law.

STOWAWAYS FROM LIVERPOOL.

Forty-three of Them Found Under the Hatches of the Thanemore.

QUEBEC, May 26.—Before the steamer Thanemore, which arrived here yesterday morning, left the Mersey a number of stowaways were discovered on board and landed. Seventeen more were found off the coast of Ireland and put ashore, and when the ship was well out to sea sixteen additional free passengers turned up and were brought to Quebec, making in all 43 young men and boys who secreted themselves on board the steamer at Liverpool. Those who came out here seemed to be smart active lads, ranging in age from about 14 to 16 years. They complained of no ill-treatment on the voyage and said they had not been made to do any work, but they seem to have found the bill of fare allowed them, consisting of biscuits and water, somewhat monotonous.

THE NEW WELLAND CANAL OPEN.

ST. CATHARINES, May 26.—The new Welland Canal was opened this morning to vessels drawing fourteen feet of water. The steamer Blanchard, Chicago to Ogdensburg, arrived at Port Colborne this morning loaded to that depth, and was locked through safely.

THE CANADA ROYAL SOCIETY.

The Opening of the Annual Meeting at the Capital.

OTTAWA, May 25.—The Royal Society of Canada, the founder of which is the Marquis of Lorne, met to-day at 10 o'clock in the City Hall. The President of the Society is the Rev T. E. Hamel, M.A., and the Vice-President, G. Lawson, LL.D. The president occupied the chair. There were also present Prof. Wilson, Evan McColl, Principal Grant, A. Johnson, G. M. Hoffman, Dr Stewart, J. T. Whiteaves, Dr. Chauvean, Abbe Tanquay, Paul De Cazes, Dr. Girdwood, Father Dawson, Rev. Dr. Hamel, Dr. Lawson, Sir Wm. Dawson, A. Lunsman, Abbe La Flamme, Dr. Selwyn, J. G. Bourinot, C. Carpmael, T. McFarlane, Prof. Johnson, Rev. Father Bogis and Dr. Bell. Considering that the society is limited to eighty delegates, who are scattered all over the Dominion, the attendance was highly satisfactory. Several prominent members, including Sandford Fleming, are in Europe.

The list of delegates to the meeting is as follows: United States Department of Agriculture, Prof. Meirian; Natural History Society of Montreal, Joseph Bomrose; Literary and Historical Society of Quebec, W. A. Abbe; Ottawa Literary and Scientific Society, W. R. Armstrong; Ottawa Field Naturalists' Club, R. E. Whyte; Natural History Society of New Brunswick, W. F. Best; Institute Canadienne, Ottawa, Mr. F. R. E. Campeau, Institute Canadien, Quebec, Mr. Jos. Fremont; Geological Society of Quebec, Col. Rhodens Nova Scotia Institute of Natural Science, Maynard Brown; Public Analyst Murcheson; Scientific Society of Belleville, Dr. G.S. Wright; Society for Historical Studies, Montreal, W. J. White; Numismatic and Antiquarian Society, W. D. Lighthall; La Societe Historique de Montreal, Abbe Verreau; Historical Society of New Brunswick, Prof. Lawson.

An address to the Queen was drafted and adopted and the annual report was disposed of. Papers were read by Dr. Daniel Wilson on "Canadian Sources of Raw Material for the Manufactures of the Stone Period," and by Sir Wm. Dawson on "Notes and Observations of the Kwakiool People of the Northern part of Vancouver Island." The society will be in session several days.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, May 27.

The body of Thomas W. Robertson, aged 24, a grocery clerk, who disappeared on March 24, was found floating in the bay last evening. It is thought the young man committed suicide.

Hon. Honore Mercier, Premier of Quebec, and Hon. Joseph Shehyn, Provincial Treasurer, arrived in the city last evening. They will have a conference to-day with Mr. Mowat re the gathering of provincial premiers.

The Police Commissioners, it is expected, will report on their investigation into the detective department to-day or to-morrow. It is thought Chief Detective Newhall will be dismissed; also one of his subordinates.

The Provincial Board of Health is in annual session in this city.

THE FRENCH CRISIS.

De Freycinet Reports His Inability to Form a Cabinet.

PARIS, May 26.—M. De Freycinet has informed President Grevy that he cannot form a cabinet.

The presidents of the three Republican groups have urged President Grevy to remove Gen. Boulanger from office.

The Belgian Strikers Threatening.

BRUSSELS, May 26.—A committee of strikers have written to Premier Beernaert demanding universal suffrage and the abandonment of the cattle bill, and hinting that if he fails to reply before Sunday the strikers will march upon Brussels.

A GIGANTIC PROJECT.

A Proposal to Consolidate all the Cattle Interests of the Northwest.

ST. LOUIS, May 25.—It is reported that there is a gigantic scheme on foot to consolidate all the cattle interests of the Northwest and form a company which shall control $15,000,000 worth of cattle and grazing lands. The scheme originated with the Wyoming Stock Association of Cheyenne and is the outgrowth of the combination of the smaller cattle men into companies which has been going on for several years.

FALL WHEAT.—Now that things are fully under way, the condition of our fall wheat may be summed up as follows: Two-tenths, good; three-tenths, ploughed up; five-tenths, standing, some middling, and some very poor, which taking it altogether, the land sown last fall and the apparent yields of wheat, we would not have more than half a crop, and, as most estimate an average crop at 26 bushels to the acre, we can have a good idea of our fall wheat yields. Of course, what was ploughed up has been sown with other grain. It was the frost on the nights of the 26th, 27th and 28th of April and the hot sun during the day which made such havoc among the fall wheat.

Spring work is now far advanced, little being now to do except putting in roots. The hot dry weather during the last two weeks has been the means of getting the grain a good seed bed.

The 21st and 22nd have been the hottest, so far, of the season. At 3 p.m. in the shade the thermometer stood at 92° and 94° respectively.

Off Work.

Since last October I have suffered from acute inflammation in my nose and head. For a week at a time I could not see. I have used no end of remedies, also employed a doctor, who said it was impure blood—but I got no help. I used Ely's Cream Balm on the recommendation of a friend. I was faithless but in a few days was cured. My nose now, and also my eyes are well. It is wonderful how quick it helped me.—MRS. GEORGE S. JUDSON, Hartford, Conn. w21

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC

At the time of selling our stock of Dry Goods to Sheehy & Co., we had fully determined to give up that particular branch of our business, but as previously announced, did not do so, for various reasons. However, it is now our intention to dispose of the Dry Goods Trade, and have consequently made up our mind to

CLEAR OUT THE WHOLE STOCK AT COST PRICE AND UNDER

This is one of the Best Dry Goods Stocks in the Country, having been imported from the best markets direct to ourselves. Remember, this will be a GENUINE CLEARING OUT SALE. While we will still retain our Clothing Trade, yet we will during this sale, offer ALL our Ready-made Clothing, for Men and Boys, (with all kinds of furnishings) at COST PRICE. REMEMBER, THE WHOLE DRY GOODS STOCK MUST BE SOLD OUT.

The Colored League Weakening.

PITTSBURG, May 26.—The Colored National Baseball League seems to have dwindled down to three clubs. The Gorhams of New York, the Lord Baltimores of Baltimore and the Pythians of Philadelphia are the only teams able to keep up and they will arrange a schedule among themselves.

Trouble in the Eastern League.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 26.—A meeting of the Eastern Baseball League was held this afternoon. Owing to the failure of the Springfield club to file their bond they were expelled. They were scheduled to play here to-day and failed to report. President Weber goes to New York to-morrow to try to get the New York Reserves to enter the league from New Britain.

Killed by a Horse.

CARTWRIGHT, Ont., May 26.—The youngest son of W. J. Beacock, Cartwright, while in the field to-day was followed by a horse, which struck him with his front feet and killed him instantly.

The President Goes Fishing.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The President, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and Col. and Mrs. Lamont, left here at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Saranac Lake, on the Adirondacks.

Results Tell.

The proof of the pudding is the eating, and the proof of the extraordinary power over pain of Polson's NERVILINE is in using it. Polson's Nerviline never fails to perform wonders in every case of pain. It cannot fail, for it is composed of powerful pain subduing remedies. It goes right to the bottom, and pain is vanished at once. Nerviline cures all kind of pain, internal or external. Go to any drug store and get a 10 or 25 cent bottle, and be delighted at its promptitude in doing its work. 6w21

Useful to Know.

Mrs. John Riddel, of Orton, Ont., was afflicted for many years with contraction of the bronchial tubes and tightness of the chest. She was cured by the internal use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. This remedy cures rheumatism, neuralgia, inflamation, congestion, and all external and internal pains. 2126d

Sudden Disappearance.

"My face was covered with sores, arising from bad blood. By the use of three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured." R. E. Sinclair, of Port Burwell, Ont. 2w20d

A DREADFUL MISTAKE.

An Outcome of the Quarrel Between the Net and the Trap Fishers of Oregon.

ASTORIA, Ore., May 26.—About 11 o'clock on Tuesday night A. E. King, owner of a cannery at Ilwaco, and Albert Green and Archie Ross, owners of traps, started out with guns to guard a large lot of web which is used in the traps, and which was tarred and lying in a field not far from the beach surrounded by small timber. Soon the three on watch saw two dim figures approaching in the darkness, and commanded them to halt. The order not being obeyed, they followed the intruders, shouting "Stop, who are you? What do you want, etc.," when suddenly and from several directions shots were heard and Ross and King fell. The former was pierced by seven bullets, and died in great agony. King received three wounds, all severe, but none fatal. The third watcher was uninjured? It was reported last evening, on what seems to be good authority, that the shooting was a dreadful mistake. It is stated that another party went out to guard the drying web and were mistaken in the darkness by King, Green and Ross for marauders, who in turn were mistaken by the other guards also for marauders. The Executive Committee of the fishermen deny knowledge of and responsibility for last night's killing.

SEVEN MOURNFUL WIDOWS.

An Unlooked for Gathering at a New York Politician's Funeral.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Seven women accompanied by eleven children attended the funeral of John Bute Holmes in Plainfield on Monday. Each asserted that she was his widow and that he was the father of her children. During the Tweed regime Holmes was City Surveyor of New York and some of the maps made by him are the most valuable property he left. He has lived on a little farm on the mountain side near Plainfield for the past twenty-two years, and during the greater part of that time his propensities for "heroic treatment" in correcting his housekeepers and his disagreements with neighbors had involved him in many lawsuits. But it was hard to find an officer brave enough to serve a warrant on Holmes and he was seldom molested. The present Mrs. Holmes was the old man's housekeeper and is in possession of his farm, but it is said the other women will make a legal fight for their share of it.

DR. McGLYNN'S FRIEND.

Bishop Keane, Who Championed the Priest, Liable to Get Into Trouble.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Commercial Advertiser says: It is reported that Bishop Keane has offended Cardinal Simeoni by championing Rev. Dr. McGlynn. It is said the latter is using a letter written by Bishop Keane as a weapon against the Pope's secretary, and that it is more than probable the Bishop will share Dr. McGlynn's punishment, though in another way. Since the Baltimore Plenary Council Bishop Keane has been the most prominent bishop in the American hierarchy. During the last few months he has secured special honors from Rome and has been virtually chosen rector of the projected National Catholic University at Washington. He has been spoken of as a probable coadjutor of Cardinal Gibbons. It is believed the letter was written for Dr. McGlynn's eye alone and was sent as a bit of friendly consolation.

SHOT BY A THIEF.

The Chief of Police of Winnipeg Fatally Wounded.

WINNIPEG, May 26.—Chief of Police McCrae was shot and probably fatally wounded last night by Joe Fant, a notorious cattle thief whom he had arrested. When near the Station House Fant leaped from the Chief's buggy and ran. McCrae fired at him and Fant turned and shot him. The chief fell, but managed to fire again at the fleeing thief, who escaped, leaving a trail of blood on the sidewalk, and has not been recaptured. Fant came here several years ago from New York State.

A SPECIAL CONSISTORY.

Two Cardinals Created and Ten Bishops Pre-Canonized.

ROME, May 26.—At a special Consistory yesterday Mgr. Pallatte and Father Banes were made cardinals. Ten bishops were pre-canonized in France and one in Mexico. The Most Rev. Michael Lagers, D.D., Bishop of Raphoe, Ireland, was transferred to the diocese of Armagh, and the Most Rev. F. J. McCormack, Bishop of Achonry, was transferred to Galway. The Pope has proclaimed the new Catholic hierarchy of Australasia, making the Bishops of Adelaide, Brisbane and Wellington metropolitans.

The great cotton mill of Parent & Lemaire at Roubaix, in the Department du Nord, France, has been destroyed by fire.

CABLE NOTES.

A plot to assassinate the Sultan of Turkey was discovered last Thursday. The Sultan is terrified.

Mr. Parnell, says the Dublin Express, has refused to make a reduction of rent to a tenant of his named Keanedy, and has sued him for a year's rent.

It is said that Mr. Parnell intends that Mr. Kilbride, who is traveling in this country with O'Brien, shall be nominated for Carlow.

The anniversary of the battles of 1870 around Metz will be celebrated this year with much eclat.

J. Joseph & Sons, merchants, of Birmingham, have failed; liabilities $100,000.

The Liverpool cotton corner has forced prices up so that eight spinners in the manufacturing districts have suffered great loss.

Prominent German physicians assert that there is absolutely no danger in the Crown Prince Frederick William's malady.

Seven thousand men are on strike in Belgium, and the condition of affairs in the affected district is assuming an alarming aspect.

Cattle Quarantine Declared.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The Commissioner of Agriculture has declared a rigid quarantine against Cook County, Ill., several counties in Maryland and portions of Southern New York on account of the prevalence of pleuro-pneumonia in those localities.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask, your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

Liable to Happen.

Sudden attacks of colds, sore throat, croup swollen glands, rheumatism, neuralgia, and similar troubles, are very liable during the winter and early spring. As a prompt remedy there can nothing excel Yellow Oil. "I never feel safe to be without it," says Mrs. Henry Dobbs, of Berridale, Ont. 2w20d

She Was Saved

From days of agony and discomfort, not by great interpositions, but by the use of the only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Tender, painful corns are removed by its use in a few days, without the slightest discomfort. Many substitutes in the market make it necessary that only "Putnam's" should be asked for and taken. Sure, safe, harmless. 6dw21

A Good Test.

What everyone says must be true, or have some foundation at least, and everyone who has tested it, says that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt and reliable cure for the various throat and lung troubles caused by colds, which are always prevalent at this season of the year. 2w20d

ST. JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

CURES LUMBAGO.

Unequalled for Lame-Back.

Capt. George Murphy, chief of the Government Harbor Police, Montreal, says: I may rank myself among those benefitted by St. Jacobs Oil. A short time ago I suffered from a severe pain in my back between my shoulder blades, and I was cured by the Great German Remedy. From all I have heard and seen of the remedy, I must say that it is unequalled.

Suffered 20 Years With Lameback—Cured.

Mr. Thomas Claydon, Shelburne, Ontario, Canada, states: I had suffered with lameback for thirty years and tried almost everything without relief. Less than a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil cured me perfectly.

Like Snow Before the Sun.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, Canada.

During the many sessions in which I have worked in our crafty press gallery, this is the only one during which I have not been subject to lumbago. The cause of this is that I used St. Jacobs Oil this winter, and my lumbago then disappeared like snow before the sun.

AUBREY C. HAMILTON.

The Best Ever Used.

Mr. John Mercer, City Sweep, Ottawa, Canada, says: I have used St. Jacobs Oil for lumbago in shoulder and neck, and it is the best cure I ever used.

Lameback Promptly Cured.

Mr. Michael Murphy, Ottawa, Canada, says: One of my family suffered from a bad cold which settled in neck and shoulder. Three applications of St. Jacobs Oil cured.

There is no bodily pain which cannot be removed by St. Jacobs Oil. It acts like magic. It cures when everything else has failed. It is the only absolute specific for rheumatism, neuralgia, gout, headache, toothache, burns, scalds and bruises. Sold by Chemists everywhere. Price per bottle fifty cents. LOCAL NEWS.

THE WEATHER.

Moderate to fresh winds, mostly west and north; fair cool weather.

Battalion March-out.

The 57th Battalion and band will have a street parade next Tuesday evening.

Are you a bargain-seeker? Call at Turnbull's and see his beautiful Cretonnes at 10c. a yard.

Cricket Contest.

A team, composed of delegates from the ranks of the bankers and lawyers, will play a match against a team selected from the rest of the club, on the Association Grounds to-morrow afternoon.

A Baseball Challenge.

The Peterborough Baseball Club has received a challenge from Cobourg B.B.C. for a match at that town on Wednesday, June 8th. It has not been decided whether the challenge will be accepted or not.

Bargains in Boots.

During the improvements in their premises Messrs. Stenson Bros. are giving immense bargains in Boots and Shoes. Daily renewals of stock keep it up to the highest mark. Call and be astonished at the bargains they offer.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

Cochrane vs. Hamilton Provident and Loan Co.

Mr. E. B. Stone, received a telegram today, announcing that, in this case, judgment for the plaintiff, with full costs, has been given.

Coming Ahead.

No. 6 Company, of the 57th Batt., met for drill last evening, Capt. Brennan in command. The Company is making rapid progress in drill, and will soon be on a first-class footing. A few more recruits are wanted. No. 6 will drill in future on Tuesday evening with the rest of the battalion.

Arranging for the Burial.

A special meeting of Peterborough Lodge of Oddfellows has been called for to-morrow evening at 8 p.m., as will be seen by advertisement in another colum. It is understood the object of the meeting is to make arrangements for the burial of Brother Gilbert, whose sudden death in St. Paul, Minn., was chronicled yesterday. The remains are expected to arrive in town on Monday, and the funeral will be held that day.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and sells them very cheap.

Shoe-Dressing.

The celebrated Oil Dressing for boots and shoes is now for sale at Foot & McWhinnie's, sole dealers for Peterborough.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 30% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Excursion to Toronto Via G. T. R.

The committee who have charge of the Masonic excursion to Toronto June 9th, have been laboring industriously to bring their plans to completion, and have so far met with every encouragement. The excursion will afford an excellent opportunity for a visit to Toronto which should not be missed. A full meeting of the committees will be held this evening in the Masonic hall.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 35c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Lawn Tennis,

Boating and bicycling shoes, very choice lines, just received at Foot & McWhinnie's.

The Original John.

The Original John Bull is, we understand, making preparation to accompany his Sons' excursion, which will take place on the first of July, Dominion Day. The usual good time may be looked forward to.

Presentation to a Pastor's Wife.

Last night a number of the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Charlotte street Methodist Church met at the parsonage and presented Mrs. Wallace with a handsome silver fruit dish, with shell of amberine glass, and tea-pot. The articles, which were supplied by China Hall, are very elegant pieces of plate. The presentation was made by Mrs. Bannell Sawyer with a few appropriate remarks, to which Mrs. Wallace replied, expressing her appreciation of the gift in grateful terms, after which the refreshments, which had been brought in by the committee of ladies, were served, and a pleasant evening spent.

Commendable Action.

Messrs. Davidson, Douglass, Kendry, Menzies and Moore, members of the Finance Committee, met yesterday afternoon, and among other business matters disposed of by them was the application of Mr. Carnegie for the lower end of Water Street adjacent to the brick works property. The committee, accompanied by Messrs. Carnegie and Law, on behalf of the application, and Messrs. Wm. English, Peter Hamilton, D. W. Dumble, Geo. Schneider, H. Denne and others, in opposition thereto, inspected the premises, and after hearing both sides of the case, in view of the strong opposition to the grant solicited, the committee decided to take no action in the matter. The committee have acted properly. This giving away or selling of public streets that are likely in the future to be of much value will not be permitted by the people.

Range and Rifle.

At the first monthly practice shoot of the Peterborough Rifle Association at the butts yesterday, there was a large attendance. The scoring, though, was not very high. Next Thursday the first match will be held. Following are the scores:—

	200 y.	400 y.	500 y.	600 y.	Total
A. Blade	19	18	11	14	62
G. Fitzgerald	18	17	14	11	61

Henceforth every Thursday afternoon a marker will be present on the range, which will be open for the use of all members.

Juvenile Marines.

Last evening in the school room of St. John's Church a number of small boys were instructed in naval cutlass drill by Mr. Thomas F. Cox. Short wooden swords answered for cutlasses, and the little fellows went through the movements very well indeed, considering that this is the third or fourth lesson. Mr. Cox thoroughly understands the drill, having until lately been in the Royal Navy, and is an excellent instructor. The drill will form part of an entertainment to be given in the school room by the Sunday School pupils of St. John's Church on Tuesday evening, June 7th, which will besides consist of a broom drill by a "company" of girls, which is now in preparation, vocal and instrumental music, readings, etc. The entertainment will be a decidedly unique one.

The Queen's Jubilee.

The various committees appointed to arrange for the different features of the programme of events it is intended to prepare for the celebration of the Queen's Jubilee, on June 21st, are making good progress. Mr. Burnham has kindly granted the use of the "Point" for the day, and as regards the proposed military parade, Col. Rogers, on being approached by the committee, said he felt convinced that if the Battalion was in town that day, the officers would gladly acquiesce in the proposal. The citizens' parade and the children's concert, at Burnham's Point, in the afternoon, assisted by the band, are all but certain, while the Fire Brigade have evinced an entire willingness to assist by every means in their power in the celebration. The evening's event will probably take the form of a magnificent illuminated canoe parade on Little Lake, and other events may be added or inserted in place of the proposed one. The town council has made a grant of $100 for the purpose of aiding in a proper celebration of the day, and if the citizens will only lend a hand in making the occasion one of joy and jubilee, a most successful demonstration will result.

The Service of Praise.

Repeated in the George Street Church—A Small Audience and Fine Entertainment.

A small audience assembled in the George street Methodist Church Thursday evening on the occasion of the repetition of the Service of Praise rendered in St. Paul's Church May 9th. The programme rendered on this occasion varied a little from the original one, but, if anything, was rather improved thereby. Mr. Parker, the organist and director, played the accompaniments with a finish and spirit, while the choruses prepared under his tutelage were rendered by the choir of nearly fifty voices par excellence. In the fourth number, a new song entitled "I will Call," the solo part was well taken by Mr. Geo. Dawson, and in subsequent ones, Miss Vair, Mrs. Mein, Mr. Manning and Mr. Baguley took solo parts. Mr. Jaques sang his sacred solo, "The Good Shepherd," in fine voice. His organ solos, too, showed admirable taste in selection and careful preparation. The solos of Miss Ellsworth and Miss Haultain were the same as given on the previous occasion, and were again rendered in charming manner. The singing of Miss Vair and Mrs. Mein scarcely needs any commendation in these columns—their vocal talents are too well known to require that. The "address" set down in the middle of the programme was deferred till the close, Mr. Tovell closing the meeting by moving a vote of thanks, which was seconded by Mr. Wm. Cluxton, to Mr. Parker and all the others who had so ably assisted in the presentation of such a fine programme as had been just rendered. Mr. Tovell referred especially to Mr. Parker's painstaking care and tasteful selection exercised in the preparation of the choruses, and his skillful accompaniments to the different numbers on the programme. The choir, too, he said, need not be discouraged with the small audience, or conclude therefrom that the entertainment they provided was not really meritorious, because, as everyone knew, the best things are not always appreciated. This had been proved time and again in Peterborough. Mr. Cluxton also made a few remarks, commendatory of the excellent programme presented and so well carried out. The motion was unanimously carried. Following is the programme in full:—

Hymn 50.....Tune, Old Hundred
Chorus....."The Heavens are Telling."
Recitative { "Why is Thy Countenance Sad?"
Aria..... { "When Swells the Sorrow-laden Breast."
Miss Haultain.
Chorus....."I Will Call."—12th Mass.
Organ solo....."Jerusalem the Golden."
Mr. J. E. Jaques.
Anthem....."Hark, What Mean Those Holy Voices?"

ADDRESS.

"Selections from the Messiah"
Recitative....."Comfort Ye."
Mr. Manning.
Aria..."But Thou Did'st Not Leave His Soul (in Hell."
Mrs. Mein.
Aria..."I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."
Miss Vair.
Chorus....."Hallelujah."
Organ solo....."March from Tannhauser."
Mr. J. E. Jaques.
Aria....."O Rest in the Lord."
Miss Ellsworth.
Sacred Song....."The Good Shepherd."
Mr. J. E. Jaques.
Anthem....."O Praise God."
Hymn 108....."All Hail the Power of Jesus' (Names."....Tune, Coronation.

Imperial Federation.

Meeting of the Local Branch.—Adoption of the Constitution.—Inter-Imperial Trade and Commercial Union.—"Imperial Federation."

A well-attended meeting of the Peterborough branch of the Imperial Federation League was held in the Foresters' Hall on Thursday night. The president, Mr. J. H. Long, occupied the chair.

After routine the committee appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws, presented their report which, with some amendment, was adopted. Mr. Long gave a report of a meeting of the Executive Committee held at Ottawa, at which the question of inter-imperial trade was considered. The opinion obtained among the delegates that in the near future a choice would have to be made between that and commercial union, which latter it was considered was but a stepping stone to annexation, and should therefore receive the strongest opposition of the league. It was pointed out that in the matter of natural and artificial resources the empire was self-contained and the problem of inter-imperial trade was practically solved. It was proposed to discriminate against extra-imperial goods by an impost of from five to ten per cent. In reply to a question the chairman stated that it was proposed to leave the Canadian duties on British goods at the present figures and advance the duty on foreign goods.

Mr. J. Hampden Burnham then read a well written paper entitled the "Impulse of Federation," dealing largely with the historical and sentimental aspects of the subject. The paper was an exhaustive one, and was listened to with great attention and pleasure.

Personal.

Mr. F. H. Date, manager of the J. F. Pease Furnace Company, Syracuse and Toronto, was in town yesterday.

Messrs. J. H. Long, Dr. Burnham, W. Brandrette, W. J. Minore and J. H. Roper were appointed a permanent programme committee for the current year—their duty being to provide a profitable and entertaining programme for each meeting. The next meeting will be held on June 30th.

Mr. J. J. Brandon, one of Fenelon Falls' most enterprising young merchants, is visiting in town for a week or two.

Mrs. Wm. Wells left yesterday for Winnipeg, Man., where she will take up her residence.

The public will greatly regret to learn that Mr. John Erskine is suffering from a severe attack of heart disease, from which his physician holds out no hope of his recovery.

District Meeting.

Rev. Messrs. Tovell and Wallace have returned to town from their attendance at the annual District Meeting of the Methodist Church, held at Millbrook, Thursday. Rev. Mr. Tovell presided both at the business meeting and at the meeting in the evening. At the latter Rev. Mr. Wallace gave a scholarly address on "The Study of the Bible," Rev. Mr. McFarlane one on "Sunday School Work," and Rev. Mr. West on "Revivals." At the business meeting the several reports were presented, showing a flourishing condition of finances and membership. Rev. Mr. Wallace was appointed a member of the Stationing Committee, Rev. Mr. Courtice of the Sunday School Committee, and Rev. Mr. Clark and Mr. Kerr members of the Missionary Committee. Messrs. Geo. A. Cox, Geo. Hilliard, W. A Morrow and W. J. Mason were appointed lay delegates from Peterborough to the annual conference. A resolution was passed strongly condemning the desecration of the Sabbath by railway traffic and in other ways, and another in favour of the better enforcement of the Scott Act. It was also decided to disband South Cavan Circuit, the congregations to distribute themselves amongst other charges.

The Play To-night.

This evening in the Opera House H. J. Byron's well-known drama, "Old Soldiers," will be presented by the Amateur Dramatic Company, under the auspices of the P. A. A. The play has been under constant rehearsal for several weeks, and has been brought down to almost perfection. An orchestra of about a dozen pieces will supply excellent music. Admission, 25 and 35c.; seats can be had at Sailsbury's bookstore.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC

FROM

J. J. SHEEHY.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Lesh's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago.

Shirking Taxation.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR:—I noticed, with surprise, that at the last meeting of the Town Council Mr. Hilliard applied for a reduction of taxes on his woolen mill, because he has put in a new set of cards, or something of that sort, and Mr. Carnegie asked similar favours for the Auburn Woolen Mills. Now I should like to know on what grounds such demands are made, and in what way the general public are interested in putting their hands into their pockets and paying more taxes, for the sake of permitting private corporations or individuals to declare larger dividends or reap larger profits? I believe in every tub standing on its own bottom, and the tub that can't do it must be a leaky, ricketty affair that had better be replaced by a better one. I am surprised that demands which indicate so much cool assurance, were not dealt with summarily, and I hope the Finance Committee, to which the applications were referred, will take a sensible, business-like view of the matter, and consider the sort of precedent it is proposed to establish.

Yours truly,
TAX PAYER.
(to the uttermost farthing.)

"Old Soldiers" at the Opera House.

Friday evening the Opera House was well filled with an audience, representing the best people of the town, to witness the presentation of the pleasing comedy drama of "Old Soldiers," put on by a company of amateurs, under the auspices of the P. A. A. A. The play was well mounted, not the least pleasing part incidental to the performance being the excellent music supplied by an amateur orchestra organized for the occasion. The music was excellent and was highly appreciated, as may be judged from the fact that the entre-acte selections were heartily encored. The play itself is a rather difficult one for amateurs to compass, the larger part of the effect depending on the interpretation and less upon the work of the author and the development of the plot. The main features of the plot are cross-purposes in love affairs. "Lionel Leveret," a young country gentleman, well taken by Mr. A. St. A. Smith, is left by his father on his dying bed to the particular care of a faithful servant, "Cassidy," a discharged soldier, who protects his master and especially his money from the assaults of designing match makers. "Capt. McTavish" (Mr. J. Morris) an ex-soldier, with a pretty daughter "Kate" (Miss T. Hall), is anxious to secure "Lionel" and his fortune through his daughter's charms, but a prior attachment somewhat interferes with the father's plans, but not so much so as the arrival on the scene of "Mary Moss". (Miss Archer) and her managing mama, "Mrs. Major Moss" (Mrs. H. Stapleton), who, with "Gordon Lockart" (Mr. C. A. Lawford), a former lover of "Kate," gravely imperil Capt. McTavish's calculations, which have so far thriven that "Kate" and "Lionel" are engaged. The flank movement of "Cassidy," who reduces his master to beggary with a word and invests "Gordon Lockart" with a fortune, turns the scale, together with the interference of "Major Fang" (Mr. Geo. A. Schofield), who, working in unison with Mrs. Major Moss to disentangle love's tangled skein, becomes himself caught by the widow, an old-time flame. As the play progresses love gains its equilibrium and brings everything out right, and the curtain falls upon three pairs of hearts that beat as one. Mr. A. St. A. Smith, as "Lionel Leveret," gave a most intelligent interpretation of the weak-willed and too-trusting young country gentleman, through whose character, however, runs a strong under-current of common sense. Mr. C. Brown capitally took the part of "Cassidy," with excellent imitation of the brogue and of the stiff precision of an old soldier. Mr. J. Morris, as "Capt. McTavish," was very good and filled his role satisfactorily. Miss T. Hall, as "Katie McTavish," acted the part of the bullied daughter and disconsolate sweetheart with good judgment. Miss Archer portrayed "Mary Moss" with much success and showed an excellent appreciation of the character assumed. Mrs. H. Stapleton deserves great praise for the excellent manner in which she personated the Major's widow, her acting leaving little to be desired. Much praise is also due the acting of Mr. Geo. A. Schofield, who played his part in an exceptionally creditable manner. Mr. Lawford, as "Gordon Lockart," appeared to good advantage in his role. It would be unfair to omit reference to the beautiful dresses of the ladies, which were marked by much elegance and good taste. Taken altogether the play was a very pleasing entertainment and gave great pleasure to the critical audience which witnessed it. The performance is not, of course, subject to the the ordinary rules of dramatic criticism, and that it lacked the conventional flavour of stageism, is not to say that the representation was not truer to life—did not represent the every day deportment of man and woman in a more natural manner—than a professional performance. Everything considered the Association have every reason to be gratified with the performance, and every reason to be grateful to the ladies and gentlemen who presented so excellent an entertainment under their auspices and it is pleasant to record, to the substantial advantage of the funds of the Association.

O'BRIEN AT MONTREAL

HE VIEWS THE CROWD HE IS IN SEARCH OF.

MONTREAL, May 27.—The torchlight procession and demonstration to O'Brien and Kilbride to-night was a great success. About 8 o'clock a large crowd began to congregate near the Champ de Mars and twenty minutes later they moved off in the following order: St. Gabriel's T.A. and B. Society; St. Gabriel's Irish National League, St. Gabriel's Pastime Club, St. Anthony's C.Y.M. Society, St. Mary's C.Y.M. Society, St. Bridget's T. and A.B. Society, St. Ann's C.Y.M. Society, Shamrock Lacrosse Club, citizens not belonging to any society, St. Patrick's Society and Irish National League, deputations from Ottawa, Quebec, Kingston, &c.

When the procession arrived at St. Lawrence Hall O'Brien, Kilbride and the presidents of the societies and invited guests, with the Hackmens' Union (mounted) as an escort, entered carriages in waiting amid the cheers of the crowd and the singing of "God Save Ireland."

The streets along the route of the procession were literally jammed with spectators, all eager to get a glimpse of the visitors. There were several transparencies in the procession, among them "Home Rule," "Welcome O'Brien and Kilbride" and "Success to the Campaign." In the first carriage were O'Brien and Kilbride, President Cloran, of the National Land League, and President Barry, of St. Patrick's Society. As the procession moved along Notre Dame, McCord, Ottawa, Colborne, William and Inspector-streets, cheers were given now and again for O'Brien and Parnell. The streets were illuminated and bon-fires were lighted in several places in honor of the visitors.

The procession arrived on Chaboillez-square shortly before ten o'clock, where fully 10,000 people were gathered to listen to the speeches. As O'Brien and Kilbride appeared on the balcony of Larin's Hotel the cheers continued for some time.

Pres. Cloran of the Irish National League said he had one regret to make and that was that that square was too small to hold the tens of thousands of citizens protesting against those who attempted to murder O'Brien and to protest against the outrages heaped upon the champion of a sacred cause by a vile sect, which was the only broken reed upon which Lord Lansdowne stood. If there was any man, he said, who did not agree with them on this question——

Cries of "We'll hang him!"

Cloran continuing, said: "No, but let him come up and give vent to his feelings."

A voice: "We'll go up to Toronto."

He was sure, Mr. Cloran said, that they would give O'Brien an enthusiastic reception and thus show that they protested against such revilers as Goldwin Smith and Rev. Dr. Potts, who were the prime instigatoes of the bloody scenes that were enacted in Toronto and Kingston.

Mr. O'Brien was received with terrific cheering. When order had been obtained he said he was proud to find the French Canadians and Irish Canadians under the flag of Ireland. If Lord Lansdowne were here to-night he would find that his troubles were not over, but only beginning. If he could pass through those streets he would find a spirit infused which would haunt him to his end. He referred to the Orangemen of Ontario amid the groans of the crowd. He challenged Lord Lansdowne outside of his orange grove, and he would be glad to meet him in the commercial city of Canada or anywhere else. Lord Lansdowne had laughed over the work of the last two weeks. It was no laughing matter for Canadians to have free speech trampled down in their own streets. What would have been thought if the Irish leaders had gone to Ottawa and made an attempt on Lord Lansdowne's life.

The Orangemen of Ontario are the only defenders Lord Lansdowne has in Canada and he cannot afford to quarrel with them. The whole world is crying shame upon their intolerance. The political party who would connect itself with them with a forty-foot pole was doomed. One good thing that had resulted from this was that the Irish people of Canada had been united closer. I leave you to deal with Lord Lansdowne as long as he remains with you.

A voice: Take him with you.

O'Brien: I tell you I would prefer to have a more honest traveling companion, but for your sake I would overlook my own objections. We will never give up the fight until we are like the Canadian people—free. [Cheers.]

Mr. Kilbride said he had come over here for the purpose of vindicating the rights of the workingmen all the world over, viz., a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. Lord Lansdowne had spoken of him as a "thriving rogue" but that term was impersonated in the Governor-General himself. He spoke very strongly against the doings of the university young men of Toronto.

After the meeting the visitors were entertained at a complimentary dinner at St. Lawrence Hall.

THE ALGOMA ELECTIONS.

Nomination Day on June 30, Polling Day on July 7.

The writs have been issued for the elections for members of the Ontario Assembly in the two Algomas, and they direct that nomination day shall be on June 23 and polling on July 7, two weeks apart. By statutory enactment the elections for the Assembly in these divisions must be held during the summer months, no matter when the general elections may come off.

The Liberals will put up their present members. Mr. Commee in the West and Mr. Lyon in the East. The Conservatives have not as yet decided upon their men, so a leading organizer said to last night.

Mr. Commee is now in the city, and will leave as soon to organize his constituency. It is well known that when the proper time arrives Mr. Commee will throw up his local spurs and seek a seat in the House of Commons.

MONTREAL, May 27.—An evening paper to-night states that an effort will be made to float the provincial loan, recently authorized by the Legislature, in France instead of in England.

The Police Fire on the Crowd.

LONDON, May 27.—On one of the Arran Islands to-day a tax collector and his police escort were stoned by a mob. The police fired into the crowd, wounding several persons. The collector was badly mauled.

Followers of the Black Flag.

DUBLIN, May 27.—A procession of the unemployed of this city, carrying a black flag with skull and cross bones on it, was dispersed to-day by the police.

A Cyclone Visits Calcutta.

LONDON, May 28.—A cyclone has visited Calcutta. Four ships are reported missing and one has foundered.

THE GREAT PARIS FIRE

SIXTY BODIES RECOVERED FROM THE RUINS OF THE COMIQUE.

PARIS, May 27.—The roll call of the attaches of the Opera Comique made to-day shows that seventeen actors and employes are missing, exclusive of the supernumeraries, who were engaged nightly as they were needed and of whom no record was left.

Sixty Bodies Recovered.

PARIS, May 27.—According to an official report sixty bodies had been recovered from the ruins of the Opera Comique up to 7 o'clock this evening.

The Municipal Council has voted 10,000 francs for the relief of the sufferers by the fire.

Benefits for the Sufferers.

VIENNA, May 27.—Several of the theatres will give benefit performances in aid of the victims of the fire in Paris.

Excited Crowds in the Streets.

PARIS, May 27.—The approaches to the burned theatre are crowded with sight-seers. A pamphlet was vended on the street to-day the moral of which was that if there had been a series of ministers of fine arts with as high a sense of public duty as had been shown by Gen. Boulanger the disaster would not have occurred. The pamphlet was largely bought and produced a visible effect on the populace, which was heightened by the occasional passage of an ambulance containing a corpse. An audacious firebrand could have persuaded the crowd to do anything. All Paris turned out to witness the transfer of the corpse to the morgue.

A gentleman who was mistaken for M. Berthelot was obliged to seek refuge from a throng of indignant people amid cries of "A la Seine."

A Viennese financier named Siessmer and his wife are among the victims.

A GREAT FIRE IN NEW YORK.

The Belt Line Stables and 1795 Horses Destroyed—Loss $1,325,000.

NEW YORK, May 27.—At 1.30 this morning fire broke out in the stables of the Belt Line Car Company which covered half the block from on Tenth-avenue, between Fifty-Third and Fifty-Fourth streets. The inflammable nature of the contents of the structure, straw and hay, contributed to the flames, and in a short time the building was a ruin. So rapid was the progress of the fire that the few stablemen about at the time could rescue only twenty-five of the 1300 horses in the stables.

The fire spread to adjoining property, principally tenements, and worked great destruction. The poor people living in the houses had not time to remove their effects and many of them lost all they possessed. The fire was finally got under control at 4 o'clock. The loss is put at $1,325,000.

THE REUNITED GOOD TEMPLARS.

The Grand Lodge in Session at Saratoga Elects Its Officers.

SARATOGA, N.Y., May 27.—After the noon recess the Grand Lodge proceeded to the election of officers with the following result: R.W.G. Templar, John R. Finch, Evanston, Ill., (re-elected); R.W.G. Councillor, Wm. Turnbull, Glasgow, Scotland; R.W. Vice-Templar, Jessie Forsythe, Boston; R.W.G. Secretary, B. F. Parker, Manston, Wis.; R.W.G. Treasurer, Uriah Copp, Lodi, Ill.; R.W.G. Superintendent of Juvenile Templars, Mrs. A. A. Brubbane, Indiana. The following appointed officers were named: R.W.G. Chaplain, Rev. D. W. Thomas, of India; R.W.G. Marshal, O. G. Tolnes of Norway; R.W.G.D. Marshal, Mrs. S. K. Bailey of Virginia; R.W.G. Guard, Miss Esther J. Blakey of England; all were duly installed by Past R.W.G. Templar S. B. Chase, assisted by Dr. Oronhyatekha and Sister Weichman as Marshals.

THE CRISIS IN FRANCE.

M. Rouvier Undertakes the Task of Forming a Cabinet.

PARIS, May 28.—President Grevy this morning summoned M. Rouvier for a conference and induced M. Rouvier to undertake the task of forming a Cabinet. M. Rouvier will endeavor to persuade M. Flourens to retain the foreign portfolio and it is understood M. Lockroy and M. Granet, Minister of Commerce and Minister of Posts and Telegraphs respectively in M. Goblet's Government, will remain in office. Gen. Saussier is mentioned for Minister of War and M. Falliores for Minister of the Interior.

SIXTY HOUSES BURNED.

Great Loss Entailed by Incendiaries in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 27.—The fire on May 24, by which 60 houses were destroyed, was of incendiary origin. Placards were post throughout the town on Sunday threatening that at 12 o'clock that night the villas would be in flames, and on Monday similar notices appeared. When the fire did break out on Tuesday a raging wind carried the flames from one house to another, and the fire could not be controlled until sixty villas had been destroyed. The loss amounts to several million roubles. The incendiaries have not been arrested.

A Forecast of the Cabinet.

PARIS, May 27.—M. Rouvier, in accepting the task of forming a new ministry, requested President Grevy to allow him full liberty of action. M. Fleurens will remain in the cabinet as Minister of Foreign Affairs. It is probable that M. Rouville will take the office of Minister of Finance. It is also expected that M. Falliores will be Minister of the Interior; M. Spuller, Minister of Justice; M. Etienne, Minister of Public Works; M. Prevet, Minister of Agriculture; Admiral Jaures, Minister of Marine, and M. Cassimir Perier, Minister of Public Instruction.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The American Presbyterian Church Declares for Prohibition.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.—At to-day's session of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America a resolution was presented and referred to a special committee declaring against all measures of license or tax as delusive and in no way calculated to end the evils of the liquor traffic. Entire prohibition by the States and National Government of the manufacture, sale and importation of intoxicating beverages is declared to be the only effective remedy.

Prefontaine Again After Magistrate Denison

OTTAWA, May 27.—Mr. Prefontaine gave notice in the House to-day that on Monday next he will move for an order of the House for copies of correspondence between the Government or certain of its members and certain officers and privates of the 65th Regt. of Montreal, respecting the refusal of Gen. F. Denison, Esq., Police Magistrate of the City of Toronto, to issue a warrant to apprehend, issued against one Edmund E. Sheppard, for libel, by one of the judges of the sessions of the peace for the district of Montreal.

THE EXEMPTION EPIDEMIC.

The reference to the applications for exemption from municipal taxation made at the last meeting of the Town Council by a correspondent, in to-day's issue, shows that the opinion of those directly interested in the matter, is opposed to the applications being granted. The taxpayer is directly interested in this question. So much money has to be raised by taxation, and every dollar of taxes remitted throws the burden upon the remaining taxpayers. The Managing director of the Auburn Woolen Mills, practically asks a reduction of the assessment of these mills. An assessment of $40,000 upon a property worth at least $100,000 cannot be considered excessive, especially in comparison with the assessment of the Dickson Company property, which is put at $35,000; and especially in the face of the fact that for the past ten years these mills have escaped taxation altogether; and the virtual request for a reduction of the assessment is one which in justice and fairness to other institutions cannot be granted. It must be borne in mind that in addition to ten years' exemption the mills have been protected by a high tariff, which was increased by the recent tariff changes. Now it is proposed to ask the council to lower the assessment on the Auburn Woolen Mills and make the poorer tax-payers pay more taxes—and this to enable the company to declare larger dividends, for it is absolutely certain that no amount of exemption will increase the wages of the operatives in the mills. It is a principle of corporations to get the largest possible amount of work for the smallest possible pay. It is claimed that the assessment should be lowered because Auburn doesn't get her share of local improvements. Dozens of honest labouring men in the outskirts of the town do not get gas lamps, city water, street lamps, nor other up-town luxuries, yet they do not come in forma pauperis, and try to be relieved of their share of the expense of civic maintenance of privileges they do not personally enjoy. In regard to the application of Mr. Hilliard, his claim, if entertained, would establish a precedent which dozens of other concerns might, with equal justice, avail themselves of. There are scores of other firms in town paying out as much wages and giving employment to as many persons as Mr. Hilliard's mill, yet they are not calling for special relief from the common duty of paying taxes, for every little improvement they make in their premises. There would be some reason in a gentleman in the position of Mr. Wilson, who has twice been commercially extinguished by fire within five years, seeking assistance and receiving it, but that an establishment, which is fixed on a presumably sound financial basis, and protected by a duty of from 30 to 50 per cent., should be placed in a position to shove a portion of its burden of taxation on the shoulders of the willing taxpayer, is a proposition which cannot be entertained.

Mount Pleasant and Sandy Hill.

(From a Correspondent.)

Mount Pleasant is noted not only for the prize school, but for producing teachers that make their mark. Grand Old England endorses the fact in sending to W. T. McLean, of Ouvry in Kent County, Ont., one of those bronze medals and Diplomas along with other certificates for the special work executed by the pupils of his school.

Sandy Hill may feel proud one of her boys, L. F. White, who stands high in the profession; another of these medals and diplomas for extra work done by his scholars in his school at Esso Centre, Simcoe County, Ont., was sent him from the Colonial Exhibition held in London, Eng., last summer.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 0c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

DISALLOWANCE.

THE GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED BY A MAJORITY OF 49.

OTTAWA, May 27.—At 3.45 this morning the vote on Mr. Watson's resolution against disallowance was taken. The poll stood yeas 65, nays 114; majority for the Government 49. Of the Manitoba members Messrs. Daly, Scarth and Watson voted against disallowance and Messrs. Ross and Royal for the Government. Of Government supporters Messrs. Daly, Scarth and Chisholm voted in opposition and Hon. Peter Mitchell, Messrs. Girault, Labrosse, Duchesnay, Skinner, Hale, Cimon, Yeo and all the Nationalists supported the Government. Col. Tyrwhitt reached the chamber just too late to vote. Had he been a moment earlier the Government's majority would have been fifty. Seventeen Conservatives and fourteen Reformers were absent. It is said that two of the Liberals, if present, would have supported the Government.

Unusual Sounds in the Senate.

Something out of the common occurred in the Senate to-day. Sir Alexander Campbell returned to the city from the Colonial Conference last night, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Marjorie Campbell. This afternoon Sir Alexander entered the Senate Chamber and was warmly greeted. It was moved that the Senate adjourn during pleasure. The Speaker left the chair and Senator Ferrier, the oldest member of the body, stepping to the centre of the chamber called for three cheers for their late leader. It was a pleasant sight to see those old men wave their hats and respond to the proposition with all the enthusiasm of youth.

Sir Alexander said a few words in reply, shook hands with everybody and the Senate once more resumed its duties and cleared the order paper.

Mr. Dunn From Queen's County.

In the House to-day Mr. Weldon (St. John), moved that returning officer John R. Dunn be called before the bar of the House on Monday, to be examined touching his conduct in the Queen's N.B., election. By the way, Dunn does not look like the kind of a man one would have expected at all. He is probably under 35 years of age, clean shaven, youthful looking, of quiet disposition and clerical appearance.

Important Bills Introduced.

Mr. McCarthy to-day introduced his bill for the protection of railway employes. The object of the measure is to compel railway companies to do what is necessary for the protection of their employes, and the bill is drawn mainly on the lines of the act passed by the Ontario Legislature. In fact, the main object is to make the Ontario measure applicable to other than provincial railways.

Hon. Mr. White introduced a bill to amend the Dominion Lands Act. This measure deals principally with the working of the department, and does not propose any material alteration with the land laws. One new provision is that where a settler makes entry he must declare under which system he will enter. Another declares that an abandoned homestead can only be taken by an actual settler. A slight change is proposed in the matter of second homesteading.

Hon. Mr. Thompson introduced a bill to amend the Electoral Franchise Act. It is contemplated to dispense with the revision of the lists this year and do with the lists as they now stand. The Opposition will oppose this.

Sir John introduced a bill to amend the Election Act. The bill is to determine beyond dispute that returning officers, deputy-returning officers, poll clerks and constables have the right to vote.

Sir John also introduced a bill to amend the act respecting the Department of Agriculture. The work of the Department is to be simplified by transferring the patent and copyright branches to the Department of the Secretary of State and trade marks to the Department of Trade and Commerce.

The House adjourned at 11.15.

The Toronto Deputation.

Ald. Baxter and Ald. Boustead concluded this morning that they would not tarry longer for the Toronto municipal delegation, and plunged at once into business. Accompanied by John Small, M.P., they waited upon the Minister of Public Works with reference to the Toronto harbor works. Chief Engineer Perley was present.

Ald. Baxter, in his usual eloquent style, explained Toronto's proposal to submit a bylaw to raise $100,000 for the purpose of completing these works, and Mayor Howland's message in connection therewith.

Ald. Boustead discussed the financial aspect of the question at length.

Sir Hector Langevin said they must not expect any conditional promise regarding the maintaining of the harbor works. That it was impossible for the Government to do, but he would do all that it was possible for him as a Minister of the Crown to do. He would promise to write a letter over his own signature stating that he will ask the Government to place at his disposal a conditional $100,000 to go on with the work at once if the city bylaw is passed, and that the work when completed will be accepted as a Government work, when, of course, the duty of maintenance will fall upon the Government.

The deputation withdrew, highly satisfied with the success of their mission, a success largely due to Ald. Baxter's presentation of the case.

The two aldermen left for home this evening.

A New Artillery Corps.

The Government will shortly commence recruiting for C Battery of artillery, which will be established at Victoria, B.C. Col. Holmes, local D.G.G., will be given the command. The proposed corps will form the nucleus of a much larger force, thus carrying out the proposed extensive scheme inaugurated by the Imperial Government for coast defence.

A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of Export Duty Wanted on Elm Logs.

Harvey Morris of Wallaceburg and a number of other manufacturers of barrels and staves waited upon the Premier and the Minister of Finance to-day. They were accompanied by Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Brown, Guillet, Wright, Perley (Ottawa) Moncreiff, Cockburn, Masson and Hudspeth, M.P.'s. They presented largely signed petitions in favor of an export duty on elm logs.

To Watch the Fish Pirates.

The cruiser Advance has just been ordered to go on the fisheries protection service. The Vigilance and Triumph have already put to sea. The steam cruiser Acadia is now awaiting instructions at Halifax, after having undergone extensive repairs.

The British Columbia Defences.

Sir Adolph Caron and Major-General Middleton will start for British Columbia via the C.P.R. about the end of next August. Their transcontinental trip will be undertaken for the purpose of locating the site of the proposed defences to be erected near Victoria Harbor by the Imperial Government. The proposed system of defence is a very comprehensive one and the armament will include several eighty-one ton guns which were shipped from Halifax about six months ago. The required plans are expected from England shortly.

In the Interests of Science.

Sir William Dawson and Dr. Johnson of Montreal, representing the British Association for the Advancement of Science, waited upon Hon. Mr. Foster this morning to urge upon the Government the necessity for making a series of tidal observations on the coast, especially in the Gulf.

Sir William explained that when observations were complete calculations could be made by a special committee of the association entrusted with like work throughout the world.

Mr. Foster, in reply, said he would do all in his power for the movement. The Government had completed an expensive expedition to Hudson Bay, and were now about to make a survey of the St. Lawrence. He promised that observations would be taken in connection with the St. Lawrence survey.

Gen. Sir Fred's Inspection.

Major General Middleton will begin his annual inspection of the Canadian militia about June 14, when a number of the camps assemble. He will also combine with this the duty of inspecting the various permanent schools throughout the Dominion.

Sir R. Jardine's b.f. Hawthorn, by Albert Victor—Hawthorn Blossom	0
Duke of Beaufort's br.f. Fenity, by Hampton—Hagman Roll	0

Time—4.39 3-4.

Betting—Even against Revo d'Or, 2 to 1 Lady Manchester, 10 to 1 Freedom, 12 to 1 each Hawthorn and St. Helen, 20 to 1 Maize, 25 to 1 each Jersey Lily, Luciana and Fenity.

The Race—Jersey Lily had the outside position and was first away. After 220 yards had been run St. Helen and Fenity raced past the Lily. At the mile post Fenity was ahead, with Hawthorn third. Descending the hill Fenity was driven hard. She was just in front of St. Helen, with Revo D'Or and Hawthorn at St. Helen's heels. Fenity was beaten before she entered the straight. St. Helen rounded the corner with Revo d'Or following on the right and Freedom on the lower ground. Revo d'Or passed St. Helen half way up the straight, and won in a canter by three lengths. Freedom was a bad third, Hawthorn was fourth and Jersey Lily last.

Results Tell.

The proof of the pudding is the eating, and the proof of the extraordinary power over pain of Polson's NERVILINE is in using it. Polson's Nerviline never fails to perform wonders in every case of pain. It cannot fail, for it is composed of powerful pain subduing remedies. It goes right to the bottom, and pain is vanished at once. Nerviline cures all kind of pain, internal or external. Go to any drug store and get a 10 or 25 cent bottle, and be delighted at its promptitude in doing its work. 6w21

HAMILTON MATTERS.

Stricken by Paralysis—A Cocking Main in Dundas Marsh.

HAMILTON, May 26.—Dr. Montgomery, Assistant Superintendent of the Hamilton Asylum, who was stricken by paralysis on Wednesday, is better to-day and may recover. His daughter, Mrs. O. B. Sheppard, and Mr. Sheppard of Toronto are with the doctor.

There was a big cocking main on Queen's Birthday morning on an island in the Dundas marsh. About daylight a crowd of local sports numbering nearly 150 made their way by boats and on foot to that locality, the pedestrians being ferried over to the field of action. Twenty battles were fought and the spectators got any amount of amusement out of the sport which was more than usually exciting. So fierce were the birds that one battle was fought right through the heavy rain that fell just at daybreak. They were all local birds, and considerable money changed hands over the result.

The longshoremen have struck for higher pay. They have been getting twenty cents an hour, and they demand twenty-five cents. Between thirty and forty men have struck, the vessel owners having refused to grant the rate demanded. Most of the vessel owners have granted the demand of the coal heavers for twenty cents an hour.

Search parties were out on the bay to-day looking for the bodies of the victims of Tuesday's drowning accident. The search was unsuccessful.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

Catarrh of Years' Standing Cured.

N. WASHINGTON, M. D., Throat and Lung Surgeon, Toronto.

DEAR SIR,—I am pleased to be able to state to you that I am now free from Catarrh. It is almost incredible that in so short a time I could have been cured of Catarrh, which has affected my health for years. A little over two months ago I took treatment from you, and to-day the Catarrh is entirely cured. Your treatment is simply a marvel. I will heartily recommend any of my friends personally, and would suggest to all thus troubled the advisability, of consulting you immediately. Accept my most thanks.

Yours etc.,

The Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE WEATHER.

Moderate winds, mostly fine and a little warmer.

Lawn Tennis.

Boating and bicycling shoes, very choice lines, just received at Foot & McWhinnie's.

Horses Shipped.

Mr. T. Cavanagh this afternoon shipped a carload of 17 fine horses to Mr. Lefevre, of Montreal.

Can't be Beat.

A $400 walnut dressing case, with marble tops and mirror, added to the internal equipment of Mr. Charlie Legros' barber shop on George street, in the new Cox block, completes its appearance and makes it second to none in town.

Are you a bargain-seeker? Call at Turnbull's and see his beautiful Cretonnes at 10c. a yard.

Young Men's Meetings.

The usual young men's meetings will be held on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. Song Service on Sunday evening at 8.30.

Bargains in Boots.

During the improvements in their premises Messrs. Stenson Bros. are giving immense bargains in Boots and Shoes. Daily renewals of stock keep it up to the highest mark. Call and be astonished at the bargains they offer.

The Jubilee Celebration.

A meeting of the Jubilee Celebration Committee will be held in the Firemen's Hall on Tuesday evening. All persons anxious to see the day properly celebrated are invited to attend. It is urgent that all the sub-committees should come prepared to report.

A New Journal.

Uxbridge is the happy possessor of another weekly newspaper, the North Ontario Times, published by Mr. R. R. Elliott, late editor of the Napanee Standard. The Times is an eight-page journal, a model of typographical neatness, and evidently a first-class local newspaper.

Forestry.

A special meeting of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C.O.F., will be held this evening at 8 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of making arrangements for attending the funeral of our late Bro., R. J. Milburn, on Sunday at 2 p.m. Members, of Court Little John are also requested to attend the funeral.

By order of the Chief Ranger,
A. D. RUSSELL, R. Sec'y.

Dramatic.

The Wilson Day Dramatic Company open a week's engagement in Bradburn's Opera House next Monday evening in the great sensational drama, "Unknown, or, Cast up by the Sea." Little Annie Bird will sing as usual. The company has been strengthened considerably since they were last in Peterborough, and can now present an entertainment that cannot be beaten by any company on the road. Popular prices, 10 and 25c.

Not So. Cotsma.

Both the Lindsay papers explain away the defeat of the baseball club of that town, by the Peterborough's, on the 24th, by stating that "only five innings were played," and intimating that if the game had been played out the result would have been reversed. There they are wrong. The defeat would have been rubbed in so much the deeper in every succeeding innings. The Lindsays, though, hope to have revenge at an early date.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Shoe-dressing.

The celebrated Oil Dressing for boots and shoes is now for sale at Foot & McWhinnie's, sole dealers for Peterborough.

Cornice Poles.

Just received at A. Clegg's, in ebony, walnut, and cherry. This special line will be sold at 75c., usual price $1.50.

Junior Cricketers.

The Peterborough Collegiate Institute Cricket Club went to Lindsay this morning to play a friendly match with the club of Lindsay High School, with masters.

An army of bright ladies and children buy their Hosiery at Turnbull's. Why? Because he shows a large stock, fresh from the largest factory in Germany, and sells them very cheap.

Market Memo.

There was a big market this morning. The butter market, especially, was crowded, butter going at 15 and 16c. per lb., eggs at 11c. doz. "Garden sass" was the main commodity offered on the market proper, selling in five cent quantities. Potatoes went at 90c. to $1 per bag.

To be Rebuilt.

Mr. T. G. Hazlitt will next week begin rebuilding the burned woolen mill, lately occupied by Mr. E. B. Wilson, near the Hunter street bridge. It is understood the new building will be occupied as a knitting factory. Mr. E. B. Wilson & Son will resume business in town as soon as a suitable site can be procured.

New Lacrosse Club.

At a meeting held on Friday night in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, a lacrosse club was formed which promises to be a flourishing one. Only part of the officers were elected, Mr. R. H. Henderson being elected captain. The meeting was adjourned for one week to complete organization. The first practice will be held on Monday night.

Stolen by a Boy.

The silver whistles stolen from the fire hall have been recovered, and the boy who stole them will on Monday appear before the Police Magistrate. After being stolen, one of the whistles was sold to another lad for 5c., and this coming into the hands of Mr. McNeil, of the Fire Committee, the theft was traced home by Acting-Chief Adams.

An Attraction.

The members of the Women's Missionary Society of the George street church have arranged for a very pleasant and profitable evening on Tuesday next. Short addresses will be given by Revs. Clarkson, Thompson and other prominent members of the Methodist Conference. During the evening a choice musical programme, consisting of solos, quartettes and choruses, will be given by the best local talent. Entertainment to begin at 8 o'clock. Silver collection at the door. 2d-124

Railway Rates.

The Secretary of the Oddfellows' Demonstration Committee has received a schedule of rates on the C.P.R., from Ottawa and Brockville in the east to Toronto in the west. The rates are unprecedently low, as the following items will show:—Ottawa to Peterborough and return, $3.90; Smith's Falls, $3.05; Carleton Junction, $3.30; Brockville, $3.60; Kingston and Perth, $2.80; Trenton, $1.75; Toronto, $1.90. Tickets good from August 9th to 12th. A schedule of Grand Trunk rates is expected very soon. They are equally as low.

The Herald's Complaint.

Says the Campbellford Herald, regarding the cricket match on the 24th:—"Peterborough came ready with a strong team—an eleven unevenly matched with those who enter upon the field only a few times during the year—having, it is said, a professional player, and three or four players who have stood at the wicket in international matches, and the result was a victory for them of 54 runs." Who was the professional? And who were the international players? Perhaps Lee Dunsford, the 11-year-old lad who faced Campbellford's bowling, was one of them?

Coming of the "Black Crook."

Mr. T. C. Howard's celebrated "Black Crook Company", which has begun a Canadian Holiday Tour, will appear at the Opera House, here, on Monday evening, June 6th. Concerning their appearance in Ottawa, the Free Press says:—"Upon the incidental specialties of the programme the entertainment was mainly dependent for interest, but these were sufficiently attractive to have redeemed a much less pleasing performance from failure. In scenic equipments the Howard combination is, without doubt, one of the best that has ever visited the Capital. Mons. Martinetti fully maintains his reputation as one of the greatest pantomimists and contortionists of the day. He was liberally applauded throughout the evening. Del Velcho's marvellous manipulation of many musical instruments, including the mandolin, silver bells, zither, and last but not least, an octave on champagne bottles, took the house by storm. An intensely amusing feature of the entertainment was the grotesque Japanese trapeze act by Messrs. Martinetti and Lord, who fairly convulsed the audience with laughter. Towards the close of the performance so well did the company perform the military evolutions, bedecked in glittering uniforms, that applause greeted almost every intricate movement. The company played to another crowded house, composed mainly of ladies and children, at yesterday's matinee. The entertainment is free from any offensive vulgarities, and may be witnessed with impunity by the most fastidious, while the grand spectacular attractions and transformation scenes almost set the little ones wild with delight.

Keep Your Cows at Home.

Seven residents of the north end, will, on Monday morning, before the Police Magistrate, answer to the charge of having allowed their cows to wander at large, contrary to the by-law to that effect.

HUNT'S BRICK TROWELS and the Cincinnati plastering trowels are noted for their excellent quality. Plastering and Kalsomining Brushes up to 10/0, for sale by GEORGE SHERRIN. dw

DIED.

GILBERT.—At St. Paul, Minn., on Wednesday, 25th May, 1887, William Gilbert, aged 33 years.

Funeral on Monday, at 3 p.m., from the residence of his brother-in-law, Sheriff Hall.

WATCH.—On May 27th, 1887, at the Parsonage, Omemee, Leslie John Norman, youngest son of Rev. C. W. Watch, aged 2 years and 5 months.

HUSTON.—At North Monaghan, on Saturday, May 21st, 1887, Mr. Wm. Huston, aged 75 years.

Mr. Huston was one of the earliest settlers in this county, arriving here from Cavan County, Ireland, in 1823. His death was unexpected. On Saturday, May 7th, he was taken with a pain in his side which troubled him for some time, but his medical attendant feared no serious consequences. On the day of his death it developed suddenly into heart disease, and he soon expired. Deceased leaves a wife and four children.

FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.

I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Lech's Hat Store.

It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago.

Cricket.

Stirling's Side vs. Salisbury's Side.

As the bankers and lawyers did not turn up in sufficient force on Saturday afternoon to tackle the rest of the club, sides were chosen by Messrs. Stirling and Salisbury. Stirling's side batted first and scored 81. Mr. Macintyre, a brother-in-law of Mr. C. McGill, and a member of the once famous St. Mary's Club, made the top score of 24 in excellent style, especially considering that he has not practised much for some seasons; Hatton's wicket was not to be taken, and he had 20 well-earned runs to his credit; Stirling played good, steady cricket for his 19, while Giroux contributed a baker's dozen in his customary lively style. Ray's bowling was good, indeed, getting all the wickets but one.

Salisbury's side fell short by 11 runs, although Ray made a most determined effort towards the close of the innings to equalize matters. He made the long score of 45, not out, playing very fine cricket against all the bowling that could be brought against him. Macintyre followed up his good batting by some fine bowling, getting all of the first four wickets that fell. The veteran Strickland showed that his right arm has not forgotten its cunning, as at the close of the match he took 3 wickets for 3 runs. Score:

BEATEN BY FOUR WICKETS.

The Collegiate Institute Cricket Club were defeated by the Lindsay High School club on Saturday by four wickets. They had three masters pitted against them, Messrs. Milner, Earstone and Hallett, who, by their batting and bowling, won the victory for the Lindsays. The Peterborough lads played a good game nevertheless, the last four Lindsay wickets in the second innings falling for two runs. Hamilton, for Peterborough, carried off the honors. The boys say they were well treated indeed. The Lindsay club will visit Peterborough to play the return match in about three weeks. Score:—

Personal.

Mr. T. Menzies attended the organization meeting of the Ticket Sellers' Association at Toronto last Friday.

Mr. John Tabener, who has been in charge of the Review book-bindery for some time past, has accepted the position of foreman in one of the largest binderies in Toronto, and will leave for there in two weeks. Mr. Tabener is to be congratulated on his promotion.

It is announced with regret that Rev. J. W. R. Beck, rector of Peterborough, is confined to his bed with illness. He was unable, of course, to take the services in St. John's on Sunday. Rev. Prof. Roper, of Trinity College, Toronto, took the services both morning and evening and also preached the sermon in the evening.

Prof. Demont left town to-day on a business trip to Montreal and Quebec. He made arrangements with his pupils for an absence of about three weeks or a month, at the end of which time he will return to town, to remain, it is to be hoped, in Peterborough, where his musical services cannot well be dispensed with.

A MINING HORROR.

SCORES OF LIVES LOST IN A LANARKSHIRE COLLIERY.

GLASGOW, May 23.—A terrible explosion last occurred in the Udston coal pit at Hamilton, a village in Lanarkshire, eight miles from this city. Two hundred and twenty miners are entombed in the pit and it is feared that all have perished. The shaft is blocked with debris caused by the explosion.

Further particulars of the explosion in the Udston pit show that the number of men entombed was less than first reported. Forty-five miners who were imprisoned in the upper seam of the pit were rescued, but one of them died after being brought to the surface. The others are suffering, however, from the effects of the shock and fire damp. Access to the lowest seam, where seventy men are confined, is found to be blocked by the debris rumbled down by the explosion. It was in this seam the explosion occurred, and it is not believed that any of the seventy men down there can be rescued alive. It is even thought that they are all dead now. There are seventy other men still imprisoned in the middle seam. Hopes are entertained of saving most of these. The volunteers working for their rescue can hear them calling for help. Cries of "Come," "Help," "Come quickly" have been heard frequently, and they have impelled the rescuers to the most frantic exertions to save them. The Udston pit is situated in the most busy of the coal districts of Scotland. As soon as the fact of the explosion became known miners from all the neighboring collieries hurried to the scene to help in the work of rescue. The pit has been surrounded ever since the disaster by a large crowd of weeping women and children. Five dead bodies have been already taken out of the mine.

GLASGOW, May 23.—Queen Victoria has sent a despatch expressing sympathy with the families of the dead miners. There is no hope that others in the mine can be saved.

GLASGOW, May 23.—Forty bodies have been recovered from the Udstone Coal pit at Blantyre.

ENGLISH POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

Several Names Mentioned as Successors to Parnell.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Tribune's London correspondent says: The Whitsuntide holidays may be said to date from the official celebrations of the Queen's birthday, which differed in no respect from the usual routine trooping of colors in the morning and dinners and illuminations in the evening. The last and most splendid of all was Lady Salisbury's reception at the foreign office. Royalties mustered in force. Great personages of every degree were numerous. Never were more uniforms visible. Experts pronounced Lady Salisbury's arrangements in flowers, lighting, music and supper above the average, but not equal to those of last year, when everything was done with exceptional perfection.

Members of Parliament mostly hurried off yesterday, all impatient for their much-needed vacation. Mr. Gladstone goes to Hawarden. He will make one speech during the recess, visiting South Wales for that purpose. There seems no idea of anything like general Liberal agitation. Things are too bad for that. The Tories are satisfied with the situation, and think there is no need of stumping the country. Mr. Goschen goes yachting, and Mr. Courtney to the Continent. Lord Randolph Churchill will speak. But Lord Randolph Churchill is for the moment under eclipse. The Liberal Unionists are hardest at work, Mr. Chamberlain hardest of all, organizing, speaking and diplomatizing.

Speculations, and something more than speculations, are already heard about the Irish leadership of the future. Mr. Parnell's mantle is rather too large for any other pair of shoulders, but competition for it will be keen. Three men always named as rivals are Mr. Dillon, Mr. T. P. O'Connor and Mr. Healy. Mr. Dillon's influence in Ireland is probably the greatest. Mr. O'Connor is the best political manager. Mr. Healy is by far the ablest in parliamentary business. No one has Mr. Parnell's coolness, judgment, clearness of political vision or power of enforcing discipline. It is doubtful whether any of them could maintain existing relations with the English Liberals.

The Liberal party is just now a flock of sheep without a shepherd. Mr. Gladstone comes irregularly. Sir William Harcourt lets things drift. Mr. Morley has not the authority nor the practical experience needful for leadership, nor does he often attempt to assume control. The radical wing does as seems good in its own eyes, or follows Mr. Labouchere or Mr. Conybeare. Mr. Parnell's absence has left the wilder spirits of the Irish party without a check.

The Calcutta Cyclone.

CALCUTTA, May 23. The cyclone which visited this section of the country yesterday was very destructive. A local steamer with 700 persons aboard was caught by the cyclone and is missing. It is feared she is lost with all aboard. The district of Orissa was completely devastated by the cyclone.

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE.

The City of Mexico Gets a Very Severe Shaking Up.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 23.—A heavy earthquake shock was felt in this city and throughout the valley at 2.39 this morning. Saturday afternoon had been extremely warm, in fact the weather for the last four days had been extraordinarily warm for this region, which generally enjoys a very mild degree of temperature even in summer. Late on Saturday afternoon there were several whirlwinds in the valley and in the city, carrying clouds of dust and fine gravel high in the air. At exactly ten minutes to 3 o'clock there was felt, not only in the city but in suburban towns, a violent shaking of the earth or sort of lifting motion, which lasted five seconds. Next there came, preduced by a low roar as from the bursts of the earth, and accompanied by a stiff breeze, a violent oscillation of the earth from east to west which awoke nearly everyone, lasting as it did, thirty-nine seconds. Houses swayed as if they were ships at sea, bells were rung in hotels and everywhere doors were forced open. Then came still another oscillation of much violence, proceeding from north to south. During this shock crockery was thrown down and pictures demolished in several houses. A scene of the wildest confusion followed and thousands of persons dressed themselves and did not go to bed again. Reports received to-day do not show any fatalities as the result of the earthquake.

PREPARING FOR O'BRIEN.

A Demonstration to be Held in New York—May Hotelists on Lansdowne.

NEW YORK, May 23.—A committee representing the Central Labor Union, District Assembly No. 49, Knights of Labor, and the United Labor Party, met last evening and made final arrangements for a grand demonstration in the way of a parade and meeting at Union Square next Tuesday evening, in honor of William O'Brien's return. The Secretary received a despatch [illegible] stating positively that [illegible] would address the meeting then, and the committee say they will have 100,000 men in line then, in the cause of "land restoration and industrial emancipation." Nine hundred Orangemen are expected to parade.

Irishmen May Hesitate.

MONTREAL, May 23.—It was current on the streets to-day that Lord Lansdowne will be invited to take part in the Queen's jubilee celebration on June 21, and that steps will be taken to give him an enthusiastic welcome. Some of the Irishmen say there will be no trouble if Lord Lansdowne comes to this city. An officer of the St. Patrick Society, however, said that if the Governor-General should show his face here he would be hissed and rotten-egged, as Mr. O'Brien has united the French and Irish, and they will not stand Lansdowne's presence.

A Silly Statement.

LONDON, May 23.—The Union, a Dublin newspaper, recently published an article inciting the murder of Editor O'Brien. It is said a portion of the article was subbed to leading Orangemen in Toronto, and that this was the cause of the attack on O'Brien. The Parnellites will call the attention of the House of Commons to the matter.

THE FRENCH CRISIS.

NEW ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD IMMEDIATELY.

LONDON, May 23.—It must not be believed that the gravity of the political crisis in France has in any way been diminished by the formation of the Rouvier Cabinet. On the contrary, the situation has been made rather worse thereby, and it is agreed on all hands, and especially in business circles here in London, that events of exceptional importance are likely to occur in Paris within the next few weeks. A series of revolutionary outbreaks is feared and the troops, who are devoted heart and soul to Boulanger, cannot be depended upon to defend a government which, according to their opinion, has treated him so shabbily. M. Rouvier, who is perfectly aware that his Cabinet could not live a day in the present Chamber, where he has a vast majority of Republicans against him, and where he is bound to look for support to the monarchial group, intends to dissolve it at once. The new elections will take several weeks and of course the newly-fledged Ministers will make the most of the time in the way of patronage, etc. The constitution of the Cabinet is distinctly unconstitutional, since it is supported by the suffrages of only a small minority of the Chamber. The new elections, judging by the news received from all parts of the country, will practically result in a plebiscite in favor of Gen. Boulanger, who will be elected at the head of the polls in almost every constituency.

When the General is borne back to power on the crest of his immense wave of popularity, President Grevy will have to abase for his unconstitutional conduct in forming a new Cabinet from a minority of the Chamber by his resigning his decisive hearth in favor of Boulanger, De Freycinet or Clemenceau. The new Cabinet consists almost exclusively of followers of Gambetta. Messrs. Rouvier, Spuller, Etienne, Cochery and Admiral Jaures have long been his most intimate companions. The policy of the administration will be that of the Opportunist paper, La Republique Francaise.

PARIS, May 23.—At midnight it is semi-officially stated that the Ministry is still incomplete. The War and Marine portfolios are still unallotted.

Gen. Saussier has declined the office of War Minister. It is probable General Ferron will accept the War portfolio.

The Cabinet.

M. Rouvier has formed a Cabinet as follows:
Premier and Minister of Finance—M. Rouvier.
Minister of Foreign Affairs—M. Flourens.
Minister of Justice—M. Spuller.
Minister of the Interior and of Public Worship—
Minister of War—Gen. Saussier.
Minister of Marine—Admiral Jaures.
Minister of Agriculture—M. Develle.
Minister of Public Works—M. Ribeaux.
Minister of Posts and Telegraphs—M. Cochery.
Minister of Public Instruction—M. Berthelot.

Feeling at Berlin.

BERLIN, May 23.—The announcement from Paris that M. Rouvier had succeeded in forming a Ministry, excluding Gen. Boulanger, and composed of Moderates who favor peace, was received here with satisfaction, qualified by fears that the existence of the new Cabinet would be stormy, soon ending in a more acute crisis. The composition of the Ministry did not become known until morning, but early in the day a report that Gen. Saussier had replaced Gen. Boulanger gave a better tone to the Bourse, although the approach of holidays and the absence of dealers checked business.

THE PARIS FIRE.

So Far Seventy-five Corpses Have Been Recovered from the Ruins.

PARIS, May 23.—It is officially announced this afternoon that seventy-five corpses have so far been recovered from the ruins of the Opera Comique. It is expected that 100 will be found.

Twelve English people lost their lives by the burning of the Opera Comique. The funeral of the theatre employes, which will be held in the Church of the Madeline, will be an imposing affair.

Many Bodies Under the Debris.

PARIS, May 23.—A noisome smell arises from the ruins of Opera Comique, interfering with the work of searching for the bodies, although deodorizing fluids are thrown upon the ruins. The stench shows that there must still be many bodies under the debris.

CANADA'S SALT FISH TRADE.

The English Consul at Cadiz Shows How the Dominion is at a Disadvantage.

LONDON, May 23.—The English consul at Cadiz says: "The Canadian salt fish trade with Spain has for years been heavily handicapped. The anticipation that the Dominion would secure a fair portion of trade as a result of the commercial convention between Great Britain and Spain proved fallacious. The Government bounty enables the French colonies to undersell ours. The difference in price amounts to eight or nine shillings per fifty kilos. This state of affairs is peculiarly hard on our colonies, for, while taking on an average a hundred and fifty cargoes of salt yearly from Cadiz, we do not sell a single cargo of fish."

McGlynn Will Go to Rome.

MERIDEN, Conn., May 23.—Rev. Dr. McGlynn, who lectured here last night stopped at the Winthrop Hotel and there met a waitress named Malloy, recently from New York and a former parishioner of his at St. Stephens. She expressed regret that he should have to leave his old church, whereupon he said: "Never mind, I shall have it back again. I intend to go to Rome inside of nine days."

BUFFALO, May 23.—Bishop Ryan has refused the use of St. Stephens' Hall for a lecture announced to be given here by Father McGlynn, on the ground that the latter is in open rebellion against the church.

O'BRIEN AT BOSTON.

The Agitator Being Where Speech is Absolutely "Free," Enjoys Himself.

BOSTON, May 23.—William O'Brien, Denis Kilbride and party arrived here from Montreal at 12.3 this morning. They were greeted at the station by a large crowd and escorted to the Parker House by a committee representing the local Irish societies. After breakfast a reception was held. Mr. O'Brien then retired for a brief rest. At 5 o'clock he dined with the committee and at 7 was escorted by them to the Boston theatre, where the evening's address was to be delivered. The theatre was filled from pit to dome, and Mr. O'Brien, as he appeared upon the stage, was enthusiastically received. John Boyle O'Reilly presided.

At the conclusion of his address, which was devoted to a review of his Canadian experience and bitter denunciation of Lord Lansdowne, Mr. O'Brien read a cablegram from John Dillon, which said that, following Lansdowne's example, evictions and seizures were going on upon all sides and there was more urgent need of substantial aid from America.

The meeting netted about $20,000 for the eviction fund.

DISASTROUS BOILER EXPLOSION.

Five Men Killed and Twelve Wounded at Natchez, Miss.

NATCHEZ, Miss, May 23.—About 6.30 o'clock this morning the boiler of the Natchez cotton factory exploded, entirely demolishing the engine room. The large factory was damaged to the extent of many thousands of dollars. Most of the mill hands were in their places when the explosion occurred. A scene of the wildest terror prevailed among the 400 men, women and children in the factory.

The fire organization of the city was soon on hand and a united party set to work removing those who were caught in the building. All but two of the sufferers were soon taken from the ruins. These two were deeply covered with debris and were several hours under it before being rescued. Both were dead when found.

The loss to the company is estimated at $40,000. The killed were George A. McNeal, A. B. Foster, James Mathewis, a colored man named Ernest Alexander and Henry Mutts. The severely injured number twelve.

THE COUNCIL AND THE APPLICANTS.

At the meeting of the Council to-night the report of the committee charged to investigate the application for Water street, as an addition to the brick works property' will be up for disposal. It is to be hoped that the Council will take the proper view of the matter and endorse the decision to which the committee has arrived, which is the only one, in view of the real facts of the case, that could be taken. It will be well to have a decided expression of policy against giving or selling the streets of the town for any purpose. In this case there is private property adjoining the brick works which could be secured instead of alienating and closing streets used for the purposes of the town. The council will also do well to give a quietus to the application for remission of taxes of an establishment conducted by a company with a capital of $120,000, established on a firm financial basis, reaping the benefit of ten years' exemption from taxation, and enjoying the benefits of a high protective tariff. The town needs all its taxes to make required improvements, and it is certainly an unfortunate time to sequester a large amount of taxes for the benefit of institutions which are no more entitled to that piece of favoritism than scores of other industries in town, when we have to borrow money to make ordinary improvements. We have confidence that the council will look below the surface and and do its duty by the people at to-night's meeting.

THE country is put to an immense and unnecessary expense by the application of the utterly unnecessary Franchise Act. The cost of revising the voters' lists in the county of Perth was about $5000, for the actual payments amount to $4,640, with the salaries not yet paid in full. With a corresponding expense in over 200 ridings the total cost of revising the Dominion voters' lists will amount to about a million dollars—a total waste, for the local lists serve to elect honester men than were returned under the Dominion lists. But that's the very point; the object of the Franchise Act is to elect men who will support the government. With a bare possibility of their being honest men they cannot claim to be honestly elected representatives.

Applications for Exemption.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

DEAR SIR:—I see an application has been made to the council to reduce the assessment upon the Auburn Mills, and also upon the mill of Mr. Hilliard. I don't suppose that either of these requests would be entertained even if the council had the power to do so. It luckily happens, however, that they have not the power. The statutes provide the only way for dealing with over assessment. And the council are bound to submit to the law. It provides, first, for an appeal to the Court of Revision, and secondly, for an appeal to the County Judge. And, after that, if any party feels aggrieved, all he can do, after he has paid his taxes, is to ask the council for a return of a portion of them in cash. The council have no power except what the Municipal Act gives them. And if they exceed that power the councillors are personally liable for any loss or injury which may thereby be sustained. This application by the Auburn Mills is simply scandalous. They have already had exemption from taxation for ten years, amounting to many thousand dollars, which the rate-payers have had to pay for them, and they have also received a bonus in cash of $2,500. And it is notorious that the stock-holders are making rich out of the vast profits from these mills. And still they are not satisfied. The cry is still for more. As for Mr. Hilliard, I can't understand what he means. His claim is the most preposterous one I ever heard of. If he could succeed, every person who makes a little improvement about his property could equally ask for a similar favor. There is at least one member in the Council directly and personally interested in these applications. He had better consider the consequences of what he is doing to put money into his own pocket, whilst serving as a trustee for the rate-payers.

RATE-PAYER.

FROM OTTAWA.

A BIOUT WHICH FILLED MR. CASEY, M.P., WITH ALARM.

OTTAWA, May 23.—Several Liberals of Ottawa met in Room 6 to-day and presented John T. Hawke with an address and a purse containing $200. Mr. Hawke leaves on Monday for Moncton.

The vote on the Disallowance question is causing considerable discussion here. It is claimed that Hon. Alex. Mackenzie would have voted with the Government had he been present, and that one or two shirked the vote. A recital of the pairs disposes of both these charges. The pairs were Marshall and McMullen, Davin and Mackenzie, Cargill and Mulock, McKeon and Jones.

A ludicrous matter in connection with the Governor-General's reception is going the rounds to-day. As the representative of the city, Mayor Stewart appeared in the robes allowable at receptions to the representative of the Queen, viz: a scarlet cloak, trimmed with fur and cocked hat. The outfit looks considerably like an Orange procession it must be admitted, and this is believed to have been the first occasion of its use in all Canada, but Mayor Stewart doesn't do things by halves.

Mr. Casey, M.P., was the first to spot the innovation at the station platform. "There it is," said he, "the Orangemen have the pull in everything." Standing about were a number of loyal Roman Catholics, who had come down to cheer for Lansdowne. Nobody recognised McLeod Stewart. They honestly thought it was the Grand Master of an Orange Lodge taking the lead in the reception. They went to one side and held an indignation meeting. They decided to pass a series of resolutions, but had only agreed upon "whereas" when a scout arrived with intelligence of the true state of the case. That completely altered the aspect of the case. Proud of their enterprising and public spirited mayor, they went off, joined the procession, and cheered for Lansdowne until the welkin split. All of which goes to show that it makes considerable difference who wears the cloak.

The special committee regarding Mr. F. B. McNamee's claim re the Esquimalt Graving Dock met this morning and elected Mr. Shakespeare chairman. It was ordered that all papers relating to the case be ready for Monday.

Yesterday the Mayor received the following letter from the Governor-General, which speaks for itself:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA, May 27.

Dear Mr. Mayor: I feel that I was yesterday quite unable to express to you adequately my appreciation of the memorable welcome extended to us by the citizens of Ottawa. It is only when I look back calmly and deliberately to the events of yesterday that I can realize their significance and the value—from a public point of view—of this wonderful demonstration of loyalty.

The numbers present, not only in the square, but throughout our route, the cordiality of the greetings we received, the extent of the decorations, from the triumphal arches which spanned the streets, down to the smallest flags waved from the windows of the humblest houses, the mounted escort composed of gentlemen representative of all that is best in your city, the voices of two thousand school children, and above all the admirable order and good temper shown by the vast concourse of people, all combined to render the scene a truly remarkable and wonderful one.

I trust that a good description will find its way to the English newspapers. For your own personal courtesy and kindness we cannot be sufficiently grateful.

You will, I trust, find some compensation for the trouble which has been occasioned to you by these events in the reflection that your citizens acquitted themselves so well.

Pray accept my best thanks, in which Lady Lansdowne, who was not less touched than I was, joins me heartily.

LANSDOWNE.

Prof. Lawson of Dalhousie College, N.S., was examined to-day by Dr. Schultz's special committee appointed to enquire into the natural food products of the Northwest and the best means of preserving them. A number of prominent residents of the Northwest will be called to Ottawa to be examined.

Nineteen out of the twenty names for the Wimbledon team have already been selected.

Deputy-Minister of the Interior Burgess started last night on his journey through Manitoba, the Territories and British Columbia. He is on departmental business and will probably be absent two months.

Prominence is given in unofficial circles here to the rumor that Hon. J. A. Chapleau is to be made Lieut.-Governor of Quebec. The report is not believed to rest on good foundation.

Mr. J. F. Maurice Macfarlane, representing Macfarlane, McKinley & Co., Toronto, manufacturers of window shades, has interviewed Sir Charles Tupper regarding the tariff change affecting their business. A special clause in the tariff of 1879 provided that the duty on cotton over thirty-six inches wide when imported by manufacturers of window shades for use in their factories should be 15 per cent. This clause has been repealed. The firm suggests the following classification: window shades, window shadings, window holland cut in lengths or in the piece, white, stained, dyed, oiled, coated, flocked, stamped, printed or mounted on rollers, 5c. per square yard, and 20 per cent. ad valorem. The old tariff to which the Government now returns imposes a tax of 1 cent. per square yard and 15 per cent. ad valorem upon the raw material. This is practically a tax of 35 per cent. The firm in question have had to pay $74.64 duty on one invoice of $270. Sir Charles and Mr. Bowell promised to consider the matter.

THE C. P. R.'S LINE.

A San Francisco Company Will Compete With it for the Tea and Rice Trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The first of three Cunard steamers purchased for the Pacific Ocean traffic to ply between Hong Kong and Vancouver, will sail from Yokohama to-morrow.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company filed a bond with the collector of the port to-day for $100,000, which will be forwarded for approval to the Department at Washington. If accepted the company will be authorized to carry goods in bond by way of Puget Sound and the Canadian roads and compete for the tea and rice trade.

COMMERCIAL UNION.

Interviews on the Subject in the New York Times.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Times this morning contains telegraphed interviews with Sir William P. Howland and one of his partners, Mr. Tilley. Sir William strongly favors commercial union with the United States, but prefers that Canada and the United States should each retain full power to make their own tariffs against other countries. He does not believe that annexation would follow commercial union. Mr. Tilley takes the view that the existing state of things is for the best.

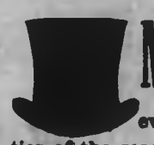
A Boom in Summer Clothing

AND HATS.

Such is our confident prediction, with excellent means of verification. The advent of May, with its pleasant days, foretells an excellent Summer trade. In fact, we have seized time by the forelock, and made unusual preparations. We Show to-day the Largest and Handsomest assortment of



Mens, Boys & Children's Hats

ever exhibited in Canada, including all the Novelties of the season. Our unparalelled displays of

FELT HATS, NEWEST STYLES, 20c. EACH

is an important item in itself.

But the agitation of the day is, how Gough, The Wonderful Cheap Man, can sell a beautful

ALL-WOOL SUIT FOR $3.75.

that cost MINIATURE CLOTHIERS $5.00 wholesale. Well, it is wonderful how we do—but we do, and though the army and navy might scare O'Brien, the Great Gough still remains as firm as a rock, and will continue to make the High-Priced Clothiers Howl.

OUR SHOW!

We are showing this season, probably the most Varied and Complete Stock ever shown by any one Clothing House in Canada, and we have placed on them what our patrons say—and our contemporaries are bound to ackowledge, are

The Lowest Prices Ever Dreamed of.

We freely admit we are fallen Clothiers, wallowing in the lowest depths of Bed Rock Prices, while our exalted brethren look down upon us from their high places, and go wild because we capture the trade.

Quality and Workmanship are our Wheel-horses,
Style and Price the Leaders;

and we made these pull to the last fraction, to give you good Goods at Reasonable Prices. Give us a call and buy one of our $3.75 NEVER-WEAR-OUT SUITS. It is no trouble to show our goods, in fact, we enjoy it.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents, or any similar application, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the effected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who have for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict, testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm. eodw22

Domestic Economy.

As a matter of economy it will pay every household to keep a bottle of Yellow Oil for accidents and emergencies, in case of pain as a handy relief, and for wounds, burns, bruises and injuries. Rheumatism, neuralgia, quinsy, and many painful diseases treated internally and externally by it often save large medical bills. 2w22d

The Last Year, 1886.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by John McKee, Druggist. eodw21

A Valuable Discovery.

F. P. Tanner, of Neebing, Ont., says he has not only found B. B. B. a sure cure for dyspepsia, but he also found it to be the best medicine for regulating and invigorating the system that he has ever taken. B. B. B. is the great system regulator. 2w22d

Weather Probabilities.

It is probable that in the breaking up of winter we shall have much damp sloppy weather, when rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, and other rainful complaints will prevail. Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the popular household remedy for external and internal use. Its curative power is truly wonderful. 2w22d

Try It.

"What shall I do for this distressing Cough?" Try Hagyard's Pectorial Balsam; It is soothing and healing to the throat and lungs, and loosens the tough mucous that renders breathing difficult or painful. 2w22d

The Fire Bells

Ring out an alarm and it is heeded. This is to notify you that base substitution is practiced when the great sure-pop corn cure is asked for. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor never fails to take corns off. It makes no sore spots and gives no pain. Be sure and get "Putnam's." 6dw22

Worth Remembering.

Mrs. T. Doan, of Harrietsville, Ont., was for a long time troubled with neuralgia of stomach. Failing to find benefit from her physicians, she tried Burdock Blood Bitters from which she found speedy relief, to which she testifies, hoping it may prove beneficial to others. Many physicians recommend B. B. B. 2w22d

American Jockey Club Dates.

NEW YORK, May 28.—These dates were fixed to-night for the racing season at the various tracks in the vicinity of this city: Jerome Park, May 30 to June 9, fall dates not decided on; Brooklyn Jockey Club, June 10 to 17 and Sept. 10 to Oct. 1; Coney Island Jockey Club, June 10 to 17 and Sept. 1 to 17; Monmouth Park, July 4 to Aug. 27. The Suburban will be run June 15 instead of June 14, as was expected.

Fast Time in Mud and Rain.

GRAVESEND, L. I., May 28.—This was the fifth day of the Brooklyn Jockey Club meeting. The weather was showery all the afternoon and at times the rain came down in torrents. The Clarendon and Bedford stakes were the two principal events. Mr. Wither's King Ernest-Julietta colt, who won the former event, was afterwards named Fitzroy. Summaries:

First race, for 3-year-olds and upwards, 4 furlongs—Mariposa, 126, won by a length and a half; Ichi Ban, 130, second; Climax, 116, third; time 1.16.

Second race, a handicap sweepstakes for 3-year-olds and upwards, 1⅛ miles—Wickham, 108, won by half a length; Pat Lee, 103, second; Maggie J., 93, third; time 1.58.

Third race, the Bedford Stakes, for 3-year-olds, 6 furlongs:
J. B. Haggin's ch.c. Mercury, by King Ban, 115..... 1
J. B. Haggin's br.c. Fiji James, by Kyrle Daly, 115.. 2
Dwyer Bros.' b.c. Ferdinan, by Falsetto, 115..... 3
Time—1.16¾.

Fourth race, the Clarendon Stakes, for 3-year-olds, 1¼ miles:
D. D. Withers' b.c. ——, by King Ernest, 108..... 1
Fairfax Stable's gr.s. Grimmace, by Flood, 108..... 2
D. D. Withers' b.c. ——, by Stonehenge, 103 3
Won by two lengths.
Time—2.16.

Fifth race, for 3-year-olds, 5 furlongs—Kormesse, 102, won by two lengths; Blumber, 97, second; Aniban, 100, third; time 1.04.

Sixth race, 1¾ miles—Al Reed, 103, won by two lengths; Sailor, 97, second; Letretia, 111, third; time 1.52¾.

The Thistle will sail next Saturday in the great English Channel race for yachts of any rig or class exceeding nine tons. The course will be from South End to Harwich, with time allowance for fifty miles. Her performance in this race ought to give a pretty fair idea of her speed and sailing qualities, and in a measure determine her chance of success in the races here for the America's cup.

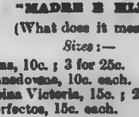
THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY



WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!

PAIN-CONQUEROR.

The Most Efficacious in the World.

Superintendent O'Neil, of the Dominion Police, Ottawa: I kept that wonderful medicine, St. Jacobs Oil, both at my home and office, and esteem it, without any exception, the most efficacious remedy in the world.

Rheumatism Cured.

Toronto, Ontario, March 8, 1887.

As a household remedy I find St. Jacobs Oil invaluable, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a panacea for rheumatism, neuralgia and kindred complaints. I always keep a bottle on hand.

JAS. BRANDON, Ex-Alderman.

A Government Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Bowells, Minister of Customs, Canada, says: A member of my family used St. Jacobs Oil, and found it efficacious. I think it good.

Greatest Ever Introduced.

Mr. John Taylor, Taylor, Bros. & Co., 30 Market St., Toronto, Ont. St. Jacobs Oil is an excellent remedy: one of the greatest things ever introduced into Canada.

What Thousands Say.

Mr. J. A. Simmers, German Consul, Toronto, Canada: I say, with thousands of others, that St. Jacobs Oil cannot be surpassed.

Lame Leg—Cured.

Mulgrave, Ontario, February 7, 1887.

I have used St. Jacobs Oil for years, and have always found it an excellent remedy. My son had a lame leg for about one year. I applied St. Jacobs Oil and in about one week he could walk again. I recommend it wherever I can.

CARL ABRAHAM.

ST. JACOBS OIL is an absolute cure for all bodily pains for which an external remedy may be applied. It never fails. It acts like magic, and a trial of it has convinced the most incredulous. It is sold by Chemists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the Dominion of Canada. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Catarrh of Years' Standing Cured.

N. WASHINGTON, M. D., Throat and Lung Surgeon, Toronto.

DEAR SIR,—I am pleased to be able to state to you that I am now free from Catarrh. It is almost incredible that in so short a time I could have been cured of Catarrh, which has affected my health for years. A little over two months ago I took treatment from you, and to-day the Catarrh is entirely cured. Your treatment is simply a marvel. I will heartily recommend any of my friends personally, and would suggest to all thus troubled the advisability, of consulting you immediately. Accept my many thanks.

Yours etc.,

LOCAL NEWS.

THE WEATHER.

Moderate to fresh southeast to southwest winds; partly cloudy to cloudy weather, with showers towards evening; not much change in temperature.

Confirmed.

Confirmation services were held in St. Peter's Cathedral, Sunday morning. About 200 young people were admitted to the full privileges of the church. His Lordship Bishop Dowling, performed the ceremonies.

Shoe-dressing.

The celebrated Oil Dressing for boots and shoes is now for sale at Foot & McWhinnie's, sole dealers for Peterborough.

The Play To-night.

The Wilson Day Dramatic Co. present "Unknown", a drama of high merit, at the Opera House, to-night. Little Annie Bird will sing. Popular prices, 10, 15 and 25c.

Are you a bargain-seeker? Call at Turnbull's and see his beautiful Cretonnes at 10c. a yard.

A Trial Solicited.

The Town Clock Grocery store can supply you with the choicest groceries of every kind at lowest figures. Call upon W. J. Morrow, at the Town Clock Grocery, and be convinced.

Ceraice Poles.

Just received at A. Clegg's, in ebony, walnut, and cherry. This special line will be sold at 75c., usual price $1.50.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Two Glasses Gone.

Both the large plate-glass windows in Sullivan's dry goods store (No. 3) were badly cracked yesterday, one breach being a quarter of an inch wide. It is thought to have been done by the settling of the building.

A Troublesome Drunk.

Saturday afternoon a drunken fellow entered Robinson's barber shop on Water street and raised a "racket," smashing the glass doors and making the place fairly howl. He was got out of the way by some of his friends just as a policeman appeared on the scene.

Turnbull's mammoth store is in its new summer dress, decked with Lace Flouncings and Embroideries, Lace Grenadines, Lace Gloves and Parasols, Lace Curtains and Pillow Shams, etc., etc. For new and handsome goods this is the right house.

Y. W. C. T. U.

The Young Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the W. C. T. U. hall. Parties sending flowers for the hospital will kindly leave them at the W. C. T. U. hall on Thursday afternoon at half-past three o'clock.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

The Band in the Park.

The Fire Brigade Band will give its usual weekly serenade in the Court House Park this evening, and will also do its practising in the park every night this week. The public need not, however, expect any better music than that incidental to practice, except, of course, to-night, when an excellent programme of well-rendered music will be presented. The park is chosen for practice as being more suitable, especially in summer weather.

Police Court.

MONDAY, MAY 30th.

Wm. H. Carr and Thos. Ray were each fined $1.00 for allowing their cows to run at large, and Wm. Cumming was fined the same amount for not keeping his horse on his own premises.

Several Scott Act cases will be disposed of to-morrow, all first offences.

Arranging The Prizes.

The hotel-men and the cab-men of the town, having contributed liberally to the funds of the Central Exhibition, to be held next fall, will meet in council at the Grand Central Hotel on Friday evening, June 3rd, to decide as to what prize their portion of the contributions will be devoted.

To Avoid Baldness or Grey Hair.

Use Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic. It keeps the scalp clean and free from Dandruff, and promotes the growth of the hair. It prevents premature greyness and stops all falling out of the hair. On bald heads, where the roots have not perished, it will invigorate them and cause a new growth of hair. Ask for Hair Magic. It is the only reliable. For sale by J. D. Tully and all druggists.

Burying a Deceased Brother.

The funeral of the late Robert Millburn took place yesterday, from the family residence in Smith to Little Lake Cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Peterborough Court of Foresters, under whose auspices the burial took place with the ceremonies of the order. The Fire Brigade Band also accompanied the funeral procession, which was an unusually large one.

No one need despair of finding Millinery to suit them while Turnbull is in the trade. He keeps a well-selected stock of choice goods, and as new lines appear in the market, has new Shapes and Trimmings arriving almost daily.

Cheap Rates.

The promoters of the A. C. A. meet at Stoney Lake in August are using every effort to make it a success. Cheap fares are being secured, the latest being the arrangement with the steamer Norseman to carry members of the Association from Charlotte, N.Y., to Port Hope, and return, for $2, canoes and camping paraphernalia free. This advantageous arrangement cannot fail to draw many New York visitors.

The Late Mr. Gilbert's Funeral.

The body of the late Wm. Gilbert, who died suddenly at St. Paul, Minn., arrived in town last night. Sheriff Hall accompanied the remains from Toronto, where he relieved a brother Oddfellow who had brought the corpse from St. Paul of his charge. The body was met at the station by a committee of Oddfellows of Peterborough lodge, of which deceased was a member in good standing, and taken in charge by them and Mr. A. Clegg, undertaker. The funeral took place from the residence of Sheriff Hall, deceased's brother-in-law, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Oddfellow honors. It was largely attended.

The Neighborhood Breathes Freer Now.

Moore & Co., butchers, who were in business on the corner of McDonnel and Aylmer streets, a week or so ago closed up their premises and retired from business. For the past few days an intolerable stench has emanated from the place, consequent upon the decay of the fresh meat left therein. On Saturday afternoon Acting-Chief Adams, not being able to find the late proprietor, forced an entrance and removed the fetid meat, consisting of several quarters of beef, a carcass of veal and some pork. There were also four barrels of corned beef and one of herring, in a fair state of preservation. The stock was buried and the premises fumigated throughout.

Highway Robbery.

An Englishman who has been selling lavender flowers in packages about town for a few days was the victim of a highway robbery and assault on Saturday night. In company with two other men, all three pretty drunk, he started for a walk up Charlotte Street, after night o'clock, and when near the head of the street, he was set on by the other men who knocked him down, beat him into insensibility, and then stripped his pockets, taking $35 in money and other things. He was soon picked up and taken to his boarding-house, and is around this morning not much the worse for the rough handling he received. Nothing has been seen of the miscreants who committed the crime.

Building Notes.

Mr. J. J. Lundy is to erect a store and dwelling at the corner of King and George Streets at the south end of his tenement terrace.

Messrs. Valentine Best and John Nugent are building residences for themselves on the Kemp lot on Brock St. Mr. T. C. Irwin is contractor for Mr. Nugent's and Mr. Lundy's buildings and Mr. T. Rutherford for the other.

Mr. Irwin has also the contract for raising and rebuilding a residence for Mr. Wm. Cowie, Simcoe Street. The work of raising has been already carried out with peculiar skill.

The A. C. A. Year Book.

Mr. J. D. Collins, secretary of the Northern Division of the American Canoe Association, has received a letter from the New York secretary of the A. C. A., Mr. W. M. Carter, stating that he expected to have the A. C. A. year book in the printers' hands by June 15th, and requesting Mr. Collins to send in the names of all members, who are entitled to the privilege of having their names in the book, by June 10th. Many members of the Northern Division who have dropped from last year's book have decided to come on again, as it was advisable that their names should appear in the year book. All parties wishing to join the Association should pay their fees and send in their names, those of their canoes, and the clubs to which they belong, number, etc., to Mr. J. D. Collins, Peterborough, at once.

Sale of an Important Property.

Reference to another column, will show the reader that the fine property known as "St. Leonard's", Ashburnham, is in the market, Dr. H. C. Burritt, of Toronto, having decided to offer it for sale. This is a rare chance for those desiring to make a profitable real estate investment. The site of the property is a most desirable one, the view dominating the town and surrounding country. Upon the premises are the foundation walls of the residence, in first-rate condition, and the complete brick stables are standing. The property embraces some five or six acres, and with the exception of the part devoted to paddock and garden, consists of beautiful park-like, undulating lawn, studded with well grown, thrifty trees, shrubs, etc. For a private residence, ladies school, boys' school, or similar purposes no other site can compare with it for excellence of situation, beauty of ornamentation by way of trees, etc., or accessibility to town, combined with seclusion. Investors will do well to study the advertisement and look over this valuable property.

Golden grains of truth. Turnbull is selling Ladies' Taffeta and pure Silk Gloves that are cut to fit the hand; every pair numbered. You will not regret having walked an extra block after you have tried a pair.

CANADA METHODIST MAGAZINE.

The Bay of Quinte Annual Conference.

Our Ministerial Guests and Their Circuits—The Temperance Record of the Ministers Composing the Conference—Christian Co-operation.

Four years ago the Toronto Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada held its annual session in Peterborough. This year the town has again been selected for the meeting-place of the successor of the above Conference, the Bay of Quinte Conference. The large number of clerical visitors will pretty severely tax the available domiciliary resources, yet the requisite accommodation has been secured, all the more easily thanks to the kindly Christian co-operation of the members of other denominations, who have united with their Methodist brethren in extending hospitality to the ministers of a common faith.

Below is given a list of the ministers expected to be present during the Conference, and also a list of their homes during their temporary enjoyment of Peterborough citizenship:—

WHEN IN ROME DO AS ROME DOES.

If SHEPPARD of the GREAT CHEAPSIDE, PETERBORO, adopted this old adage, he would at once, to be in the fashion, proceed to advertise a Great Clearing Sale at Cost. But this is not his forte.

To Sell the CHEAPEST Goods in Peterboro is his Mission.

and to judge from what the public are saying, he is rapidly acquiring the name of the CHEAP CASH STORE. This week, and until further notice, the following Special Lines will be sold:—

12 Cent Factory for 8 Cents	12 Cent Brown Linen for 8 Cents
9 Cent Factory for 6 Cents	14 Cent Brown Linen for 10 Cents

GAUDAUR CHAMPION.

HANLAN BEATEN IN THE RACE AT PULLMAN BY FOUR LENGTHS.

CHICAGO, May 30.—Three hundred yards from the finish at the Calumet course this evening Ned Hanlan, the oarsman, turned an instant from the pelting rain only to see thrown in his face a stunning defeat from Jacob Gaudaur. The oars of the great ex-champion dropped nervelessly into the choppy waters, as with drooping head he pulled along dejectedly through the rain, six lengths behind the winner. Seven thousand drenched and dripping people on the banks gazed pitifully at the loser and then began a cheer for Gaudaur, who crossed the line just as the sun burst through the clouds.

When the two oarsmen came out on the course ready for a three-mile pull to decide who should be called champion of America and carry away $2500 in stakes the sky was leaden, but apparently did not threaten rain. A slight roughness of the water had no deterring influence, and the start was made with promptness. Hanlan was at once a trifle in the lead, pulling a short, quick stroke, 43 to the minute. Gaudaur kept close to him with a long steady sweep, about 38 to the minute. Gradually Hanlan forged ahead and at the end of the initial mile was fully a boat length in advance. It had been the gossip that if Hanlan could lead to the turn he was nearly a certain winner, but if Gaudaur reached the buoy first Hanlan would never catch up on a stern chase. Great therefore were the expectations of Hanlan's friends to see him nearing the turn, clearly ahead of Gaudaur and gaining all the time. While all eyes were straining after the blue and scarlet specks in the distance, the wind suddenly freshened and huge drops of rain began to fall. The lake was soon lumpy from end to end, and the down-pour was almost blinding.

Hanlan turned first, two lengths ahead, time 10.03. He was pulling about thirty-five strokes a minute at this point, and rounding to Gaudaur struck about the same gait. Hanlan stopped an instant here for some purpose but did not lose the lead. He kept well to the front, as from the start until entering the third mile. There Hanlan commenced to flag. So uneven did his stroke become and so great the exertion that many believed his boat was leaking or had shipped one of the choppy seas. Gaudaur was rowing magnificently. He showed the same long steady sweep he had taken at the outset, but faster. With machine-like precision he passed the poor struggling Hanlan. A boat's length of water between them could be seen, then another, and at last one more additional.

"Hanlan's beaten," murmured the crowd. "No," shouted others, "see him spurt, see him spurt," and spurt Hanlan did with a vengeance. The multitudes on shore and afloat held their breaths then and regardless of the rain tossed hats and umbrellas in the air and started to yell like Comanches. The cheers died on their lips. Hanlan could not stand the pace, and again Gaudaur's great sweep began to tell. It was then that Hanlan lay back just an instant, and turning his face from the rain shot a glance over his shoulder at Gaudaur. The single glance was enough. Hanlan saw himself irretrievably beaten. Gaudaur was six lengths to the fore.

Seeing Hanlan surrender all hope Gaudaur magnanimously slackened speed, and passed the stand an easy winner by four lengths. Time 20.29. It was a fine performance under the adverse conditions.

Hanlan was seen by an Associated Press reporter immediately after the race and asked what he thought of the result. "I do not think the best man won," said Hanlan, "though I acknowledge I was fairly beaten." Questioned how that could be the champion grew taciturn and would only say that he did not wish to make any excuses. Persistent queries, however, brought out the statement from Hanlan that he had not been in the best of condition. "I have been suffering from a cold," he said, "and it told on me exactly when I most wanted it not to."

In sharp contrast to the glum appearance of Hanlan was the cheery sunbrown face of Gaudaur. "That was the hardest race I ever rowed," said he. "I just had to do my level best," he added, "and I did it."

The referee of the race was Hanlan's choice, Hamilton Busby of New York. Hanlan gets 40 per cent. of $3000, the total gate receipts. The remainder goes to Gaudaur. The figures 20.29 were from Lyman Glover, President of the Farragut Club, who was aboard the press boat as time-keeper. Jacob Stumpf of St. Louis and Jos. Rogers of Toronto were on the referee's boat, close to the oarsmen throughout the race. Both carefully timed the contest and both agree that the three miles was made in 19.30. Their time was this evening declared official. Gaudaur, therefore, broke the record, the best previous time being his own against Teemer over the same course, 19.54.

Hanlan, though beaten, not only forced Gaudaur to break all records but also broke them himself. Hanlan's time, according to official record, was 19.34. His backer stated to-night that he would send Hanlan to Australia to beat Beach and then return to America to again attempt the defeat of Gaudaur. Hanlan's defeat is attributable mainly to the fact that his boat was unfitted for rough water, while Gaudaur's was peculiarly adapted to it.

Thousands of dollars were bet on the race in this city, Gaudaur being a decided favorite. His backers seemed to be acting on the "sure thing" principle, and were at last forced to give odds, 2 to 1 being the quotation just before the race. Large winners were "Big Wood" Smith, Ted Gegg and a syndicate of Albion Hotel boarders, the latter raking in a pot of $1,500. Sporting circles are anxious to ascertain the cause of Gaudaur's sudden backdown as favorite at the odds mentioned. Men who never before played a boat race were seen rushing around offering to bet any amount on the St. Louis man, and this has given rise to considerable talk.

MERCIER'S MISSION.

WHAT HE HAS DISCUSSED WITH ONTARIO'S CABINET.

Hon. Mr. Mercier is in Toronto to carry out his avowed policy of pleasing the finances of Quebec in proper shape by a settlement of old claims arising out of the union of Upper and Lower Canada until Confederation. The Province of Quebec is indebted to Ontario in the shape of the Land Improvement Fund, and notwithstanding the repeated appeals made by the Ontario Government to have the matter amicably settled, every Quebec Government from Confederation has refused to be moved. It will be remembered that the Ontario Government paid—unless the interest—the shares of its municipalities to that fund from the surplus, pending the settlement with Quebec. It is understood that this long-existing difficulty has been amicably settled at the series of meetings between the two Governments, which is of the highest importance to the municipalities.

Another question, which was discussed and arranged, was a claim of Quebec against the Province of Ontario. In 1856 1,000,000 acres of land were put apart in the Huron District, the proceeds of the sale of which, after deducting one-sixth for survey and other expenses, and one-fourth for road improvement, were to be applied to school purposes in Upper and Lower Canada, then united. An order-in-council was passed in 1856, after a portion of the lands were sold, to hand over the funds to the provincial but this was retracted in 1860, and consequently confederation having been brought about, Quebec up to the present time did not receive her share. The lands, minus some 150 acres, have been sold, but the money due to Quebec has not been handed over. This was the most intricate question before both Governments, and has been brought during the recent meetings to the verge of final settlement. The basis of settlement will have to be submitted to a full meeting of the Quebec Cabinet, but as far as the Ontario Government is concerned, all the members being present at the late meetings, its sanction has thus been given.

These were the principal affairs discussed with a view to final settlement by the two Governments; but careful consideration was given to the coming meeting of the provincial premiers. The subjects of discussion were arranged, but the time of meeting not fixed until the other premiers are consulted as to when it will be convenient for them to attend. Providence will be given to a preliminary resolution declaring the satisfaction of the provinces with the federal union, but to render it more harmonious it will be claimed that the subsidies ought to be increased, and a final conclusion arrived at by experts in constitutional law as to the respective jurisdiction of the Federal and Provincial Parliaments. The British North American Act will be gone over clause by clause with a view to amend it where obscure, and make suggestions of improvement where necessary to meet the expansion of the country since confederation. The aim of the meeting has been laid down to be the making of confederation more stable, and if possible remove any danger of friction between the Federal and Provincial Governments.

Hon. Mr. Mercier, Hon. Joseph Shehyn and their wives leave at 7.10 this morning for New York.

ABORTION CASE AT CHATHAM,

A Young Woman From Hamilton Dies From the Effects of an Operation.

HAMILTON, May 30.—The announcement of the sudden death of Ruth Harlow of this city at Chatham, caused much surprise here where she had many friends. She was employed in Hawkins's shirt factory, and for some time past was intimate with a married man employed by the firm. Nobody, however, suspected how intimate their relations were. Not many days ago, when the poor young woman discovered that she was enceinte, her mental anguish was terrible, and for a week she was nearly insane. She went to Chatham two weeks ago and had an abortion procured, from the effects of which she died on Tuesday last. The remains were brought to the city yesterday, and were interred here to-day.

Miss Harlow belonged to a highly respectable family. Her father, Thomas Harlow, is a grocer on Yonge-street. She was a fine looking young woman, always dressed with remarkable neatness and elegance, and bore an irreproachable character. She was a great favorite with all who were acquainted with her.

An Arrest at Chatham.

CHATHAM, May 30.—Dr. J. C. Bright of Chatham was arrested Saturday night and arraigned on charges of murder and abortion, a young woman named Ruth Harlow of Hamilton having died Friday under suspicious circumstances while being doctored by Bright.

FIRE AT GUELPH.

Hearn's Block in St. George's-square Completely Destroyed.

GUELPH, May 31.—Shortly after midnight fire was discovered in Ald. Hearn's block in St. George's-square, Wyndham-street. The buildings were two-story frame and burned with such rapidity that before the flames were got under control the whole block was destroyed. The losers are Messrs. Water Bros., picture framers; Clarke and Thompson, vacant store, stock removed only yesterday; F. Minan, bookbinder; Thos. Hall, tailor and clothier and W. Copeland, barber shop. Mr. Copeland and family lived over the shop and barely escaped with their lives. The fire extended on to Quebec-street and burned the rear portion of the C.P.R. ticket office and Hudson's barber shop, also part of Reynolds' Hotel stables on Cork-street.

A SKIRMISH IN ALASKA.

Indians Up There Object to Miners Interfering With Their Wives.

PORT TOWNSEND, W.T. May 30.—The steamer Ancon arrived yesterday from Alaska and reports that a miner had arrived from the Yukon country who stated that the Indians and miners had engaged in a fight in the interior, in which one white man was killed and five were wounded and five Indians were killed and several wounded. No news as to the cause of the disturbance has been received, but it is supposed the miners interfered with the wives of the Indians.

A DRUNKEN WOMAN'S ACT.

She Kills Her Infant by Throwing it Out of a Window.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A railway machinist named McKenzie, his wife and five children arrived from Scotland recently and went to live in a tenement house in Jersey City. McKenzie and his wife drank freely yesterday, and last evening they quarrelled. The noise attracted attention and a number of people stood gazing at the second story windows where the McKenzies lived. Suddenly the woman smashed one of the windows with her hands and flung her infant out. The child died in a few moments. The man and woman were arrested.

People are leaving the Philadelphia oil country for the Canadian Northwest.

Eighty-four Irish immigrants from Westport, County Mayo, sent over by the British Government, have been detained at Passamaquoddy as paupers.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, May 30.

The stone work in connection with the new Parliament Buildings is progressing satisfactorily. Contractor Lionel Yorke has nine steam derricks running, and will increase his present force of 300 to double that number in the course of a few days. The foundation for the butler house and the chimney is massive and substantial, and is superior to that of any public structure in Ontario, with the possible exception of the Hamilton Postoffice.

The concrete work is almost completed for the west wing; it is built of Portland cement five to one, and will ensure a solid and substantial foundation. The native cement has been, after a thorough trial, superseded by the Portland, the Government having found to utilize the latter owing to its superior qualities. In a month or six weeks bricklaying will be started on the west wing. The stone used in the foundation is from Credit, and an immense quantity is already upon the grounds.

The ante-mortem statement of John Little, who was so brutally assaulted on Saturday evening, was taken yesterday afternoon before Neil C. Love, J.P., and County Crown Attorney Rodgerson, in the presence of the prisoner, John Sheehy. Little was in a feeble condition but was able to relate the particulars of the assault. He stated that he was on King-street near Stanford when he met Sheehy and another man coming west. Sheehy grabbed his pipe, and when he requested it back both men knocked him down and he was beaten until his cries attracted a crowd. He could not say which of the men kicked him.

The prisoner showed some agitation when he was brought into the presence of Little. He said he was sorry, and asked Little not to be too hard on him. Afterwards he claimed that Little had threatened him.

The injured man's deposition was taken on the advice of Dr. Strathy, who feared that inflammation of the brain might set in from the pressure of one of the fractured ribs. Little, however, seems secure for several days after the injury. Little was doing fairly well last night.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Sheehy's companion, but he has not yet been secured.

The New Heutnant at Government House.

It is expected that Sir Alexander Campbell will be here to-night, to be sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario before the Chief Justice to-morrow.

Commander Law, R.N., will be the new A.D.C. at Government House. The captain is popular in Toronto and ought to make an excellent aide.

Miss Campbell will be the new hostess.

A Jubilee Celebration Not Wanted.

The Reception Committee held a meeting yesterday to decide what action should be taken in regard to the Queen's jubilee celebration. After some discussion it was decided to recommend the Council not to make any grant for this purpose. Ald. Dodds remarked that the citizens had shown plainly that they did not want a celebration. A communication was read from Dr. Scadding asking for a grant towards the erection of a monument on the site of old Fort Rouille in the Exhibition Park. No action was taken. Chairman Piper stated that the committee had a surplus of $7.80.

Crushed to Death by the Cars.

Robt. Turner, aged 28, employed as a laborer by the Consumers' Gas Company, and living with his uncle, James Ware, at 28 O'Hara-avenue, was killed early yesterday morning by being run over by a freight train on the Esplanade. He was terribly crushed and died in an hour after the accident.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Items of Interest Received by Mail and Wire.

Paris has donated $1.50 to the Nanaimo sufferers.

John Watson of Ayr, the well-known manufacturer, has gone on a visit to Scotland.

The new Congregational Church at Woodstock, which cost $15,000, will be opened on Sunday next.

The annual convention of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Ontario will open in Brantford on June 21.

Thirty-nine widows and 106 children, the families of the miners who lost their lives in the disaster at Nanaimo, are destitute.

H. C. Hickok of Hamilton was arrested yesterday charged with stealing Shaun Rhue, a trotting horse, from James Connell. The ownership of the horse has been in question in the courts.

Early Saturday morning the house of Rev. Mr. Koyle, Methodist minister at Paris, was stoned by a mob because, it is supposed, Mr. Koyle interests himself in the enforcement of the Scott Act.

On Saturday afternoon, on the occasion of the coronation of the May Queen at Helmuth Ladies' College, Bishop and Mrs. Helmuth were tendered a very flattering reception, some 500 persons being presented to the rev. gentleman.

At a special meeting of the Farmers' Institute for the County of Ontario a resolution declaring in favor of the removal of all trade restrictions between Canada and the United States was carried unanimously.

THE PARIS FIRE.

Liberal Subscriptions in Aid of the Sufferers by the Calamity.

PARIS, May 30.—The donations for the sufferers have already reached 1,800,000 francs. The Comte de Paris subscribed 10,000 francs, and Baron Rothschild gave 15,000 francs. The total number of bodies recovered is ninety-one. Several of those who have been working in the ruins have been taken into custody, charged with stealing jewelry and other valuables found in the debris.

The Archbishop has offered the church of Notre Dame for the requiem services to be held over the remains of those who perished in the Opera Comique conflagration, instead of the Church of the Madeline.

The interments will take place in the new Pantin Cemetery. The Archbishop will preside at a special service at St. Roch on Wednesday.

The firemen in charge of the theatre were greatly to blame for the catastrophe, all proper precautions having been neglected by them. An official inspection of all the theatres in the city has been commenced. The Paris Municipal Council has contributed 5000 francs for the relief of the sufferers.

THE GRANRAN CASE AGAIN.

The Son Unable to get Possession of His Father's Body.

LONDON, May 30.—Mr. Alonzo Granran has for some time past been endeavoring to obtain possession of his father's body from the authorities of the Roman Catholic cemetery, but they refuse to give it up on the ground that he died a Roman Catholic and was buried according to the rites of that church. Another law suit will likely result.

THE LANARKSHIRE DISASTER.

The Bodies of Sixty-two Victims Recovered So Far.

EDINBURG, May 30.—The search for the bodies of the miners who lost their lives by the explosion in the Udston coal pit at Blantyre, Lanarkshire, still continues. Sixty-two bodies have thus far been discovered.

Labor Troubles at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 30.—The crisis in the great strike of the building trades will probably be reached this week. For four weeks strike has followed strike, terminating in a lock out, affecting to a greater or less extent almost every trade in the city. Fully 17,000 men are idle.

Drowning Accident at Lindsay.

LINDSAY, May 30.—George Lotts, aged 24, a member of No. 4 company 45th Batt., was drowned in the river here last night. He was sailing in a canoe and was overturned by a squall. Becoming entangled in the carpet from the canoe he was drowned before he could extricate himself. The body was recovered a few hours afterwards.

The Staff Appeals the Case.

MONTREAL, May 30.—Argument in the case of appeal of the Mail Printing Company of Toronto, from the judgment condemning it to pay Hon. H. Laflamme $10,000 damages for libel, was commenced in the Court of Appeal to-day.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING.

The Season's Street Improvements.

Forty-three Improvements to be made of Our Streets—The Town Council in Regular Session.

All the councillors but Mr. Hartley attended the meeting of the town council, Monday night.

Communications were received from Messrs. Richard P. Cook and Geo. Schneider, protesting against the C. P. R. building a branch of railway on Dalhousie street.—Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. F. E. BELL applied for the privilege of laying an inch water pipe across Sheridan street.—Granted.

Mr. MACFARLANE WILSON complained of the peanut stand in front of his store, on Simcoe street.—Referred to the Alicense Committee.

Messrs. M. Fee and Arthur Thomas applied to be appointed constables. Their applications were referred to the Committee on Appointments.

A number of applications for street improvements, etc., were referred to their several committees.

ACCOUNTS.

Henry Drake, cab hire	$ 1 00
McAndrew & Noble, repairs	3 50
Wm. Logan, one wagon	55 00
J. P. Hurley	1 20
J. Gibbs, painting	16 00
Hoyt, Dumas	4 00
J. Bradely, charity orders	32 00
M. H. Halpin	23 50

All the accounts were referred to the Finance Committee, except those of W. Logan, J. Gibbs and J. P. Hurley, which were ordered to be paid.

FINANCE.

Mr. DAVIDSON presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending payment of the accounts referred to them at the last meeting, except that of Mr. Brandette; that the different members of the Charity Committee fill in the names of the several parties receiving charity, on their order; that the petition of Mr. Geo. Hilliard, asking exemption on his machinery be granted, and a by-law prepared for that purpose, terms to be the same as Brodie's and to end at the same time and to commence Jan. 1st, 1887; that the Fire Brigade Band be given the usual annual grant of $150.

Mr. DAVIDSON explained one of the items by stating that the charity member for the north ward had not been in the habit of entering the name of the parties for whom the charity was intended, and the order could be sold or bartered at any time. That one recommendation was particularly for his benefit. The report was adopted.

ABOUT HYDRANTS.

Mr. MCNEIL presented the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, recommending that the petition of W. H. Wrighton and seventeen others, asking for a hydrant on the corner of MacDonell and Waterford streets, (presented with the other petitions) be not granted, as a hydrant has been ordered to be placed on the corner of London and Waterford streets; that T. Pratt's offer of $5 for the old engine house doors be accepted.

There was considerable discussion on this report, over the waterworks system, and on motion of Mr. Cahill, the report was amended by referring the question of locating the hydrants to the Fire, Water and Light Committee, after which the report was adopted.

THE COBOURG ROAD.

Mr. McNeil moved, seconded by Mr. Kelly, that whereas an Act now before the Dominion Parliament for the incorporation of the Cobourg, Blairton & Marmora Railway and Mining Company, proposes to authorize the sale and removal of the iron now on that portion of the line of the Cobourg, Peterborough & Marmora Railway and Mining Company, north of the junction therewith of the Grand Junction division of the Midland Railway of Canada;

And whereas this portion of the Cobourg, Peterborough & Marmora Railway Company's line was constructed with the assistance of the Province of Ontario, and which assistance was granted upon the express condition (among others) that the rails should never be removed therefrom;

Therefore the Council would request their representative in the House of Commons to use his utmost endeavors to have the said Bill so amended as to leave the conditions upon which Provincial aid was granted thereto untouched, and thereby, in some measure, protect the interests of the localities in whose interests such Provincial aid was granted.

Mr. McNeil and Mr. Moore supported the motion, which was passed unanimously.

POLICE CLOTHING.

Mr. KENNEDY presented the report of the Committee on Supervision of Police, which recommended that Mr. Thomas Dolan be awarded the contract for police clothing at $19.25 per suit, and that extra braid be placed on the coat of Acting-Chief Adams, cost not to exceed $4. The report was adopted.

THE DEBENTURE BY-LAW

Mr. MOORE moved the second reading of the by-law providing for the construction of permanent bridges over the creek on Brock, Simcoe, Charlotte and other streets, in Peterborough, and also to provide the town's share for the erection of an iron bridge at the Locks, and for the cribbing of Crescent street. The amount to be expended was $25,600, and it was proposed to issue debentures for the same to spread over a period of 20 years, requiring the sum of $930 to be raised annually; the debentures to bear interest at 5% per annum, payable half yearly; the by-law to come into force on July 4th, and to be voted upon on Tuesday, June 28th. It received its third reading, and was finally passed.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. CAHILL read the following report:—

To the Mayor and Town Council,

Gentlemen.—Your Street and Bridge Committee beg leave to report that they have this day made the usual annual examination of the streets and bridges, and respectfully recommend the following improvements:—

(1) That a sidewalk be put down on Brock street between George and Water streets.

(2) Dublin street.—That the sidewalk on the south side be continued to Division street and south on Division street to houses on south side of said street, and crossings on Dublin and Division streets at their intersection.

(3) Antrim street.—To be graded from George to Water streets, and a sidewalk put down on north side between these points.

(4) Water Street—Sidewalk on north side to be rebuilt from Argyle Street to a short distance north of the Midland Railway; a culvert to be put down across the street at this point and the sidewalk from there north to be properly repaired and a crossing put down at a point north of the M.R.

(5) That an un-named street running east and west past the "Methodist Cemetery" be henceforth known as Victoria Avenue.

(6) Argyle Street—A side-walk to be put down from present street to Mason's greenhouse.

(7) Boundary between town and township of Douro—A side-walk to be put down where agreed upon, a portion of which is to be charged against work on said boundary.

(8) The sidewalk along the M.R. to be continued to the Auburn Factory and a side-walk to be put down on a street running east and west between the M.R. and the above boundary; and a sidewalk on a street running north and south from the last named street south for a short distance.

(9) London Street—The sidewalk on the east end to be put in proper repair, east from Water.

(10) Mill street—The sidewalk to be continued on the west side from Forsyth's factory to London street.

(11) Stewart street—The south end at the creek to be cribbed and filled up.

(12) Murray street—To be cut down east from Aylmer, and to be filled up west from the M. R. to the creek.

(13) Bethune street—A sidewalk to be put down between Edinburgh and Smith streets.

(14) Donegal street—To be water-tabled from Smith to Dublin street.

(15) Dublin street—Sidewalk to be repaired from Gilchrist to Downey street.

(16) Corner of London and Gilchrist streets to be filled up.

(17) Donegal street—A drain to be built from Brock street to the creek, cost not to exceed $30

(18) Brock street—West sidewalk to be re-built where necessary.

(19) Reid street—To be graded as recommended last year and sidewalk to be re-built where necessary north from Hunter street.

(20) Brock street—Sidewalk to be re-built from George to Aylmer street, north side.

(21) Reid street—A crossing to be put down at Fanning's, also a crossing at the intersection of Stewart and MacDonnell streets.

(22) King street—Sidewalk on south side, to be re-built from Aylmer street to the creek.

(23) Reid street—Sidewalk to be continued from Judge Weller's to Hunter street.

(24) Downey street—Sidewalk on either side to be repaired from Simcoe to Charlotte street.

(25) Charlotte street—To be turnpiked from the M. R. to Park street.

(26) The track at the intersection of Park and Downey streets to be filled in, and the intersection of said streets to be filled up with material from Reid street.

(27) That $100 be granted to grade the continuation of King street west to the Monaghan boundary, on condition that the parties interested provide a like amount, the money to be expended under the supervision of the Street and Bridge Inspector.

(28) Bolivar street—Sidewalk on north side to be continued westward to the new brick house on said street.

(29) The drain on Sherbrooke and Park streets to Rink street, and the drain on Stewart street to Rink street, to be cleaned out and deepened.

(30) Stewart street—Sidewalk on east side to be continued to C. P. R., and that material be furnished to continue cribbing on Park street to M. R., and a sidewalk on said street to M. R.

(31) Short street—To be water-tabled and a culvert built across Park street.

(32) Park street—The drain running south from M. R. to be cleaned out and the sidewalk on east side to be repaired.

(33) Romaine street—A sidewalk to be built as may be determined upon when the railway is graded.

(34) Water street—Sidewalk to be re-built from Lake to Romaine street.

(35) Ware street—To be water-tabled and some stumps removed.

(36) Wescott street—A sidewalk to be built on on the north side to M. R.

(37) That the town engineer be instructed to have a gore or piece of land at the intersection of the M. R. and Bethune and Lake streets surveyed and staked out with a view to having same fixed up.

(38) Perry street—Sidewalk on north side to be rebuilt from Aylmer to George street.

(39) Dalhousie street—Sidewalk to be built from Aylmer street to M. R.

(40) Sheridan street—Sidewalk on west side to be rebuilt from Hunter to Brock streets.

(41) Hunter street—Sidewalk on north side from Queen to Mill streets to be rebuilt.

(42) Hunter street—Sidewalk on east side to be continued to McDonnel street and crossing at McDonnel street.

(43) George street—The gutter on either side from Charlotte to Hunter street to be continued.

Your Committee recommend that any portion of the above work may be done by contract or otherwise, as may be deemed expedient.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOMAS CAHILL, Chairman.

There was a little desultory discussion over the report, which was finally adopted.

SUNDRY.

Two accounts of Messrs. A. Jones and J. Wilson, for work at Whyte and Co.'s fire and cleaning hose, etc., amounting to $7, were ordered to be paid.

Mr. CAHILL presented a plan of the proposed Simcoe street iron bridge, prepared by the town engineer. He moved that a committee meeting of the whole council be called by the chairman of the committee, to consider the plans.—Carried.

The Council then adjourned for three weeks.

☞ The Most Gigantic Sale ever offered to the People of Peterborough.

This gigantic Sale will take place commencing WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887, and will continue for the following 20 days only, when I will offer any and all of my big stock, at Wonderfully Reduced Prices.

Bear in mind, GOUGH never yet advertised anything he did not do; nor will he in this instance, a fact you will all be convinced of the first day of this Grand Sale.

Some designing dealers ask the question, why pay $2.00 for a Worsted Suit that they sell for $3.50. Gough repudiates the assertion. This boasted Worsted Suit is nearly ALL COTTON, and as a guarantee to what I herein state is true, I will forfeit $1000 if I cannot prove it; I challenge a contradiction. Gough's regular price for this boasted $3.50 suit is $7.50.

I ask the attention of a discriminating public particularly to this Great Sale, and if they don't find it straight-forward, honorable and bona-fide, then brand me as a Cheapside Store, and not the Great Forepaugh I claim to be.

A Valuable Discovery.

F. P. Tanner, of Nesbing, Ont., says he has not only found B. B. B. a sure cure for dyspepsia, but he also found it to be the best medicine for regulating and invigorating the system that he has ever taken. B. B. B. is the great system regulator. 2w22d

B. B. B. Stood the Test.

"I tried every known remedy I could think of for rheumatism, without giving me any relief, until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, which remedy I can highly recommend to all afflicted as I was." Henry Smith, Milverton, Ont. 2w22d

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eod

Domestic Economy.

As a matter of economy it will pay every household to keep a bottle of Yellow Oil for accidents and emergencies, in case of pain as a handy relief, and for wounds, burns, bruises and injuries. Rheumatism, neuralgia, quinsy, and many painful diseases treated internally and externally by it often save large medical bills. 2w22d

Weather Probabilities.

It is probable that in the breaking up of winter we shall have much damp sloppy weather, when rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, and other painful complaints will prevail. Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the popular household remedy for external and internal use. Its curative power is truly wonderful. 2w22d

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50%. on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

A Mature Bootblack.

"Have a shine, sir?" was the salutation to all the men he met by an elderly, well-dressed man who was walking about the market this morning with a bag containing the appurtenances of his trade slung over his shoulder. He didn't seem to be doing a rushing business, though. How many towns can boast of a fifty-year-old boot-black? He has been about town for a week, and says he can't get any other work to do, and would rather black boots than steal.

One of the Heaviest Waves of Cheap Dress Goods that ever struck Peterboro is now on sale at Turnbull's. 40 different patterns to select from, at only 12½c. a yard.

Important Scott Act Question.

An important point is raised in Toronto before Judge Armour, in the Queen v. Kennedy, in which a preliminary order was obtained to bring the cases up for review. It is contended that by the recent revision of the Dominion statutes, the old Canada Temperance Act has been repealed and a new one enacted, which latter has not been adopted as yet by any municipality, and therefore a conviction under it, since the enactment of the revised statutes, would be bad. The question will probably be argued the week after next.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 85c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Draining the Premises.

Drain pipes tapping the George street sewer, are being laid down from Mr. Cox's new block, corner of Charlotte and George streets.

For a Neat-fitting Mantle, Bolmoral, or Wrap made and trimmed with the newest material, call at Turnbull's.

Friday afternoon at four o'clock, a cricket match will be played on the P. A. A. A. grounds. Bankers and Lawyers vs. the Association.

Camp Meetings.

Services will be held at Fowler's Corners next Sabbath at half past 10 a.m., and at 4 p.m., conducted by Mr. Rich and others. All are cordially invited,

Just arrived at Turnbull's, Cobourg and Drab Cashmeres with handsome trimmings to match, correct shades for the season.

For the Burleigh Works.

Monday night Mr. Joseph Timber arrived in town from Toronto with a number of men to work on the locks at Burleigh Falls, which will be, it is understood, rapidly pushed on to completion.

The Queen's Jubilee.

Keep in mind the meeting of the Queen's Jubilee Committee in the Firemen's Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. All patriotic citizens interested in seeing this occasion duly and properly celebrated are invited to attend.

Military Camps.

District Brigade Camp will be held at Kingston this year, beginning June 21st, and not the 14th, as some papers stated. The Third Cavalry, including the Peterborough troop, and Durham Field Battery will attend.

A Resolution of Thanks.

Messrs. Porter Bros. have received a letter from their agent at Ottawa, J. B. Abbott, Esq., informing them that at the last meeting of the Ottawa Driving Club, held May 18th, the following resolution was passed:

"That a vote of thanks is due from this club, and is hereby presented, to Messrs. Porter Bros., of Peterborough, Ont., through their Ottawa agent, Mr. J. B. Abbott, for their valuable donation of one of their framed road carts, which is set down on the programme for the colt stakes on August 10th, 1887."

Dramatic.

Wilson Day's Theatre Company began a week's engagement at Bradburn's Opera House last evening, in "The Unknown" or "Cast up by the sea". The piece was most excellently played, and with a smoothness and vim that can only be attained by long practice. The principal feature of the piece is the character of "Joe" "The Unknown", and Mr. Day's representation of it was artistic and strong. Miss Willis was good, as Patty Lavrock, and Mr. Summers and Mr. Carr were excellent as "Jack Adams" and "Capt. Lazonby.' Special mention should be made of Mr. Henderson as "Grice" the old miser. A feature of the entertainment was the playing of three overtures on the piano by Annie Bird, one, "Poet and Peasant," being particularly well rendered. To-night the company play a comedy bill consisting of "Andy Blake, or, The Irish Diamond," "Edith's Burglar," and the farce, "The fellow that looks like me." Little Annie Bird will sing two songs and play the leading part in the first two pieces.

Late in the season manufacturers are glad to clear ends of stock at Tremendous Reductions. See the Seamless Hosiery Turnbull is selling 3 pair for 25c. Bought right.

Scared by a Bicycle.

Yesterday morning Mr. Joseph Sucee engaged Mr. Edward Mann's team to drive to Peterborough after some painters and woodworkers, who were to complete his new dwelling house at Bridgenorth. After getting the men and material, the team started for the Barnardo Home to get some ladders, and on the way met a bicyclist. The team became frightened and ran away, throwing out some of the men, Mr. Lyle having his leg badly hurt while receiving other injuries, not of a serious nature. Messrs. Ruth and Nurse managed to hold the horses, but the waggon was so badly smashed as to be useless. Mr. Yelland's truck was secured and the trip to Bridgenorth finished, Mr. Sucee returning in the evening for the old wagon, which he took home for repairs. Bicyclists should be careful and obliging on the road when they meet "skittish" horses. The other evening a bicyclist passed a young farmer and his wife, the latter with a baby in her arms, on a country road, and their horse taking fright nearly ran away, while the woman in trying to jump from the buggy caught her dress on the step and was thrown heavily on her shoulder, sustaining severe injuries.

Personal.

Mr. W. J. Robertson, Mr. H. White, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fraser, of Port Hope, were in town yesterday attending the funeral of the late Mr. Gilbert.

Mr. F. J. White, Toronto, Inspector of Separate Schools for Eastern Ontario, is in town officially to-day. This morning he visited and inspected the Murray Street school, and this afternoon the Convent and Lake Street school.

Monday afternoon Mr. Joseph Pritchard, who has for a number of years been connected with the firm of Fairweather & Co., dry goods merchants, having had charge of the home and branch businesses at different times, left for Lindsay, where he has accepted the position of manager in Messrs. Dundas & Flavelle's mammoth establishment. Mr. Pritchard bears with him the best wishes of many Peterborough friends for his increased prosperity in Lindsay. Messrs. Dundas & Flavelle have secured in Mr. Pritchard one who will have the interests of his employers always at heart, and one whose strict integrity and business ability are unimpeachable. May "Joe's" genial good nature and unvarying urbanity win for him as many friends in his new place of residence as in Peterborough, where he will be greatly missed by all his acquaintances. He is recommended to the good people of Lindsay as one worthy their every confidence and esteem.

An Address to the Bishop.

The Catholic Mutual Benefit Association Present His Lordship, Bishop Dowling with an Address—Summary of His Reply.

About 2 p.m. last Sunday the members of the Peterborough branch of the C. M. B. A. assembled in the library of the Murray St. School House for the purpose of presenting an address to His Lordship Bishop Dowling. There were also a large number of the Cathedral congregation present. Precisely at 2.30 His Lordship arrived, accompanied by Rev. P. Conway and Messrs. O'Meara, Sullivan and Hackett. His Lordship having been escorted to a seat the following address was read by the president, the gentlemen present respectfully standing:—

To the Right Rev. T. J. Dowling D.D., Bishop of Peterborough.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP.—We the Members of St. Peter's Branch No. 30, of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association desire to extend to you our respectful congratulations on your attainment to the exalted position you now occupy.

The knowledge that your Lordship is a member of our Society fills us with feelings of pardonable pride, and we justly consider that this fact is the best evidence that can possibly be adduced that our Association is one worthy of the confidence of the Catholic community at large, and that your Lordship's approbation joined with that of the other Bishops of Canada cannot fail to materially promote its advancement.

We have already obtained your Lordship's gracious approval and official sanction of our objects, and we now respectfully ask you to add the great weight of your personal assistance to our humble efforts by pointing out as opportunity offers the merits of our Association, and the practical advantages accruing to the beneficiaries of deceased brothers.

We do not intend to dilate upon the feelings of satisfaction animating all the members of the Association on receiving the glad tidings of your promotion to your present dignity—those sentiments have already been more appropriately expressed through the columns of the Society's official organs in Canada and the United States, and we can only record our personal gratification that so illustrious a member has been placed in charge of the Episcopal see of Peterborough.

We would humbly ask your Lordship, in addition to your other sacrifices, to sever your connection with the Paris Branch, with which you have been so many years associated, and to transfer your membership to the Peterborough Branch, and we would be doubly grateful if you could occasionally attend our meetings, and by your presence and kind words encourage and direct us in the work we have to perform.

We respectfully solicit your Lordship's blessing on our branch and its individual members, and trust you may long be spared to rule over this diocese, and that by your guidance, Catholic society may receive an impetus, onward and upward, in moral and intellectual culture. Your valuable counsel is solicited to promote our society and awaken among our people interest in an association which confers such tangible benefits on afflicted homes.

Signed on behalf of the St. Peter's Branch of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association,

JOHN O'MEARA, President.

M. SULLIVAN, Treasurer.

The BISHOP made a pleasing and eloquent reply of which we can give but a mere synopsis. No newspaper report can do justice to the beauty of his language nor the ease and facility with which he delivered his opinions. He expressed the great gratification it afforded him to receive an address from the local branch of the C.M.B.A. He alluded to the fact that he had been presented with addresses from the clergy, from the laity in general, and now a particular society, the C. M.B.A., had come forward to give expression to their sentiments of good will. He said he did not appropriate to himself the various expressions of fidelity which had been uttered. It was in his capacity as a Bishop of God's holy church that parties approached him with utterances of respect and devotion. The Bishop then referred to the C.M.B.A. and its workings. It was the antidote of the secret societies which destroyed the moral life of Catholic men at the present time. Catholics formerly might have considered themselves justified—looking at the matter from a pecuniary stand-point—in joining societies disapproved of by the Church, but now no such excuse existed as there were many Catholic organizations which paid a stipulated sum to the widows and orphans of deceased members. The C. M.B.A. was one of these societies. He was himself a member of the association and had many opportunities of observing the good it accomplished. His lorship cited several instances which had come under his own notice in Western Ontario, where the families of members had been saved from penury through its intervention. He also referred to the fact that several educational and charitable institutions to his own knowledge had benefitted through deceased members having bequeathed the amount of their certificates in aid of these places. He advised young men and married men with families, to join. His Holiness the Pope had given his blessing to organizations of this kind, but while encouraging them, it must not be understood, that because they were called Catholic the church was in any way responsible for their acts. The C. M. B.A. was a society of business men governed on business principles. As a business society it is responsible to the public in its corporate capacity, and the church had nothing to do with its business transactions; however, as long as charity was combined with business, relief brought to the suffering poor, so long as its members were practical Catholics, and so long as the society was in harmony with the church, bishops like himself found themselves free to approve of it. Members should remember, that when paying calls they were performing a work of the purest charity, perhaps saving some family, which might otherwise be left destitute from want and misery. If these calls were paid in a Christian spirit their reward would be ten fold if they derived no temporal benefit from the association. It was this that the church approved of and it was the charitable and religious objects of the society that she sought to encourage. But the temporal and social advantages were also very great, members of the society leaving their homes seeking to obtain employment in other places found themselves taken in hand by officers of the Society, who did all in their power to assist and help them along. Many priests belonged to the C. M. B. A. for the purpose of encouraging the members. He would sometimes attend their meetings as requested, and would at some future time when opportunity offered take occasion to refer more at length to the Society. He encouraged all to join, and closed a very eloquent impromtu effort by again expressing his pleasure at meeting the members of the C. M. B. A. and a number of the congregation. Mr. O'Meara then introduced the members by name, after which, introduction to non-members followed. After conversing in a very affable and friendly way for fifteen minutes, His Lordship and the Rev. P. Conway left the hall and returned to the Cathedral, where he invested about two hundred children with the scapular and administered the total abstinence pledge to over one hundred boys, who had, early in the morning, received at his hands the sacred rite of confirmation.

The Hilliard Exemption.

Terms on Which it is Granted.

At the meeting of the Town Council on Monday night, the report of the Finance Committee recommended the preparation of a by-law to exempt the machinery of Mr. Geo. Hilliard's woollen mill, thus granting his petition for exemption on the same terms on which exemption was granted to Brodie's woollen mills. For the benefit of the public, who (especially taxpayers) are interested in the matter, the purport of the terms on which exemption is granted the latter is here given.

The by-law (433) requires that Alex. Brodie run a "one set" mill during 1882, a "two set" mill during 1883, and a "three set" mill during 1884 and for seven subsequent years. Another condition is that for 200 days in each year the mills shall employ not less than 31 persons. A clause of the by-law requires the proprietor or manager of the mills to make a report to the town clerk not less than 14 days after Dec. 31st in each year, setting forth the number of hands employed. The mills are to be employed to carry on an exclusively wholesale business, not a local or custom trade. The real and personal property actually employed in the carrying on of the business is to be exempted. The report of the Finance Committee recommends "that the petition of Mr. Geo. Hilliard asking for exemption on his machinery be granted and a by-law prepared for that purpose, terms to be the same as Brodie's and to end at the same time and to commence Jan. 1st, 1887." It is thus seen that if the terms of this latter recommendation are embodied in the by-law, Mr. Hilliard is getting exemption for six months on machinery not in use, and when his mills, in the matter of hands, cannot be in a condition to fulfil terms "the same as Brodie's." It is understood that the exemption is to apply to $5000 worth of machinery and to whatever further machinery there is to be added.

The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Lock's Hat Store.
It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

HIS HONOR ARRIVES.

SIR ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, THE NEW L.-G., REACHES THE CITY.

TORONTO, June 1.

This cut of Sir Alexander Campbell, the new Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, was sketched from life. At the time it was drawn His Honor was seated in the Senate Chamber at Ottawa, and he was intently engaged in poring over the pages of a book which lay on his knees. That accounts for the peculiar pose of the eyelids, but nevertheless the features look remarkably like those of the tall, grey-haired gentleman who stepped from the Canadian Pacific express which arrived from the Capital at Union Station at exactly 9.30 last night. Sir Alexander was accompanied by Mr. H. G. Hopkirk, his private secretary.

About 100 prominent citizens were in the station to bid His Honor welcome, and after he had made a little speech from the steps of the car he was cheered enthusiastically by the gentlemen who stood before him. Among those in the depot were Mayor Howland, Hon. Oliver Mowat, Ald. Piper, (chairman) and Ald. Verrall and Wickett of the Reception Committee; J. J. Withrow and Mr. James McGee, President and Treasurer of the Industrial Exhibition Association; Chief of Police Grasett, J. H. Morris, W. S. McMurray, Rector McMurchy, of the Collegiate Institute, and Lieut.-Col. Allan. The reception was merely informal and spontaneous, because of the uncertainty of the exact time of His Honor's arrival. The Board of Trade, the national and benevolent societies and the Separate and Public School Boards were represented, some by private members and some by officers. Mr. W. G. Falconbridge, Q.C., First Vice-President of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society, and Secretary Bailey were on hand, as were also Mr. W. B. McMurrich, of St. Andrew's Society, and Mr. R. Lewis, President of St. David's Society. The Sons of England, St. George's and Caledonian societies were not missing in the representation. Very Rev. Vicar-General Rooney and several members of the Separate School Board and Mr. Geo. McMurrich, ex-President of the Public School Board, helped to make up the party. Mr. C. J. Campbell, Assistant Receiver-General at Toronto, and brother of Sir Alexander, was also in the depot.

Sir Alexander was cheered again as he alighted from the steps and walked to a carriage on the north side of the depot. Mr. Mowat and Ald. Piper also entered the carriage and escorted Sir Alexander to the Queen's, where His Honor will reside until he formally takes possession of Government House, on or about June 15. The gubernatorial residence is being papered, painted and brightened up internally.

It is expected that the ceremony of swearing in His Honor will take place at Osgoode Hall at noon to-day, and that Chief Justice Hagarty will officiate.

Sir Alexander will give a dinner at the Queen's Hotel this evening, to which several prominent citizens have been invited.

Incendiaries Confess.

BROOKLYN, May 31.—The Grand Jury this morning found an indictment of arson in the first degree against Augustus and Townsend Johnson, the two men who set fire to Palmer's cooperage in the Eastern District on Saturday night, which resulted in the death of a watchman and the destruction of $300,000 worth of property. They have confessed their guilt, and will be sentenced on Monday.

PARISIAN POLITICS.

THE DEPOSED WAR MINISTER THE IDOL OF PARIS.

PARIS, May 31.—Gen. Boulanger, upon retiring from the Ministry of War, issued an order of the day thanking those who had cooperated with him to place the country's defences in a condition to stand any test, and urging the officers of the army to show devotion to their professional duties and fidelity to the constitution and laws. In conclusion he says: "I shall be the first among you to give an example of both military and republican discipline."

Gen. Ferron upon assuming the duties of the War office, also issued an order of the day in which he says: "I count upon the absolute devotion of all and am confident that the various arms of the service will continue to resolutely progress. The armies which surround us continue to increase in military training, and for us to remain stationary would be a backward step which would seriously imperil the country's interest. Like my predecessors I shall unremittingly pursue a policy of military reform, and shall devote my whole time to increasing the defensive forces of France and the Republic."

The moderate Republican papers cordially welcome the new ministry. The Monarchist press receives it rather favorably, but the Radical and Independent papers are decidedly hostile.

Rouvier Reads His Statement.

PARIS, May 31.—M. Rouvier read his statement in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon. He also said that his foreign policy would be firm and prudent. Preparations for the exposition in 1889 would be actively forwarded.

M. Rouvier was frequently applauded by members of the Centre and was often interrupted by members of the Left. The Radicals of the Left intimated that they would interrogate the Government on a question touching its policy and would demand urgency.

M. Rouvier agreed.

M. Jullien thereupon made a speech in which he requested the Government to define their programme.

M. Rouvier replied that the Ministry would firmly apply the existing legislation on education. In regard to economy in the public expenditures they proposed to retrench sixty millions francs. Referring to the political color of the Cabinet the Premier said: "We do not reflect especially the views of anybody."

A voice: "You are Ferry's double."

This was followed by applause from the Left.

M. Rouvier continued by declaring, amid loud protests from the Left, that the Cabinet relied upon the support of the Republican majority. Answering a question subsequently, Mr. Rouvier said the Government intended that all citizens should be subjected to obligations of military service. [Applause by the Centre].

M. Millerand, of the Extreme Left denied that the Cabinet had the support of the Republican majority.

M. Rouvier protested against a Republican excommunication of which he was the object. He did not consider himself condemned to powerlessness merely because the Extreme Left refused to co-operate with him. He would lay down the reins of Government if he failed to obtain the assistance of the Republican majority. [Applause by the Centre.]

M. Millerand then moved a resolution of want of confidence in the Government.

It was rejected by a vote of 286 to 139.

M. Rouvier then demanded the order of the day and his motion therefor was carried by a vote of 324 to 136 amid enthusiastic cheers by the Centre. The Chamber adjourned until Thursday.

Gen. Boulanger this morning bade farewell to the officials in the War Department and left Paris.

The Deputies of the Right intimate that of the 286 votes received by the Government this afternoon 130 were cast by members of the Right. Assuming this estimate to be correct the Government will have a purely Republican majority of only 11.

Vive Boulanger.

PARIS, May 31. — There is a brilliant assemblage at the military fete at the Opera House this evening. Gen. Boulanger is absent. While the company was assembling thousands of persons gathered in the vicinity of the Opera House shouting "Resignation, Resignation," "Long live Boulanger," "We will have him," etc.

At 11 p.m. the crowd outside had greatly increased in numbers and had become so turbulent that the guard which was held in readiness in the court-yard of the Opera House was ordered out to disperse the mob, which task was accomplished amid volleys of hisses from the crowd.

At this hour (midnight) the crowd is reassembling and is already much larger than before, and indications are that there will be a riotous demonstration when the guests depart from the Opera House, and all the streets from the Madelaine and the Faubourg St. Honore to the Elysee are guarded by soldiers. There is also a large force of police on duty. It is rumored that a mob is marching to the Elysee Palace. A crowd has just crossed the Place De La Bourse shouting "Vive Boulanger."

2 a.m.—Fifty policemen have been stationed at the British Embassy. The troops and police have prevented rioting. The people have dispersed and the city is now quiet.

Mount Etna in Eruption.

ROME, May 31.—The central crater of Mount Etna began eruping this morning. The flow continues and is increasing in volume. Heavy clouds of smoke and masses of stone and cinders are issuing from the crater.

An Insult to the Ward Workers.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The Board of Aldermen have appointed Miss Minna R. Pollock, a well-known translator and law typewriter, as Commissioner of Deeds, her name being substituted for that of ex-Assemblyman Roche. The appointment was made by twenty-one votes against one.

An Earthquake at Jamestown, N.Y.

JAMESTOWN, N.Y., May 31.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt in this city at 10 o'clock this morning. The shock lasted only a moment and seemed like an underground explosion of great severity. In some portions of the city women ran out of their houses in alarm.

The Belgian Radical Congress.

BRUSSELS, May 31.—The Radical Congress held here yesterday adopted a program embracing separation of church and state, compulsory education, regulation of employment of children in factories, the establishment of a state fund for invalid workmen and the enactment of a law holding employers liable for accidents to workmen. A resolution in favor of amnesty to strike offenders was adopted.

New Zealand Parliament Dissolved.

LONDON, May 31.—A despatch from Wellington says the Parliament of New Zealand has been dissolved in consequence of the defeat of the budget presented by Sir Julius Vogel, Colonial Treasurer.

Immense Hauls of Mackerel.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 31.—Immense quantities of mackerel are being taken by trapmen off Shelburne. The cruisers Advance and Triumph are closely scanning the movements of fifty American seiners. The captains of the American boats have been notified that all vessels taking Canadian fishermen rowed outside the three-mile limit will be seized.

A Toronto Man Drowned.

KEEWATIN, May 31.—The body of Duncan McKenzie, a mill hand, was found in the lake yesterday, having been missed since May 23. It is supposed that he fell through a trestle of the bridge when crossing the lake. Deceased came from Toronto and has a sister in Port Arthur.

A German Steamer Ashore.

NORTH SYDNEY, C.B., May 31.—The German steamer Roma from Montreal, grain laden, while coming here for coal went ashore at 3 o'clock this morning, on Lewiston Point in a thick fog.

AFTER HIS DEFEAT

WHAT AN OLD FRIEND OF HANLAN'S THINKS OF THE DISASTER.

TORONTO, June 1.

"Hanlan's defeat at Pullman," said Mr. "Joe" Rogers, a staunch friend and admirer of the ex-champion, to a reporter last night, "is attributed to the fact that he was not properly heated and to a bad cold which has been troubling him for weeks past.

"I am surprised at the baseless rumors current here that the race was a 'fix,' went on Mr. Rogers. "I don't believe such was the case, and I am unable to account for the feeling except from the fact that a certain well-known gentleman wagered a large amount on Gaudaur. This man's actions, it is said, created suspicion, but when it is remembered that he is the gamest batter in Toronto and has often backed Hanlan's opponents, even as far back as when the Toronto man rowed Ross on the Bay here."

It was further learned from Mr. Rogers that Hanlan was not in condition to stay the distance at the pace the race was rowed. He recognized the difficult work he had before him and counselled his friends against placing their money upon him. However, he rowed gamely throughout and was only beaten a length and a half, instead of four lengths, as telegraphed by the Associated Press, and his performance was under the circumstances highly regarded by his backer, Peter Dwyer of New York, as a really meritorious one, and convinced his friends that under more favorable circumstances he can defeat the St. Louis representative. Mr. Rogers, who says he was one of the official timers, vouches for the correctness of the time announced by him (21.20), which beats the record.

Hanlan will not return to Toronto till next week, when he will be accompanied by Bubear, the English champion. Hanlan was entertained last night by the Canadian Club in Chicago.

Hanlan Will Try Again.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Hamilton Busby of New York, the referee in the Gaudaur-Hanlan race, is satisfied that the time, 21.20, and the distance three miles, in yesterday's race were correct. He says Plaisted, Gaudaur's trainer, assures him that his protege beat the time made in one of his spins over the course.

Hanlan announces to-night that on his return to Canada he would challenge Gaudaur to row yesterday's race over again on the same course, under exactly similar conditions. The defeated champion expressed himself certain that he can outrow Gaudaur, if the latter consents the match will probably occur inside of two months.

Hanlan takes no stock in the idea that the record was not broken yesterday. "The pace was forced by me from the start to the turn," he said, "and was unmistakably rapid. Coming back we had the heavy wind in our favor and Gaudaur, whom I did not expect to hold out, pulled along with a strength most surprising."

This evening Hanlan was given a reception at the room of the Chicago Canadian Club. The attendance was large and Hanlan was warmly greeted.

Revision of Spanish Duties.

MADRID, May 31.—In the Cortes yesterday, Senor Balaguer, Minister of the Colonies, announced a reorganization of the colonial tariff. Henceforth there are to be only two classes of duties, the highest for nations without treaties with Spain, and the lowest for nations with such treaties. Export duties on West Indian sugar will be suppressed, and other measures taken to improve the trade of the colonies with Europe.

A HIDEOUS JOKE.

A Nashville Man Playfully Drinks Two Ounces of Aconite.

NASHVILLE, May 31.—In East Nashville yesterday John G. Bernal, an old man, a painter, and very much addicted to joking, went into a drug store where George Donelson, a clerk, was putting up medicine, and said: "George, I'm tired of living; what will kill me?" Donelson, who was measuring aconite, said: "Here's something that will kill you mighty quick.—aconite—if you just drink enough." "All right," said Bernal; "get me something to drink it out of." Donelson poured out an ounce graduate full and said: "All right; here she is."

He did not notice Bernal, who took it up and drank it, Donelson, looking up a moment later and seeing the empty glass, said: "My God! Did you drink?" "Yes," said Bernal. "Then you'll die," said Donelson, and rushed off for help. Six or seven physicians were summoned and did all they could, but it was too late. Bernal said he had no idea of killing himself, and no idea that the glass contained poison. His wife and two grown sons were summoned and were with him when he died.

K. OF L. FUNDS MISSING.

District Assembly 49 Short $3700 in the "Assistance Fund."

NEW YORK, May 31.—District Assembly 49 is much disturbed over what looks like a $7000 shortage in the "assistance fund." Every member in the district contributes 5 cents per month to this fund, and when it was proposed to help the striking silversmiths not long ago the sympathetic fibers were curious to know just how high a figure the fund had reached. The financial secretary couldn't tell. Neither could the treasurer. But the books, when they were produced, revealed the apparent discrepancy, and a committee is investigating the statement of the officers that the money went to pay general expenses.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

A Man Arrested for Murdering His Daughter's Children.

READING, Pa., May 31.—A man named Showers was arrested here to-day for murdering two children, the illegitimate offspring of his deceased daughter. The children disappeared from his house and he gave it out that they had been carried off by two strangers. The children were found buried in his yard with ropes around their necks. It is said that he wished to marry, and the woman stipulated that the children should be sent away to be taken care of. Showers was unable to find any one willing to adopt them, so he killed them.

THE C.P.R. STEAMSHIP LINE.

The First Vessel on the Pacific Route Leaves Yokohama for Canada.

MONTREAL, May 31.—The steamship Abyssinia, the first ship of the Canadian Pacific Railway trans-Pacific line, left Yokohama yesterday with a full list of passengers for Canada, England and the United States, and a full cargo, consisting of 2,800,000 pounds of tea, 60 bales of silk and 25 tons of general merchandise.

THE PARIS FIRE.

The French President Gives 10,000 Francs to the Relief Fund.

PARIS, May 31.—President Grevy has made a personal donation of 10,000 francs for the benefit of the sufferers by the Opera Comique fire.

No search has as yet been made in the upper galleries of the Opera House for the bodies of persons who are supposed to have lost their lives there.

Suicide At Buffalo.

PARIS, May 31.—Yesterday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock Acting-Sergeant Lambrecht was informed that a man who was either dead or dead drunk was lying close to the fence at the northerly end of the East Side ball grounds. He made an investigation and found that the man's throat was cut from ear to ear. A new jack-knife with a heavy blade lay near his left side, stained all over with blood. The body appeared to have been dead about two hours. It was that of a good-looking young man, apparently 21 years old, fair complexion, small curly moustache, and was about five feet high and weighed 140 pounds. A black soft hat was on his head and congress gaiters on his feet. The body now lies at Kreft's undertaking rooms.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 65c., men's long boots, $1.45.

FARMERS AND THE IRON DUTY.

Sir Charles Tupper in his attempt to boom the iron trade and, at the same time, to raise more revenue for his associates to squander, has unsettled the trade to a serious extent, and imposed grievous burdens upon all classes, especially the farming community. The Globe thus refers to the subject :—

There is some confusion in the iron trade, merchants scarcely knowing as yet what advance must be made in some cases to give them fair profits." But the prices of all kinds of iron goods have been put up. The Montreal Herald states that a prominent importer in that city informed its reporter that cut nails have, since the change, been placed upon a basis of $2.90 cash, and bar iron upon a basis of $2. The increase in the price of bar iron is actually twenty-five per cent., and the increase in the price of cut nails 12½ per cent. The duty on miners' shovels is now 88 per cent. Putting the facts in another way, the importer says :—"Cut nails are 50 cents per keg higher under the new tariff. Spikes are $10 per ton higher, bolts and nuts are about 15 per cent. higher and horseshoes are 50 cents higher.

These enormous increases will press heavily on those who must use large quantities of iron in one shape or another. Farmers who use large quantities of iron and steel in ploughs, harrows, spades, shovels, hoes, axes, chains and in the large agricultural implements will find them peculiarly oppressive. The men who impose these high duties for the benefit of a few favored individuals, at one time assured the farmers that they would give them more than ample recommendation by increasing the prices of beef, mutton, pork, butter, cheese, wheat, barley, oats, potatoes and garden truck; but they tell the farmers now that it is impossible to increase by legislation the prices of anything of which we have a surplus for exportation. They have found the farmers very patient. They believe that they are very stupid or very easily misled by those influences which the Macdonald Government control.

THE population of the British Empire has almost trebled during the fifty years of Her Majesty's reign. In 1837 it was 126,106,081. To-day it is 320,000,000 according to figures given by Mr. J. H. Long, principal of the Collegiate Institute. In a letter to the Mail, Mr. Long says :—"In your very interesting article upon 'The Queen' in the Mail of Tuesday you give the population of the British Empire as 262,500,000. Will you allow me to draw your attention to the fact that this estimate does not include the Feudatory States of India, or very recent additions to the Empire—e. g., Burmah. The total population of the British Empire is now about 320,000,000, the Feudatory, or semi-indipendent, States of India alone numbering more than 56,000,000. It is only right, I think, that these should be included in the Empire, as States similarly situated as to government are classed as belonging to the Russian Empire, and as they are certain to become within a few years integral parts of the British Empire."

TEACHER, AND PUPIL, AND PARENT, AND CHILD.

SERMON BY LAYMAN.

(Written for The Examiner.)

How few people there are who reflect upon the above words and properly consider their meaning, properly consider their own duties and responsibilities, and properly estimate the worth of the pupil or child. And how few realize the fact that the everlasting fate of that pupil or child rests so largely with themselves. Realize the fact that when it comes into the world the child is pure and sinless, and that its mind is like unto a sheet of clean white paper, the first impressions made upon which become absolute and are hard to get rid of. How few stop to think that the new born babe is one of God's holy angels, and that should it then die, it would go straight into the arms of its loving Saviour. Or that, if it lives, it will, to a great extent, become just what its training and its treatment will make it. The teacher and the parent little think of the time when the children under their charge will have grown up to be men and women, many of whom, through neglect and ill treatment, will have turned out badly, and will then curse them for it. And to themselves the reflection will be a terrible one when they discern such curses, and think, half their task done their duty, these poor miserable outcasts would have become honest and prosperous members of society. Of course, there is no doubt that there are many parents, teachers and parents alike, who, both by nature and by training, are unfit to have the care of the young, and who are indifferent as to the results of their treatment of them. But, to his teachers are answerable; teacher and parents alike cannot be too careful in their selection, and they themselves are morally to blame when they fail to make a proper choice of teachers. With parents, however, it is different. They are a government within themselves. Both nature and law have conferred upon them the right to teach and control their children. Their children, while such, necessarily look to them for protection and advice, and if they fail in doing their duty they alone are responsible. Their children may suffer by reason of such failure, but the great responsibility, both to God and to man, is with the parents. They, no doubt, do not often realize the necessity of guiding out, in the very beginning of infant life, its mental, characteristic qualities, nor the necessity of watching their development and growth, nor the necessity of directing them into proper channels, and guiding and directing them as the child grows in stature and in years. And they seldom reflect that "as the twig is bent, the tree is inclined." As a rule, they leave the child to acquire its own knowledge and to develop its own inclinations and character, forgetting that its nature is composed of two conflicting elements, the one good and the other bad. And that as either of these elements is fostered and encouraged, so will the whole mind go, and the mind will eventually make the man. There are plenty of examples of this to be found everywhere; plenty of examples of the confessions of men and women, whose proper mental and moral training have been neglected in their youth, and who could not shake off the effects of this neglect in after years. I will relate just one example of this kind of training as given by a person in a newspaper not many years ago. The writer said that he once saw, and was well acquainted with, a beautiful boy, whose appearance indicated innocence and truth, and whose conduct was everything that could be desired. He said that years intervened before he saw that boy again. He was then a man. And he said that it would be almost impossible to describe his appearance and conduct, and what a change had come over him. Once a beautiful, innocent, promising youth, but now a bloated, wicked man, deprived of every vestige of his former appearance and character, an outlaw and terror to society. Now what could have caused this great change? The writer in question said that he had made enquiries and had found that the boy, while in his youth, had been neglected and abused by his parents and had been mismanaged and misgoverned by his teachers. Thus instead of cultivating and encouraging his better nature, instead of forming his mind upon good Christian principles, instead of treating him kindly, he had been treated harshly and abused at home and at school, and the result was that he felt that everybody was against him so he said he did not care what he did or what became of him. His better nature was neglected and abused, and his animal nature cultivated and encouraged, and hence the bad man that now turned round against his parents and his teachers, blaming them for his present position and character. No one can sufficiently estimate the effects of kind treatment and kind words upon child or man. No one can sufficiently estimate how much the child values and looks for sympathy and kindness on the part of those above him. Both parent and teacher alike, but especially the parent, should exercise patience when dealing with his child, and the child should be made to feel that there is no one in this wide world so good as his parent, and the teacher as well. See how quickly a soft pleasant word from mother will stop the child's crying, sooth his angry passions and bring him to her knee and confess his faults and promise he will not be bad again. And so with the teacher. A kind look or word, given at the right time, when they will do the most good, will do more to bring about obedience and success than all the harshness and punishment a teacher can employ. And they will win the love and confidence of the pupil and make him brave and hopeful. And, what is more, they will make him like to go to school, and like to please his teacher. To properly train a child requires patience, kindness and love, and the child must be able to realize that he is not looked down upon, is not treated with suspicion, and is made the confidant and helpmate of those around him. Both parent and teacher have a terrible responsibility to the child, and they are, in a great measure, accountable for its future life and character and success in the world. Just consider what a shameful, wicked thing it is to neglect and illtreat a little helpless child, who has no one to look up to for comfort and help but its parent or teacher. And just think of the dreadful reflections of that parent or teacher who abuses and drives from him his child, drives him out into the cold, heartless world, to find its associates and friends among the bad and the dissolute. And when the parent and teacher, but especially the parent, the father and the mother, are laid low, and all the doings of their past lives come back upon them, and when they think of their neglect and ill-treatment of their children, then they will wish they had done better, for they will surely feel that they are mainly responsible for their child's faults and that God will exact the penalty from them for wasting their opportunities and abusing the trust placed upon them. And their children will bear witness against them, and they will cry out in shame and terror for their shortcomings and for their evil treatment. And they will say that it is better they never had been born. How much better would it be, and how much more happiness would it ensure, if parents and teachers would do their duty in all humility and kindness. How many erring children would it not save from temporal and eternal ruin. How many more good and useful men and women would the world contain. And how much more would heaven's smiles cheer the hearts of all concerned, and how much fewer of man's laws would be broken and how many of God's laws be fulfilled. And the whole world would rejoice over the fruits of kindness and love, and each heart would be filled with joy and happiness and glory. Think well over the above and then read the following sad story of man's wrongdoing :—

Kindly, speak kindly to thy erring brother,
His early life was different far from thine,
Perchance a drunken father or a reckless mother,
Left him to grow a wild, uncultured vine.

Couldst thou but know of all thy brother's sorrow,
He has endured since first he saw the light,
Hadst thou to look into as dark a to-morrow,
As he hast oft-times done, wouldst then see always right.

Help him, oh, help him to forget the anguish
Of all the past, though 'tis a dark array,
Lift up his heart to where joys never languish,
To use bright dawning of an endless day.

Though art but flesh, and death must be thy portion,
Wealth cannot buy a lot in heav'n's domain,
Say, hast thou fed the hungry, clothed the orphan,
Then, brother, then, 'twas giv'n thee not in vain.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents, or any similar application, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who have for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict, testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm. eodw22

Try It.

"What shall I do for this distressing Cough?" Try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam; It is soothing and healing to the throat and lungs, and loosens the tough mucous that renders breathing difficult or painful. 2w22

Worth Remembering.

Mrs. T. Dean, of Harrietsville, Ont., was for a long time troubled with neuralgia of stomach. Failing to find benefit from her physicians, she tried Burdock Blood Bitters from which she found speedy relief, to which she testifies, hoping it may prove beneficial to others. Many physicians recommend B. B. B. 2w22

☞ The Most Gigantic Sale ever offered to the People of Peterborough.

This gigantic Sale will take place commencing WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887, and will continue for the following 20 days only, when I will offer any and all of my big stock, at Wonderfully Reduced Prices.

Bear in mind, GOUGH never yet advertised anything he did not do; nor will he in this instance, a fact you will all be convinced of the first day of this Grand Sale.

Some designing dealers ask the question, why pay $12.00 for a Worsted Suit that they sell for $8.50. Gough repudiates the assertion. This boasted Worsted Suit is nearly ALL COTTON, and as a guarantee to what I herein state is true, I will forfeit $1000 if I cannot prove it; I challenge a contradiction. Gough's regular price for this boasted $8.50 suit is $7.50.

I ask the attention of a discriminating public particularly to this Great Sale, and if they don't find it straight-forward, honorable and bona-fide, then brand me as a Cheap Side Store, and not the Great Forepaugh I claim to be.

The Irex Defeats the Thistle

LONDON, May 31.—The yacht race from Harwich, to South End took place to-day. A splendid fleet wind prevailed. The Thistle was the first to pass the finishing line, crossing at 1.06 p.m., the Irex second at 1.04 p.m., the Genesta third at 1.11 p.m., and the Wendur fourth at 1.27 p.m. The Irex, however, wins the first prize and the Thistle the second. The Irex, Neptune, Thistle, Queen Mab, Mayflower, Wendur, Puritan and Genesta are entered for the Channel race, which will be contested on Saturday. The first prize will be £300.

CURES RHEUMATISM.

The Terrible Torture—Rheumatism.

Chief of Police Stewart, Hamilton, Ontario, says: "I consider St. Jacobs Oil as an invaluable article, and shall not hesitate to recommend it to my friends,—or enemies, for that matter—when I find them seeking anything for the alleviation of the terrible torture of rheumatism.

Wonderful for Rheumatism.

Mr. John Kelly, grocer, Kingston, Canada, says: I have found St. Jacobs Oil a wonderful and efficacious remedy for rheumatism.

Good, Safe, Sure for Rheumatism.

Hon. John Holmes, Superintendent of the House of Industry, Kingston, says: I know St. Jacobs Oil to be meritorious, because it cured me of the rheumatism, and it did so in such a way as to leave no doubt that its claims are just. I think it is a good, safe and sure remedy, and such as is needed in our climate, where rheumatism, or, as all diseases, the most prevalent and hardest to combat.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. J. D. Murray, Govt. Agricultural Department, Ottawa, Canada, says: I recommend St. Jacobs Oil to sufferers with rheumatism. It cured me.

Cured of Rheumatism—Well as Ever.

Mr. Robert Wilson of the City Surveyor's office, and Street Commissioner of the Eastern Division for Job Board of Public Works, Toronto, Ont., says: The rheumatism has been a source of great bother to me, and I have done a great deal of doctoring for it without much good. A friend recommended St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy. I tried it, and the result is that I am now cured, and as well as ever."

Every household shelf should have it; every testimonial strictly true; every day increases demands; every patient is cured when proved; every ache or pain succumbs; every dealer knows its merits; every chemist finds it perfect. St. Jacobs Oil, put up in wrapper, everywhere. Price fifty cents a bottle. Directions in eleven languages. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicine. Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. Weather Predictions.

It is probable that in the breaking up of winter we shall have much damp sloppy weather, when rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, and other painful complaints will prevail. Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the popular household remedy for external and internal use. Its curative power is truly wonderful. 2w22d

Pun-ishment.

An Indiana man fell dead laughing at a pun. Some puns are horrible enough to kill a man—but not with laughter.

To Avoid Baldness or Grey Hair.

Use Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic. It keeps the scalp clean and free from Dandruff, and promotes the growth of the hair. It prevents premature greyness and stops all falling out of the hair. On bald heads, where the roots have not perished, it will invigorate them and force a new growth of hair. Ask for Hair Magic. It is the only reliable. For sale by J. D. Tully and all druggists.

The Egg Crop.

Some idea of the immensity of the egg crop of this Province, says the Gazette, may be inferred from what was told us yesterday morning by Mr. E. K. Ostrom, of Peterborough. Mr. Ostrom, who ships to Boston, says that his regular consignments are three carloads every two weeks, though he sometimes sends four, and that each car takes 12,250 dozens! How many egg-buyers there are in Ontario we cannot even guess, but there must be a very large number, and their purchases, added together, would present a perfectly astounding array of figures.

Battalion Parade.

The several companies of the 57th Batt. paraded the principal streets last night, headed by the band. Their soldierly set-up and bearing were the theme of praise all along the route. Their marching was excellent, especially in column of companies. The battalion performed this severe test of good marching in a manner creditable alike to themselves and the officers. Under the new regime, the 57th is gaining efficiency every day, and at every turn-out vindicates the wisdom of the formation of the "city" battalion.

Late in the season manufacturers are glad to clear ends of stock at Tremendous Reductions. See the Seamless Hosiery Turnbull is selling 3 pair for 25c. Bought right.

Burgess, 70c., "Miss Isaacs, $2.00; Charles Connors for father, $2.00; Mrs. Weller, canned fruit; Mrs. Aldridge, parcel reading matter; Mrs. R. Ferguson, parcel clothing; Mrs. James Best, rhubarb; Miss Roger, vegetables; a friend, a dollar's worth bread tickets; from a friend, chickens; Mr. Bruce Ferguson, lumber; P. Connal, bread.

A Military Episode.

Tuesday evening while the 57th battalion was entering the drill shed, the spirited horse on which Col. Rogers was mounted was struck by a stone, thrown, it is supposed, by some mischievous boy. The animal made a sudden plunge, unseating his rider (who, however, landed on his feet uninjured) and galloped away. During his plunge, Master Kenneth McClelland, son of Mr. John McClelland, was leaning against a tree box near by, watching the parade. In some manner the hoof of the plunging horse struck the lad in the face, splitting his upper lip, and inflicting more or less severe body bruises. He, however, suffered no serious injuries, and will soon, it is hoped, recover.

Obituary.

Intelligence, received this morning, of the death of Mrs. Courtice, (nee Miss Jennie Butcher) has cast a gloom over the large circle of acquaintances and friends she had in Peterborough. There are no particulars of her last illness to hand. It was only about two years ago that Mrs. Courtice's marriage took place and her unexpected death on the threshold of what promised to be a happy life, enlists the warmest sympathy of the community with the bereaved husband and relatives, who mourn the death of a young lady of most estimable character in every relation of life. The funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon from the residence of Mrs. Butcher, Murray Street, at three o'clock p.m.

Masonic Excursion.

Attention is called again to the Masonic Excursion to be run to Toronto by Midland Division of the G. T. R., under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of Peterborough, on Thursday, June 9th. The railway arrangements admit of the public on the Midland division from Campbellford to Uxbridge joining the excursion. The price is low, return tickets being less than half the regular rates. The auspices under which the excursion is to be run, guarantee its respectability, the time admits of spending eight hours in Toronto on the day of the excursion, and gives option to return either by way of Port Hope or Lindsay. Children over 5 and under 12 years at half price. A strong and experienced committee of management will be on board and attend in every possible way to the wants and comfort of the excursionists.

Women's Missionary Meeting.

A rather thin audience assembled in the George street Methodist church, on the occasion of the first meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, recently organized in connection with the Methodist church, Peterborough. Rev. J. J. Leach occupied the chair. Previous to the address Mrs. Wilbur Daly sang "Consider the Lilies," and Mr. Jaques, organist, "The Good Shepherd." Rev. C. L. Thompson, of Odessa, delivered an address on the subject of missions, dealing with woman's place in the work, and the duty and privilege of aiding in the work. He closed an eloquent and earnest speech of an hour's length by a strong appeal to liberality in aiding mission work, pointing out that those who helped to send a missionary to the heathens were as much missionaries as he or she they sent. The meeting was concluded by the singing of the National Anthem and the benediction by the chairman.

Bill of the Play.

The bill at the Opera House last night was thoroughly a comedy one, consisting of "Andy Blake," "Edith's Burglar,"—a veritable gem—and the farce, "The Fellow Who Likes Me." In the two first, little Annie Bird assumed the principle parts, and as Andy Blake, and Edith in "Edith's Burglar," was very fine. The entertainment was very enjoyable, as was shown by the laughter and applause, which were continuous. To-night the famous melo-drama, entitled "The Ticket of Leave Man," Mr. Day appearing as Bob Brierly and little Annie as Sam Willoughby. On Friday night little Annie will have her weekly benefit, when she will play Fanchon in "Fanchon, the Cricket." A remarkable performance is looked for, and people will do well to secure their seats at once, as there is every indication of an immense house.

The Queen's Jubilee.

Meeting of the General Committee—The Programme Taking Shape.

A meeting of the General Committee, having in hand the preparation of a programme for a celebration of the Queen's Jubilee on June 21st, was held in the Firemen's Hall, last night Rev. Mr. Bradshaw in the chair. Representatives were present from all the sub-committees, each of whom presented verbal or written reports. From the different reports presented it is probable that the programme will take the following shape: At 10 a.m. the 57th Batt. and Band will turn out for parade, followed by the Fire Brigade, school children and citizens, wearing jubilee badges, the line of march being from the drill shed down George street to the market square, across, and up Water street to the Court House Park, where the children will be arranged on the rising ground, the militia and firemen to form in line about them; the children then to sing the several patriotic and Jubilee songs which they will be taught in the interim between now and June 21st, choice musical selections from the band to intersperse their choruses. Here some refreshments may be served the children. This feature of the programme stands in abeyance. In the afternoon, probably at Riverside Park, a fine programme of the usual athletic sports will be presented, to be preceded or followed by a canoe regatta on Little Lake. Citizens are requested to decorate their premises early in the day, so that the town may be put in holiday attire, especially along the line of march of the procession, and in the evening add to their display by a grand illumination of their residences and stores in every possible way; and if each citizen's effort in this line is in proportion to his loyalty and love to the good Queen for whose honor the celebration is intended, a magnificent effect will follow. An influential committee was appointed to wait upon the Gas and Electric Light Company, and request them to erect Jubilee illuminated arches for the occasion. In the evening it is proposed to have a grand illuminated canoe parade on Little Lake. This feature of the programme will be one of the finest sights of the day. The town council at its last meeting kindly granted the sum of $100 towards the celebration, and Ashburnham council will be waited upon and further aid solicited from them, which request, there is scarcely a doubt, they will grant. Mr. W. Menzies was appointed treasurer. The different committees are boiling over with enthusiasm, and the celebration will be one worthy the day and the occasion. The general committee holds another meeting in the same place Friday evening next at 8 o'clock.

The Programme of the Northern Division A. C. A. Meet.

The following is the proposed programme of canoe races to be held at the Northern Division A. C. A. meet at Stoney Lake from July 31 to August 12:—

PADDLING RACES.

1. Classes II. and III., open canoes, single blades.
2. Classes IV. and V., open canoes, single blades. (See note B.)
3. Classes A, B and C, sailing canoes that are decked and fitted with a centreboard.
4. Classes II. and III., open or decked, any blade.
5. Classes IV. and V., open or decked, any blade. (See note A.)
6. Classes II. and III., tandem—Open canoes, single blades, decked canoes double blades.
7. Classes IV. and V., tandem—open canoes single blades, decked canoes double blades.
8. Any class or paddle, three paddlers in a canoe.
9. Any canoe or paddle, lady and gentleman's tandem.

SAILING RACES.

10. A, B and C, decked, unlimited rig or ballast, 3 miles.
11. A, B and C, open, unlimited rig or ballast, 3 miles.
12. A, B and C, decked, unlimited sail, ballasted with a passenger at least weighing 125 lbs. (See note C.)
13. Open canoes, ditto.
14. Classes A, B and C, open or decked, man-over-board race, to be started in the usual manner; at a pistol shot sails are to be lowered and skippers jump overboard, regain their position and finish the race; ½ mile course.
15. A, B and C, combined paddling and sailing race, open or decked, course 2 miles, the one half miles to be alternately paddled and sailed, commencing under paddle.
16. Hurry-skurry race, 200 yards run, 25 yards swim, and 200 yards paddle.
17. Portage race, course to be decided at the meet.
18. Catch-the-duck race.

(Note A)—The five best flags will be given to the five competitors making the best average or record in events 3, 4, 5, 10, 11 and 15; canoes entering both 3 and 5 will have their best record in either of these races taken.

(Note B)—The definition of Class V. paddling, and Class C, sailing, in length not over 16ft, beam not over 32 inches. It has been added to let in the majority of existing open Peterborough hunting and cruising canoes 15x31 and 16x32.

(Note C)—The committee thought it advisable to have some kind of a cruising load race. They thought of making the canoes carry a certain amount of ballast, but came to the conclusion that it would entail too much work on themselves weighing out rocks and sandbags for each competition. It was thought that the lady friends of the contestants might enjoy a sailing match, and at the same time act as a good cruising load.

(Note D)—First and second prize flags will be given in each event, provided there are four starters.

The above programme may be altered by the Regatta Committee, who will be pleased to receive suggestions from members of the Northern division or anyone intending to be present at the meet.

The events for each day will be posted on the notice board at camp each morning before eight o'clock.

R. C. Strickland, Chairman, Lakefield; J. G. Edwards, Lindsay; W. G. McKindrick, Toronto, Regatta Committe.

Spots of Sport.

An Association cricket match will be played on the P. A. A. A. grounds Saturday afternoon next at 2 o'clock, between Omemee and Peterborough clubs.

The bankers and lawyers who play cricket will wrestle with an eleven chosen from the remainder of the Association on the Ashburnham grounds Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

To-morrow (Thursday) afternoon a baseball match will be played on the P. A. A. A. grounds between the "Comets" and "Sunflowers" (or, "Na-na-poobahs"). The people may expect to hear something drop with a dull thud.

The first monthly match of the Peterborough Rifle Association takes place at the butts to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon.

Next Monday the Orillia "Imperials" will visit Peterborough and play a lacrosse match on Riverside Park with the "Ætnas" of Peterborough. Both are junior clubs.

A meeting of the Otonabee Canoe Club will be held next Monday evening. A full attendance is requested.

Mr. John Millar had his yacht, "Dot," out for the initial trip of this season Tuesday. The "Dot" sailed splendidly.

Central Park is the practice ground of two clubs—lacrosse and baseball.

The June races at Belleville open this afternoon. The track is in prime condition. About thirty horses arrived in the city from the west yesterday. A big time is expected.

A Lindsay despatch says: "The mayor of Lindsay has declared a public half holiday on Thursday next, June 2nd. The principal feature of the day will be a baseball match between the International League team of Toronto and the Lindsays, of Lindsay, the champions of the Midland district." Champions of the Midland district! Whew! Where do the Peterboroughs, who waxed Lindsay so nicely on the 24th, come in?

Personal.

Mr. John Erskine's condition is unimproved. His physician says he cannot recover.

Mr. Wm. Chamberlain, of Peterborough, attended the Hanlan-Gaudaur sculling race at Chicago on Monday.

Mrs. Bertram Orde, Miss J. Orde and Miss Lundy left Tuesday evening, via New York, for Europe, where they will spend three months in England, Ireland, Scotland and probably France. Mr. John Cameron supplied the tickets.

Mr. A. H. Gilbert of Ottawa, brother of the late Wm. Gilbert, arrived in town yesterday. It is eighteen years since Mr. Gilbert last visited Peterborough. He was unable to be present at his brother's funeral owing to the absence of the head of the Interior department. He will remain in town for a few days.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the Grand Black Chapter of British America of the Royal Black Knights of Ireland is in session at Belleville. The following representatives from Peterborough are present:—District Grand Master, J. B. McWilliams; District Grand Lecturer, John Smith; Grand Censor, R. Weir; Grand Committee, G. W. Hall and Wm. King.

Mr. Joseph Oliver of Toronto, one of the grand representatives from this Province to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, was in town on Monday evening and visited Otonabee lodge. He was accompanied by Mr. W. Mileage, a prominent officer of the Grand Lodge of Quebec. Mr. Oliver is Lieut.-Col. of the Canton (Military) branch of this order. He informed us that from present appearances all the Cantons in the province will visit Peterborough and take part in the celebration in August. Mr. Mileage says that the Montreal Cantons are extremely anxious to come to Peterborough provided suitable railway rates can be secured. Every thing goes to show that the celebration will be one of the finest ever held in Peterborough. The military display will be something novel and grand. Official invitations have been extended to every Canton in Canada and Rochester, and it is anticipated that each Canton will, if possible, bring their own bands to enliven the proceedings.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, June 1st.

Geo. Billings and M. McQuaid were each fined $2.00 and costs for allowing their cows to run at large.

Another quartette of Scott Act infractors paid the usual fine of $50 and costs for first offences this morning.

Just arrived at Turnbull's, Gobelin and Drab Cashmeres with handsome trimmings to match, correct shades for the season.

MARRIED.

KELLY—HAYES.—On Wednesday morning, June 1st, 1887, at St. Peter's Cathedral, by Rev. Father Conway, P.P., Mr. Daniel Kelly, of Asphodel, to Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Mr. James Hayes, of Otonabee.

DIED.

COURTICE—In Toronto, at noon on Tuesday, May 31st, 1887, Jennie, beloved wife of Rev. A. C. Courtice, and daughter of the late Rev. J. W. Butcher, in the 27th year of her age.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can see it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodwt

A PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION SUCCESSFULLY INAUGURATED.

TORONTO, June 2.

Forty-seven Public School, High School and Collegiate Institute Trustees from various parts of the province assembled in the Board Room of the Toronto Public School Trustees at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon to take action on a proposal to form a provincial association of school trustees.

The movement originated last March with the Whitby Board of Education, which thought that such an association, representative of the entire province, would be the means of impressing upon the attention of the Department of Education the views of the people at large upon educational matters in a way that cannot be done at present. Circulars were sent to the boards of 126 cities, towns and villages asking them to send delegates to a convention in Toronto. Out of this number thirty-five places were represented by forty-seven delegates, whose names are:

J. H. Simpson, Belleville; H. Telfer, Collingwood.
Dr. W. J. Burns, Caledonia; J. W. G. Armitage, Fergus.
E. E. Loosley, Grimsby; R. S. Strong, Galt.
Geo. Martin, Guelph; W. M. Bell, Hamilton.
R. G. Lamb, Harriston; R. Burns, "
John Stenuman, "; J. H. Scott, Kincardine.
W. M. Skinner, London; J. A. McPherson, "
Joseph M. Wilson, "; W. Rees, Listowel.
Jarge Hesser, Markham; Isaac Nord, Mitchell.
John Jerman, "; W. H. Stephenson, Norwood.
Joseph Bastedo, Newmarket; R. Scott, "
J. J. MacCracken, Ottawa; C. A. Jones, Oshawa.
Rev. J. B. Armstrong, Orillia; J. Barclay, Oakville.
Rev. J. H. Somerville, O. S'd; Geo. C. Carry, Picton.
E. F. Ross, Port Hope; Thos. Courtice, Port Perry.
John Gibbs, Parkhill; Rev. G. G. McRobbie, S'town
J. S. Fuller, Stratford; Dr. Mathews, St. Marys.
S. G. McCaugher, Seaforth; Archibald Sinclair, Strathroy
Rev. P. Acheson, Stamford; J. Lobb, Toronto.
Dr. Bascom, Uxbridge; W. S. Lee, "
A. D. Weeks, "; D. Ormiston, Whitby.
J. P. Powell, Whitby; J. E. Farewell, "
J. Baldaje, "; J. B. Dow, "
Henry Walsh, Weston.

Rev. J. H. Somerville of Owen Sound was chosen chairman and Mr. J. B. Dow of Whitby Secretary. The chairman explained the object of the meeting and thought it quite practicable, and Mr. Walter S. Lee, in the unavoidable absence of Mr. C. A. B. Brown, Chairman of the Toronto Public School Board, extended to the visitors a hearty welcome and expressed sympathy with the movement.

After an hour's discussion as to the composition of the association, in which the general opinion was that, although Catholic Ratepayers were entitled to representation on Collegiate Institute Boards, it was not advisable to include Separate School Boards, things were brought to a head by the adoption of this resolution moved by Mr. J. E. Farewell, seconded by Mr. W. L. Stephenson:

That this meeting is in sympathy with and approves of the objects set forth in the circular of the Whitby Board of Education, dated March 24 last, and that therefore the delegates here assembled resolve themselves into an association to be called "The Provincial Association of Public and High School Trustees of Ontario."

A committee of twelve, consisting of four each from public school, high school and joint boards, was appointed to draft a constitution At 4 o'clock the meeting adjourned until 7.30.

In Evening Session.

At the evening session the convention went into committee of the whole to discuss the report of the Constitution Committee, Mr. David Ormiston of Whitby in the chair.

The stated objects of the association, as adopted in the constitution, are: To provide a medium of communicating to the Department of Education the views of the people of the province upon educational matters and pressing the same on the attention of the department, and to consider all matters having a bearing on education and the school system.

The chief point for discussion was the clause defining what the representation of the boards should be. It took two hours to settle this, owing to the difficulty of giving all municipalities a proportionately equal representation. Finally it was decided, on motion of Dr. Mathieson of St. Mary's and Mr. James Lobb of Toronto, that the representation should consist of one delegate from each collegiate institute board, high school board and public school board in cities, towns and incorporated villages; one from each township, two from each united board, and one additional delegate for each 20,000 inhabitants in cities or fraction thereof in cities of over 20,000. The association will meet annually in Toronto in November, and it will be divided into two sections, high school and public school, which shall consider matters affecting them and report to the association. The delegates to the annual meeting shall be appointed by their boards not later than Oct. 1.

These officers were elected:

President—J. E. Farewell, Whitby.
First Vice-President—J. J. MacCracken, Ottawa.
Second Vice-President—Rev. J. H. Somerville, Owen Sound.
Secretary-Treasurer—J. B. Dow, Whitby.
Executive Committee—James Lobb and W. S. Lee, Toronto; J. H. Simpson, Belleville; S. S. Fuller, Stratford; J. W. G. Armitage, Fergus; J. M. Wilson, London; W. F. Barton, Hamilton; A. D. Weeks, Uxbridge; Rev. G. G. McRobbie, Ridgetown; Dr. W. J. Burns, Caledonia; Henry Walsh, Weston, and H. Telfer, Collingwood.

After passing votes of thanks to the Whitby School Board for originating the idea of the institution, to the Toronto School Board for the use of their room and to Rev. Mr. Somerville for his efficiency as chairman, the association adjourned to meet again in Toronto on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

THE ROYAL PROGRESS.

High Bids for Windows From Which to See the Show.

LONDON, June 1.—The Queen's route from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey on June 21 has been revised and extended. Windows along the line of march are letting for $150 and single first floor rooms for $100. Americans are credited with being the highest bidders and forcing prices up.

Dr. Potts Wasn't at the G.-G.'s Ball.

From the Christian Guardian, June 1.

Rev. Dr. Potts wishes it to be distinctly understood that he and Mrs. Potts were not present at the Governor-General's ball, given recently in Toronto. This statement is made in view of their names having appeared in the list of invited guests.

The Production of "Werner."

LONDON, June 1.—"Werner" was produced at the Lyceum Theatre this evening, with Henry Irving in the title role and Miss Terry as Josephine. The play met with a luke-warm reception.

OTTAWA NEWS.

Bills Introduced—Questions Answered by Ministers—Mr. Edgar's Bill Thrown Out.

OTTAWA, June 1.—To-day Mr. Rykert introduced a bill relating to the Ontario and Pacific Junction Railway.

Mr. Small introduced a bill to incorporate the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company.

Mr. Moffat has been placed on all the committees of which his late brother was a member.

Questions by members produced the following results: That copy or abridged copy of the revised statutes will be given to justices of the peace. That Hurlbut Stevenson is Inspector of Colonization Companies at a salary of $1000 a year. That three-fourths of the accounts of the returning officers at the late elections have been paid and the remainder will shortly, will be paid in a day or two. That the Governor of Gibbon had sent in his resignation on account of ill-health, but it has not yet been accepted. That the Government do not think the public interest would be served by any further payment. Statements respecting the Behring dalliberty and reciprocal trade with the United States, and that a committee will, during the recess, examine and report on the work yet necessary on the Trent Valley Canal.

The following bills were advanced a stage: To incorporate the Imperial Trusts Company of Canada. To authorise the Grange Trust (limited) to wind up its affairs. To amend the act to incorporate the Hamilton, Guelph and Buffalo Railway Company. To incorporate the Barrie and Canadian Pacific Junction Railway Company. To amend the act respecting the Pontiac Pacific Junction Railway Company. To amend the act to incorporate the Brantford, Waterloo and Lake Erie Railway Company. An act to incorporate the Niagara River Bridge Company. To amend the act respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. To incorporate the Prescott County Railway Company.

It is stated that Mr. Colin Campbell of the Militia Department, brother of the lately deceased member for Digby, is likely to receive the Conservative nomination to fill the vacancy.

The Governor-General to-night dined some fifty-two members of the House at Rideau Hall. The chamber looked like a flower garden when they returned.

Mr. Forget, Clerk of the Northwest Council, was examined to-day by the Senate Committee on matters of food products in the Northwest and gave evidence as to the preservation of fish, the remaining wild animals, etc. Warden Bedson and Sir Donald Smith are to be examined to-morrow.

The Banking and Commerce Committee to-day threw out Mr. Edgar's bill for the discharge of insolvent debtors and passed Mr. McCarthy's companies act.

Mayor Stewart to-day interviewed Sir Hector Langevin with a view to acquiring the plot of land at the end of the two bridges over the Rideau Canal, on which to place the volunteers' monument. The Minister of Public Works is favorable to the scheme.

Justice Gwynne to-day gave judgment in the Exchequer Court in one of the war claims cases. A. Sinclair sued the Government for $7157 transport service which the War Claims Commission had refused, and obtained judgment for the full amount with costs.

A special committee of the Railway Committee this morning considered the difference between the Niagara Central and the Western Ontario Pacific Railway. It was finally decided to authorise the latter road to secure the charter of the Niagara Central, paying at the same time for all work performed in the way of construction.

The Dominion arbitrators have just made their award in the Central Experimental Farm case, granting $50,250 to Mr. Stackpole, whose land was expropriated for this purpose. The valuation was about $125 per acre.

A VERY BAD PARENT.

The Cashier of the Hochelaga Bank a Fugitive at Chicago.

MONTREAL, June 1.—It is rumored that Parent, the defaulting cashier of the Hochelaga Bank, is staying in Chicago. The bank authorities have discovered that his first irregularity was on May 4, when he took an accepted check for $8000, signed by himself, to Dupuis Freres and asked them to change checks with him for a few days. They consented, but subsequently they became suspicious. The following day the check was consequently deposited to their credit. Parent was notified of the fact by the teller and, in return, asked him to hold it for him for a few days. The request was complied with until the teller became anxious and informed Parent he must take it up, and it is supposed that rather than make a clean breast of the affair he left. In addition to the bank defalcation he leaves numerous creditors, one of the heaviest being Mr. Geo. Dawley of Seath & Dawsley, accountants, who was joint curator with the fugitive of the insolvent estate of Picard & Co., wholesale jewelers, and to whom he owes $5000. Mr. Dawley leaves for Chicago to-morrow to prevail upon Parent to remit him his money.

AGAIN AFTER MR. SHEPPARD.

The High Constable of Montreal to Arrive To-day With Two Warrants.

MONTREAL, June 1.—The June term of the Court of Queen's Bench opened to-day, Judge Church presiding. The Grand Jury brought in a number of true bills, among them being two true bills against Edmund E. Sheppard of the Toronto News on a charge of criminal libel, preferred by Captains Ethier and Bauset of the 65th, when that battalion was at the Northwest rebellion.

High Constable Bissonette left for Toronto this morning to arrest Mr. Sheppard.

MR. SHEPPARD LEAVES FOR PORT BRUCE.

After the above despatch was received in Toronto last evening, a reporter visited Editor Sheppard's sanctum to learn what he thought about it. Mr. Sheppard was not in, and in answer to the visiting reporter's enquiries the city editor said Mr. Sheppard had gone to Port Bruce to write another novel.

Bonuses for Bank Clerks.

MONTREAL, June 1.—Her Majesty's jubilee year appears to be taken advantage of by several of the banks here in a manner that must prove satisfactory to their officials and clerks. The Bank of Montreal has paid a bonus of 15 per cent. to its employes; the Quebec Bank has paid one of 20 per cent., and General Manager Hague of the Merchants' has issued a circular to his staff stating that, owing to the very favorable nature of the year's business and the few unimportant losses incurred, a bonus of 5 per cent. will be paid to unmarried officers and one of 7½ and 10 per cent. to the others.

Directors of the Canada Southern.

ST. THOMAS, June 1.—The annual meeting for the election of directors of the Canada Southern Railway was held here to-day, when the following were elected directors of the company for the year ending June, 1888: Cornelius Vanderbilt, William K. Vanderbilt, James Tillinghast, Anthony G. Dulman, Charles F. Cox, Samuel F. Barger, Sidney Dillon, Joseph H. Brown and Edward A. Wickes.

The meetings of the Niagara River Bridge Company, Niagara Grand Island Bridge Company, Sarnia, Chatham and Erie Railway companies were also held to-day. The old directors were elected.

The Gladstone Testimonial.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The steamer Sirius this afternoon accompanied the White Star steamer Germanic down to Sandy Hook to give Richard M. Walters a hearty send-off. Mr. Walters sailed on the Germanic as the representative of the Gladstone Committee to present the "Grand Old Man" with American testimonial, the fund for which was collected by the New York World.

Killed by a Stallion.

BARRIE, June 1.—A man named Johnston, a butcher, who lives at Angus, came to town on Saturday, and in company with a number of others went into the stables of the Victoria Hotel to see a stallion named Young Lexington. Although warned by the ostler, neither he nor the others took any notice, and Johnston was kicked in the stomach, from the effects of which he died yesterday evening, being conscious only once since the accident.

Lansdowne and His Tenants.

LONDON, June 1.—The Marquis of Lansdowne, replying to an address from 600 of his Wiltshire tenants, says he has no fear that the attacks made upon him will prejudice his position in Canada, and expresses the hope that the differences, which affect only a small portion of his Irish estates, will not prove permanent.

CONFERENCE OF RADICAL-UNIONISTS AT BIRMINGHAM.

LONDON, June 1.—The inaugural conference of the Radical Union was opened to-day at Birmingham by Joseph Chamberlain. Lord Hartington, in a letter to the conference, said the doubt and confusion surrounding the Home Rule question were still unremoved. Liberals professed to be ready to accept a modification of their original bill granting Ireland Home Rule, but failed to make any practical suggestion as to what would satisfy them. The action of the Gladstone Liberals, declared Lord Hartington, had caused an indefinite postponement of the settlement of the Irish question. The alliance of Gladstone with the Parnellites had daily weakened parliamentary authority.

Mr. Chamberlain in an address, referred to Mr. Gladstone's declaration that Mr. Trevelyan on Irish affairs was the best informed man in the House. Trevelyan had declined into private life when the fight was the hottest. The Liberal-Unionists, he continued, had been taunted upon their alliance with the Tories. There was satisfaction, however, in knowing that their allies were Scottish gentlemen and not emissaries or agents of a foreign conspiracy. The time seemed to be approaching when the formation of a new party would be found necessary.

Mission Meeting in Gladstonia.

LONDON, June 1.—At the Radical-Union Conference to-day a resolution was passed in favor of the largest possible extension of local government to Ireland, subject to the supremacy of the Imperial Parliament and the protection of the Protestant minority. The conference was attended by 300 delegates, representing all parts of Great Britain. The tone of the speeches was bitterly anti-Gladstonian. It was the first representative Unionist meeting where favorable mention to the Gladstonians has been the rallying cry.

Mr. Chamberlain declared his belief that conciliation would be a mere deception.

Lord Hartington's letter described the Gladstonians as absorbed in the Parnellites, their only object being to retain at any cost the support of the Parnellites by their policy of following unreservedly the leadership and adopting the parliamentary methods of their Irish allies.

After the first sitting the delegates went into sections to discuss plans for electoral organization. A new electoral committee will be appointed for Ireland. A large amount of money is already promised for expenses.

Rumors were current at the conference that the Government would introduce, probably during the autumn session, a broad local government bill, including Ireland, and that the Government might dissolve Parliament over this measure. The same report in the Conservative clubs is hastening preparations for an electoral reorganization. The Ministers will return to London on Monday and a Cabinet council will be held on Tuesday.

Mass Meeting of Unionists.

LONDON, June 1.—A mass meeting of Unionists was held to-night in Birmingham Town Hall.

The following letter was read from John Bright: "The great English Liberal party was called on to abandon its past traditions and prostrate itself before an odious, illegal and immoral conspiracy, and though they grieved over the temporary ruin of the Liberal party they were guiltless of the mischief and without the shame.

Sir Henry James said the Liberal-Unionists never wavered in their allegiance to their leader until his alliance with Parnell was inevitable. They were then obliged to associate with their former political opponents. As to the Parnellites, he distrusted them as men besides disliking their principles. A resolution was adopted approving the action of the Unionist leaders.

PARNELLISM AND CRIME.

The London Times Persistent in Its Attack on the Home Rulers.

LONDON, June 1.—The last of the Times' second series of articles on "Parnellism and Crime," which appears this morning, concludes with the statement that the New York Council of the Fenian Brotherhood has issued a circular appealing for funds for a "pyrotechnic display" in honor of the Queen's jubilee, and requesting that moneys subscribed for the purpose should be addressed to John Murphy, treasurer, box 922.

The article continues: "In other words a series of dynamite and incendiary outrages is intended. Whether the schemes succeed in the near future will disclose. What knowledge the Parnellites possess of the characters and projects of the men who hold such close relations with them we shall not here discuss. We will only add that while the results of the enquiry we have made has surpassed our original expectations, Mr. Parnell has but to raise a finger to obtain a far fuller information upon every point than our partial and limited opportunities have rendered possible."

A JUBILEE MASS.

The Pope Orders High Mass and a Te Deum in Honor of Queen Victoria.

ROME, June 1.—A Papal rescript has been issued ordering that High Mass and a Te Deum shall be sung in all the Catholic churches of England in honor of the Queen's Jubilee.

Conditionally Accepted.

LONDON, June 1.—Vicar Warren of Trinity Church, Lambeth, has sent a conditional acceptance of the call extended to him by Trinity Church, New York.

ALL QUIET IN PARIS.

Secret Joy at Berlin Over the Deposition of Boulanger.

PARIS, June 1.—There has been no repetition to-day of the disturbances made last night in front of the Opera House in favor of Gen. Boulanger. The excitement has generally subsided.

The Radical press to-day again denounces the Rouvier Cabinet, while the Conservative papers rejoice at the rupture between the Radicals and the Opportunists.

Suppressed Joy at Berlin.

BERLIN, June 1.—The joy felt here at the downfall of Gen. Boulanger is more silent than expressed. There is very little confidence, however, in the stability of the new French Ministry.

THE OPERA COMIQUE FIRE.

Two Wagon Loads of Charred Limbs Taken to the Morgue.

PARIS, June 1.—The clearing away of the debris from the site of the Opera Comique was concluded to-day. No more bodies were found. The Temps says the official number of bodies found is seventy, of which fifty have been identified. Two wagon loads of charred limbs have been taken to the Morgue.

TOPICS FROM TORONTO.

TORONTO, June 2.

The ceremony of swearing in Sir Alexander Campbell as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario took place at noon yesterday in the dingy structure at Simcoe and Wellington-streets, which does duty as the Attorney-General's offices. Chief Justice Hagarty administered the oath. The proceedings were merely formal. Mr. J. J. McGee, clerk of the Privy Council of Canada, was present in his official capacity.

Sir Alexander Gives a Dinner.

His Honor gave his first official dinner at the Queen's last night, and the affair was a pleasing one in every respect. Covers were laid for ten:

The Lieutenant-Governor.

Chief Justice Hagarty.	Attorney-General Mowat.
Gen. A. T. Gray.	Chancellor Boyd.
Gen. A. M. Rosser.	J. K. Clarke, Q.C.
Vice-Chancellor Proudfoot.	Deputy Attorney-General Johnston.
C. J. Campbell.	C. C. Hopkirk.

Lizzie Gent, a married lady, the young woman who assaulted John Sheehy in his widowed mother's house on John Lizzie, last Sunday night, surrendered herself at Police Headquarters yesterday afternoon. Subsequently she was arraigned before Magistrate Ardagh, who remanded her to the cells until Tuesday next, to be charged with the assault. Yesterday afternoon Sheehy was examined before Magistrate Ardagh, and his wounds were found to be of a serious character. He was ordered him to be held pending the result of Lizzie's wounds.

Such a large number have applied for admission to the free music school provided for the training of teachers by the Minister of Education that the list will soon be closed. Those who wish to attend should apply at once.

This gigantic Sale will take place commencing WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887, and will continue for the following 20 days only, when I will offer any and all of my big stock, at Wonderfully Reduced Prices.

Bear in mind, GOUGH never yet advertised anything he did not do; nor will he in this instance, a fact you will all be convinced of the first day of this Grand Sale.

Some designing dealers ask the question, why pay $12.00 for a Worsted Suit that they sell for $8.50. Gough repudiates the assertion. This boasted Worsted Suit is nearly ALL COTTON, and as a guarantee to what I herein state is true, I will forfeit $1000 if I cannot prove it; I challenge a contradiction. Gough's regular price for this boasted $8.50 suit is $7.50.

I ask the attention of a discriminating public particularly to this Great Sale, and if they don't find it straight-forward, honorable and bona-fide, then brand me as a Cheap Side Store, and not the Great Forepaugh I claim to be.

Theological Union.

Annual Meeting of the Bay of Quinte Branch — Address by Rev. F. H. Wallace.

The annual meeting of the Bay of Quinte branch of the Theological Union of the Canadian Methodist Church was held in the George street church Wednesday. There was a good attendance of ministers and of the general public.

REV. T. J. EDMISON, president of the Bay of Quinte branch, occupied the chair. After devotional exercises,—

REV. F. H. WALLACE delivered the annual address on "Christianity and other Faiths." The lecture was a most profound and comprehensive one, and literally crammed with pregnant facts and grand ideas. A condensation of it is impossible, for that process had been carried to the utmost limit in the preparation of the lecture which was, while being profoundly fruitful of fact and thought, sufficiently popular to be within the comprehension of every hearer. The speaker set out by pointing out that Christianity comprised an appreciation of all earthly religions, and a firm faith in its own fullness, sufficiency and finality. Man was created with a capacity for loving and a desire for worshipping God. All other religions implied a natural longing for an object of worship. In savage life there were longings for the truth they comprehended not. Slowly had Christianity come to appreciate the merits of other religions. Modern missions had made the whole world kin. In religious revelation God treated all men as free, and on this theory was founded the diversity of religions. The operation of heavenly influences was the basis of even the lowest forms of religion. Man must either rise to the monotheistic conception of God or sink to pantheism or fetishism. Even these lower forms were marked by aspirations for good. Even in fetishism there was a dim conception of higher powers, and the worshipper was nearer the Christian religion than the cultured materialist. Christianity assimilated and absorbed the best conceptions of the old mythologies, and unified them into a living faith in God. In oriental religions the visible counted for nothing and the invisible for all. Christianity proclaimed the free personality of God and man. Above all natural religions stand ethical, religions in which salvation is recognised. Reference was made to the religions of Zoroaster and Confucius, contrasting them with Christianity. Ethical religions were national, while Christianity was universal. Buddhism was a doctrine of despair, Christianity of hope. Mahomedanism was defined as an after-birth of effete Judaism, which, however, survived national destruction which Mahomedanism could not do. Christianity was universal and combined the entirety of truth. The central point of Christianity combined the idea of an inner reciprocal relation between God and man. In the incarnation of Christ, God and man were made one. Christ was the heart of a new humanity through which its pulses beat. No higher conception of humanity was possible than the man Christ, and no higher conception of God than the divine part of his nature.

A brief discussion followed, led by PROFESSOR REYNAR, who emphasized the fact that the germs of a higher life existed in every nation, if in no other form than a blind groping after God. This teaching was according to the word of God. A successful mode of introducing the Gospel into Japan, had been for missionaries to admit whatever of truth there was in the native religion—admitting the fact that all truth leads to truth itself. Every truth is God's truth. There had been too much free onslaught against scientific research, which contained undetermined truths, and the great socialistic movements of the present day, contained gems of truth which indicate aspirations after revelations of truth, though undefined and vague, yet leading to a higher life.

REV. J. J. LEACH, in moving a vote of thanks to Rev. Messrs. Wallace and Reynar for their remarks, said that Christianity, while it was superior to other religions, was indebted to them inasmuch as the latter prepared the minds of men for the reception of truth.

REV. PROF. BURWASH, while sympathizing with the expressions of opinion made, did not feel inclined to altogether leave old land marks. He recognized a downward tendency in all religions except Christianity. The question should be discussed with reference to the downward tendency of all other religions and the upward tendency of Christianity, which alone, of all, was able to save from sin. He seconded the motion. The motion was unanimously adopted.

The congregation was dismissed and the business meeting followed.

REV. E. N. BAKER, M.A., was elected representative of the Bay of Quinte Branch to the meeting of the General Union.

A resolution was adopted requesting Rev. Mr. Wallace to supply the Editor of the Canadian Methodist Magazine with a copy of his lecture, with the request of the Union for its publication.

Their Opinion on Temperance.

At the meeting of the Peterborough District of the Methodist church, the following resolution was passed :—

Moved by Rev. J. C. Wilson, and seconded by Thomas Johnston, Esq., and resolved—That we the members of the Annual District Meeting, assembled in Millbrook, desire to express our gratitude for the adoption of the Scott Act in so many counties of the Dominion of Canada, in as much as it is a step in the direction of the total prohibition of the Liquor Traffic. That while the enforcement of the Act is not in all respects satisfactory, yet we believe it to be the best measure yet adopted, and superior to any License Law that could be formulated. That we regret the disposition on the part of many officials to leave the enforcement of said law to private persons, and to make so many second and third violations first offences. We are of the opinion that the law should be enforced by government officials, the same as any other civil law. That we regret the action of some council boards in condemning the Act and asking for its repeal, before it has had sufficient time to become fully effective in its operations, and without giving any evidence to justify them in declaring it a failure. That we are of the opinion that now is the time for united and earnest action on the part of temperance workers, and that our motto as a church shall still be total abstinence for the individual, total prohibition for the country.

Omemee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Magnificent weather after the rains, and the country assumes a beautiful appearance.

Those parties wishing to enjoy a nice drive for a nice distance, and scenery and good roads, should take advantage of such between Peterborough and Omemee.

Quite a number visited our town from Peterborough, on the 24th of May, and went away delighted with the day's proceedings. The absence of drunkness and rowdyism, was one of the special features.

The Rev. J. Ewing and Geo. Morrison leave here next week as delegates to the Presbyterian Assembly to be held in Winnipeg.

Dr. J. McConnell, of Toronto, visited his friends here on the 24th of May, and was very much pleased with our picturesque village.

The probabilites are that the 45th batt. will go to camp on the 21st of June.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

To Avoid Baldness or Grey Hair.

Use Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic. It keeps the scalp clean and free from Dandruff, and promotes the growth of the hair. It prevents premature grayness and stops all falling out of the hair. On bald heads, where the roots have not perished, it will invigorate them and force a new growth of hair. Ask for Hair Magic. It is the only reliable. For sale by J. D. Tully and all druggists.

Try It.

"What shall I do for this distressing Cough?" Try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam; It is soothing and healing to the throat and lungs, and loosens the tough mucous that renders breathing difficult or painful. 2w22d

The Thistle Again Wins.

LONDON, June 1.—The yacht race to-day, over the Royal Thames 50-miles course, was won by the Thistle, which ran the course in 6 hours. The Irex covered the distance in 6 hours 29 minutes and the Genesta in 6 hours 35 minutes. The Thistle achieved a brilliant victory.

A smart easterly wind was blowing at 11.30 a.m., when the yachts started. They got off in the following order: Genesta, Thistle, Irex, Bloothound. The latter was last throughout the race. On the starboard tack and well to windward the Genesta gradually bore away, leaving the Irex and Thistle to battle each other, which they did to such an extent that the Genesta, after going further down into the reach than the other two, came about with a strong lead. The Thistle and the Irex came round to windward and hugged each other for some distance, but on coming about again the Thistle was well away from the Irex and after that had no more trouble with her. The Genesta kept the lead with the Thistle gradually closing the long gap till off Holehaven, when the Thistle went past.

At the Nore the two latter were quarters of a mile ahead, and some distance separated the Genesta and the Irex. At Mucon Lightship the Thistle was eight minutes ahead of the Genesta, which was one and a half minutes ahead of the Irex. Once turned they had a straight run home. They had started with mainsail, topsails, jibs and foresails, and after turning the lightship shifted their topsails for bigger ones and ran up their spinnakers and jib topsails. The Thistle also set her balcon foresails. The bloothound was not timed. This match is considered the first really fair trial of the Thistle.

An Appeal for Funds.

LONDON, June 1.—The President of the Cambridge University Boat Club publishes a letter addressed to the students of the University, in which he says the college clubs seem disinclined to subscribe toward paying the expenses of sending the Cambridge crew to America for the purpose of rowing against the Harvard University crew. He therefore appeals to individual members of the University to assist in raising the necessary amount. He urges the importance of the proposed race, and says, "We ought to initiate such contests with the American college, as they would be sure to draw the two institutions into closer relations. Nothing but good can result from such meetings."

Manchester Whitsuntide Meeting.

LONDON, June 1.—For the second day of the Manchester Whitsuntide meeting the principal event was A Breeders' Foal Stakes, which resulted in a dead heat between the colts Springhaven and Safety. The stakes were divided.

A Breeders' Foal Stakes of 1400 sovs, (1000 sovs. to the owner of the winner, 200 sovs. to the breeder of the winner, and 100 sovs. each to the owner and breeder of the second), for then 2-year-olds, by subscription of 5 gs. each; colts 134 lbs, fillies and geldings 131 lbs; 5 furlongs, 34 subscriptions:

Mr. J. H. Houldsworth's b.c. Springhaven, by Springfield—Sunray.....1
Mr. Manton's ch.c. Safety, by Isonomy—Wifey.....2
Mr. Leopold de Rothschild's b.c. Kor, by Kisber—Isabel, by Plebeian.....3
Four others ran.

Mr. Cassatt Captures the Croton Handicap.

FORDHAM, N. Y., June 1.—Racing was continued at Jerome Park with the Croton Handicap as the principal event of the second day. The track was heavy from last night's rain.

First race, purse $600, 3-4 mile—Pompero, 107, won; Britannic, 107, 2d; Ichi ban, 109, 3d. Time 1.18¼.

Second race, the Croton Handicap, for all ages, 1 mile:

A. J. Cassatt's b.c. Runa, 4 years, by Rolma—Majestic, 106.....1

Lone Star Stables' ch.g. Bonnnyt, 4 years, by Spendthrift—Authoress, 102.....3
Time—1.45.

Third race, purse $300, 1¼ miles—Hyperion, 1, won; Pomona, 2d, 3d; Lottery, 0, 4th. Time, 2.10¼.

Fourth race, free handicap steeplechase, 1 mile and 3-16—Phil Lee, 167, won; Enigma, 153, 2d. Time, 2.39½.

Fifth race, selling purse, 7 furlongs—Petticoat, 98, won; Neptemus, 80, 2d; Young Duke, 110, 3d. Time, 1.34.

Sixth race, handicap hurdle race, 1 mile and 3 furs., over 6 hurdles—Will David, 158, won; Goldfellow, 140, 2d; Brunova, 147, 3d. Time, 3.43.

The Wheelman's Right of Way.

NEW YORK, June 1.—As an outcome of the great convention of the League of American Wheelmen at St. Louis, the Chief Consuls of the several states are now arranging for a conference of representative wheelmen from all parts of the country, to be held in this city as an early date. The purpose of this conference will be to map out the political action of the league, with special reference to securing the recognition of wheelmen's equal rights upon the highways and parkways of several states in which these rights are denied. The officers of the league insist that these rights are constitutional.

Capt. Hammer, while at exercise at Brighton Beach on Monday, fell and broke his leg. Up to yesterday, however, he had not been put out of misery.

The races at Belleville were postponed yesterday on account of rain.

The Governor of Illinois has signed the bill to prevent bookmaking and pool selling, except within the enclosure of fair or race track associations incorporated under the laws of that State.

Poison's Nerviline.

Hundreds who have experienced the wonderful power of NERVILINE in subduing pain have testified that it is the most potent remedy in existance. Nerviline is equally efficacious as an internal remedy. Poison's Nerviline cures flatulency, chills, spasms, cholera, cramps, headache, pen sickness, summer complaints, &c., &c. Nerviline is sold by all druggists and country dealers. Only 25c. a bottle. Try it. 6w22

A Valuable Discovery.

F. P. Tanner, of Nesbitt, Ont., says he has not only found B. B. B. a sure cure for dyspepsia, but he also found it to be the best medicine for regulating and invigorating the system that he has ever taken. B. B. B. is the great system regulator. 2w22d

B. B. B. Stood the Test.

"I tried every known remedy I could think of for rheumatism, without giving me any relief, until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, which remedy I can highly recommend to all afflicted as I was." Henry Smith, Milverton, Ont. 2w22d

Domestic Economy.

As a matter of economy it will pay every household to keep a bottle of Yellow Oil for accidents and emergencies, in case of pain as a handy relief, and for wounds, burns, bruises and injuries. Rheumatism, neuralgia, quinsy, and many painful diseases treated internally and externally by it often save large medical bills. 2w22d

Or Pork.

Somebody has discovered that 10,000 Indians in this country are suffering from consumption. What of—whiskey?

Worth Remembering.

Mrs. T. Doan, of Harrietsville, Ont., was for a long time troubled with neuralgia of stomach. Failing to find benefit from her physicians, she tried Burdock Blood Bitters from which she found speedy relief, to which she testifies, hoping it may prove beneficial to others. Many physicians recommend B. B. B. 2w22d

An Old Custom.

Some old dinner customs still prevail. The Romans used to recline at their banquets and the habit of lying at public dinners still prevails.

Weather Probabilities.

It is probable that in the breaking up of winter we shall have much damp sloppy weather, when rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, and other painful complaints will prevail. Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the popular household remedy for external and internal use. Its curative power is truly wonderful. 2w22d

A Valuable Team.

Capt. C. Wallis, of Peterborough, says the Star, sold his pair of five-year-old carriage horses in Toronto for the sum of $500. They were sired by Lapidist Chief, owned by Mr. J. Simpson, of Hastings. It is quite a nice sum to receive, and shows the value to horse-owners of breeding from good stock.

Worth Getting.

The Jubilee issue of Grip's Own Library will be out next week. It will be a book of 32 pages, with pictures on nearly every page. Every picture to appear is either original or is being specially re-produced for this issue, and there will be a great demand for it. It will be for sale at all bookstores, or can be had by sending 10 cents direct to Grip Office, Toronto.

Annuity for Mrs. Dr. Tassie.

The Guelph Mercury of June 1st says:—"A very handsome sum has been subscribed by former pupils of the late Dr. Tassie throughout Canada and the United States, to procure an annuity for Mrs. Tassie. At a meeting in Toronto on Monday a committee was appointed to co-operate with the Hamilton committee in making arrangements for the presentation."

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in those lines from Odlum Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Shoe-dressing.

The celebrated Oil Dressing for boots and shoes is now for sale at Foot & McWhinnie's, sole dealers for Peterborough.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

The Late Mrs. Courtice.

The body of the late Mrs. Courtice, of Toronto, was brought to town on the 11:20 G. P. R. train, to-day. The funeral took place from her mother's residence, Murray street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and was largely attended.

Pique Lawns and All-over Laces for Summer Dresses, at Turnbull's.

The Queen's Jubilee.

Port Hope is making arrangements to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee on Dominion Day on a grand scale. The general committee having the matter in hand numbers about thirty-five of the most influential citizens. Peterborough's celebration committee, though not so large, is yet perhaps for that reason more able to do solid work; and their enthusiasm and patriotism cannot be outweighed by any committee five times its size. Let there be a general rally of the committee in the firemen's hall on Friday evening.

Late in the season manufacturers are glad to clear ends of stock at Tremendous Reductions. See the Seamless Hosiery Turnbull is selling 3 pair for 25c. Bought right.

Lost His Fingers.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. Richard O'Brien, employed in the Lindsay-Seldon furniture factory, while running a rosette-cutter, by some means caught his left hand in the teeth. The second finger was cut completely off, the third one so badly lacerated that it cannot be saved, while the flesh was torn from the back of the hand. His other fingers, too, were severely cut, but will not have to be amputated. It was an ugly accident, that will necessitate Richard's retirement for a couple of weeks.

A Resolution of Thanks.

Messrs. Porter Bros. have received a letter from their agent at Ottawa, J. B. Abbott, Esq., informing them that at the last meeting of the Ottawa Driving Club, held May 18th, the following resolution was passed:

"That a vote of thanks is due from this club, and is hereby presented, to Messrs. Porter Bros., of Peterborough, Ont., through their Ottawa agent, Mr. J. B. Abbott, for their valuable donation of one of their famed road carts, which is set down on the programme for the colt stakes on August 10th, 1887."

How the Discussion Ended.

A number of men were standing in front of M. Sullivan's dry goods store (No. 3) yesterday, discussing the cause of the breakage of both the large plate glass windows on Sunday. Various theories were advanced, one being that is was owing to the settling of the building, while another startled the little group by suggesting that the fracture had been caused by the astonishingly low prices of the goods piled up behind and on the counters, and his opinion was accepted as the correct one. Mr. Sullivan himself though is inclined to ascribe the accident to the fact that he sells beautiful Satin Merveilleux, worth 90c. a yard, for 69c., and other goods in proportion. This is a matter which will bear investigation, and all our citizens are invited to call and inspect for themselves.

Our Ministerial Guests.

The presence of over a hundred Methodist ministers in Peterborough is an important event, not only in a moral sense but in a commercial sense as well. While the ministers are heralds of a free gospel, one man in town is closely allied to these terms in his business capacity. gough, the wonderful cheap man, offers his magnificent stock of ready made clothing at such nominal and ridiculously low prices, that it is equivalent to almost giving the goods away—that is, free clothing. Ministers who desire to replenish their wardrobes, can do so at bottom rates by calling at the sign of the Quadruple Dudes George street—gough's headquarters for the midland district.

Jubilee Poetry.

The issue of Jubilee brands of hair-pins, Jubilee clothes-pins, Jubilee soap, and Jubilee electors, to the end of the chapter, the EXAMINER, not having jurisdiction in commercial matters, cannot control, but it can control the issue of the Jubilee poetry received so far, and it intends to control it unless the standard of sentiment and versification is far above any that we have yet regretfully but firmly consigned to the scrappy chaos of the waste paper basket. Lord Tennyson has'nt yet sent his contribution, but some has been received that is almost as bad as the laureate's last effort.

Masonic Excursion.

Attention is called again to the Masonic Excursion to be run to Toronto by Midland Division of the G. T. R., under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of Peterborough, on Thursday, June 9th. The railway arrangements admit of the public on the Midland division from Campbellford to Uxbridge joining the excursion. The price is low, return tickets being less than half the regular rates. The auspices under which the excursion is to be run, guarantee its respectability, the time admits of spending eight hours in Toronto on the day of the excursion, and gives option to return either by way of Port Hope or Lindsay. Children over 5 and under 12 years at half price. A strong and experienced committee of management will be on board and attend in every possible way to the wants and comfort of the excursionists.

A Hint to the Girls.

"Oh, do Charley," she said, "I want so to go," and Charley, who was struck bad on the fair young creature who addressed him and shook her golden bangs right under his nose, felt a cold sweat on his manly brow as he felt in his pockets and found that he had left his wallet at home, for he was sure ice cream and fixings was in the air. Charley, you see, was a clerk in a dry-goods store at a good salary. "Oh yes," she continued, nestling closer to him, "the great furniture king, D. Belleghem, Peterborough, is making such beautiful furniture, selling so cheap, and guarantees to deliver it in good order within 100 miles, that I want you to take me there, so that we can select together all we shall want." A mountain was lifted from Charley's mind, he gladly promised to comply, and they went home to her father's brown-stone front. Watch the papers next week and you will read of their marriage and how Charley is now to be a partner of his father-in-law and much more besides, and Belleghem's furniture did the job. All the girls say it is elegant. Try Belleghem, with female accompaniment, young man.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Annual Meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference.

THURSDAY, June 2nd.

The first sitting of the fourth annual session of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Canada Methodist Church took place at the George Street Methodist Church, beginning at 9 a. m.

The actual business was prefaced with devotional exercises, conducted by the President, Rev. J. S. Clarke. The services began with a prayer meeting. Hymns numbered 108, 559, 418, 429 and 561 were sung in the intervals of prayers offered by Revs. Messrs. E. Cragg, W. Limbert, —. Wilson, A. E. Campbell, E. N. Baker, J. Greener, T. W. Pickett and M. L. Pearson. The President closed the prayer meeting with the benedictions, and Rev. Dr. Carman, senior general superintendent, took charge of the further devotional exercises, which consisted of Scripture readings by Rev. Jos. Young, secretary—a Psalm and a chapter of 1st epistle to the Corinthians,—followed by the singing of hymn 661, after which the president led the Conference in prayer. The devotions concluded by the repetition of the Lord's Prayer in unison, led by the superintendent.

REV. DR. CARMAN addressed the Conference; said he came to the Conference more in the individuality of love and reason, and called attention to the legislation of the General Conference relating to annual conferences. The tendency of this legislation was to give enlarged power to the annual conferences, to beget confidences between the component elements of the church, and enlarge the sphere of Sunday School work. The speaker referred particularly to the augmentation of the funds of the General Conference, the mode of recording vital proceedings of conferences, Superannuation Fund, a proposed sustentation fund, the Church Relief Fund and power of transfer. The General Conference had made practical arrangements for promoting the interests of Sunday school work. Rev. Dr. CARMAN expressed his gratitude that there was hope that all reports would indicate success. Among those was a report from the Book Room which showed a total of $20,000, of which $6,000 had been transferred to the superannuation fund (hear hear). The colleges all were flourishing. Referring to College Federation, he stated that the General Conference had settled the question of educational policy, and it was the duty of Annual Conferences to assist in carrying it out. It was the policy of the church, and it was the duty of every loyal Methodist to help carry it out. With regard to the statement that $450,000 was required as a proper financial basis, the truest friend of education was he who insisted on putting the college on a sound financial basis (hear hear). But the men who shout "cash basis" should put their names down for the cash (laughter). The speaker confidently predicted that the united spirit of Methodism would bring order out of the chaos. Referring to the attitude of the church on the temperance question he believed the church was in earnest irrespective of politics. He claimed the right of the church to take part in political matters which directly affected the morality of the nation, and he hoped never to see the divided position taken at the last election. (Cheers.) The conclusion of his practical and eloquent address was greeted with loud applause.

DR. CARMAN assumed the chair and the calling of the roll of ministers and lay delegates was proceeded with, the bar of the conference defined and the report of the transfer committee read.

The balloting for president of the conference then took place, the first ballot resulting as follows, out of 180 ballots there were secured:—

Rev. M. L. Pearson	76
Rev. John Learoyd	82
Rev. W. Williams	15
Rev. I. Tovell	4
Rev. W. Joliffe	2
Rev. F. B. Stratton	1
Dr. Burwash	1

The result of the second ballot was as below and decisive:—

Learoyd	94
Pearson	85
Dr. Williams	1
Dr. Burwash	1

The announcement of the election of Dr. Learoyd, was received with applause. After being introduced by the Superintendent, President Learoyd acknowledged the honor of his selection, and promised faithful discharge of his duties. The morning session closed with the singing of the Doxology, and the benediction by the president.

The New President.

A Brief Autobiography of Rev. John Learoyd.

At this forenoon's session of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Methodist Church, Rev. John Learoyd, of Belleville, was chosen President.

JOHN LEAROYD was born in Yorkshire, England, in the year 1830, and is, therefore, now in his 57th year. His father, Rev. Amos Learoyd, was a prominent minister in the Wesleyan Methodist Church in England. He received his education at Woodhouse Grove College, one of the institutions for the training of Methodist preachers' sons. Mr. Learoyd came to this country to enter the Canadian ministry in the year 1856, and has been stationed during the past thirty years on some of the best circuits in the gift of the Conference. During the past year he has had the pastorate of the Bridge Street Church, and is chairman of the Belleville District. He went to Belleville from Port Hope, where for a number of years he was chairman of the Cobourg District. He has two sons in the ministry—one in the Bay of Quinte Conference and the other of the Montreal Conference.

The new president is a gentleman of great popularity among his ministerial brethren. He is an excellent preacher, has splendid administrative abilities, and will make a capital presiding officer. The choice made by the conference this morning is one which none have the least reason to regret, and not only that, it is one which no doubt will secure the performance of the functions of the important office of president with credit to the incumbent and the conference, and to the interests of the church at large. We offer the new president our most cordial congratulations, and trust that such a recognition of his past services and his abilities is only an earnest of future preferment in the church in which he is not the least eminent minister.

A Destructive Fire.

Tuesday morning about two o'clock a fire in Orono destroyed a row of wooden buildings and a fine brick block across the street; loss about $15,000, total insurance $7,000. The principal losers were Dr. Rutherford and Mr. Henry, who kept a general store. Messrs. Robert Moss, dealer in agricultural implements; D. E. McCullough, boots and shoes; J. E. Chester, grocer; Lewis Tourjee, stoves and tinware; Mrs. Vincent, millinery and fancy store, also lost considerably.

Personal.

Messrs. H. LeBrun, E. Brown and R. J. McKee are in Belleville attending the races.

Mr. T. Dunn, Miss Dunn and Mr. H. Tierney sang at a concert in Port Hope Wednesday night.

Dr. Bell left this morning for Carleton Place to attend the funeral of his wife's mother. He will be absent a day or two.

Mr. Geo. W. Wyatt, of Oshawa, is in town to-day, attending the funeral of his cousin, the late Mrs. A. C. Courtice.

Mr. C. H. Starr has returned to town from Brantford, for a few days. He thinks Brantford is a nice city to live in, and reports his business as exceeding his expectations when he first visited Brantford last winter.

The many friends of Mr. Thomas Blezard, M.P.P. for East Peterborough, were pleased to see him sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to be in town to-day. Mr. Blezard has been confined to the house for over five weeks, and his appearance indicates that his illness has been a severe one. The people of East Peterborough and his many friends throughout the whole county regret very much that the sight of one of his eyes has been lost forever, and hope he will exercise great care in guarding against a relapse, as they cannot well spare him from the active part he always takes in public matters affecting the welfare of his constituency. It is a matter of regret, however, that Mrs. Blezard's health is not improving as rapidly as her friends desire.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, June 2nd.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. A. M. Price called at Jas Lefort's, blacksmith, to get some nails which he had ordered to be made. Not being satisfied with the workmanship, though, Price declined to take them, but upon the remonstrances and threats of Lefort, who was pretty drunk, rather than create trouble, paid over the money therefor. No sooner had the amount changed hands than Lefort struck Price a vicious blow in the eye, blacking it and making a severe contusion. The latter charged Lefort, at the police court this morning with assault. Lefort admitted the offence, and paid $5 and cost fine.

The Oddfellows' Demonstration.

A meeting of the Oddfellows' Demonstration Committee was held last evening. Committees reported favorable progress, and preparations were furthered for the August celebration. Invitations have been sent to the various Cantons Militant in the Dominion, and special invitations will at once be forwarded to Lieutenant-General Underwood, of Collington, Ky.; and to Major Eddy and staff, of Rochester. Arrangements have been made for two excursions on August 11th (the day following the grand demonstration)—one to Stoney Lake, 90c. for return tickets; the other to Idyl Wyle, 60c. for return tickets.

The Ticket of Leave Man.

The Wilson Day Dramatic Company presented the above play at the Opera House last night, in good style, and that their efforts were appreciated was attested by the frequent outbursts of applause. Mr. Day as "Bob Brierly," the unfortunate Lancashire lad, played the role in his usual perfect style. Mr. Wm. Henderson as "Melter Moss," the accomplished old villian, and Mr. Carr as "Jem Dalton," his younger and if possible more profligate protege, were good, while Mr. Ed. Summers represented "Hawkshaw," the eagle-eyed detective and implacable foe to Dalton, with a great deal of life and naturness. Little Annie Bird as "Sam Willoughby," the precocious and wayward youngster who was the cause of endless anxiety to his grandmother, (well taken by Mrs. Henderson) brought down the house. The part of May Edwards, the heroine, was very well taken indeed by Miss Willis. The characters were all faithfully represented, and the play ran along smoothly and without interruption except for the frequent vociferous applause. Annie Bird's singing was much admired also. To-night a play called "The King's Rival," written by Victor Hugo, will be put on the boards. It has literary merit of the highest order, and is dressed magnificently, and although intensely interesting has none of the clap-trap element so often resorted to by dramatists of our time. A duel with swords in the last act is one of the most interesting features of the play. Little Annie Bird will benefit to-morrow night, in "Fanchon, the Cricket." No one should miss seeing this performance. She is the youngest person who ever attempted the performance of the part of Fanchon, and those present will see a wonderful performance by a wonderful child. Tickets for Annie's Benefit are now on sale at Hartley's Music Store.

THE ART OF DRESSING NEATLY.

It is customary for the Male Sex to make merry over the fact that a woman wears a great amount of unnecessary fixings.

With equal justice the Fair Sex can retort that men are not by any means exempt from unnecessary dress.

Ask a tailor the use of buttons on the back of a mans coat, and he wont be able to tell you. He'll tell you that they are placed there because they are fashionable.

It is the aim of "The Peoples Cash Store" to always keep up with the fashions, but we prefer the Neat Sensible Styles. Our Fashion Plate is the human body, and we make our Clothing to Fit Neatly and Hang Gracefully.

Experience has taught us what materials are the most serviceable. We import only such Cloth as we know will give satisfactory work.

We aim to dress a man neat, and to dress him well, at a small expense.

Economy in manufacturing, in importing and in conducting our store enables us to offer such Great Bargains, as our Ten Dollar English Tennis Suit, our Eight Dollar Halifax Tweed Suit and our Seventeen Dollar Scotch Tweed Suit.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1887.

A TURBULENT TIME.

QUITE A SCENE OVER THE QUEEN'S COUNTY CASE.

OTTAWA, June 2.—Since the last night of the session of 1878, when the parties in the House almost came to blows, there has been no such row as characterized the last hour of the session this morning when the vote was taken on the Queen's County case. The division on Mr. Davies' amendment to the amendment was reached at 1.30 and the result was vexing to both sides. To the Opposition, because they really expected to carry their point; to the Ministerialists, because of the absence of a dozen of their friends and the smallness of the majority. When, therefore, Hon. Peter Mitchell rose to speak it only wanted a touch to strike fire, and the fire came.

The member for Northumberland made a fierce attack upon the Premier, inflamed with passion, red with choler, shaking his fist across the floor of the House, in stentorian tones he protested that Parliament had been humiliated, that Sir John dictated to his followers the way they should vote and that in the whole course of his life he had not seen anything so degrading, so humiliating, as the vote just given. Amid shouts and cries of "Order" the hon. gentleman concluded with, "Sir, when the history of this country is written, the right hon. gentleman's name will be associated with this vote as an act—I will not designate it, because parliamentary rules prevent me from designating it by the name to which I think it is entitled; but were I outside this House and speaking of it to anybody, I would say that act, which induced this House to pronounce as it has pronounced to-night, is an act of infamy."

Instantly a terrible uproar ensued. The Opposition cheered for all they were worth, but their cheers were drowned in the angry roar of protest that came from the Government side. Amid it all the Old Chieftain sat and smiled sardonically in the face of his enemy, whose fist continued to shake, but whose further words could not be heard.

Mr. Desjardins sprang to his feet and his swarthy face was pale with rage as he resented the insult that he said had been cast upon them by Mr. Mitchell. If they had voted as they had done that day it was in obedience to a law passed by the Reform Government, and he, for one, did not propose to create a precedent for the member for Northumberland or anybody else.

All this time there was a great deal of noise and confusion, which reached its height when the following exhibition of the amenities of Parliamentary procedure was wedged into Mr. Desjardins' speech:

Fiset: Il s'est vendu. (He has been sold.)

Guilbault: Ce n'est pas vrai; c'est pollisson ca. (That is not true; that is a blackguard there.)

Desjardins: Que'st ce que vous dites la? (What is it you say there?)

Guilbault: Ce n'est pas vrai; il a menti. (It is not true; he has lied.)

Mr. Desjardins dared Mr. Fiset to repeat his words, which the latter refusing to do, the member for Hochelaga said he would know how to fittingly characterise them outside of the House.

Here followed an uproar that lasted several minutes, in which nobody could be heard but in which Mr. Mitchell, the Speaker, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Desjardines and some dozen others wrestled for precedence.

When reason once more asserted its sway Sir Richard Cartwright had the floor. He said no more indecent act had ever been committed. The cries of "Order" almost cracked the roof, for Sir Richard had used the very word for which Sir John had been called to order the day before.

The Speaker ruled that the word must be withdrawn, but Sir Richard Cartwright was mad all through. He straightened back in his chair, shut his teeth and refused to withdraw. For fifteen minutes pandemonium reigned.

The Opposition sustained Sir Richard in his defiance of the chair, while the Government supporters insisted that the authority of the presiding officer must be respected. Shouts, yells, slamming of desks, roars of defiance, drowned all possibility of any speaker being heard. Three or four members were on their feet at the same time, while the chair was for the time helpless in the mad swirl of passion that surged through the House.

Mr. Charlton tried to move an appeal from the Speaker's ruling but was howled down.

Mr. Mills ran round and expostulated with Sir Richard, others clustered about them, and when Mr. Laurier upraised his tall form the noise ceased, to hear what he had to say. He advised Cartwright to withdraw, which Sir Richard did. But the tumult broke out again when Charles Langelier raged off into the Riel question. Once more everything was drowned in the tumult. Fiset essayed to rise, but Geoffrion pulled him down by the coat tails. Lanaerkin yelled to Geoffrion to leave Fiset alone and Geoffrion yelled "sacre" back at Landerkin. Once more the tumult swept away all pretence of order and dignity, during which two or three speakers went through the motions of addressing the House.

Finally Sir Donald Smith got a chance to be heard and said that if anything was needed to justify the vote just given it was the exhibition of unseemly passion that they had just seen displayed. This started it off again and once more Mr. Mitchell kept the floor for several minutes, while, amid interruption, he thundered out denunciations under the pretence of explaining his position.

Mr. Lister, too, added fuel to the flames by saying that Sir Donald Smith was the last man who should defend the Premier.

Killed At Copetown.

HAMILTON, June 2.—A young Copetown man named William Trice was killed on the Grand Trunk Railway track yesterday near that village. He was returning from Orkney and was under the influence of liquor. The station master at Copetown says that when last seen alive he was crawling on the track on his hands and knees, and did not appear to be asleep, for he was moving. While in this position he was struck by an express train and instantly killed.

The Association Regatta.

OTTAWA, June 2.—The date of the annual regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which is to be held in this city under the auspices of the Ottawa Rowing Club, has been definitely fixed for Saturday, August 6, and the committee is now at work arranging the details, full information regarding which will be shortly published.

O'BRIEN IN NEW YORK.

A SPEEDY RECOVERY FROM HIS ALLEGED INJURIES.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Wm. O'Brien's reception at the Academy of Music, in this city to-night, was not an immense character. Rarely has the Academy been so packed as on this evening. The cheering fairly shook the building. The Academy was elaborately decorated. Among those seated in the boxes were Mayor Hewitt and Bishop O'Farrell of Trenton, while seated on the stage were Rev. P. F. Dealy, President of St. John's College, Fordham, and a dozen other distinguished clergymen; Hon. W. E. Robinson, Ex-Mayor Wm. R. Grace, Edward S. Levin, Mr. Parnell Steward, a fellow prisoner of O'Brien in Kilmainham Jail, and many others.

Mr. O'Brien said he had entirely recovered from the rough handling he had received during his Canadian tour and spoke cheerily of the effect of his trip over the border. When he made his appearance on the stage the applause which greeted him was almost deafening. He repeatedly bowed his acknowledgements and when order had been restored Judge Brown was nominated as chairman of the meeting.

Judge Brown, on taking the chair, delivered a brief address extending to Mr. O'Brien and his compatriot, Mr. Kilbride, a welcome from the big heart of the great City of New York, every reference to the gifted Irishman bringing forth tumults of applause, while every mention of Lord Lansdowne's name was received with hisses and groans.

Mr. O'Brien was most enthusiastically received, the audience standing and cheering again and again. He said he was convinced that American sympathy had been stirred to its depths by what had happened in the last few weeks in Canada. Lord Lansdowne's friends in Toronto and Kingston had been more successful in the Irish cause than they, with all their speeches, could ever hope to be. Their feeble voices could only tell the tale of Lansdowne's deeds in Ireland to a comparatively limited circle, but the Lansdowne mobs had told the tale the world over. [Cheers] They had had some horrible moments in Canada, but it was an illustration to the whole civilized world of the true character of landlordism in Ireland. Lord Lansdowne had said everything for himself that he could say in public speeches and through interviews in the newspapers, and he (O'Brien) believed his best and truest partisans could not stand up and say that all they had said of Lord Lansdowne was untrue.

Pausing to speak of John Bright, Mr. O'Brien said he spoke of him more in sorrow than in anger. He was grieved that his life was closing in winter instead of the glorious sunshine in which Mr. Gladstone was ending his.

He held that the fruit of Lansdowne was sufficient to justify them in coming over and proclaiming it in the midst of his camp and at his palace gates and ask the people to hurl him from the free soil of America.

Denis Kilbride then addressed the meeting and gave an idea of the plan of campaign. The meeting was closed at 11.

Letters of regret were read from ex-Senator Roscoe Conkling, ex-Governor Gen. Hoadly, Governor Hill, Archbishop Corrigan, Eugene Kelly and others.

Lengthy resolutions were carried amid great enthusiasm. They denounced Lord Lansdowne in forcible terms and also denounced the outrages upon Mr. O'Brien while he was in Canada.

They further declared that the mission of Mr. O'Brien in Canada was a strictly legitimate one and offered to him the sympathy of all liberty-loving people.

OUR WEALTH IN FISHERIES.

The Annual Report on the Subject—The Leadership of the Opposition.

OTTAWA, June 2.—The annual report on the fisheries presented this afternoon says it is a matter of congratulation that the Canadian fisheries, as a whole, are steadily improving in yield and value. Compared with last year the figures show an increase of $656,815 in the value of the catch, the total being $13,679,228. The fisheries of Nova Scotia yielded $6,414,281 of this amount; New Brunswick, $4,180,227; Quebec, $1,741,382; Prince Edward Island, $1,141,991; British Columbia, $1,577,349; Ontario, $1,436,986; and Manitoba, $186,979. This is exclusive of the consumption by the Indian population at British Columbia, estimated at 25,000,000 pounds. The largest catch was of cod, $4,553,079; then lobster, $2,635,394; herrings, $2,211,498; mackerel, $1,558,424; salmon, $1,370,886. Of the season in Nova Scotia the report says the yield in the fisheries of the province shows an increased value of $131,432. Although a slight falling off occurred in salmon fishing, this industry is in a healthy condition and gives promise of better results next year. Mackerel fishing was very fair and prices ruled unusually high during the latter part of the season. Herrings were scarce.

Although the statistics indicate a falling off in the number of vessels engaged in deep sea fishing, the total yield of cod, haddock, pollock, and hake shows an increase in value over last year of nearly $270,000. Smelt fishing is yet in its infancy, but promises to assume important proportions before long. Lobsters, although still abundant, show signs of being over-fished in some localities and it will soon become necessary to adopt more stringent measures in order to prevent the fishing being further injured. Seal fishing in the Province of Quebec improved considerably, last year's number of skins being 28,236, against 9135 in the preceding year.

The amount of capital invested in the salmon fishing of British Columbia is $572,445 and the numer of men employed 6811. There were twenty vessels and 449 men engaged in the far seal fishery of the province and 28,907 seal skinned. White fish and speckled trout abound in the Inland waters of British Columbia.

The general condition and increasing productiveness of the fisheries of Ontario are referred to as most satisfactory. The number of fisherman in Canada last year was 55,731; of vessels, 1113; value, $1,282,411; total value boats and appliances, $2,514,000; total amount of money distributed as fishing bounties, $161,597, amongst 26,741 fishermen.

The representatives of the Universal Knitting Company of Toronto was introduced to Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. McKenzie Bowell by the member for Centre Toronto to-day, and they asked that the duty be increased on the more costly classes of hose.

Editor Stillwell of the Glengarrian has entered an action for $10,000 damages for malicious prosecution and false imprisonment against Patrick Purcell, M.P. for Glengarry. Purcell had Stillwell arrested for libel after the late elections. The defendant produced witnesses to support his charges, when his accuser dropped the case. Hence his present action.

Mr. Cockburn to-day received and forwarded to the Finance Minister a petition from the shoe manufacturers regarding the duty on shoe buttons, which they claim is excessively high.

The Railway Committee this morning threw out the Emerson Railway; Brandon, Souris and Rock Lake Railway, the Regina and Wood Mountain Railway and the Alberta Railway bills, because they run in a south-easterly direction and conflicted with the C.P.R. charter.

The Department of Militia have received the cheque for the medals of volunteers who were under fire in the Northwest and will distribute them shortly.

Major Boulton of Portage la Prairie is in the city. He has submitted a colonization scheme to the Government, his object being to promote the emigration of desirable young men from Great Britain.

The Colonization Committee met this morning. Prof. Saunders was examined at considerable length in regard to the testing of seeds at the Experimental Farm. He said that the results achieved with Russian wheat in Manitoba and the Northwest this season were of a very satisfactory nature. He also explained that six hundred varieties of fruit trees were now being tested.

The address of the members of the civil service of the Dominion of Canada to Her Majesty has been completed, and is being signed to-day by the deputy heads of the various departments.

The Reformed Episcopal Synod.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—The Committee on Doctrine and Worship at the General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church recommended that the Synod of Canada be permitted to formulate such version of the "Book of Common Prayer" of the Church of England as it may deem fitting, and submit such plan of revision to the Committee on Doctrine and Worship, the committee to report to the next General Council. This was agreed to.

ENGLISH AFFAIRS.

A TIRELESS DENOUNCER OF GLADSTONE AND HOME RULE.

LONDON, June 2.—Mr. Chamberlain, responding to an address presented to him by the Liberal-Unionists of Manchester to-day, warned the working classes against the falsenesss of Mr. Gladstone's statement that Home Rule was an issue between the classes and the masses. It was not the classes that would suffer the most by the success of Gladstone's policy. Such success would destroy the country and ruin the working classes. He believed a majority of the people were now so well aware of the dangers menacing them that the next general election would result in an overwhelming disaster to the Gladstonian partisans.

Gladstone Starts for Wales.

LONDON, June 2.—Gladstone has started for Wales, where he will deliver a series of addresses in favor of Home Rule for Ireland.

Mr. Gladstone arrived at Swansea this evening. He was enthusiastically welcomed at all places where the train stopped en route. Mr. Gladstone made six short speeches in reply to addresses, after which he excused himself, as his voice was fatigued. Numerous presents and bouquets were given to Mrs. Gladstone. At a few places there was slight hissing when the train stopped. Mr. Gladstone arrived at Swansea in good health.

Parnell Improved in Health.

LONDON, June 2.—Mr. Parnell has returned to London much improved by his short sojourn at the sea side. He has summoned a meeting of his party for Monday to discuss further amendments to the Coercion Bill.

AFFAIRS IN FRANCE.

The New Ministry Will Further the Army Bill.

PARIS, June 2.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day Bishop Freppel moved that the debate on the Army Bill be postponed until next session. The question was a dangerous one, he said, from a foreign point of view, and France should not exhibit the weakness of the army now under full work of reorganization.

Premier Rouvier declined to allow the postponement of the debate. He said the Government intended to maintain the measure as a necessity in the interest and for the honor of the country. [Applause from the Left and Centre.] The motion was rejected by a vote of 468 to 69.

FROM AN AMERICAN SOURCE.

Gabriel Dumont Said to be Inciting Indians to Rebellion.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 2.—Gabriel Dumont, Riel's lieutenant, is on the boundary line inciting the half-breeds and Indians to another rebellion. In an attempt to capture two of Dumont's couriers Tuesday, two mounted police were killed. The American Government will probably be asked to keep Dumont in check. It is understood that the rebel chief has promised the half-breeds the assistance of the American Gros Ventres in contemplating an uprising. The half-breeds have refused to accept grain seeds from the Canadian Government. Serious trouble is certainly brewing.

HER DUSKY MAJESTY.

Queen Kapiolani has a Royal Reception at Liverpool.

LONDON, June 2.—Queen Kapiolani and suite arrived at Liverpool to-day. A royal salute was fired in honor of Her Majesty. The mayor and a guard of honor, composed of police and soldiers, met the royal party at the wharf and escorted them to the Northwestern Hotel in a state procession. Queen Kapiolani will proceed to London on Monday.

An Explosion of Dualine.

OTTAWA, June 2.—A terrible explosion of dualine took place in New Edinburgh Ward just before noon. A laborer employed by Contractor Burns on the water-works extension was carrying a box containing twenty-five dualine cartridges when some one called his attention to the fact that there was fire in the box. He hastily emptied the cartridges upon the sidewalk and ran off. The report was heard all over the city. All the windows from a block about were shattered, in many instances the sashes as well as the glass being broken and furniture in adjacent houses overturned. No person was hurt, though several had very narrow escapes.

IMPORTUNITY VERSUS ITINERANCY.

It has become an almost custom in the the Methodist church for quarterly boards to demand the retention of, or to virtually "call" a certain minister, a practice which is in direct contravention to the one great characteristic feature of Methodism, if not the foundation of its marvellous success—the itinerant system. Especially while the itinerancy is an integral part of the constitution of the church, is the growing practice referred to in danger of working harm. Apart from the demoralising tendency of practically making the exception of more effect than the rule, there is great room for the exercise of partiality, and a danger that real merit does not meet the preferment secured by persistency and, (to use a worldly but expressive word) "cheek." A pastor who feels induced to use his three years term to gain popularity enough to induce a quarterly board to petition for his retention a second term, can easily accomplish his aim, and there he is, kept in a pleasant pastorate with good pay and not much hard work, while a hard-working, much-enduring occupant of one of the hard stations is kept out of his chance of preferment and kept "with his nose to the grindstone". The encouragement of the breach of the itinerant system tends to introduce, among ministers, the worldly practice of wire-pulling and other evil features of the diplomacy of party politics. The wisdom or unwisdom of the itinerant system is not here under consideration. The Methodist Church does not stickle for "apostolic succession," yet it is plain enough that the itinerant system is a practical application of apostolic practice. There does not seem to be a case on record in which St. Paul and St. Peter in response to the demand of a quarterly board were retained in a pleasant place; they "went where they were sent", uncomplainingly. There is no merit with God in sacrificing oneself in the cause, but there is infinite importance to be attached to the possession of a spirit of self sacrifice. In Thursday afternoon's session of the conference much importance was attached to the need of securing ministers "who would go where they were sent." In the early days of Canadian Methodism the conference was composed of no other kind of ministers than those who would "go where they were sent." Now the danger is that the rule of the early days of the church may become the exception. The indications seem to be that while the principle of the itinerancy is retained it should be followed out. If the principle of "calling" ministers is admitted, it should become constitutional and not remain a breach of the constitution of the church. It is held that the itinerant system should either be followed out in the church or rooted out of the church.

Removed to Toronto.

Owing to the amalgamation of the Eastern Ontario and Toronto branches of the Canada Life Assurance Company the head office of the Eastern Ontario branch conducted by Mr. Geo. A. and Mr. E. W. Cox, has been removed from Peterborough to Toronto, and Mr. E. W. Cox has removed to Toronto to take chhrge of the consolidated business as above mentioned. The importance of this change may be seen from the fact that the premium income from this amalgamated agency of the Canada Life Assurance Company is in excess of the total premium receipts for the whole Dominion of any other company doing business in Canada. While the town regrets the removal of the head office, the numerous friends of Mr. E. W. Cox regret his removal from town, as well as the removal of Mr. J. C. T. Lacey and others connected with the staff here. The facts above recited have doubtless given origin and color to the rumor that Mr. Geo. A. Cox was about to remove from the town, but we are glad to be able to state that no such action has as yet been decided upon.

SPOTS OF SPORT.

The Omemee cricket club being unable to get a team together has notified the Peterborough club, with which they were to play an Association game to-morrow, that they cannot come and will allow the game to go to their opponents by default.

The Orillia "Imperials" have declared off the lacrosse match appointed for next Monday on the Riverside Park with the young "Ettas" of Peterborough.

The regular weekly meet of the Gun Club will be held on the Riverside Park this evening at 6.30.

The Belleville races were, on account of the rain on Thursday, postponed till Monday next.

The Bankers and Lawyers play an eleven chosen from the rest of the Association at cricket, on the P. A. A. A. grounds this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Personal.

Attending physician for May, Dr. Boucher.

The Lady Superintendent thankfully acknowledges the following donations to the Hospital in May:—Mrs. A. Rutherford, old cotton and muslin; Miss Sanderson, old cotton, books and papers; W.C.T.U., old cotton and flowers; Mrs. Jas. Stratton, rhubarb; Mrs. Morrow, old cotton, linen and milk; Miss Edwards, old cotton and salve; Mrs. Possette, old cotton and linen; Miss Beckett, papers.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

GOUGH

THE BIG CLOTHIER, determines to carry no unseasonable goods over, and in order to make room for his Immense Fall Stock, which is now in process of manufacture, proposes organizing

☞ The Most Gigantic Sale ever offered to the People of Peterborough.

This gigantic Sale will take place commencing WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887, and will continue for the following 20 days only, when I will offer any and all of my big stock, at Wonderfully Reduced Prices.

Bear in mind, GOUGH never yet advertised anything he did not do; nor will he in this instance, a fact you will all be convinced of the first day of this Grand Sale.

Some designing dealers ask the question, why pay $12.00 for a Worsted Suit that they sell for $8.50. Gough repudiates the assertion. This boasted Worsted Suit is nearly ALL COTTON, and as a guarantee to what I herein state is true, I will forfeit $1000 if I cannot prove it; I challenge a contradiction. Gough's regular price for this boasted $8.50 suit is $7.50.

I ask the attention of a discriminating public particularly to this Great Sale, and if they don't find it straight-forward, honorable and bona fide, then brand me as a Cheap Side Store, and not the Great Forepaugh I claim to be.

It Plows Through Everything.

Street Inspector Pope was given a "lift" yesterday morning in his work on George street, which when completed will make the street the best in town. Mr. John Bowie, dealer in agricultural implements, Hunter street, was out with one of his sulky plows, which he tested by turning up the flinty road bed. It did its work well. Mr. Bowie is agent for the sulky plow.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents, or any similar application, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who have for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict, testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm. eodw22

Wool Children.

A Philadelphia clothing firm advertises "all wool boys' suits." What queer children there are in Philadelphia! Wonder if they are a yard wide as well as all wool.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 90,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. old by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. eodw4

To Avoid Baldness or Grey Hair.

Use Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic. It keeps the scalp clean and free from Dandruff, and promotes the growth of the hair. It prevents premature grayness and stops all falling out of the hair. On bald heads, where the roots have not perished, it will invigorate them and force a new growth of hair. Ask for Hair Magic. It is the only reliable. For sale by J. D. Tully and all druggists.

McGregor's Speedy Cure.

When we say McGregor's Speedy Cure is the only perfect cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion and Impure Blood, we are telling plain facts, of which hundreds upon hundreds can testify who have been restored to perfect health by its use. We would therefore advise you strongly if you are a subject of any of the above troubles to give McGregor's Speedy Cure a trial and be convinced. It is sold in 50c. and $1.00 bottles at John McKee's Drug Store. eodw21

The Thistle's Grand Race.

LONDON, June 2.—The race under the auspices of the New Thames Yacht Club took place to-day. The course was the same as in yesterday's race, from the Lower Hope to the Mouse Lightship and return, a distance of 39 miles. The start was made at 11.57.30 a.m. in the following order: Genesta, Sybil, Sleuth Hound, Wendur, Thistle, Neptune, Irex, Fox Hound. The Genesta and Sybil were called back for going over the line before the gun was fired.

At Thames Head the Thistle was well away, followed by the Wendur, Irex, Neptune and Fox Hound. From here, close hauled, they lay quite down past the Nore. All carried jib foresail, mainsail and square-headed topsail, with the exception of the Thistle, which had a jib-headed topsail. The Irex on passing the Wendur took down her top sails.

After getting around the lightship spinnakers, bigger top sails and jib topsails were set and all came along home at a tremendous pace, finishing in the following order: Thistle, 4.43; Wendur, 4.59; Neptune, 5.23 and Fox Hound, 5.54.

The Thistle rounded the Mouse light at 2.18, ploughing through a heavy sea with the greatest of ease and simply flying along close hauled. To-day's performance increases the general opinion of the Thistle's splendid capacity Some experienced English yachtsmen say she is the finest racing yacht afloat. The Wendur takes first prize. The Thistle, although first in, takes third place under the time allowance.

The Juvenile Again Falls to the Dwyers.

JEROME PARK, N.Y., June 2.—For the third day of the American Jockey Club meeting the feature was the Juvenile Stakes, won by Dwyer Bros.' colt Kingfish. Rain fell in torrents here last night and early this morning, and as a consequence the track was very bad.

First race, free handicap sweepstakes, ¾ mile—Rose, 102, won; Consonance, 110, 2d; Jessie B, 103, 3d. Time 1.18.

Second race, The Juvenile Stakes, for 2-year-olds, $20 each, h.f., with $1000 added; the second to receive $200 out of the stakes. ½ mile:
Dwyer Bros. br.c. Kingfish by Virgil—Kith, 118 ..... (McLaughlin) 1
A. J. Cassatt's br.c. Now or Never by Stratford—Byre-and-Bye, 122. 2
A. Belmont's ch.c. Prince Royal, by Kingfisher—Princess, 119. 3
Time—.51½.

Third race, free handicap sweepstakes, for 3-year-olds, 1¼ miles—Rustler, 112, won; Minority, 116, 2d; Queen of Elizabeth, 108, 3d. Time, 2.09¼.

Fourth race, free handicap sweepstakes, for all ages, 1 5-16 miles—Linden, 116, won; Phil Lee, 113, 2d; Enigma, 90, 3d. Time, 2.13½.

Fifth race, selling purse, 1¼ miles—Nellie Van, 98, won; Brown Duke, 107, 2d; Blue Line, 103, 3d. Time, 2.09.

Sixth race, handicap steeplechase, short course—Tomahawk, 125, won; Jim McIlwean, 128, 2d; Killarney, 140, 3d. Time, 3.46.

The Dwyer brothers have won the Juvenile Stakes three years in succession. In 1886 the black colt Portland captured the event, the invincible Tremont winning it in 1885, and this year the brown colt Kingfish being the lucky one. All three were ridden by McLaughlin.

In the Mud at Latonia.

COVINGTON, Ky, June 2.—Only four events were run off at Latonia to-day, the fourth race being a walk-over. The weather was fair but the track heavy.

First race, selling purse, 1 mile—W. H. H., 99, won; Uncle Dan, 104, 2d; Elias Carter, 96, 3d. Time, 1.54½.

Second race, for beaten horses at the meeting, 1 furlong—Panama, 113, won; Catalpa, 97, 2d; Sour Mash, 110, 3d. Time, 1.34½.

Third race, for maiden 3-year-olds, 5 furlongs—Colsmore, 103, won; Vatteli, 103, 2d; Tommy Collins, 109, 3d. Time 1.11½.

Fourth race, purse $600, 1 1-16 miles—Jacobis, 103, had a walk-over; Duke of Bourbon was scratched.

Fifth race, The Tobacco Stakes, for 3-year-olds and upwards, 1 furlong:
W. Mulkey's ch.c. Hornpipe, 3, by St. Mungo, 94..... 1
T. H. Steven's ch.g. Wahoo, 4, by Kyrie Daly, 103.... 2

Poison's Nerviline.

Hundreds who have experienced the wonderful power of NERVILINE in subduing pain have testified that it is the most potent remedy in existance. Nerviline is equally efficacious as an internal remedy. Poison's Nerviline cures flatulence, chills, spasms, cholera, cramps, headache, sea sickness, summer complaints, &c., &c. Nerviline is sold by all druggists and country dealers. Only 25c. a bottle. Try it. 6w22

A Valuable Discovery.

F. P. Tanner, of Neebing, Ont., says he has not only found B. B. B.'s a sure cure for dyspepsia, but he also found it to be the best medicine for regulating and invigorating the system that he has ever taken. B. B. B. is the great system regulator. 2w22

B. B. B. Stood the Test.

"I tried every known remedy I could think of for rheumatism, without giving me any relief, until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, which remedy I can highly recommend to all afflicted as I was." Henry Smith, Milverton, Ont. 2w22

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC

At the time of selling our stock of Dry Goods to Sheehy & Co., we had fully determined to give up that particular branch of our business, but as previously announced, did not do so, for various reasons. However, it is now our intention to dispose of the Dry Goods Trade, and have consequently made up our mind to

CLEAR OUT THE WHOLE STOCK AT COST PRICE AND UNDER

This is one of the Best Dry Goods Stocks in the Country, having been imported from the best markets direct to ourselves. Remember, this will be a GENUINE CLEARING OUT SALE. While we will still retain our Clothing Trade, yet we will during this sale, offer ALL our Ready-made Clothing, for Men and Boys, (with all kinds of furnishings) at COST PRICE. REMEMBER, THE WHOLE DRY GOODS STOCK MUST BE SOLD OUT.

Domestic Economy.

As a matter of economy it will pay every household to keep a bottle of Yellow Oil for accidents and emergencies, in case of pain as a handy relief, and for wounds, burns, bruises and injuries. Rheumatism, neuralgia, quinsy, and many painful diseases treated internally and externally by it often save large medical bills. 2w22d

The Last Year, 1886.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The same is Fluid Lightning. Sold by John McKee, Druggist. eodw21

Worth Remembering.

Mrs. T. Doan, of Harristville, Ont., was for a long time troubled with neuralgia of stomach. Failing to find benefit from her physicians, she tried Burdock Blood Bitters from which she found speedy relief, to which she testifies, hoping it may prove beneficial to others. Many physicians recommend B. B. B. 2w22d

Crusty Nature.

If a man is crusty is is easy "to break him all up." Good nature is proof against all uncivil words.

Weather Probabilities.

It is probable that in the breaking up of winter we shall have much damp sloppy weather, when rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, and other painful complaints will prevail. Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the popular household remedy for external and internal use. Its curative power is truly wonderful. 2w22d

Munificent Liberality.

The ministers of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Methodist Church now in session here, have reason to rejoice over quite a windfall. At the session this morning nearly $6000 was subscribed to take Victoria College to Toronto, but the Masonic excursion to Toronto on June 9th will take excursionists to that city at less than half fare, that is, the round trip ticket for $1.75. The best accommodation and completest arrangements for comfort and quiet, and rapid journey—seven hours in the city.

$27,000 Buys It.

His Lordship Bishop Dowling has purchased from Mr. Geo. A. Cox that valuable acre of ground west of St. Peter's Cathedral, on which are two residences, one occupied by Mr. J. H. Roper and the other by Mr. John J. Hall, subject to existing leases. Mr. Hall's term is about expired and Mr. Roper has about a year to ran. It is understood His Lordship will make the residence occupied by Mr. Roper, the palace, and the Hall building will be raised a story, a mansard roof put on and the premises thoroughly overhauled, and occupied by Rev. Father Conway. The present episcopal residence will be torn down, leaving the whole block of land for the church.

Annie Bird's Benefit.

Little Annie Bird will take a benefit to-night, when she will play for the first time "Fanchon" in "Fanchon the Cricket." This performance will be a notable one, on account of the age of the child star. She will be the youngest person who has ever attempted to play the part, but those who attend will see the pathos, beauty, and witchery of the character brought out in the most artistic manner. All theatre-goers in Peterborough know and admire Little Annie Bird; they know that she is handsome and talented, but they will be more than surprised when they see her to-night in a part that calls forth all her intern love of acting. She don't merely act the part. She is the the character itself, as the author created it. She is the weird, impulsive, fascinating creature of his imagination, and all will agree that she is indeed, as she is called in the play "a little witch," and a marvellously clever one. The prospects are that the house will be crowded, and she deserves it.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Annual Meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference.

THURSDAY, June 2nd.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The General Superintendent presided. The session opened with the usual devotional exercises and the reading of the minutes.

The balloting for Secretary of the Conference resulted as follows—on the first ballot:—

Rev. F. H. Wallace	29
Rev. Wm. Burns	42
Rev. Wm. Jolliffe	13
J. J. Rice	11

with scattering votes for nine others.

The result of the second ballot was:—

Rev. F. H. Wallace	59
Rev. Wm. Burns	86

The Rev. Superintendent, in announcing the result of the vote, declared Rev. Wm. Burns elected, adding, "It was Burns, I think, who wrote 'Scots, wha hae wi' Wallace bled'" (loud laughter and applause).

Rev. Dr. Breden, seconded by Rev. J. Curts, moved a cordial vote of thanks to the retiring president, Rev. J. S. Clarke, for his courtesy and fidelity in the chair. Rev. Mr. Clarke briefly acknowledged the vote of thanks, carried by a standing vote.

Rev. W. R. Young and William Limbert were appointed assistant secretaries.

Rev. I. TOVELL moved, seconded by Rev. Mr. WALLACE, a resolution of condolence with Mr. A. C. Courtice on the occasion of the death of his wife, coupling with the bereaved husband the relatives of his late wife.—Carried by a standing vote.

The services of the retiring secretary, Rev. Joseph Young, for his faithful discharge of the duties of his office, were recognized by a cordial vote of thanks, and the services of the assistant sec.-taries were similarly recognized.

A communication was read inviting the members of the Conference to avail themselves of the privileges of the reading rooms and parlours of the Y.M.C.A.

Dr. S. P. FORD gave notice of a series of resolutions he proposed to introduce on Monday, referring to prohibition.

The following young men were received into connection:—Wm. H. C. Buckler, H. V. Mounteer, M. E. Wilson, Darius S. Houck, N. D. Drew, George Carpenter.

The three years probationers continued on trial, were: John G. Lewis, H. E. Bayley, S. G. Thompson.

Percy M. Pushon, was discontinued on account of ill health, and George A. Ceon, G. H. Raley and F. A. August were continued on trial.

Geo. A Love, H. S. Anderson, J. M. Kemp and W. B. Osterhout, first year probationers, were continued on trial.

The following nominating committee was appointed: Rev. J. Curts, convenor, Rev. Messrs. Jas. Young, Jas. Curts, J. F. Ockley, Dr. Bredin, W. Williams, J. C. Wilson, F. B. Stratton, J. S. Clarke, M. L. Pearson, ministers; and Messrs. J. A. Holgate, Chas. James, J. S. Loudon, Geo. Webb, S. Caldwell, R. J. Clarke, F. Reynolds, A. M. Hamilton and J. F. Cunning.

On motion of Rev. I. Tovell, the hours of meeting of the Conference were fixed as follows: Meet at 9 a.m., adjourn at 12 m., meet at 2 p.m, and adjourn at 5 30. Evening meetings to begin at 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

A large audience assembled in the George Street Methodist Church at night, the occasion being the annual educational services of the Methodist Church. The proceedings were opened by the President, Rev. Mr. Learoyd, who introduced the first speaker, Rev. Dr. Burwash, in a few remarks on the subject.

Education, said Rev. D. BURWASH, was the one great question that over all demanded every attention. Its importance had been fully recognized, and a line of policy had been mapped out for us which to the minds of the general conference, which had spent days in discussing the question, had seemed best. Touching upon federation, he combatted the errant belief that the federation scheme would not be carried out. Such a thing could not be said truly until the question had been fully tested. But these matters were not to be discussed here—the meeting had been called for the purpose of benefitting the cause of education. Our educational institutions, particularly the Cobourg University, commended themselves to all. The past year in Victoria University had been unusually successful, all the students but about half a dozen being consecrated men, ordained ministers ready to go forth and labor in the Master's vineyard. At the conclusion of Dr. Burwash's speech he was warmly applauded.

Rev. Dr. WILLIAMS, Treasurer of the Educational Society, next read the annual report, giving a comparative statement of the contributions of this and last year—$1376.74 for this year as against $1458.39 last year, Peterborough showing $366.55 contributed this year, or a decrease of $5.15 from last year.

Mr. Geo. A. COX, the next speaker, stated that he was totally unprepared to make a speech, but as he was called upon to speak he would refer to the College Confederation scheme, upon which subject his position had been doubtfully stated. He had supported federation at the general conference, but not with the idea thatt the Cobourg University was to be done away with. And he didn't believe in transfering the University to Toronto until it could be done on a sound financial basis. He was quite in accord with those members of the Conference who did not favor any move until the necessary sum had been raised. He considered it in the best interests of the Methodist church and education that the educational institutions should be centred at Toronto. That was the position he had taken at the Conference, and the same position he took now. There should be no delay in carrying out the decree of the general conference, and the sum of $450,000 was little enough for the purpose. He urged vigorous efforts to raise the amount, and he would rather submit to a defeat of the scheme than have the University removed on an unsound financial basis. The Cobourg institution should be liberally supported, and he hoped to see besides the Confederation scheme carried to a successful issue.

Rev. DR. POTTS, Secretary of the Educational Society of Toronto, in opening, congratulated his old friend, Dr. Learoyd, upon his occupying the honored position of President. The Educational Society had a sickly existence from the beginning, but he saw a vigorous and healthy existence before it, and for Victoria University a continuation of its success. He proposed to invest the educational system with more interest in the future, and proposed to abolish the envelope system and inaugurate in its stead the taking up of subscriptions among the congregations as in missionary meetings. He hoped the Bay of Quinte Conference would adopt some such plan, and lay the interests of education to heart, and next year there would be a report that would gladden the hearts of all. Dr. Potts said he was confirmed in favor of this confederation scheme, and he proposed to use every effort to make it a church matter. Dr. Potts paid a high tribute to the Ontario Government, which had done everything fair and honest in behalf of Methodists (applause). Among other things it had given them five acres of land in Queen's Park, Toronto, at the nominal rent of $1 per acre per year, with the privilege of buying it at any time. (Applause). Every man who believes in the principle of confederation, will acknowledge that a better bill could scarcely have been secured from the Ontario Legislature, which had under the influence of the Government of the day done almost everything they asked. Speaking of the "$450,000" required, about which there had been such a cry,—this church could do anything when united; $450,000 was nothing. The government, the press, the leading minds of the country and the Methodist Church were in favor of federation, but there was peril unless they were united. It was said there was organized opposition to the scheme, and if so, to them will be due any financial failure in connection therewith. "For the sake of our college and Methodism, let us be united." (Applause). Rev. Dr. Potts' speech was eloquent and impressive, his language grand and expressive throughout, and on sitting down he was heartily applauded.

Rev. Dr. CARMAN said he would begin just where his able predecessor had just stopped. Better go upon a mistaken policy, united, if your policy is not fatal, than aim at the accomplishment of good policy disunited. But this policy of the church had been decided upon after a great deal of discussion and careful consideration. The church must have higher religious education, christian academic education. Some people argued that all the church needed was a theological school, but he didn't believe the great work of christian education could do with that. Dr. Carmen's address urged union among the Methodists in the perfection of a policy adopted by the church. Would it not be a shame if the church did not secure the money after they had declared upon a policy? Should it be found impractionable to raise the money, in what position would the church be? It was a matter of connexional loyalty and cash, and he would be sorry if a failure was caused by a want of funds, and that the result of disintegration and opposition among the brethren of the church. Union, in carrying out the educational policy was what was wanted for the united Methodist Church, and if the same spirit was exercised in the united church as had been exhibited in the Methodist Episcopal Church, small as that organization was, they could have two federations (laughter.) Even if the federation scheme should fail, let there be union still. He urged union to the last, and retired amidst applause.

After a collection had been taken up the proceedings closed with singing and the benediction.

FRIDAY, June 3rd.

MORNING SESSION.

Conference assembled at 9 a.m., Rev. John Learoyd, President of Conference, occupied the chair. After the usual devotional exercises, and the reading and adoption of the minutes, communications were read.

From Rev. J. H. Withrow, M. A., Secretary of the Sunday School Board, respecting returns.

A report was read from the Board of Management of Alma College, indicating the flourishing condition of the institution. The attendance last year was 180—120 resident and 60 day students. The capacity of the buildings has been fully tested, and to meet the need of increased space, $8,000 has been raised for a new building, but a small additional sum will be necessary to complete the buildings.

Rev. Dr. POTTS, D. D. General Superintendent of education was heard. He said he thought that of the $450,000, thought necessary for endowment, Toronto could be counted upon to raise $250,000 and the outside the balance. Within a few months $138,000 had been subscribed with promise of from $30,000 to $50,000; it was necessary for the famount to be secured within a few months. He wanted the counsel of the conference as to matters of organization. He suggested the holding of district conventions. He had just come from the Montreal Conference, and he was greatly touched with the indication of practical interest in the educational project, manifested by the conference. He was free to confess that Cobourg was justified in trying to keep the college there. But this was a connexional idea and should be treated in a broad and liberal spirit. A strong federation resolution had been passed by the Niagara Conference. The speaker stated that on his general appeal to the Montreal Conference, liberal subscriptions without personal solicitations had been contributed amounting to $2,500. All subscriptions were conditional and would not be called if Federation were not carried out. The bill was permissive. Dr. Potts then called for subscriptions when the following were taken.

Presented with a Jewel.

Mr. J. C. T. Lacey Honored by his Brother Oddfellows.

Thursday evening in the lodge room of Peterborough lodge of Oddfellows, Mr. J. C. T. Lacey, Past Chief Patriarch, Past Grand, who is about to leave town for Toronto, was presented with an address and beautiful Past Grand and Past Chief Patriarch's Jewel by the brethren of Peterborough Lodge No. 111, and Mount Hebron Encampment, No. 56, I.O.O.F. Bro. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., P.G., read the address, Bro. D. H. Moore, P.G., making the presentation. Following is the address:—

Bro. J. C. T. Lacey, Past Chief Patriarch, and Past Grand:—

DEAR SIR AND BRO:—The officers and members of Mount Hebron Encampment, No. 56, and Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F., having learned of your contemplated removal from Peterborough to Toronto, take this opportunity of addressing you with the most cordial assurance of personal respect and esteem and hearty appreciation of your important services to the order.

As a member of both of the above organizations of Oddfellowship we have ever found you faithful to the duties imposed by your obligation, and ever earnest and intent in promoting the success and advancing the principles of our noble order.

Both as Noble Grand and Chief Patriarch you have most worthily and successfully filled those important positions.

In token of our hearty recognition of the services you have done our order, and in the manner in which you have sustained both the ordinary and more exalted relations you have held towards it, permit us to present you with this Past Grand and Past Chief Patriarchs Jewel, with the expression of our confidence that it will be worthily, as we hope it may be long, worn by you.

Not only do we regret the severance of fraternal ties but we have all to regret to miss the opportunity of enjoying the personal intercourse which your stirling character, social affability and general good qualities have ever made so pleasant.

Wishing you and your family the highest happiness and the most desirable prosperity in your new home, we beg to subscribe ourselves,

YOUR BRETHREN AND FRIENDS.

Peterborough, June 2nd, 1887.

After reading the address Mr. Stratton spoke of Mr. Lacey's career in town, and the straightforward manner in which he had always conducted himself both as an Oddfellow and in his social and business career.

Mr. Lacey replied briefly but feelingly, thanking his brethren for their expression of good will towards him, assuring them he would always cherish the gift and the kind words accompanying it as a memento of the fellowship that always existed between himself and the brethren of these lodges. Though about to remove to Toronto, he would have an opportunity of visiting his Peterborough brethren occasionally, and hoped the lodges in Peterborough would continue in prosperity and that all the members would endeavor to live up to the principles of the Order.

Other brethren present made brief addresses expressing regret at Mr. Laceys' departure from their midst, but wishing him every success in his new home.

Mr. Lacey leaves next Monday for Toronto to take a responsible position in the headquarters of the recently amalgamated Eastern Ontario and Toronto branches of the Canada Life Assurance Company. He has been connected with the Eastern Division in Mr. Cox's office for about fifteen years. He has ever been a faithful employe, one in whom Mr. Cox has every confidence, hence his promotion to this responsible position. Mr. Lacey has the unanimous and heartfelt wishes of a host of friends for his future prosperity and welfare, in which the EXAMINER most heartily joins.

Obituary.

The Late John Erskine.

We regret to have to announce that the illness of the past week or so of Mr. John Erskine, terminated this morning at 6 o'clock in his death. Mr. Erskine is a native of Fifeshire, Scotland, where he was born fifty years ago. He is a descendant of the Erskines, of Mar, and is directly related with the present Earl of that name. He came to Canada about the year 1859, and having a knowledge of the dry good business, acquired in Glasgow, went into business in Toronto with his brother-in-law, Mr. James Scott. Shortly afterwards he came to Peterborough and established the business which he had conducted up to the time of his last illness. In 1873 he was married to Annie, eldest daughter of the late Donald McFarlane, of Ashburnham. Of this union there were born two sons and two daughters, all of whom are living. In Mr. Erskine's death the town loses one of its most respected citizens who enjoyed the high esteem of the entire community. He was a long-time member of St. Paul's Church, and an elder at the time of his death, and always took a deep and a prominment part in every movement tending to promote the prosperity of the church. A loyal and patriotic Scot, he was a leading spirit in St. Andrew's Society, having recently held the position of President for two years in succession. The liberality of his nature and his charitable disposition unostentatiously manifested, while especially mindful of brother Scots, did not draw any narrow line of nationality, but there was room in his large, warm heart for the needy and afflicted of any country. As a citizen of the town, he was loyal to its interests in every way. In politics Mr. Erskine was a Liberal. In his death, the bereaved family lose and affectionate husband and father, St. Paul's Church and St. Andrew's Society a member, who was worthy of the high esteem he was held in both relations; the town a public spirited citizen and an honest and capable man of business, who died as he had lived, enjoying the honor and esteem of his fellowmen. In their sad bereavement the family have the sincerest sympathy of the EXAMINER. The funeral will take place from the family residence, Ashburnham, Monday afternoon next, at three o'clock.

THE ART OF DRESSING NEATLY.

It is customary for the Male Sex to make merry over the fact that a woman wears a great amount of unnecessary fixings.

With equal justice the Fair Sex can retort that men are not by any means exempt from unnecessary dress.

Ask a tailor the use of buttons on the back of a mans coat, and he wont be able to tell you. He'll tell you that they are placed there because they are fashionable.

It is the aim of "The Peoples Cash Store" to always keep up with the fashions, but we prefer the Neat Sensible Styles. Our Fashion Plate is the human body, and we make our Clothing to Fit Neatly and Hang Gracefully.

Experience has taught us what materials are the most serviceable. We import only such Cloth as we know will give satisfactory work.

We aim to dress a man neat, and to dress him well, at a small expense.

Economy in manufacturing, in importing and in conducting our store enables us to offer such Great Bargains, as our Ten Dollar English Tennis Suit, our Eight Dollar Halifax Tweed Suit and our Seventeen Dollar Scotch Tweed Suit.

FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.
I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.
It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago.

OTTAWA NEWS.

Mr. Blake's Illness

Mr. Blake is suffering from insomnia. Mrs. Blake has been here for several days. They will to-morrow, if he is strong enough, proceed to Murray Bay to spend several months in his recently purchased cottage there.

The Colonels Have a Field Day.

The House to-day, after routine, went into supply, and the military possessed the floor, the glorious old flag and an appropriation being upheld every time. There are no fewer than nine Colonels in the House, and nearly every mother's son of them had something to say, while some who didn't know a shot-gun from a pocket-pistol enlightened the House on matters military.

One rattling good speech was made and Col. Denison made it. He read some extracts from Major Middleton's report, which seemed to him to indicate a desire to exalt the "standing army" and increase its strength at the expense of the militia. To this the Colonel strongly objected. A standing army, he said, was quite out of place in a country like Canada. A better policy would be to strengthen the volunteer force and endeavor to infuse a military spirit through the people. The citizen got the better of the soldier in his remark that he did not want too many "drones in the hive." Then he objected strongly to the proposal to make the commandants of the various military schools staff officers and thus give them a position superior to that of the volunteer officers. He regarded this as an attempt to follow slavishly British customs in a country where the two forces were on a footing wholly different from that which they occupied in Great Britain. This was the first occasion on which the member for West Toronto has spoken at length and he got a hearty round of applause for what may be termed his maiden speech.

Sir Adolphe Caron paid the Colonel a compliment for his services in London, and expressed his agreement with the sentiments contained in his speech, but said he was mistaken in his interpretation of Major-General Middleton's report.

During the evening session militia matters were to the fore. Every member put in a plea for a new drill-shed or the extension of old, or something of the sort. Mr. Kenny appealed to the Minister of Militia in behalf of Halifax, and Mr. Shakespeare in behalf of Victoria, and everybody else in behalf of all other drill halls between the two points.

The Quebec Lieut.-Governorship.

A deputation representing the Montreal and Terrebonne Conservative Association waited upon Mr. Chapleau this morning and asked him not to accept the Lieut.-Governorship of Quebec. He reported that the decision rested with his doctor. The same deputation waited upon Sir John Macdonald and asked him to retain Mr. Chapleau in the Cabinet, where his services would be more valuable to the Conservative party. Sir John Macdonald told the deputation he would be most happy to have Mr. Chapleau remain in the Cabinet, but that the matter rested entirely upon the medical advice given Mr. Chapleau.

A knotty point for the Government is coming to the front. The Manitoba Government have decided to build a railway to the boundary line for their own account. It is stated to-day that they will take the money for construction out of the ordinary revenue. If that should be done and the Government wish to stop it they will have to disallow the whole Supply Bill and put a stop to the whole machinery of the Provincial Government.

The C.P.R.'s Entry into Montreal.

In the Railway Committee this morning there was considerable debate over the bill to authorise the Atlantic and Northwestern Railway Company, which means the C.P.R., to enter the west end of Montreal from the Lachine Bridge into the city, and in the east end from the Back River Bridge to the North Shore Railway. Mr. Fred. Judah, on behalf of the Montreal property owners affected, asked that a clause be inserted making the company responsible for consequential damages, such as the depreciation in value of property in the neighborhood of the track. There was also opposition from Mr. Beaudoleil, M.P., who was afraid the Canadian Pacific Railway wanted to divert passenger traffic from the (French) East End to the (English) West End. Finally a clause was inserted at Mr. Girouard's instance that the bill shall not affect any legal rights of either the city or private individuals and the bill passed.

In the Printing Committee of the Commons this morning it was decided to recommend that the salary of Mr. Edward Botterell of the Distribution Offices be increased $300 per annum from January last.

The Wimbledon Team.

Lieut.-Col. Bacon, Secretary of the Dominion Rifle Association, has now secured acceptance from twenty of those eligible to go on this year's team for Wimbledon, which will be composed as follows, the competitors being given in the order in which they won places: In command, Lieut.-Col. J. A. Ouimet, 65th, Montreal; Adjutant, Capt. J. T. Hart, 8th, St. John; Pte. A. S. Kimmerly, 40th, Napanee; Q.M. Sergt. Ogg, First D.F.S., Guelph; Lieut. W. Mitchell, 32nd, Port Elgin; Sergt. D. M. Logrie, 73rd, Chatham, N.B.; Corp. W. Langstroth, 8th Cav., Hampton, N.B.; Lieut. G. Crockett, 82nd, Little York, P.E.I.; Pte. Morris, 13th, Hamilton, Ont.; Sergt. J. Gouche, 8th, Quebec; Pte. S. Riddle, 6th Fusiliers, Montreal; Lieut. D. L. Hooper, 82nd, Charlottetown, P.E.I.; Col.-Sergt. C. N. Micobell, 90th, Winnipeg; Pte. H. Graham, 13th, Hamilton; Lieut. A. D. Cartwright, 47th, Kingston; Sergt. W. C. King, 45th, Bowmanville, Ont.; Sergt. A. Thomson, 3d, Montreal, Pte. W. Gamble, 49th, Fort Hope; Pte. Kamberly, 5th R.S., Montreal; Lieut. W. Horn, 14th, Kingston; Corp. W. Taylor, 63rd, Fredericton; Pte. Gillen, 90th, Winnipeg. The team have to report at Quebec on the morning of June 23 and they will on the following day. Upon arrival in England they will go into camp at Cambridge where a week's practice will be had preparatory to the Wimbledon meeting.

Mr. Whitney, of the Prescott distillery, was in the city to-day and had an interview with the Premier on matters of a business character.

Sir Charles Tupper gave a dinner to thirty members of Parliament this evening. Mr. Chapleau, Hon. Mr. Thompson and Sir Adolphe Caron were among the guests and also all of the Manitoba Territorial and British Columbia members, besides others.

The Export of Hide Logs.

A deputation consisting of Messrs. Moncrieff, Brown, McKay, Rooms, Sproule, Ferguson (Welland), Porter, Cockburn, Wright, Perley (Ottawa), Ward, White, Gordon, Bergin, Cargill, Stevenson and Guillet waited upon Sir John to-day to press upon the Government the necessity of an export duty on elm logs. The case was presented by Adam Brown, and Messrs. Ferguson, Rooms, Bergin, Guillet, Wright and Perley spoke strongly in support of the export duty. Several of the speakers commended that the duty should be on all logs. Sir John promised to give the subject immediate consideration.

SIR CHARLES' DENIAL.

The Mail's Report of His Interview With Bayard An Entirely Imaginary One.

OTTAWA, June 3.—I was accorded the honor of an interview to-day with Sir Charles Tupper regarding the alleged Washington despatch in to-day's Mail, purporting to give the substance of what took place at the meeting between Sir Tupper and United States Secretary Bayard in Washington during the recent recess of the Dominion Parliament.

I asked Sir Charles as to the correctness of the statements of the Mail's Washington correspondent.

He replied, "The statement is purely imaginary. The person who wrote it could not possibly have had communication with Secretary Bayard and certainly did not with myself. Not only that, but the Mail's statement is the very reverse in almost every particular, in every essential particular, of what actually took place."

"Then you do not think that there was actually an interview with the parties from whom alone the information could have been obtained?"

Sir Charles replied emphatically, "Certainly there was not and the pretended report of the interview between Secretary Bayard and myself is not only inaccurate but in almost every respect the very reverse of the truth."

This concluded the interview. The Mail has evidently been on an independent romancing expedition.

THE GAZETTED.

The Statement of the Debt Shows an Increase for May.

OTTAWA, June 3.—The Canada Gazette of to-morrow will contain the following:

An order in council approving of a modified tariff of tolls and dues in Prince Edward Island.

The Bank of Hochelaga declares 3 per cent. half-yearly dividend and the Union Bank of Lower Canada a similar dividend.

Letters patent of incorporation have been granted to the Brantford Vinegar, Broom & Brush Company, with headquarters at Brantford and a capital of $20,000.

Notice is given of a special general meeting of the shareholders of the Prince Albert Colonization Company called for June 27, at Trenton, Ont., for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the company.

Letters patent of incorporation are granted to the Electric Service Company of Canada, for the purpose of manufacturing electric apparatus, etc., with headquarters at Montreal; capital, $100,000. The incorporators are Messrs. P. S. Stevenson, Henry Hogan, H. Graham, H. Mackenzie and J. A. Wright, all of Montreal.

Letters patent of incorporation have been applied for by the Canadian Pacific, Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg, Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain and Grand Trunk Railway Car and Passenger Traffic Company. The chief place of business is at Prescott and the capital stock is $80,000.

The Rothsay Navigation Company are applying for an act of incorporation with headquarters at Prescott and a capital stock of $50,000.

The following appointments are gazetted: Judge Chauveau, of Quebec, to be a Commissioner to act judicially in extradition matters; F. Maberly, of Chapleau, to be a Commissioner under the Public Works Peace Act in the Algoma district, and J. M. Quigley to the same.

The following appointments are gazetted in connection with the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories: O. E. Hughes, Prince Albert, N.W.T., to be Sheriff of Saskatchewan, judicial district, vice Ross; Charles Marshall Whitehead to be Sheriff of East Assiniboia, vice King, and P. D. King, Moosomin, to be Sheriff of Northern Alberta.

The monthly statement of the public debt of the Dominion shows that the debt on May 31 was $260,897,872; assets, $44,420,125; net debt, $225,477,940. The net debt on April 31 was $225,105,961, showing an increase for May of $370,983. The expenditure on capital account to April 30 was $4,705,062, to which was added in May $208,248, making a total of $4,914,310.

THE DYNAMITERS ALARMED.

English Detectives Said to be Watching Plotters in the States.

CHICAGO, June 3.—A special from St. Louis says: Some time ago the Irish societies of St. Louis were considerably stirred up over a report that a number of British detectives had landed in New York, and later it was reposted that about a dozen of them had come as far west as St. Louis. No one seemed to know just what their mission was, but recently, according to the statement of a prominent participant in all Irish matters, a lot of correspondence purporting to be letters or reports from the detectives has come into hands they were never intended to reach. One of the letters, and the most important one, is dated Washington, May 12. It is addressed to Sir Chas. Nelson and signed James Bradie. It begun by saying: "I send you budget of letters, reports, etc., which will show you how affairs are going."

This, of course, refers to the letters and reports mentioned above. Thus the letters tell where eleven of the twelve Englishmen are working: Four in St. Louis, three in Kansas City, and four in Leadville and Denver. The writer is sure some sort of demonstration is to be made June 21, and asks that strict watch be kept on No. 29 Grove-street, Oxford-road. Another letter dated New York, May 3, and signed James Telling, says the whole strength of the Fenian Brotherhood in the United States is 8000, and they have a revenue of $4000 a month; that O'Donovan Rossa's expulsion was only a pretence, and he is still a member. Much more of what purports to be facts concerning the Fenian Brotherhood is given.

Considered a Lucky Girl.

WICHITA, Kans., May 31.—Capt. W. L. White, one of the founders of the Daily Beacon, died yesterday of gastric fever, aged 51 years. An hour before his death he was united in marriage to Miss Susanna Sebastian, to whom he had been betrothed. The bride of an hour, who is a young woman, is thus heiress to his property, valued at $300,000.

FIGHTING EVICTORS.

TENANTS AT BODYKE MAKE A SPIRITED RESISTANCE.

DUBLIN, June 4.—The evictions at Bodyke continue. Tenants are offering all the opposition in their power to the sheriff and his guard of police and troops, and find various means to seriously annoy the officers. In some of the houses from which the occupants were to be evicted cayenne pepper was burned, the fumes of which nearly choked the bailiff. Boiling water was also thrown from windows upon the evicting force. At two houses where evictions were effected collisions occurred between the police and the people, and a number of arrests were made.

When the sheriff's force arrived at the house of tenant Lyddy and ordered the family to leave a daughter of Mr. Lyddy threw an iron hoop at a bailiff who attempted to force the door. The hoop missed the bailiff but struck a police inspector. The girl was arrested. A brother of the girl was also arrested for inciting the crowd to violence. Another daughter of the tenant, who denounced the treatment her family were receiving, was struck by a policeman and felled to the ground. This maddened the crowd and they advanced for the purpose of attacking the officers. Michael Davitt, who was present at the evictions, pleaded with the people not to use violence and barely managed to avert a collision.

After the Lyddy family had been evicted the police made an attack upon the house of a man named McNamara, which was strongly fortified. Crowbars were used and a hole was made through the wall. McNamara's wife and children were in the house and cried piteously, until Mr. Davitt shouted words of comfort to them. McNamara was arrested for pelting the bailiffs with dung. The bailiffs smashed the furniture of the house out of pure malice. The police, after leaving the house, proceeded to that occupied by Tenant Hussey for the purpose of ejecting him. It is thought the police have extremely warm work before them.

When the evicting force reached Hussey's house they were received with a shower of boiling water, stones and bottles and a swarm of bees were let loose upon them. The tenants only desisted from pelting the bailiffs when the troops threatened to fire. The bailiffs demolished the wall and entered the house, but were repulsed bleeding. The eviction was only effected after a struggle of two hours and a half. The male defenders of the house were arrested.

A meeting of tenants was afterwards held, at which Michael Davitt repeated the advice he gave them yesterday to resist eviction by every means, and defied the Government to arrest him.

STRANGE MUSIC IN CHICAGO.

"God Save the Queen" Sung at the Sunday School Convention.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The International Sunday School Convention last night transmitted the following telegram to General Ponsonby, London: "The International Sunday School Convention of the United States and Canada, assembled in Chicago, present hearty congratulations to Her Majesty Queen Victoria on this jubilee occasion. They recognise that during a generous reign of fifty years Her Majesty has been an earnest defender and advocate of the Bible as the foundation of the Christian religion, and a living exemplification of the favor of God. Righteousness exalteth a nation." This was signed by the president. "God Save the Queen" was then sung by the audience.

MONTREAL'S MILITARY REVIEW.

Preparations Being Made to Entertain Visiting Corps.

MONTREAL, June 4.—In connection with the Queen's Jubilee celebration the Prince of Wales' Rifles wish to entertain the 14th, and the other city regiments will entertain sister corps, and the "Vics" will entertain the Queen's Own Rifles, if they decide to come to Montreal. The other regiments are waiting to ascertain what corps are coming before deciding which to entertain. It is proposed to have the Montreal brigade mess at the Windsor Hotel in the evening after the review, and to invite all officers of visiting corps to attend.

A suggestion has also been made that the whole force should be entertained at lunch after the review by the city. The Victoria Rifles have definitely decided to inaugurate the new armory on the afternoon of the 21st by a 5-o'clock tea and a bonnet hop. The military and athletic tournament of the 1st brigade of the Montreal Garrison Artillery will take place on the evening of the 21st in Victoria Rink. A feature will be a tug-of-war between teams of not only the city corps but of the various regiments which participate in the review.

DROWNED IN THE ST. LAWRENCE.

Two Newspaper Men Lost While Boating Near Ogdensburg.

CORNWALL, Ont., June 3.—While out boating yesterday on the river below Ogdensburg, Wm. Phillips of New York, American Manager of the European Press Association, and Chas. E. George of Ottawa, Canadian Manager of the same association, were capsized by a passing steamer and drowned. Both men were strong swimmers, but were forced to succumb to the current after keeping up for about half an hour. Both are well known journalists in the United States and Canada. Mr. George would have reached shore had he not helped Mr. Phillips. They were en route to Ottawa. Mr. George was formerly connected with the Montreal Herald. At the time of his death he held a position on the staff of the Ottawa Free Press.

CHURCHILL ON ECONOMY.

He Objects to Spending Money on Jubilee Decorations at Westminster.

LONDON, June 3.—Lord Randolph Churchill was enthusiastically received by the Wolverhampton Workmen's Club to-night. Responding to an address he said he believed that the sources of revenue could be so managed as to satisfy the fair trader without driving into despair the free trader. The true remedy for the trade depression, he said, was economy in public expenditure. Workers must not allow Ireland to absorb all their attention, but must bring pressure upon the Government to prevent such extravagance as spending a million pounds on new war and admiralty buildings and £17,000 for decorating Westminster Abbey in honor of the Queen's jubilee.

O'Brien Will Sail on Wednesday.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Editor Wm. O'Brien passed a quiet day at his hotel, receiving several friends who called upon him. He says he feels already improved since reaching the seaboard, but suffers yet from pains in his side, where he was pelted by Toronto Orangemen.

The demonstration of the trades will take place to-morrow night. On Tuesday evening Mr. O'Brien will be banqueted, and on Wednesday he will sail on the Adriatic.

KING OF PALESTINE.

A Proposal To Make the Pope Ruler of the Holy Land.

VIENNA, June 3.—The Algemeine Zeitung mentions a project, which has been hinted, to make the Pope King of Palestine, under a guarantee of protection on his throne by all the Catholic powers.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Annual Meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference.

FRIDAY, June 3rd.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION

was opened with the usual devotional exercises, the president in the chair.

The report of the nominating committee was read by the secretary, Mr. Charles James, as follows:—

TEMPERANCE—(Ministers) Rev. Messrs. A. Browning, W. H. Emsley, T. Meyers, J. C. Bell, R. T. Coartice, Gilbert Horton, O. R. Lambly, F. B. Stratton, W. Limbert; (Laymen) Messrs. G. E. Minns, L. Massey, J. B. Aylsworth, Ira Brown, S. Caldwell, Geo. A. Cox, — Dix, A. Glass, J. L. Winter and Dr. Ford.

PASTORAL ADDRESS.—Rev. Messrs. M. L. Pearson, J. Bredin, D.D., J. Curts, and J. S. Clark.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.—Rev. Messrs. W. Johnston, F. B. Stratton, J. J. Rice, W. Tomblin, Thos. Cleworth.

GENERAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE.—Rev. Messrs. J. C. Wilson, Rev. Prof. Dyer, D. Wilson, S. McAuley, J. J. Leach, Rev. Prof. Badgley, R. H. Leitch, Francis Johnston, Messrs. W. A. Morrow, W. Johnston, C. D. Wager, H. C. McMullen, R. Dennett, Thos. Gibbard, W. S. Martin, W. J. Mason, J. McFarland.

Rev. Dr. BURWASH introduced the following resolution, moved by himself, seconded by Mr. W. F. Hall.

1st. That this Conference regards the following scheme, based on an estimate made by the Dean of the Theological faculty of Victoria University, as a fair and feasible plan for raising the money required for buildings, endowment etc., of Victoria College in the city of Toronto:

I. Towards the endowment of four chairs (subscriptions of Messrs. Cox, Goederham and two others	$125,000
II. Amount already subscribed for buildings and endowment	75,000
III. Amount to be raised by Conferences — Toronto Conference (including the City of Toronto)	78,000
Niagara Conference	30,000
Bay of Quinte Conference	25,000
London Conference	35,000
Guelph Conference	32,000
Montreal Conference	20,000
Total to be raised	$230,000.
Total	$450,000

2nd. That this Bay of Quinte Conference, consisting of ninety circuits pledges itself with the help of the Secretary of Education, to raise within the period of three or, if possible, two years, the sum allotted to it in this scheme, that is, an average of $400 per circuit, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $32,000.

3rd. That the chairman of districts, after consultation with delegates, meet before the close of this conference and agree upon the proportion to be raised in each district; and that each chairman, at such time and place as he may deem expedient, shall, in consultation with representatives from the circuits, subdivide the amount allotted to his district, according to the financial strength of the several circuits.

Rev. Mr. BURWASH gave an eloquent and exhaustive resume of the subject of Federation, and the action of the general conference and urging the conference to endorse the policy decided upon by that body.

Rev. J. S. McMullen strongly repelled the insinuations of disloyalty which had been so freely directed against the opponents of Federation.

Rev. E. N. BAKER spoke on general terms against the resolution.

Prof. REYNAR contended that the action proposed by the resolution was not advisable in face of of the fact that the terms agreed upon by the General Conference had not been met.

Rev. Dr. WILLIAMS asserted his intention of not taking any action that could be construed into his sanction of state interference in religious education.

Rev. F. B. STRATTON insisted that the adoption of the resolution would add an unbearable burden to circuits, already weighed down with financial obligations.

Rev. E. D. LEWIS contended that the college would be protected from state influence.

Rev. Dr. WILLIAMS moved in amendment, seconded by Dr. BREDIN, that this Conference, having had brought to its attention a series of resolutions proposing to assess certain amounts required for the working of Confederation upon the conference and the districts included within its limits; that while we are willing to do what we conscientiously can, for the accomplishment of the educational purposes contemplated by the General Conference, we cannot consent to any arrangement which would require from this conference any definite and fixed amount.

Rev. I. TOVELL contended that the question of Federation had been settled, and the duty of the church now was to give effect to the action of the General Conference. This conference did not represent one-twentieth of the money power of the Conference which had this morning raised more than one-fifth of the amount mentioned in the resolution. He favored the resolution proposing the addition to the words "to raise" of the words "to do our utmost to raise," with the help of the General Secretary, etc.

Rev. J. S. CLARKE pointed out that the principle of assessment was in opposition to the policy of the church.

Rev. M. L. PEARSON was opposed to Federation unless the amount required were raised, and he did not see how this could be raised without taking some steps like those proposed by Dr. Burwash's motion, which he would vote for.

Rev. A. BROWNING was opposed to imposing additional burdens upon circuits who could not now meet their church obligations.

Rev. Dr. BADGLEY contended that the conference was called upon to vote upon something it did not understand, because the Federation Act was not known, and insisted that students of the Federated College would pass from under the control of the church, and be subjected to influences of doubtful moral tendency.

Dr. BURWASH contended that Federation, instead of weakening the power of the church over Victoria, would not only increase her influence but would also bring the national University under the power and influence of the several churches. Another point gained was the introduction in the University life of the country of the systematic study of the Bible as provided by the curriculum Confederation of colleges, not of universities, was authorized and the only thing Victoria would give up (and that subject to resumption if found desirable) was the degree-conferring power. Methodist students in the confederated colleges would be under the influence of their own professors throughout the whole course.

Rev. Dr. BURWASH at the suggestion of Rev. M. L. Pearson, withdrew the last clause of his motion. Upon a vote being taken the amendment was carried by a vote of 104 to 61.

The Secretary read a telegram from the Niagara Conference, now in session at St. Catharines, citing the Conference to First Thessalonians, chap 3, v 12 and 13.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to request the editor of the Christian Guardian, to publish the College Federation Act.

The recomendation of the Stationing Committee, moved by Rev. Mr. Lambly, that Rev. G. O. Crossley and G. W. Dewey, be permitted to be set apart for evangelistic work, was adopted.

EVENING SESSION.

In the evening the services incident to the reception of candidates for the ministry were held.

After the devotional exercises, consisting of the singing of a hymn and prayers by Rev. Wm. Joliffe,

The following candidates gave their experiences of their conversion and call to the ministry, and made their public consecration to the work of the Gospel Ministry:—G. Carpenter, M. R. Wilson, H. V. Mountser, Wm. H. Buckler, Darius S. Houck, and N. D. Drew.

After the singing of a verse of the 122nd hymn,—

"My God is reconciled,"

Rev. M. L. Pearson moved that the young men mentioned be received into "full connection" and that they be ordained on Sunday. In speaking to the motion the speaker dealt with the supreme importance of the agency of the pulpit in the evangelization of the world, the necessity of vigilance and caution in selecting men to fill the pulpit of the church.

Rev. J. B. Clarkson, seconded the resolution which was carried by a standing vote.

Rev. Dr. Carman delivered an impressive address to the candidates.

The evening's proceedings closed by the singing of hymn 682,

"How beautious are their feet"

and the benediction by Rev. J. S. Clarke.

SATURDAY, June 4th.

MORNING SESSION.

Conference met at 9 a.m., the President in the chair. After the usual devotional exercises the minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and confirmed.

Rev. Dr. Williams rose to a question of privilege; he was put down in the report of the subscriptions published in the papers as having subscribed to the Federated College Fund, which he did not do.

The Secretary stated that he had selected the following as the answer of the Conference to the greeting of the Niagara Conference: 2nd Thessalonians, chap II., verses 16-17.

On motion, Wilmot Clarke, one year's probationer, was continued on trial and F. A August was recommended in good standing to the Manitoba Conference.

Several minutes of District meetings to to sell church property, on several circuits were presented to the church property committee.

Rev. J. Carts presented the second report of the nominating committee, recommending a change in the Committee on Education and the addition of another committee:—

EDUCATION—The president of Conference, Rev. Dr. Bredin; Rev. J. B. Clarkson, Rev. J. S. Clarke, Rev. W. R. Young, and Messrs. C. R. Mallory, Dr. Harrison, Geo. Hilliard and Elias Clapp—Dr. Badgley was recommended for Secretary and Dr. Williams for Treasurer.

CHILDREN'S FUND—Rev. Messrs. W. H. Emsley, Rev. A. Martin, J. E. Robeson, E. Cragg, W. M. Pattyson, T. W. Pickett, Henry Thomas, Messrs. J. T. Allen, Geo. Sills, J. Brock, Thos. Richardson, Chas. Howarth, A. V. Price, John Bruce and A. Harvey. The report was adopted.

The following were recommended to be received on trial for the ministry, Geo. R. Clare, I. Willett Paffer, K. B. Booth.

The names of Rev. Dr. Bredin and Rev. J. W. Andrews were recommended to be added to the list of Supernanuated preachers. The roll of supernumerary ministers was also called.

The ministers who have died during the past year were, Rev. W. H. Palmer, Belleville District, C. P. Frisell, Napanee District. Obituaries were read and several ministers bore tribute to the virtues of the personal and ministerial character of the deceased, after which a hymn, appropriate to the occasion, was sung and prayers were made by the ex-president, Rev. J S. Clark.

Rev. Prof. Dyer, Albert College, addressed the Conference respecting the work of the year in Albert College, which had shown an advance over last year and there was a bright outlook for the future. The fall enrollment was 161—107 males and 54 females. The college had been self-sustaining with a surplus of $200. Religious results were most encouraging, and the health of the students invariably good.

Rev. Prof. REYNER moved, that the conference express the gratification with which it has heard the report of Prof. Dyer and pledge its effort for the support of Albert College.

Several ministers passed high eulogy upon the work and administration of the college and the motion was adopted.

A motion moved by Rev. T. W. Pickett was adopted, endorsing the work of Alma Ladies' College and commending it to the tronage and support of the church.

A BOON FOR PETERBOROUGH

GOUGH

THE BIG CLOTHIER, determines to carry no unseasonable goods over, and in order to make room for his Immense Fall Stock, which is now in process of manufacture, proposes organizing

☞ The Most Gigantic Sale ever offered to the People of Peterborough.

This gigantic Sale will take place commencing WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887, and will continue for the following 20 days only, when I will offer any and all of my big stock, at Wonderfully Reduced Prices.

Bear in mind, GOUGH never yet advertised anything he did not do; nor will he in this instance, a fact you will all be convinced of the first day of this Grand Sale.

Some designing dealers ask the question, why pay $12.00 for a Worsted Suit that they sell for $8.50. Gough repudiates the assertion. This boasted Worsted Suit is nearly ALL COTTON, and as a guarantee to what I herein state is true, I will forfeit $1000 if I cannot prove it; I challenge a contradiction. Gough's regular price for this boasted $8.50 suit is $7.50.

I ask the attention of a discriminating public particularly to this Great Sale, and if they don't find it straight-forward, honorable and bona-fide, then brand me as a Cheap Side Store, and not the Great Forepaugh I claim to be.

GOUGH, THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MAN,

GEORGE STREET, PETERBOROUGH,—and 420 QUEEN STREET, WEST, TORONTO.

Mr. Blake's Resignation.

(From the Mail.)

It is announced from Ottawa that Mr. Blake has temporarily resigned the leadership of the Opposition. It is understood that he communicated with his followers on Wednesday, and that his formal resignation was sent in at a caucus held yesterday. The cause of his resignation is ill-health. The extraordinary exertions which the hon. gentlemen put forth during the recent campaign, travelling from place to place and speaking sometimes twice a day, broke him down; and though he sought to repair his strength by a visit to the South he was unable to shake of his principal ailment, the wearing one of insomnia. He has suffered much since the House met from the strain put upon him by his duties; and has at length been compelled, in obedience to a peremptory mandate from his medical adviser, to withdraw, for the present at any rate, from the leadership of the party.

Mr. Blake's withdrawal is a very great loss, not only to the Opposition but to the country, which he has served with so much ability, fidelity and unselfishness. Canada can ill afford to spare a leader like Mr Blake, and we feel sure we may venture to say that he carries with him into his temporary retirement the sympathy of the whole people, whose earnest wish and prayer is that he may soon triumph over his malady and be able—for by reckoning by the calendar he is still in the prime of manhood—to devote many more years of his life to the service of Canada.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent, of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symtoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cents. Try it. eodw4

SPORTING TOPICS.

At 10.30 yesterday morning Sheriff Frank Gilbert, President of the International Baseball League, called a special gathering of that organization to order in one of the parlors of the Genesee House at Buffalo. The meeting had been called by telegraph, after it had become officially known that the Oswego club had disbanded after a season of disaster, so far as it went.

These clubs of the league were represented: Rochester, Wilson Soule; Syracuse, W. S. Miller; Utica, Dave A. Dissbier; Binghamton, John P. Clark and W. G. Phelps; Toronto, E. S. Cox; Hamilton, William Stroud; Newark, J. H. Shoemaker; Jersey City, P. T. Powers; Buffalo, the President and C. W. Cashman. Secretary C. D. White of Utica was also present.

The business of finding a successor to Oswego occupied but a short time. There were but three applicants—Scranton, Pa., Lockport, N.Y., and London, Ont. Scranton was the successful candidate.

HOW THE CHANGE AFFECTS THE LEAGUE.

The dropping out of Oswego and the admission of Scranton will make some important changes in the standing of the league. Buffalo and Newark have now won 18 games each, with a loss of 4 for Newark and 5 for Buffalo. The standing of the clubs up to last night is:

	Won.	Lost.	Games to play.
Newark	18	4	26
Buffalo	18	5	31
Rochester	14	10	32
Toronto	13	10	34

The Orillias Beat the Young Canadians.

RICHMOND HILL, June 3.—A lacrosse match, one of the championship series, was played here to-day between the Young Canadians of this place and the Orillias, the time occupied being 2½ hours. It was won by the Orillias, who scored the three first and the last game, the Canadians taking the fourth and fifth.

ORILLIA, June 3.—The match at Richmond Hill to-day having resulted in the third successive victory of the Orillias over the Young Canadians, the Citizen's Band and a large assemblage of Orillians met the boys at the station and marched through the principal streets to the Orillia House, where congratulatory speeches were made by Mr. T. H. Robinson, Rev. J. B. Armstrong and Dr. A. H. Beaton. Responses were made on behalf of the club by President Geo. Thomson.

Visiting Ministers

who are members of the Oddfellows' Society are cordially invited to visit the "Otonabee" Lodge Hall, corner George and Hunter streets, on Monday evening next. Regular meeting. Important work.

A Bad Girl.

Mary Ann Murray, a resident of the south ward, was committed to the Mercer Reformatory for six months this morning as a vagrant. Her mother was the complainant, and said Mary Ann was a bad girl, over whom she had no control.

An Expensive Pitcher.

A New York base ball club recently paid $2,500 for a pitcher while you can buy handsome Majolica Pitchers at China Hall for 20c., 25c., and 30c. each, half the usual price, being a job lot of 110 doz., secured at a great bargain.

Gentlemen who have not tried Dack & Son's boots, should try a pair. Leave your orders at Kidd's, where you can get every kind of boots, shoes and slippers.

Oddfellows' Decoration Day.

The Oddfellows will, it is understood, have their usual decoration day about the same date this year as formerly—27th or 28th of June. Committees from both lodges have been appointed to make the necessary arrangements, who will, it is said, hold a joint meeting this evening.

To Avoid Baldness or Grey Hair.

Use Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic. It keeps the scalp clean and free from Dandruff, and promotes the growth of the hair. It prevents premature grayness and stops all falling out of the hair. On bald heads, where the roots have not perished, it will invigorate them and force a new growth of hair. Ask for Hair Magic. It is the only reliable. For sale by J. D. Tully and all druggists.

Duty on Crockery and Glassware.

The new tariff, which takes effect to-day, includes an advance in duty of from 5 to 50% on all kinds of crockery, glassware, silver knives, etc. All new goods must pay this advance. The public should, therefore, buy at once anything needed in these lines from China Hall and save the extra duty, as the goods now in stock will be sold at old prices.

Fine Lawns and All-over Laces for Summer Dresses, at Turnbull's.

Lawn Tennis.

Boating and bicycling shoes, very choice lines, just received at Foot & McWhinnie's.

Right weights, right prices, prompt delivery for all Kinds of Feed, Flour, &c., at BRISBIN'S.

KIDD is selling boots, shoes, slippers, oil polish, etc., at the lowest possible cash price. See if he isn't.

Turnbull's tailoring department is a grand success. Suits made to order from $12 to $30 out of choice patterns.

Important Band Business.

The members of the Fire Brigade Band are requested to meet this evening in the band room, at eight o'clock, without fail. Business of importance requires the attendance of every member. By Order.

Young Men's Meetings.

Messrs. McMullen and Heuck, of the Methodist Conference, will speak at the meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall to-night, at 8 o'clock. Other members of the Conference will take part in the meetings to-morrow at 4 and 8:30 p.m. All young men are cordially invited.

Market Items.

There was a large crowd of people in town to-day, with a consequent big market. Potatoes were plentiful, selling at 90c. per bag. Rhubarb, onions, lettuce, etc., were plenteous. Mutton sold from 7 to 8c., and veal 5 to 7c. per lb. Eggs could not be purchased under 11c. per dozen; butter going at from 13 to 15c. per lb.

Kidd beats them all for low prices and good goods. Ladies button boots, 70c., lace boots 55c., men's long boots, $1.45.

Peterborough or Orangeville?

The employees of the eastern division of the C. P. R. are casting about for a suitable place to hold their annual pic-nic, and are fluctuating between Orangeville and Peterborough. If an effort was made by the town authorities to bring them it would be a big thing, bringing as it would to town three or four train loads of people.

The Jubilee Craze.

There are jubilee hats, and jubilee soap; jubilee crackers and jubilee rope; a jubilee brand of moxie would take all the jubilee pies and jubilee cake; the jubilee world's in a jubilee rave, and everyone's chanting a jubilee, stave, jubilee, jube! But the only jubilee excursion so far advertised is the Masonic Jubilee excursion to Toronto on Thursday, June 9th, via G. T. R. Return fare from Peterborough, $1,75; seven hours in Toronto. For particulars see posters.

Late in the season manufacturers are glad to clear ends of stock at Tremendous Reductions. See the Seamless Hosiery Turnbull is selling 5 pair for 25c. Bought right.

A New Barracks.

The officers of the Salvation Army have purchased the Kingdon property on Simcoe street, opposite Mayor Stevenson's residence, as a site for their new barracks, the price paid being $1,680. The buildings standing thereon will be either sold or torn down. The lot has a frontage of 56 feet, and the barracks will be built of brick, at a cost of $3,500, capable of seating 1000 persons. Possession will be given in 60 days, when work will be at once begun.

A Fine Performance.

A large audience attended Annie Bird's benefit in the Opera House last night, and witnessed the most pleasing entertainment seen in Peterborough for a long time, the presentation of "Fanchon the Cricket" by the Wilson Day Dramatic Co. Little Annie's representation of the difficult role of 'Fanchon,' the sprightly, elfish and true-hearted little maiden, was superb, and she was frequently applauded to the echo. She was the star of the evening, eclipsing even the shining Day himself, who in the character of "Landry," played the ardent lover to perfection. The performance was first-class throughout, unequalled by any popular-priced company that ever struck Peterborough. The characters were all well taken; personal mention would be invidious. A matinee this afternoon, "Bob the Newsboy," Annie's favorite here, and "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room" this evening, the greatest temperance argument ever written, close the weeks' engagement. Popular prices, 10 and 25 cents.

One of the Heaviest Waves of Cheap Dress Goods that ever struck Peterboro' is now on sale at Turnbull's. 40 different patterns to select from, at only 12½c. a yard.

The Queen's Jubilee.

A Fine Programme Prepared for the Celebration.

The programme committee have prepared a fine programme of events for June 21st. The military parade in the foreground is now an assured fact, the officers of the 57th Batt. at their last meeting having decided to turn out as requested. The procession at ten o'clock in the forenoon will occur as originally proposed, the band, military, fire brigade, children and citizens taking part. Patriotic songs such as the national anthem, Rule Britannia, The Red, White and Blue, etc., have been printed by the music committee, and been placed in the hands of the Superintendents of the various Sunday Schools for distribution among the pupils, who will begin practicing them at once. A few united rehearsals of all the children will be held before the day of celebration in the Parlor Roller Rink. It is proposed that the procession shall terminate at the Court House Park, where the choruses shall be rendered, but this matter is open to alteration. In the afternoon, on Riverside Park, a fine programme of athletic sports will be rendered, beginning with a baseball match between the Wm. Hamilton Co.'s and Lock Work's teams, followed by jumping, running, etc., to conclude at 5 p.m. At 6.30 in the evening on Little Lake a regatta will be held, comprising races of every kind, the day's celebration to conclude with a grand illuminated canoe parade. For all the competitions handsome and suitable prizes will be offered. Citizens are requested to make a general decoration of their premises during the day and a general illumination at night. The committees are meeting with every encouragement from the citizens so far, and the celebration cannot but be a grand success. Let there be a spontaneous outburst of loyal expression on June 21st on the part of everyone. When too late to recall the announcement it was found that the meeting of the general committee to be held last night would have to be postponed, but the sub-committees were all prepared to report favorable progress. A meeting will be held at an early date.

The World of Sport.

Local Sporting Events Briefly recorded.

A cricket match between the bankers and lawyers and a team chosen from the rest of the P. A. A. A. club came off yesterday afternoon, which resulted in a draw, much against the "men of money" and their co-adjutors.

The dual side won the toss and batted first; and an innings was played rather curious from the fact that Strathy and Peck contributed no fewer than 79 out of 86, the remaining 11 (13 a side played), contributing only 9. The feature of the innings was Strathy's 68 got in very fine style, by a succession of all-round hits, many of which went for a good deal less than their value, on account of the fences being in the way. Peck played the barn door game (always very useful) with great effect, his eleven being got while Strathy made over 50. For the club, Ray was by far the most successful bowler, seven wickets falling to his share.

For the club, Ray and Sterling batted first, Strathy and Long bowling. The bowling was very good, but by dint of cautious play nearly 50 runs were made before Stirling was run out. Salisbury and Ray stayed until time was called, the score standing 78 for two wickets. Ray played excellent cricket for his 45 (worth much more, but for the fences) as did Stirling and Salisbury for their respective scores.

The idea of having scratch matches on a day other than Saturday is a good one, but we might be allowed to suggest that play should begin a little earlier, that a time should be fixed for drawing stumps, and that all the members engaged should understand that they will be expected to play until "time" is called. There ought to be ample time between 4 and 6.30 to complete one innings each.

This was the most pleasant and successful scratch match played this season, as is shown by the fact that each side numbered 13, while it is generally hard work to scare up 8 or 9 a side. Score:—

The British Empire.

The many patrons, members of the public generally, will be interested in reading a few brief extracts from the fortieth annual report of the Directors of the British Empire Mutual Life Assurance Co'y, held in London, England, 8th April, 1887, for the year ending 31st December, 1886:—

2,444 proposals were received during the year for real assurances, amounting to $5,351,435.00. The new annual premiums payable thereon, exclusive of single premiums, being $168,310. In consideration of $17,014, eight annuities have been granted, for an annual payment of $2,252. The surplus income of the year is $422,668.75. The securities are of the highest class, yielding a large interest. The total income is $1,291,433. The number of policies in force is 18,000 assuring $29,000,000. The mortality experience still continues to be favorable. All deeds and documents relating to the securities have been carefully examined by the auditors, who have also duly certified as to the correctness of the accounts and balance sheet for the year ending 31st December, 1886.

It will be remembered that in the last Annual Report the Directors laid stress upon the question of expenditure, and expressed the confident hope that they would be able to show a reduction in the ratio of expense incurred in the conduct of the Company's business. The members will be gratified to learn that the anticipations of the Directors have been so far fulfilled, that while the business of the year 1886 is considerably in excess of that of the year 1885, the ratio of management expenses to premium income has been reduced by more than two per cent. This must not, however, be considered by any means the limit of the reduction contemplated by the Directors; for they fully expect, as the result of the arrangements they have made, that a still further diminution of expenditure will from time to time be apparent.

Regarding the Canadian business of the Company, the Directors of the Canadian board of management, in their annual report, state that the business has again been very satisfactory.

The actual cash received from new premiums was in excess of 1885; and there is a considerable reduction in the cost of obtaining the business, which, in the face of the excessively keen competition, speaks highly for the esteem in which the Company is held throughout Canada.

All the reserves on outstanding business are deposited with the Receiver-General, thus affording undoubted security.

The amount paid for death claims was $15,000.00, as against $33,000.00 in 1885.

The energy and tact displayed by the Agents and General Agents of the Company in Canada in placing its many advantages before the public, again calls for the hearty thanks of the Directors, and they have only to assure these gentlemen that their interests and the interests of the friends they Assure in this Company shall at all times have their utmost care and attention.

No Company has a more prosperous future before it than the "British Empire;" its business is increasing every year, and is of a very permanent character, which is one of the main secrets of success in Life Assurance.

Its expenses are decreasing, whilst the rate of interest earned on its investments is increasing, owing to the facilities the Company now posses for loaning money in this country.

Every advantage is given to Policyholders to enable them to keep their Policies in force and death claims are paid immediately on proof to the Canadian Board.

The Directors again urge the Policyholders Agents and General Agents, to make known the Company's merits to their friends and the public, that the present year may again be an increase, and a source of satisfaction to all concerned.

This report is signed by the Canadian board of management, viz.:—

The Hon. John Hamilton, (Director Bank of Montreal); James Burnett, (President Montreal Stock Exchange); John Hope, (of John Hope & Co.); A. Murray, (Director Bank of Montreal); Rob's Simms, (of R. Simms & Co.); F. Stancliffe, General Manager. A. A. Browne, M.D., is chief medical officer.

The office is practically a Canadian Company as the entire Canadian business is managed and conducted in Canada, and it has shown such enterprise in meeting the views of the insuring public that it has adopted all the popular plans with safety; its policies have no conditions, and its rates are just as low as the best Canadian Companies, with the additional security of the British or Head Office, which should be a consideration. The Company is represented in Peterborough by Mr. R. E. Henderson, general agent, a hard-working, industrious, obliging agent, always to the fore.

THE ART OF DRESSING NEATLY.

It is customary for the Male Sex to make merry over the fact that a woman wears a great amount of unnecessary fixings.

With equal justice the Fair Sex can retort that men are not by any means exempt from unnecessary dress.

Ask a tailor the use of buttons on the back of a mans coat, and he wont be able to tell you. He'll tell you that they are placed there because they are fashionable.

It is the aim of "The Peoples Cash Store" to always keep up with the fashions, but we prefer the Neat Sensible Styles. Our Fashion Plate is the human body, and we make our Clothing to Fit Neatly and Hang Gracefully.

Experience has taught us what materials are the most serviceable. We import only such Cloth as we know will give satisfactory work.

We aim to dress a man neat, and to dress him well, at a small expense.

Economy in manufacturing, in importing and in conducting our store enables us to offer such Great Bargains, as our Ten Dollar English Tennis Suit, our Eight Dollar Halifax Tweed Suit and our Seventeen Dollar Scotch Tweed Suit.

FROM
J. J. SHEEHY.
I beg to say that contrary to announcements which appeared in the Peterborough papers for the past two months, I do not intend to remove to T. Dolan & Co's Dry Goods Store, nor have I any connections whatever with that establishment. The final arrangements not being satisfactory to me, I withdraw from the projected change, and intend carrying on the Dry Goods business in my usual stand next to Loch's Hat Store.
It is my intention in the future as in the past to show at all seasons nothing but new and fresh goods in the various lines of Dry Goods and Gents' furnishings; and by doing so, hope to retain that confidence, which, I am proud to say, I have enjoyed from the public since commencing business two years ago. d&w

LONDON IS UNEASY.

HINTS OF AN INTENDED ATTACK UPON THE QUEEN.

LONDON, June 4.—An uneasy feeling prevails here concerning the Queen's progress in state from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey on June 21. An impression has somehow got abroad that an attempt will be made on the Queen's life, either on her way to or from the Abbey, and the rumors on the subject have been strengthened by the last of the series of the articles on "Parnellism and Crime" in the Times, wherein it is distinctly stated that we are on the eve of some great catastrophe. Of course every precaution will be taken to guard the Queen from danger.

With reference to the series of articles on Parnellism and Crime in the Times Lord Salisbury will, it is reported, reward the proprietor of the paper, Mr. Walter, with a peerage. The editor, young Mr. Buckle, will, it is reported, receive the honor of knighthood.

Mr. Parnell, who has returned from Bournemouth, appears to be restored to health and fit for the hostilities which are to be resumed on Tuesday next in Parliament.

The Birmingham Conference.

The great conference at Birmingham during the past week has practically resulted in the construction of the Liberal-Unionists as an independent party instead of merely acting as the tail of the Tory party as hitherto. Its political program and constitution resembles, to a certain extent, the Centre party in the French Chamber of Deputies, and the Executive Committee, which has at its command unlimited funds, includes such men as Lord Hartington, Chamberlain, Goschen, Lord Northbrook, Sir Henry James, Huxley, Tyndall and others. It is confidently expected that Lord Randolph Churchill, who last night at Wolverhampton made a violent attack on the Government, will shortly join the new reformed Centre party, carrying in his wake all the members of the Tory party who are desirous of radical reforms. Parliamentary government is likely to be greatly affected by the formation of this new party, which renders the existence of any Government precarious, for instead of the House being, as heretofore, divided into two great camps with a numerically insignificant body of Irish representatives, it is now separated into three great factions, all three of almost equal importance and size.

The Times on Churchill's Speech.

LONDON, June 4.—The Times, commenting on Lord Randolph Churchill's speech at Wolverhampton last night, says: Let Lord Randolph convert his indignation into a steady fire of resolute purpose and mature his plan with patient and sober industry. Then he may become a terror to evil-doers, and some day an opportunity may come for putting his riponed purposes into execution.

Gladstone in Wales.

SWANSEA, June 4.—A monster procession in honor of Mr. Gladstone was held here to-day. Mr. Gladstone with prominent Liberals of Wales occupied a special stand from which he viewed the parade. One hundred thousand Welshmen, wearing rosettes and bearing banners and accompanied by numerous bands, marched past the stand. A contingent from Post-y-Pridd headed the line. Cannon were fired and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The day was clear and bright.

The procession was five hours passing the review stand. After the men had all passed they massed to hear Gladstone, who spoke an hour. He said the waste of time in the House of Commons was due to the fact that the Coercion Bill was badly framed and badly conducted and wanting a basis of facts. It was extravagant and insidious in its objects and totally mismanaged, as well as misconceived. Lord Salisbury's complaint of obstruction was unmanly and effeminate. The fatigued Conservatives would be given longer than the Whitsun holiday. He warned them that they would even be more tired, for it would be impossible to permanently govern Ireland coercively in the light of day and in an atmosphere of freedom.

LARRY'S JUBILEE JUMP.

Donovan Takes a Go Off London Bridge to Show the English What He Can Do.

LONDON, June 4.—Lawrence Donovan, who jumped off Brooklyn Bridge and also off Suspension Bridge at Niagara Falls, to-day jumped from the London Bridge into the Thames. He refused to permit a collection to be taken up, saying the jump was made merely in honor of the Queen's jubilee. His friends to jump, at an early day, off the Clifton Suspension Bridge at Bristol, the highest bridge in England.

RETURN OF CARDINAL GIBBONS.

A Party of Friends Sails Down New York Bay to Welcome Him.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Cardinal Gibbons arrived here to-day on the Umbria. He was met at quarantine by a large party of his friends who went down on the steamer Myndert Starin. The Umbria made the fastest trip on record in this direction, and arrived so early that a Baltimore party which was to meet him couldn't go down the bay. The reception was informal. The Cardinal gave a sort of talk, thanking his friends and telling about the voyage. He refused to talk to the reporters present for publication, saying that his position was a delicate one just now, and when he had something to say to the public he would give it to the press. He greeted the reporters pleasantly, though, and was much amused at their report that it was rumored in the city that he had died on shipboard. This came from the fact that the Umbria's flag outfight as it was being lowered down the bay, and it was thought at quarantine that the flag was at half-mast. The Cardinal went to Archbishop Corrigan's residence, where he will stay to-day.

The Queen Returns Thanks.

CHICAGO, June 4.—In reply to the cablegram sent by the International Sunday School Convention congratulating Queen Victoria on the occasion of her jubilee, the following cablegram was received this morning:

LONDON, June 4/1887.

Mr. Reynolds, President, etc., Chicago:

The Queen thanks the International Sunday School Convention of the United States and Canada for their kind congratulations. PONSONBY.

CONTENTION IN CAMP

O'BRIEN AT VARIANCE WITH THE ANTI-POVERTY CRUSADERS.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The great labor demonstration announced to take place to-night in honor of William O'Brien was a good deal of a fiasco, owing to the fact that the labor people fostered that the cause of Rev. Dr. McGlynn be approvingly introduced into the resolutions to be adopted at the Union-square meeting, and that Henry George's land theories should also be advocated. When O'Brien looked through the resolutions he erased Dr. McGlynn and the George land theory topics, especially those which spoke of the "persecution" of McGlynn. Then he sent them back to the committee that prepared them. The committee became excited, and had an extended wrangle over what should be done. Lawyer Louis F. Post, on the card to introduce Mr. O'Brien at the meeting, declared that he would not attend the meeting unless the resolutions were read in the original shape. The following was then agreed upon:

Resolved, By the working people of New York, in mass meeting assembled, that we welcome William O'Brien to our city and square him of our assembly with his brethren in America. We abhor the system of robbery by which Lord Lansdowne grows rich at the expense of the impoverished people, we denounce the cruelty of expelling tenants from the soil on which they were born, and condemn those laws which, by treating the land of Ireland as private property, make such robbery and cruelty possible. The land of Ireland belongs of right to the people of Ireland, and in the struggle against them we recognize the same irreconcilable conflict between the natural right and the unjust wrong in which we in this country are engaged. Resolved, That we welcome with sympathy and joy the progress of the revolution in Great Britain, inspired by men like Parnell, Davitt and O'Brien, and led by Gladstone, which gives promise to Ireland of a government based, not upon force, but upon the will of the people, under which private ownership in land shall be abolished in the gifts of nature and nature's God be equally enjoyed by all.

Resolved, That the proclaim to the God-given right of every people to govern themselves without any foreign control, dictation or guardianship, and that we denounce the bill for the coercion of Ireland now pending in the British Parliament and the threat of summoning certain leads from Ireland to London as a patriotic American priest who has favored the "Irish revolution" as meriting the condemnation of liberty-loving men the world over.

Resolved, That we denounce the brutality exhibited toward O'Brien in Canada, by ruffians acting under the encouragement of the "saviors of society" there, as an interference with the right of free speech and an attempt by lawless violence to shield one of England's lords of earth from the contempt with which the exposure of his cruelty and plundering must inspire humane and honest men.

Resolved, That in the further prosecution of his mission against the iniquity of landlordism, Mr. O'Brien has the sincere sympathy and earnest co-operation of the working people of New York, whose hands are ever ready and their hearts willing to help in the struggle of the disinherited of earth for their rights as citizens and their birthright as men.

Later, when O'Brien learned that John McMackin, who presided over the lectures delivered by P. J. Tynan, the alleged "No. 1" of Phœnix Park murder notoriety, was to preside at the Union-square meeting, he at once resolved to have nothing to do with any assembly that countenanced McMackin, and made his resolve known. The committee, however, determined to throw over O'Brien rather than McMackin, who conducted Henry George's campaign last fall. The result was O'Brien did not appear either in the parade or at the meeting. The parade was long in starting, owing to the want of understanding. The different organizations formed on either side of Fifth avenue and waited for the signal to start, until many people thought they would never move. At last they got off, and 10,000 processionists moved down the avenue, headed by the Sixty-ninth Regiment Band, to the platform.

In the square, where the meeting was held and the speeches made, was assembled at least 20,000 people, among them many women. On the plazas of the cottage facing the plaza at the upper end of the square were Dr. McGlynn, John McMackin, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the United Labor party of this city; Dr. Edward Malone, State delegate of the Irish National League; Rev. C. P. McCarthy, and Mrs. MacGahan, widow of the late war correspondent.

McMackin, who presided, delivered the opening speech. He said the land of Ireland, as that of all other lands, was the gift of the Creator to His children, and could not by any law be made the property of individuals.

James P. Archibald, who next spoke, said that if O'Brien had any feeling in common with the people he would never have insulted the labor party by refusing to speak on the same platform as John McMackin.

Dr. McGlynn, who was loudly cheered on rising to speak, said they had assembled to greet O'Brien not as a man or an individual for many of them know little about him and cared less for his mere personality, but for the sake of the cause he represented. If O'Brien had been so ill-advised they could not blame him as they did those who advised him. It was a shocking thing, after having been honored by the invitation of the United Labor party, the Knights of Labor and the Central Labor Union, to dare to dictate to them and scratch and cross out portions of the resolutions. The message they wished to send to the people of Ireland was one of sympathy with their wrongs.

After Dr. McGlynn's speech the resolutions were read and adopted. Speeches were also made by Rabbi Browne, Rev. Chas. P. McCarthy, Mrs. Margarette Moore and others.

Henry George sent a letter saying that a previous engagement prevented his presence at the meeting, and adding that he did not sympathize with the Home Rule movement, as it stopped short of what the Irish people should have—the possession of the land.

O'Brien Explains His Position.

NEW YORK, June 4.—O'Brien has written for the Sun the following statement of his reasons for not appearing at the demonstration:

I most deeply regret that anything should occur which prevents me from expressing in person my gratitude to the working classes of New York for the loyal and hearty service I am quite sure they intended to render to the cause of Ireland by their demonstration to-night. I was forced to abstain from participation in the proceedings, because the only alternative left me was to inflict what I knew would be a deadly blow at the movement in which the happiness of our people during the present generation is bound.

When it was first intimated to me by wire that the workers of New York desired to honor our cause in my person, I was not sufficiently acquainted with the facts to be aware that the proposal proceeded from any particular organization. I should have accepted the honor with equal readiness, however, had I known that it represented the desire of so influential a body of American workmen as the Labor Union, but only on the condition on which I have insisted before, accepting any mark of favor whatever from any other American organization of whatever party or color. The condition, namely, that their action should be directed solely to the service of the Irish cause and should in no manner increase the difficulties of our people, already sufficiently cruel, by embroiling us in American issues, and so estranging that sympathy of the American nation in its integrity, which is one of the most anchors of our success.

I waited in my hotel throughout the forenoon of Friday in the hope that the committee of the labor parade would do me the courtesy to acquaint me with their arrangements. As I received no communication from them in the afternoon I wired McQuaid, requesting the committee to favor me with an interview. He, with two other Irish gentlemen, answered my telegram in person and throughout the whole proceedings acted with the utmost candor and friendliness and heartfelt interest in the Irish cause.

I found the gentlemen nominated to preside and present an address of welcome to me, one whose choice, for reasons which I must decline to discuss, had fallen in no degree apply to his office as President of the Labor Union or the United Labor party, would be used to give color to the malignant representations of the Times, and would involve the most calamitous results for our movement. The deputation seemed to acquiesce heartily in the reasonableness of my objection and gave me to understand that the nomination would be set aside. They assented readily, also to my suggestion that I should have opportunity of perusing the proposed resolutions. Later in the evening Mr. Quaid called on me with the resolutions and handed me a blue lead pencil with an invitation to excise or add to anything that seemed to me to require correction.

I found two of the resolutions distinctly characterized our movement as one to abolish private property in land and sought to identify it with the American movement with that object. I pointed out that this was in direct contravention of the objects of the Irish National League and would inevitably be used to entangle us in American issues. I suggested some reserve which would remove the objection and confine resolutions to the object of the demonstration of pure sympathy for Ireland, which was tendered by the committee and accepted by me.

McQuaid accepted the amendments with the fullest assurance that they would be indorsed by the committee, and he promised that a decision would be communicated to me early Saturday.

I was left in ignorance of the committee's decision until 7.45 o'clock, when the deputation, consisting of Thomas, Post and Dunn—two of them, I believe, new listeners—came to the hotel and announced that no change could be made in the chairmanship, and that any proposed changes in the resolutions would not be accepted. Under the circumstances I intimated that, after most serious consideration, I felt reserved in the interests of the Irish cause to decline participation in the demonstration.

O'Brien Denounced.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A stormy meeting of the Central Labor Union was held to-day. Resolutions were adopted denouncing Editor O'Brien for his action.

A SHAKY CABINET.

THE ROUVIER MINISTRY MAY FALL ANY DAY.

LONDON, June 4.—M. Rouvier's Cabinet is leading a precarious kind of hand to mouth existence, and may fall any day. Forced to rely for its working majority on the Monarchical right side of the Chamber, it has necessarily to humor and obscure the wishes of those enemies of the republic on every occasion. In fact it has to purchase their consent to every measure which it wishes to pass. Thus the Monarchists have only consented to support the Government's action with reference to the Army Bill on the condition that all theological students are exempted from military services. It is needless to add that such a Cabinet is not likely to inspire confidence in any one, least of all to the Republican majority of the French population. However, the Administration is safe for a few weeks, for if it is defeated President Grevy will dissolve the Chamber. Three or four weeks would then undoubtedly elapse before the new general elections could take place. It is needless to add that the next Cabinet, whether it be headed by De Freycinet or Clemenceau, will necessarily include Gen. Boulanger.

Feeling at Berlin.

BERLIN, June 4.—Since the divisions in the French Chambers have shown that the Right intends to give a solid vote for the Moderates, the North German Gazette, the Kreuz Zeitung and other Government organs are brimming over with articles rejoicing in the prospects of peace, and evince an optimistic tone generally. The advices from the German Embassy in Paris are reported to be of a less hopeful tenor now regarding the length of existence of the Rouvier Ministry, but no note of distrust in its stability is allowed to be heard in the official press. It is assumed that the spirit of Chauvinism is for a long time at rest with the retirement of Gen. Boulanger, and that peace is assured for an equally long time.

The leading motive of these pacific utterances, it is asserted, is not a desire to cultivate better relations with France but to make a resumption of the entente with Russia more easy. Prince Bismarck aims to renew the alliance of the three Emperors and hopes to send the entente by a specific treaty which would make a firmer understanding between Germany, Austria and Russia than existed under the last alliance, for which a treaty, though drawn up, was never signed.

A high official of the Government here was asked for how long a time peace was secured. His answer was: "For this year, and if the Czar meets the two Emperors in the autumn and consents to sign a treaty of alliance, probably for five years."

THE TWELVE DAYS' DRILL.

The Militia Department Issues the General Orders—Of Interest to Volunteers.

The Militia Department has issued general orders regulating the annual drill of 1887-88. The orders are lengthy and go into the details of the drill very minutely. Among other things the orders say:

The maximum number of officers, non-commissioned officers and men to receive pay for drill in each district will be:

Military District No.	1	2270
"	2	1426
"	3	1261
"	4	1262
"	5	2319
"	6	1249
"	7	1657
"	8	1404
"	9	2212
"	10	623
"	11	995
"	12	444
		20,295

The strength of corps authorized to drill at their local headquarters in each district is to be deducted from the total strength authorized for drill in the district, the remainder will represent the number which may be concentrated in a camp of exercise.

A Company Infantry School Corps will join the camp at St. Andrews, N. B., C Company the camp at Niagara, Ont., and a two-gun detachment from A Battery will join the camp at Kingston. As these are paid as permanent corps they will be in addition to the strength authorized for districts 3, 5 and 6, but will not be included for drill pay.

City corps (excepting field batteries of artillery and such companies as belong to rural battalions of infantry) may be permitted to perform twelve days of annual drill at their local headquarters at such times, prior to Dec. 1, 1887, as may be most convenient.

Any city company which forms part of a rural battalion, can only be permitted to drill for pay in case it is selected for, and performs such drill in camp with the battalion to which it belongs.

Selections to be made from rural corps of the different arms in each district in proportion as their strength bears towards each other. Those not drawn for drill last year to be first taken.

The following will be the staff of each camp of exercise: In command, unless otherwise ordered, the Deputy Adjutant General of the district, 1 brigade major, 1 supply officer, 1 camp quartermaster, 1 instructor of musketry, 1 principal medical officer, and 6 staff non-commissioned officers.

The five batteries of artillery at Niagara will be brigaded under the command of the inspector of artillery—Staff: One brigade major and 2 R.C. corps, and the 3 batteries and the 7 gun detachment artillery at the camps at Kingston will be brigaded under the assistant inspector of artillery at that station.

The places and dates for the several camps are:

District No. 1,	London	June 16
"	2, Niagara	June 14
"	3, Kingston	June 21
"	4, Ottawa	June 21
"	5, Granby (Que.)	June 21
"	6, Laprairie (Que.)	June 21
"	7, Levis (Que.)	July 5
"	8, St. Andrews (N.B.)	June 21
"	9, Aldershot	Sept.

No officer or man will be allowed to live or sleep out of camp, except by permission of the officer commanding the camp (who should invariably live in camp himself), which should only be granted on a special case.

Only one Union Jack should be flown in a camp, and that in front of the tent of the officer commanding, which should be hoisted at seven o'clock each morning. Regimental may use red bannerolles with their number or badge thereon—the commanding officer having a larger bannerolle in front of his tent.

The wives, female friends, or children of officers or men are not to be lodged within the lines of any camp of instruction.

City and other corps which drill under the regulations for city corps will receive the net pay of their respective ranks.

The commanding officer of each camp will be allowed $6, and each other officer on the authorized strength of the staff of a camp of exercise will be allowed $2.50 per diem in camp in lieu of subsistence, together with free forage and $1 per diem for one horse if a horse is required and used by him in the discharge of his duties as a mounted officer.

Each non-commissioned officer on the authorized strength of the staff of a camp will be paid an allowance of 50 cents per diem in addition to pay of rank, in lieu of rations.

The officers, non-commissioned officers and men of each corps as drill in camps of exercise will be paid for each day's drill the net pay of their respective ranks as laid down in paragraph 256 and 257 of the regulations and orders for 1883. For horses of mounted officers and corps $1 per diem, in addition to the free rations (for officers, non-commissioned officers and men) as laid down in paragraph 766, and free forage (for horses) as laid down in paragraph 787 of the regulations and orders, 1883. If straw is not required its equivalent in value of either hay or oats may be issued instead if required.

A HORRIBLE AFFAIR.

A Michigan Man, Jealous of His Wife, Cuts Her Head Off With a Knife.

OWOSSO, June 4.—One of the most terrible murders ever heard of in this county was committed last night in the Township of Middlebury. The victims were one Holmes, a well-to-do farmer living there, and his domestic, Mrs. Dan Fulton, who but a couple of weeks ago had married Daniel, but still remained as housekeeper for Holmes. Dan grew rather jealous of the actions of his wife and Holmes and protested, but to no avail, and was finally ordered to make his visits to Holmes' place less numerous.

This greatly angered Fulton, who claims that he found his wife and Holmes in a compromising situation, whereupon he procured a large butcher knife and started on the war path, seeking vengeance. He demanded an audience and was met at the door by his wife, whom he pounced upon, striking her with the knife and severing her head from the body. Holmes interfered, when Fulton turned on him, slashing him seven times, disemboweling him. He then made his escape to the woods. It was not long until the neighbors learned of the terrible affair and gave pursuit, and sent to Owosso for Deputy Sheriff Van Grison. The chase was kept up all night, when Fulton was finally captured, but not until he had cut his own throat from ear to ear. He was lodged in the County Jail. His chance for life is very slim, as the wound is probably fatal.

ANOTHER SHUFFLE AND A NEW DEAL.

The feelings of the Dominion Government in respect to the Trent Valley Navigation scheme are subject to sudden and violent changes. The thermometer is at present down in the neighborhood of zero, and even the mutual friends of the government and the scheme have lost hope. The Common's member for West Peterborough is in a most despondent condition, so much so that he has committed himself in writing, as witness the following correspondence which the Government's mouth-piece and apologist "has been requested to publish":—

OTTAWA, May 20th, 1887.

Hon. J. H. Pope, Minister of Railways and Canals:

DEAR SIR,—Will you oblige me with stating the determination of the Government with respect to pressing forward the construction of the Trent Valley Canal?

A number of Deputations have been appointed to wait on the Government and to urge the immediate progress of the work.

I remain, very truly yours,
J. STEVENSON.

OTTAWA, May 31st, 1887.

MY DEAR STEVENSON,—I have your note of yesterday, in which you urge an appropriation of money for the extension and continuation of the Trent Valley Canal, and also state that you are very anxious about the matter and that you hope the Government will press the work forward.

I have to say, in reply, that, inasmuch as I would like to meet your views respecting this matter, I will press on the work, so far as already begun, to completion this season if possible. In so far as the balance of the work on the Trent Valley Canal is concerned, I have to say that, before proceeding further, we will, after the session, send on a commission to report fully upon the whole matter.

Hoping this may meet your approval,
I remain, my dear sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. H. POPE.

J. Stevenson, Esq., M.P., House of Commons.

This indicates a serious state of affairs and confronts "my dear Stevenson," with quite a different attitude recently assumed, compared to the wilted despondency of the terms of the above letter. All through the last Dominion Election contest he was in a condition of hilarous hopefulness and cocky assurance. He was especially sanguine on the night of February 22nd. That night in the Opera House, as reported in the local Tory organ, Mr. Stevenson, referring to the attitude of the government towards the Trent Navigation scheme, said that:

"The Minister of Public Works had given him ('My Dear Stevenson') every assurance that the Trent Valley Canal contract between Peterborough and Lakefield would be let during the coming summer. This was no electioneering dodge, because the elections were now all over. (Cheers.) He hoped next summer to see thousands of men employed in and about Peterborough."

"Thousands of men employed"—the "thousands of employed" will be represented by a few Tory wire pullers, who are engineering deputations to go to Ottawa to compel the government to take another tack in the course of persistent official lying they have done in respect of this work. Hon. Mr. Pope, however, has apparently begun to tell the truth in this matter—he "will press the work, so far as already begun, to completion this season." That is because he can't prevent its completion; it is under contract and the contractor will see that it is finished. Small thanks for that "promise", Mr. Pope. He doubtless also tells the truth when he practically asserts that the Government has abandoned the scheme, as implied in the threat to send a commission "to report fully upon the matter". We don't want any commissions; we know all about it, without wasting any more public money in paying a few Tory party hacks, in the thin disguise of a commission, to report upon a scheme which the government has had under survey for five years, and which Sir Charles Tupper, in the name of the Government, solemnly pledged the Government to carry out.

Put your little deputations on the shelf. The scheme is "squelched" for the present—turned over to the tedious, tender mercy of a commission, which will be ready to report just before another election, and then, hooray! more promises, more lies to delude the gullible electors of the Midland district. Hon. Mr. Pope, who, by the way, needed no "commission" when he was robbing the public chest to build his private and personal railway, hopes the commission idea "will meet with your ("My dear Stevenson's") approval." Of course it will meet his approval. The member for West Peterborough for appearance's sake, may prance around a little but not violently enough to "kick" over the traces. Conservatives sometimes kick a little, but are always "loaded up the right way" by the time the next vote takes place. He will go on supporting through thick and thin—especially "thin" the Dominion Government, which has hoodwinked, deluded, deceived, lied to, trifled with, and outraged Mr. Stevenson's constituents, and the people of the Midland district, in the matter of the Trent Valley Canal for years. This last shuffle—this new deal—is a settler. Whatever else of omission the Government has been guilty of in respect to the Trent Valley Canal, they are more peccadilloes beside this proposed sin of "commission."

Ordained to the Ministry.

Ordination Services in the George Street Church—Six Young Men made Ministers—A Fine Sermon.

"Take thou authority to preach the word of God, and to administer His holy sacrament in the congregation. Amen."

Those were the words which finally admitted into the ministry of the Methodist church the six young men who had successfully passed their ministerial examination, and whose ordination in the George street church, Sunday morning, was witnessed by an immense congregation. The edifice was filled as it has seldom been before. The ceremony of ordination was performed after the sermon by Rev. John Learoyd, President of the Bay of Quinte Conference. Inside the alter railing were seated the chairmen of the several districts which compose the conference; on the platform were Rev. Dr. Nelles, who preached the ordination sermon; Rev. Mr. Learoyd, President; Rev. J. S. Clarke, ex-President, and others.

At the conclusion of the sermon the ordination ceremonies were begun. The candidates, Messrs. G. Carpender, M. E. Wilson, H. V. Mousseer, Wm. H. Beckler, Darius S. Houck, and M. D. Drew, were formally introduced to Rev. Mr. Learoyd as young men who had successfully passed their examinations and wished to become ministers of the Gospel. After prayer and Scripture readings, the President made them a short address, charging them with the responsibility of the office they were about to assume, and urging them to ever remain true and perform their duties faithfully. A number of questions were read them, pertaining to the beliefs they held, which they answered in concert, and after further reading and prayer, the President said to each of the candidates in succession, who knelt around the alter rail, at the same time placing his hands and the hands of several of the ministers around on the head of the receiver:—

"The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Ghost for the office and work in the church of God now committed to thee by the imposition of our hands, and be thou a faithful dispenser of the Word of God and of his holy sacrament, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost." To this all the ministers responded "Amen."

Then came the final charge:—"Take thou authority to preach," etc., the President following with a brief prayer asking the divine blessing and guidance on the newly ordained ministers. The pronunciation of the benediction closed the morning's services.

THE SERMON

was preceded by the usual devotional exercises, the opening prayer by ex-president Rev. J. S. Clarke being particularly affecting, his touching references to our good Queen Victoria and her long and useful life echoing the loyal sentiments of the large congregation.

Rev. Dr. NELLES chose for his text the following passages:—

One generation passeth away and another cometh; but the earth abideth forever.—Ecclesiastes, 1, 4.

I sent you to reap that whereon ye best vved no labor; other men labored, and ye are entered into their labors.—John 4, 38.

It might be said that there was always something in history which is passing away. It is not only the flowers that fade, not only the leaves that fall, but men also die and are buried. Generations of men are to-day like the leaves in summer; to-morrow like the leaves in the fall, bitten by the winter's frost and trampled under foot. Men can only tread on mother earth by treading on the ashes of their forefathers. In the words of the wise man, one generation of men passes away, and another generation rises in its place. Nations die—and die the quicker if they receive not the Gospel of Christ, which is the only salvation of individuals or nations. Go and stand upon the shores of the Mediterranean and recall the scenes of history. You cannot see them, you cannot hear them, but by the eye of imagination can they be discerned. Once Carthage flourished there, but now only can be heard the howling of the wild beasts and the bleating of the serpents among its ruins. There is Egypt still, calling to mind the passage, "men may come and men may go, but I remain forever." There are the pyramids and the tales Greece—the eternal sun of summer gilds them yet, but all except their sun has not. And proud Tyre—fishermen spread their nets to-day upon the deserted ruins to dry. Palestine, Palmyra, Nineveh, Babylon and Troy, and those old buried cities where men to-day acquire renown by exploring their sites—these are a few instances of the truth of the text—"One generation passes away, but another generation cometh." But there is in human history an imperishable element—something that lives on, and on, and does not die. There is something that is ever about us and with us. The labors of the past do not die—they are left as an eternal heritage, to reap benefits to the mind, the soul and the body. "Other men have labored, and ye have entered into their labors."

First, there is the labor of faith. There is no power in the world like the power of faith. It is not a new power—it was in force long before our time; when the population of the earth was scanty, and men had no means of instruction except through the eye of faith. It remains with vision undimmed when the eyes of science go out in darkness. When the microscope cannot aid any more in unravelling the mysteries of nature, behold there emerges this wonderful light of faith. In the lives of the apostles, patriarchs and prophets of old, walking by faith night and day, is this glorious power exemplified. It was for us that Abraham, the father of the faithful, went out in faith, that the blessing of God might be conferred on the Gentiles. It was for his people that Moses had the faith that made him their great leader, and which enabled him to trample down all temptations. The ten commandment came down from Moses, and their influence is felt in most of the legislation of the day, and it is to be hoped in all our hearts. There came a time later in the history of the Jewish people, when three Jewish youths, inspired by their glorious faith, were enabled to stand up and confront the frowns and threats of the oppressor and walk firmly into the fiery furnace. When John the Baptist confronted the oppressor it must have been from the same principle, and when the first martyr, midst the shower of stones that bruised his body and destroyed his life, lifted up his eyes and saw the angels of God, it was the inspiring effect of this same spirit of faith. And what more should be said about the apostles, the martyrs and brave men like Luther? The examples of their conduct in hours of trial and temptation should sustain us in our hours of lighter trial. Their beautiful characters are echoing music to to the sons of men to-day. Let our weaker hearts take courage by the examples of these worthies of other days.

Again, there are the labors of the men of thought. It was not necessary to figure much to connect this productive germinating power with faith. They were interwoven in every aspect and under every condition. In the Bible will be found great, eternal thoughts, conceptions of God, and man, and eternity, without which cannot be found the key of this great enigma of humanity. Take two examples of great conceptions, the one the great idea of the fatherhood of God. You don't find it outside the Bible. It is from the Bible that that great idea which has so long prevailed and is prevailing to-day, emanated. The other conception is the brotherhood of man. God has made of one blood all nations that dwell on the earth. The thought of the universal fatherhood of man and the universal brotherhood of man was thundered forth by Paul, on the hill of Mars to the Athenians, who, fond of new things as they were, heard this grand conception for the first time. That single thought of Paul's lifted its thunder tones in Congress, and was felt during all that terrible war of emancipation which devastated the United States. The principle of brotherhood triumphed as all great Gospel perceptions are destined to triumph, until the world shall be turned to Christ. The thought of God was everywhere visible in this world. There are people who can't serve God because they have not the Gospel. Some are debarred by physical barriers and those of circumstance from the privileges of the Gospel, but let us hope that all will one day yield to its benign influence and become children of God. Every great truth that man is able to implant in the mind of his brother—thoughts touching the brotherhood of man, the fatherhood of God, or some thought of political economy or moral improvement, will re-echo in the halls of legislation and redound to his benefit.

Then there are men of action. Men of thought and faith may be men of action, but there is a class especially men of action. We to-day have an heirloom of freedom and constitutional liberty, the result of the labors of great statesmen and warriors from the time of Greece. Their blood is in our veins, their activities, their heroisms are about us now in this happy peaceful land. They never die, but roll on as endless stream of beneficence to the future generations. Other men fought, other men bled, other men died, and we have entered into their labors. There is one event in the history of Canada in which that sort of heroism was displayed, the taking of Quebec. The welfare of British North American hung in the balance. It was not a battle of two nations—it was a battle of principle, to decide the weal or woe of millions of people who live in this country. Rev. Dr. Nelles narrated the thrilling details connected with the death of Wolfe on the plains of Abraham, and the capture of the Quebec citadel, so well known to all Canadians. It was that hour of heroic struggle that preserved to this country the freedom and progress of the British Empire.

The pioneer preachers who labored in the early history of this country were men of faith, men of earnest thought. They labored under disadvantages which the ministers of the present day cannot understand. In that olden time the people thirsted after the knowledge of God, and went many miles to hear the Word preached. To these pioneers the people of this land today are indebted for fruit of labor which cannot be measured. They built this church indirectly; they fought alone, they were despised, but they went on and proclaimed the gospel until this country became a stronghold of Christianity. Thank God for them. (Amen.) "It will be the sadness of my heart," said Rev. Dr. Nelles, "to the day of my death, if I have been instrumental in injuring any of the grand institutions inaugurated by these men. Let us stick to the old pioneer grace, keep to the old Methodist religion; let us stand by our missionary and Sabbath school cause, and let us stand by Victoria University wherever or in whatever form it may be. Let us be true to ourselves and our religion until we shall be called into the reward of the faithful."

At the conclusion of the sermon Mrs. W. Daly sang a solo in sweet voice, after which the ordination took place.

Astonishing Success

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung disease. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it, sample bottles to try, only 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and dealers, in the United States and Canada. sodw4

A BOON FOR PETERBOROUGH

GOUGH

THE BIG CLOTHIER, determines to carry no unseasonable goods over, and in order to make room for his Immense Fall Stock, which is now in process of manufacture, proposes organizing

The Most Gigantic Sale ever offered to the People of Peterborough.

This gigantic Sale will take place commencing WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1st, 1887, and will continue for the following 20 days only, when I will offer any and all of my big stock, at Wonderfully Reduced Prices.

Bear in mind, GOUGH never yet advertised anything he did not do; nor will he in this instance, a fact you will all be convinced of the first day of this Grand Sale.

Some designing dealers ask the question, why pay $12.00 for a Worsted Suit that they sell for $8.50. Gough repudiates the assertion. This boasted Worsted Suit is nearly ALL COTTON, and as a guarantee to what I herein state is true, I will forfeit $1000 if I cannot prove it; I challenge a contradiction. Gough's regular price for this boasted $8.50 suit is $7.50.

I ask the attention of a discriminating public particularly to this Great Sale, and if they don't find it straight-forward, honorable and bona-fide, then brand me as a Cheap Side Store, and not the Great Forepaugh I claim to be.

TORONTO, June 6.

Toronto received its first whitewash this season at the hands of the Hamilton team on Saturday afternoon at Dundurn Park. Of the 2000 spectators present two-thirds went mostly wild over the home players' victory and the other third, who went by the excursion from this city, mourned for the visitors' defeat. Score:

Edward Hanlan at Home.

Edward Hanlan returned to the city on Saturday morning from Chicago. He was seen by a reporter last evening and his remarks may be briefly summarized: "I have no excuses to make for my defeat at Pullman. I attribute it to the fact that I was not properly boated." The shell in which he rowed was not suited for the rough water which was met with upon the return of the carsmen from the turning buoy, whilst Gaudaur's, a bigger boat, rode the waves like a ship. Mr. Hanlan intends remaining in Toronto for a few days, and will then go to Nantasket Beach to train for his next race with Gaudaur. He proposes leaving for Australia in August.

Another International League.

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 5.—Owing to the fact that the Lockport team and also the London team were not admitted into the International League at the recent meeting held in this city, the managers of those clubs are arranging matters so as to form another International League, to be composed as follows: London, Ont.; Guelph, Ont.; St. Thomas, Ont.; Lockport, N.Y.; Oneida, N.Y., and Elmira, N.Y., with the possibility of two other cities coming in that are now under consideration. Two of the players of the Lockport Club have been released, and it is the intention of Manager Kingsley to strengthen the team.

Worth Remembering.

Mrs. T. Dean, of Harrisonville, Ont., was for a long time troubled with neuralgia of stomach. Failing to find benefit from her physicians, she tried Burdock Blood Bitters from which she found speedy relief, to which she testifies, hoping it may prove beneficial to others. Many physicians recommend B. B. B. 2w22d

Music To-Night.

In the Court House Park this evening until 8:30, the Fire Brigade Band will hold a final rehearsal of the selections to be rendered in the band competition at Bowmanville, on Wednesday, in which they take part. The band leaves on the 8:50 G. T. R. train for Port Hope, where they will stop over night and proceed to Bowmanville next day. This arrangement is made necessary on account of the poor railway connection.

Sunday Services.

Sunday's services in all the churches were attended by unusually large congregations. In each of the Methodist Churches the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the close of the evening service, and the schools addressed in the afternoon by several of the visiting clergymen; love-feast was held in the George street church in the morning, and in the afternoon at the Opera House. A well attended gospel temperance meeting was held. The sermons were all by distinguished preachers and were well worthy of lengthly reports, particularly that of Dr. Nelles, (a condensed report of whose ordination sermon appears in another column) but our limited space will not permit of it. The brilliant array of ministerial talent, selected from the best in the conference, distributed among the various pulpits of the town—Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist—drew immense congregations to all the churches.

Conference Curiosities.

Methodist ministers are by no means glum ascetics. They enjoy a joke even at their own expense or that of a brother of the cloth. On Friday a reverend gentleman rose to address the assembled sanctity, and wishing to secure harmony of feeling as the best way of securing a facilis descensus to the clerical crumenam, he pointed out that they were all members of one family, all looked alike. "For instance" said he "the brother beside me and myself look alike; we both part our hair the same way"—The heads of both men, save for a circumferential fringe of hair, were as bald as a bullet. Of course there was a roar of laughter, again and again renewed, every member was alike—laughing. He had no trouble carrying his point, all the clerical brethren felt alike and everybody will be alike on Thursday next, June 9th and purchase a ticket for the Masonic excursion to Toronto, the only first and only best excursion of the season. Round trip tickets only $1.75. First-class cars, first class arrangements and seven hours in Toronto.

Court House Park.

It is a keen Blade that keeps the Court House Park in trim. Mr. Sidney Blade who has been given charge of the park has proved a wise selection. The park is kept in an exceedingly neat and beautiful condition. The recent rains have turned the smooth shaven sward to a greenness like unto the greenness of Ireland. The flower beds are also well arranged and kept. The big central bed is a blaze of concentric bloom and in the beds that flank the main walk the Jubilee year is remembered. In the bed on the left hand side are the royal crown and the letters "V. R.," beautifully traced in vari-colored plants of alternanthera argifolia. As a complement to this bed is one on the right hand, decorated with similar vegetative literature—with the words "50 years," or as Mr. Blade, with pardonable pride, explains to inumerable questions, the significance of the initial and other letters, "Victoria reigneth fifty years." The crown of course explains itself and the stars that adorn the first bed are stated by Mr. Blade to be the ensigns of the late Prince Albert—the whole forming a very appropriate series of designs for the Jubilee year. Altogether the park is excellently kept and if the public would give their help, the work of keeping it in order would be much easier. But school children and others who frequent the park at noon hour or during the day leave the grass littered with lunch paper and other papers, and it requires about an hour's work to pick up the refuse that litters the park by evening.

"What shall I do for this distressing Cough?" Try Hagyard's Pectorial Balsam; It is soothing and healing to the throat and lungs, and loosens the tough mucous that renders breathing difficult or painful. 2w23d

THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Annual Meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference.

MONDAY, June 6th.

MORNING SESSION.

After the usual devotional exercises, and the reading of the minutes, a resolution, moved by Rev. J. C. Wilson, seconded by Rev. A. C. Wilson, was passed making the 15th of May the close of the ecclesiastical year for the Bay of Quinte Conference.

Rev. Dr. NELLES, Chancellor Victoria University, addressed the Conference in reference to Victoria College and its work. The college had enjoyed a remarkably good year, especially in view of the unsettled status of the University. The attendance had been larger than usual. The number of degrees conferred at last convocation totalled 126, the head of the annual list. The matriculating class class was also larger, a fact not due to any lowering of the standard of the curriculum, which was now the same as that of the provincial university. Religious subjects had been introduced into the arts course. A considerable number of medical graduates —24—were from a Roman Catholic medical school in Montreal. The graduates roll of the college amounted to 2219 of which over 500 were in arts. The character of the religious work of the college the past two years was very gratifying, and there had not been occasion to call a meeting of the faculty during the year for discipline (applause.) The college had never stood so high in public estimation as to-day, (hear, hear) and the speaker asserted that no university in the province, though better equipped and endowed, had done better and more fully rounded work than Victoria. (Applause). During the year there had been a remarkable revival of religion in Cobourg, and nearly all the students came under its influence. The work was conducted by Rev. Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, who were warmly commended for work on the circuits. Respecting the financial condition, the speaker said that Mr. Geo. A. Cox, burmar, reported the deficit less than one half of the deficit of last year, and he had hopes that it would be shortly wiped out. The total endowment amounted to $169,948 and the annual income was $19,996, and last year's income from fees was $5,175. The improved financial condition of the institution was largely due to Mr. Geo. A. Cox, who had kindly taken the position of Bursar and had had one of his book-keepers take charge of the books free of charge, at a saving of $400 per year, and it was pointed out that the great financial ability of Mr. Cox gave a confidence to the church and the public, and greatly facilitated the progress of financial work. Rev. Dr. Nelles explained his position on the Confederation question; he had tried to loyally carry out the decision of the General Conference, he had done all he could to re-inforce the efforts of the General Secretary and he would continue to do so, but he agreed with Mr. Cox that it would not be wise to be set down in Queen's Park without an adequate financial provision. (Applause.)

On motion of Rev. J. B. CLARKSON seconded ny Rev. F. H. WALLACE, a motion was adopted thanking Chancellor Nelles for hi address and expressing a determination to second his efforts in behalf of the College.

On motion of Rev. J. S. CLARK, seconded by Rev. Dr. BREDIN, the Conference expressed its appreciation of Rev. Dr. Nelles' Ordination sermon on Sunday, and requested the publication of it.

The report of the Board of Examiners was read by Rev. W. H. Emsley and adopted.

The balloting for the ministerial representative on the Central Board of Missions resulted in the selection of Rev. M. L. Pearson.

REV. WM. JOHNSON read the report of the committee on Conference relations, recommending the superannuation of Rev. Dr. Bredin, Rev. Hiram Williams, Rev. J. W. Andrews. The report was adopted.

On motion of Rev. J. S. CLARK, seconded by Rev. J. B. CLARKSON, the Conference by a standing vote expressed appreciation of Dr. Bredin's valuable services to the church both in his pastoral relations and as an official of the church and regretted his retirement from the active work of the ministry.

Rev. Dr. BREDIN replied briefly, setting forth his deep sense of the kindly expressions of appreciation, and pointing out, as a remarkable coincidence, that 44 years ago he performed the first work of his ordained ministry in the place—Peterborough—where he now laid down the weapons of actual service.

After the benediction by the president the Conference adjourned.

"As an evidence of the benefits to breeders who use only the best pedigreed stock, says the Post, the sales recently made by Mr. John Makins speak for themselves. Last week he sold a handsome colt, eleven months old, by Phil Ryadyke, from his Patchen mare, to Mr. James Daly of Peterborough for the handsome sum of $125. Mr. Daly is highly pleased with his purchase and believes that he possesses a coming trotter in young Phil that will reflect credit on the great Hambletonian family to which he belongs. The colt was much admired by Peterborough horsemen.
